Chapter 2401

"You have to sleep well to recover and grow taller in the future, understand?"

Little sun didn't say anything, but Nangong Jin's eyes darkened as he said, "Then I won't send you off. But I have to watch you fight until you leave."

"Alright," he said.

Although she felt that with her strength, whoever dared to have any ideas about her would be courting death. However, when she thought about her brother's attitude, Nangong Nuannuan readily agreed.

"Goodbye, aunt!"

"Auntie will be happy to see uncle!"

Little sun was fine, but little Ling's words made Nangong Nuannuan burst out laughing.

"You little devil!"

She couldn't help but pinch little Ling's chubby cheeks again. A taxi happened to come over, so Nangong Nuannuan got in and left.

"Dad, Auntie has left."

"yes." Nangong Jin responded and brought little sun and little Ling 'er into the car. He then gave Chi Yang a call.

"She's already in the car. She'll be at your place in about an hour. She doesn't want me to follow her, so I'll be there with the two children later."

"I know."

After Chi Yang hung up, he looked at old man Chi and old man Nangong and said, "Grandpa, why don't you guys go and rest for a while?"

"Alright, alright, you do your thing! How do you expect old man Nangong and I to sleep on such a big day?"

Not only were the two old men in the command room, but everyone from the Nangong and Chi families, as well as Selena's group and the resentful Feng shengxuan, were also there.

Bai Liyue didn't even look at him. She was smiling and chatting with Selina.

Chi zeyao glanced at his beloved daughter-in-law, and then at his stupid son who had failed him. He really couldn't understand why his son had no EQ at birth.

Even if he was hypnotized, couldn't he at least maintain their relationship?

On the other hand, Nangong Nuannuan was sitting in the taxi and chatting with Chi Yang on WeChat. She had no idea that a huge surprise was about to arrive.

The car drove on the highway and left the city. They would reach the flying Eagles in half an hour.

Even though it had only been half a day since she last saw Chi Yang, Nangong Nuannuan felt like she was already missing him.

He really liked the feeling of being able to remember each other in his heart and want to see each other every moment.

She had been by brother chiyang's side for more than half a year, but their relationship was still as hot and strong as it was in the beginning.

She thought that perhaps they could continue to love each other like this for the rest of their lives.

it was 11:35, so he should have arrived at eagle at 12.

Just as Nangong Nuannuan was about to turn off the screen, she suddenly glanced at the time.

6th August!

Today is August 6th?

Then, wouldn't Hanhan be turning 18 tomorrow?

She thought about how brother chiyang insisted on her rushing to Eagle despite being busy. It must be because he wanted to spend his birthday with her, right?

Did he want to be the first person he saw on her birthday?

Thinking of this, Nangong Nuannuan's lips couldn't help but curve up.

she also wished that he would be the first person she saw on her birthday.

"Master, please drive faster."

Afraid that she would miss 12, Nangong Nuannuan immediately called for the taxi driver.

"Lady, I'm already driving at 110 km/H. If I go any faster, I'll be fined."

110.....

Nangong Nuannuan was speechless.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2402: (5)

you'll only be fined if you bid above 120 yuan. Hurry up.

"That won't do! If we run into a surveillance camera at 120, the money I earn from you won't even be enough to pay the fine."

"I'll give you an extra 500. Increase your speed to 120 km/H."

"Young lady, this really isn't a problem of money. My Yingluo has already lost 11 points. If I lose one more point, even if you give me 2000, I won't be able to do it. "

Nangong Nuannuan:

After some thought, he decided that there was no traffic on the roundabout highway at night. If he went there this way, he would be able to arrive before 12. hence, he didn't say anything else.

It's almost time for the birthday, Yingluo.

He was about to turn 18!

After today, could she go to the Civil Affairs Bureau with brother chiyang to get their marriage certificate tomorrow?

Nangong Nuannuan was so excited that she almost laughed out loud. He quickly covered his mouth with his hand.

She could imagine that if she was already so excited, brother chiyang must be even more excited than her.

She could guarantee that brother chiyang would definitely bring her to the Civil Affairs Bureau to get married tomorrow.

Although her relationship with brother chiyang had been confirmed after the war service department's approval, they were only recognized by the war service department and not the entire society.

However, with the marriage certificate, she would be brother chiyang's legitimate wife. Not only would they be protected by the combat Services Department, but they would also be protected by the law.

