

Physician Wife 2101

Chapter 2101: Total Disbelief

No matter what Emily said, Nuannuan would be able to counter and refute it.

“Miss Emily, are you going to admit it yourself, or are you going to let me do it for you? If you tell me how you leaked the information and why you wanted to kill me, I’ll let you be. If you abort the child in your belly and stay away from my father from now on, this matter can end here. But if...”

Emily looked at Duke Eton sadly. Finally, she could not help but cry.

“Mr. Duke, is this good daughter you adopted? Even if I’m not married to you, I’m still pregnant with your child. This is the royal family’s bloodline, your only child!

“This vicious woman dared to ask me to abort my baby in front of you. I have a life in my tummy, a life that continues your bloodline. Why should I abort it just like that? Mr. Duke, can’t you see through her? She’s greedy and wants to inherit your property, so she framed me!”

After Emily finished speaking, she saw that everyone in the room was looking at her with a strange expression. Even the three Wu siblings had a strange expression on their faces.

Duke Eton was not bothered by her words at all. He looked at her with a strange expression like the others. After a long while, he faintly said, “Emily, I think... you’ve misunderstood something.”

Emily looked at Duke Eton with a puzzled expression, not knowing what he was going to say.

“Why do you think I said that my inheritance would be given to Sunny and Selina in the future? Do you think they’re just my adopted children? Why would the royal family engrave their names in the royal family’s genealogy, then?”

Why? She really wanted to know too.

“Because even though I used to be very rich, I spent too much money. The inheritance that my father left me was already very small. If it wasn’t for Sunny, I would have long run out of money to spend. I can credit this mansion still standing and me becoming the richest man in Luntan to Sunny was supporting me. Sunny is also very rich and has contributed a lot of money to the royal family. The royal family didn’t want to lose her, so after seeking her consent, they added her name to the genealogy. So, the rich man isn’t me, but Sunny. Even if you give birth to my child, or even ten of my children, they won’t get the right to inherit. Do you understand?”

Emily’s face slowly turned pale after hearing Duke Eton’s words.

She did not believe it!

She did not believe it at all!

How could she have been tricked like this?

She had finally met a prince, and she was about to go from Cinderella to Princess Consort.

Now, everything was different from what she imagined.

Seeing that Emily remained silent, Duke Eton said, "So I fully agree with Sunny's proposal. If you're willing to tell the truth, tell us why you leaked the information. And how did you leak it? I'll allow you to abort the child yourself, then we'll have nothing to do with each other from now on. Otherwise, you let Sunny find evidence that you harmed her, and you'll be found guilty of murdering the lady of the Duke's house, a capital crime. Even if your child gets to be born, you won't be able to see him grow up."

Chapter 2102: You Pervert!

Emily was in a terrible state.

She did not like either of those choices.

She absolutely could not accept them!

Even though Duke Eton's heart was as hard as stone right now, and he had said that he would never give the child his inheritance, she was sure that once he saw the child's soft face and sweet appearance, everything would be fine.

Now that she was pregnant, even if they knew that she committed a crime, they and the law could not do anything to her.

At this thought, Emily stretched out her neck. "I didn't leak the information! I certainly didn't want to hurt Sunny! I know that you love your two adopted daughters. How could I ever plot against them? Mr. Duke, I beg you to believe me! I really didn't do anything. I love you! I want to be Miss Sunny and Miss Selena's stepmother. I'll take care of them like they're my own children!"

"Thank you, but no need for that! I don't want a stepmother like you. And don't even think about using my name now. You and my father aren't even married yet, and you're already a stepmother. Aren't you thinking too far ahead?"

"I..."

"Since Miss Emily isn't willing to make a choice, I'll help her choose. I've always liked to use facts to get my revenge. Since Miss Emily isn't an honest person, you leave me no other choice."

After saying that, Nangong Nuannuan stood up and instructed Charles. "Escort her into the multi-purpose hall."

"Yes."

The two bodyguards did not show any mercy as they escorted her. Emily was furious and struggled with all her might. "Sunny, I'm not a criminal. You don't have the right to treat me like this!"

