Chapter 2651

2651 was it worth it 2

Even though she could see the blockage, she still felt that it was not penetrating well when she pressed it.

nangong nuannuan frowned. she had to find some time to upgrade the essential oil and find a way to maximize its penetration.

As long as it seeped in and was massaged, the sediments and blockages in that area would definitely be cleared.

Feng shengxuan had been busy dealing with di gang and KE on his laptop. He was so busy that he felt dizzy.

He hated this kind of life.

However, when he raised his head and saw that Nangong Nuannuan was still massaging him meticulously, and even after 40 minutes, she was still massaging the same hand, he couldn't help but say, "

"It's just an arm, is it that precious? you've been giving him a massage for 40 minutes."

Nangong Nuannuan didn't even look at her big brother as she said, " "When have you ever seen me do anything useless? Big brother chiyang's arm is severely blocked. If he doesn't take good care of it, his arm will be crippled."

After all, he was still his cousin. No matter how much he hated him, he was still his cousin. He had even given up his most beloved Nuan Nuan to him. Feng shengxuan couldn't think of anything else he couldn't give up on Chi Yang.

He had already given in so much. If this cousin of his was still crippled, he really didn't know what to say.

"It's that serious? Can you cure her?" Feng shengxuan couldn't help asking.

"I'm eighty percent sure. However, I believe in big brother chiyang, because his recovery ability is stronger than the average person. so, i could only start to massage him after he got better in the next two days. Otherwise, if we come back in a few days, his arms and legs would really be destroyed."

Feng shengxuan wanted to ask, why was there a problem with her leg too? However, when he thought about the situation Chi Yang had faced at that time, he swallowed his question. He thought gloomily in his heart, I really don't know what he's thinking! Why did he have to do those great things when he had a good life? He had saved and protected so many people. Could they thank him? Is it worth it to throw away your life for those people?"

Nangong Nuannuan and Feng shengxuan were of the same mind on this point.

Was it worth it?

She had once thought that it was not worth it.

In her heart, her brother chiyang's life was the most precious. No one was more important than his life. If nangong nuannuan had to compare those people's lives with her brother chiyang's, she would choose him without hesitation. As for those people, they had nothing to do with her.

However, after living with big brother chiyang and old master Chi and Nangong for so long, Nangong Nuannuan felt that she was gradually able to understand this feeling.

"This world is full of wonders. It's all-encompassing and complementary. If there were good people, there would be bad people. If there were selfish people, there would be selfless people. If there were despicable people, there would be upright people. If there were people who hurt others, there would be people who protected others. If there were assassins, there would be soldiers. If there were thieves, there would be police. If there were patients, there would be doctors. If there were destroyers, there would be repairmen.

To us, we have more powerful abilities than others, so we should live better than others. We can grasp more opportunities and have a wider platform. When we have money, we can earn more money through this money. Whoever blocks our way, we will kill them."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

2652 Touched (3)

"No one can stop our steps. Because we are the strong. However, experts like us are only a part of the world. This was because there were also a group of experts who would be like brother chiyang. When they seized the opportunity, they would make this opportunity public and benefit more people. When they had money, they would use it to do a lot of charity. When they had a larger and wider platform, they would think about how to share the benefits. They would use their own conditions to help others, and they would work hard and carry the burden to move forward so that others could have a better life.

Because I'm the former, I can't say whether it's worth it or not. But for brother chiyang, at the moment when that woman stole his Jade and hurt his heart, he was still willing to drag the mud to support everyone. I think he must think that it's worth it. If he felt that it was not worth it, he would not use his body to protect others.

Our faith is to live well. On the other hand, brother chiyang's belief was to let others live well. Everyone has their own view of the world. I can't determine whether big brother chiyang's view of the world is worth it or not. However, if I'm weak, and one day, I'm protected by big brother chiyang when I'm helpless, then I'll definitely think that he's noble and great.