Nangong Nuannuan was excited just thinking about it.

Suddenly, Nangong Nuannuan thought of something and couldn't help but sit up straight.

In the past, when brother chiyang accompanied her to Haizhou and the country of Lun tan, he was very free. He also said that as long as nothing major happened, he could accompany her for the next half a month.

They had only stayed in Hai Zhou and Lun tan for a few days. After they returned, he had been acting mysteriously. When she had something to do, he was always by her side. When she had nothing to do and stayed at home, he would say that he had something to do at Eagle.

Come to think of it this way

Nangong Nuannuan could feel her heart beating faster.

Was it?

Was it what she was thinking?

Brother chiyang would propose to her tonight, ah no, the first thing on her birthday?

This thought made Nangong Nuannuan excited.

In her previous life, brother chiyang had never proposed to her. Because she had always wanted to escape from her side, and he, no matter where she went, he would chase after her.

He was very persistent with her, and even their marriage was forced by him.

There was no proposal or romance. He just used a tyrannical method to tell her that from now on, she was his.

So, was he going to propose to her?

Nangong Nuannuan suppressed the excitement in her heart. She felt that with brother chiyang's emotional intelligence, he might not be able to do such a thing. After all, she was going to Eagle.

Could it be that he was going to propose to her in front of the members of the flying Eagles?

But on the other hand, once this thought came into being, she couldn't help but get excited.

In her two lives, she had never experienced the happiness of being proposed to.

Nangong Nuannuan was as happy as a cat when she thought of the possibility of that happening. Her eyes narrowed.

However, just as Nangong Nuannuan felt that everything in the world was so beautiful and she was looking forward to her birthday, the taxi suddenly changed direction without warning.

Nangong Nuannuan's gaze froze. She watched as the driver, who had been on the highway, slammed on the brakes and turned the steering wheel to the right.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2403

At first, she thought that the driver had deliberately done something bad and that someone was trying to kill her in such a stupid way, but now it seemed that she had been overthinking it.

Like a cat, Nangong Nuannuan scurried to the front of the car and pulled the driver away.

The moment the car flipped over, he pulled the handbrake and stepped on the gas.

the car, which was about to crash into the guardrail on the left and was about to flip over due to the sudden turn of the steering wheel and stepping on the emergency brake, rose into the air. with the help of the force from the ground, it flipped 360 degrees in the air and landed on all four tires.

After sliding forward for another few dozen meters, the car finally stabilized.

The chauffeur had been pulled to the passenger seat by Nangong Nuannuan, so before he could react, he was turned 360 degrees by the car. At this moment, his entire person was in a daze.

He looked at Nangong Nuannuan in a daze, his face filled with shock and confusion.

She thought that Nangong Nuannuan was behind all this and was about to tell her to take the money or beg for mercy when the car started to shake violently again.

Why would the car shake so violently when it had already stopped?

As the shaking this time had nothing to do with Nangong Nuannuan, he was instantly relieved. However, he still looked at Nangong Nuannuan with a dumbfounded expression.

Nangong Nuannuan's face was as dark as ink as she quietly watched the movement of the flowers and trees on the isolation belt in the distance.

In the rearview mirror, all the cars behind them had stopped.

Fortunately, it was late at night, and there was little traffic on the highway, so such an emergency situation did not cause an uncontrollable serial car accident.

"Is this an earthquake?"

Nangong Nuannuan ignored the driver and quickly got out of the car to look down.

It had reached Zhen-Level 5 and crack Level 7.

Nangong Nuannuan followed the crack in the ground and looked in the direction of the source of the earthquake. She suddenly remembered. This was the world-shaking earthquake that had happened in Kamino in his previous life.

The source of the earthquake was in Shengzhou province, which was 350 km away from Dizhou province.

From such a long distance, the magnitude of the earthquake in Dizhou reached Level 5, and the degree of the crack reached 7 degrees. One could imagine how terrible the earthquake in Shengzhou was.

Kamino was located in the Central Plains. Unlike the country of Da He, it was not located in an earthquake zone, where earthquakes could occur at any time.

Therefore, Kamino's buildings were more casual, but they were definitely not as earthquake-resistant as Yamato.

Such a strong earthquake had happened once in an A-class city 40 years ago. The earthquake had reached a magnitude of 8, and the magnitude and crack were not as strong as those in Shengzhou, but many people had died.

From then on, the Kamino Kingdom would commemorate that day every year for those who died in the earthquake.