Nangong Nuannuan turned around and smiled at Emily. “Just ask my father. Do I have the final say in the duke’s residence?”

“Yes, you do.” Before Emily could ask herself, the duke answered in a sweet tone.

“But I’m not a criminal. What you’re doing is illegal! I can go to the police and sue you!”

“Sue me? Sue me for what?”

“You’re illegally detaining me!” Emily answered angrily. Her knowledge of the law had clearly come from some cheap novels.

“Illegally detaining? Who am I detaining? Do you guys see anything?”

The others in the room shook their heads and pretended to be blind.

Emily, “...!!!”

After entering the multi-purpose hall, Nangong Nuannuan grabbed the laptop on the table and quickly pulled up all the surveillance camera footage in the duke’s residence.

Emily’s eyes widened when she saw the scene of her eavesdropping behind a corner upstairs .

She had not noticed any surveillance cameras!

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Emily with a smile. “Why are you so surprised? Are you stupid? My father is a duke, and the Empress favors your brother. There are many people who want to kill him. The Duke’s residence is so big. How could there be no surveillance cameras around?

“Besides ordinary surveillance cameras that normal people can see, I’ve also installed tens of thousands of the most advanced surveillance technology in the world in the Duke’s residence. The entirety of the Duke’s mansion is probably covered by surveillance, with no blind spots. Even my father’s bedroom has cameras.”

Emily was completely dumbfounded. She could not help but yell, “Y-you’re a pervert!”

“Whether I’m a pervert or not is irrelevant. This is to protect my father’s life. If someone decides to be really stupid and breaks into the mansion to capture my father, I can find out who kidnapped him through the surveillance footage. It’s also a warning to all the residence’s servants to not try anything stupid, because they will definitely be caught if they do. Miss Emily, do you think you’ll be caught today?”

Chapter 2103: Please Look at the Screen

As Nangong Nuannuan spoke, several small screens popped up on the laptop’s big screen. The people present, including Chi Yang, could not see what was on the screen clearly because it had been sped up hundreds of times. Even if he looked carefully, he could not discern what was happening.

As Nangong Nuannuan scolded Emily, her eyes were focused on the screen, and her hands were constantly moving. She paused several of the screens.

By the time she finished speaking, there were only five small black screens left on the main screen.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and looked at Emily, waiting for her answer.

Emily's entire face had turned pale, but she still raised her head arrogantly, refusing to admit to her actions.

"Miss Emily, honestly, I really admire you."

Emily looked at Nangong Nuannuan, not knowing what she was admiring.

"I admire that your brain isn't even one percent as beautiful as your figure and face."

Emily, "..."

"You said that your mom died, your father married your stepmother, and you have two stepsisters. You're a typical Cinderella who's bullied by them all the time. You should have had enough of suffering! To be able to hook up with my father and have him treat you so well is a blessing from the heavens. You're not involved in the royal family's disputes. You could've remained pure and innocent. As long as you treated my father well and didn't harbor any evil thoughts toward him, my father is a very easy person to get along with. You would've definitely been able to exchange your sincerity for some rewards. You could've experienced Cinderella's happy ending of becoming a princess. Even though my father is over 40 years old, he's still handsome and charming. Not to mention that he's also extraordinarily rich! You've already made a fortune. How can you be so short-sighted?"

Emily's expression was extremely unsightly. Every sentence Nangong Nuannuan spoke reminded her of the suffering she had endured in the past.

"What do you mean?"

"Do you know why my father treats you differently? Why he treats you so well?" Nangong Nuannuan asked.

"He's said it before. He said I look like his late wife."

"That's right. You look very much like the Duchess. And it's all natural, too! That's why he treats you differently. All these years, so many have wanted to become the princess consort of the Duke's mansion. However, you're the only woman that my father's ever brought home. It's clear that his feelings for you are special. If you treated him well, he would have definitely treated you well in return. Perhaps, you might've really been able to become the princess consort of Luntan, a position every little girl dreams of."

Looking at the resentful Emily, Nangong Nuannuan continued to ask, "So, do you know why he suddenly became so cold to you?"

