Chapter 221: Consequence

He did not expect a person who was more evil than Viper to send him a video like this tonight.

Who was this person?

What was his intention behind sending this video?

Chi Yang pondered this question and watched the video repeatedly. It was not until the bathroom door made a noise that Chi Yang subconsciously raised his head.

Although his fiancée was wearing a normal two-piece pajama set, and the buttons of the pajamas were well-fastened, she was surrounded by water vapor. Under the warm light, she seemed to be covered by a layer of faint light at that moment. With her delicate face and wet hair, she looked like a fairy who had just stepped out of a lake.

Chi Yang zoned out for a bit before shutting his laptop and standing up.

“You’re done showering?”

The voice was so hoarse that even he did not want to admit it.

“Yes. Big Brother Chi Yang, you should go for your shower too.”

“I’m not in a hurry, I’ll help you dry your hair first.”

After speaking, Chi Yang took out a hair dryer from the bathroom cabinet. He took off the bath towel and put it on her shoulders, then held her hand, led her to the sofa and sat her down.

“You can go for your shower, I’ll just dry myself.”

“It’s not convenient for you to dry your hair by yourself, let me help you.” After saying this, his hands moved around and started to blow dry his fiancée’s hair.

He especially liked her long, straight, smooth and soft hair. Every time he saw it, he could not help but want to touch it.

Chi Yang gently stroked her hair like a baby. He also checked the temperature of the hair dryer on the back of his hands first. Only after making sure that it was not hot did he remove it and aim it at her hair.

Zhong Nuannuan sat in a precarious position at first, but as time went by, she could not help but feel lazy. She removed her shoes, curled up in a corner of the sofa like a cat, and felt Chi Yang’s warm and dry hands wandering through her hair. Her eyes could not help but squint comfortably throughout this.

Suddenly, her gaze landed on the USB flash drive inserted in the laptop, and a smile appeared in her eyes.

This was her man, and nobody could bully him!

If anyone made him angry, she would ask for a payback a hundred times, no, a thousand times more.

After blow drying her hair, Chi Yang brought Zhong Nuannuan into the bedroom. Before she regained her composure, he made her sit on the bed, and then bent down to help her remove the slippers from her feet and put her legs up. After that, he pulled the quilt open and covered her with it.

"It's already past 11 o'clock, and you still have to go to school tomorrow, so go to bed first."

"What about you? Are you busy?"

"Not anymore. I'll also go to sleep after taking a shower, then I'll sleep on the sofa outside."

After saying that, Chi Yang sat on the edge of the bed and tucked in the quilt corners for Zhong Nuannuan. "Will it be cold at night if the quilt is this thin?"

He felt that the quilt's thickness was suitable for him, but it was more thin than normal. Thus, he quickly opened his wardrobe and took a military coat out of it.

Only

"Here's a military coat. I'll place it at the foot of the bed, if you feel cold, you can use it to cover yourself first. I'll get someone to buy quilts and pillows tomorrow, so can you put up with this for today?"

"Yes, I can, but if you're sleeping on the sofa, what will you use to cover yourself?"

"I still have a coat, so don't worry about me."

Chi Yang held onto Zhong Nuannuan's shoulders, and with a gentle push, Zhong Nuannuan's body slid down. The pillow had already been prepared, so when Zhong Nuannuan came back to her senses, she was already lying down.

"Sleep well, I'm going to take my shower now."

"Okay." Zhong Nuannuan nodded obediently as she stared at him intently.

Under Zhong Nuannuan's gaze, Chi Yang's body went stiff.

Chapter 222: Saving Chi Yang

As he stared at the girl who was obedient and lazy like a cat, especially under the gaze of her watery, bewitching eyes, Chi Yang felt that his willpower, which he was normally so proud of, completely disappear.

Finally, he stood up stiffly and ran into the bathroom like an army deserter.

It was not until the icy cold water had poured onto every inch of his skin and awakened every nerve in his body that he awoke from his charming dream.

The first thing that came to his mind after recovering was that he did not take any change of clothes with him.

There was normally only one bath towel in the bathroom. As Nuannuan's hair was wet earlier, and he was afraid that it would wet her clothes and make it damp, he brought the bath towel out to cover her shoulders. Thus, at this moment, the bath towel was still in the living room.

Faced with this predicament, he pulled off a face towel and tried to cover his private parts with it.

It was not long enough.

"Rip——"

He effortlessly tore the face towel into half with his bare hands, then used two clips in the bathroom to seamlessly connect the two halves of the towel, and tried to cover himself again.

Chi Yang was taken aback!

It happened to form a circle, but there was no way to tie it. Moreover, the face towel was already not wide to begin with, but after it was torn into half like this, it became even shorter. It could not cover either his front or back.

He could not go out with half of his privates exposed!

Chi Yang became unhappy.

