Chapter 261: Being Disregarded

Ou Mingxi's smile was a little stiff; she felt that Chi Yang had belittled her in front of her father and uncle. "I'll put your bag away for you."

"That won't be necessary. I don't like my personal belongings to be handled by someone else."

Ou Mingxi, "...!!" Was she someone else? She was about to be his future woman, wasn't she?

Suppressing her dissatisfaction, Ou Mingxi returned to Ou Cheng's side, a fixed expression appeared on her face.

As the daughter of the deputy governor, Ou Mingxi had a strong sense of superiority. In the past, all her past boyfriends had treated her like a valuable treasure. Chi Yang was the only one who had belittled her over and over again.

Nevertheless, taking into account his handsome appearance, he was the most attractive and charming of all the men she had been with. Not only that he had a bright future ahead of him, so Ou Mingxi finally decided to swallow her anger.

"Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang," Chi Yang inclined his head slightly; for him this was already considered a sign of greeting.

Wang Gangyi chuckled. Not only did he not stand up, but he also leaned back in his seat instead in a prominent display of his official status.

"Little Chi, this is my brother-in-arms, Ou Chenghe, the current Deputy Governor of the Jiang District."

With a serious look on his face, Chi Yang pulled out a chair. Only after seating himself did he incline his head towards Ou Chenghe, "Deputy Governor Ou."

Ou Chenghe was an experienced player in the game of bureaucracy after all, and he could tell that Chi Yang was deliberately putting on a pose. As he recalled the incident that happened at the shopping mall that very morning, it did not take him long to be at ease with things.

As Chi Yang was a promising young officer, it was normal that he should have a bit of temper.

Ou Chenghe smilingly said, "You can dispense with the formalities, you're close to Mingxi after all. Just call me Uncle Ou."

While Ou Chenghe was speaking, Chi Yang had called the waiter to add another seat at the table; the waiter quickly complied.

Everyone was about to ask if Chi Yang had invited someone else when he inquired in perfect sincerity, "Mingxi? Who's that?"

Everyone, '...'

Chi Yang continued, "Is Deputy Governor Ou acquainted with Ming Lu?"

Everyone, '... Who the hell is Ming Lu?'

Ou Chenghe exchanged a glance with Wang Gangyi, his eyes full of questions.

Wang Gangyi knew nothing about this since he was not very familiar with Chi Yang in the first place. The special forces team that Chi Yang belonged to was not in the same location after all.

"Cough, cough... Chi Yang, we're talking about Mingxi."

If Chi Yang had been trying to scorn the Ou family before, Wang Gangyi felt that he should stop doing so after what he had said.

Chi Yang was aware of Wang Gangyi's objective, and that was also the reason why he had invited his wife to join them. However, he was a little surprised when the topic of Ming Lu's family was brought up.

"Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang is trying to point out that I am not acquainted with Mingxi, only Ming Lu."

Everyone, "...!!!"

Only

"Cough, cough... Chi Yang, the Mingxi your Uncle Ou was referring to is his daughter, Ou Mingxi."

Chi Yang, "...!!!"

At the look on Chi Yang's face, everyone realized that he was not trying to be rude; he had genuinely made a mistake.

However, this incident also indicated that Chi Yang was oblivious to the fact that Ou Chenghe's daughter went by the name of Ou Mingxi, otherwise they would not have spent so much time talking about two such completely unrelated matters.

Things were getting awkward though. Mingxi could recall each encounter with Chi Yang with great clarity. On the other hand, Chi Yang could not recall Mingxi's name even after two conflicts.

Ou Mingxi's face was red with anger. She could not believe that she held no place in Chi Yang's heart. Even if they had had two disputes in the past, should he not at least remember her name?!

Truth be told, however, Chi Yang genuinely did not remember Ou Mingxi's name. He only knew about her because he had heard his wife mention this name more than once.

Chapter 262: Slap in the Face

However, because he had not classified this woman as an enemy yet, he had not paid much attention to this person's matters. When he suddenly heard the name "Mingxi", he did not equate it to Ou Mingxi at all. After all, in his mind, this woman was just named Ou Mingxi.

Thus, he had simply assumed that Ou Chenghe and Wang Gangyi knew some of his comrades' siblings or something.

The faces of all the people at the table darkened with anger at Chi Yang's serious but dumbfounded expression.

However, the most infuriating thing was yet to come.

