Chapter 251: Ignored

The approaching visitor did not notice Zhong Nuannuan, but Zhong Nuannuan spotted them——

Ou Mingxi.

“Sorry, miss, these two sets have already been booked by another customer. This style is a new product that we just launched this quarter, and there is only one set of each color. You can look at some other colors.”

“Booked? Have they paid?”

“Not yet, but they’re about to...”

“Since they haven’t paid, then you can swipe my card now, isn’t everything on a first come, last serve basis? I swiped the card first, so this is mine now.”

“It turns out that there’s an expression that says ‘first come, last serve’. Sister Ou, I’ve learned something new from you.”

Hearing the sound, Ou Mingxi turned around to look, and her eyes instantly became glued to Chi Yang’s body, unable to look away.

Not only Ou Mingxi, even the eyes of the girl next to Ou Mingxi immediately fixed their gaze on Chi Yang’s body.

Zhong Nuannuan really wanted to put her Big Brother Chi Yang into her bag and not take him out.

Zhong Nuannuan felt slightly sad as she saw her baby being coveted by others.

She had never experienced a feeling like this in her previous life, and she was only feeling it now, in this life, at this moment.

This feeling was very uncomfortable, and it made her very angry. She could not help but want to march forward and dig out the eyes of those two women, then trample and spit on them.

“Chi Yang, it’s you. I didn’t know that you’re buying this, if I knew, I wouldn’t have fought for it.”

After saying this, Ou Mingxi looked at the attendant and said, “Help him to wrap these things up.”

From beginning to end, Zhong Nuannuan was totally ignored by Ou Mingxi.

“Sure.” When the attendant saw that these people knew each other and could thus avoid confrontation, she was relieved.

“Chi Yang, isn’t the military base busy today? Why are you shopping here?”

Ou Mingxi walked to Chi Yang and acted as if she was familiar with him. Although something unpleasant happened during their first meeting, she thought that what she did at the banquet that day was enough to show her position.

Although she had some ambiguous affairs with Jiang Hongyang in the past, she had already abandoned those ambiguities in front of him and all the guests, and clearly drew a boundary between her and Jiang Hongyang, such that Chi Yang should have understood her intent.

Even so, regardless of age, family background or surroundings, she was more suitable for Chi Yang than Zhong Nuannuan, this lowly female student.

“Cousin, is this the director-general you mentioned?”

Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan had removed their military uniforms and school uniforms after returning to the apartment, so they were wearing casual clothes now. When she heard her cousin call for Chi Yang, the girl who was standing aside immediately recovered her composure, and an additional layer of pity was sprinkled on top of her gaze toward Chi Yang.

Only

It was rare for her to fancy a man, but this man belonged to her cousin, so she could only hide her infatuation in the pits of her heart.

“Yes, he is Chi Yang, instructor of the special forces team. He already holds the rank of director-general at such a young age. Chi Yang, this is my cousin.”

Ou Mingxi did not hesitate to show off Chi Yang’s excellence in front of everyone, and even the attendant who was walking over could not help but stare longer at Chi Yang with hearts in her eyes.

This person turned out to be a soldier, so it is no wonder his posture was so tall and upright. Even though he was dressed casually, the sharp edges around him could not be hidden.

“Hello, my name is Feng Zitong, and my father is the director of Jiang District’s Education Ministry.”

Feng Zitong stretched out her hand.

However, Chi Yang did not even bother to look at it, instead acting as if he had not seen it.

The attendant saw that these three people had already started talking, and that the two women with backgrounds did not pay any attention to Zhong Nuannuan, so she became certain that Zhong Nuannuan did not have any background.

Chapter 252: Swipe My Card

Hence, she sent the packaged items to Zhong Nuannuan, and her good attitude from earlier disappeared as she became less respectful now due to Zhong Nuannuan’s newly mistaken identity. “Come here Miss, here are your items, please pay here.”

Although she said it calmly, she had a questioning look in her eyes. After all, the items in their store were so expensive, yet the financial backer next to her was busy in conversation with the two ladies. Thus, she did not have to think twice to know that this woman would not be able to pay.

Zhong Nuannuan glanced at the snobbish attendant, and stayed still, becoming as steady as a mountain when faced with her “please” gesture.

“Miss, please pay your bill here.” The attendant called out again.

However, Zhong Nuannuan looked at Ou Mingxi and said happily, “Sister Ou, pay up.”

Ou Mingxi frowned unhappily, and finally acknowledged Zhong Nuannuan.

