

Physician Wife 2251

Chapter 2251: Why are you so Fierce 4

in this world, there's actually someone who can hypnotize us so easily. Don't you think it's terrifying? "

"I don't think so."

feng shengxuan looked at nangong nuannuan, and his lips curled into a doting smile. " as expected of my queen. You've never been afraid of someone stronger than you. Even if there's someone like that, you'll find a way to get rid of them.

Nangong Nuannuan laughed as she drove seriously. "You make it sound like I'm very violent. Which of the people I killed didn't provoke me first? This world is so big, and there are many people who are stronger than me. I can't think about killing everyone who is stronger than me. Not to mention other things, aren't you just more powerful than me? Do you think I will kill you? i just want to live a quiet life. those who are stronger than me, let them be, as long as they don't come and disturb me. If they want to bully the weak, then they are wrong."

feng shengxuan's heart clenched, but the look in his eyes didn't change at all. his lips curled into a devilish smile, and the tiny bits of sunlight outside the window gathered on his handsome face. his upturned phoenix eyes were filled with a thick peach color because of his smile. "So, will you kill me?"

"i won't,"

Feng shengxuan was very satisfied with Nangong Nuannuan's answer. He continued to ask, " "No matter what you encounter?"

"yes, i won't." Nuannuan answered without hesitation.

feng shengxuan was still smiling smugly when nuannuan finished her sentence.

but if you step on my bottom line, I'll never talk to you again. I won't acknowledge you as my big brother, and I won't treat you as my family.

Feng shengxuan was speechless.

"You Cruel Girl!" Feng shengxuan narrowed his eyes and looked into Nangong Nuannuan's eyes. It was as if he was trying to see something that he would never want to see on her face.

"How am I the cruel one?"

"If you don't acknowledge me, do you think I'm the heartless one?"

"Of course you're the one who's cruel! I sincerely treated you as my closest person, but you stepped on my bottom line. You're the one who abandoned our family first, you're the one who's cruel and scumbag first, can you blame me for being scumbag to you?"

Feng shengxuan's entire aura darkened. so, in your eyes, no one else is important except Chi Yang, right? If Chi Yang also stepped on your bottom line, would you disown him?"

"I won't," Nangong Nuannuan answered honestly.

Feng shengxuan thought, 'Yingluo feels like she's suffocating because of this little woman. What should I do?' However, when it came to Nuannuan, he would always be more tolerant than ordinary people.

Feng shengxuan couldn't think of anything else other than love that could make him so tolerant.

"Because big brother chiyang would never do anything that would cross my bottom line."

Feng shengxuan wasn't happy to hear that. He exploded. "You're speaking as if I'm going to do something that will cross your bottom line!"

"Why are you so fierce?" Nangong Nuannuan complained.

"Am I being mean to you? I'm fighting for my own justice, okay?"

"Why are you defending yourself? If you don't step on my bottom line, I won't disown you, right? You were the one who asked me those stupid questions first, and now you're blaming me."

"Alright, alright, alright, stop! Can I stop asking?" He felt like he had simply shot himself in the foot.

"Where are you going?"

"Let's go back to the Nangong family. Take the gift along with you."

"You bought gifts for the Nangong family. Why didn't I get any?"

Chapter 2252: Don't be afraid (5)

Nangong Nuannuan was speechless. I bought it," she said. I put it in the trunk. I wanted to bring it to you together.

Feng shengxuan finally felt better.

[ who can replace you? love to your heart's content while you're young, my dearest person. the journey is long. let's be together. i'll sing me to you, yingluo ]

Suddenly, Nuan Nuan's phone rang. Just by listening to the ringtone, she knew who was calling.

Feng shengxuan was so agitated by the ringtone that he almost rolled his eyes.

"Big brother chiyang."

Nangong Nuannuan's sweet voice was completely different from when she was talking to others. She picked up Chi Yang's call.

She didn't know what the other party said, but Nuannuan said happily, "I really wanted to call you, but I was afraid to disturb your work."

Chi Yang probably coaxed Nangong Nuannuan with his sweet words, causing her smile to become even more radiant.

