Chapter 211: Vixen

She thought about what had happened earlier. This was the first time they had ever gotten so intimate in both of her lives.

Even though she looked calm, there were a thousand emotions swirling about in her heart such that she could not control her heartbeat.

She did not expect a half-hearted kiss to have such a big effect on her heart. It also made her feel extremely happy.

When he got close to her, she almost pounced on him and tried to rub him into her blood and bones. If she did that, she could have him anywhere she goes.

The room Zhong Nuannuan walked into was the kitchen.

She noticed that there was a gutted and sliced fish in the kitchen while her favorite braised pork and the ingredients for her favorite cold chili chicken rested nearby. There was the smell of chicken coming from the already cold earthenware pot. All the dishes on the counter were her favorite foods.

He had planned to cook for her today. He was always doing things for her silently without saying anything.

“Can I help you?”

After the door was opened, Chi Yang’s icy voice sounded from outside. Anyone could hear the annoyance in his voice.

However, it was as if the person outside could not sense his coldness. Their warm and passionate voice filled the entire room.

“Aiya, didn’t I just see Director-general Chi bringing a guest home? I told Lirong after I got home, and Lirong was afraid that you wouldn’t have fruits here so she got some for you. While we’re here, we can pay you a visit.”

After that, a woman with a soft voice who sounded like she was speaking while pinching her nose said, “Big Brother Chi, I heard you were attacked. Did you get hurt? Why don’t I help you check your wounds?”

When Zhong Nuannuan heard the sound outside, she furrowed her brows and walked out.

“Our Lirong was working the night shift last night so she just came back. When she heard you were attacked, she decided to come to see you. You’re normally so busy and you always go out so early and come back so late. Now that you have a guest over, I figure you’ll be free, so you should just let her inspect your wounds.

You're still young so you can ignore small wounds. However, when you get older, the small wounds will accumulate until they have lasting effects on your body. Look at the commander-in-chief, he's now maintaining his body with medicine. I heard he was just like you when he was young and was the director-general cum instructor of the special forces team. Therefore, you should know you can't overwork your body. Lirong is worried about you, that's why we even brought the first aid kit."

Chi Yang's door was only slightly ajar as his other hand rested on the wall. He was completely blocking the duo's attempts at entering. Therefore, the duo could only use their silver tongue to try to convince Chi Yang to let them in.

Only

People say that an angry fist does not hit a smiling face. Despite Chi Yang having a bad reputation to outsiders, they had been neighbors for so long. Because of this, the mother and daughter did not feel that Chi Yang was being unreasonable, other than the fact that he was indeed a little too cold.

On the other hand, Sister-in-law Chen almost exhausted her brain trying to match her daughter with this soldier who had garnered so many achievements at such a young age.

However, a moment later, she saw a breathtakingly beautiful woman appear from behind Chi Yang.

Before this, Sister-in-law Chen only had a slight inkling of what she looked like because of the dim lit staircase. Thus, her only image of Zhong Nuannuan was that she was very young.

However, when she saw her under the light, the duo started to feel scared.

This was a vixen!

She was even more beautiful than the actresses on television!

Chapter 212: Complains

Zhong Nuannuan stopped next to Chi Yang before removing Chi Yang's hand from the wall and hugging it. After that, she leaned against Chi Yang and said flirtatiously, "Big Brother Chi Yang, are they your close friends?"

The mother-daughter duo watched the girl leaning against Chi Yang as he even wrapped his arms around her. Their actions flowed smoothly and voluntarily, so they did not look like people who were being affectionate as a result of just getting together. It looked more like the habitual gestures of an old couple. A second later, the eyes of the girl outside the door went red.

When Sister-in-law Chen saw this, she revealed her sharp and unkind side. "We're not only..."

"Not at all. I don't know them that well."

Sister-in-law Chen wanted to say that they were not just close friends. Not only were they neighbors, her husband was also Chi Yang's colleague and her daughter was the military doctor of the military base. She had bandaged Chi Yang a few times before.

However, she was shocked to core when she heard Chi Yang's reply. She did not even know how to articulate what she wanted to say to the vixen next.

"I'm sorry, I don't like strangers in my house. Take back your things, I don't need them. If I'm hurt, I'll go to the infirmary or military hospital. You don't have to worry about me."

Since they were Commander Chen's family, Chi Yang treated them extremely nicely.