Emily, "..."

She had always wanted to know the answer to this question. However, no matter how hard she racked her brains, she still could never figure out what she had done wrong.

"Please look at the screen."

As soon as Nangong Nuannuan finished speaking, one of the small screens on the main screen expanded. Looking at the video playing, Emily's face instantly turned as pale as a ghost.

It was a video of her taking advantage of Duke Eton not being at home to open the condoms in his bedroom. She substituted the condoms for ones of her own that she had already prepared.

Even though the packaging was still the same, everyone knew that all the condoms inside had been swapped out.

After that, Emily put the condoms into her bag and left the room.

Chapter 2104: Desperate Times

"Miss Emily, my father is a duke. His bloodline can't be so carelessly passed down. You don't know why he suddenly stopped being so good to you? This is why. Your motives are impure. You set him up. My father is a duke! He's fought military battles... how could he not see through your little schemes?"

Emily shook her head and said pitifully to Duke Eton, "Mr. Duke, it's not like that! It's not like that!"

"If it's not like that, then what is it? You're not going to tell me that you swapped out those condoms for ones of a different brand, are you? I only use this brand of condoms, and you exchanged them for ones of the same brand. Why? Emily, a woman only has a few days a month that she can easily conceive on. Don't tell me that you just happened to change the condoms for fun, and those condoms just happened to have holes, and we just happened to use them during your ovulation period, so you just happened to get pregnant. Emily, don't think that you're the only person with a brain in this world and that everyone else is a fool." Duke Eaton retorted.

"I..." Emily shook her head as tears fell from her eyes. Her ugly thoughts now exposed, she felt ashamed.

"It's an honor to you that the Duke has taken a fancy to you. Before you met my father, you were just another Cinderella suffering under her stepmother's tyranny. Gaining the Duke's favor is the best path that God could've ever paved for you. As long as you settled down and let my father marry you, knowing my father's character, even if you couldn't inherit everything in the Duke's mansion, he would at least leave you and your son a large portion of the inheritance. And even if you and my father didn't get married, when he broke up with his two ex-girlfriends, he gave them both a lot of money, enough to feed and cloth them for the rest of their lives.

"But what about you? You haven't even settled down with my dad yet, and you're already doing all this scheming. You knew my dad wasn't going to let you get pregnant yet, so you just went ahead and set him up. If Dad didn't have me around, you'd've probably killed him and spat on his corpse by now."

Duke Eton, "..."

How could his daughter so calmly talk about his dead body?

Emily cried and shook her head. "I didn't want to do it! I didn't want to! I-I was just having a hard time. It wasn't easy for me to meet a man like the Duke, and I couldn't help myself. The Duke once took me to meet his friend, who was surprised when he saw my face and said that I looked like the deceased duchess.

"I was afraid that the Duke only liked me because of nostalgia and would soon abandon me and leave me to my old life. I was scared, so I swapped out the condoms.

"I really love the Duke! Miss Sunny, please give me another chance! I-I'll definitely treat the Duke well this time!"

"If you were just afraid of getting broken up with so you played some 'pranks' to get yourself pregnant, I could still let you go. But not only did you tamper with the condom, you also tried to kill me after you successfully got pregnant."

Chapter 2105: Dirty Bug

"Emily, I didn't have a problem with you, but you haven't even married into the Duke's residence yet, yet you still dare to harm me and send people to kill me! If you become the Duchess of the Duke's residence, what worse are you going to do to me?"

"No! No! I didn't harm you! I didn't send people to kill you! I don't even have the money to hire any mercenaries! You've misunderstood! You're falsely accusing me! I didn't do anything!" Emily shouted at the top of her lungs. She looked as if she had really been wronged.

Nangong Nuannuan sneered. "Emily, it's said that what goes around, comes around. Your stepmother mistreated you, and now it seems like you deserved that mistreatment. Or perhaps your stepmother treated you badly because you bullied her daughters, so she wanted to retaliate. Maybe that's why!

