Chapter 241: There Is No Love

"If mother really made a mistake and had swapped us, then I won't have to be rejected by my grandmother in the future. After all, I am not the granddaughter of the Jiang family and the Jiang family can't control me."

Zhong Nuannuan's words made Zhong Kuijun's expression turn completely black.

He did not understand. Did this group of people grow up eating sh*t, which had ended up filling their brains with sh*t too? Why were they escalating things like this?

Faced with Zhong Nuannuan, who was set on doing a maternity test, the Jiang family did not know what to say.

They were worried that Zhong Kuijun was going to divorce Jiang Shuwan before and had tried to complain about Zhong Nuannuan. However, now they were so stunned they did not even know what to say.

Although they did not speak and their expressions were unreadable, Zhong Nuannuan sensed their panic.

"Father, we just happen to be in the hospital. Can I apply for a maternity test?"

Zhong Nuannuan had always found it strange that the Jiang family also owned Cloud Group and could make a lot of money a year. Even if they had to rely on Zhong Kuijun to run things, the whole family would not listen to what Zhong Kuijun said. After all, Zhong Kuijun was just a lowly commander. Although the captain's official position in the campaign office was quite high, it was still considered low within the Jiang family.

Thus, Zhong Kuijun must have grasped the weakness of the Jiang family.

If she wanted to uncover the secrets in her body and understand what medicine the Zhong family and Jiang family were selling in the gourd, she had to kick up a sh*t storm.

She believed that Zhong Kuijun and the Jiang family had a way to tamper with the results of this test, so she did not have to worry that she and Zhong Qianqian's identity would be exposed so early.

After this appraisal, the Jiang family would definitely converge a lot to handle things. More importantly, she could also learn whether Zhong Kuijun was the mastermind or just complicit in the matter of the child exchange.

Zhong Kuijun's expression turned nasty as the Jiang family fell silent. Old Lady Jiang wanted to say something, but Zhong Kuijun threw her a sharp look and immediately silenced her.

Only

Jiang Shuwan knew that her words had been heard by Leng Qirui, but since he was still Commander-In-Chief Leng's son, he did not dare to speak again.

"Well, since you want to do a maternity test so badly, I will bring you to do it."

Zhong Kuijun's words made Jiang Shuwan and the Jiang family's hearts jump into their throats.

Jiang Shuwan finally could not suppress the fear in her heart and said softly, "Nuannuan, I didn't expect you to misunderstand your mother and grandmother so badly."

"Say child, if you are not of your mother's blood, then why would your mother keep you by her side? You are stabbing your mother's heart huhuhu..."

Jiang Hanlin, who had not spoken this whole time, also intervened at this moment and said, "Nuannuan, we all say that fear is the heart of love. The reason why we never talk about Qianqian or scold her is because we have no love for her! After all! To our Jiang family, Qianqian is just an outsider."

Zhong Nuannuan was amused by these words. "Doesn't Uncle feel bad saying this? You think of Qianqian whenever there is something nice to eat or wear. If there are good men, you also think of Zhong Qianqian and introduce them to her. As for me, you all treat me as an enemy. My mother scolded me when she first woke up just now. She blamed me for nothing when it came to Zhong Qianqian's marriage and gave me a vicious order to settle the relationship between Leng Qirui and her within a month... So, it turns out, this is called having no love!"

Chapter 242: Anger a Group of People to Death

"Uncle, although I came from the farming district, and am not an aristocratic gentlewoman in your eyes, does being poor mean that I'm a fool?"

Jiang Hanlin was speechless.

"I'll call the doctor to come over and draw blood now. Nuannuan, whether you're your mother's daughter or not, and are a child under the Jiang Family or not, just wait until Dad and your mother are divorced. As long as you don't want to, you don't have to interact with the Jiang Family."

After saying that, Zhong Kuijun went out to call a doctor.

Jiang Shuwan was completely dazed. She had never thought that Zhong Kuijun would actually divorce her over these trivial matters.

The Jiang Family was also dumbfounded.

Although the president of Cloud Group was Jiang Hanlin, Zhong Kuijun had been in charge of the entire company throughout all these years. If he really divorced Jiang Shuwan and took the Cloud Group away from the Jiang Family, then they would be left with nothing!

Grandma Jiang had already been accustomed to a noblewoman's lifestyle, so how could she endure returning to poverty again?

As she glared at Zhong Nuannuan, Grandma Jiang wished she could cut her apart a thousand times with her gaze.