However, some people did not know how to take a hint or call it quits.

aSister-in-law Chen replied unhappily, "Huh, if you don't like strangers in your house, then why did you bring a strange woman back home? This is the courtyard of the military base. How could you just bring an irrelevant person back here?"

"Director-general Chen, I don't want to lecture you, but the girl is still wearing her uniform. Is she a senior high school student? She's still underaged, and yet she knows how to seduce a man. She even seduced the most accomplished soldier in the military base. How sinister. She's definitely not a good person. Unlike our Lirong, who's a better and more appropriate match for you in terms of personality and family background. You have to know..."

"Shut up!"

Chi Yang roared, causing Chen Lirong to back away in shock. She bumped into Sister-in-law Chen who was behind her, which subsequently caused Sister-in-law Chen to yelp out in pain and stagger backward, almost falling down the stairs in the process.

"Does Commander Chen know about you two coming to my place in the middle of the night to lecture me? If he does not, I can call him and ask how the hell he disciplines his family members."

Only

After Chi Yang said this, Sister-in-law looked embarrassed while Chen Lirong was terrified. It was obvious that these two came to cause trouble behind Commander Chen's back.

"Stop knocking on my door. Or else."

After he saying that, Chi Yang slammed the door shut.

Zhong Nuannuan was upset that the man did not introduce her as his lawful fiancé and simply allowed the two to spew nonsense. Then, she saw Chi Yang's dark face as he took out a phonebook from under the coffee table. He flipped to the page of the correspondence group and then made a phone call.

When he heard voices coming from the other end, Chi Yang said coldly.

"It's me, Chi Yang. Just now, Sister-in-law Chen and Chen Lirong came to my house and rapped on my door wanting to chat with me. When I refused, they started screaming at my partner. They even called my partner an irrelevant person. They also claimed that she seduced me sinisterly and that she's not a good person.

"After that, they said Chen Lirong was the most suitable match for me. Apparently, she's an appropriate match for me and that I should know my roots. Commander Chen, is this the way your family behaves?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 213: Chi Yang's Intentions

Zhong Nuannuan listened to Chi Yang's complaints and almost laughed out loud.

Perhaps he knew that Sister-in-law Chen and Chen Lirong were afraid of Commander Chen, so he did not want to waste his time arguing with two civilians. Instead, he went directly to their 'superior'.

However, his attitude and tone did not give the other party a chance to defend themselves at all.

Still, Zhong Nuannuan felt that it was embarrassing for a grown man to get scolded like that, let alone Commander Chen, who was a high-ranking officer currently being interrogated by Chi Yang.

Zhong Nuannuan could hear a string of explanations coming from the other end of the phone. However, Chi Yang was having none of it.

"I am not close to Commander Chen, so I definitely would not be so close to your family that I am willing to start chatting about domestic problems. I can't even remember what Chen Lirong looked like until now, so there's no chance I would even know her well. Therefore, I hope Commander Chen can discipline your family properly. Next time they see me, they can pretend that they don't know me. There's no need to greet me as if we're very close. In addition to that, do not come and harass my partner. Everyone has to earn their respect. If they don't want to be respected, then don't blame me when I'm being disrespectful."

After this, Zhong Nuannuan heard a paragraph of sincere apologies coming from the other end of the phone.

"Lastly, I want to tell you, Commander Chen. My partner had passed the political investigation. She is Commander Zhong's daughter. Her identity is just and honorable.

"My marriage report was also approved by the superiors. Even though she's just a student in year 3 of senior high, since she's 18, I can marry her after she graduates from senior high. She's not someone irrelevant and she's definitely not sinister. I was the one who went after her. Therefore, I hope that there will be no more slanderous comments coming from your family about my partner again. If not, I'll sue them for ruining a serviceman's marriage and slander."

After he said that, he did not wait for Commander Chen's reply before slamming the phone shut.

Zhong Nuannuan could imagine how Commander Chen felt.

She could also imagine what would happen to Sister-in-law Chen and Chen Lirong when he got home.

However, Zhong Nuannuan felt that they deserved it.

She was not a saint, so she did not feel sorry for them at all. Not only did she not feel sorry for them, but it could also be said that she was taking pleasure in their pain.

The charming moment had been interrupted. So, even if Chi Yang wanted to continue their adventure, it would be awkward for him to bring it up.