“Really? Then I’ll call you when I miss you in the future. If you didn’t pick it up, I would know that you had something to do. Yingluo, are you calling me now because you’re done? That’s great. Let’s meet at the Nangong family. Yes, yes. Bye.”

Feng shengxuan couldn’t stand Nangong Nuannuan’s phone call.

“We’ve been engaged for so long and we’ve been sticking to each other every day. Do you have to be so clingy?”

Nangong Nuannuan, however, revealed the sweetness and shyness of a young girl. Then, she threw out a sentence that would hinder Feng shengxuan’s progress. “You don’t have a girlfriend, so you won’t understand. When you have a girlfriend, you’ll understand the feeling of wanting to be with the person you love every day.”

Feng shengxuan was speechless.

After Nangong Nuannuan drove the car into the Peninsula Villa area, she was blocked by two trucks halfway up the mountain.

The road was clearly wide enough for two trucks to pass by each other, but the two trucks were parked side by side, blocking the path of the other vehicles.

Outside the truck, the workers were unloading pianos, cellis, drawing boards of various size, and other items. The items were not heavy, but they were all big items.

Nangong Nuannuan saw a man who looked like a butler standing at the door, directing the workers to move things. As he did so, he said, “be gentle, they all belong to our miss. If you break them, you won’t be able to compensate for them in your lifetime.

Those who didn’t know would think that he was the master of the house.

The truck had blocked the road ahead, and the workers on the truck were moving things. Nangong Nuannuan couldn’t wait for them to finish moving, so she pressed the horn.

Normally, it was impolite to honk in such a high-end neighborhood, but the truck driver and the housekeeper clearly saw her car but did not move away. They wanted to continue unloading the truck, so Nangong Nuannuan could not care less about public morality.

The Butler knew that the people who lived on this Peninsula were either rich or noble, and they all drove world-class limited edition luxury cars.

Although it was said that the more people lived on the hillside, the more distinguished their status was, and he really shouldn’t block the way of others.

So, when he saw a car driving up, he immediately wanted the truck driver to make way. However, when he saw the plate number of the car, he had no intention of making way.

After all, they were still the PEI family. 1

Who in dizhou’s upper-class circle didn’t know that old lady PEI was the old master Chi’s sister? Who didn’t know that the PEI family’s first young mistress was Lieutenant General Chi’s mother?

The Nangong family was the only family that lived on the mountainside. Although the PEI family only lived on the mountainside, they were afraid of no other family except the Nangong family.

Chapter 2253: honking (1)

Hence, when the Butler saw the Land Rover stop in front of him, he pretended not to see it.

Nangong Nuannuan's Ferrari and a few other cars were parked at the Nangong family's house. She had come out from the Chi family's house today, so she had driven one of the Chi family's Land Rover.

The Chi family's Land Rovers were all military vehicles. Not only were they bulletproof, but they also had two license plates. It could be used as an ordinary vehicle outside, but when it entered the combat Department or the Special Forces, it did not need to be registered, which was very convenient. Therefore, when she didn't have a car to drive, she would just grab a Land Rover.

However, he didn't expect that in the eyes of some people, a Land Rover that cost one or two million Yuan was also a broken car. Not only did he not give in when he saw her, but after she honked, the other party only glanced at her and had no intention of giving in.

Nangong Nuannuan was dumbfounded when she saw the Butler glance at her unhappily and then ignore her completely. The Butler then turned his head away.

what? " Feng shengxuan frowned. what does he mean? "

"I guess it's because our car is too lousy, Yingluo," Nangong Nuannuan sneered.

After all, they didn't know each other, so there shouldn't be any enmity between them, right?

Feng shengxuan was amused by Nangong Nuannuan's words, and he couldn't help but laugh.

"Then what should we do? We can't just kill him, can we?"

Nangong Nuannuan glared at Feng shengxuan and said, " "Kill, kill, kill! what else do you know besides killing?"