"Are you happy now? You're making your father and mother argue over a possible divorce, and a good family is shattered just like that. Are you happy now?"

"I'm making them get a divorce? It seems that you're the ones who are causing trouble every time, right? Just like today for example, Grandma, if you didn't beat me without reason after arriving at the hospital and try to tarnish my reputation in front of so many people, would this issue be raised today? As for Zhong Qianqian's mother, if she didn't cause trouble after she woke up, would my dad be unable to stand her any longer such that he would want to divorce her?"

"Whether it was Chi Yang's matter before this, Aiden's matter, Gu Mingzhe's matter, or Leng Qirui's matter now, all of you started causing trouble first. According to what you said, if you cause trouble, I must endure it. Hence, I must tolerate it anytime I'm wronged, even if it ends up with me being beaten. In this case, wouldn't you be the ones causing trouble?"

"Grandma, don't impose onto others what you yourself do not desire. If you don't want me to cause trouble, you'd better shut your mouth first. Otherwise, I'll be accused of disrespecting the elderly in the future. Although it's nothing to me, I'm afraid that you won't be able to bear it, Grandma."

This was really enough, a house full of weirdos.

If this were the old her, she would have already wiped out anyone who was not pleasing to the eye. However, at the moment, she still had to leave a bunch of mice stumbling around in front of her, but that did not mean she had to play nice with them.

"You..."

Grandma Jiang was about to die from anger. Her heart trembled with rage, but she could not do anything to the other party.

"What about me? It seems like Grandma has been a noble woman for a long time, and doesn't know what submission is. Anyway, I don't care. After Dad and Zhong Qianqian's mother are divorced, I'll be staying with Dad anyway, so I won't lose anything."

Only

"What do you mean, Zhong Qianqian's mother? She's clearly your mother!" Grandma Jiang was very anxious, and her eyes darkened with anger.

"The maternity test is not even done yet, so it's still too early for you to say this. Right, Grandma Jiang?" Zhong Nuannuan not only changed the way she addressed Jiang Shuwan, but also stopped addressing her grandmother formally as well.

"Besides, so what if she's my mother? Since she loves Zhong Qianqian so much, she'll be Zhong Qianqian's mother after the separation. This has nothing to do with me."

She had seen foolishness, but never to this extent.

At this moment, everyone missed the old Zhong Nuannuan a little.

Especially Jiang Hanlin. He felt extremely resentful toward his own mother and younger sister.

“Nuannuan, Uncle knows that your mother and grandmother made you sad. However, you see, at the end of the day, we’re still a family, and your dad is very protective of you. Do you really want to see this family separated?”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 243: Slap In The Face

Zhong Nuannuan raised her lips slightly and smiled sweetly. “Then it depends on what you do. After all, I wasn’t the one who forced all of you to start a catfight with me.”

“Nuannuan, Mom is sorry. Mom has really been biased in the past, and Mom won’t do this anymore in the future. Would you tell your father not to divorce Mom?”

Jiang Shuwan hated her to death at this moment, but if Zhong Nuannuan did not say anything, Zhong Kuijun might really go through with this.

Without Zhong Kuijun, she was nothing.

“Auntie Jiang, anyone can compare the whiteness of their teeth. There’s a saying that goes, ‘If apologies are useful, why are the police still needed?’ Ask yourself, how many times have you apologized to me since I came home? Do you think I care about your apology?” Zhong Nuannuan’s referral to her as “Auntie Jiang” was really heart-wrenching.

“Nuannuan, what do you want then? Do you really want Mom and Dad to get divorced just like this? You’re a piece of flesh that fell out of Mom’s belly! Are you really happy to see Mom fight with your dad like this?”

“It’s said that the kindness given at birth is not bigger than the love and care given during upbringing, and I can see that clearly now. Whether I’m your daughter or not, you’re the closest to Zhong Qianqian. However, people start taking you for granted when you give them too much kindness. I poured my heart out to Zhong Qianqian, but she always regarded me as an enemy! I feel very helpless too.”

Jiang Hanlin quickly added, “This is indeed all Qianqian’s fault, I’ll look for Qianqian immediately and ask her to apologize to you. From now on, Uncle will also supervise your mother and grandmother. After all, Qianqian is the child they raised, so biasness was always inevitable. Even so, from today onward, from this moment on, you’re the child of our Jiang Family, so we’ll all look after you, okay?”

“Okay.”

The Jiang Family’s eyes lit up in unison.

“Then... About the divorce...”