"I saw there's a lot of things in the kitchen. Are those for the dinner that you're making me?"

Chi Yang was apologetic. "I prepared those in the afternoon. I wanted to make you dinner, but then the meeting dragged on for a little too long. I'm sorry. I can only make it for you next time."

Only

"I'm very touched by your intentions. Why do you keep apologizing to me?"

Zhong Nuannuan felt that Chi Yang's position in this relationship was very low. He was constantly afraid that she would get mad and so he was always apologizing to her.

"Are you hungry now? I saw that you didn't eat much for dinner. If you're hungry, I can make supper for you."

When Zhong Nuannuan heard that, her eyes lit up.

When they were in the canteen, she was still feeling excited. Moreover, there were a lot of soldiers eating in the canteen and they were all from the special forces team, so they would not stop making fun of the pair. In order to keep up the good image of an army wife, she tried to be lady-like and did not eat too much. Because of this, now she was really hungry.

Before she could nod, Chi Yang understood what she was thinking. He caressed her hair and said lovingly, "I'll make some for you."

After taking off his uniform and hanging it on the hanger meticulously, Chi Yang rolled up his sleeves and entered the kitchen.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 214: Small Comforts

She watched him turn on the stove, heat up the stewed chicken, and then quickly pour oil into the pot, followed by a whole plate of pork belly that was already cut into chunks.

Immediately, crackling sounds arose from inside the pot.

Chi Yang turned around and said, "You can go to watch some TV in the living room for a while, or take a shower first. It's very smoky in here so don't come in."

"I want to help you though."

"There's no need for that. I've already done all the preparations, so these dishes will be on the table very soon."

"But..."

"No buts. Be a good girl, go out and play for a while!"

Hence, before waiting for Zhong Nuannuan to finish speaking, Chi Yang pushed Zhong Nuannuan out while the oil was still burning, then closed the kitchen door to prevent the smoke from entering the living room.

Even so, the kitchen door was not closed completely, and there was still a small gap left.

When she went to the kitchen door and saw the tall and straight figure busy inside, Zhong Nuannuan felt her eyes actually become a little moist.

God loved her a lot, and allowed her to start everything all over again from the moment she fully regretted.

Zhong Nuannuan leaned against the door and smelled the oily smoke that came from inside, then remembered the saying. "Home is where the heart is."

The Zhong Family's house was not her home. That was because her heart was no longer with the Zhong Family.

Now, her heart was here with Chi Yang, so wherever Chi Yang was, that would be her home.

When she watched this tall figure who drove countless women crazy, but was only willing to focus his gaze on her, Zhong Nuannuan could not help but take out her cell phone to snap a picture of the busy figure in the kitchen through the gap.

The person in the photo was standing sideways, with a casserole pot to his left and a wok to his right. He was wearing a light green shirt, and his tall body resembled a vigorous pine tree as he held a bowl with one hand and stirred with the other. His eyes were earnestly looking at the oil in the pot, waiting to pour the eggs in once the oil was cooked.

The photo was very animated, comforting, and beautiful. Zhong Nuannuan felt that the photo looked better the longer she looked at it, and she could not help but set the photo as her cell phone's screensaver.

Chi Yang naturally knew that his fiancée was peeking at him from behind. He also knew that she was photographing him secretly. Therefore, he specially put on a nice pose for his fiancée to record.

This was probably the first photo of him his fiancée had taken!

It was not until a few minutes after Zhong Nuannuan left that a smile appeared on Chi Yang's lips.

Chi Yang was cooking in the kitchen, and Zhong Nuannuan went to his bedroom after turning on the TV.

Originally, she wanted to see if he had any clothes that needed to be washed as she could use this time to help him wash them. However, every spot she laid her eyes on looked simple and clean.

The quilt was folded into a tofu block, and a laptop was placed on the bedside table. A pen and a book was neatly placed on top of the laptop.

Only

Zhong Nuannuan knew that it was not because she was coming today that Chi Yang kept the place so clean.

It was because he was a very hygienic person himself.

After leaving the bedroom, Zhong Nuannuan began to watch TV.

She did not go to the study, After all, that was where he worked. As a commander of the special forces team, there would be some confidential items in the study, so she decided not to look at it.

Very soon, Chi Yang brought out the first dish he made.

After placing the dish on the dining table, Chi Yang deftly wiped the dining table with care.