“You are so funny, why do you want me to pay for the items you’re buying?”

Zhong Nuannuan smiled and replied, “You mentioned that first come, last serve. If you fancy something before it is paid for, then naturally it’s yours. After that, you were the one who told the attendant to pack up the items for me, even though I never said that I wanted to buy it, so of course, you have to pay. Why should I have to pay?”

Ou Mingxi was angered by Zhong Nuannuan’s sophistry.

“Didn’t you want to buy these items in the first place? Now that I’ve given the items to you, you’re taking your undeserved gains for granted. Are you trying to cause trouble?”

Seeing that Ou Mingxi’s face had already darkened, Zhong Nuannuan maintained her infuriating smiling face.

“I fancied the items, and I was really planning to buy them, but didn’t you say that it doesn’t count if I haven’t paid yet? If it doesn’t count, then it doesn’t count. I’m young, so I don’t like to argue with unreasonable people. Since you want to buy them, I’ll grant you your wish.

“However, Sister Ou, you can’t be too arrogant. You can’t just openly grab the items you like from others just because your father is the Deputy Governor, and proceed to beautifully name it ‘first come, last serve’. Now that you don’t like these items anymore, you’re pushing it back to me, putting me in a position where I can’t refuse what you don’t want. After all, if I refuse, you’ll say that I’m causing trouble. Sister Ou, no matter how you look at this issue, the person who’s looking to cause trouble is you, right?”

Only

Ou Mingxi had already witnessed Zhong Nuannuan’s retaliation skills last time out, and after being verbally attacked by her once again, she realized that apart from feeling angry, she could not utter a single word of rebuttal.

Feng Zitong, who was standing to the side, immediately stood up to help her cousin. “My cousin saw that Chi Yang wanted this item, and that’s why she gave it to you. She clearly likes these two bedding sets too, so how can you distort the truth and treat the items my cousin kindly gave you as if they were things she doesn’t want?”

Zhong Nuannuan chuckled. “Oh, so it turns out that if others fancy them, she can simply snatch them, but if Chi Yang fancies them, then she would happily relinquish them. If I didn’t know that she’s the Deputy Governor’s daughter and usually has many men pursuing her, I’d think that she’s short of men!”

“You!!!” Feng Zitong was boiling with rage. However, after a long time, she smiled with relief.

“Oh, you don’t want the bed sheets that my cousin fancied, so does it mean that you’ll give away anything my cousin likes, right? Understood. Cousin, it’s just two sets of bedding supplies, you can help this lady pay for the items.”

Feng Zitong’s words made Ou Mingxi happy, and she turned to the attendant with a triumphant smile. “Swipe my card.”

The attendant thought that the order was about to be cancelled, so now that she heard that someone willing to pay the bill, and that this person was the Deputy Governor’s daughter, she happily led the way for Ou Mingxi.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 253: Onion

While leading the way, she did not forget to glare at Zhong Nuannuan.

Although this woman’s boyfriend was a director-general, he was a person who was looked down upon by the Deputy Governor and Education Ministry director’s daughter, hence, he would not be that rich. Moreover, he was just a boyfriend, and a boyfriend that was fancied by the Deputy Governor’s daughter, no less. Considering this, who knew how long he would stay around her. Therefore, as she looked Zhong Nuannuan, who had almost ruined her sales commission, the attendant did not want to give her any face.

Chi Yang was upset by the two mad dogs that had suddenly rushed out in front of him. Now, even the attendant dared to throw shade at his Nuannuan. He was just about to speak when Zhong Nuannuan grabbed his hand.

“Wait.”

Chi Yang did not know what his fiancée asked him to wait for, but since she had ordered him to do so, he waited.

Hence, Chi Yang waited for Ou Mingxi to return from swiping her card with a cold expression on his face.

During this period, Feng Zitong felt the icy aura exuding from Chi Yang’s body, which she could not bear it, so she hurried over to join Ou Mingxi.

After paying the bill, Ou Mingxi stuffed the ticket into Zhong Nuannuan’s bag. “This is the invoice. Hold it properly, and don’t let the door hit you on your way out.”

Zhong Nuannuan smiled gently. “You don’t have to worry, Sister Ou.”

After saying that, she held Chi Yang’s hand. “Let’s go.”

“Hmph, it costs less than 20,000 dollars, but some people insist on using bedding supplies bought by others, she’s just...”