When Chi Yang recovered, he said to Ou Chenghe with a solemn expression, "Deputy Governor Ou, my relationship with Ou Mingxi is not so close to the point that I can call you 'Uncle'. At the military base, although I am one military rank lower than Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, we still get along as equals, so I hope that you can extend me some basic respect, Deputy Governor Ou."

Wang Gangyi, Ou Chenghe, and Ou Mingxi were shocked!

"Haha, I just saw that you're young and are about the same age as my daughter. Moreover, you're friends with Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, so I thought of bringing our relationship closer. If I've offended you, please forgive me."

Wang Gangyi saw that Chi Yang did not show Ou Chenghe any respect at all, and he felt very dissatisfied. After all, he was their middleman, and Chi Yang should at least have some consideration for him. Hence, when Chi Yang did not treat Ou Chenghe honorably, it meant that he was also disrespected. Therefore, he immediately started to put up his bureaucratic front.

"Chi Yang, I already heard of what happened in the mall this morning. This incident should stay in the past; you're not at fault, it's Zhong Nuannuan who's in the wrong. You're a man, and even a soldier, so you shouldn't keep frowning in front of the ladies, am I right? Mingxi and Zitong are both here this evening, so, as a gentleman, shouldn't you say something?"

Before Chi Yang had time to speak, Ou Chenghe started to smile and mediate the dispute again. "Say something? There's no need for that, friendship grows from an exchange of blows, young man! Waiter, serve the dishes."

"Sure." The waiter immediately brought the prepared dishes.

Chi Yang glared at Wang Gangyi as an icy gaze shot out from his deep pupils.

At this moment, three cold dishes had already been served, and Ou Chenghe announced, "Come, we're all family here, let's begin our meal. Chi Yang, have a taste of this. This is Lijing Mansion's specialty dish, the leaders in Emperor District are always full of praise for this cold dish."

Only

However, when he said this, Chi Yang ignored him and looked at Wang Gangyi instead.

"Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, I think you may have made a mistake. Today's incident in the mall was caused by Ou Mingxi, and the woman next to her helped to fuel the fire. What does this have to do with my fiancée? If you don't know my fiancée, please stop slinging mud at her, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang."

Wang Gangyi was stunned by Chi Yang's words.

It was said that superior officials could crush inferior officials with their rank in the administrative office, and this situation was even truer in the military base. After all, a soldier's basic duty was to obey their superiors' orders.

As the military base's deputy commander-in-chief, apart from the commander-in-chief and chief of staff, no one in the military base would dare to disobey his orders. Everyone treated him with respect. Even if the confidants of the few other deputy commander-in-chiefs were not under his command, they still had to agree with him overtly, and would only oppose him in secret. At the very least, their attitude was correct.

However, ever since Chi Yang first entered up to the present moment, he had acted like an elder uncle, and did not treat him as a superior at all.

At this moment, Wang Gangyi's temper also flared...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 263: Loony

"Chi Yang, you're the commander-in-chief's subordinate and are directly under the control of the commander-in-chief, but I, Wang Gangyi, am still your commanding officer. Do you speak to your commanding officers with such insolence?"

In the face of such a situation, ordinary people would lessen their imposing manner and give their superiors an out.

However, this was Chi Yang.

He was only in Jiang District because he had a mission to carry out. If he was in Emperor District, he would not even bother to acknowledge such a person.

"It is because Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang is the military base's deputy commander-in-chief that I'm sitting here talking to you. It is only because you are my commanding officer. If it were someone else, just your act of slandering my fiancée indiscriminately would be enough for me to sue you."

Wang Gangyi thought, '...Sh*t! I don't think I can continue this conversation any longer.'

He had long heard that apart from the commander-in-chief, Chi Yang had no respect for anyone else. The other two deputy commander-in-chiefs had already suffered this fate.

Originally, he paid no heed to it, but at this moment, not only was he being verbally attacked, the other party was acting as though he should feel honored for having received the verbal assault. Neither Wang Gangyi nor the people at the table knew how to respond to Chi Yang.

It took a while for Wang Gangyi to return to his senses. Anger instantly arose from this heart, and he grabbed a teacup from the table. He originally wanted to throw it directly at Chi Yang, but he also knew that this one smashed cup would not stop things from escalating in the future. The key point was that he was afraid Chi Yang would complain about him in front of the commander-in-chief.