Zhong Nuannuan got up, went into the kitchen, and took two sets of tableware. She was just about to rinse them when Chi Yang took them away.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 215: So Yummy

“Let me handle it.”

After taking away the washed dishes and placing them properly, Chi Yang pressed Zhong Nuannuan into the chair.

“You can eat first, I’ll come over after I’ve finished cooking the rest of the dishes.”

“I’ll wait for you.”

“Don’t wait for me, you can eat first if you’re hungry. I ate a lot at night, so I’m not that hungry.”

After that, Chi Yang placed a piece of chicken into Zhong Nuannuan’s bowl. He then gave her the chopsticks before heading back into the kitchen to continue his work.

Smelling the fragrant, hot and spicy aroma from the chili pepper chicken on the table, her mouth started to water.

Looking at the chicken in her bowl, Zhong Nuannuan finally could not resist anymore. She picked it up and put it into her mouth.

The texture was just right, it was chewy, but also soft. After a bite, she felt as if all the cells in her body had been stimulated and awakened by this spicy and delicious taste.

Oh my goodness...

It was delicious!

It was really delicious!

She had never thought that Chi Yang’s food would be even better than the Zhong Family’s nanny!

Besides, when she took a closer look...

Wow! The chilli pepper chicken was completely boneless!

Chi Yang was actually so careful that he removed all the bones from the chicken, such that the huge plate of chilli pepper chicken was actually full of meat!

As Zhong Nuannuan sighed, thinking to herself that she could even eat the plate itself, Chi Yang served his second dish, braised pork.

Zhong Nuannuan could not keep her eyes off the pieces of meat that sparkled and looked like crystal products whilst simultaneously exuding a rich and sweet aroma. She was not paying attention, and saliva almost dribbled out of her mouth.

A few minutes later, all the dishes were on the table.

"I allowed you to eat first, why haven't you moved your chopsticks?"

"I'm waiting for you."

Chi Yang watched Zhong Nuannuan, whose eyes glowed with green light, and his gaze filled with indulgence.

He put a piece of braised pork into Zhong Nuannuan's bowl. "Quickly eat. Try out the braised pork. How is it?"

"Okay." Zhong Nuannuan nodded, then stuffed a large piece of braised pork directly into her mouth.

Most of the oil had been boiled out of the skin and fat, so only the fragrance was left. It was fatty but not greasy, its softness was at a moderate level, and it left a lingering taste in her mouth.

"It's so yummy..."

Zhong Nuannuan felt that it was even more tasty than what a five-star chef could make.

"How did you manage to make such good dishes? Have you studied this before?"

"I've read up on it by myself during my free time, but this is my first time trying it, so it's good that you like it."

Obviously, his fiancée's happy expression while eating was his greatest motivation for studying recipes during his free time in the past.

"It's your first time trying this and it's already so delicious, does this mean that I'll even swallow my tongue in the future?"

Watching Zhong Nuannuan stand up, Chi Yang asked, "What are you doing?"

"I want to eat, I want to eat at least two large bowls of rice today!"

Chi Yang was speechless. 'There are already so many dishes, and you're still eating rice!'

This proved that Chi Yang had underestimated Zhong Nuannuan.

As he watched her finish the chilli pepper chicken, braised pork and Kung Pao chicken on the table, then whack two bowls of rice and half a pot of chicken soup like a violent wind blowing against fallen leaves, Chi Yang's worldview shifted.

Only

He knew that his fiancée was a foodie, but he did not expect her to have such a big appetite.

In truth, he was already filled with satisfaction just by watching his fiancée eat.

“Ah——”

After finishing the last mouthful of soup, Zhong Nuannuan let out a comfortable sigh, then looked at Chi Yang with admiration.

This was just... way too delicious!

‘I want to come here for free meals every day.’

As he watched Nuannuan’s satisfied gaze, Chi Yang’s eyes melted into a puddle of spring water. He could not help but reach out and squeeze her collagen-filled face before speaking in an affectionate tone...

Chapter 216: I’m Bloated

“Wait for me to finish cleaning up, and I’ll bring you out for a walk. Otherwise you won’t be able to properly digest the food after eating so much.”

After saying that, Chi Yang stood up and got ready to collect the dishes.

“Let me do it, let me do it!” Zhong Nuannuan hurriedly got up and tried to clean up the dishes.

How could she let him cook while she ate, and even let him wash the dishes after eating?