Feng shengxuan laughed, " I know a lot other than killing. I'm good at acting, and I know how to run a business. I'm not only good-looking, but I'm also worth a lot. Do you want to consider me? Being with me is definitely much more blissful than being with Chi Yang. He's always in the special command unit and you can't see him anywhere. You're with him, not only are you away more than together, but you also have to take care of his family. Isn't that a loss?"

Feng shengxuan repeated what he had said to Chi Yang to Nuannuan. In short, even though the chances were slim, he was still thinking about poaching her.

"But I love brother chiyang, and brother chiyang loves me. This was something that no one else could compare to. You don't understand the feeling of happiness when two people who love each other are together."

"What right do you have to say that I don't understand? I love you, and I can feel the happiness of being with you!" Feng shengxuan argued.

"but i don't love you!"

feng shengxuan:

"Spending a lifetime with you is no different from those old girls spending their entire lives in their parent's house."

Feng shengxuan:

"Besides, you don't love me. How can you be happy if you can't even tell who you love?"

Feng shengxuan:

After Nangong Nuannuan finished her vicious tongue at Feng shengxuan, she saw that the people in front of them still had no intention of letting them pass, so she honked the horn to stop them. This time, he wouldn't let go.

The military vehicle's horn had been modified, and the loud sound of the horn was so piercing that it made people's ears go numb.

The Butler saw that the car behind them had stopped honking. He had planned to ask the workers to move the remaining things out of the car quickly, but he didn't expect the shrill honking to sound again and not stop.

This was a Peninsula!

The place where dizhou's celebrities and aristocrats lived!

Such a loud horn was enough to be heard by several nearby households.

However, Nangong Nuannuan didn't care that much. She would make things convenient for whoever made things convenient for her, and if they didn't, then no one would.

Chapter 2254: There's a hole in her brain (2)

It was noon, and both the old Madam and the young mistress had the habit of taking a nap. However, the driver kept honking the horn and refused to let go.

The Butler glared angrily at Nangong Nuannuan and the others. Seeing that the woman in the driver's seat was still honking, as if she would continue honking if they didn't make way for her today, the hostility in his eyes intensified as he walked over in an aggressive manner.

Seeing that someone was causing trouble, the bodyguards outside followed the Butler and walked toward Nangong Nuannuan.

Feng shengxuan was infuriated by Nangong Nuannuan's words. He saw that some workers were moving the piano on one side, while others were moving the guzheng and dressing table on the other. Feng shengxuan's eyes darkened slightly.

"Bang-bang-bang--"

With a few loud sounds, those things fell directly from the car.

Normally, these things wouldn't break into pieces when they fell. However, in the face of an extremely strong gravity, these things all broke into pieces when they fell.

The keys and strings of the piano and guzheng were scattered all over the ground.

The Butler and the group of bodyguards were shocked by the movement behind them. They immediately turned around and were dumbfounded to see that their Miss sun's most precious piano and guzheng, which were limited edition pianos and guzheng that the eldest young master had spent a lot of money to bid for on the black market, had been shattered in a taxi.

"What's wrong with you? I've already told you to take care of it."

The Butler realized that even though he was shouting, his voice was instantly drowned out by the loud sound of the loudspeaker.

He was speechless.

"Don't press it!"

The Butler shouted to the people in the car.

However, in order to reduce the noise, the windows were rolled up to minimize the sound. Furthermore, Nangong Nuannuan and Feng shengxuan had started chatting again and didn't care about the Butler.

It was only when Feng shengxuan's eyes twitched that one of the bodyguards walked up to them aggressively and punched their car window.

The bodyguard was positioned in a more upright position by the window. Logically speaking, with such gravity and angle, the window should have followed the sound.

However, the bodyguard felt that his bones were about to break, but the car window was still intact.

Realizing that the window might be bulletproof, the bodyguard's eyes narrowed slightly.

The Butler was scolding the worker, but the worker couldn't hear it clearly as he stood on the truck. The horn was still ringing non-stop.

"Smash it!"

With the Butler's order, the bodyguards picked up the iron hammer and hit the car mercilessly.