The sentence was never finished. At this moment, a garbage collector walked over and was preparing to clean out the trash can in this store. Suddenly, Zhong Nuannuan threw the items that were just bought by Ou Mingxi behind her. With a loud bang, the items were accurately thrown into the oversized trash can.

Feng Zitong and Ou Mingxi were lost for words.

“You, stand there!”

Feng Zitong had never been slapped in the face like this before.

She did not know about Chi Yang’s temper, and even felt that apart from people at the governor and union state governor level, nobody in the entirety of Jiang District could insult her cousin and herself like this. Hence, she impulsively blocked Zhong Nuannuan and Chi Yang’s path.

Only

With her chin raised, Feng Zitong proudly said to Zhong Nuannuan, “Remember what you said today, you have to give away everything my cousin sister likes. Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you that my cousin is fond of your boyfriend, so from now on, your boyfriend belongs to my cousin.”

“Zitong.” Ou Mingxi frowned. She was slightly dissatisfied at the high and mighty way in which Feng Zitong spoke to Chi Yang.

After all, she had seen the relationship between Chi Yang and Leng Jinpeng before. As things stood, Leng Jinpeng held the military power of five states, and even if he were to change jobs, he was still a proper chief executive. Her father was just a Deputy Governor, and had not reached the rank of chief executive yet. This alone made them incomparable.

Feng Zitong listened to Ou Mingxi’s words very obediently, and when she heard her cousin calling her, she snorted and prepared to leave. However, it was too late!

“Princess Syndrome is a sickness too, and she must be cured! Who does she think she is? Why should I give away whatever she likes? If she’s so amazing, why not become the president? This way, she can have any of the pretty guys around the world at will. Heck! She can even have a new one every day.”

After Feng Zitong was spoken back to, she was stunned, and she stared at Zhong Nuannuan with a look of disbelief. She did not expect Zhong Nuannuan to still dare to attack her after knowing both of their identities.

“What did you say? Say it again!”

Chi Yang really could not stand it anymore. He had never been caught in this kind of conflict before, but now that he was experiencing it, he felt that the quarrels among women were comparable to the exchange of smoke and gunpowder between men.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 254: Beating Wo

“She said that the Princess Syndrome has to be cured. As for you, you have to cure your bad hearing as well. How can you quarrel with others if you keep making people repeat themselves?”

Chi Yang summarized what his fiancée meant, and relayed it to Feng Zitong impatiently.

Feng Zitong and Ou Mingxi were taken aback!

Zhong Nuannuan burst out in laughter. 'He's so domineering!'

Ou Mingxi had never thought that Chi Yang would treat her like this. She became so dizzy with anger that her vision turned black from his scolding, and she lost her composure.

On the other hand, Feng Zitong was completely enraged by Chi Yang's attitude. "She said earlier that she didn't want something my cousin was interested in, and that's why my cousin paid for her. But what did she end up doing? She just took the items, and then turned her back on us, refusing to recognizing us anymore."

"You've said it yourself: I just don't want the 'items' that your cousin is fond of, it's not that I dare not want them. I don't want them because I disdain snatching such rotten things from her. However, this is my man, my fiancé, the most precious treasure in my life, so why should I let your cousin have him just because she's interested in him? Does she really think she's a princess?

"If it only takes a fee of 20,000 dollars to be able to get a good man to say something, why is your princess still single at such an old age? It's not like we're in ancient times anymore, whereby we still treat men as objects and rob them openly in the streets. Fortunately, her father is just a deputy governor. If he was the governor, I reckon the Ou Family would treat all the good men in Jiang District as possessions and hide them in their love nests."

"What did you just say?"

Feng Zitong was completely infuriated by Zhong Nuannuan's words, but she could not find the words to retort with. In desperation, she rushed forward to slap Zhong Nuannuan.

Zhong Nuannuan raised her hand, ready to grasp her opponent, when suddenly, Feng Zitong was kicked out of sight like a kite with a broken string.

Seeing Chi Yang slowly pulled back his foot, much to Zhong Nuannuan's surprise!

D*mn! Her Big Brother Chi Yang actually hit a woman!

This was already her second time seeing Big Brother Chi Yang hit a woman! The first time, he had hit Zhong Qianqian.

'He even hits women!'

Ou Mingxi was also completely bewildered.

Chi Yang actually hit women!

Moreover, he hit one of her people!

He had hit her cousin!

Ou Mingxi hurriedly stepped forward to help, and Feng Zitong cried out in pain and fear.