However, Zhong Nuannuan had only just stood up when Chi Yang took her hand and led her to the sofa.

After that, he lovingly touched her hair bun again.

She felt that Chi Yang had a soft spot for her bunned-up hairstyle.

When Chi Yang spoke, he had a soft expression and doting gaze. Combined with his chiseled facial features, he exuded an indescribable charm and attractiveness.

Zhong Nuannuan felt as if she had been put under a spell as she sat still on the sofa. It was not until Chi Yang cleared up the table and placed the bowls and chopsticks into the kitchen that she came back to her senses.

She was just about to head to the kitchen when Chi Yang came out again. He held a glass of lemonade in his hands and handed it to her. “The food earlier was slightly greasy, drink some lemonade and take a break.”

After that, he turned and went into the kitchen again.

Zhong Nuannuan took a sip; it was sweet and sour, and even had some grapefruit honey added into it. She did not think that the dinner was greasy, but still found this drink to be very tasty.

Subsequently, she chugged down the big glass of lemonade until it was completely empty.

Chi Yang had just entered the kitchen when he saw Zhong Nuannuan follow him in. When he saw the empty 750ml drinking glass in her hands, Chi Yang was at a loss for words.

"You've finished it?" Chi Yang could not help raising his voice. He was really afraid that his fiancée would have digestive problems after eating so much!

"Yeah." Zhong Nuannuan put the glass away, rolled up her sleeves and was about to work, but Chi Yang stopped her again at the very next moment.

"If you're bored, you can watch TV. There are books in the study as well, so you can read them if you're interested. The kitchen here is small, so it's more convenient for me to work alone."

Seeing that Chi Yang was determined not to let her wash the dishes, Zhong Nuannuan gave up.

In truth, she really liked the feeling of being spoiled by him such that he did not let her do anything.

"Then I'll watch you wash the dishes."

Compared to reading and watching TV, Zhong Nuannuan liked to look at him more. Even if it was just a boring, trivial thing like washing the dishes, she still relished watching his figure.

On the other hand, when he was being watched so intently by his fiancée, Chi Yang suddenly felt that these usually boring and trivial housework become very meaningful.

Chi Yang's movements were very quick.

Very soon, the greasy kitchen became spotless, clean and fresh under his orderly care.

After he washed his hands, Zhong Nuannuan immediately handed him a handkerchief. Chi Yang glanced at her softly and accepted her service happily.

After he wiped his hands, he saw the little bun on her head, and could not help but reach out to touch her beautifully-shaped hairdo again.

"Are you bloated?"

Only

"I'm fine."

She wanted to say that she was not bloated. In reality, if she was not going to sleep after eating, she could eat even more.

Yet in Chi Yang's mind, the little girl was embarrassed to say that she was stuffed from eating too much, and he said with a serious expression, "You can't eat so much again at night in the future, it can easily cause indigestion."

"I'm really fine." Zhong Nuannuan's expression was serious.

However, after Chi Yang glanced at her with his eyes full of unspeakable reproach, Zhong Nuannuan surrendered. "Okay, okay, I feel very bloated!"

"You can't eat and drink gluttonously like this again in the future, it's bad for your stomach."

“Then who told you to make so much good food to seduce me?”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 217: Proximity

“I made these so that you have more food types to choose from, but I never thought that you’d finish them all. I also didn’t expect you to finish two big bowls of white rice on top of that.”

‘Are you blaming me now for having a good appetite?’

Looking at her stomach that was still flat, Chi Yang was a little surprised, but he insisted. “Let’s go, I’ll accompany you out for a walk and take you around the military base compound in the process.

“Okay!”

Zhong Nuannuan happily took Chi Yang’s arm. Chi Yang glanced at it, and the corners of his lips raised imperceptibly.

The dim corridor lights created two long shadows out of the two people who held each other as they walked down it. The scene looked quiet but comforting.

When they walked to the fifth floor, Zhong Nuannuan heard the sounds of crying, beating and scolding downstairs. When they walked to the third floor, the sounds of beating and scolding became very clear.

“That woman is a vixen! She already knows how to seduce men even while studying in high school, so if she isn’t a vixen, then what is she? Apart from her vixen-like looks, which part of her is better than our Lirong? Our Lirong graduated from the Jiang District Military Medical University.”