Feng shengxuan and Nangong Nuannuan had been working together for many years, and they had formed a tacit understanding. So, when the bodyguard smashed the car with the hammer, the two of them ignored the people outside and waited for them to do so.

Although the Land Rover looked like an ordinary Land Rover on the surface, its exterior, windows, and engine had all been specially processed. It was no less inferior than those cars that cost tens of millions.

The horn was still blaring. Because the sound was so harsh, the people in the villa nearby couldn't bear the disturbance and rushed out angrily.

It was a girl in her 20s. As soon as she came out, she shouted at the Land Rover, " "Why do you keep honking? is there a hole in his brain? Do you still have any manners?"

After the girl shouted, she saw that the other party still had no intention of stopping the honking. She was extremely angry and shouted at the Butler, " "What's going on with the people inside? Why do you keep honking? Are you guys dead?"

Chapter 2255: Old lady PEI (3)

After that, he looked at the workers on the truck who were completely dumbfounded and scared. Then, he looked at the ground and suddenly screamed.

"what's going on? Who did it?"

Looking at the piano and guzheng that had already shattered on the ground, PEI Xiyu was furious and glared at the worried Butler.

"How do you see things? didn't i tell you not to put even a little bit of it in your bag since it's very precious?"

With a bitter face, the Butler shouted, " "Miss Sun, it's all because of the woman driving in this car. She's so uncultured. When we unloaded the goods, she didn't even want to wait for half a minute. When the workers were carrying the things, she suddenly honked the horn. In the end, the horn was too loud and the workers were shocked. They dropped the things on the ground and broke them."

pei xiyu was furious. " then why didn't you drag that slut down and make her compensate me? " she roared.

"Miss Sun, look at what our bodyguards are holding in their hands! But this car should have been modified, so it won't be destroyed."

"If you can't smash it, then someone come and flip the car!"

"Yes!"

The Butler immediately walked to the front of the car and shouted, " "The people inside, come down immediately! I'll give you three seconds. If you don't come down, don't blame us for being impolite!"

There was still no movement from the people in the car, and the piercing horn was still ringing.

"smash it! If you can't smash it, then flip the car!"

The Butler was infuriated by the people in the car. The PEI family's bodyguards also surrounded the car. A total of 20 bodyguards gathered at the Butler's request. They all bent down and held the bottom of the car, ready to flip it over.

However, the car did not move an inch even though more than a dozen people tried to move it together.

Everyone was dumbfounded and looked at each other. The leading bodyguard shouted, "one, two, three! everyone exerted their strength together.

But even so, the car did not move an inch.

The sharp horns were still ringing, and the property management of the peninsula had driven over.

The old lady of the PEI family, the head of the PEI family, PEI Jitong, and PEI Jitong's current wife, Zhou ruxue, were all extremely annoyed by the shrill honking. They put on their clothes and walked out of the villa's Gate, just in time to bump into the property management who came over.

After all, old Madam PEI was getting on in years. After leaving the villa, she couldn't stand the excitement. However, she was born to be competitive and wanted to take the fighter jet even if she couldn't stand it.

Seeing the property manager get off the tour bus, old Madam PEI said angrily to the property manager, "What kind of lousy disk is your Eagle Eye group developing? they actually allowed such a low-class person to enter. Look at this driver, he's been honking for more than five minutes. It's noon, can't he let people rest? It's our first day moving in, and this is the living experience we're getting? He simply didn't know what to do! If I had known, I wouldn't have bought the house here!"

the property management manager frowned when he heard the sharp honking, but when he turned his head, he saw two trucks parked side by side, blocking the hillside road of the community. he had an idea in his heart.

He then looked at the bodyguards holding iron hammers around the Land Rover and despised the PEI family who had just moved in.

"Old lady PEI, I'm really sorry. I think the other party is honking non-stop. Maybe the trucks your family brought in have blocked the road."