“We’ll see after Zhong Qianqian admits her wrongdoings to me.”

The Jiang Family was speechless.

Although they knew that Zhong Nuannuan would not necessarily reconcile her parents after Zhong Qianqian admitted her mistake, this was their only option right now.

After all, if the divorce goes through, the Jiang Family would really be left with nothing.

Jiang Hanlin worked fast, and after a while, Zhong Qianqian returned with red eyes.

Jiang Hanlin had already told her what to say. While she was shocked that her father actually wanted to divorce her mother, she also resented Zhong Nuannuan's viciousness.

She had caused her so much harm, and now she still had to apologize to her!

Why?

However, she did not want her parents to get divorced, nor did she want everything she had now to vanish like soap bubbles.

Her uncle had never been fierce to her before, but not only did her uncle scold her earlier, he even gave her a slap in the face. This immediately made her understand that the Jiang Family had nowhere to go.

"Nuannuan, I'm sorry."

Only

"Where are you sorry?" Looking at Zhong Qianqian's unwilling expression, Zhong Nuannuan did not plan to be softhearted.

"It's my fault. I shouldn't have spoken ill of you in front of the classmates, nor should I have told Grandma that you hurt Mom today."

Zhong Nuannuan raised her eyebrows. "Is that it?"

Zhong Qianqian took a deep breath before continuing. "I was also wrong to fight for Chi Yang with you in the past."

"What else? Did I make you lose Aiden and Gu Mingzhe?"

"No, you didn't." Zhong Qianqian shook her head in humiliation. "It's Mom and I who didn't pay proper attention to the situation, and it had nothing to do with you."

Seeing that Zhong Nuannuan had stopped talking, Zhong Qianqian replied, "Nuannuan, Mom and Dad's relationship has always been very good, and our Zhong Family has always been a harmonious household. Can you tell Dad not to divorce Mom?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 244

"Yes."

Everyone's eyes lit up.

"However, you have to do a self-reflection in front of all the students tomorrow."

Zhong Qianqian was lost for words.

After a long silence, Zhong Qianqian nodded. "Okay."

"3000 words!"

Zhong Qianqian's eyes were teary with anger, and she glanced at the Jiang Family. However, under the pressure of everyone's gaze, Zhong Qianqian bit her lips and agreed.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at the Jiang Family again. "I was not raised by you, so I hope that you won't always use your status as an elder to nag me from now on. I can forgive all of you for what happened today, but if you upset me again in the future, I'll spare no effort in urging my father to divorce my mother."

The Jiang Family was speechless.

"As for Mom. Your emotions are not very well controlled by your brain, so I hope that you will think about today's incident before you talk and speak in the future. I particularly hate people who yell at me. Since you love Zhong Qianqian more, then no matter what the result of the test is, you should just go and be a good mother to Zhong Qianqian. Since you can't give me maternal love, and since you didn't raise me yourself, I hope that you won't govern my affairs so much in the future."

Jiang Shuwan gritted her teeth with hatred, but she had no choice, she really could not divorce Zhong Kuijun. Thus, after hearing Zhong Nuannuan's threat, she could only cry and repeat the words, "Nuannuan, you've misunderstood Mom..."

Zhong Kuijun was gone for quite a long time before the nurses from the hospital came by. After they extracted some of Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Nuannuan's blood, they left again.

Zhong Kuijun did not know what had happened earlier, and he only apologized to Leng Qirui. "Sorry Lil Rui, you've just watched a joke. Family misfortunes, family misfortunes!"

"It's nothing. Although Auntie Jiang and the Jiang Family are a little unhinged, fortunately, you're a sensible person, Uncle."

Zhong Kuijun was very happy to receive Leng Qirui's affirmation.

He turned to look at Zhong Nuannuan and said, "You and Lil Rui have been delayed here for a very long time. The final exams are approaching, and you've also missed a lot of classes before this, so quickly go back to class."

"Okay."

Zhong Nuannuan did not even hesitate for half a second. Without saying a word, she stood up and left with Leng Qirui.

"Nuannuan!" Jiang Hanlin hurriedly stopped Zhong Nuannuan. "You haven't stated your position yet."

Zhong Nuannuan stopped and turned to look at Zhong Kuijun. "Dad, you should be more cautious about the divorce. After all, it's a serviceman's marriage."

Zhong Nuannuan's words reminded the Jiang Family of a crucial point that they had forgotten up until this point.

Dang it.

Zhong Kuijun and Jiang Shuwan had a serviceman's marriage.