Grandpa told me that this was their belief, and they were loyal to their belief. Perhaps in this materialistic society, there were very few people who would suffer or risk their lives for the sake of others' better lives. But just because you didn't go, it didn't mean that no one else would. There would always be some people who, because of their upright outlook on life and noble sense of justice, would make them suffer for the sake of the happiness of others.

We're not that kind of people. We can't suffer and wrong ourselves for the sake of others. however, her grandfather and brother chiyang were such people. For the sake of others, for the sake of this country, they were willing to sacrifice themselves.

However, even though I can't sacrifice myself for others, I can understand big brother chiyang. he had his own beliefs, and there were things that he would defend with his life. it was like we spent money to buy houses, land, and mines, but brother chiyang spent his energy, time, and even his life to defend his dreams and beliefs. It should be like this!"

Feng shengxuan didn't say anything else after hearing what Nangong Nuannuan said.

He didn't expect Nangong Nuannuan, a top 3s-level mercenary in the world, the most unrestrained person, to be able to say such words after being with Chi Yang for a year.

At the same time, he was also a little confused.

He was the King of KE. It could be said that he was an existence that gave the big shots from all over the world a headache. He was a person who was outside of the rules of this world.

But now, after learning about his grandfather's, uncle's, and cousin's occupations, especially after hearing about their beliefs from Nuannuan, Feng shengxuan felt a little touched.

What did he trigger?

He couldn't tell.

Anyway, he was just a little touched.

Nangong Nuannuan did not say anything else. Instead, she focused on massaging Chi Yang.

Chi Yang was originally a very vigilant person, but in front of his wife, Chi Yang was someone who could expose his chest and back to her.

2653 Dog food, dog food (4) chi yang had complete trust in nuannuan. therefore, once he fell asleep in front of nuannuan, he rarely woke up.

in addition, after nuan nuan had massaged his head for 40 minutes, chi yang felt very comfortable and had fallen into a deep sleep. He didn't hear what Nuan Nuan had said to Feng shengxuan.

Even when Nuan Nuan was constantly massaging his arms, she still had to try her best to push away the clots and hard blocks that were completely blocked in his arms, even though she couldn't completely remove them in a short time and heal the broken channels and collaterals.

It was actually very painful to push these things away. To be more accurate, it should be sore. However, for Chi Yang, this kind of pain could not be compared to the serious injury to the pericardium. In his daze, he would even feel a sore and swollen feeling when he massaged like this. It was very comfortable.

After a short while, under the manual massage, Chi Yang's entire arm turned blood red.

Some of the blocked objects and blood were pushed back, and they slowly seeped into the capillaries.

After an hour of massage, Nangong Nuannuan took out a box from the cabinet. She first turned off the electric disinfection outside the box before opening it.

The moment it was opened, the box quickly released cold air, cooling down the burning can inside.

Nangong Nuannuan dripped two drops of essential oil into each bottle, lit the fire, took out a small jar, and filled it with hot air.

The essential oil started to evaporate rapidly when it came into contact with the boiling temperature.

The moment it evaporated, Nangong Nuannuan placed the small fire jar on her Tianfu acupoint.

the tianfu point was located three inches below the head of the tattoo, where the lateral skin nerve and the skin nerve were distributed. As long as the Qi, blood, and meridians here could be cleared, the pain in his arm would be reduced to a large extent.

Almost as soon as the can was pulled out, thick blood seeped out from under the skin.

soon, a white transparent glass jar was turned blood red.

The essential oil that had been dripped into the pot had already evaporated, and it slowly entered his arm through the negative pressure of the can and the large pores.

nangong nuannuan only stopped after nine jars had been removed from her arm.

in order to prevent the jar from being touched by the bed, which would cause deviation in the acupuncture points, nangong nuannuan held chi yang's arm with one hand and lifted his wrist with the other during the 20-minute process.

Feng shengxuan couldn't stand it anymore, so he went out.

as for selina, hehe, she had already left.

She basically didn't eat this kind of dog food that was everywhere.

Nangong Nuannuan didn't feel that she was inhumanely showing off her affection to her friends. She looked at her brother chiyang, who she had saved from the brink of death. Although he was weak, his vital signs were stable and he could still smile at her. She bent down in satisfaction and gently pressed a w on his lips.