Chapter 2256: miss nangong (4)

Who knew that before she could finish speaking, old lady PEI was already furious."What did you just say? You're not going to tell us to move the truck away and they won't honk, are you? Let me tell you-no, you can! do you know who i am? I'm telling you, my name is LAN Huifang! Right now, Kamino's only Grand Marshal, Chi Yuancheng, is my brother! The only daughter of the Nangong family, Nangong Nuannuan, is my granddaughter-in-law! It's the Eagle Eye group's honor that I can live on your Peninsula! I blocked her way, so she should take a detour. But look at her, not only did she not take a detour, but she also kept honking. look at the piano and guzheng on the ground, they were all limited edition items that were auctioned at a high price. just the piano alone was more than ten times more expensive than her land rover!

"This road is the main road leading to the mountain. If it's blocked, they have to reverse to the fork 500 meters ahead to go up the mountain, and that will take a long time. Otherwise, why don't you ..."

the property management manager said, " why don't your family move the truck and make a space? the other party will definitely not honk again. "

Who knew that before she could finish speaking, old lady PEI was already furious."What did you just say? You're not going to tell us to move the truck away and they won't honk, are you? let me tell you-no, you can! Do you know who I am? I'm telling you, my name is LAN Huifang! Right now, Kamino's only Grand Marshal, Chi Yuancheng, is my brother! The only daughter of the Nangong family, Nangong Nuannuan, is my granddaughter-in-law! It's the Eagle Eye group's honor that I can live on your Peninsula! I blocked her way, so she should take a detour. But look at her, not only did she not take a detour, but she also kept honking. Look at the piano and guzheng on the ground, they were all limited edition items that were auctioned at a high price. Just the piano alone was more than ten times more expensive than her Land Rover! I'm warning you, you have to give me a satisfactory solution for today's matter. If you don't, it doesn't matter. The Nangong family is on the top of the mountain. In the future, my PEI family and the Nangong family will make things difficult for them. It doesn't matter if the neighbors "relationship isn't good!"

The property management Manager was speechless because he didn't know that the chairman of Eagle Eye was Chi Yang. He was afraid that his Chairman would be slandered, so he quickly said, " "Yes, yes, yes! Who didn't know of old Madam PEI's name? We're very honored to know that old Madam PEI is moving in!"

"Hmph!" Old lady PEI snorted coldly.

After all, there weren't many people who were willing to do her a favor in the real top-class noble circle. This was all her brother's fault for publicly disowning her.

Thus, when she heard the manager's words, old Madam PEI's vanity was greatly satisfied.

Seeing that old lady PEI was not so angry anymore, the property management Manager said,"Old Madam PEI, I'm just the property management Manager of a real estate branch under the group. I'm just a small figure, and any owner in this community can trample me to death with one foot. However, it's different for you, old Madam PEI. I'll tell the other party your identity. I believe that those who can live here, even if they're the owner's friends, will understand your distinguished identity. after knowing your identity, the other party naturally didn't dare to make a scene. At that time, how to solve it will be up to you to discuss, what do you think?"

Old Madam PEI glanced at the property manager and knew that he probably couldn't do anything to the other party. Since the other party dared to be so arrogant, he was probably a relative of one of the owners on the mountain. After some thought, he nodded with a dark face.

Seeing that old lady PEI had taken a step back, the property manager bowed and thanked her. He then praised her a little before walking to the Land Rover.

When Nangong Nuannuan saw that the management had arrived and had already walked to her car window, she stopped honking and rolled down the window.

The moment the window was lowered, the property management manager's eyes widened.

This lady usually drove the flashy limited edition Ferrari, the limited edition Lamborghini, or the dazzling Sylphy. He had never seen her drive a Land Rover.

"Miss Nangong, Nan Zhi Zhi!"

The property management Manager quickly nodded and bowed to Nangong Nuannuan.

Chapter 2257: You guys are impudent (5)

Although she didn't know the relationship between Nangong Nuannuan and the Eagle Eye group, he knew that Nangong Nuannuan had the power to mobilize the people in the Eagle Eye group. Therefore, he knew that Nangong Nuannuan was not only the eldest daughter of the Nangong family, but also had a close relationship with the Board of Directors of the Eagle Eye group.

even if he had to offend old lady pei, he could never offend miss nangong.