"Or maybe your stepmother didn't abuse you at all, and you just said that to ruin her reputation. You wanted people to think that you were a beautiful and pitiful Cinderella, so they'd pity you and hate your stepmother."

"No, I didn't do any of that! I didn't hurt you! And I never slandered and ruined my stepmother's reputation!"

"I'm not interested in whether you lied about your stepmother or not. I just know that you definitely sent some people to harm me."

As soon as she finished speaking, Nangong Nuannuan's slender fingers gently tapped on the screen. Something new popped up.

The first screen showed Duke Eton giving Charles a mission, telling him that Nangong Nuannuan was returning to Luntan the next day. Duke Eton told Charles the time that the plane was going to take off. As Charles listened, he asked if Duke Eton wanted him to drive the limited edition Ferrari that he had bought for Nuannuan. Duke Eton shook his head and said that Nangong Nuannuan would be bringing her fiancée and three friends, so the extended Phantom would be better.

While the two of them spoke, another video played of Emily. It had been recorded from a secret camera. She was leaning against the wall and listening intently to their conversation.

When she heard Duke Eton tell Charles to drive the extended Phantom, the corner of Emily's lips curled up into a sinister smile.

When Duke Eton saw this, there was no more room for doubt. He could only blame himself for not being able to tell who this woman truly was. She was so different from what he imagined her to be. He had never expected a woman who had only lived in his residence for a few months to have the guts to try to hurt his dear daughter.

Duke Eton was furious. He raised his hand and slapped Emily's face, knocking her expression of horror off it. Her face was crooked.

"B*tch!"

Duke Eton rarely lost his temper, but this woman was simply too vicious and infuriating.

Even though Emily knew that more evidence of her crimes was probably awaiting her, she still held onto a glimmer of hope. She instinctively defended herself. "Mr. Duke, it's not like that! I only smiled for a moment. I-I was so happy to hear about Sunny coming back! Didn't you say that as long as Miss Sunny approved of me, I could stay with you forever? So why would I want to kill Miss Sunny?"

Duke Eton felt that this woman was extremely disgusting. He angrily said, "How would I know why you wanted to kill Sunny, someone you had never even met before?! You vicious woman! You're not Cinderella, you're the dirtiest and most vicious bug in the basement sewer!"

Chapter 2106: Mystery Call

"Sunny doesn't have a problem with you, yet you want to kill her. What would you do to me if you ever got mad at me?"

At this point, Duke Eton felt his entire body turn cold.

What kind of woman had he brought into his home?

Charles watched this scene with his mouth wide open. He finally confirmed that he was indeed a fool.

Women were simply too terrifying. He could now admit that he lacked Nuannuan's shrewd gaze. If he came across another woman like this in the future, especially one interested in the duke, he would probably be responsible for his own death.

In that case...

He had better focus on his promising career as a butler.

He should not think about women!

After all, the young miss had called him a sweet fool only fit to be a butler.

"Alright, you don't have to argue anymore. Arguing won't solve the problem at hand. Did you try to kill me? Did you play a role in the assassination attempt on me today? Facts speak louder than words. If you did it, there's no use in defending yourself. If you didn't do it, there's no need for you to defend yourself."

With that, Nangong Nuannuan's hand tapped on one of the other screens. In this clip, Emily was returning to her bedroom. She took out a new phone card and a voice changer from her bag.

After making a call, a voice came from the other end of the phone. After the voice was processed, everyone could hear it.

Nangong Nuannuan was no stranger to this voice. It was Su Fei's.

"Who is this?"

"You don't have to worry about who I am. You just have to answer me. Do you have a grudge against a woman named Nangong Nuannuan?"

"Who are you? What do you want to do?" the other party asked again.

"You don't have to worry about who I am. I'm just telling you that I'm like you. I also want Nangong Nuannuan dead. We're on the same side."

The person at the other end of the line was silent for a long time before asking, "I don't know what you're talking about. I'll hang up now."