The earthquake in Shengzhou this time had refreshed the knowledge of the people of Carminore about earthquakes.

As the epicenter of the earthquake, Shengzhou was a B-Class city, much larger than an A-Class city. However, it had been completely destroyed by the earthquake. The entire city was completely destroyed by the earthquake.

In the face of such a terrifying natural disaster, humans were so insignificant. They would definitely need the help of the country and the War Department.

That brother Chiyang

Thinking that Big Brother Chiyang would probably be busy soon, Nangong Nuannuan quickly walked to the driver and said, "Hurry up and send me there."

The driver snapped out of his daze and quickly took out his phone to call home.

However, the phone could not be reached.

Chapter 2404: 7

The driver panicked. He looked at Nangong Nuannuan in a panic and said, "Miss, I'm sorry. I can't get through to my house phone. my wife and children are still at home, and we live on the 27th floor. the earthquake is so terrible, i'm afraid of yingluo."

What was he afraid of? the driver didn't dare to say it out loud, for fear that he would be right.

Seeing that the driver's face had turned pale from fear, Nangong Nuannuan did not force him.

He took out the promised 300 yuan and gave it to the driver, but the driver didn't take it.

"No need, no need. I'm already very apologetic for not being able to send you to your destination and leaving you here. I can't accept this money. How about this, miss, my car can only turn around at the next toll station. If you're willing, I'll drop you off at the next toll station. There are many cars passing by there, so I'm sure I can find a car to give you a ride."

"No need," Nangong Nuannuan refused.

With such a strong earthquake, the bus at the next toll station would have more important things to do even if it did not go home. Instead of that, she might as well stop a car on this road and ask someone to give her a ride. After getting off the car, she could just run over.

The driver was extremely anxious. While he was talking to Nangong Nuannuan, he called home five or six times, but he still couldn't get through. Seeing that Nangong Nuannuan had rejected him, he didn't insist on driving away.

Nangong Nuannuan was still relatively calm. It was because an earthquake had happened at this time in her previous life, but she had forgotten about it. however, she could remember that everyone in the family was fine.

She thought back to this time in her previous life. At that time, she was in Saibo country, filming with Feng shengxuan. It was an action movie that she had personally starred in, and because of that movie, she won the title of Best Actress.

However, three months after the shooting of the movie, when she returned to Jiangzhou, she was forced to get a marriage certificate at the Civil Affairs Bureau by brother chiyang.

Actually, she could have rejected him back then, but why did Wanwan still get married?

Was it because Zhong Yingying had annoyed her?

No, it wasn't all because of this!

it wasn't just because she wanted to anger gong jie, it was also because brother chiyang's health didn't seem to be too good at the time. he fell ill after they had an argument. When she saw him leaning against the wall in pain, his entire face pale, and only his forehead with an abnormal purplish red, her heart softened inexplicably. In a flash, she wanted to get the marriage certificate with him.

She still remembered the moment she agreed to his request. He had opened his eyes, and there had been a beautiful glint in his cloudy and bloodshot eyes.

Even though she didn't admit that she liked brother chiyang at all back then, when she saw the hope and happiness in his eyes, she just put herself in that marriage.

However, Yingluo

Why was brother chiyang's health not good at that time?

Nangong Nuannuan tried her best to recall.

Was it a mental problem?

After a long rescue, it was normal to be in a bad state of mind without rest. After all, she did not help him with acupuncture in his previous life.

However, at that time, she had just turned 18, and the two of them were just preparing to get married. His illness had not reached the stage of being uncontrollable. and she remembered that after the disaster, they were busy for about two months, but when he found her, it had already been three months.

She clearly remembered that they had gotten married in November six years ago.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2405

How could he still be in low spirits in November?

What was wrong with him?

Nangong Nuannuan's heart clenched when she thought about her brother chiyang's condition at that time.

Would brother chiyang be injured during the rescue?

Otherwise, how could he explain his face that was still pale even after three months?

But at that time, she really didn't care about that man. Even if he was standing in front of her, even if she knew that he was uncomfortable when he talked to her, she was so proud that she didn't see through his body to see if he was injured.

At that moment, Nangong Nuannuan was disgusted with herself.

When it happened, she had called Chi Yang, but she couldn't get through.

Nangong Nuannuan glanced at the electric cat in the distance and gave up on the idea of making a second call.