"Yes." Nangong Nuannuan replied indifferently, "What does this family mean by placing two cars side by side on the mountain road and not letting people pass? not only did he not let anyone pass, but he also ordered people to smash my car. go and tell that old hag that my car was modified by the combat services department. the materials used are all special, but they smashed it into this state without any explanation. After all, I have a dashcam in my car, and it has everything. Let them discuss whether they should repair the car directly or after the lawsuit. However, if the maintenance is not done properly, then I can only go to the combat service department's fixed assets Investment Department to explain this matter."

"Yes. I'll go immediately."

The property management Manager had blocked everyone's view when he was talking to Nangong Nuannuan. By the time Nangong Nuannuan finished speaking and the property management Manager turned around to pass on the message, the car window had already been closed.

"Old Madam PEI, the other party said that she honked because these two trucks were blocking her way and did not give way. But your family sent people to smash her car after she honked. So, she wants you to compensate for the cost of smashing her car and be responsible for repairing it. Furthermore, her car is a servant of the combat Services Department."

"Stop right there! You want to leave just like that after breaking my piano and guzheng? No way! You guys stop them!"

Before the property manager could finish speaking, PEI Xiyu saw Nangong Nuannuan get out of the car. A tall man came down from her passenger seat. Even if it was just a back view, PEI Xiyu felt a rush of excitement.

Old lady PEI was already furious when she heard the property manager's words. Now that the other party had left the car here and left, she rebuked angrily, "Capture them!"

After the bodyguards heard the order, they immediately rushed forward and tried to take the man down.

However, Feng shengxuan had already made his move the moment he came into contact with Nangong Nuannuan.

The 15 bodyguards were all elites chosen by old lady PEI, but they were all defeated by Feng shengxuan in one move.

In the blink of an eye, 15 people had fallen to the ground and rolled back and forth in pain, unable to get up.

When old lady PEI saw this, she was so angry that her entire body trembled. At the side, PEI Jitong and Zhou Ruxue also frowned.

Zhou Ruxue saw her mother-in-law getting so angry that her blood pressure seemed to be rising. She pointed at Nangong Nuannuan's back and roared, "You guys are simply impudent! Do you know what kind of family my PEI family is? You actually dared to hit my PEI family's bodyguard. Even if you want to beat a dog, you have to look at the owner first. The two of you are not putting the PEI family in your eyes at all! Men, since the two of them are so arrogant, then follow them and see which house they entered. I'd like to know who in Dizhou can disregard the PEI family's face."

"Yes!"

Two of the bodyguards were the first to get up from the ground. They bowed slightly to Zhou Ruxu and were about to follow her.

Nangong Nuannuan originally didn't want to have anything to do with the PEI family. She just wanted them to follow her. Anyway, the PEI family couldn't do anything to the Nangong family, so she didn't have to keep arguing with them.

Chapter 2258: Excavator (6)

Nangong Nuannuan felt that she was strong enough to go against anyone, but she was disgusted by talking to the dowry.

Especially Zhou Ruxue.

She was afraid that she would kill that disgusting woman in a fit of anger.

However, the Nangong family at the top of the mountain already knew that they had been stopped halfway up the mountain.

When Elder Nangong heard that his granddaughter was coming back, he was elated. When Nuan Nuan had just entered the villa, he had called her, so he had immediately gone out with his second uncle, who had been cooking at home. After waiting for a long time and not seeing anyone, Nangong Qin pulled up the surveillance cameras on the road to see where they had gone.

In the end, the two of them saw the Butler ordering the bodyguard to smash the car with a hammer.

The old man almost had a heart attack, so he immediately brought more than 30 bodyguards with him and drove seven cars. In order to get rid of the two trucks, the Nangong family's back mountain was under construction, and an excavator was parked there. Hence, the WA-wah machine was put to use. With the excavator in the lead, the old master and second uncle personally went to the PEI family's courtyard in an aggressive manner.

Nangong Nuannuan was about to leave and let the bodyguards follow her when they saw the excavator and the convoy. Just as they were wondering which family this was from, they actually brought an excavator in. In the end, they saw the excavator directly dig up one of the trucks. To the astonishment of the PEI family, the truck fell directly in the courtyard of the PEI family.

