Chapter 2501

2501 The battle between Buttface and fatty (5)

To da Bai, there was only one enemy in the Nangong family that he could take seriously, and that was the goose leader-Fei Fei!

After all, it had suffered in the hands of fatty, and it could not eat fatty, so when it saw that annoying goose, it could only walk around the lake and never dive into the lake behind the mountain.

However, other than the lake in the back mountain, the rest of the place was its territory.

Buttface barked for a long time, but Great White ignored him. He was so angry that he even lifted his lips and bared his fangs.

there were still stickers of the langwei immortal that little ling had given it to eat on its fangs.

Da Bai glanced at it before turning to Nangong Nuannuan with a puzzled expression, as if he was asking this idiot where she had gotten it from.

Da Bai's expression had completely enraged dog two. It barked at da Bai before charging toward him.

da bai felt the impact from behind him, and he quickly turned around out of his beastly instincts. he let out a loud " oof " at er ha, who was charging toward him.

Although they were all howling, everyone could tell that Buttface's howl was imitating a Wolf's howl, but the sound was as soft as urine. However, da Bai's " awoo " seemed to have caused the earth to tremble, and even the minds of everyone present were shaken by his deafening roar.

As soon as Great White turned around, Buttface, who had been rushing toward them, stopped. As he roared, his eyes widened even more. Now, they could even see the whites of his eyes clearly.

A drop of nose water fell from his nose due to the shock of this majestic aura.

Buttface clenched his legs, turned around, and ran away desperately.

Little sun looked at the yellow puddle on the ground and frowned in disgust. I think big white will be wherever it is in the future.

everyone was silent, even little ling 'er was silent.

He felt that Yingying was the best place for Buttface!

Buttface ran to the back of the mountain without a care for his life.

Although it was terrified, Buttface still liked the feeling of being free. It felt that it had to escape quickly.

After all, it had destroyed its home and was not listening to its little master. It already felt that it was in trouble.

Buttface ran madly all the way to a hillside and let out a howl of grief and indignation.

It suddenly remembered that it hadn't had lunch after tearing down the house. It was hungry now.

Suddenly, a white goose wearing an apron walked out from the bushes gracefully. The clumsy figure made the ice-blue eyes of dog two, who had never seen a goose before, light up instantly.

These birds, which looked stupider and fatter than chickens, definitely couldn't fly, right?

A large flock of white geese followed behind the White goose, and they were swaggering toward it.

In fact, when fatty heard the Wolf's howl, it knew that someone had come to its territory, so it organized all the White geese to come out and kill the wolf.

It was afraid that the wolf would run away, but the wolf opened its mouth and drooled.

Fatty flapped its wings, signaling for everyone to spread out and surround the other party.

Buttface's eyes lit up as he stared at Fatty's white and chubby butt. He was already overjoyed.

As expected, he was a fat guy who couldn't fly!

In that instant, dog two forgot about the trauma that da Bai had caused it and completely let itself loose. It moved its legs and legs in the most elegant posture, and the wind that came toward it even blew dog two's tongue to the side, leaving a beautiful drooling arc in the air.

Chapter 2502

2502 Battle outcome (1)

The moment Buttface and fatty touched each other, Buttface opened his mouth and bit Fatty's firm and bouncy buttocks.

however, at this moment, fatty exerted strength in its wings and actually flew up diagonally.

Buttface's mouth was wide open, but he couldn't steady himself and rushed into the soil.

Before Buttface could get out of the ground, a fat and hard mouth had already grabbed the meat on Buttface's neck.

Buttface bit into the mud, and his gums were about to bleed. He was in so much pain that tears were rolling in his eyes.

He thought that this was the worst thing that could happen to him. However, before he could wail, his neck was caught by something hard. After the thing caught the meat on his neck, it pinched it hard like a crab. It was so painful that Buttface let out a human-like scream.