Therefore, despite how angry he felt, Wang Gangyi simply placed the teacup heavily on the table. The tea splashed all over the place, showing his anger at the moment.

Even so, Wang Gangyi's anger was not even a fart to Chi Yang.

"Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, you seem to be angry?"

Wang Gangyi sneered and thought, 'Oh, so you still know how to observe other's expressions!'

Before he had time to feel proud of himself, he heard Chi Yang's criticism. "As a deputy commander-in-chief of the military base, you listened and believed such slanderous words, and you defamed your comrade-in-arms and military sister-in-law just because of the one-sided statement of others without launching a proper investigation. Aren't you ashamed of yourself?"

"You...!" Wang Gangyi was so angry that his jaw dropped.

He often met with fault-finding soldiers like this, but he had never seen someone who was still a faultfinder after being promoted to the rank of director-general.

At this moment, he was already unable to back out of the humiliating situation. His old face was flushed with neither anger nor embarrassment.

"Okay, okay, okay, we're all family, calm down, calm down! Today's incident is counted as our Mingxi's fault. Mingxi is young and unlearned, and her cousin Zitong is also ignorant of worldly affairs, so that's why she offended Director-General Chi. Please forgive them, and don't pay too much attention to these young girls."

The stronger Chi Yang presented himself, the more confident Ou Chenghe became that Chi Yang had some form of backing.

Only

If he did not have someone backing him, with his temperament, if he were in the administrative office or military base, he would have been gnawed to the bone a long time ago.

A person with Chi Yang's temper was only suitable to be a soldier to execute missions, but not to be an official. However, he was able to sit on the rank of director-general at just the age of 26.

Hence, not only was Ou Chenghe not angry, his attitude became increasingly cautious.

After all, a new round of presidential elections would be held soon, and it was a sensitive period. He was not willing to make another strong enemy because of such trivial matters.

Thus, Ou Chenghe took the teapot and prepared Wang Gangyi's tea, then got up, walked over to Chi Yang's side and personally offered him a cup of tea.

However, Chi Yang was not having any of it.

"Deputy Governor Ou, I remember my fiancée saying that Ou Mingxi was a classmate of her cousin, Jiang Hongyang? At any rate, she's in her 20s this year, and has full capability for civil conduct, but you still treat her like a child. Can I assume that Ou Mingxi and her cousin to be a little loony?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 264: Manliness

Ou Chenghe's hand, which held the tea, paused slightly.

Even if he could accept the previous face-slaps, this upgraded face-slap was completely out of hand. At the moment, he was unable to control himself or justify it to himself.

His facial expression also completely darkened, like Wang Gangyi.

"Chi Yang, don't go overboard. Today's incident was clearly started by Zhong Nuannuan, but not only did you not blame her, you even allowed her to mess around. My father and Uncle Wang have already thrown you a rope out of good faith, but you're still being unreasonable. Isn't this too unmasculine of you?"

Ou Mingxi could not help herself at all as she felt that she was just too shameless. Not only did she get insulted, she even caused her father and Uncle Wang, two high-ranked and self-conscious people, to get slapped in the face. This was just too much!

Although she had already targeted this man and did not intend to give up, men had to be scolded when necessary. Even if she was the one pursuing him, she could not give him too much respect.

"Manliness?" Chi Yang asked back, "What's that?"

Ou Mingxi was at a loss for words.

"Does Miss Ou think that manliness is to stand aside and keep quiet when my fiancée is bullied? Am I simply to let the two of you bully my fiancée whilst maintaining a gentlemanly demeanor whilst you persuade your cousin to slap my fiancée? If manliness means I am supposed to stand by as the two of you beat her up, then sorry, I'd rather be a villain with no masculinity, rather than let my fiancé suffer at all."

Everyone fell silent.

Zhong Nuannuan was listening to their conversation outside the door the entire time.

To be honest, although Chi Yang was terrifying and had an icy aura around him, he was not a person who casually bullied the weak.

As he was a soldier, the justice engraved in his bones ensured he would never bully others despite being extremely powerful.

Although she felt relieved at him kicking the physically weak Feng Zitong today, she was still surprised.

Now that she heard Chi Yang's explanation for his actions today, Zhong Nuannuan felt as though she was being surrounded by a warm current.

Everyone was so angry at Chi Yang that they could not say anything.

At this moment, Zhong Nuannuan received Chi Yang's text message. Thus, she pushed the door open and walked in.