The PEI family should have just moved in not long ago. He had seen that the front yard of this house was being renovated, and it was done quite well. In the end, the truck smashed the most beautiful fountain sculpture in front of the front yard that had been built with a huge sum of money.

The moment the excavator lifted the truck, several truck drivers had already jumped out of the truck.

When the PEI family saw the excavator coming towards them, they all screamed and ran to the side.

Looking at the smashed fountain in front of the courtyard, PEI Jitong and Zhou ruxue's faces turned pale. Old lady PEI was so scared that she could barely stand up.

because the back of the truck was facing the place where she had stood and commanded.

This excavator actually ignored the fact that there were people standing there and directly threw the truck away. It was simply a disregard for human lives!

As PEI Xiyu had no one to support her, and she was standing with her grandmother just now, it was fortunate that she had run away quickly when she saw that the situation was not good. Otherwise, she would have been smashed into a meat patty.

PEI Xiyu only felt her legs go soft and she was so frightened that she fell to the ground.

Heavens! In her 20s, this was the first time she had encountered such an outrageous thing.

PEI Jitong usually gave outsiders the image of a good man who stood aloof from the world. But now, seeing his mother and daughter in this state, his anger reached its peak. He scolded the PEI family's bodyguards who had just gotten up from the ground, "What are you guys doing here? Hurry up and get the people up there down!"

The bodyguard also recovered from the shock and rushed forward, wanting to use force on the workers on the excavator.

However, before they could reach the excavator, seven black off-road vehicles, all Land Rovers, came from the mountain and stopped around the PEI family's courtyard.

The PEI family's bodyguards hesitated when they saw this. They all stopped and looked at PEI Jitong in shock.

Chapter 2259: Backing up (1)

PEI Jitong was furious. He felt that the bodyguards he raised were really not good enough. They couldn't be compared to those retired Special Forces soldiers. One day, he would definitely ask his father and Madam to go to the Chi family and ask for some retired Special Forces soldiers from Flying Eagle.

just as pei jitong was thinking about replacing all these unreliable bodyguards, more than 30 people came out of the seven cars and surrounded the pei family.

The Butler opened the door of the second car, and old man Nangong, Nangong Renyi, and the chairman of the Imperial Group, Nangong Qin, got out of the car.

Old lady PEI's eyes were filled with disbelief when she saw the person who had come. Her eyes twitched violently as she did not understand why Nangong Renyi had ordered the truck to be dug up and destroyed their garden. One had to know that the sculpture in the pool had been carved by a famous artist from the yman Kingdom, and its value was immeasurable.

But how long had it been? It was actually smashed! And it was Nangong Renyi who had smashed it!

"It's old general Nangong!" Old lady PEI pulled her arms away from PEI Jitong and Zhou ruxue's hands, her face filled with anger.

"Today is the first day my PEI family is trying to live on the peninsula. I originally planned to invite old general Nangong to my house next weekend, but on the first day I moved in, my garden was destroyed by old general Nangong's men. Old general, may I ask what you mean by this?"

I, LAN Huifang, have never offended old general Nangong. My grandson is now engaged to your granddaughter. We're going to be a family soon. I don't understand why old general Nangong is bullying people like this."

Nangong Renyi looked at the annoying old woman in front of him and did not intend to give her any face.

"bullying people? I don't quite understand what old Madam PEI is saying! My granddaughter came home, but your family deliberately stirred up trouble and blocked her way with two trucks, not letting her go.

If you guys can do such a rude thing, shouldn't my granddaughter honk the horn? But your PEI family is really a rich and powerful family! you made more than ten bodyguards smash my granddaughter's car with hammers without any explanation. In the end, my granddaughter let you go under the persuasion of the property management. She got out of the car, but you still didn't let them off. You saw that they were weak and asked the bodyguards to use force on my granddaughter.

