Chapter 2541

2541 You little girl!(4)

seeing that nuan nuan had understood, old master chi continued to console her, " "Nuan Nuan, chiyang is my grandson. I'm more upset than anyone else when he's like this, so I can understand your feelings. but chi yang is already like this, grandfather hopes that you can be strong and live on. Chi Yang knows about this in the underworld, and I believe he also hopes that you can be happy. If you're living in pain, he'll be sad too. And besides Chi Yang, you have so many other family members. If anything were to happen to you, think about how sad your grandfather, three uncles, and six of your brothers would be!"

Nangong Nuannuan:

"Even though you haven't officially married into the Chi family, the battle Bureau has already approved your marriage report. You're already 18 years old and have accepted Chi Yang's proposal ring. nuan nuan, to grandpa, you're not just the granddaughter-in-law of the chi family. you're also my granddaughter. Even though your relationship with Chi Yang is not something an old man like me can interfere with, I still want to beg you not to do anything stupid, okay? Let's move on and look ahead, alright?"

When old man Chi finally finished speaking, and seeing that Chi zeyao was about to speak, Nangong Nuannuan quickly interjected, " "grandfather, second uncle, do you think brother chiyang is dead?"

Old master Chi:

Chizeyao:

The two of them were stunned for a moment, and then their eyes suddenly burst into an unusually bright light. They looked at Chi Yang, who looked peaceful on the bed, but was actually sleeping soundly. Although he was so fragile at the moment, the two of them still couldn't hide the joy on their faces.

"Nuan Nuan Xuanji! This kid is still alive?"

As old man Chi asked, his trembling hand was already touching the artery on Chi Yang's neck.

old man chi and chi zeyao's actions were synchronized. they each touched the carotid artery on one side of their necks. when they felt the strong pulse of the artery on their necks, their faces once again revealed an expression of extreme joy.

"You little girl, why didn't you say so earlier!"

"Girl, you scared us!" Chi zeyao had never blamed Nangong Nuannuan, but he couldn't help chiding her with a smile.

Nangong Nuannuan was also very surprised! "Grandpa, second uncle, who told you that brother chiyang died?" he couldn't help but ask. She wanted to go out and mess with people, and tear those crows 'mouths apart!

Old master Chi and Chi zeyao were both embarrassed.

Chi zeyao cleared his throat and said, "the others only said that Chi Yang might have injured his heart. When your grandfather and I came in, we saw that Chi Yang was not undergoing surgery. He was lying here motionless. We thought he was in a daze.

Nangong Nuannuan:

No wonder Grandpa and second uncle's eyes were red when they came in just now.

No wonder Grandpa wanted to talk to her about these principles.

was he afraid that she would go with brother chiyang?

If brother chiyang really went, it would be useless no matter how much they said. Because in Nangong Nuannuan's heart, no one could compare to brother chiyang.

Although the Nangong family and the Chi family treated her well and she loved them, she couldn't bear to part with big brother chiyang. Especially after being reborn and experiencing death together before falling in love again, she had already decided that she would follow him wherever he went.

However, Nangong Nuannuan would not tell her grandfather and second uncle about her thoughts, in case they were hurt.

Chapter 2542

2542 Godly doctor

"Grandpa, second uncle, don't worry. Brother chiyang is already out of danger. I didn't go out because I was afraid that he would suddenly have internal bleeding. If anything happens, I can immediately perform another operation on him. But it's okay, it's been almost 8 hours, and brother chiyang is fine, so there shouldn't be any major problems."

Nuan Nuan knew that her grandfather and second uncle were both concerned about Chi Yang, so she quickly explained his situation to them.

His grandfather nodded and said, "that's good!" That's good!"

"Where did Chi Yang get hurt this time?" Chi zeyao could not help but ask.

"His lungs and heart were injured. His pulmonary lobe has been pierced, and his heart and pericardium are severely damaged. There are three damages."

Old man Chi and Chi zeyao's eyes widened in disbelief.