When everyone saw Chi Yang stand up, then reach out to take Zhong Nuannuan's hand before walking over and sitting down pompously, their complexions sank to the point where it could not possibly get any darker.

Especially for Ou Mingxi and Feng Zitong.

After this, Chi Yang introduced Zhong Nuannuan, "Nuannuan, this is Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang from our military base."

Only

Zhong Nuannuan smiled politely. "Hello, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang."

Wang Gangyi was lost for words.

He had never been slapped in the face like this before. Wang Gangyi did not know where to vent the anger in his heart, and took a deep breath before speaking.

"Lil Chi, I think you should have understand my intentions in inviting you to come over today, right? You clearly understood what I meant, and yet you still brought Zhong Nuannuan with you. Are you really disregarding me?"

"Why, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, didn't you seek me out to act as an intermediary so that Ou Mingxi and Feng Zitong could apologize to my Nuannuan?"

Wang Gangyi was speechless, and he forcefully suppressed his anger before nodding. "Okay, Lil Chi, since you've also brought Nuannuan, that's even better. Bright men do not speak in secret, so let's talk while Zhong Nuannuan is here as well.

"Let me talk about today's incidents first. If it wasn't for Zhong Nuannuan, you would not have had a conflict with Mingxi and Zitong today. Zhong Nuannuan is a quasi-future military wife!"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 265: Double Standards

"As a quasi-military wife, not only did she fail to think of a way to calm your temper when an incident was about to happen, she even instigated you to heighten the situation. If you really marry such a woman, not only would she be unable to offer you any help, she'll often put you in a passive position instead. Therefore, as a chief officer of the military base, I have my doubts about this relationship between you and her.

"Secondly, let's talk about things that happened in the past. I heard that Zhong Nuannuan pushed one of her classmates down the stairs before, causing the male student to fall to his death, and Zhong Nuannuan also went to jail for a month because of this. Chi Yang, you're a military officer with a promising future, so how can you marry a condemned woman with a criminal record? This is the second reason why I have doubts about your relationship with her.

“Besides, although Zhong Nuannuan’s family is pretty good, her mother is a shareholder of Cloud Group, but her father is only a commander, and will not boost your career in any way. With her father’s current position, he might even have to rely on you in the future. However, Mingxi is different, Deputy Governor Ou has a close relationship with the governors of many states, and even has relations in Emperor District, while Deputy Governor Ou and I are also as close as brothers.

“Chi Yang, I know that you’re a hard-hearted and capable soldier, and you speak straightforwardly, so Deputy Governor Ou and I can forget all the offensive things you said from the moment you entered the door until now.

“I believe that you didn’t manage to gain the high position of director-general just by brute force alone. Therefore, I believe you’ll make the right choice in deciding which side is more beneficial to you.”

After saying that, Wang Gangyi looked at Zhong Nuannuan again. “As for you, if you really love him, then you should let him fulfill his dreams instead of binding him to you selfishly.

“Look at him, not only does he have to deal with having a suspected murderer as a fiancée for your sake, he even has to pay for your occasional impulsiveness.

“If you love someone, you should help him. If you can’t help him, but instead constantly hold him back, then even though this marriage might start because of love, it definitely won’t end well.

“Therefore, in front of you today, as a deputy commander-in-chief, I solemnly urge you and hope you can withdraw from the marriage. You’re not a match for Chi Yang.”

Only

Zhong Nuannuan also felt that this was enough. She was just about to retaliate when Chi Yang gently squeezed her hand tightly, preventing her from speaking.

“Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, you said that as a quasi-military wife, my Nuannuan not only failed to think of calming tempers when an incident happened, but even heightened the situation, and that’s why you don’t view her favourably. According to what you said, even if my partner is angry, she should remain patient because she’s a military wife, right?”

Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang did not even think about his reply. “Of course! This is the basic quality of being a military wife!”

“That’s good. I’ll take Nuannuan to Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang’s house, let her slap your wife a few times, then maim her tonight. Don’t be angry when that happens, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang.”

“You’re presumptuous!” Wang Gangyi slammed the teacup onto the table heavily again to show his anger.

“How was I presumptuous? Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, didn’t you just say that a military wife should practice tolerance even if she’s angry? Why should the wives of other soldiers be like this, but when the same thing is suggested to Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, it’s presumptuous?”