After the fire pot on his right arm was removed, Nangong Nuannuan removed it and gently placed Chi Yang's arm on the thick white gauze that had been laid out.

Ning Wenhao, who had no complaints or regrets throughout the whole process, had already cooled several bottles of water by listening to Nangong Nuannuan. When he heard Nangong Nuannuan's instructions, he immediately added some hot water and placed the basin in front of Nangong Nuannuan with a good attitude.

nangong nuannuan soaked the gauze in warm water, then slowly wiped the blood off chi yang's arm.

2654 Does it hurt 1

Seeing this, Ning Wenhao took a basin and filled it with some water. Nangong Nuannuan then washed Chi Yang's arm again. Only then did he move the thick red gauze away and give it to Ning Wenhao.

Ning Wenhao took the basin, gauze, and the fire can away. After cleaning them, he put them back into the box for disinfection.

At this moment, Nangong Nuannuan had already started to massage Chi Yang's legs.

After another hour of massage, Nangong Nuannuan began to perform cupping on Chi Yang's legs. At this moment, Chi Yang had already woken up after sleeping for more than two hours.

When he woke up and saw that his wife was still giving him a massage, his heart ached.

He had forgotten that his wife had told him not to speak. He couldn't help but say, "Nuannuan, stop massaging. Rest for a while."

He felt that his chest hurt even more when he spoke today. He also felt breathless when he spoke.

After he finished speaking, he successfully saw his wife's face change. Chi Yang very consciously closed his mouth. He didn't know how to soothe the displeasure in his wife's heart, so he could only reveal a sinister smile to her.

Nangong Nuannuan was very angry. She had already told him not to talk. She was usually quiet, but now that she was injured, she started to talk more.

However, how could Nangong Nuannuan bear to scold her brother Chiyang when she saw how weak he was?

She quickly sat beside him and gently stroked his chest as she asked, "Does it hurt?"

Chi Yang was just about to speak, but he immediately shut his mouth. He shook his head.

After seeing his wife's dissatisfied face, he honestly nodded his head slightly.

Nangong Nuannuan pouted, her heart aching. "When you first got injured, the various reactions from the damage to your heart and lungs didn't make you feel the best. Plus, you were very tired at that time, and your meridians and nerves were in pain, so it helped you to distract yourself.

"Now, the inflammation of your lungs and heart has begun to spread. Today is not the most painful. After tomorrow, when the inflammation breaks out, it will be the most painful. Moreover, you will inevitably have a fever. I didn't let you speak because every word you said would affect your wound.

Even though your only external injury is on your shoulder, your lungs and heart are heavily injured. I can guarantee that no one has ever been more seriously injured than you."

When Nangong Nuannuan thought about how Chi Yang's injury would become inflamed tomorrow and how he would be in more pain, her heart ached. She wished she could give him the best care and medical treatment in the world to relieve his pain.

However, when Chi Yang saw his wife like this, he couldn't help but laugh. He even laughed out loud.

The result was that he immediately frowned in pain.

"Hey, what are you laughing at? Don't laugh! Hold it! Quickly hold it in!" Nangong Nuannuan was speechless. She thought about it and really didn't find what she had just said funny.

"You really are! What are you laughing at!" After Chi Yang's pain had subsided, Nangong Nuannuan grumbled again, "I told you not to talk, but you just laughed. I don't usually see you smile so much."

Chi Yang's eyes softened.

He had laughed because his Nuannuan had just said that she could guarantee that no one had ever been more seriously injured than him.

These words had another meaning: Those who were as injured as him or more seriously injured than him were all dead.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

2655 She's here (2)

Thus, he became the most severely injured person in the world.

He couldn't help but laugh at himself for not dying despite his injuries. He also couldn't help but laugh at his family's Nuannuan's complaints.

Who asked his wife to have such a great ability to snatch people from the hands of death?

He had forcefully snatched her back, but now he was complaining non-stop.

She didn't even know how cute she looked when she was grumbling.