After all, they used to lick blood from the tip of a knife. They still had basic medical knowledge when it came to cardiac rupture.

For a pericardium injury, even if it was just a small injury, let alone a serious injury, three injuries, or even a very small injury, once the blood was squeezed onto the heart, a lot of it would be squeezed out through the broken pericardium.

Even if less than 70ml of blood was squeezed out each time, even if only 20ml of blood was squeezed out, once the pericardium was damaged, the person would fall to the ground powerlessly in half a minute and die completely in one minute.

So, when they heard about Chi Yang's injuries, both old man Chi and Chi zeyao looked at Nangong Nuannuan in disbelief.

She had always known that Nangong Nuannuan's medical skills were amazing, but she had not expected them to be so amazing that they could even save a person's heart.

After all, they only had less than a minute to save him! With Chi Yang's injuries, he should have less than half a minute to be saved.

How on earth did this girl pull Chi Yang back from the gates of hell?

"Little girl, do you have any magic power?" Even a person like Chi zeyao, who had a firm belief in science and loved to play with it, could not help but say something stupid.

However, old master Chi didn't think that his son's words were stupid, because he thought so too.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and looked at her brother chiyang, who was fast asleep. Her eyes were filled with a gentle light.

As she had already stood up, she had already removed her hand from chiyang's forehead. At this moment, Nangong Nuannuan wanted to pull her hand away, but the moment she did so, she realized that her brother chiyang, who was in a deep sleep, was frowning slightly. The hand that she had been holding on to earlier had also subconsciously tightened.

Nangong Nuannuan understood and quickly held her brother chiyang's hand again. Then, she reached out her other hand to touch his forehead to check his temperature.

Old master Chi and second uncle Chi felt extremely gratified when they saw how Nangong Nuan Nuan treated Chi Yang with care.

"It's not mana," Nangong Nuannuan explained. The reason why big brother chiyang was able to survive was because he listened to my method to save himself after he was injured. Also, after big brother knew the situation, he didn't wait for me in the hospital, but directly ran to the air to meet me. At that time, the plane was still 9 minutes away from the hospital, but even with me helping brother chiyang, he couldn't last more than 4 minutes. fortunately, big brother came to help."

Nangong Nuannuan told Grandpa Chi and second uncle Chi in detail about the first aid method and Feng shengxuan's timely appearance, and the two of them were amazed.

Chi Yang was so close to death!

Chapter 2543

2543 The Chi family's Lucky Star

It turned out that heart injuries could be saved!

It turned out that as long as the damaged part of the heart was repaired, people could still survive as usual.

All of this sounded very simple. As long as there was blood and needles, a person with a heart injury could be saved. But the key was Wufu.

This person had to be Nangong Nuannuan!

If it wasn't for Nangong Nuannuan, no one would be able to expand the heart muscle with a mere silver needle and prevent it from contracting, right?

If Nangong Nuannuan did not have x-ray vision, the repair of the pericardium would not have gone so smoothly, right?

If it wasn't for Nangong Nuannuan's ability to prevent Chi Yang from breathing, he would probably be dead before he could even board the plane.

"Little girl, you really are our Chi family's Lucky Star! With you, our Chi family will be able to turn calamities into blessings, turn danger into safety, and prosper!"

[f * ck!]

Nangong Nuannuan didn't know how to respond to old master Chi's excited praise.

Seeing that Nuan Nuan was a little embarrassed, second uncle Chi changed the topic and said, "chi yang has suffered such heavy injuries. will there be any side effects after his injuries recover?"

Nangong Nuannuan thought about it and shook her head. if there are any side effects, I will take good care of brother chiyang's body. Grandfather, second uncle, don't worry!

"Don't worry! Don't worry! With you by Chi Yang's side, grandfather can be at ease!"

Old master Chi was overjoyed. There was nothing in this world that made people happier than their grandson coming back from the dead.

With a miracle doctor like Nuan Nuan around, he was not worried about Chi Yang's health at all.