It wanted to stand up and bite the goose, but the goose kept dragging the meat on its neck to a place where it couldn't reach.

Thus, the dog and goose began to spin around on the ground.

The other geese also joined in.

In an instant, dog two's ears, nose, face, neck, body, belly, and even the gate of its Kasaya were all bitten by the goose.

Buttface's tears flowed out at once. He let out miserable cries, hoping that little Ling would come and save him.

But at this time, little Ling 'er was not having a good time either, because her mother had returned.

Mu Chenxiang had gone to West orchid to attend a Fashion Festival, and those who were able to attend were all top international actresses. As the organizers had previously chosen her as the global image spokesperson, this time, West orchid was not only to show herself, but also to give face to their former partners.

however, when mu chenxiang returned to kamino, the first call she received was that her house had been torn down.

Originally, she had thought that since the villa area had been properly developed, even though it was close to the North War Department, it still had property rights. Why would it be demolished? However, when she answered the call, she was almost home. She looked at the intact villa area and then at the intact surroundings of her own villa. Mu Chenxiang opened the door in a daze and was completely dumbfounded.

Aunt Zhang got a few of the Nangong family's servants to stay here. They were just about to clean up the house when mu Chenxiang returned.

Mu Chenxiang's face paled at the sight of the broken sofa and the gun. She asked, "Did someone come to our house? Was he going to make a move on little sun and little Ling 'er? How are they? Are you hurt?"

Mu Chenxiang had already called little sun's cell phone as she asked.

Before the servant could answer, the call on little sun's side had already gone through.

Mu Chenxiang was supposed to be furious when she found out that the house that had been turned upside down and seemed to have gone through a fierce battle was actually built by a Husky named Buttface. Instead of getting angry, she heaved a sigh of relief.

Compared to the fact that her son and daughter were hurt, this result not only made her angry, but she even felt happy and fortunate.

Whether it was money, a house, or clothes, they were all mere worldly possessions. The only things she cared about were her husband, her child, and her family. She didn't care about anything else.

Thus, when mu Chenxiang saw that the house had been tidied up, she asked the chauffeur to send her back to the Nangong family's house.

She and Nangong Jin's assets were all kept in the Nangong family's house. After all, the security here was good, and the family was also very good.

2503 Meritorious Service (2)

Therefore, the house there only had some clothes that she usually wore and the dresses that someone had recently sponsored for her. None of them were valuable.

As for the hole in the wall, mu Chenxiang felt that she could just fill it up. It was not the load-bearing wall anyway. Moreover, a dog wouldn't be able to dig a hole in the load-bearing wall in such a short time.

When mu Chenxiang returned to the Nangong family's house, little Ling was happily playing with Nangong Nuannuan and planet Cang LAN.

She liked the little brother from canglan. She felt that the little brother from canglan was very handsome. When she grew up, she would probably marry such a handsome little brother!

When she saw her mother, little Ling 'er's shoulders trembled slightly.

Little Ling 'er, who would usually be very happy to see her mother return, was now in a pitiful state.

After mu Chenxiang greeted the elders and everyone in the family, she waved to her children.

Little sun was the first to walk over and say to mu Chenxiang, " Mommy, you can't blame little Ling, granny Zhang, or Buttface for this."

Mu Chenxiang's beautiful eyes were full of smiles as she asked,"Then who should I blame?"

"It's my fault! I'm the only man in the house since my father is not here. I should take good care of little Ling, teach Buttface, and tell granny Zhang not to forget to keep Buttface."

Mu Chenxiang ruffled little sun's hair. Although she knew that this matter had nothing to do with little sun, she still nodded."Okay, then you must shoulder the responsibility of a little man in the future!"

"Alright," he said. "Mommy, so you don't blame them anymore?" little sun nodded and asked.

"Yes." Mu Chenxiang nodded.