Unless Zhong Kuijun surrendered Jiang Shuwan's secret, the military bases would not allow them to divorce so easily.

Despite this, Zhong Kuijun would not actually dare to really hand over the evidence since he would not be able to escape punishment once it is handed over.

They were so stupid. They only remembered that Zhong Kuijun could control them, but totally forgot that there was also a military base that could control Zhong Kuijun.

"Okay, Dad understands. You can leave with Lil Rui, having Qianqian around to look after your mother is enough."

Zhong Qianqian gritted her teeth with hatred. They were both children of the Zhong Family, so why should Zhong Nuannuan go to class while she had to stay here? She was not the one who did this to her mother!

Only

This was what she thought, but Zhong Qianqian did not dare to say it. Thus, she could only watch them leave with a bitter expression on her face.

"Your family is really messed up." After leaving the ward, Leng Qirui voiced out his feelings.

"Same to you."

"I'm telling the truth!"

"Well, does that mean what I'm saying is incorrect?"

Leng Qirui had nothing to say.

"I think they may not really be your relatives."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 245: A Mouthful of Exhaust and Dog Food

Zhong Nuannuan decided not to comment on Leng Qirui's speculation.

"If they're really not your relatives, then what do you plan to do?"

"It's easy if they're not my relatives. It'll be more difficult if they're really my relatives."

Especially Zhong Kuijun, that person who was immutably her father.

Why did they change children in the first place? Why was Zhong Qianqian's DNA also 100% identical to hers?

She did not believe that Zhong Kuijun was unaware about this.

As soon as she walked out of the hospital, she saw Chi Yang rushing toward them.

Zhong Nuannuan was startled. A bright smile immediately appeared on her face, then her whole person flew ahead like a butterfly.

"Big Brother Chi Yang!"

Seeing that the T-Rex, who was still exuding a sinister aura a moment ago, instantly transform into a soft, cute kitten, Leng Qirui was a little dazed by the seamless transition between her brutal demeanor to soft cuteness.

At this time, Zhong Nuannuan had already rushed into Chi Yang's arms.

Chi Yang rubbed Zhong Nuannuan's bun hairstyle fondly, then asked, "How are you? Have you been bullied?"

He had asked Leng Qirui to protect Zhong Nuannuan no matter what when he was in the car earlier, so Chi Yang was not too worried, yet he still asked just to be safe.

"Come on, do you think I look like the kind of person who will be bullied?"

"Well, I heard that the Jiang Family arrived as well, so I was afraid that they would besiege you."

"Don't worry, if one of them comes, I'll kill one of them; if a group of them comes, I will kill the whole group."

Her words were filled with bloodlust, however, they sounded extremely pleasing to Chi Yang's ears. Gently tugging at her collagen-filled cheek, Chi Yang praised her, "Very good."

Leng Qirui, who was stuffed with a mouthful of dog food, could not help but feel his mouth twitch. (TN: The term 'eating dog food' is a popular saying used to describe people who feel envious after witnessing public displays of affection by other couples.)

What was so good about what she just said?

Zhong Nuannuan raised her head, and her eyes that were gazing at Chi Yang were filled with love and admiration.

Especially when she thought of what she felt when she kissed him this morning. Zhong Nuannuan could not help but want to pounce on him.

Restraining her wild, wolfish heart, Zhong Nuannuan asked, "Why are you here?"

"I was worried that you'd be bullied. It happens that I don't have anything important to do this morning, so I applied for leave and came over."

"Then are you still going back to the military base today?"

"I took a day off."

"That's amazing, I took a day off as well!"

"Then... How about I take you to the house I bought near your school? If you don't want to live in the dormitory, you can also live in that house."

"Okay." Zhong Nuannuan nodded happily.

"Let's go then."

After saying that, he got into the car with Zhong Nuannuan.

Leng Qirui, who ate a mouthful of exhaust gas, was speechless as he watched the car pull away.

What about him?

Li Qi, who watched the car drive off into the distance, was also at a loss for words.

Should he follow the director-general's car, take Leng Qirui to school for classes, or give himself a day off?

Only

Leng Qirui's feelings for his first love was only just starting to blossom when Chi Yang suddenly poured a basin of cold water on his head and woke him up.

They did not even pay any attention to him!

These two people were just too much.

"Young Master Leng, I'll send you to school." Since the director-general had already applied for leave, Li Qi decided not to become the director-general's third wheel. Thus, he shouldered the responsibility of guarding Young Master Leng.