"However, for the next month, brother chiyang will need to rest in bed. In the next six months, he was not allowed to do any strenuous exercise. Before they fully recovered, they were prone to chest tightness, heartache, sweating, and even feeling weak. These are all normal physiological phenomena before recovery. After a complete recovery, these phenomena will be reduced to a complete improvement."

good, good, good, Yingluo. Grandpa Chi nodded repeatedly. He couldn't be more satisfied with this granddaughter-in-law.

"What do you plan to say to the public?" chi zeyao asked.

Hearing second uncle Chi's question, old master Chi's wrinkled face slowly turned serious.

a doctor who could cure a person after his heart was injured, if word got out, how many people would covet this?

Although Nuannuan was strong enough to protect herself and wasn't afraid of being coveted by others, this was still a troublesome matter.

"I will tell people that brother Chiyang's lungs were injured and he has already passed the surgery."

Old master Chi nodded. He also felt that this was the most reliable way to go about it.

However, he still glanced at Uncle Chi. Uncle Chi understood what his father wanted to tell him and nodded to him.

He would be in charge of handling whatever happened here. He didn't want this matter to spread.

Old master Chi and second uncle Chi stayed with Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang in the operating room for a full eight hours before Nangong Nuannuan pushed the operating cart out.

As soon as Chi Yang was pushed out, the President, Vice President, and several prime ministers gathered outside.

"Nuan Nuan, how's Chiyang? Are you alright now?"

When they saw Chi Yang come out with an IV drip, the people outside didn't have the same misunderstanding as old master Chi.

It was the president who asked the question. Nangong Nuannuan glanced at Shi Maowen and said, "Brother Chiyang's lungs were severely injured. I've already performed surgery on him and his condition has stabilized."

The doctors at the side wanted to say that according to their visual assessment, Chi Yang had not only injured his lungs, but his heart as well!

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2544

2544 Atonement

But the doctors did not dare to say anything.

Chi Zeyao took in the excited expressions of the doctors, but he did not say anything.

When the president heard that, he realized that her lungs had been injured. After all, it was a very important organ. He asked, "His lungs were injured? Will that affect his future?"

Other people would have thought that the president was concerned, but Shi Maowen felt that the president was definitely trying to take the opportunity to change people. He was secretly happy.

Nangong Nuannuan shook her head. For now, my injuries are rather serious. However, as long as I recuperate, it won't have much of an impact on my future.

"It's good that you're fine." The president nodded. The medical facilities here are not good," he said. Does Chiyang need to go back to the Imperial state for treatment?"

Nangong Nuannuan shook her head. He can't move for now. I'll send him back when he's better.

"Take good care of Chi Yang," the president nodded. We'll be leaving now."

"Thank you, Mr. President," Nangong Nuannuan nodded. "Thank you, Vice Presidents, and Prime Ministers, for your concern."

The president nodded and left.

Everyone was a little confused. The president was usually very concerned about the Chi family and Nangong Nuannuan. Why was he leaving after just a glance and a few words?

However, they didn't want to guess too much, so they politely bade farewell to old man Chi and Nangong Nuannuan and left.

Nangong Nuannuan had told her family about the president, so the president wasn't as friendly to her as before. Hence, elder Chi didn't take it to heart.

Right now, nothing was more important than his grandson's escape from death.

Although this hospital was full of people, in order to recuperate Chi Yang, the hospital still found a way to clear out a room in the doctor's office for Chi Yang to be a temporary Ward, so that it would be convenient for this Lieutenant General who had made a contribution to recuperate.

Old man Chi, second uncle Chi, Feng Shengxuan, Selena, and Wu Lingyun followed him into the ward. Only Ning Wenhao was left outside, staring at what was happening inside.

Knowing that Chi Yang was safe, Ning Wenhao was finally relieved. On the plane, when he confirmed that Chi Yang's heart was really damaged, he did not say another word.

Even now that Chi Yang was out of danger, he still hadn't recovered from his self-blame.

If he had reacted faster and stopped that woman, his boss wouldn't have suffered so much.

She was just an ordinary woman, so why couldn't they stop her?