When little Ling heard that her mother did not blame her, nor would she blame granny Zhang and Buttface, she immediately jumped off the sofa and ran barefoot into mu Chenxiang's arms. She did not even have time to put on her shoes.

Little Ling 'er had a congenital heart disease. Although she had recovered a lot, mu Chenxiang was still afraid that she would catch a cold and quickly carried her up.

"Long live Mommy! Mommy, I love you the most! I knew you wouldn't blame aunt Zhang and Buttface!"

Mu Chenxiang pinched little Ling 'er's nose. I won't pursue this matter, but what about you skipping school and lying to the teacher? "

Little Ling 'er's little face that had just bloomed instantly wilted and changed into a pitiful and cute look. daddy has already taught Yingluo a lesson, " little Ling 'er mumbled in a very soft voice.

no matter how big of a mistake you've made, as long as you act pitiful in front of your father, he'll be in a bad state. Can he lecture you? "

Nangong Nuannuan wanted to nod in agreement.

Indeed, a wife understood her husband the best.

Although her big brother was very strict with little sun, that day, when little Ling 'er acted pitiful, his big brother's anger dissipated.

Nangong Nuannuan sat on the sofa and watched as Ling 'er was being beaten up by her sister-in-law without any burden.

In fact, mu Chenxiang didn't blame Xiao Ling, but only told her two things. First, if you meet a child who needs help, you must find their parents if it's beyond your ability. Second, no matter what you encounter, you have to tell the truth to your parents. You can't lie to the teachers.

little ling 'er nodded in agreement. However, Nangong Nuannuan felt that Yingluo's promises were useless.

No matter how young a child was, they would have their own outlook on life and values in their hearts. Sometimes, without hitting a wall a few times, they basically wouldn't be able to understand so many major principles.

2504 Bomb (3)

However, Nangong Nuannuan believed that little Ling had learned her lesson from this. After all, if the teacher did not have a heart attack because of the female ghost, Mrs. Zhang, Qi Fang might have already died.

The family was originally a happy and harmonious family. Great White was sprawled in the middle of the living room, wagging its long, whip-like tail from time to time. With the luxurious decorations of the Nangong family, such a high-class family suddenly had a dog walk in. It was as if it had a skin disease, and the majority of its body was hairless.

When the dog came in, the whole family didn't react. But when they saw the dog's ice-blue eyes, they realized that it was Buttface.

Buttface, who was on his tiptoes, cried miserably when he saw little Ling.

At this moment, fatty also came in, still with its high and mighty appearance.

As soon as Buttface saw fatty, he started to bark loudly. it rushed to fatty, but it had only taken two steps when it was so scared that it hid under the table.

Little sun looked at Buttface's expression, took out a pen, and then took a piece of paper to write something on.

"Little sun, what are you writing?"

" there was an essay in the summer homework that the teacher gave me and asked me to take one to participate in the competition. i suddenly thought of it and wrote it down first. "

When Nangong Nuannuan saw little sun's essay, she burst out laughing.

The essay's title was 'a dog in the North'.

Darknorth has a dog, its name is ha. How scary was the size of a ha? There was an old saying, " one ha can hold three tigers, three ha can sink an aircraft carrier, five ha can fight God, ten ha can create the universe, hundred ha can destroy the Milky Way, and thousand ha can't even survive. In society, I'm Brother ha. A b * stard is talkative. He had never lost a fight or a quarrel. As the saying goes, if a Wolf turns back, there must be a reason. It's either to repay a debt of gratitude or to take revenge. When ERHA turned around, it would either tear down houses or buildings.

nangong nuannuan was full of admiration for the twins.

Originally, mu Chenxiang had wanted to teach Buttfacé a lesson. However, just as she was about to do so, she suddenly received a call from the house that had been demolished.

Mu Chenxiang's face paled when she picked up the call.

"What's wrong with sister-in-law?" Nangong Nuannuan asked.