"Chi Yang, this is too much, you clearly know that she's my cousin, and yet you still hit her. What's the difference between hitting her and me?"

Only

Chi Yang did not feel an ounce of guilt from hitting the woman at all, and he replied with a serious expression, "The difference is that you should be thankful you were not beaten today. Otherwise, I might have struck harder."

"You...!" Ou Mingxi was almost dying from anger, and she shouted, "You're a man, a soldier, a military officer even! How can you hit women?"

"Miss Ou, there are surveillance cameras here. It was your cousin who wanted to hit my fiancée, so I was just defending her. You also know that I'm a soldier, so in my eyes, there's no distinction between man and woman. I view people only as good and bad, or between friend and foe.

"She was going to hit my fiancée, so to me, she's the enemy. Please don't slander a military officer, otherwise, I won't mind suing you for defamation."

Ou Mingxi was aghast!

Ever since she was young, every man she was interested in had worshipped her like a queen, so she had never been treated so badly before.

Yet in the face of the powerful Chi Yang, the Chi Yang who even hit women, Ou Mingxi could not do anything despite feeling furious.

Zhong Nuannuan merely watched Chi Yang. People said that men who hit women were not real men, but why did she feel so attracted to this man at this moment?

Chapter 255: The Police Are Here

Seeing Feng Zitong's look of crying messily while she was lying on the ground, Zhong Nuannuan laughed inconsiderately.

"Tsk ts, even dared pretend to be strong despite having zero fighting power. Look at how pitiful you are, instead of living life as a fine lady, you wanted to come out and be Peppa pig. What can we do? We were also helpless when we met someone as hateable as you!"

Ou Mingxi: ...!

Where did this country bumpkin come from? How dare she say that they did not have fighting power!

Comparing the fighting power of ladies from wealthy families like them with the special forces' instructor like Chi Yang?

Ou Mingxi was so angry that she felt like she was vomiting blood in her heart, but nothing could be done to Zhong Nuannuan, she could only let her be ridiculous.

This damned woman, she dared to call them Peppa.

She was Peppa!

Her family were all Peppa!

Suddenly, a few security guards came to the mall and then surrounded Zhong Nuannuan and Chi Yang.

“Who was it? Who beat someone?”

The attendant who sold the bedding supplies just now ran out and pointed at Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan. “They were the ones who kicked people onto the ground.”

The security guard walked towards Chi Yang. When he reached in front of Chi Yang and saw their difference in height and aura, his originally fierce expression immediately turned cowardly.

“How can you hit others?”

Chi Yang kept a cold face and said nothing.

Zhong Nuannuan sneered. “Did you see us hit someone?”

The security guard became speechless and then pointed to the waitress, “But she saw it.”

“Oh, so we hit someone just because she said we did. Who does she think she is?”

“If you did not hit others, why would she have gotten kicked onto the ground?” The waitress ran out and argued with Zhong Nuannuan.

In her heart, she only knew that the status of the deputy governor’s daughter was very impressive. She did not understand what a captain was, it was probably an officer who was higher ranked than the platoon leader. But at such a young age, no matter how high the political position, he was still a poor soldier. How could he be compared with the deputy governor?

To have the deputy governor’s daughter be in her debt, the waitress said to the group of security guards who rushed here, “Do not let them go, the girl who was beaten is the daughter of the Director of the Education Ministry, and the one next to her is the daughter of the Deputy Governor. I had called the police just now and the police will come right away. What if the deputy governor blames us if they were let go?”

The security guard immediately surrounded Chi Yang and Zhong Nuan after they heard that.

Ou Mingxi looked at the formation, feeling afraid that Chi Yang would hold a grudge against her, she helped Feng Zitong up and said, “Forget it, just let them go.”

After all, they still have to eat together at night, it was not a good idea to cause the relationship to become stiff now just because of Zhong Nuannuan.

“No. He treated you like this, how can you let them go?” The waitress rushed out and stopped Ou Mingxi.

Only

Zhong Nuannuan was bewildered by her.

Even Ou Mingxi did not dare to stop Chi Yang and she was letting the others stop Chi Yang.

After it was heard that the deputy governor's daughter was beaten in the mall, the police action moved quickly. Moreover, the mall was only five minutes away from the jurisdiction police station, so it was almost right after the security had rushed to the scene that the police arrived as well.

"Who reported the case? Who hit people?"

The police questioned right after they arrived, but they looked towards the Ou Mingxi sister duo. "Were both of you the one who got beaten up?"