"You won't be able to kill Nangong Nuannuan in Camino. But this is Luntan. If you make a move on her, she won't be able to stop you. At 9 PM tomorrow, Nangong Nuannuan's plane will land at L City Airport. The license plate number of the car picking her up is XXXX. She'll be driven to XX Road. Before XX Road is that roundabout. There were very few people there at night. That's all I can say for now. As for what you're going to do with that information, that's up to you. I'm hanging up now."

"Wait, who are you? How did you know that I have a grudge against Nangong Nuannuan? How did you get my phone number?!" the other party shouted anxiously.

"You don't have to worry about who I am! How did I know that you had a grudge against Nangong Nuannuan? You don't have to worry about that either. I'm only telling you all this. Whether you want to take the opportunity to kill Nangong Nuannuan or not is your business. I don't care. I can only assure you that the information I've provided is accurate."

After saying that, Emily hung up. Then, she took out the card, broke it, threw it into the toilet of the bathroom, and flushed it down.

Back in real life, Emily's face was deathly pale. She knew that no matter what she said, it would be useless.

She knelt on the ground, crawled in front of Duke Eton, and attempted to hug his leg.

Charles immediately gave the bodyguards a look. They understood and immediately pulled Emily back, preventing her from touching the Duke.

"Mr. Duke, I was wrong!"

Chapter 2107: A Life Sentence

“Please! For the sake of our relationship and for the sake of our baby, spare me this time! I swear to you, I won’t dare to do it again!”

Emily cried her heart out in front of Duke Eton, but after watching those videos, he was so angry that his temples were throbbing.

He looked at Emily with disgust and said, “Emily, you know what? I was so happy when I saw that you looked like my late wife. She was a girl from an ordinary family, but she was gentle, kind, and understanding, so I married her and had two children with her. We were very much in love until she died in a car accident.

“I thought you would be like her since you two looked the same and came from the same background. If you were as gentle, kind, and understanding as she was, I would have married you. But even after I found out that you weren’t all that great, I still didn’t investigate you thoroughly. I didn’t make any malicious assumptions about you. Because I subconsciously thought that a girl who could look like you must have a kind heart.

“But Sunny hadn’t even met you yet when you tried to get her killed. Did you think that after killing her, you and your child would get all my inheritance?”

“No... No!” Emily shook her head. “I didn’t think that!”

“Then what did you think? Tell me! The two of you have absolutely no relationship with Sunny, so why did you hate her so much that you wanted to kill her? You saw the video yourself just now. You told that woman yourself that you wanted Nangong Nuannuan dead too. Explain why you wanted this girl you didn’t even know to die!”

Emily wept sadly. Her mind spun quickly, trying to find an excuse, but no matter how hard she tried, she could not find one.

It was because she really did not want Nangong Nuannuan and Selina to inherit all of the Duke’s estate. That was why she wanted to kill them.

Unfortunately, those two lived in Camino all year round. As someone without power (for the time being), she could not kill them from so far away.

However, Nangong Nuannuan was going to come back for a while. Emily wanted to kill them one by one. Selina would have to come back eventually too. When her child was born, she would have status and power, so she was going to kill Selina then

This way, her and her child would be the only heirs of the Duke’s mansion.

Those two bastard children would no longer be able to compete with her for the inheritance of the Duke’s mansion. She would be the most important woman in the world, save for Her Majesty the Empress.

That was the plan she had thought up, and that was what she had tried to carry out.

However...

Her results were completely different than expected.

When Duke Eton received news of Nangong Nuannuan's assassination attempt, he did not ask whether Nangong Nuannuan was dead or not, but whether the person who tried to kill her was still alive. When Nangong Nuannuan returned, Emily did not even say a few words to her. Now, she prostrated herself on the ground and became the most lowly person in the room.

She never thought things would get this bad.

Just how perverted was this girl, installing cameras in her own father's bedroom?

"I'm asking you a question! Answer me! Since you didn't think that, why did you try to kill Sunny?"

"Miss Emily, if you don't tell me the truth, I might guess that your reason is something worse. You might face a life sentence."

Chapter 2108: Not a Golddigger

Emily's eyes widened. She was in a sour mood. She knew that it would be easy for these people to deal with her. Killing her would be as easy as killing an ant.