Cat lighting was a power station for communication. As long as there was electricity in the cat, it would be transmitted through the cable. The entire area would be able to make calls and have network signals.

However, if the electric cat ran out of power, even if the cable was not damaged, he would still be unable to make a phone call or go online.

This was also the reason why no matter if it was her calling brother Chiyang or the taxi driver calling his family just now, it was all off and couldn't be reached.

Nangong Nuannuan took a deep breath as she recalled the situation with the Chi and Nangong families. She suppressed the panic in her heart.

The previous life and this life were different.

In her previous life, Zhong Yingluo, Jiang Zhiwan, and Zhong Kuijun were still alive and living so brilliantly. In this life, Zhong Yingying died, Jiang Zhiwan went to jail, and Zhong Kuijun went crazy.

Therefore, the pain that big brother Chiyang might have suffered in his previous life would probably not happen again in this life. After all, he was already so powerful now.

Back then, he could even catch a missile with his bare hands and push it back. Such a powerful brother Chiyang should be invincible in this world, how could he be injured?

At the thought of this, Nangong Nuannuan's heart became even calmer.

She glanced at the car that was flying by. All she had to do now was to find a ride to Eagle.

Nangong Nuannuan was extremely anxious. Just as she was thinking of running over, Nangong Jin's car suddenly appeared in her line of sight.

"Get in the car."

Nangong Jin was driving with a serious expression on his face.

Nangong Nuannuan quickly got into the car and glanced at the child with big, black eyes in the back seat. She asked, "Didn't you all go back? Why are you here?"

"Chi Yang was going to propose to you in the early hours of the morning. Grandpa and Grandpa Chi are all here. However, you have to be mentally prepared. As the Supreme Commander of the Eagle Clan, Chi Yang will definitely be the first to arrive.

I was supposed to return to the War Department, but I can't make a U-turn here and the phone can't get through. I need to use the special equipment of Eagle to contact the War Department in the North."

Nangong Nuannuan didn't say anything. All her good mood had disappeared because of this sudden change.

Nangong Jin drove his car and arrived at the Flying Eagle Special Forces at the fastest speed possible. Since there was an entry pass on the car, the car successfully drove into the Eagle and headed toward the command center.

Chapter 2406

The moment she entered the Eagle, Nangong Nuannuan's tears flowed.

This was because there were white balloons everywhere in the huge Flying Eagle Special Forces.

The balloon fluttered in the wind, and in the center, under a huge pink-blue balloon, hung a picture of her life.

In the photo, she was smiling very happily.

the photo was personally taken by brother chiyang. Because he always liked to record her casual smile on his phone.

Previously, she would still go over to take a look at how he took the photos. Later, she found out that brother chiyang only took photos casually, so she didn't go to take a look.

At this moment, there was a picture of a white balloon every 20 meters in the Eagle. And below it was a circle of candles arranged in the shape of a heart.

The candles were all small and placed in a solid shape, so there were at least a few hundred candles in each place.

In such a large Flying Eagle Special Forces team, apart from the training ground, there was a heart-shaped balloon photo every 20 meters.

Although it was night time, the pictures on the top were clearly illuminated by the candles below. In every photo of her, she was smiling very happily and naturally. Under the light of the candles, she looked even gentler.

However, not long after the car started moving, Nangong Nuannuan realized that due to the earthquake, some of the candles had been thrown into disarray by the distorted earth's crust. Some of the balloons' strings had even been burned off. Only one or two balloons were left floating in the air.

Even so, Nangong Nuannuan could feel Chi Yang's care.

With such huge Eagles and so many balloons, how long did he need to arrange this place?

Nangong Jin stopped the car when they were about to reach the command Headquarters.

It was because there was a white carpet in front of them.

On the street stalls, there were heart-shaped candles everywhere, and the inner circle of the burning white candles was filled with red rose petals.

With a huge white carpet and a long corridor, the once solemn Command Headquarters instantly turned into a dreamlike Castle.

At that moment, the family was standing at the end of the White carpet. When they saw Nangong Nuannuan get out of the car, they all walked toward her.

"Nuannuan!"

Nuan Nuan! elder Chi called out and walked over with elder Nangong. the people from the nangong family, as well as bai liyue and the others, surrounded the two old men. a large group of people walked over together.