If he or the other two had pulled her back, she wouldn't have been able to touch the Jade.

But why didn't they go and pull it?

Even though Chi Yang had already returned from the gates of hell, Chi Yang lying in the cabin, covered in blood, would become the greatest nightmare of his life.

It was because of him that his boss became like this.

"Big brother Ning, why don't you go in?"

Wu Lingyun couldn't help but ask when he saw Ning Wenhao standing at the door, eager but afraid to enter.

Nangong Nuannuan, who had been taking care of Chi Yang, finally regained her senses and remembered her attitude on the plane.

Nangong Nuannuan stood up and walked toward Ning Wenhao.

When he saw Nangong Nuannuan walking over, ning Wenhao subconsciously stood up straight, like a soldier waiting to be reprimanded by his leader.

Before Nangong Nuannuan could say anything, ning Wenhao spoke.

“Sister-in-law, I’m sorry. I didn’t take good care of boss.”

Chapter 2545

2545 Guarding the door (4)

“I didn’t stop that woman when she went to grab the Jade. I have no one to blame for what happened to boss. Sister-in-law, I know I’ve committed a great sin and I can’t take boss’s place to get injured. Can you let me stay here and take care of boss until he gets better?”

Everyone thought that Nangong Nuannuan would comfort ning Wenhao seeing that Chi Yang was no longer in danger. However, Nangong Nuannuan only said, “Alright,” he said.

Even so, ning Wenhao was very happy.

“Sister-in-law, what can I do for boss now? We don’t have enough manpower here, so if you need anything, just let me know.”

“I don’t need anything for the time being. Just guard the door. Just don’t let those people who want to harm him in. I’m here to guard him.”

“Alright,” he said. yes, ” ning Wenhao replied immediately. He stood straight at the door and no longer looked inside.

Apart from Wu Lingyun, everyone knew what Nuan Nuan was thinking, including Feng shengxuan, Selena, old master Chi, and second uncle Chi.

Instead of comforting ning Wenhao with nice words, it was better to punish him, which would make him feel more at ease.

When Chi Yang was seriously injured, no matter how exhausted ning Wenhao was at that time, as Chi Yang’s assistant, he should be vigilant under any circumstances.

Chi Yang’s hands were pressed against the cement ceiling, bearing the pressure from above. As his assistant, it was his duty to protect Chi Yang. He shouldn’t have let his guard down after confirming that there were ordinary people below.

Ning Wenhao was not the only one who had been trapped down there. Two other members of the Flying Eagle had been there as well. Although the other two were also injured, they still had time to stop the woman.

However, the moment the woman suddenly attacked to snatch the Jade, they didn’t react at all. This was their dereliction of duty.

It wasn’t that Eagle’s men couldn’t neglect their duties, but as top-tier Special Forces members, even if they were exhausted, they still had to be vigilant.

The three members of the flying Eagles had actually watched that woman snatch the Jade in front of brother chiyang. Even when the Jade was snatched away, everyone's eyes were still wide open, with a shocked expression.

It wasn't until big brother chiyang's balance was suddenly broken, and he was forced to kneel on the ground by the gravity above that these people finally reacted and subdued the woman. Then, ning Wenhao snatched the Jade.

However, when he tried to place the Jade in front of Chi Yang, Chi Yang had already injured his heart.

Nangong Nuannuan felt that it was a mistake on the part of the three of them.

However, she also knew that ning Wenhao was one of Chi Yang's best Brothers, and he was also the person Chi Yang trusted the most, so she was still willing to give him a chance to atone for his crimes.

Ning Wenhao was an influential officer in Flying Eagle, and now he had superpowers. He was highly regarded by the president. Nangong Nuannuan had thought of making him a doorman and bodyguard, serving tea and pouring water.

As for Nangong Nuannuan's punishment, ning Wenhao wasn't dissatisfied at all. As a member of the combat service department, it was the most basic way to atone for one's crimes.