He did not want Nuannuan to get the items for him. After all, this was his fiancée's first time coming over. He needed to leave her with a good, gentlemanly impression, so that she would not dislike this place and would be willing to live here in the future.

If he asked such a flirtatious request during her first stay here, he was afraid that he might scare his fiancée. After all, his little girl was like a small, white rabbit.

However, if he did not ask her for help and went out with the towel around his waist, would he not be branded as a pervert by his little girl?

In the end, director-general Chi decided not to go out. He would stay in the shower until she fell asleep, then exit quietly.

Zhong Nuannuan waited for a long time, but still did not see Chi Yang come out.

They had been husband and wife for six years in their previous lives. Although they did not spend much time together, and never shared the same bed, she still knew Chi Yang's basic habits.

This was a resolute and iron-willed soldier, and he did things in a sweeping manner. Even at home, his bath time was never longer than five minutes.

Only

However, 10 minutes have passed by now, but Chi Yang has not come out yet. Furthermore, apart from the sound of water in the bathroom, it was quiet, and it did not seem like he was showering at all.

She suddenly recalled a similar incident in the past. Chi Yang did not come out after taking a long shower, yet she did not care about it and had gone out. Later, her family kept calling her, but she did not answer the calls either. As a result, she only learned after returning home that night that Chi Yang had fainted in the bathroom due to an intracranial hemorrhage, and was rushed to the hospital for a third craniotomy.

Thinking of this, the neurons in Zhong Nuannuan's brain snapped to attention, and she got up suddenly. She did not even take the time to put on her slippers and simply rushed to the bathroom barefoot.

During the panic, she forgot that they had just got together in this life, and forgot that they were not a couple who were married for six years...

In short, she had forgotten everything, and even skipped the process of knocking or shouting at the door. With her bare hands, she used a karate chop to knock down the weak door lock.

Chi Yang sat naked on a small bench while reading. He heard the footsteps of Nuannuan running over, and raised his head, about to ask her what she needed. However, the lock on the bathroom door was knocked off without warning, sending to flying into his forehead.

After being treated so roughly and violently, the frosted glass door hit the wall behind it with a loud bang.

Chapter 223: Fiancee Strikes Out

As he watched his fiancée suddenly go berserk, Chi Yang was startled!

When Zhong Nuannuan saw Chi Yang reading military magazines and sitting on the bench while letting the water run beside him, she was shocked too!

"What happened?"

Chi Yang put the book away and quickly stood up.

Zhong Nuannuan saw that something was dangling in front of her due to him suddenly standing up, and she was flabbergasted!

When he saw his fiancée looking as if she had seen a ghost, Chi Yang finally came back to his senses. A bang went off in his head, and he quickly used the book to cover his nether regions. His eternally unchanged serious face still maintained a solemn expression, but its color had changed from wheat to maroon.

"Cough cough..."

She had never thought that she would meet Lil Yang under such circumstances, and Zhong Nuannuan coughed awkwardly. "Take your time with your reading."

After that, she tried to shut the door.

However, she had already blown off the lock, how could the door be closed?

Zhong Nuannuan had just closed the door, but because the hit had been too powerful earlier, there was a problem with the door frame. Thus, the door creaked open again.

It did not stop until it hit the wall behind her.

Chi Yang, who had just lowered the book with relief, and Zhong Nuannuan, who once again was staring at Lil Yang, were lost for words.

Chi Yang's unchanging, serious face was finally broken by Zhong Nuannuan, and his face filled with embarrassment. He quickly used his hands to cover himself, then picked up the book again to shield himself.

At this moment, Zhong Nuannuan's face was also flushed red.

Oh my goodness!

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry! I really didn't mean it.

"I, I... I saw that you kept staying in the bathroom and didn't come out for some time, and the sounds of water didn't seem like you were taking a shower. You... Didn't you say that you had problems with headaches before, so I thought that something bad had happened to you. I, I, I... I didn't mean to smash the door on purpose, I... I forgot that I should've knocked on the door before entering. I... I should've called out for you before I broke in... I used to farm in the mountains and had great strength, so I smashed the door in a hurry."

Zhong Nuannuan felt that she had never been so embarrassed in her entire life.

As he saw his red-faced fiancée, whose small head was almost smoking, Chi Yang calmed down instantly. Especially after hearing the reason why she broke in—his gaze immediately softened into a pool of water.

"Don't blame yourself, blame me. I was the one who made you worry. It won't happen again."

Seeing her still keeping her head lowered and not speaking, Chi Yang exclaimed, "Nuannuan..."

"Yes?"

Zhong Nuannuan heard him calling out to her and raised her head, wanting to look into his eyes. However, she locked onto his strong and well-defined chest muscles, then found herself unable to redirect her gaze. No matter where she turned, eventually, her gaze would return to his sexy damp pecs.

Zhong Nuannuan was so embarrassed that she wanted to poke out her eyeballs, and then get rid of these useless organs that refused to listen to her brain's instructions!