"Police officer, they were the one who hit people. This is the daughter of the deputy governor, it was her sister who got beaten." The waitress was the first to stand up again and added, "Her sister is the daughter of the Director of Education Bureau."

The police looked towards Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan. "Why did you hit others? Show me your ID card."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 256: Provoked a Senior Official

Chi Yang glanced at the policeman and took out his military officer ID.

The several police officers were stunned when they took the military officer ID, before they eventually opened it.

Under the attendant's sneer, the faces of those several police officers changed abruptly, their bodies stiffened up, and they performed a standard military salute.

"Director-general!"

The attendant's jaw dropped.

The big boss of the special forces team!

To be in charge of the entire special forces team at such a young age... Could they really afford to anger such a person? Even the Lieutenant Governor might be afraid to do so!

The police officers instantly had a headache.

This case looked simple, but they were not able to handle it.

Chi Yang still had a cold aura as he said expressionlessly, "There is a surveillance camera here. I did hit the person, but it was the other party who started the fight first, so I was just defending myself."

Justifiable defence...

The police officers glanced at Feng Zitong, who was still in tears, then nodded repeatedly and replied in the affirmative. Afterwards, they looked towards Ou Mingxi as well, with a bitter expression on their face.

Ou Mingxi glared fiercely at the nosy attendant and said with a spiteful tone, "What are you looking at me for? It was not me who called the police! Find the person who called for you guys!"

The police all looked at the attendant.

The attendant was stunned.

“I... I... I was not...”

She only called the police when she saw the daughter of the deputy governor getting beaten! Who would have known that this man’s status was so great that even these policemen had to address him as director-general.

If she knew that this man’s military position was that of a director-general, she would not have reported the incident to the police!

“Since you were the one who reported the case, you should follow us back to the station. Our police station is currently carrying out illiteracy sweeping activities, so you should also listen in to them and learn which cases need to be reported and which do not.”

“No no... I am not going!” The attendant was startled.

“Just go listen to a lecture and eliminate illiteracy. Otherwise, if something like this happens again in the future, if neither party makes a report and you instead just report it blindly, it will be a waste of police force.”

While the police officer educated the attendant about case reporting, the management staff of the mall arrived. After learning the identities of the two parties involved in the incident, understanding that the fight starter did not intend to make the matter worse, and discovering that their own staff was the one who had messed things up, they were so angered that they immediately fired her without a second thought.

The attendant was horrified.

Even as she was taken away by the police, she still could not understand why the person who was beaten had not only failed to thank her for helping to call the police, but was stoning her even after she had fallen into the well. (TN: A Chinese saying that means to cause a person who is already in trouble more trouble.)

She was so angry!

The attendant was taken away. Then, Zhong Nuannuan held Chi Yang’s arm in front of Ou Mingxi before saying, “Brother Chi Yang, let us continue shopping.”

Chi Yang’s gaze instantly softened. “Okay.”

The two of them turned and left but Ou Mingxi yelled from behind, “Chi Yang, has Uncle Wang called you yet?”

Only

Chi Yang ignored her and walked away with Zhong Nuannuan.

Ou Mingxi was completely ignored again.

Zhong Nuannuan held Chi Yang's hand and made a big round turn, making sure that Ou Mingxi would not be able to see or hear, then pursed her lips and said, "You were going to have dinner with Ou Mingxi tonight?"

She remembered that the deputy commander-in-chief who had called Chi Yang just now was surnamed Wang.

Looking at his little wife's angry expression, Chi Yang instantly became happy.

"I heard that Governor Ou was coming tonight, so I agreed to attend the dinner."

Zhong Nuannuan felt that she had suffered 10,000 points of critical damage. "Brother Chi Yang, are you serious?! Don't tell me you wanted to have dinner with that Ou Mingxi too?"

"Why would that be the case?!" Chi Yang's serious expression nearly changed. His voice even increased by one decibel.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 257: Soft and Adorable Kitty

"Why are you participating then? Just ignore them!"

"The more you ignore this kind of person, the more she will think that you are just letting your guard down. Thus, it's better to say everything all at once in front of her father. Clarify everything now so that there will not be any trouble afterwards. I've made my intentions very clear. If they still don't know how to behave, then there's nothing we can do about it."

Zhong Nuannuan knew what Chi Yang meant when he said "nothing we can do about it". A warm feeling instantly appeared in her heart.