Nangong Nuannuan took a look. There were Grandpa Chi, second uncle, Feng shengxuan, first uncle, first aunt, second uncle, second aunt, third uncle, third aunt, second brother, third brother, fourth brother, fifth brother, sixth brother, Aiden, Selena, danqi, Leng Qirui, and Qianqian.

However, her brother chiyang was not there.

Nangong Nuannuan pursed her lips and stood rooted to the ground. The anticipation in her eyes slowly disappeared.

“Nuan Nuan, because of the earthquake, Chi Yang received an order from the battle Bureau 30 minutes ago to follow them to check the source of the earthquake. He also helped to rescue the victims and count the resources. He left with the Eagle squad 15 minutes before you arrived. We were originally invited by him to celebrate your 18th birthday with him, but unfortunately, he can’t attend now. He asked me to say sorry to you. Little girl, I’m really sorry, Yingluo.”

Old master Chi felt that he had let down his granddaughter-in-law.

Nuan Nuan was so obedient and sensible. She had originally thought that after she married into the Chi family, the Chi family would definitely give her a warm home, Yingluo.

Chapter 2407: 10

chi yang would definitely treat her well and love her. In the end, he didn’t expect this girl to do so much for the Chi family before she married into it. Not only did she save his life, but she also helped to maintain zeyao’s health.

The Chi family owed her so much. Because of zeyao and Xiaoxuan, her mother died a tragic death and she was abducted by human traffickers since she was young. They were supposed to pay her back, but not only did they fail to do so, they owed her even more.

Everyone knew what kind of day it was today.

Today was the day Nangong Nuannuan turned 18.

In Kamino, one would become an adult at the age of 18. For Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang, they could get married at the age of 18.

Such an important coming-of-age ceremony and marriage proposal ceremony had an inexplicable earthquake.

The girl had come, but Chi Yang had left.

He could feel the intense disappointment in his grandson’s heart when the earthquake suddenly arrived. He could also feel Nuan Nuan’s disappointment when she did not see Chi Yang.

When he saw Nuan Nuan’s moment of disappointment, old master Chi felt terrible.

“Grandpa, please don’t say that. I love big brother chiyang, and I’m willing to accept everything about him. big brother chiyang is not only my man, he is also the war god of the entire kamino kingdom. From the day I accepted him, I was already prepared to accept everything that his profession brought to him.”

Not only was old man Chi happy to hear Nangong Nuannuan’s words, but old man Nangong was also happy to hear them.

“Did you hear that? I’m telling you, my Nuannuan is such a good girl. She won’t be unhappy with Chi Yang because of this.”

Nangong Nuannuan also held old man Chi’s hand and said with a smile, “Grandpa, the best thing I’ve done in my life, and the happiest thing I’ve ever done, is being able to be with big brother chiyang. As long as he’s fine, I’ll be happy.”

Nangong Nuannuan looked at the red hearts beside her, which were not affected by the earthquake and were still intact. Her eyes were filled with gentleness and happiness.

“I know what big brother chiyang is planning to do. I’m 18 years old now, and I can marry him and be his wife, so he wants to propose to me today. After the combat service department’s review, I’ve been living with him. I usually live in the Chi family. In fact, I’ve long been the Chi family’s granddaughter-in-law, right? So it didn’t matter if brother chiyang proposed or not! Also, he can’t celebrate my coming of age ceremony with me, but don’t I still have so many family and friends? Grandpa, even if I missed the proposal, I’m still the happiest person in the world.”

as nangong nuannuan spoke, the corners of her lips were curved upwards. this made old master chi and chi zeyao believe that she truly felt blessed.

Tears welled up in old master Chi’s eyes as he looked at the stars dancing in Nuan Nuan’s eyes.

“nuannuan, thank you.”

“Grandfather, why are you thanking me?” Nangong Nuannuan was taken aback.

“Thank you for your tolerance of Chi Yang and our Chi family. And thank you, Yingluo.”

Before old master Chi could finish his sentence, Nangong Nuannuan leaned forward and gave him a hug, cutting off his rambling.

“Grandpa, I should be the one thanking you and brother chiyang. It was brother chiyang who gave me a home when I was all alone, and he gave me his unreserved love.”

Chapter 2408

“And thank you for accepting me as your granddaughter-in-law. To have relatives like you, second uncle, and big brother, I’m very happy and blissful!”

yes, yes, yes, yes. tears flowed down the old man’s face as he kept nodding.

“So, please don’t say thank you to me, okay?”

Even if she had to say thank you, she should be the one.