Only

The gaze of Chi Yang's fiancée, which was erratic as they repeatedly fell on his chest, delighted him, and he waited for a while before speaking quietly.

"I forgot my bath towel and left it on the sofa, and I didn't take any change of clothes either. I wanted to wait until you fell asleep before coming out, but since you found out anyway... Cough, can you help me get the bath towel and a set of clothes to change into?"

"Okay, sure, sure, sure! I'll get it right away."

Zhong Nuannuan was almost about to spit blood out of embarrassment. She quickly turned around and walked out.

After that, she turned back to look at Chi Yang, who was covering Lil Yang with the military magazine. "Where is your change of clothes?"

Chi Yang could not help but raise the corners of his lips and say with a gentle gaze. "It's in the closet next to you."

"Oh! Right!"

Chapter 224: Chi Yang's Medicine

Zhong Nuannuan did not dare look in Chi Yang's direction at all, so she quickly searched for a long-sleeved shirt with a pair of loose pants and gave it to him.

When Chi Yang caught it with one hand, Zhong Nuannuan had already turned to enter the bedroom, covering herself with the quilt. After a glance at his wife who was covering herself tightly in the bedroom, Chi Yang faced beamed. He took a look at the clothes...

These were the clothes he bought for her! But he found no briefs! How was he supposed to dress up? Even so, his wife was shy and blushing so much it almost rang the fire alarm... He could not ask for her help anymore..

In the end, Chi Yang could only wrap the long T-shirt around his waist, head to the bedroom to get the clothes to change into, and then go to the bathroom to get dressed.

After getting dressed, Chi Yang went to the kitchen to heat two glasses of milk before bringing it to the bedroom.

"Nuannuan, drink up this milk before going to bed."

"Okay."

Zhong Nuannuan almost got suffocated. Hearing his voice, she quickly sat up and gasped for air.

At this moment, he had changed from his strict army pants and rigid army shirt to white casual clothes. His whole person was bright as the moon, without much fortitude, and a bit more refined and handsome.

The clear minty breath mixed with the refreshing soapy scent lingered around her nose. It smelt good that she felt that her nose was about to get pregnant.

His facial features were sharp and angular, like an art piece, while his nose bridge was as tall as the mountain, with a sculptural beauty. At the same time, his deep eyes no longer showed the arrogant indifference he normally displayed to the rest of the world, but was instead full of the pampering affection that she was familiar with.

Being watched so tenderly, Zhong Nuannuan felt embarrassed and trembled slightly.

Yes, this was her man! This man belonged to her from the inside out. There was no need to think about it, just touch it!

Why was she so embarrassed?

She reached out for milk, pretending to be calm, quickly to finish it. Chi Yang held the cup as she was halfway done with the drink, then her hand.

“Drink slowly.”

After watching her eat so much during dinner and now finishing this whole glass of milk, Chi Yang was really afraid that she would not be able to sleep well as she would be bloated.

“...” Zhong Nuannuan glanced at Chi Yang faintly and nodded unnaturally. “Okay.”

Seeing that she had slowed down her milk drinking, Chi Yang began to drink from his cup as well.

After drinking two sips to moisturize his throat, he opened the drawer of the bedside table, took out a medicine bottle from it, and poured out five pills.

Only

When he was about to take his medication, Zhong Nuannuan held his hand.

“Brother Chi Yang, what medication are you taking?”

Although she asked this, Zhong Nuannuan knew very well that Chi Yang was taking sleeping pills.

Moreover, it was the powerful sleeping pills that Sab had just developed and released to the market last year.

For insomniacs, they usually only required half a capsule of the newly-developed medicine to sleep. When she was in Sab, she had seen people taking this medicine as a normal sleeping pill; they took three pills and then ending up going to the hospital for an infusion the next day while unconscious.

Therefore, in Sab, if there was not a special reason for it, this medicine would have been banned from being sold to patients. Under normal circumstances, they would have to go to the hospital with a prescription. Additionally, the purchase of the medicine was limited to 10 tablets during each visit.

Looking at the five pills that Chi Yang had poured out, and then at the small half bottle of medicine left, it was obviously not the first time he had taken such a large dose.

Chapter 225: Massage

Others who had eaten three capsules would have been sent to the hospital for an infusion, yet, he was still full of energy after taking five capsules every day. Even if she considered the possibility that his illness had not fully flared up at this moment and that it was merely at the stage of insomnia, his insomnia had become very serious.

“This is a sleeping pill,” Chi Yang confessed truthfully.

“Why did you take so many sleeping pills? Will there not be any side effects if you take them like this? Like, not being able to concentrate, dizziness, nausea or vomiting?”

Chi Yang was silent for a moment, then explained after carefully selecting his words. “I am in the special forces and often participate in some dangerous missions. To prevent the leaking of any confidential info if captured, everyone in the team has to undergo drug resistance training during our training sessions. Hence, a small amount of sleeping pills has no effect on me.