After Nangong Nuannuan finished complaining, she saw brother chiyang looking at her with a smile and a doting gaze.

didn't he know that she couldn't stand this kind of look?

Every time Nangong Nuannuan saw his gaze, she would feel dizzy.

then, she, who was still nagging at chi yang, had already forgotten what she wanted to nag about. she asked with a pained heart, "Does it hurt?"

Chi Yang shook his head.

"It would be a wonder if it didn't hurt! I'll give you a massage. Many of the meridians in your limbs have been jolted. I'll use essential oil and massage to help you repair it."

after saying that, nangong nuan placed her hand on chi yang's other foot.

Chi Yang's heart felt especially warm as he watched his wife hold his feet with both hands and rub the acupoints on his feet with her essential oil-covered hands.

He glanced at the clock on the wall and realized that Nuannuan had been massaging him for a full two hours and forty minutes. He really wanted Nuannuan to stop massaging and rest for a while. However, he knew that even if he did, Nuannuan would not stop.

his little girl would always give him the most peaceful and gentle harbor when he was at his weakest.

at this moment, chi yang deeply understood what it meant to have a peaceful life.

He couldn't wish for me to be half a soldier and talk to you like sang MA. He could only silently remember every time Nuan Nuan treated him well.

In the limited time in the future, he would also do his best to treat her well.

Nuan Nuan's hands were a little heavy. Every time she touched an acupuncture point, Chi Yang could feel his legs ache and sting. Some of them even made him frown. However, Nuan Nuan's hands were very light. No matter how hard she hit him, his body would not move at all, and it would not affect the wounds on his body.

As a top-tier Special Forces soldier, he knew what the pain in his leg meant. However, he wasn't worried at all. With Nuan Nuan around, he believed that if she could save his life from the Grim Reaper, she would definitely be able to cure him.

The best way to repay Nuannuan was to get better as soon as possible.

The next morning, Chi Yang had a high fever.

nangong nuannuan had been taking care of him without any clothes on, so when chi yang started to have a fever, she had noticed it immediately.

When Chi Yang's body started to heat up, Nangong Nuannuan took his temperature. It was 37.5 degrees. Therefore, Nangong Nuannuan immediately took out the fever medicine made by the angel. he planned to give him the medicine after the temperature of the red sun rose to 38.5 degrees.

the anti-inflammatory medicine had been administered before, and a bottle of anti-inflammatory medicine was administered every day. However, because the injuries in his body were too serious, even his ability cells couldn't help him recover in a short time. Therefore, even though Nangong Nuannuan had given Chi Yang an anti-inflammatory medicine from the beginning, it still could not stop his fever.

However, Chi Yang's special cells and anti-inflammatory drugs were fighting against the inflammation together, so the inflammation could only erupt after three days. Nangong Nuannuan was already very satisfied.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2656

2656 A problem (3)

At the very least, he would be able to recover from his serious injuries for three days before he experienced a high fever.

Otherwise, Nangong Nuannuan would be worried to death.

However, even though the fever had only started after three days, Nangong Nuannuan was still very worried.

She was the only one who knew how serious Chi Yang's injuries were. Once the fever got worse, and the anti-inflammatory drugs and ability cells were not very effective, his internal injuries might worsen.

Therefore, even though the sun was only burning at 37.5 degrees Celsius at the beginning, Nangong Nuannuan immediately began to lower the temperature physically.

Even though they were currently in a hospital in Shengzhou, a few days later, almost all the medical equipment and medicine had been replaced with Angel pharmaceutical's own products.

angel pharmaceuticals had promised the hospital in shengzhou that after they left, all the medical equipment used by chiyang would be given to shengzhou hospital. in addition, some medicine could also be sent to the hospital.

Shengzhou hospital was very happy with the newly developed drugs.

Of course, what they didn't know was that it was easy to go from frugal to extravagant, but difficult to go from extravagant to frugal. after using angel pharmaceutical's products, the hospital no longer wanted to use those ordinary medical equipment and medicine.

Nangong Nuannuan had no idea that her unintentional act had opened up a market for her pharmaceutical company.