“Does the commander-in-chief know that Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang is a person who allows one to steal a horse while not allowing another to look over the hedge? (TN: Basically a hypocrite.) Don’t you feel ashamed for treating your subordinates with such double standards? ”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 266: Upgraded Face-Slap

“I only said that I was going to hit Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang’s wife once, and you’re already yelling at me. Don’t forget that this woman next to Ou Mingxi almost slapped my fiancée’s face today!

“People say not to slap someone’s face when you’re hitting them, yet now you’re saying that my fiancée is still not tolerant enough. What kind of nonsense is that, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang? Do you want me to learn from Jesus, and turn the other cheek right after getting slapped, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang? If a military wife must do this to be qualified, then why aren’t you allowing your wife to be beaten, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang?

“Besides, according to what Ou Mingxi said earlier, she bullied my partner, and if I fight back, I don’t have a masculine temperament. I haven’t beaten your wife just now, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, I only talked about it, but you’re already furious. If this is the case, then aren’t you a little lacking in temperament as a man, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang?”

Wang Gangyi and Ou Mingxi were shocked!

“So going back to your first point, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang: If you want to talk about my fiancée verbally attacking them and me hitting that girl, to put it nicely, they were looking for trouble. Put simply, they were shameless, so even if they suffered, they deserved it. Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, do you think I, as director-general of the military base’s Department of Special Forces Team, should look for a woman who’s a shameless troublemaker, instead of a woman who would never back down, and solve problems as they come? You’re trying so hard to push a shameless, troublemaking woman onto me, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, so I have to ask, what exactly are your intentions?”

Seeing that everyone was speechless, Chi Yang’s expression became colder.

‘You think this is over?’

Only

“Secondly! My Nuannuan was acquitted by the court. Even the court ruled that Nuannuan was innocent, but here you are, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, saying that my Nuannuan has a criminal record, which should be criticized. Can I sue you for defamation, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang? No matter what a soldier says or does, he represents the military base and the country’s image. Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, you’re lashing out at a girl who has no grudges against you with baseless accusations. Aren’t you being a bit too irresponsible?”

Wang Gangyi’s face was pitch black at that moment, and he could not utter a single word.

“Also, I, Chi Yang, fight for whatever I want to with my own ability. I’ve always felt disdain for trickery, and I feel the utmost hatred for cliques. Since you’ve invited me to this meal, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, I’ll also remind you of this out of the kindness of my heart. Although friends can be made, it’s best not to form cliques. Otherwise, if any part of the process goes wrong, the skyscrapers you’ve worked so hard to build for yourself might crumble to dust overnight, Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang.”

At this moment, Wang Gangyi felt that there was a mouthful of phlegm stuck in his throat. He could not cough it up nor swallow it, and his face was flushed.

However, by now, Chi Yang had already turned his attention to Ou Chenghe.

“Deputy Governor Ou, I don’t know you, nor am I familiar with you, so I don’t have much to say. Nevertheless, Ou Mingxi has provoked my partner more than once, and this makes me very unhappy. Everyone has their own temper, so for Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang’s sake, I am willing to ignore past incidences. However, please discipline your daughter from now on, and don’t let her provoke my partner anymore. If she still causes trouble in the future, then you’re slapping me, Chi Yang’s face. If that happens, forget you, I won’t even show any respect to Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang’s feelings.

“Let’s assume I’ve already eaten this meal. From now onwards, let’s not interfere in each other’s affairs, and I will also no longer think about today’s incidents.”

After he finished speaking, Chi Yang took Zhong Nuannuan’s hand, got up and left, leaving a room full of people with expressions as dark as ink.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 267: Obsession

It was not until Chi Yang had let Zhong Nuannuan far away that Wang Gangyi awoke from his anger, took up the teacup and threw it onto the door, eliciting a crisp crashing sound.

At this moment, the table of people who had originally imagined becoming family with Chi Yang all had their faces beaten to the point of aching.

Ou Chenghe was the first to calm down from his anger, and he said to Ou Mingxi, “Don’t ever mention Chi Yang again, our family is not fated to be with him. As for Zhong Nuannuan, don’t cause any more conflicts or quarrels with her again. This Chi Yang is not someone you can handle, you and him are not compatible.”

Although Chi Yang’s words made him, as a deputy governor, feel very embarrassed, and were like slaps to his face, his sixth sense of seeking advantages and avoiding pitfalls that had developed over the years made him feel that this Chi Yang was a ruthless character, and was not someone to be trifled with. If he were to ever provoke him, it would not be that easy for him to get away.