Leng Qirui originally wanted to go straight back home, but he thought that Li Qi was Chi Yang's driver, and that if he went back home directly, his father would be unhappy again. In the end, he could only go to class alone.

As he listened to the teacher speak in class and watched the empty table next to him, Leng Qirui felt that his heart was also empty.

After class, Leng Qirui was in a bad mood. He was just about to go out for a walk when he saw the butler, who was wearing a coquettish golden suit, standing in the distance whilst leaning against the car.

Chapter 246: Help to Pursue Zhong Nuannuan

When he saw Leng Qirui coming out of the classroom, he quickly greeted him mischievously.

"Young Master, was everything alright when you stayed the night at the commander-in-chief's place yesterday?"

"It was alright." Leng Qirui replied with a lack of interest.

The butler's gaze stayed on Leng Qirui. He could from his close observations over the past few years that the young master was in a bad mood now.

"Young Master, I heard some... small gossip earlier on campus, I don't know if it's true."

Seeing that Leng Qirui was silent, the butler continued to smile and ask, "They said that... Young Master, did you confess to that girl Zhong Nuannuan yesterday?"

Leng Qirui glanced at him. "Why, can't I? Was it because she broke your arm yesterday, and you want to seek revenge on her?" He was well aware of what the butler's personality was like.

The butler burst out in laughter. "How is that possible? Am I that kind of person? Young Master, you really look down on me! That's our future young mistress. It's already too late for me to flatter her, so how could I dare seek revenge on her?"

"She can't be a young mistress anymore." Leng Qirui felt lonely again.

"Hmm... Huh?" The butler's eyes widened.

"My confession was rejected."

The butler's eyes widened again, and he was instantly dissatisfied.

"Who is she? How dare she reject your confession, Young Master! Young Master, do you want me to use any special means?"

Under the threat of Leng Qirui's sharp gaze, the butler immediately corrected himself. "Ahem, what was that, what I mean to say was, do you need me to help you pursue Miss Zhong Nuannuan?"

"You, help me, to pursue her?"

"Yes, you can hand over this matter to me, and I'll definitely have her following you willingly within three months."

Leng Qirui replied noncommittingly, "Okay, you can go then. However, she's currently in a relationship with Big Brother Chi, their marriage report was also approved by my father. Once Zhong Nuannuan becomes an adult, they will get married. If you really have a method to get this matter done, I'll give you a tenfold increase in your salary."

When the butler heard the name "Chi Yang", a cold and stern gaze automatically appeared in his mind. He had always felt that gaze could cut into the human skin and illuminate their insides, making himself feel completely exposed when faced with the other party. Therefore, although he had been a butler for the Leng Family for three years, he had only seen Chi Yang three times.

"What? Chi... Chi Yang?" The butler was so stunned that he could not believe what he had just heard.

"Yes."

The butler was taken aback!

Watching the butler's expression that looked as if he had just eaten poop, Leng Qirui knew it was hopeless. Forget a tenfold increase in salary, even if he increased the butler's salary by a hundred times, he still would not dare to help him pursue her.

Hence, he patted the butler's shoulder, walked around him, and left.

The butler was momentarily dazed, and when he recovered, his young master was already gone. With that, he could only return to the car, start the engine, and leave.

Along the way, the butler's expression darkened.

There was still nobody who was being held responsible after hurting him.

Only

This woman turned out to be Chi Yang's fiancée, so how could he take revenge on her?

It was easy to kill her or maim her, but with Chi Yang as her guardian, could he hope to escape after committing these deeds?

Therefore, his arm was hurt for nothing.

"Ah—"

The butler was so angry that he did not return to his senses until he hit someone.

He quickly stopped the car and went out to check the situation. Immediately, he saw that the person he hit had already stood up, so he knew that she was definitely alright.

He was just about to give her a scolding and tell her to keep her eyes on the road, but then he saw that among the textbooks scattered on the ground, there happened to be a page with a female doll drawn on it. She had already drawn over the female doll with a pen to the point of no recognition, and there was a bold line of words beside it that said, "Zhong Nuannuan, go to hell, wench!"

Chapter 247: A Eureka Moment

The butler's gaze darkened. He pretended not to see it, and quickly went to help the person who was knocked down.

At this moment, Wu Wenqian had already stood up with the support of another girl.

"Student, are you alright?"

Wu Wenqian was hit by someone, and she was initially fuming with anger, but when she saw that the approaching person was Young Master Leng's butler, she immediately decided against acting brazenly.