The old man was getting on in years, and second uncle Chi's health wasn't good. After letting them sit here for a while, Nangong Nuannuan said, "Grandpa, second uncle, brother chiyang is fine now. Why don't you go back first?"

"I want to wait for Chi Yang to wake up and talk to him," the old man shook his head.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2546

2546 To see li jingmo (1)

The conditions here were not good. The old man wanted to wait for Chi Yang to wake up and see his family in an orderly manner.

"Nuannuan, let us stay here. This office is quite big and can even fit a bed. I'll get someone to arrange a bed for your grandfather now. I'll just rest on the sofa. It's already two in the morning and you must be tired. Have a good rest tonight. I'll find someone to arrange a place for you to stay. You can rest for a while and come back during the day."

After all, Nangong Nuannuan was a girl. After she removed her Surgical Gown, she realized that her white t-shirt was covered in dust and dirt. The girl had already accompanied Chi Yang for a long time, and Chi zeyao felt that Nangong Nuannuan, the granddaughter-in-law of the Chi family, had already done her best. He should leave this place to them.

Nangong Nuannuan shook her head. I've already asked someone to send me some clothes. I'll just find a place to change once they're here. Grandpa, second uncle, you're not in good health. You should go back and rest. I've already helped big brother chiyang relax his nerves. He hasn't slept for four days and three nights. In addition, he's seriously injured and needs more rest. I'm afraid he won't wake up for at least two days. You don't have to stay here while he's resting. It's not far from here by helicopter anyway. Why don't you all go back and come back in two days?"

upon hearing that chi yang would only wake up in two days, chi zeyao turned to the old man and said, "Dad, why don't you go back and rest while I stay here?"

Feng shengxuan said, " Nuan Nuan, myself, Selina, and ning Wenhao will be here. Nothing will happen. You guys can go back. Don't worry about this place. Are you still worried about Nuan Nuan's medical skills? There was no need to waste time here. If you're not feeling well, you have to take care of yourself. What are you trying to do by staying up all night?"

When Feng shengxuan heard that his father was going to sleep on the sofa in such a sh * TTY place, he was furious.

Chi zeyao looked at Feng shengxuan's angry face. He had always been the one to criticize him, but this was the first time he had been criticized by his own son. The usually strong-willed Chi zeyao had actually tolerated it for the first time.

Feng shengxuan had been prepared to get electrocuted after yelling at his father, but his father had just endured it.

Feng shengxuan coughed, not used to it.

after all, his mother didn't know that his father was still alive.

In the end, Chi zeyao decided to listen to Nuan Nuan and his son.

"Dad, let's go together. chi yang had four children to take care of him, so he would be fine. With us here, not only do they have to worry about Chi Yang, they also have to worry about us."

Old master Chi was a typical obedient old man. He would never say much about things that he shouldn't say, and he would never drag down things that he shouldn't.

"Alright, then let's go. We'll come back to see Chi Yang in two days."

"Alright," he said.

Old man Chi looked at Wu Lingyun and said, " "Ling Yun, Nuannuan will take care of this place. Come back with us."

"Old Marshal, can I go to the disaster relief site?"

Old man Chi frowned.

"I'm a student from the medical department University and I'm already in my third year. I've always had good grades, so I have no problem with simple medical bandaging. Can I help the members of the Eagle Special Forces with the disaster relief?"

Chapter 2547

2547 Thank you, Grandpa Chi

When old man Chi heard Wu Lingyun's words, a flash of approval appeared in his eyes.

it's already 2 am. Let someone from the combat Services Department send you there tomorrow.

"But it's already been 72 hours. The further we go, the fewer people will survive. Although many doctors are coming to help the disaster area, I want to do my part. I want to go now."

Old man Chi didn't hesitate for a second and nodded. "Okay, then come with me. I'll Take You There now."

Wu Lingyun's eyes lit up. He bowed to old man Chi and said, "Thank you, old Marshal!"

"You're Nuan Nuan's friend, you can just call me Grandpa Chi."

Wu Lingyun smiled at old master Chi. thank you, Grandpa Chi!