In her past life, brother chiyang had treated her so well, but she had let him down.

in her past life, grandpa chi had been so good to her, but she had let him down in the end.

In her past life, even though she had insensibly hurt brother chiyang and Grandpa Chi, when something had happened to her, Grandpa Chi had pushed brother chiyang out without hesitation and told him that if he couldn't save her, he didn't need to go back.

If she was a snake that had been trained since she was young to have no temperature, then in the six years of her previous life, these two men had also used their greatest tolerance and love to warm her up.

Therefore, no matter what happened in this life, no matter how the situation changed, they would always be the closest people to her.

"Boss, Happy Birthday!"

Selina walked up to Nangong Nuannuan and was about to hug her when she got out of old man Chi's arms.

By the time Feng shengxuan noticed this scheming girl's actions, it was already too late.

Selina and Nangong Nuannuan were already hugging each other.

"You have everything, you don't lack anything. My birthday gift is this hug. Boss, I wish you happiness!"

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and rubbed Selina's head like a good boyfriend. "Many thanks. I also hope that you can be happy."

After saying that, he glanced at Leng Qirui, who was standing at the side.

She realized that Leng Qirui was a single-celled animal because he could only be on good terms with one woman.

He used to talk to her all the time when he thought they were close. But after he got into a relationship with Selina, he felt like he had cheated on her just by talking to her for a few seconds.

Nangong Nuannuan couldn't understand his single-minded and straightforward thinking, but she wouldn't force him to do anything. She just wanted him to treat Selina well. As long as he was Selina's family, he was her family.

After Selina gave Nangong Nuannuan a hug, Feng shengxuan walked up to his girl.

He sized up the girl who had grown up to be a graceful and elegant woman. When she came to his side, she was still a soft and cuddly little bean. Now, she was already a big girl. a sense of accomplishment welled up in him.

just as he was about to open his arms to hug nangong nuannuan, nangong jin pushed him away without any mercy and hugged nangong nuannuan.

"Girl, Happy Birthday! Congratulations on becoming an adult."

After Nangong Jin, the second, third, and sixth young masters of the Nangong family hugged Nangong Nuannuan one by one.

feng shengxuan was dumbfounded.

This is simply ...

He was too shameless!

after all, he was the one who had raised nuannuan through painstaking means.

She had allowed her grandfather to hug her first because he liked Nuannuan. He could give in.

However, what did the six people from the Nangong family mean? She actually pushed him away and went straight for Nuannuan.

Even if they were blood-related, they were only cousins. Neither of them had contributed to Nuannuan's growth and were always dragging her down. What right did they have to surpass her and get to Nuannuan first?

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2409

Feng shengxuan pushed Nangong ze, who had just finished hugging Nangong Nuannuan, away unhappily and aggressively. He then hugged Nangong Nuannuan forcefully.

Nangong Nuannuan was pulled into Feng shengxuan's arms by surprise. She was a little surprised at first, but she was relieved in an instant.

Although Feng shengxuan was the one who had her kidnapped, compared to living with Zhong Kuijun for 14 years, she was really glad that Feng shengxuan had kidnapped her.

In the 14 years that she had lived with Feng shengxuan, the instructor had indeed been very devilish to her, but Feng shengxuan had taken care of her in every way possible. Especially after she recognized him as her big brother when she was five years old, he shouldered the responsibility of being her big brother. No matter what the coach said, at least he treated her like a little princess.

With the protection of the King, Feng shengxuan, she had never been truly bullied in her childhood.

All the abilities she had now were given to her by him.

And these skills were the only things that allowed her to survive in this world.

Otherwise, if she were to live in the Nangong family, she might face the same fate as her mother one day. If she continued to live in the Zhong family, she would become a down-and-out daughter who would be oppressed by her stepmother at the bottom.

All the glory she had today was given to her by this man.

"Brother, thank you."

Nangong Nuannuan wrapped her arms around his waist and said what she had been holding back.

Feng shengxuan's eyes reddened instantly when he heard that. An unfamiliar emotion suddenly welled up in his heart and slowly flowed into his limbs and bones.

This was the first time his Princess had thanked him. After all, she had never been polite to him before.

So, his Princess really didn't blame him for what he had done in the past.

In fact, she also liked to live with him.

However, at this moment, even without that annoying fellow Chi Yang, Feng shengxuan felt that his Princess was about to leave his side and live a different life.