Mu Chenxiang glanced at Buttfacé, who was hiding under the table, crying and fighting with his chubby body."just now, my family called me and said that they found a bomb in the wall where buttfacé had dug out the big hole."

"What?"

The whole family was shocked.

At this moment, Buttfacé rushed out and let out a howl again, as if he wanted to talk to someone.

Mu Chenxiang squatted down and stroked Buttfacé's fur. She didn't look down on Buttfacé's favus-headed appearance at all."Did you know there was a bomb in there from the beginning?"

Buttfacé proudly turned 720 degrees on the ground and wagged his tail, waiting for praise.

"So you deliberately destroyed the house so that we can't live in it?"

Buttfacé quickly turned around in a 3600-degree circle.

The way he looked at little sun and Auntie Zhang seemed to say, " You stupid humans, I'm trying to save you, but you still want to hit me!

Everyone was shocked by Buttfacé's cleverness.

he had thought that this was just a silly husky, but who knew that this dog two had actually saved the reputation of his entire family.

2505 Bad news (4)

The bomb was supposed to explode in the early morning three days later. If it hadn't been for little Ling who had brought Buttface back yesterday, the consequences of the explosion three days later would have been unimaginable.

In an instant, Buttface had turned from a target despised by tens of thousands of people into a hero.

Everyone went to praise it and stroke its head.

buttface instantly let himself go and abandoned the people who were praising him. he rushed in front of fatty and started barking wildly.

As a result, fatty, who was swaggering in front, only turned around once, and dog two was frightened and fell under the table again.

The crowd burst into laughter.

"Sister-in-law, where did you place the bomb?"

"The wall was built a month ago when we were preparing to change the furniture. This is more in tune with the style of the house."

"Do you still remember when you found someone to build that wall?"

"I remember." Mu Chenxiang nodded.

"Tell me," nangong nuannuan picked up the laptop on the table and started searching.

The Nangong family had surveillance equipment, and the renovation workers they found were also from the construction team under the Imperial Group.

According to the time given by mu Chenxiang, Nangong Nuannuan had hacked the surveillance cameras in her brother's house and found the person who had successfully planted the bomb in the wall.

Through this person's face, pupils, and fingerprints, he quickly found this person's information.

This person was called Tao Pei, and he came to dizhou to work. he had been working in a construction company under the palace group for more than half a year. Due to his good craftsmanship and personality, the construction company gave Nangong Jin this opportunity when he was looking for someone.

However, if one were to investigate carefully, they would realize that Tao Pei was not this person at all. Tao Pei had already been killed when the construction company at 'the palace' was looking for people to renovate the eldest brother's house.

And after doing this, this person immediately went abroad.

However, there were only a few people who knew that her brother's house was going to be renovated, but someone had found out in advance. It was obvious that there was a mole in the construction company.

Back then, her eldest brother, Nangong Jin, was the one who handled this matter. Mu Chenxiang didn't even know which person in charge of the construction company under 'Imperial' did he look for. There was still no signal in the disaster area. Although engineers had gone to repair it, it was impossible to build a communication station in such a large earthquake. Therefore, it was impossible for him to contact Nangong Jin.

however, nangong nuannuan had checked the accounts of all the people in charge of the construction company. two of them had extra money in their peripheral accounts, so nangong nuannuan had called danqi directly and told him not to forget to keep an eye on the two of them while he was watching the drama.

Fortunately, Buttface had discovered the bomb and dismantled the house. Otherwise, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

Because Buttface had saved the family's lives, the original punishment had instantly become the same treatment as Fatty's.

Da Bai, who had collapsed in the living room, finally raised his head and looked at fatty and dog two, who were being praised, with a blank expression. Then, his second uncle knocked on his head.

"What are you looking at? you didn't do anything."

Da Bai let out an indignant howl as he looked at Buttface and fatty with disdain.

Although finding a bomb in Nangong Jin's house was a very infuriating thing, it was a good thing that good people would be rewarded. Because of Buttface's appearance, all the dangers were averted.