“You don’t have to worry. I followed the doctor’s instructions for these doses and it will not have any negative effect on my body.”

The drug resistance training was not only targeted at special forces, but also toward those who had high risk jobs, such as the assassins and hired soldiers.

However, even for them, when faced with such strong psychotropic drugs, five pills a day was still considered unnecessary.

As was the case for her friend Feng Shengxuan. Although she had insomnia and also took these types of sleeping pills as well, he would only take two pills at max daily, sometimes using only one pill.

Hence, it was obvious that Chi Yang’s insomnia was really serious.

Zhong Nuannuan’s heart ached for Chi Yang, but she could not express herself through words.

“Brother Chi Yang, if that’s the case, you should only take two pills for now. Then, lie down and I will give you some acupuncture.”

Chi Yang wanted to say that it would be of no use on him. Because his willpower was so strong, even a world-class hypnotist would not have an effect on him. His family had already tried things like acupuncture during the early stages, but to no avail.

However, this was still a suggestion from his girlfriend, and when it came to her, he would never reject her suggestions so as long as it did not go against his own principles. Moreover, his girlfriend was a professional acupuncturist.

“Alright.”

Chi Yang put back three pills and ate the two, swallowing them with milk.

“Brother Chi Yang, milk has the ability to undo medicinal effects. Next time you take medicines, it would be best to take them with water.”

“Alright.”

After he said this, Chi Yang laid down on the bed as per Zhong Nuannuan’s request.

“I will give you a massage first, then start the acupuncture session after.”

Only

Chi Yang held his head up and rejected her, “No, it is almost 12am now. You have class tomorrow morning at 8.30am and have to get ready to leave by 7am. You must sleep before 12am.”

“There is no need. My sleep schedule is good, so it will be sufficient for me to sleep 5 hours everyday. You did not know about this, but when I was at home, I woke up around 6.30am everyday, and slept at around 1am at night.”

Chi Yang furrowed his brows. “No can do, you are a student, so academics should be your priority. Such little rest is not even near enough for you.”

“Then, 12.30am! I will definitely sleep by 12.30am! Even if you really force me to sleep earlier, I will still not be able to do so, so we might as well talk for a while. And since we will not sleep when we are talking, then let me give you some acupuncture while we’re at it. 15 minutes of massage, half an hour of acupuncture. Right on time at 12.30am!” Zhong Nuannuan tried to bargain with Chi Yang.

Chi Yang looked at her clear eyes and confirmed that she still did not feel sleepy at all. Only then did he nod. “Fine, 12.30am then. But, you must sleep when the time arrives.”

“Okay.”

Looking at his little girlfriend’s gentle and warm expression, Chi Yang’s heart warmed up.

Chapter 226: A Wife’s Service

He felt that his Nuannuan was just like a kitten. When she did not accept you, one would only be an insignificant sh*t-shoveling officer in her eyes no matter how much they offered her. That person would never look good in her eyes as she would treat them like common filth.

However, if she decided to accept you, she would be very gentle and clingy towards you, and would become your little assistant, following you wherever you go.

After Zhong Nuannuan had obtained Chi Yang’s permission, she went to get the silver needles happily. Then, she came back and looked at Chi Yang with a smiling face. Her fluttering eyelashes were like a thick and soft cat’s tail, lightly brushing against Chi Yang’s heart, causing it to tingle uncontrollably.

“Brother Chi Yang, lie down, I’ll give you a massage to start.”

“Okay.”

Chi Yang was impressed by his little wife’s massaging skills.

His personal doctor was a professor, but he dared to say objectively that the massage technique of his little wife was much more soothing than the doctor’s.

Sure enough, when Zhong Nuannuan had only put two fingers on different parts on his head and started the initial kneading, Chi Yang could already not help but to let out a sigh of comfort.

Chi Yang felt a little embarrassed when he heard such an erotic sound coming from him. Thus, he cleared his throat and coughed.

Zhong Nuannuan’s expression was filled with warmth.

“Brother Chi Yang, was that nice?”

“Yes, it was very nice. Nuannuan, you’re very skilled.” Chi Yang could not help but close his eyes.

This was really soothing!

Whenever he did not get to rest well for a long period of time, his whole head would throb with pain, as if it was about to burst.

Over the past two days, there had been the explosion attack, as well as the attack on Viper’s secret base at the hands of others. Hence, he had been so busy, to the point that his head had started aching.

At this moment, as his temples were about to be massaged by his little girlfriend with a special finger technique, his entire head instantly felt sore.

Nevertheless, his little girlfriend seemed to know all those painful points, so she pressed down exactly on those points every time with just the right amount of pressure.

It was just a simple pressing action, but it was way more effective than a half-hour full-head massage.

“I am glad that brother Chi Yang likes it. Stop talking, just close your eyes and don’t think about anything.”

Chi Yang listened to Zhong Nuannuan’s words. He then calmed his self and comfortably enjoyed the caring service by his girlfriend.