“You’re the one who’s a vixen! If you’re not a vixen, you’re a drama queen! How did I marry a shrew like you in the first place? Chi Yang’s partner is Commander Zhong’s daughter, and Commander Zhong’s wife is from an aristocratic family in Jiang District. His daughter has already passed the political investigation, and the two of them are in an honest relationship! If you cause such unreasonable troubles, then you’re destroying a serviceman’s marriage. I won’t stop you if you want to go to jail, but don’t embarrass me in the process!”

“Pooh! Serviceman’s marriage, my foot! Are they married yet? Since they’re not married yet, why should our Lirong make a detour every time she sees him in the future? I won’t allow this to happen! I want to let that vixen know that apart from her face, she has nothing else that can compare to our Lirong!”

“Slap!”

“Chen Jianjun, did you just hit me to defend that vixen? I’ll fight you to the death!”

After that, sounds of breaking came from inside the house.

“That’s enough of you!” A young female said sharply. This was Chen Lirong’s voice.

“Why are you hitting my mother? My mother is thinking about my lifelong affairs, but what about you? As my father, you wasted all your time in the military base, yet what have you done for my mother and

I? I tell you, no matter what you say, I'll never give up on Chi Yang! I stay at the military base all day long, and the pavilion closest to the water enjoys the moonlight first. Let me see how that vixen will fight with me!"

Unexpectedly, the girl who was previously gentle and could not even speak up in front of Chi Yang had become so aggressive at this moment.

Zhong Nuannuan approached Chi Yang, then sniffed his neck and chest.

Watching her delicate nose crinkle as she spread her steamy breath on him, Chi Yang's gaze deepened slightly.

He knew how sweet her body was. When he had sexual intercourse with her that time after he was drugged, he felt like he had almost died.

Thus, at this moment, how could he withstand her flirting like this?

Only

He reached out and pushed the little girl's body away slightly. "What are you doing?"

"I'm smelling your body to see if there's any special smell on you, otherwise how could you appear so attractive to two-faced people?"

Zhong Nuannuan said this jokingly. However, what she said was not exactly nonsense.

The two double-dealers, Zhong Qianqian and Ou Mingxi, were already difficult enough to handle, yet, there was unexpectedly another one here just next door!

In her previous life, she only felt that Zhong Qianqian was annoying, but in this life, so many people were pushing her buttons.

"Then are you one of them as well?"

The sentence caught Zhong Nuannuan off guard, and caused her to almost choke on her words.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 218: Chi Yang's Wardrobe

After that, she puffed out her chest. "I'm not!"

Chi Yang looked at her arrogant and dissatisfied look, and could not help but feel like laughing. His voice softened, and replied matter-of-factly, "Still, you're by my side too."

"I'm not a two-faced white lotus though! I'm your personal pair of scissors, especially responsible for cutting them off!"<sup>1</sup>

"Do you cut off women who want to be romantic with me too?"

"Yes, if there are women like this by your side, I'll get rid of them all!"

Chi Yang was entertained, and he could not help but reach out to squeeze her delicate face. He said in an affectionate tone, "Sure, get rid of them as you please. I fully support you."

Zhong Nuannuan was just starting to feel proud when the door on the third floor was pushed open with a loud bang.

Chen Lirong ran out of it with a ferocious expression. As soon as she ran out, she bumped into Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan, who were standing on the third floor corridor.

Chen Lirong's eyes widened, and she quickly tried to hide the hideous expression on her face. However, angry Chen Jianjun's voice could still be heard from inside. "If you want to get out, get out! Go and see if Chi Yang will still fancy you!"

This time, Chen Lirong had been completely embarrassed. She instantly burst into tears before running downstairs.

Zhong Nuannuan looked toward Chi Yang with an innocent expression on her face.

She had not even started her attack yet, and she felt that the other party had already taken 10,000 damage points...

Chi Yang understood what Zhong Nuannuan was implying, and said lovingly, "Your murderous intent is too strong, and the enemy is too weak. Come on, let's go for a walk."

"Okay."

After walking around for an entire hour, Chi Yang finally brought Zhong Nuannuan home. It was already ten thirty by then.

When she returned home again, Zhong Nuannuan looked a little embarrassed.

After all, she was going to bed soon, but Chi Yang only had one bedroom and one bed.

Hence, was she supposed to sleep together with her Big Brother Chi Yang tonight? Sleep together... sleep together...?

She already felt shy just by thinking about it!