"And thank you!" "If it wasn't for you, Chi Yang definitely wouldn't have been able to last that long. You saved my life!" Old man Chi said gratefully.

wu lingyun was taken aback. he looked at nangong nuannuan and saw her nod at him. wu lingyun knew that old man chi must have known about her ability. he smiled at old man chi and said, "Grandpa Chi, Nuan Nuan is my friend. She and brother Chi have helped me a lot. If it wasn't for them, I would still be that selfish child of the Zhou family, living a life worse than a pig or a dog. I might not be able to see my family for the rest of my life, and I might not be able to reunite with them. they've helped me so much that i don't even know how to repay them. now that i can help with whatever i can, i feel very happy. So, Grandpa Chi, you don't have to thank me. I'll feel embarrassed if you do that."

Old master Chi was amused by Wu Lingyun's words. hehehe, Yingluo, Okay, okay. You're all good friends and good children! Grandpa will have someone send you to see Jing Yuan tomorrow."

Wu Lingyun's face turned slightly red. He didn't expect that such an arrogant general would even know who her boyfriend was.

Wu Lingyun thought that Nangong Nuannuan and chiyang had told the old man about this. She didn't know that her grandfather, old master Xiao, had been spreading the news all over the world after finding her.

He was Grampy's granddaughter and Li jingrao was Grampy's grandson, but they were not related by blood. So, when Grandpa found out about her and Li jingrao, he was overjoyed.

After all, if his granddaughter, whom he had finally reunited with, was going to marry someone else soon, old master Xiao would definitely feel very uncomfortable, but li jingrao was different.

Li Jingchen was his grandson. When his granddaughter married his grandson, they would still be a family.

Therefore, old master Xiao had already spread the news to everyone.

Old master Chi and Chi zeyao left with Wu Lingyun, leaving Nangong Nuannuan and the other three in the room. Nangong Nuannuan said to Feng shengxuan and Selina, " "There's nothing to do here anyway, you guys should go and rest first. Don't just stand there."

"You're the one who should rest. You've been performing surgery for hours, and your clothes are so dirty. Go find a place to rest and wash up first."

Nangong Nuannuan shook her head and said, "you guys don't have to worry about me." When brother chiyang's condition is completely stable, I'll go and change."

"Sister-in-law, are you hungry?" ning Wenhao asked from the door. I'll go pack some food for you."

It was already early in the morning, and no one had eaten. Ning Wenhao had been trapped inside for hours, and he had been holding the ceiling for boss for three of those hours. He had run out of energy.

2548 Forgive him (3)

however, if nangong nuannuan did not say anything, he would rather starve to death than run around.

go ahead. You can eat first. After you're done, just pack it for us. nangong nuannuan knew that ning wenhao was exhausted, but she had stayed with him for more than eight hours. she couldn't bear to see him like this, so she asked him to go for dinner.

However, ning Wenhao came back not long after. He was drenched in rain, but the food he packed was clean.

"It suddenly started raining and I didn't bring an umbrella. Sister-in-law, there are many restaurants out there that aren't open yet. You can just make do with it. "

"You should come and eat too."

Ning Wenhao was embarrassed and waved his hand. No, thanks. I'll go change my clothes first.

Then, she went to the bathroom.

Because Chi Yang's ward was vacated from the doctor's office, there was a separate bathroom in the doctor's office area, which was much cleaner than the ones outside. It was a good thing even though it was inconvenient.

Ning Wenhao quickly took a shower and changed his clothes. He felt much better after that.

however, when he went out, he realized that no one had touched the things he had packed.

"sister-in-law, why aren't you eating?" Ning Wenhao was confused. Could it be that these few Masters of Emperor Xun couldn't eat these side dishes?

"I'll be waiting."

After saying that, Nangong Nuannuan began to open the lid.

Feng shengxuan and Selina also sat down.

Ning Wenhao's heart warmed, and he sat down without being pretentious.

Ning Wenhao packed a lot of food, because he knew that his sister-in-law had an amazing appetite.