The reluctance in his heart, the concern of an old father for his soon-to-be married daughter, the resentment of being afraid that she would not have a good life in the future, and the resentment that she would no longer belong to him in the future, all surged up in his mind.

"In the future, if he doesn't treat you well, just tell me and I'll take you away. If he dares to hurt you, tell me and I'll kill him!"

With that, Nangong Nuannuan left his arms.

Before Nangong Nuannuan could say anything, Chi zeyao had already extended the stick from his wheelchair and jabbed it into Feng shengxuan's leg.

The rod still had electricity on it, and Feng shengxuan jumped.

"Nuan Nuan is the daughter-in-law of the Chi family. Where are you going?"

Feng shengxuan:

The brothers of the Nangong family laughed unkindly when they saw the Great Demon King being defeated.

As for this older brother who didn't have a business license, they were still quite repulsed by him.

Now that someone could teach him a lesson, they were all gloating.

When Nangong Nuannuan heard that he was going to kill Chi Yang, she couldn't help but burst out in anger, "Yeah, where are you going? Don't you want Grandpa and second uncle anymore?"

Feng shengxuan:

He felt that he had raised this sister for nothing.

Not only did she fail to call him 'daddy' or 'hubby', but she even betrayed him.

His heart felt very stifled!

After that, while everyone was against Feng shengxuan and was happy to see him become a spendthrift-

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2410

The atmosphere that had been a little bleak after Chi Yang's departure was instantly revived by the large wave of grandfathers, uncles, brothers, and friends.

Taking advantage of the beautiful scene that Chi Yang had set up, Nangong Nuannuan had the most lively and happiest birthday she had ever had.

When it was time for the birthday cake, Nangong Nuannuan's family brought her to an empty space behind the command center.

The front of the command post was covered with a white carpet, on which were the hearts of the people. And behind the command post, it was a fairytale-like Kingdom built by the red sun.

The colors were ice blue and white, which were Nangong Nuannuan's favorites.

On the ground, circles of red candles and red roses were arranged in a pattern.

It looked like a maze, but from a distance, one could see that it was a ribbon pattern made of red roses.

Nangong Nuannuan followed the pattern to the first box. She squatted down and opened one of the boxes.

The moment it was opened, the fireworks inside were dazzling.

Accompanying the fireworks was the music from her mobile phone.

[ if you want to sing me to you, while you're still young like a flower, let the flowers bloom to your heart's content and decorate your years and my branches. Who can replace you? love to your heart's content while you're still young, my dearest one. The journey is long, let's be together ]

The fireworks bloomed brightly, and her picture was spinning on it. Nice music rang in his ears. It was a birthday cake, and on the cake were the words-

[ baby, happy first birthday! May you become the most brilliant firework in the world! ]

Nangong Nuannuan looked at the cute cake that was full of a sense of lag. She reached out her finger and gently rubbed a little cream on it before putting it into her mouth.

The sweet taste filled his mouth and slowly slid into his taste buds.

Nangong Nuannuan felt her entire being melt.

He opened the small box at the side. There was a palm-sized golden lock inside.

The word " Fortune " was engraved on the Golden lock with countless white diamonds. Beside the word was a small koi fish decorated with red diamonds.

Nangong Nuannuan couldn't help but laugh as she held the small golden lock.

This thing was obviously the work of brother chiyang.

Big brother chiyang was good at everything, but he wasn't very good at painting. When it came to color matching, it could be said that he knew nothing about it.

Usually, he would either wear a battle uniform, a black or white suit, or a shirt or t-shirt. In short, he was a man who did not have a strong sense of color.

Therefore, with just a glance, Nangong Nuannuan knew that brother chiyang must have designed it himself and gotten someone to make it.

The craftsmanship was very good, but the color tone was simply amazing.

“What kind of crap did he give us? Is this something he can give you? Gold Plus white diamond Plus red Diamond, that’s just too cliché, okay?”

To the Best Actor, Feng shengxuan, this man was a fashion icon. No matter what he wore, he could match the colors perfectly.

Besides, Feng shengxuan had always liked to go with all kinds of colors. with brother chiyang’s obvious newbie pairing, being despised by him was like a max-level god massacring a newbie village.

But what could he do?

Brother chiyang had spent a lot of time designing this thing, and she really liked it!

Nangong Nuannuan glanced at Feng shengxuan, who was on the verge of tears. She wiped her tears away and said to Feng shengxuan,