After all, throughout their six years of marriage, this was their first time sharing the same bed.

Zhong Nuannuan felt herself blushing, and did not know what she should do next.

Seeing that she was nervous, Chi Yang quickly turned the TV on before turning it back off again. "Do you have any homework for tonight?"

She had almost forgotten that she was still a student. Besides that, she was a Year 3 Senior student who was about to take her final exam.

Zhong Nuannuan shook her head. "Our school never assigns any homework—we are trusted to do our own revision."

When it came to high school seniors who were always occupied with homework, Zhong Nuannuan agreed with the style of aristocratic schools. Your future very much depended on yourself here. The teacher would provide a lot of exam papers and exercises, but it was your own choice whether or not you decided to do them.

“That’s good, but it’s already ten thirty. You should go for a bath first and rest earlier tonight.”

Zhong Nuannuan’s face flushed red again, and she nodded. “Okay.”

Chi Yang went to turn on the tap while Zhong Nuannuan quickly opened her bag and took out her change of clothes.

However, when she took out all her clothes...

Dang it!

She forgot to take her pajamas!

Only

Apart from underwear, all the clothes in the bag were supposed to be worn tomorrow. Should she wear the undershirt of her school uniform to sleep tonight?

This was depressing.

“What happened?”

Chi Yang came out after turning on the tap to see Zhong Nuannuan with an awkward expression on her face.

Zhong Nuannuan was just about to speak when Chi Yang realized what the problem was, and opened his wardrobe. “I bought you two pairs of pajamas. Have a look, which pair do you like?”

Zhong Nuannuan turned to look at the wardrobe.

The wardrobe, which was not too big, had been divided into two sections. Only a small section of the clothes inside belonged to him, all of which had been folded neatly. Most of the remaining space was supposed to be for her own clothes.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 219: Tinnitus

He had placed more clothes in this wardrobe than she had in the closet in her house.

Looking at the huge pile of items inside, Zhong Nuannuan was a little startled.

“When did you buy these?”

She had said that she would come to the military base yesterday, but he was attacked yesterday and was caught up dealing with the incident from yesterday night to early morning. How did he have the time to buy so many clothes?

"When I first learned that you were going to be released from prison, I was thinking of bringing you a set of clothes. However, I kept finding clothes that I felt were suitable for you, so I kept buying more without realizing."

"Except for the jacket that hasn't been washed yet, the other clothes have all been cleaned, so you can wear them now if you wish."

Chi Yang then took out two sets of pajamas. "Which set do you like?"

"I like them all!" Zhong Nuannuan took one of them. "I'll wear this set first."

"Okay." Chi Yang nodded. His face remained solemn, but his bright eyes were filled with relief.

He liked to see his fiancée wearing the clothes he bought! This would make him very happy, and also fill him with a sense of accomplishment.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, thank you!"

Zhong Nuannuan felt very contented.

What was family affection?

This was it!

When she returned to the Zhong Family in her previous life, she had ruined herself and Chi Yang for her family's false affection.

She even thought that family affections were full of trivial affairs like this. Even if she felt sad, she could not abandon the fact that blood was thicker than water. This bond grew to be the thing she most yearned for ever since she was abducted.

However, she now knew that family affection was built on the foundation of love. Without love, family affection was like dog crap.

Zhong Kuijun was an egoist. He could not even talk about how much he loved Zhong Qianqian, whom he had raised for 18 years, let alone his daughter who was abducted at the age of three years old.

As for Jiang Shuwan and the Jiang Family behind her... things were even more interesting. She was not even her real mother, yet she wanted to occupy her life, and in the process help her biological daughter seize the man that belonged to her. She did not kill her now just so she could draw out the person that she was hunting.

Relatives should be like Chi Yang. He was not just her lover, he also treated her like family. When she was hungry, he would want to cook for her. When he visited the mall, he could not help but buy her some clothes.

"I'm your fiancé, and in the future, I'll be the closest person to you in this world, so I ought to do everything for you."

'You have such a serious expression on your handsome, God-envious face, yet you're saying such sultry words, have you ever sympathized with my girlish heart?'

Zhong Nuannuan was extremely touched by Chi Yang's words, and she could not help but tiptoe and plant a kiss on that handsome and resolute face.

Only

Chi Yang was shocked!