Just as everyone was happily sighing about the Nangong family's good fortune, old master Chi received a phone call.

"What?"

The moment he received the call, the old man's face turned pale.

2506 Something happened to Chi Yang (1)

Old man Chi was an old general who had gone through hundreds of battles. Even if a mountain were to press down on him, his expression would not change. Now that the hero was past his Prime, there was only one person who could make him change his expression.

Although no one could hear what was said on the other end of the phone, everyone's faces were grave at that moment. They looked at old master Chi with worry.

Especially Nangong Nuannuan, who couldn't help but clench her fists when she heard Grandpa Chi's "what?" her heart was in her throat.

Old master Chi said into the phone, "I understand. You don't have to send anyone here. Just pick him up from the other side.

After hanging up the phone, the old man's body suddenly couldn't take it and he fell backward.

"Dad!"

Chi zeyao was quick to react. He immediately used his special ability to support old man Chi, and quickly caught him just as he was about to fall back into his chair.

This time, Nangong Nuannuan's speed was not as fast as second uncle's. Because when she saw old man Chi in this state, her face also turned pale in an instant.

At this moment, the other brothers of the Nangong family had yet to return. Only Nangong Zheng was there. However, Nangong Zheng immediately placed his palm on Nangong Nuannuan's shoulder, giving her warmth and strength.

Even so, Nangong Nuannuan felt her legs go weak.

She finally knew why Brother chiyang only came to find her three months after the disaster in her previous life.

She also knew why he still looked so pale when he came to see her three months later.

in this life, whether it was her, brother chiyang, or the people around them, the trajectory of their lives had completely deviated. although brother chiyang did not die in this earthquake in her previous life, even though he was seriously injured, he still came back. But who could guarantee that he would not meet with an earthquake in this life?

Time was of the essence. Nangong Nuannuan only took two seconds to regain her senses. Then, she quickly walked to old man Chi's side and asked, "Grandfather, what's wrong with brother chiyang? What's happening?"

Nangong Nuannuan asked as she pulled out the silver needles and inserted one into his head, neck, and wrist.

After the silver needles were inserted into the three major acupuncture points, elder Chi clearly felt better. The flow of blood slowed down and the blood rushing to his brain was quickly controlled.

Seeing the fear in Nangong Nuannuan's eyes, elder Chi didn't dare repeat what he had just heard on the phone. He could only say, "Nuan Nuan, when Chi Yang went into a club to save people, the building suddenly collapsed. They are now trapped inside. The life detector can still detect signs of life inside. if chi yang knows that you've gone, he'll definitely be able to get through this."

however, the truth was that the members of eagle had just told him that chi yang and his team had entered the second basement floor of a club bar to rescue someone. however, not long after they had entered, the entire building had collapsed.

There was a commercial office building and a hotel on the upper floor of the bar. The building had a total of 18 floors, but Chi Yang and the others went down to the second basement floor.

The sudden collapse of the entire building not only buried the victims, but also Chi Yang and the others.

And the most tragic thing was that Chi Yang was buried right at the bottom.

Old man Chi had made up a lie to calm Nangong Nuannuan down. The life detector could detect life.

2507 Call Wu Lingyun along 2

He didn't believe that his grandson would die in there. He didn't believe that this old man would dare to die alone in there after taking his beloved wife with him.

The old man swore that if that brat dared to die down there, he would marry Nuannuan off as if she was his own granddaughter!

he did as he said!

"Grandpa, you're old and can't take it anymore. You should just wait for my news at home. I promise, I will definitely bring brother chiyang back safely."

Not knowing the situation, Chi zeyao also said, "That's right, dad. There was a huge earthquake in the disaster area, and it started to rain heavily a few hours later. Many of the roads have been destroyed, and it's difficult to find a place to take refuge. If you go, Nuannuan will be distracted to take care of you. Why don't we just let Nuannuan go? If you're still worried, I'll call little Xuan along."

don't call Xiaoxuan. Just let Nuan Nuan go.