It was said that misfortune did not come with good fortune. On the day of Chi Yang's fever, there was a sudden storm on the internet.

Just two days ago, the president suddenly came to the disaster area with a few vice presidents and generals from the War Department.

The president was very happy to see that the disaster relief work was going on in an orderly manner.

As the saying goes, the heavens have no feelings for anyone. Although Shengzhou had encountered a huge disaster like never before, it was fortunate that in the face of such a disaster, not only did the combat service department organize the disaster relief in an orderly manner, but various groups, organizations, and citizens were also very active in participating in the earthquake relief.

The donation this time was the highest in Kamino's history, so the president urged the Internal Affairs Bureau to monitor every donation and to stop the use of donations for other purposes. At the same time, any fake donations or unauthorized embezzling of charity funds for personal gain or other purposes will be investigated and dealt with together. It was necessary to ensure that every sum of money could be used for disaster relief and post-disaster reconstruction.

The next day, an auditor from the Internal Affairs Bureau came to the donation Association and requested for the Association to review all of the donations received during this period.

In the end, they found out that because the donations were distributed, the auditors could only see the daily amount of donations. As for the majority of the People's donations, which were one or two hundred or tens of Yuan, they could only check it through the donation Association's account. The auditors could only see the amount of money that had been entered and the use of the money. They could not audit who had donated in each city and how much each person had donated.

According to the donation Association, many small households would not leave their names behind when they donated, so they could only calculate the total amount before directly transferring it to the main account of the donation Association.

The auditor was a little irritated.

How were they going to conduct the audit?

Kamino had a total population of one billion people. Even if only one-tenth of these one billion people donated ten dollars each, the total would still be one billion.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2657

2657 Anger (4)

Furthermore, there were more than 100 million people who donated this time, and those who donated were at least 20. Many more people donated hundreds, thousands, or even tens of thousands. In addition, some small enterprises had also donated. However, as the auditors, they did not know which enterprises had donated.

This made it difficult for the auditors to continue with the audit.

The auditors definitely had to report this matter. However, after reviewing the usage of each sum of money, they discovered a very serious matter.

Disheng group, Tiangong group, and Shengyang group immediately said that they would each donate 2 billion. After a review, it was found that after the three groups donated 2 billion, they used various names to donate to medical care, tents, water, and food in the disaster area. In just a few days, the 4.5 billion had evaporated.

But in fact, very few people at the epicenter survived, and only a few were rescued. the post-disaster reconstruction had not even started, so how did the 4.5 billion go to waste?

This was 4.5 billion, not 45 million!

The auditors felt that something was wrong, so they followed the clues and found out that these places did not receive such donations.

There were computer experts among the auditors. After they found the problem, they thought that the donation Association had used the money, so they found out through the transfer account.

Who knew that the result of following the vine to find the melon was that the 4.5 billion Yuan was divided into hundreds of projects, and after several rounds of turnover, it finally returned to the accounts of these three companies.

although he didn't know the background of the shengyang group, since it had already entered the ranks of the first-class rich and powerful, it meant that the group had a big background.

in addition, the fact that disheng's chairman was nangong nuannuan was an open secret among the upper-class society. thinking of the president's unusual relationship with the nangong family, the auditor did not dare to make a big deal out of it and could only tell the president secretly.

a donation was a voluntary act.

Moving the donated money back was a typical empty check.

These three groups had previously been widely praised by the people of the country. It was also because these three groups, as well as the Shengyang group, had set an example for the major groups and companies in Kamino that the other three major families and major families in various states had been so enthusiastic in donating.

However, after receiving the public's praise and honor, the three groups that had initially donated money actually used shameless money-laundering methods to transfer all the money back.

Although this was not illegal in Kamino, a group that had agreed to donate 2 billion only donated 500 million and took back 1.5 billion. This kind of shameless way of doing things was even more disgusting than swallowing other people's money!

the auditors were also disgusted by disheng, imperial palace, and shengyang. When they heard that the president wanted to expose the matter of these three corporations, they did not hold back and directly reported this matter to the audit Office.