Therefore, since he had no intention for his daughter to pursue him, his personal thoughts were the same as what Chi Yang had said—they should not interfere in each other’s business from now on. Although they could not become a family, at least they were not enemies.

However, Ou Chenghe’s thoughts were different from Wang Gangyi’s, and was even contrary to that of his daughter, Ou Mingxi.

Only

"I won't give up!" Ou Mingxi stated her determination on the spot. "I'll never give up on Chi Yang. He's such an outstanding person, so why should I give up on him? Which part of Zhong Nuannuan is better than me? She can't compare to me in any aspect, so why can she get Chi Yang's love, but I can't? I'm not happy at all."

Ou Chenghe was just about to teach his daughter a lesson when Wang Gangyi also stood on Ou Mingxi's side. "I support Mingxi's decision! Hmph, who does he think he is? Even if he has a good relationship with the commander-in-chief, he's not at the same rank as me, a deputy commander-in-chief! How dare he disrespect me like this, and even threaten to go to my house and beat my wife? He's just too detestable, just too arrogant!"

"If a person like him won't become Mingxi's man and become one of us, then I definitely won't let him run wild. No matter how high he flies or how arrogant he is, he's just a small captain in front of me."

"Uncle Wang, don't be angry, I apologize to you on his behalf. Although Chi Yang's words today were very infuriating, but you can also think about this from another perspective. Not only is Chi Yang unafraid of things, he's also extremely protective of the weak. He's protecting Zhong Nuannuan and angering us to death now, but if he gets together with me, then wouldn't he start covering up my shortcomings? A person like him who is unafraid of anyone will make others stomp their feet in anger if he becomes one of us. In short, I've already set my mind on him, I'll definitely fix him."

Ou Chenghe looked at his daughter, but he was not as confident as her. "I'm afraid that no matter how hard you work, he won't become your man. A person like him has one of life's biggest advantages and disadvantages, which is stubbornness. Once he has decided on a person or matter, it's not easy to change his mind."

"Dad, can you stop boosting other people's morale whilst reducing your own aspirations? Do you know how he got together with Zhong Nuannuan? At first, Zhong Kuijun wanted to introduce him to Zhong Qianqian, but he didn't have any feelings for Zhong Qianqian, so Zhong Qianqian drugged him. It was only after he raped Zhong Nuannuan that he made a marriage report. The two of them have only met each other not too long ago, so how deep can their relationship be?"

"He's treating Zhong Nuannuan like this because he feels that he owed her. On the other hand, one could think of it as male chauvinism. You have to have faith in your daughter! If he's really a wuss, I'll look down on him!"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 268: Protect

Wang Gangyi was humored by Ou Mingxi. "Young Brother Ou, the new generation surpasses the old. It looks like you, the deputy governor, seem to be inferior to your daughter!"

Ou Chenghe laughed.

"Mingxi has been a thoughtful person since she was young, so her mother and I didn't have to worry about her much. Previously, I was thinking of letting her seek out a good family to marry after her graduation, but she wasn't happy and insisted on following me into the administrative office. Now, she's already a section chief at the age of 23."

Wang Gangyi smiled and praised, "Train her well, as Mingxi's path might end up brighter than yours in the future."

"I hope so. Actually, I don't have much to ask of her, I just hope that she can be happy." Ou Chenghe looked at Ou Mingxi with a vaguely worried expression. He did not know whether today's decision was right or wrong.

"Uncle Wang, I'll pursue Chi Yang from today onwards, if I need anything from Uncle Wang, you must help me."

"Of course!"

After thinking about it, Wang Gangyi stopped being angry.

If Chi Yang followed his orders, he would just have to wait for Ou Mingxi to fix him, then he would call Chi Yang again and make him grease the wheels with the commander-in-chief on his behalf. If he preferred to face the consequences, then he should not be blamed him for making the latter's life difficult.

Chi Yang and Nuannuan did not know about the situation in the room.

After exiting the Brocade Hall, Zhong Nuannuan held Chi Yang's arm and smiled until her eyes curved into crescents.

"I didn't expect my Big Brother Chi Yang to have such powerful combat abilities. Before this, I always thought that Big Brother Chi Yang was the type of person who doesn't like to talk much, and solves his problems with his fists."