Her hand that she had pulled away in anger once again hooked around Chi Yang's arm. She replied while smiling, "Then, I will participate with you too!"

"No." Chi Yang refused without even batting an eyelid.

"Why? You're just going there to give them a slap in the face, so just bring me with you! After all, I am an automatic face slapping tool. If you bring me, their faces will be slapped without you having to say a word."

"You don't know them. Many of them have gotten used to being in a high position and they are not used to being disrespected. If you go, they will easily direct their dissatisfaction of me unto you. I can't always follow you around, and I'm afraid they will cause you trouble."

He was not even afraid of the commander-in-chief of the Emperor District military base, let alone a deputy governor and a deputy commander-in-chief.

His only weakness was her.

He could not tolerate the slightest bit of aggression directed toward Zhong Nuannuan.

"I'm not as delicate as you think. And don't forget, even if I don't participate, Ou Mingxi knows who I am and what I look like. If you reject her, she will immediately transfer her hatred onto me. Hence, instead of me being hatefully remembered, how about I go out and do the deed myself?"

Looking at his eager wife, the wrinkles on Chi Yang's solemn face deepened. His deep gaze emitted a faintly murderous intent.

If this was the case, then the other party would need to reconsider bearing any ill will toward his little wife, or be faced with his wrath.

"So, can I come or not?!"

Seeing Chi Yang had not spoken, Zhong Nuannuan started acting like a baby.

Looking at his cute little wife, who was as soft and cute as a kitten, Chi Yang felt that his heart had been melted away. There were only love and pampering left in his eyes.

"Okay."

Zhong Nuannuan got the result she wanted. She then went shopping with him happily.

Although there were not many things to buy, the two spent half the day shopping. In the end, they bought a car full of things.

After putting away the things they bought one by one, Chi Yang took Zhong Nuannuan to Lijing Mansion.

At six o'clock, they arrived at the front door of Lijing Mansion right on time.

"You go in first, I'll come in later."

Only

Chi Yang was a bit hesitant, but then he heard Zhong Nuannuan continue, "The main character is always the last to appear."

When it came to Zhong Nuannuan's small requests, Chi Yang always fulfilled them unconditionally. Therefore, he went to the private room alone.

"BigBrother, are you sure that Chi Yang will really come?"

In the private room, Ou Chenghe personally served Wang Gangyi some ginseng tea. Judging by the way they addressed each other, the two seemed to share a very good relationship.

Wang Gangyi took a sip of the tea before responding, "I am also his commander. For me to ask him, a lower-level military officer, out for dinner is a way to show him respect. This should be an honor for him. How could he possibly miss my appointment?"

Ou Chenghe glanced at Ou Mingxi. After seeing the happiness his daughter was radiating, he replied, "I blame Mingxi for this. She knew that we were going to have dinner with Chi Yang tonight, yet she had a quarrel with him during the day. Isn't she afraid that Chi Yang would be unwilling to come?"

Wang Gangyi was startled. "What happened?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 258: Incompatible

"It wasn't even a big deal, just a small dispute. Mingxi and Zitong went shopping, and when they saw something they liked they said they wanted to buy it. Who would have known that it was also something that Zhong Nuannuan had her eye on. Zhong Nuannuan ridiculed Mingxi, so, for Chi Yang's sake, Mingxi generously gave the things back to her. However, she unexpectedly asked Mingxi to pay for it, saying that she hadn't planned to buy the thing in the first place. Since Mingxi gave it to her and had asked the waiter to pack it up, then it should be Mingxi who should pay."

Wang Gangyi frowned deeply, "She's too much."

Feng Zitong suddenly interrupted, "That's not even the whole story. The cousin sister saw that she didn't want to pay the bill, but also noticed that the salesperson's eyes were pitiful and unbearable. Hence, she went and paid for her and treated it as though she was giving face to Chi Yang. However, after that Zhong Nuannuan took the item, she threw it into the trashcan in front of us. At any rate, the item was worth more than 20,000. so I couldn't look past it anymore. I ran forward to reason with her, but she scolded us quite terribly. It was very unpleasant. I approached her on impulse, trying to use my imposing aura to keep everyone under control, but Chi Yang swiftly kicked me aside."

Wang Gangyi placed the teacup heavily on the table and said angrily, "It's too shameful! How can he still be a soldier when he hits girls!"

Feng Zitong curled his lips and agreed, "My cousin sister asked him the same thing, but he said that he is a soldier, so in his eyes, the only distinction were people on his side or enemies. Since I tried to hurt his allies, I was his enemy."