Finally, her face fell like a deflated rubber ball. She collapsed to the ground.

"I-I love Mr. Duke very much. Mr. Duke is the most handsome, gentlemanly, best, most elegant, richest, and most powerful man I've ever met in my life."

"You don't have to give me so many superlatives. You can just say that I'm the richest and most powerful man that you've ever met. Continue."

Emily was so agitated by Duke Eton's words that she began to cry again. She said, "I want to leave my previous life! I want to hold onto Mr. Duke's heart. I want to live in this beautiful Duke's mansion forever and become a duchess, but I have no background and no money. Even in college, my grades weren't that good. I was afraid that the royal family would object to the Duke being with me, so I tampered with the condom.

"At first, I just wanted to be pregnant with the Duke's child and hold the key to entering the royal family. When I got pregnant, I thought that the Duke would be happy for our child. But he wasn't. He stopped liking me.

"I was very sad. I did not understand why the Duke didn't want a child. All he did was talk about you and Selina all day long.

"When my relationship was unstable, I wanted to have a child to stabilize it. But after getting pregnant, I learned that my son's inheritance was in great danger. I found out too late. The Duke had already written a will, saying that he would give you all his inheritance. Even after I kept the pregnancy for a while, he had no intention of changing his will.

"I was so sad. My child was the Duke's biological child, yet he was going to be treated unfairly. I was depressed and wanted to talk to the Duke about this, but I was afraid that he would think I was a gold digger only with him for his money, so... So I did what I did."

With that, Emily knelt on the ground and said to Duke Eton, "Mr. Duke, please spare me for the sake of our biological child! I really didn't do it for your property. I just felt wronged on our child's behalf!"

"You really didn't do it for my father's money? You just happen to like old men in their forties, and not men your own age?"

Duke Eton glared at his daughter. He was an old man?

"You really didn't do it for my father's money? That's why you set him up and got yourself pregnant? You really didn't do it for my father's money? That's why you planned to get rid of me, who was going to get the inheritance, before you got married? Miss Emily, you're a terrible liar. Never mind. Nothing you say will save you from the crime of setting up the Duke and trying to disrupt the royal bloodline. No matter how truthful you want to be now, you won't be able to change the fact that you found a murderer and tried to kill the daughter of the Duke's mansion. Miss Emily, I've given you the choice before. Leave on your own and abort the child you're carrying. But you refused."

Chapter 2109: Buffet Eavesdropping

"Now there, Miss Emily, Save your words for the police, the judge, and the Duke's lawyer."

Emily's eyes widened, her face full of fear.

"No! No! You can't do this to me! I'm still pregnant with the Duke's child! He'll be the little prince of the royal family! You can't do this to him! Your conscience shouldn't allow you to do this to an unborn child and a pregnant woman!"

Duke Eton nodded. "My conscience can't stand for it, but the law can. You've committed a crime, and you will be held responsible. Do you think that just because you're pregnant, the law can't touch you? You can still get a life sentence. Your child will be born in prison, and I'll take them away from you after you give birth."

"No!" Emily screamed. "He's my child! You don't have the right to take him away!"

"Even though he's your child, won't you be in prison? Emily, you're about to face what will probably be a life sentence. Even if your child is born, you won't be able to raise him. There are only three places he can go. He can go to heaven after being aborted, or be born and become a ward of the state, or I can take him. If I take him, though, he won't be part of the royal bloodline. He's just the living proof of your times. The royal family can not tolerate such a stain."

When Emily heard this, she felt as if she had fallen into an icy pool. She felt as if she had been frozen.

She held her head in pain and pleaded. "Please don't do this to me! Please don't be so cruel! No matter what, that's your child inside me! He's your flesh and blood! Sunny isn't your daughter. She isn't related to you at all. If you can be so good to her, why can't you let me go on the account that I'm pregnant with your baby and that the child will be born in only a few more months? I don't need my status anymore. I- I'm willing to break up with you. All I ask is that you'll let me live and give birth to this child safely!"

"No, I can't allow that!" Duke Eton rejected the option without hesitation.