"I... I'm fine."

"Take two steps quickly and see if there's any problem with your bones."

Wu Wenqian was originally from a poor family. She was only able to come to Jia Yong because of her good results, and was exempted from paying her tuition fees by Jia Yong.

"It's okay, my bones are fine."

"If you're alright, that's good, if you're alright, that's good!"

The butler smiled and helped Wu Wenqian pick up all her belongings, then placed them in his car.

Wu Wenqian was lost for words. She was going to class, why did he put her belongings in his car?

"Let's go, I'll take you to the hospital."

Wu Wenqian was flattered. "No... There's no need for that, my bones are fine, so there's no need to go to the hospital."

"All of you young girls don't pay proper attention to your health. Although there's nothing wrong with your bones, you still have to go for a checkup anyway. Even if your soft tissues are injured, it's still a big deal."

After he said that, he helped Wu Wenqian into his car without any further discussion.

Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan were both dumbfounded. It was not until the car's engine started that Wu Wenqian finally said, "Shanshan, please help me to request a leave of absence from the teacher."

"Okay."

Wu Wenqian was brought away just like that.

Along the way, the butler used his cell phone to call someone.

"Is the matter resolved yet? ... What's so troublesome about such a simple matter? ... Who allowed you to contact those thugs yourself? Are you living in ancient times? Don't you know that everything can be solved using the Internet now? ... En Choutian, look for this website. The person in charge of this website is a hacker with a strong sense of responsibility and morality. He has loaded the website with a firewall program that not even the police can overcome. Not to mention, the IP addresses of those who enter the website will be automatically blocked. This website is just a third-party platform, which you can do many things and meet many people on. At the same time, there are also some titular organizations, ranging from small thugs who charge a few thousand dollars to killers who charge a few million dollars, all taking tasks on the platform. The website's system originates from Sab, and not even the police are able to access their webpage."

The butler was still talking, but Wu Wenqian could not hear him anymore. His words seemed to open a new chapter in her thoughts.

Only

Yes, although Zhong Nuannuan had Young Master Leng as protection, there would always be a time when she was alone. As long as they could find someone to take care of her in the mountainous area...

Wu Wenqian felt happier the more she thought about it. She believed that with Zhong Qianqian's strong hatred for Zhong Nuannuan, she would definitely be willing to do this.

The butler sent Wu Wenqian to the nearest hospital and accompanied her to check her feet. After ensuring that she was okay, he gave her another 20,000 dollars, telling her to buy delicious food as supplements, then personally sent her back to the school after.

Young Master Leng's butler was notoriously fierce, but this time, he left a very good impression in Wu Wenqian's heart.

After she returned, Wu Wenqian told Li Shanshan and Xue Miqi her thoughts.

"No! Although I also hate Zhong Nuannuan a lot, we're still students. If this incident gets out, it won't lead to something as simple as an expulsion—we'll definitely enter the police station."

"Li Shanshan, I already found out that you were wrong yesterday."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 248: Spoiled Rotten

"When we come up with ideas on how to deal with Zhong Nuannuan, you were always watching from the side and never come up with a single idea. What do you mean? Do you mean to betray us?" Mue Miqi was very dissatisfied with Li Shanshan's attitude.

Li Shanshan's face flushed with anger.

"How could I betray all of you?"

"Wasn't I scolded together with Qianqian? Besides, remember Qianqian's bet, didn't I also participate in it?"

"Then why are you stopping us? That woman is so detestable, I think that Qianqian's suggestion is feasible! What's the use of just asking her to apologize? Will the insults we suffered disappear just like that?"

Li Shanshan felt depressed. If she had not wanted to hook up with rich people through Zhong Qianqian, she would not want to be so close with such a foolhardy and domineering person like Xue Miqi.

"Xue Miqi, don't forget that Zhong Nuannuan has the same parents as Qianqian. Whatever resources that Qianqian has, she has too! Moreover, she's more powerful than Qianqian now, and she even has a high-ranking military officer as a fiancé. If something really happens to her, will her fiancé let us go?"

"It's not like we're the ones who will be dealing with her. What are you afraid of?"

"Whatever you do, you are sure to leave traces behind! What is impossible for the police to do might not necessarily be impossible for the commanders in the military base. Their special forces have strong investigative abilities. If they find us, let me ask you, what should we do then?"

Xue Miqi shot Li Shanshan a fierce glare. "So, you're sure that you won't be participating?"

"I didn't say that I'm not participating, I just reckon that your approach won't work."