"Sure, he might be trying to make a distinction between one's own people and the enemy, but at any rate, he is still a director-general. Why did he do such a stupid thing for a woman?"

Only

"I don't blame Chi Yang for this. You said he is a good man, so how could he simply stand aside as his fiancé was wronged?" Ou Chenghe defended Chi Yang from the side, saying, "This matter is still mainly on Zitong. If she had not been so impulsive, things would not have turned out like this, and she would not have been beaten. Sigh, she is still too young."

"I think Zhong Nuannuan is still to be blamed for this matter! As a future wife of military personnel, forget giving your fiancé glory, she's actually going around inciting hatred and causing trouble everywhere. People like her are not qualified to be the wife of a soldier! I really don't know how the Deputy Commander-in-Chief and the Chief of Staff endorsed her."

"Uncle Wang, when the Zhong family held a banquet over the weekend, I also saw the Deputy Commander-in-chief and the Chief of Staff of the special forces. They seemed to have a good relationship with Zhong Nuannuan."

After Ou Mingxi expressed his concern, Ou Chenghe immediately replied, "Yes, Big Brother. At the time, you came out to help Mingxi as a matchmaker, but Zhong Nuannuan has already passed the political investigation. Although he is not married yet, the marriage is already protected. Could it..."

Wang Gangyi waved his hand dismissively. "To be honest, I was originally just a middleman for today's dinner and was just going to help you to lead the line. As for what will happen to you in the future, I can't make any guarantees. After all, Chi Yang's marriage report has been approved, so even if I want to, I can't force Chi Yang. Still..."

"After hearing what you said today, I feel uneasy. Our good comrades, comrades-in-arms, and the outstanding talents cultivated by our army, if they are really being held back by such a woman, it will not only cause misfortune for the family, but also the special forces team. This misfortune could even be said to affect the entire country.

"Therefore, today I'll be a matchmaker. Zhong Nuannuan is not worthy of Chi Yang. Even if Chi Yang doesn't end up getting together with Mingxi, he and Zhong Nuannuan still can't be allowed to be together. "

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 259: To Plan

"But his marriage report..."

"If he hasn't gotten married yet, it's all talk. The marriage report is just a matter of approval. If he doesn't get married, it won't take effect. As long as Chi Yang repents and resubmits the marriage application, the previous one will automatically become invalid."

Ou Chenghe and Ou Mingxi's eyes lit up, and Ou Chenghe said, "Brother, Mingxi's future depends on you. If this thing can be done, Big Brother's matters will become my matters in the future. To be honest, I really admire the soldier Chi Yang."

"Exactly that! Not to mention, Jiang District's military base is just a small one. There has never been an outstanding talent like Chi Yang. If you look at the whole country, there might only be one or two people better than Chi Yang. With Chi Yang around, the future is boundless."

"Really?" Ou Chenghe's eyes lit up. "I heard from Mingxi that Chi Yang's identity is unusual."

"I don't know much about his identity. He doesn't have a public background, and I wasn't able to investigate it in-depth. After all, he always hates these sorts of things the most.

"The news I got is that his parents died and he was an orphan. His grandfather used to live in the countryside and now lives with him in Emperor District. His background...it shouldn't be that deep."

Ou Mingxi was a little dumbfounded. "But doesn't he have a good relationship with the commander-in-chief?"

Only

"It's good. But that's because he was his instructor that he can have his present achievements. It seems that it was the commander-in-chief who had pulled him up with one hand. Don't just look at our commander-in-chief's being all sickly now. It's said that when he was young, he was just like Chi Yang. He was an instructor for the special forces team too, so when he came to Jiang District, he brought Chi Yang over too."

Ou Chenghe hesitated. "Big Brother, then what do you think... what is Chi Yang's future?"

"He is now the director-general at the age of 26 and he is serving as the chief instructor of the special forces team. As the deputy commander, I am not qualified to control him. He is under the direct control of the commander-in-chief.

"If you want to be promoted in our military base, you must have merit. This Chi Yang is someone with the most achievements and who has received the most merits. With his talents, and with the commander-in-chief guiding him from above, he will at least end up being a major general in the future. If nothing untoward occurs, he should be promoted to lieutenant general. If he has other major meritorious services in the future and that there continues to be people from above helping him, it is not impossible for him to be a general. After all, being young is a resource.