Chi Yang rubbed her bun hairstyle fondly. He did not know why, but he just liked the feeling of seeing a cute bun on her head. It always gave him the urge to pull her hair.

"I wanted to use my fists to solve the problem, but isn't he my boss? That's why I gave him some level of respect earlier. If he doesn't heed my respects, then I'll use my fists to solve the problem next time."

Chi Yang's words caused Zhong Nuannuan to giggle. Watching the girl's youthful and charming appearance, Chi Yang could not help but raise the corners of his lips. "Aren't you afraid that I won't be able to withstand my superiors' coercion and succumb to their despotic powers?"

Zhong Nuannuan smiled, then clasped Chi Yang's arm tightly and said, "My man is the best, most powerful and most outstanding person in the world, nobody can compare to him. How could he succumb to that old man's tyrannical powers? I think it'd be more likely that he'd surrender to you!"

Only

Chi Yang looked at her nose, which wrinkled as she spoke. It looked really cute, and he could not help but stick out his index finger and poke the tip of her delicate nose. Her smooth, his fingertips bounced off her little nose, and Chi Yang could not help but tug at her nose again. "You mischevious girl!"

Zhong Nuannuan was laughing and joking, and did not seem worried about being threatened at all.

“You can rest assured, they won’t dare to attack me, even if they do, they can’t deal with me. As for you, I’ll find someone to protect you, so don’t worry.”

Zhong Nuannuan was startled, and waved her hand quickly. “No, there’s no need for that, I have the ability to take care of myself, so don’t worry about me.”

Zhong Nuannuan started to sweat. If Chi Yang found someone to follow and protect her, should she just let the other party track her?

However, if she was being followed, how could she secretly deal with her enemies? Most importantly, how could she contact Aiden and Selina?

This was a big problem!

Chapter 269: Sky

Chi Yang pinched her small nose again. “How can a girl like you, who gets scared when my soldiers laugh out loud, protect yourself? Do you really think that you can fight against ten people just because you’ve planted seedlings in the fields before, and have strong arms?”

Zhong Nuannuan thought, ‘...That’s just an excuse, I didn’t plant seedlings in the rice fields!’

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang with a cute expression. Her eyes were big and watery, and she looked so harmless, like a small baby. This made him want to reach out to touch her hair again.

No matter from what angle, his girl looked like a little cat. She was gentle and well-behaved in front of him, but when faced with someone she did not like, it did not matter how powerful the other party was, she would always stretch out her little paw and scratch them twice. Although she was witty and clever, to him, she was always the type who was obedient, cute and easy to knock down.

How could he allow his cute little cat to endure the bad things in the outside world? How could he possibly let his girl endure the hardships and dangers posed by others?

Zhong Nuannuan could not help but bite her lip, and her face crumpled up in dismay. “Although you’re the chief of the special forces team, you’ll be using the special forces’ resources to protect me 24 hours a day and become my personal bodyguard... That isn’t good, right?”

At the end of the day, Chi Yang’s emotional intelligence was still a little worrying. He regarded Zhong Nuannuan’s refusal as a reluctant welcoming, and he replied lovingly, “Do you think that your man’s abilities are so limited?”

Zhong Nuannuan replied, “...Of course not, I’m just mentioning it.”

“If I dared to bring you here to cause trouble, I would definitely have a way to deal with what happens next. Don’t worry, soldiers are resources of the country, and I won’t misuse them. However, apart from soldiers, I have my own men by my side as well. Thus, even if the sky falls down, I'll hold it up for you, so don't worry."

Chi Yang's words warmed Zhong Nuannuan's heart.

She was not afraid of the sky falling down because he was her sky!

Even when all the muscles in the body began to tire and atrophy due to the toxins injected into her body, this man could still rush into KE's lair single-handedly and rescue her from the hands of more than 300 world-class mercenaries using his own abilities.

Only

Although they died in the jungle only three kilometers away from the national border, she relied on him throughout the entire journey of escaping over 100 kilometers.

She just lay on his back, listening to his heavy panting, while he ran toward the border step by step. Even though he was absolutely drained, he never put her down. Instead, he kept using ropes to tie her body to him, such that they were never separated for a second. At that moment, she would not feel afraid even if the sky fell.