After all, there was still Feng Kun who was eyeing them covetously. If Feng shengxuan went, Feng Luan would be suspected. This didn't fit Feng shengxuan's character.

Therefore, master Chi denied it immediately.

"Alright, I'll go."

"I'll arrange for a plane to pick you up at the Nangong family's house." Old man Chi said.

"Alright," he said.

Nangong Nuannuan responded and immediately made a call.

"hello, ling yun?"

Wu Lingyun, who had been staying at the Xiao family's house all this time, suddenly received a call from Nangong Nuannuan. He was in a good mood when Nangong Nuannuan told him about chiyang, and his mood immediately turned sour.

"Nuannuan, what do you need me to do? just tell me and I'll do it."

"Chi Yang is currently at the bottom. I might need your help."

"Okay, I'll come over immediately."

The Xiao family's house was in the courtyard, not far from the Peninsula Villa.

when elder xiao and xiao shenbin heard about chiyang's accident, they didn't understand why nangong nuannuan wanted wu lingyun to go to the disaster area, but they immediately packed wu lingyun's luggage and sent him to the nangong family's villa.

The helicopter had just arrived when Wu Lingyun arrived.

Selina had wanted to follow them, but there were already so many soldiers from the combat Department and the flying Eagles, so there was no place for her. Nangong Nuannuan had asked her to stay on standby.

In the end, Nangong Nuannuan left with only Wu Lingyun.

Everyone was curious as to why Wu Lingyun was the last person Nangong Nuannuan brought with her. However, out of their trust in Nangong Nuannuan, no one asked. They believed that Nangong Nuannuan had made the best choice.

after nangong nuannuan got into the helicopter, the pilot showed her the video that he had just received from the eagle.

Nangong Nuannuan's right eye twitched a few times when she saw that the 19-story building had collapsed and was crushing the second basement.

strictly speaking, bars could not be operated in such places. however, in some remote areas, the urban management was not that strict. in order to maximize the city's interests, many places acquiesced to such low-end clubs and bars under commercial houses.

This kind of old version was usually opened on the basement first floor or below. It was not ventilated, so it was cheap. Some people who loved to play but didn't have that much money liked to play in such cheap places.

The earthquake had occurred at 11 p.m., When the bar was the most crowded.

Chapter 2508

2508 Heartache (3)

This should be the reason why Brother chiyang went down to save her personally, right?

There were many people, heavy tasks, and great difficulty.

Nangong Nuannuan did not understand why there were always some people with noble thoughts who were willing to sacrifice themselves to protect those who were not related to them by blood or even people they did not know.

However, it was also because there were people like him who helped everyone carry their burdens and move forward that everyone could enjoy such peaceful times.

Once this peace was broken, these people would always appear by their side and use their own shoulders to help them carry their lives.

even if they fell from the sky, they would smash this group of people to death first.

Nangong Nuannuan could not understand why her brother chiyang was such a person. However, Yingluo was his wife, so she could only support him.

They would support him unconditionally.

The 19-story building had suddenly collapsed, so logically speaking, there should be no one alive below. However, nangong nuannuan understood brother chiyang. She believed that he would be able to hold on until she died and until she saved him.

The information that Eagle had given her was detailed, just like the video that danqi had sent her.

After the building collapsed, the whole building didn't collapse to the side, but directly collapsed to the ground. A large pile of construction waste and reinforced concrete was stacked on top of Chi Yang's head. From this, it could be seen how much pressure Chi Yang had to bear.

The distance between dizhou province and Shengzhou province was less than 350 kilometers. The speed of the Eagle's helicopter was faster than that of Shengzhou province. The helicopter, which could travel at a speed of 250 kilometers per hour, finally arrived in Shengzhou province in less than an hour.