He felt that his head had never been so relaxed.

After just five minutes of this incredible stress relief, Chi Yang felt his head change from experiencing a dull pain, to swelling pain, and finally to soreness.

Only

After the pain disappeared, the soreness made him feel so comfortable that even his consciousness became a little hollow.

Seeing that he was enjoying the massage, Zhong Nuannuan secretly increased the 15 minutes massage to 30 minutes.

It was not until the moment that he felt something pierce into his head that Chi Yang’s eyes finally flung open. He instantly realized that he had almost fallen asleep under his girlfriend’s soothing touch.

Although he was still conscious, the 15 minutes of rest just now had made him feel a lot lighter at this moment.

“I’m starting your acupuncture. Close your eyes and stop talking.”

His girlfriend’s voice was very, very soft. Although needles were pierced into his head nonstop, at this moment, Chi Yang felt relaxed like never before.

Now he knew why Uncle Leng, who was previously so afraid of needles, had looked like he was enjoying himself. When the needles were stuck into his head, he actually felt a torrent of heat in his brain, as a warm wave was slowly and gently washing through every clogged blood vessel in his head.

Chapter 227: Fallen Asleep

Chi Yang was so comfortable that he did not even want to open his eyes, let alone say anything.

By the time Zhong Nuannuan had inserted all the needles into Chi Yang's head, Chi Yang was already asleep.

Afraid that he might catch a cold, Zhong Nuannuan covered him with a quilt.

She had been watching his head carefully with her supernatural ability of precision observation since she started massaging him.

After undergoing two craniotomy operations, in addition to the injury he received during the previous incident, there were minute blood clots in dozens of the small blood vessels throughout his brain, which was the direct cause of his headache.

There were 100 billion brain cells in the human brain, and with her current mental strength, she could not see the cells at all, let alone the neurons that were much smaller than normal cells. Thus, she had no way of knowing whether it was the gunshot wound from before, or his inherent illness that damaged his brain cells, thus causing his serious illness later on.

Even so, at least she could see every blood vessel in his head clearly. Although it took more effort, as long as the blood that had accumulated in these blood vessels were cleared, his headache and insomnia would improve.

Using her supernatural ability of precision observation for half an hour was also a test of Zhong Nuannuan's mental strength. After all, there were too many blood vessels in the brain; this was too small and too detailed to look at. The point was, she could not rest in the middle of this procedure and had to pay close attention to how these clots changed under the acupuncture process.

In this manner, after waiting for half an hour for the acupuncture to end, Zhong Nuannuan felt top-heavy. She shook her head vigorously.

Hence, Zhong Nuannuan gently pulled the needles from Chi Yang's head, threw them into the trash can, and then laid down.

The severe exertion made her feel as if the sky was spinning.

After laying down, although she had kept a certain distance from him, Zhong Nuannuan felt relieved when she smelled the distinctly clear scent, and soon fell into the dark of sleep.

When the first rays of morning sunlight shone through the window lattice, Chi Yang opened his eyes.

As his eyes focused, clear as crystal, he noticed that there were no longer the bloodshot mottles from before.

When he turned to look at the rays of sunlight rising from the blue sky outside the window, Chi Yang's mind was sluggish for a moment.

Then, he immediately remembered something very, very, very important——

The daughter-in-law of his family had slept by his side yesterday!

The moment he thought of it, Chi Yang was going to turn his head to look to his side. Just then, he felt something on the pit of his stomach move softly. Chi Yang felt his brain burst while his whole body went stiff as he froze in place.

For fear of disturbing the person beside him, he slowly turned his head after a while, all the while being careful not to disturb the other party.

Only

As he saw his hand outstretched, and that his family's daughter-in-law was also curled up into a ball next to him, he quietly nestled her into his arms, with her head resting on his arm, her face resting on his neck, and one hand under his arm and the other on the pit of his stomach.

He laid there for a long time, enjoying the sweet warmth that seemed to tickle his neck. After this happened a few times, Chi Yang raised his head to look at her.

His eyebrows twitched uncontrollably at the gentle face beside him.

This person was really a hindrance to waking up early!

He was usually so restrained and indifferent to everyone, but it now seemed that this particular temptation was too great.

Fortunately for him, he had a good eye and had fallen in love with this little wife.

Staring at Zhong Nuannuan, Chi Yang's eyes softened into a pool of spring water.

Chapter 228: Think Carefully

The porcelain, white as snow skin that was breakable just by simply blowing or playing with it, was a faceful of collagen covered with a layer of lovely fluff. The facial features were exquisite and beautiful to the extreme. The long hair like seaweed spread on his body, between the bed, even if they were still asleep, it also gave people a fresh and amazing feeling.

They had forgotten to close the curtains before going to bed last night and at this moment, the fine morning breeze blew in from the gap at the window, blowing up the soft hair and sweeping it on his neck, causing waves of itching.