When it came to using one's power to bully others, hadn't old Madam PEI already performed it to the fullest? Why? i allowed you to call two trucks to block the road and not let anyone pass. i allowed you to send bodyguards to beat up my granddaughter, smash her car, and even tried to kill and maim her, but i'm not allowed to touch your car?

I just sent people to shovel your cars to the side and make a path for you in the community, and you say that I'm bullying people with my power? how can you say such unreasonable things? I happen to have the surveillance video of the community here. Why don't I ask someone to post the video on the internet? let's learn from the young people and see if it's your PEI family or our Nangong family that's bullying people, okay? It also saves me the trouble of wasting my breath on you."

Nangong Renyi's words left the PEI family dumbfounded.

As the instigator, the housekeeper's eyelids twitched involuntarily.

The person in the car just now was miss Nangong?

The Nangong family only had one young miss, so the woman in the car just now was the young miss of the Nangong family that the PEI family had been preparing to conquer?

Chapter 2260: Grandma?(2)

Thinking of this possibility, the Butler was so scared that his legs went soft and cold sweat poured out.

After the PEI family reacted, they were also stunned.

“Ran ran, was the person in the car Nuan Nuan?” Zhou ruxue couldn’t resist asking.

“Impossible! If it’s Nuan Nuan, why isn’t she saying anything?” “And the man in her car just now is definitely not Chi Yang. I can guarantee that!” Old lady PEI immediately denied. So, if you say that person is Chi Yang, does that mean Nuannuan is having an affair with another man behind Chi Yang’s back?”

“Who do you think I have an affair with?” Nangong Nuannuan was speechless. She had been too lazy to argue with the PEI family, but the PEI family was too shameless. He actually said that she had an affair with another man.

“You’re having an affair with someone else other than brother chiyang. Old Madam PEI was just pulling and tugging at her son just now. Wouldn’t those people who took the bus and subway be dancing like demons? Old Madam PEI, you’re not young anymore, and you’re not the kind of person who can let the matter rest just because someone says that she’s still a child. Please think twice before you speak or do anything.”

Nangong Nuannuan hadn’t shown her face before, but the moment she did, she had a venomous tongue. Old lady PEI was so angry that she glared at Nangong Nuannuan and almost couldn’t hold it in and scolded her.

However, Nangong Nuannuan was not only the daughter of the Nangong family and the future daughter-in-law of chiyang. Most importantly, she was also the chairman of disheng group and Tian Heng land. At the same time, she was also the reason why the PEI family had moved to the Peninsula Villa.

Thus, even though a mouthful of stinky phlegm was stuck in her throat and she would not feel at ease if she did not spit it out, old lady PEI still swallowed it when she thought of the PEI family’s current situation.

“Nuannuan, how can you say that about grandma?” Zhou ruxue furrowed her brows in displeasure.

To be honest, she really did not like Nangong Nuannuan at all. Compared to Shi Yalin, Nangong Nuannuan was much more arrogant. Furthermore, she had no respect for her mother-in-law at all.

“Grandma?” Nangong Nuannuan raised her eyebrows. if my understanding is correct, Madam Zhou, are you telling me that old Madam PEI is my grandmother? I’m sorry, I do have two grandmothers, but one of them is from the Nangong family, and the other is from the Chi family. Unfortunately, my two grandmothers have passed away. So, Ms. Zhou, please don’t claim to be a relative. I’m not familiar with old Madam PEI, and she’s not qualified to be my grandmother. Please don’t disgust me!”

Elder Nangong's originally ugly expression looked a lot better after hearing his precious granddaughter's vicious words.

Zhou ruxue's face turned red from Nangong Nuannuan's merciless words, and old Madam PEI was so angry that she almost cursed out those vicious words again. Fortunately, PEI Jitong gently pulled on old Madam PEI and Zhou ruxue's clothes from behind. The two of them could only endure it as they thought about what they were going to do next.

PEI Jitong's gentle voice said, " "Nuan Nuan, because of your father's death, Chi Yang is unable to accept his mother being with another man. I also admire brother Chi's heroic spirit. I'm also very sad about his death. But our lives are still going on, and we need to look forward."