However, Nangong Nuannuan did not eat much that night. She only ate a little to fill her stomach and did not eat anything else.

It was the same for Feng shengxuan and Selina. They didn't eat much.

ning wenhao felt like he was going crazy from hunger. he ate very quickly, so he was almost full when feng shengxuan and selina finished their meal.

He could have eaten more, but seeing that everyone was not eating, he was too embarrassed to eat anymore.

nangong nuannuan looked at ning wenhao and said, " you've already overdrawn your physical strength. Now, you must replenish it to its maximum capacity. Otherwise, the power of the ability cells in your body will be weakened after this serious overdraw.

Ning Wenhao was stunned. Nangong Nuannuan said, " "Eat more, finish it."

"Eh, alright!" With his sister-in-law's order, ning Wenhao really started to eat.

After eating half of the remaining food, ning Wenhao was completely full.

At this moment, he felt that the physical strength that he had overexerted was being replenished bit by bit. It was just as his sister-in-law had said. Only after eating something could the ability cells in his body work again.

the next morning, elder nangong arrived with the nangong family. Old master Chi and Chi zeyao, who had returned home in the early hours of the morning, had also arrived on the Nangong family's plane.

The plane they took earlier belonged to the combat Department, but even though they were marshals and generals, they felt that they shouldn't take up the combat department's resources.

In addition, the Nangong family and the Chi family had a strong economic foundation, so it wasn't a luxury for them to take a few planes to and from each day as a means of transportation.

Nangong Nuannuan didn't expect her two grandfathers to come again, so she quickly helped them find a place to sit.

However, the two grandpas asked the accompanying guards to bring folding seats, which could be sat down after being opened.

"Nuan Nuan, how was chiyang last night?" Old man Nangong asked.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. his injuries have stabilized and he's in the midst of recovery.

Chapter 2549

2549 I'll only be at ease if I'm safe (4)

"I already told grandpa chi yesterday that brother chiyang would only wake up by tomorrow night at the latest. why are you here again?"

"I'm just worried about you!" Seeing that Nuan Nuan's eyes were bloodshot, elder Nangong's heart ached. "Girl, did you not rest well last night? The Grand Hyatt Hotel in the city is a business chain under the Imperial Group. The earthquake didn't happen this time, so the impact is small. Grandpa has already informed them on the way here, and they have reserved the best room for you. You can go and rest for eight hours before coming back."

The Imperial Group had a wide range of hotels, ranging from seven-star hotels in and out of the country to business chains. As a B-Class province, the living standard of the people in Shengzhou was definitely not as good as that of S-Class cities, let alone the 3s-Class di province and hai province. Therefore, Imperial Group only had one hotel chain here. it could be considered the best hotel in shengzhou.

"There's no need for that, grandfather. I'll only be at ease if I stay here and watch over brother chiyang. Yesterday, someone from disheng sent me some clothes. There's a washroom here, and I'm fine here."

The two grandfathers felt especially good when they saw Nuan Nuan, who usually used the best of everything, not being picky, not being disdainful, and not being pretentious at all.

reporting to old general, this lady said that she is director Chi's mother. She has come here to make soup for him.

A guard at the door came to report. There were two guards behind him, and in the middle of the two guards was Zhou ruxue.

When they saw Zhou ruxue, everyone was surprised. He didn't expect that this woman, who had fooled around with another man at her husband's funeral and left with another man when her son was nine years old, could travel such a long distance to Shengzhou when an earthquake happened.

seeing chi yang on the bed, zhou ruxue's tears immediately flowed out. she immediately tried to break free from the guard's grip and said, "Chi Yang, my son! Nuan Nuan, how is Chi Yang?"

When Zhou ruxue said the words 'my son', the guard subconsciously thought that it was true. These guards were old man Nangong's guards and they didn't know much about the Chi family, so they were allowed in.

Zhou ruxue's heart was filled with joy. She hurriedly walked to Chi Yang's bed with a worried expression, but just as she was about to approach him, she was stopped by ning Wenhao.