Seeing the delicate and tender peach of immortality right in front of him and in his arms, exuding bursts of fragrance, he could only shut his mouth as he could not eat...

This feeling was simply tougher than endurance training.

Suddenly, the person in his arms moved. She, who had been quietly nestled in his arms, had now comfortably put her legs on his body, and her small head moved quickly to his chest, body also moving slightly. This whole person was leaning on him like an octopus.

Chi Yang's bit his alveolar, holding back.

He had thought this was already the limit and was working to endure it until it passed, but the cat-like person of his sleep was constantly twisting in a daze.

Chi Yang felt himself sweating.

Seeing that the little girl was about to wake up, Chi Yang quickly moved his body a little bit without leaving any signs, giving her a comfortable position where she could hug.

Seeing that she had smashed her mouth and was again steadily asleep, he felt relieved.

Chi Yang stretched his not-slept-on hand to the bedside table, an invisible force extending along the bedside table to the wall and the window.

Then, the curtain, which was originally opened, started to close slowly under the drive of this force, until the light outside was completely blocked.

The girl who was still on the verge of awakening, had now fallen asleep again.

After that, Chi Yang kept looking at the little wife who was lying on him.

Although his little wife's face was on his chest, all he could see was the long algae-like hair, but he just thought it was pretty.

The sight was so good looking that he wondered if his little wife was just that beautiful, that flowers would from her head with a "pop" when she fell asleep.

At six o'clock, Zhong Nuannuan's biological clock woke her up on time.

Before waking up completely, her brows were already furrowed.

She liked to sleep on soft beds, not hard beds. But today the bed was too hard and it made her feel pain.

Her consciousness still in chaos, Zhong Nuannuan stretched out and was about to roll around, but then fell off immediately.

Although she only fell from on top of Chi Yang to the bed, the sudden free fall still made Zhong Nuannuan recover suddenly as she hugged Chi Yang quickly.

At this moment, Zhong Nuannuan's consciousness was completely clear.

But when she saw herself being like an octopus, hugging her brother Chi Yang with both her hands and feet, she was embarrassed.

It was clear that they had been husband and wife for six years in their previous life, but they had never been so close. At this moment, the two embraced each other, no, she woke up holding him and everything was so beautiful.

He was glancing at her who still had tightly closed eyes and was breathing evenly, but when she suddenly hugged him hard, Zhong Nuannuan's eyebrows were full of happy smiles.

It felt good to see them by their side when they woke up.

Seeing that Chi Yang had not properly woken up, Zhong Nuannuan did not want to get off him, so she laid on him comfortably. After a while, she moved her position slightly and pressed her ears to where his heart was.

Ba dump, ba dump, ba dump...

Listening to the strong heartbeat in his chest, Zhong Nuannuan's lips could not help but rise into a happy smile.

Having been abducted and sold into such a dark world, she had crawled out of the bones with her abilities and established her own kingdom.

Obviously, she had missed this peerless good man, but she could in that regret filled moment to make everything restart again.

She felt that she really had an open life.

And this strong and powerful heartbeat was the bell that rang in a new chapter in her life.

Just like a cat lying on Chi Yang's heart and listening to his heartbeat for nearly 10 minutes, Zhong Nuannuan raised her head happily and looked at his sleeping face.

The black hair soaked in darkness, the nose that was as tall as a mountain, eye sockets deep as the sea, thin lips that were slightly pursed, and the firm chin...

These good-looking facial features were perfect and had no boring blemishes that even a strand of hair would be the creator's favorite.

Looking at such good-looking facial features, Zhong Nuannuan had long forgotten that this man was a special forces soldier among the special forces, even more so the chief instructor of said special forces, and that he was recognized as the "god of death."

At this moment, she just wanted to quietly get herself some small welfare while he was still asleep.

So, she could not help reaching out her hand and gently touching his long, thick eyelashes.

The black and long eyelashes swept across the fingertips, ticklish.

After touching his eyelashes, she touched his nose. After touching his nose... Seeing the slightly pursed thin lips, Zhong Nuannuan had a little thought.

This idea came into being and she did just that.

He was asleep anyway. He took two sleeping pills and gave him acupuncture. He definitely would not be waking up that early.

So, when Chi Yang's already about to lose control, he was kissed by his Nuannuan.

Finally, under Zhong Nuannuan's ruthless mischief that did not allow himself to leave in any way, Chi Yang moved.

At this moment, Zhong Nuannuan's spirit returned from her sleep.

What the heck...

What did she do?

F*ck!

Seeing that Chi Yang was about to wake up, Zhong Nuannuan kicked his feet warmly. She groaned, and turned over, then turned her back to Chi Yang while breathing out a long, well-proportioned breath.

Chi Yang's eyes were full of smiles.

He understood that this little girl liked him!

She could kiss him secretly, so he also wanted to do it!

So, Chi Yang gently kissed the face full of collagen.