“Why didn’t you reckon that your looks wouldn’t work when you asked Qianqian to introduce a boyfriend to you?”

“You...”

“Okay, stop arguing, you two! Miqi, although you’re right, we have to consider Shanshan’s advice as well. When Qianqian arrives tomorrow, we’ll plan this together.”

For Zhong Nuannuan, this was just a small episode that she had no knowledge of, and had yet to happen.

At this moment, she was walking around the mall, holding Chi Yang’s arm while bursting with happiness.

Earlier, Chi Yang took her to an apartment that was only a quarter hour’s walk from the school.

The apartment was about 130 square meters across, and contained two rooms and two living areas. Although its furniture had been arranged very neatly, at first glance, they appeared to have been placed randomly. On closer inspection, many items also seemed to be missing.

However, Zhong Nuannuan did not exploit Big Brother Chi Yang’s kindness. Taking advantage of the fact that both of were free, they decided to go to the mall to shop for more things.

In the future, whenever she would not go to the military base, as long as Chi Yang was free, this place would be their love nest.

Therefore, Zhong Nuannuan, who was usually extremely cautious, became extra serious when picking the items.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, do you think this color is good, or is this color better?”

Chi Yang stood to one side and stared at the two sets of bed sheets in Zhong Nuannuan’s hands. One set was dark gray, while the other was platinum. In short, both were gray.

Only

Glancing at the pastel colors that she did not even consider, Chi Yang raised his brows slightly.

“Which one of these two colors do you prefer?”

Zhong Nuannuan looked at them carefully for a long while. “I think they both look good.”

“Then we’ll buy both of them.”

“The thing is, we’ve already bought three sets, and each set is either gray or blue. Will buying two more sets be too much?”

“No, their patterns are different. Even if they’re the same, you can buy it if you like it.”

The attendant’s eyes almost turned into hearts upon hearing Chi Yang’s answer.

Chapter 249: Accompany My Partner

Their brand could be said to be the top-of-the-line brand among bedding products, and one pillow could sell for seven or eight thousand dollars.

Therefore, sometimes they could not even sell two sets of their items in a day.

It was very rare to encounter such customers who could buy two sets without a second thought. The bonus was that... This man was very handsome!

Just as Zhong Nuannuan was ready to say "Yes", Chi Yang's cell phone rang...

After taking a look at the caller ID, he saw that the call was coming from the military base. Chi Yang answered the phone and said his greetings.

"Director-General Chi, hello, this is Wang Gangyi."

"Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang."

Unlike ordinary people, who would be surprised and flattered whenever they received his phone call, Chi Yang only responded indifferently upon hearing the other party's self-introduction.

Although he had heard of Commander-in-Chief Leng treating Chi Yang differently before, Wang Gangyi had held a high position for a long time, and he was used to the feeling of his subordinates flattering him. Thus, when he heard Chi Yang's steady voice, he became slightly uncomfortable, and felt that this unperturbed voice was looking down on him.

Did this mean that this man was against becoming friends with him after hooking up with Leng Jinpeng?

Although he felt uncomfortable, he had still been a commander for a long time after all, and he would not show his emotions. With that, Wang Gangyi displayed his strong commander's posture and said, "Director-General Chi, there's a dinner at six o'clock tonight at Lijing Mansion's Brocade Hall. Come and attend it with me."

Chi Yang was puzzled.

The special forces team he belonged to was under the direct control of Leng Jinpeng, and he was not familiar with Wang Gangyi. Why did this person suddenly call him and ask him to participate in a dinner with a commanding tone?

After another glance at the caller ID, he was sure that this call was indeed from within the military base, and finally said, "I'm on leave today."

Wang Gangyi was speechless. Soldiers almost obeyed their superiors unconditionally, so Wang Gangyi had already planned to hang up after the other party responded. However, such an unexpected reply caused him to become slightly confused.

"What did you say?" Wang Gangyi felt that he had probably heard wrongly.

"I'm on leave today, and I'm accompanying my partner at home, so I can't participate in the dinner."

Wang Gangyi was shocked! If the purpose of the call was not to invite Chi Yang out tonight, Wang Gangyi would have almost cursed out at him.

“Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang, if there’s nothing else, I’ll hang up now.”

When Wang Gangyi, who was still suppressing his anger, heard Chi Yang being so disrespectful, such that he even wanted to hang up on him, he exploded.

“Why, Director-General Chi, are you looking down on me?”

Only

“You’re joking, Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang, it’s not that I’m looking down on you, but I want to be with my partner tonight.”