Seeing ning Wenhao, who was a head taller than her, standing in front of her and blocking her view, Zhou ruxue frowned and said to ning Wenhao, "Ah Hao, I don't have any other intentions. I just heard that Chi Yang was injured and was worried about him, so I wanted to come and see him. Even a glance would be good."

He immediately turned to Nangong Nuannuan and asked, "nuan nuan, how is chi yang? Yesterday, I heard that he was injured, and it seems that his heart was injured. Is this nonsense? chi yang is fine, right?"

Before Nangong Nuannuan could reply, old master Chi asked unhappily, "What are you doing here? I've already said that the moment you stepped out of the Chi family, you were no longer a member of the Chi family."

When the guards at the entrance heard old Marshal Chi's words, they knew that they had let someone they shouldn't have let in. Just as they were about to drag Zhou ruxue out, they heard her begging for mercy.

Chapter 2550

2550 The pain of being separated

"Yes, yes, I know. Father is not. Old Marshal, I know I was wrong before. But old Marshal, you're also the child's father and grandfather. You should know the excruciating pain of being separated from your flesh and blood.

I know that I'm not a good wife and I'm not a good mother, but Chi Yang is my child, my biological son. Now that he's so seriously injured, it wasn't easy for me to ask you about this hospital. I beg you, on the account that I gave birth to Chi Yang, please have great mercy and let me see him. I promise I won't do or say anything. I'll just look at him. Just look at him. I'll leave after I'm done, okay? I'm begging you! I'll kneel down in front of you!"

After saying that, Zhou ruxue knelt in front of old man Chi and even kowtowed three times.

In the past, Zhou ruxue had always been pampered. Even when old master Chi had chased her out of the Chi family, she had walked away with her head held high. In the past 17 years, she had never lowered her head to the old master even once.

Every time she met with old master Chi and Chi Yang, she would try her best to show her best side.

Especially in front of Chi Yang, she was always as proud as a peacock. In front of Chi Yang, she always played the role of a mother.

Old master Chi didn't like Zhou ruxue from the start. However, at that time, ze Hao was out on a mission and had an affair with Zhou ruxue, and then there was Chi Yang. Even if he didn't want to acknowledge her as his daughter-in-law, he had no choice but to do so after he did a DNA test with Chi Yang.

However, this wife was just like the first time he had seen her. Her character and personality were not very good. Other than being very beautiful and having a good figure, she had almost no other merits to speak of.

It could be said that his son was blind. His taste in women could not even be compared to one-ten-thousandth of his grandson's.

However,

even if he didn't like Zhou ruxue, he couldn't deny the fact that she was Chi Yang's mother.

He could chase Zhou ruxue away and not acknowledge her as his daughter-in-law. However, he could not deprive her of being a mother. At this moment, he wanted to see his son's request.

seeing that zhou ruxue no longer had the arrogance from before and was now humbly begging him, the kind-hearted old master chi couldn't bear to continue being unyielding.

He only glanced at Chi Yang.

you can look at him, but you can leave after that. Don't touch him, and don't speak loudly.

"Good, good, good! I won't touch him! she would definitely not touch him! I also won't speak loudly!"

zhou ruxue was overjoyed. she quickly lowered her voice and got up from the ground. she picked up the thermal flask that she had been holding in her arms and said to old man chi and nangong nuannuan, "

"Dad, Nuan Nuan, this is the soup I made for chiyang. He had cooked it for the entire night and wanted Chi Yang to drink some yesterday. in the end, he was busy the whole time. i waited for him in the security area, but he never came back. i only found out that he was injured at night. After I found out that he was in this hospital, I made some soup again in the morning. It was chicken soup with Angelica, milk, goji berries, red dates, and peanuts. Not only was it nutritious, but it could also produce blood. When Chi Yang wakes up, let him drink a little."

after saying that, zhou ruxue looked at old master chi. at this moment, she realized that the old man was much easier to talk to than chi yang and nangong nuannuan.

However-

Old master Chi, who had always been a man of his word, looked at Nuannuan.