He had never thought that Zhong Nuannuan would perform such a move at this time. Chi Yang stood rooted to the spot while watching Zhong Nuannuan blankly, unable to recover his composure. The heart in his chest thumped around uncontrollably as a burst of blood rushed up from the soles of his feet, suddenly pouring into to all the limbs and bones in his body. It rose to the top of his head, causing him to hear a loud bang.

After that, because of Zhong Nuannuan's kiss, Chi Yang's ears started ringing.

As she saw her Big Brother Chi Yang, who was normally steel-willed and resolute, redden from his ears to his face and neck as he stood there with a look of bewildered innocence just because she took the initiative to give him a kiss, Zhong Nuannuan felt her heart melt in a pool of affection.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, I'm going to take a bath."

After saying that, Zhong Nuannuan put on the slippers that Chi Yang bought for her and walked into the bathroom.

It was not until the bathroom door was completely closed that Chi Yang's scorching gaze was blocked and he finally came back to his senses.

Chapter 220: Enchanting Woman

This enchanting woman!

Thinking of the spot where he was kissed just now, Chi Yang could not help but raise his lips to reveal a handsome smile.

He also immediately decided not to wash his face in the shower later.

"Knock knock knock——"

There was another knock on the door.

Chi Yang frowned unhappily as he remembered Chen Lirong, who said that she wanted to win him over since she stayed closer to him. Thus, he opened the door with an ugly expression.

The moment when the door opened, the soldier who delivered the package almost got scared to death by Chi Yang's cold gaze.

"Director... Director-general, this is your parcel, which was delivered to the communication room. I was afraid that it was an important item, so I brought it to you."

Chi Yang suppressed the cold aura around him, nodded and took the parcel.

“Thank you very much.”

“It’s my job. Director-general, please rest, I won’t bother you any longer!”

After that, the soldier turned and left under Chi Yang’s gaze.

Chi Yang opened the fist-sized package and found a USB flash drive inside.

He inserted the USB flash drive into his laptop and opened it to find that it contained a video.

He clicked on it...

When he saw a familiar face looking at him with a grim expression, a cold light shone from Chi Yang’s eyes.

This person’s name was Viper, and he was the biggest mafia boss in Jiang District. He was privately involved in illegal businesses like smuggling, drug trafficking, arms trading, and human trafficking, and was also the target of his biggest goal at the Jiang District military base—— to capture Viper and destroy all the organizations under his control.

Chi Yang looked at Viper in the camera, and Viper looked back at him, as if he was an enemy who had killed his father.

Viper’s largest arms den was patronized by an enemy last night, and his weapons, which were worth over 10 billion, were all destroyed.

Not to mention, he was planning to resell these weapons for at least seven to ten times their value. In this situation, the people who had already paid their deposits would not let the matter slide so easily.

Even so, Chi Yang was very sure that this attack was not carried out by the military, so why was Viper directing his hatred toward the military?

While thinking of this, he saw Viper move. He showed the video to another person, then lay down on the seat and looked him straight in the eye. After that, he determinedly gave him three kowtows.

Chi Yang’s brows could not help but raise on his eternally unchanging and solemn face.

Only

Obviously, Viper was threatened by the other party. Although the context was not known, he had given three kowtows to the person.

However, the person who had forced Viper to kowtow obviously knew Chi Yang and wanted to befriend him, so after that person cut and edited the video, they had sent him the scene of Viper kneeling and bowing.

Viper’s power in Jiang District extended to all areas. Whether it was a small police operation or large-scale operation by the military, or even the last time their special forces team was dispatched, Viper’s group would always receive the news ahead of time. Not only did they not manage to capture the person, they even fell into the opponent’s trap.

As the places he frequented were usually filled by government officials and businessmen who were involved in collusion and bribery, he usually had reservations about speaking too loudly. As could be seen, the cost of his opponent obtaining information was more significant than just two special forces team members getting seriously injured.

However, Viper had disappeared. Ever since the sudden assault on his convoy, he had not been able to locate Viper, not even once.

Although the video was silent, Chi Yang was able to read lips. That person turned out to be the one who blew up Viper's den and destroyed tens of billions worth of his smuggled arms last night. No matter how hard Viper begged, the person still blew up the armory after Viper kowtowed to him.

The reason why he had a meeting until so late today was because he was discussing this case. After learning that Viper's den was blown up, everyone applauded, clearly happy to see this double-crossing incident.