Chi Yang had already encountered many people like Wang Gangyi. Regardless of his answer, the opposing party would already have locked in their beliefs. Despite this, he felt that he had already spoken clearly enough. He wanted to be with his partner, and could a dinner be more important than him accompanying his partner?

Sure enough, people who did not operate on the same wavelength would not understand each other regardless of the amount of saliva used.

At this point, Wang Gangyi also felt that Chi Yang really did not know how to appreciate favors.

Was joining him for a dinner less important than accompanying his nuisance of a partner?

He wanted to reprimand Chi Yang, but recalled that Chi Yang had accomplished countless military merits without any background, and by virtue of his own strength. He had already become a captain at such a young age, and was only one rank lower than him, a person in his fifties. Therefore, when he thought of this, he swallowed his words.

Having held a high position for so many decades, he had learned that always leaving routes open was absolutely essential.

Chapter 250: Dinner

Chi Yang’s military rank was lower than him now, but he believed that in less than 20 years... no, 10 years’ time, this person’s military rank may be equal to, or even higher than him.

Although a person like him had a stinky, hard, and unpleasant personality, he was not someone he could offend casually.

Thinking of this, Wang Gangyi suppressed his dissatisfaction, and said with a pleasant tone, “Oh, you can accompany your partner after you’re finished with the dinner.”

“Haven’t you been training the new special forces soldiers that were transferred from Qian District recently? I have a better idea here, let’s talk about them while eating tonight. Remember, it’s six o’clock tonight at Lijing Mansion’s Brocade Hall. Don’t stand me up!”

Although it was still not up to a small deputy commander-in-chief to interfere with the training of his new recruits, he saw that the other party must have had a reason in being so persistent, so Chi Yang asked, "Who's the host?"

"Of course I'll be the host. I'm inviting you for dinner, so how is it possible for you to be the host?" Wang Gangyi felt that this person from the farming district was very petty. He already reached the rank of director-general, yet he still cared so much about a small amount of money like this.

"Who else is joining?"

Wang Gangyi hesitated before saying, "There's also an old classmate of mine, he is the Deputy Governor of Jiang District."

Jiang District's Deputy Governor...

Chi Yang thought for a while, then remembered that the name of the woman who was looking for trouble at the banquet the other day had the surname of Ou, and instantly understood the purpose of Wang Gangyi's dinner.

"Okay, I'll be there on time."

"Okay, then I'll see you tonight."

As soon as he finished speaking, Chi Yang hung up the phone.

Wang Gangyi was shocked!

This man!

He did not even understand basic manners.

He was still his superior, so although he was not directly managing him, he should at least have basic respect, right? How dare he hang up his phone first? This was just too arrogant!

However, in his heart, he felt inexplicably relieved. What was up with that?

Originally, he made the call with the intention of going in and controlling him, but after the call, he actually found himself nervous.

This was simply too strange.

"What's the matter? Your deputy commander-in-chief forced you to participate in a dinner?"

Even so, the main point was that Chi Yang agreed to it.

Zhong Nuannuan felt that this deputy commander-in-chief was very pitiful. After knowing Chi Yang's identity in the future, he would definitely cry when recalling how he had forced Chi Yang to join the dinner today.

Having said that, he deserved it. Who told him that senior officials could crush their underlings beneath their heels?

It was said that power was like a tree, with countless monkeys climbing up it. Looking upward, buttocks were everywhere, looking down, smiling faces were everywhere, and looking left and right, it was all eyes and ears.

She guessed that this deputy commander-in-chief felt that his military rank was higher, and that Chi Yang could therefore only smile at his buttocks, which was why he had forced him to participate in the dinner.

“Yes.” Chi Yang nodded and said, “Come with me to dinner at Lijing Mansion tonight. Wait for me in the private room, and I’ll come very soon.”

Only

“He invited you to Lijing Mansion tonight?”

“Yes.”

Zhong Nuannuan nodded without saying anything.

Chi Yang had business to do, and since he agreed to the dinner, it showed that he had a reason to go for this meal.

This was only a small episode for Zhong Nuannuan, and she casually turned to look at the attendant.

“Help me wrap up these two sets.”

“Okay, please wait for a moment, I’ll help you to pack your items up.”

The attendant was packing the items at the counter when two women walked in. They saw the bed sheets held by the attendant, and one of the woman felt them with her hands. “Attendant, give me one of these four-piece sets. Forget it, give me these two sets.”