Before they arrived at Shengzhou, they could already see the surrounding cities that were affected. They had thought that those places were terrifying enough, but when they arrived in Shengzhou, they found that in the face of natural disasters, humans were so small.

It was raining heavily at the moment, and Shengzhou was a Mountain City. Many houses were built in valleys, Hills, or on the top of the mountain.

Shengzhou was not located in the earthquake zone, so the builders and developers did not take the earthquake-resistant performance of the houses into account when they built them. But fortunately, Shengzhou was a Mountain City. In order to prevent mudslides during the rainy season, all the houses built in the mountains had been reinforced. He also had a certain level of handling of the mountain.

These reinforcements, to a large extent, had a certain defensive effect against earthquakes, so although it was a magnitude 9 earthquake, not all the houses collapsed.

However, in the face of such a great disaster, and it was late at night, the people of Shengzhou were now less than 50% alive. The rest were either dead or still down there.

It was already the third day after the earthquake, and it was almost the limit of human survival after being buried underground.

If they couldn't save him today, the possibility of them surviving in the future would be very small.

That was the reason why the combat department's members were so desperate. They were racing against time and trying their best to save as many people as possible.

Time was life.

Before she arrived, brother chiyang had not rested for three whole days.

In order to save more people, he didn't rest for a single minute for the past three days.

Nangong Nuannuan's heart ached as she listened to the report of the Flying Eagle Special combat agent. But what could she say?

After arriving in Shengzhou, the plane flew for another fifteen minutes before arriving at the place where the Chi Yang incident happened.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2509

2509 Chi Yang's choice (4)

The plane was about to land, but Nangong Nuannuan stopped it and told the pilot not to stop.

Only Nangong Nuannuan, who was at a high altitude, could see the whole picture of the collapsed building.

Below, Nangong Jin had been standing guard. When he saw the plane approaching, his eyes were filled with anticipation.

Nangong Nuannuan remained calm throughout the entire journey, trying to understand the situation in Shengzhou.

Although the pilot was from the Eagle Special Forces, he wasn't a regular member. He was sent from another combat service department to learn from the Eagle.

Therefore, he did not know much about Nangong Nuannuan.

he was thinking that sending nangong nuannuan over was actually to let lieutenant general chi, who was buried underground, feel the aura of his family. if he was still alive, he could reignite his fighting spirit.

However, she sat on the plane and acted like a big Shot, not even getting off.

The pilot felt very uncomfortable, but since the other party was Lieutenant General Chi's fiancée and his superior had specifically told him to listen to his sister-in-law's orders, he could only keep circling in the sky.

below them, four cranes had already gathered in this area. they were moving away the building debris covering chi yang and the others at the fastest speed.

Nangong Nuannuan had been sitting in the back seat, but in order to get a clear view of the situation below, she went straight to the passenger seat.

He carefully observed the situation below, then took out his phone to take pictures.

The pilot was really drunk. Not only did he sit on the plane and look at the scenery, but he also took photos!

your man is being pressed down and his life is in danger, do you even know that?

"Stop! Stop! don't move!"

The pilot was silently criticizing Nangong Nuannuan for being cold-blooded and idiotic when she suddenly let out a loud cry. It scared him so much that he almost dropped down.

He looked at Nangong Nuannuan unhappily. Even though he was already very angry, he could only do as she said.

Who asked him to be a soldier? Who told him that his duty was to obey orders?

Since his superior had already given the order to follow Nangong Nuannuan's orders, he had to do it.

The pilot took a deep breath and could only follow her orders to hover the plane in the sky as she requested.

The reason Nangong Nuannuan had kept the plane flying around the building was to find Chi Yang's location and check on his current condition.

When they made their way to the Northwest corner, Nangong Nuannuan finally saw the man she had been thinking about day and night.