After being kissed by Chi Yang all of a sudden, Zhong Nuannuan felt from where she was kissed on her face, an electric current instantly sweeping through her body and hitting her heart. Her breathing was a bit messy and her body became stiff.

She thought he knew what she had just done and was about to pretend to wake up again but then she felt the bed becoming lighter as he got out of bed.

Now Zhong Nuannuan woke up embarrassedly, putting herself in the quilt. Leaving only her two nostrils exposed, she closed her eyes tightly, and continued to pretend to sleep.

Chi Yang quickly finished washing up after getting up and then went into the kitchen.

Listening to the sound of oil splattering from the kitchen and the scent of eggs, Zhong Nuannuan's appetite was whetted immediately, quickly got up, and ran to the bathroom to clean herself.

After changing her clothes and coming out, there was already a large table full of rich breakfast.

Chi Yang came out with a plate of scrambled eggs with tomatoes and when he saw Zhong Nuannuan, his eyes were full of indulging smiles.

"You're awake."

"Yeah," Zhong Nuannuan nodded, a little embarrassed. She always felt that Chi Yang's gaze was a bit strange.

"Come and eat. I have arranged for the driver to take you to school at 7:10am."

"Okay."

Zhong Nuannuan sat down and the knife, fork, chopsticks, and spoon were already placed in front of her.

"Time is tight so there was no time to steam the buns or make a few more dishes. Let's eat. When you come over again in a few days, I will steam buns for you in the morning."

"It's already rich enough!"

Looking at this table with milk and cereals, nuts, fried eggs, grilled sausages, a plate of scrambled eggs with tomatoes, and a big bag of bread, Zhong Nuannuan's stomach was already groaning with hunger.

"Do you want the bread toasted?"

"No, it's okay."

"I will toast a slice for you and you can also eat a slice of white bread to see which tastes more delicious."

"It is good."

"There is jam here."

For jams, her favorites were blueberry, strawberry and orange and Chi Yang understood her preferences very clearly.

"I did acupuncture yesterday, does your head feel better today?"

Chi Yang nodded. "It's better! Not only does my head no longer hurt, but my sleep was also much better. Last night was the best night I've slept in these recent years."

Since the accident at his house when he was the age of eight, he had not been able to fall asleep much. At first, the family hired a hypnotist for him because of his young age, but then he joined the campaign office. There was no way for the place to be like home, so his sleep quality deteriorated.

Fortunately, a new drug was developed in Sab, and things got better during this time.

Even so, taking five strong sleeping pills could only ensure that he slept for four hours every day. Besides that, as time went on, the medicine's efficacy had begun to decline over the past two months, such that he would be satisfied if he got just three hours of sleep daily.

However, he only had two pills last night, but slept for five hours without a hitch. This had not happened to him for many years.

It was also due to these five hours of high-quality sleep that he felt refreshed, and his body also felt much more relaxed.

Zhong Nuannuan did not know about these things, so she was not aware of the amazement and happiness in Chi Yang's heart at that moment. She only felt sorry for him when she heard him say that he had not slept like this for many years.

After a moment of silence, she replied, "I won't stay in school then, let me come over to give you acupuncture and massages every day so that you can sleep better."

"There's no need for that. Usually when you don't come over to the military base, I'll come to the city to look for you so long as I'm free. Did you forget that I told you I've bought a house near your school as an investment property? So, I'll just come to you whenever I'm free."

"Okay." Zhong Nuannuan nodded, hoping that her life could be like this every day.

The both of them continued to eat breakfast, but Zhong Nuannuan kept sensing Chi Yang's scorching gaze on her. She finally felt too embarrassed by his stare, and coughed awkwardly. "What's up?"

"Nuannuan, thank you."

Chi Yang expressed his gratitude very solemnly, and Zhong Nuannuan felt shy again after hearing it.

"What are you talking about? Aren't you my fiancé?"

"Yes."

"If so, why are you treating me like an outsider?"

Aiden and the others would never thank her.

Chi Yang could not help but laugh softly, the deep voice that came from his thick chest sounding as deep and melodious as a cello.

"Okay, I won't regard you as an outsider anymore."

The breakfast was finished in a heartwarming atmosphere.

Chi Yang helped her pack her things up, then sent her to the doorway. Zhong Nuannuan thought that the bag seemed to be more deflated compared to yesterday, then quickly remembered that the set of school uniform she had worn the day before had not been stuffed inside.

"I forgot to take my clothes." After saying that, she turned to walk back inside.

"I've already placed your coat into the washing machine."

"Then I'll take the rest of the stuff." She could not just leave her dirty underwear here.

"I've already washed the rest by hand."

She was speechless. When did this happen? Why was she unaware of this?

"Let's go, the driver is already waiting downstairs."

Zhong Nuannuan did not even know how she got out of the house. Her cheeks were burning the whole time.

She had not let anyone wash her underwear before.