However, what she did not know was that when she was passed out from Jiang Shuwan's tea, not only did the enemy inject her with neurotoxins for muscle atrophy, they also implanted tracking chips into her body to prevent her from counter attacking after waking up. Hence, no matter how much they ran, they could not escape.

When the enemies finally surrounded them and they were unable to fight back, he could clearly choose to abandon her and escape on his own, but he quickly untied the rope between them instead. She was originally carried on his back, but during that last moment, she was protected in his arms. When he was riddled with bullets from all directions, she realized that her sky had fallen.

Hence, she believed in his promise that he would hold up the sky for her even if it fell.

This was a man who valued her life more than his own.

Seeing that Zhong Nuannuan did not say anything, Chi Yang was afraid that she might feel embarrassed or inconvenienced, so he said, "You don't need to feel uncomfortable."

Chapter 270: Chi Yang's Romance

"That's because he'll only protect you in secret and won't affect your normal life. He won't follow you when you've reached home or when you are with me."

This was her Big Brother Chi Yang's thoughtful gesture. Although it caused her a lot of inconvenience, Zhong Nuannuan did not have the heart to refuse him.

At most, she could just reduce her contact with Aiden and Selina in the future, since those two have already turned into idiots from playing so many games.

When forced to choose between friendship and reassuring Big Brother Chi Yang, Zhong Nuannuan did not hesitate to cast aside Aiden and Selina, the two people who were just waiting for her to contact them.

Therefore, in a death-seeking move, Zhong Nuannuan was about to usher in a “bodyguard” who would constantly track her down.

“Where are we going?”

Zhong Nuannuan asked with uncertainty as she saw Chi Yang not walking toward the door, but pressing the elevator button instead.

“Neither of us have eaten dinner yet, aren’t you hungry?”

Almost as soon as Chi Yang’s voice fell, Zhong Nuannuan’s stomach rumbled very cooperatively.

Oh my, that was so embarrassing.

Zhong Nuannuan flashed an ugly expression. “Well, I used to do many activities in the farming district back then, so my appetite is large too...”

Chi Yang stared at his little girl as his serious face was tinted by a touch of gentleness, his eyes filled with doting smiles.

“That’s good, we’ll have the food served once we go up. Let’s go.”

“Okay.” Zhong Nuannuan smiled and took Chi Yang’s arm, completely forgetting the disgusting group of people earlier as she followed her Big Brother Chi Yang to eat some delicious food.

After entering the elevator, Chi Yang pressed the button for the 57th floor, which was the highest floor.

More than a dozen waiters were already waiting on both sides of the elevator, and as soon as she got out of the elevator, Zhong Nuannuan received the warmest reception.

Chi Yang brought her to the central garden on the top floor of Lijing Mansion.

She did not know whether the place originally looked like this, or if Chi Yang had specially arranged for people to set this up. In short, Zhong Nuannuan was currently in a sea of flowers, and the air was full of sweet fragrance.

Although she had often experienced such scenes in the past, this was still the first time in both of her lives that she ever had such a romantic dinner with Chi Yang.

When did her cold and indifferent Big Brother Chi Yang become so romantic?

Under the guidance of the waiter, Zhong Nuannuan stepped on an ocean-like water world under her feet. As she strolled through the sea of flowers, it felt as though she were entering a fairytale forest in medieval Europe.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at the waiter and praised sincerely, “I didn’t expect this place to be so beautiful up here! The flowers in this flower pavilion are so fresh. Do you change them every day?”

Only

The waiter smiled and said, "Madam, our top floor was originally an open-air infinity pool clubhouse, which is the piece of land you're stepping on now. However, we temporarily transformed this place into a fairytale-like sea of flowers after receiving this gentleman's request today. I hope that you'll have a wonderful evening here."

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang. At this moment, he stood tall and upright beside her, and his facial features looked extremely soft, gentle and deep under the combined glow of the moonlight and warm lighting.

His eyes were filled with indulgence, and he stared straight at her. Zhong Nuannuan's heart suddenly missed a beat, and her face started to flush.

"I thought you just brought me up to have a simple meal. I didn't expect you to have done so much..."

"Do you like it?" Chi Yang's eyes were full of expectation.

"Yes, I like it! I really like it! It's so beautiful here! This is the most beautiful night I've ever had in my entire life!"

Although there were many sceneries and cultural landscapes in this world that were more beautiful than this place, in Zhong Nuannuan's heart, tonight was undoubtedly the most beautiful and splendid night in both of her lives.