However, the moment she saw Chi Yang, she lost her calm.

at this moment, chi yang's hands were holding onto a large cement board that was pressing down. The concrete slab was about 20 square meters in size, and 18 people were squeezed under it. Among these 18 people, there were four Eagle Special Forces members. Three of them were taking care of the wounded, and the last one, ning Wenhao, was helping Chi Yang hold up the ceiling that was about to fall.

What made Nangong Nuannuan's eyes pop out of their sockets was that Chi Yang, who had helped these people lift the weight of the entire building, was covered in blood.

Because the load-bearing beam had collapsed and smashed through the ceiling, once Chi Yang let go, all the buildings above would come crashing down.

although chi yang could still protect himself at that time, those who were hiding under his protection would not be able to escape. they would all die.

Therefore, when one of the thick steel bars in the load-bearing wall came down, Chi Yang still maintained his motionless posture, allowing the steel bar to pierce through his left shoulder.

Nangong Nuannuan believed that even if he had moved, the steel bars would not have pierced his shoulder. However, he didn't move at all. Otherwise, with his strength, how could he have allowed the steel bar to Pierce into his shoulder in such a dangerous state?

Chapter 2510

2510 Stop (1)

At this moment, Chi Yang's forehead was covered in sweat. The weight of the entire building was simply too heavy. After the building collapsed, almost all of the weight was accumulated in this area.

So even though Chi Yang's ability had been upgraded, it was still difficult for him to bear such a weight.

The key was that not only did he have to bear the weight, but the steel was also in danger.

Although it had only pierced into his left shoulder, the steel bar was inserted vertically. It was less than seven centimeters deeper and it would be his heart.

As for this 7cm, if he slightly loosened his hand, or if the person on top slightly exerted force, it would directly enter his heart.

nangong nuannuan's heart instantly clenched.

In her heart, she was thinking that it was fortunate that she had come. Fortunate that she could see the gravity of every object. As long as brother chiyang could hold on until the heaviest object was moved away, he would be fine. She would definitely help Brother chiyang recover from the injury on his shoulder.

As he was still thinking, he immediately saw a truck driver moving the building away without following the rules.

The things on top had not been moved yet, but for convenience's sake, he had moved the things below. He probably thought that as long as he moved the one at the bottom, he would be able to pull off the pile at the top. In this way, the crane could carry the heaviest, and the excavators on the side could quickly carry the construction waste away. His workload was much faster than others.

The building below looked fine from his position, so the operator of the crane didn't feel that he had to follow the instructions of others.

What he didn't know was that it was a circular object. When he tried to pull it, it had already grabbed the object below it.

one after another.

The Crane's strength was originally great, and because of the inverted hook installed on it, when the Crane's inverted hook hooked with the object it was pulling, the strength could be imagined.

"stop!"

On the helicopter, Nangong Nuannuan's eyes almost popped out of their sockets. She grabbed the loudspeaker and yelled at the man who was driving the crane.

The man had clearly heard Nangong Nuannuan's voice, but first, Nangong Nuannuan was a woman. Second, she had been so fierce the moment she had appeared. This made the master of the crane very unhappy.

He thought to himself that he had been working overtime for so long, and his salary was not much. The company was begging him for his skills to save people, but these high and mighty people were still shouting at him.

Therefore, even though he had heard her, he merely rolled his eyes at Nangong Nuannuan and continued with his unreasonable actions.

He admitted that Nangong Nuannuan was indeed very beautiful, but such a beautiful woman would definitely not be interested in a 40-year-old loser like him. So, why would he run over to curry favor with her?

When Nangong Nuannuan saw that the driver was not listening to her at all and was about to continue, she was so frightened that she shouted, " "I told you to stop, did you hear me?"

Below, Nangong Jin had been following Nangong Nuannuan since she arrived. When he saw the helicopter hovering around the ruins, he knew that Nangong Nuannuan must be looking for Chi Yang, so he followed her down.

Finally, when the helicopter stopped moving, he knew that Chi Yang must be under this position.