As soon as she got downstairs, she saw a resentful Leng Qirui.

"Why are you here?"

Leng Qirui felt incredulous when faced with Zhong Nuannuan's question.

Only

“Obviously I came to go to school with you! Why haven’t you picked up any calls all this while?”

“Oh, I switched it to silent mode when I was treating your dad last night.”

Only then did Zhong Nuannuan remember that had forgotten to switch it back to normal mode.

She took out her cell phone and found that in addition to Leng Qirui’s five phone calls, there were more than 20 phone calls from the Jiang Family’s landline and Jiang Shuwan’s cell phone.

She did not have to think hard to figure out why Jiang Shuwan was calling her.

Chi Yang also saw the missed calls on Zhong Nuannuan’s cell phone. His gaze deepened before he brought Zhong Nuannuan to the driver he had arranged for.

Upon seeing this, Leng Qirui interrupted, “My car is right in front, let’s go in my car.”

Chapter 230: Take You Away From The Fiery Abyss

Leng Qirui paused for a while as he was puzzled. “Big Brother Chi, I’m going to school to attend classes as well. Why do you still need a driver to send her?”

“I can rest easier if Lil Li is the driver.”

Leng Qirui was speechless as he looked at Chi Yang’s serious expression.

What did he mean? How much exactly did he distrust him?

However, Chi Yang was completely oblivious to Leng Qirui’s dissatisfaction.

Zhong Nuannuan laughed deceptively when she saw an overbearing person like Leng Qirui looking like a little tiger with his teeth pulled out when facing Chi Yang.

Seeing Zhong Nuannuan laugh so happily, Leng Qirui felt like his love had just received 10,000 damage points.

“This is Lil Li, if I’m busy and can’t pick you up in the future, I’ll get Lil Li to come get you.”

“Nice to meet you, sister-in-law!” Lil Li felt very honored to have been asked by the director-general to pick up his future wife, and he smiled brightly.

Zhong Nuannuan was pleased to have been called “sister-in-law” so loudly, and she returned a warm smile. “I’m sorry to bother you from now on.”

“Don’t say that, sister-in-law, it’s my honor to serve you.”

Tsk tsk!

Leng Qirui felt cold as he stood aside watching. 'They're not even married yet, and you're already calling her sister-in-law. Are you doing this against your will?'

"Director-general, I'll send sister-in-law off now."

Chi Yang nodded, but not forgetting to say, "Be careful on the way."

Lil Li, who had just witnessed this public display of affection, did not forget to smile and reply that he would definitely be careful.

"Wait!" Seeing that the car was really about to leave, Leng Qirui rushed forward quickly.

Since he was given the cold shoulder, he wanted to get in the car too! He would not believe that Chi Yang would drag him off the car.

Naturally, Chi Yang would not be that childish. However, at the end of the day, this was still his car, and his subordinate was in the car. If this kid dared to tease his woman in his car...

"I'm leaving then."

"Okay." Chi Yang nodded. "I'll come over to see you when I'm free tonight."

When Chi Yang said this, Zhong Nuannuan felt that her school life would not be so boring anymore.

"Okay."

As the car started, Zhong Nuannuan watched Chi Yang's figure shrink until the car eventually turned a corner. Zhong Nuannuan saw with her X-ray vision that Chi Yang was still standing in place, facing the direction in which she had disappeared.

"That's enough, he's already out of sight, but you're still staring at the wall. Are you two that desperate to be together?"

Watching the tenderness in Zhong Nuannuan's eyes that only appeared when looking at Chi Yang, Leng Qirui felt a pang of sadness in his heart.

"Hey, I heard that you had been reluctant when your dad first set you up for this marriage, so why did you suddenly agree to it? Were you coerced? If you're really being coerced, let me know, I promise to take you away from the fiery abyss of suffering!"

Zhong Nuannuan pulled away her gaze, and her warm expression instantly turned into that of a queen as she scanned Leng Qirui from head to toe.

Only

Leng Qirui almost blushed under her gaze, and he asked hesitatingly, "You... Why are you looking at me like that?"

"I'm checking to see if you've lost your buttons."

Leng Qirui was taken aback!

Sure enough, was this woman's tenderness restricted only to Chi Yang?

Sensing Zhong Nuannuan's fully malicious intentions, Leng Qirui exploded. "Hey, we're classmates sitting at the same table, right? So, I'm just wondering who else would lash out at others the same way you did. I'm concerned about you! Can't you appreciate my good intentions?"

"I'm sitting in the same row with you, not at the same table. After all, we're still separated by an aisle. Also, does my face show any sign of dissatisfaction as a result of being coerced? If not, what you said earlier was not out of concern for me, but to provoke discord!"

Zhong Nuannuan's face was filled with resentment. "You've already been badly burned by the fires, yet you're talking about bringing me out of the fiery abyss. I'm afraid that if you drag me, I'll really fall headfirst into the abyss at the next moment!"