"But that is only if he is escorted by the commander-in chief. As you know, our commander-in-chief rushed to retreat from Emperor District to Jiang District because of a physical breakdown. According to some reliable sources, his liver cirrhosis has reached a very serious level. They give him a year at most before it becomes a cancer. I also heard that three weeks ago the commander-in-chief had said that he got so annoyed by the pain that he went to the hospital and found that the liver had already permeated a little. Although it was discovered early and the permeation was stopped in time, had the permeation not been suppressed, it would have led to liver ascites immediately afterwards. If the permeation deepened, he would have died without even having to wait for cancer. "

"If the commander-in-chief dies, Chi Yang would be all alone. With Chi Yang's rather unflappable temperament, I'm guessing he would have offend a lot of people. Even if he is not guilty, look at how many people he angered in the airborne military base? If there are really people at that time who want to mess with him, but there is no one around him to protect him... forget lieutenant general, he might struggle to even become major general."

"Brother, won't you still be around? As long as you can guide Chi Yang, there probably won't be many people in the entire military who can mess with him."

Chapter 260: The Arrival of Chi Yang

"You say it like it is easy. You are a governor as well, aren't you clear about the severity of the situation as well? Nothing has even happened to the commander-in-chief yet, but those below are already ready to make trouble. If his illness worsens, won't those two people make any movements? When that happens I will be overwhelmed, how will I be able to cover for him?"

“But this marriage, how are we supposed to treat it? If we take down Chi Yang now, we from the Ou family would have to stand by the side of Chi Yang. But if anything were to happen to him... brother, I can’t gamble my entire life into this! Mingxi, how about we just let this go!”

As an experienced government official, he understood clearly what Wang Gangyi was trying to express. Although they needed Wang Gangyi to take the lead in order to get things done, it was a win-win situation. Besides, if anything bad were to happen, the blame would fall on the Ou family. Therefore, Wang Gangyi should be even more serious towards this business that would only benefit him.

And so, Ou Chenghe took a step back.

There were some things that he needed Wang Gangyi to speak out about. This way, they would be on equal ground in the future; he, Ou Chenghe would not as if he were a head shorter than him anymore.

As expected, once he heard Ou Chenghe say so, he could not help jumping into the trap that had been set up for him.

Although he was calling Ou Chenghe a sly old fox inwardly, he opened his mouth to say with utmost sincerity,

“You can’t say that for sure. I’m just talking about what may happen, if you let go of such a wonderful son-in-law, wouldn’t you feel so much regret if Chi Yang were to become commander-in-chief?”

At this point, if Wang Gangyi still would not make his position known, Ou Chenghe would just help him declare his position.

“Then... we’ll benefit mutually! If Big Brother will teach us the operation methods, we will give you a hand along with Chi Yang. Didn’t you say that the commander-in-chief is going to die soon? Chi Yang has a good relationship with the commander-in-chief. I’ll get him to speak good things about you in front of him when the time comes, and persuade him to recommend you to be commander-in-chief after he retreats. Once you’re commander-in-chief, you’ll help Chi Yang gain his position as deputy commander-in-chief, how about that?”

Wang Gangyi immediately accepted the olive branch extended by Ou Chenghe. “If I can successfully claim that position, there won’t be any need for you guys to mention it, I will personally build influence, so that Chi Yang will be the best candidate when the time comes.”

Ou Chenghe laughed out loud. “Then it’s settled!”

“Alright.”

Just like that, the rest of Chi Yang’s life was determined by these few folks.

From their perspective, things would be fine as long as they were the ones who made the decisions. As for Chi Yang, it did not matter if the commander-in-chief died or not, for he would still be able to become deputy commander-in-chief, there would be no risk for him. Nobody would give up such a good chance.

So when Chi Yang arrived, everyone gazed at him intently.

“Chi Yang, you’ve arrived!”

Only

Looking at the handsome, steadfast man who was standing as straight as a ramrod, Ou Mingxi felt inexplicable pride. She felt as if she had played a part in helping a man attain a glorious life.

At that moment, she saw herself as the wife of the deputy commander-in-chief, and even as the wife of the future commander-in-chief.

One should know that being the wife of the commander-in-chief was even more eye-catching than being the wife of a governor.

Striding gracefully, Ou Mingxi walked over to Chi Yang's side, and attempted to take his bag from his hands.

However, as her hands reached over, just before she had managed to get a hold of his bag, Chi Yang flinched away.

"Miss Ou, what do you want to do?"

Were her intentions to take the bag with her own two hands not obvious?