"My child will have to be the product of me and his mother's love, not a bargaining chip for a woman like you. You're greedy and insatiable! If I let you go and wait for you to give birth to the child, will you live out the rest of your days quietly? You might go crazy and let the whole world know that I have an illegitimate child. You'd force the royal family to admit it."

Hearing Duke Eton's words, Emily thought that she still had a chance. Her eyes lit up, and she begged. "No, I won't do that! I definitely won't!"

"Emily, let me ask you this. How do you know Su Fei?" Nangong Nuan forgot to ask earlier. Although it was not that important, she still wanted to know.

Emily thought that she really had a chance at redemption now. She was not going to hide anything now! She needed her kin in the royal bloodline!

"Two days ago, the Duke took me to attend a charity auction. Before the auction started, there was a buffet outside. The Duke had been pestering me, so I wandered around and ended up in an isolated corner. I overheard Su Fei talking to her cousin."

Chapter 2110: Our Story Ends Here

"Her cousin, Xu Yunyun, had escaped from Camino. She seemed to have committed a crime. Xu Yunyun said that she hated Wu Pingting to death because she had gotten her family arrested. Su Fei told her that the person she hated the most was not Wu Pingting, but Nangong Nuannuan. Nangong Nuannuan was why the Xu family had been arrested. When I saw how Su Fei gritted her teeth when she talked about you and how she wished that you were dead, the idea of befriending her arose in my heart. I went to inquire about Su Fei's identity and found out that she was a relative of the Shipley family. She was a person with status and money. So, I befriended her and gave her my business card. After she found out that I was the Duke's girlfriend, she treated me with respect and exchanged cards with me. Yesterday, when I found out that you were coming, I immediately gave her a call."

"Emily, our story ends here. Take her to the police station and arrest that Su Fei as well." Eton did not want to listen anymore and ordered people to take Emily away.

"No! I don't want to go! Let me go! Eton, you can't treat me like this! You're not being fair!" She had already admitted to everything. Why did he still not want to let her leave and give birth to her child properly?

"Are you out of your mind? After doing such a disgusting thing to him, you can still say that the Duke isn't being fair to you? You're so self-righteous. Do you think that the world revolves around you? Idiot!" Wu Pingting released her rage and left Emily speechless.

Sze Lingyun poked her and told her not to talk such nonsense.

Wu Pingting then remembered that this was the Duke's residence and that the person in front of her was the Duke, whose status was second only to Her Majesty the Empress.

Duke Eton was unexpectedly amused by this. He chuckled and said, "It's okay, it's okay. Just say whatever you want. Our family isn't one that tells you that you can't speak your mind. We can say anything we want here. If you're Sunny's friends, then you're my friends as well. Honestly, after listening to her, I think she's pretty stupid too! Her brain isn't like ordinary people's, which is why she could do such a ruthless thing."

This woman's actions were so ruthless that the Duke could not imagine a normal brain being capable of coming up with such a scheme.

After dealing with Emily, Duke Eton said to Chi Yang and the Wu siblings, "Sorry for making a fool of myself."

Chi Yang had a very good impression of his father-in-law. In contrast to his cold and aloof exterior, he said, "We're all family. There's no need to treat us like guests."

Duke Eton liked his future son-in-law. He laughed and said, "Yes, yes, yes! We're all family! We won't treat each other like strangers. Nuannuan, how long do you plan to stay this time? Did you come back just to capture that Xu Yunyun?"

"Yes." Nangong Nuannuan nodded.

A hint of disappointment flashes across Duke Eton's eyes. "You'll be able to catch her tonight and take her away tomorrow. Then..."

Nangong Nuannuan walked up to Duke Eton's side, reached out, and took his arm. "Don't worry. I haven't seen you for a long time, so I have to accompany you for a few days, don't I? I'm back to capture her and also meet with the Empress. And my friends want to go to the Imperial Palace to look around and take photos."

"I'll arrange that for you immediately. We'll go to the Imperial Palace together tomorrow and stay there for a while."

"Okay."

When the three Wu siblings heard that they could stay in the Imperial Palace the following night, they were extremely happy.