The person in charge of the audit Office was from the ning family. Elder ning, who already hated Nangong Nuannuan, wanted to take advantage of the fact that Nangong Nuannuan had finally fallen into his hands to trample on her.

He didn't believe that Nangong Nuannuan wouldn't let him off the hook when he found out about her dirty deeds.

"I usually read on QQ and not on the red sleeves. Today, I downloaded the red sleeves app and found that there were 15000 comments, the same as the number of comments on the reader. I also found that this book's ranking on the red sleeves ranking is very high. He was instantly touched! Thank you for your support!")

2658 Blacklisted (1)

In addition, the Shengyang group had created opportunities for the Nangong family several times during the bidding. Anyone with a discerning eye would know that this mysterious Shengyang group was in cahoots with the Nangong family. Furthermore, many people in the industry were speculating that Shengyang group might be one of the Nangong family's private enterprises that was trying to become stronger and stronger in order to gain an advantage in the business competition.

That was why elder ning had decided that since they were going to mess with the Nangong family, they might as well make it bigger and drag the Shengyang group into it as well.

He wanted to see what kind of relationship these three groups had.

So, elder ning personally gave Nangong Nuannuan a call. After all, they had met before and exchanged name cards, so elder ning believed that Nangong Nuannuan must have his phone number.

However, he was obviously thinking too much.

When he called Nangong Nuannuan, Chi Yang had just started to have a fever. How could Nangong Nuannuan have the mood to care about her phone?

The phone was vibrating. When she saw the unfamiliar caller ID, Nangong Nuannuan didn't even have the mood to pick it up and hung up the phone.

At this moment, she was placing pill-like patches on Chi Yang's acupuncture points.

These patches were the same as the child's ice invitation, suitable for adults to use, and after sticking it, it could have a cooling effect.

The acupuncture points were indicated in the instruction manual of the patch, but the principle behind the patch was suggested by Nangong Nuannuan. The experts at Angel pharmaceutical had made it based on her principles. Coupled with Nangong Nuannuan's understanding of acupuncture points, she felt no burden when she took off the patches and stuck them on Chi Yang's acupuncture points.

Elder ning looked at the phone that had been hung up and frowned unhappily.

he felt that nangong nuannuan was too arrogant.

at such a young age, she didn't know how to leave herself a way out and liked to offend people. More importantly, did she not think that she would be tricked by others?

even though elder ning knew very well what had happened, so what? He had already found people to do everything in a tight manner. Without his help, the entire Nangong family would not be able to turn the tables.

So, elder ning gave Nangong Nuannuan a call.

Nangong Nuannuan felt that this person was a little annoying. She had already hung up on him, but he still called. Hence, he simply blocked her.

elder ning's call was hung up again. he was angry for a while before he called nangong nuannuan again. Who knew that he could never get through.

if he didn't know what had happened, then elder ning would have wasted his time.

However, in his 80 years of life, this was the first time someone had blacklisted him.

Elder ning was about to die from anger. He had no choice but to call Chi Yang.

Everyone in Kamino knew about Chi Yang's serious injury, including old master ning. However, he had no choice. It was Nangong Nuannuan's fault for not being able to reach him on the phone.

So, elder ning called Chi Yang.

However, to prevent any calls from disturbing Chi Yang's rest, Nangong Nuannuan had transferred all the incoming calls.

Chi Yang had no objections to this decision.

After all, he was already taken. He was already his wife's man. Whoever wanted to look for him, it was the same as looking for his wife.

And so, old man ning realized that he had also been blacklisted by Chi Yang.

2659 Request for a conversation (2)

This time, elder ning didn't feel good. He directly called ning Wenhao.

Ning Wenhao didn't want to pay attention to the old man, but he found that someone had called his sister-in-law just now. After his sister-in-law had checked her phone twice, his phone rang. He was afraid that his old man was up to no good, so he picked up the phone.

Ning Wenhao was afraid of disturbing Chi Yang's rest, so he walked out the moment he picked up the phone.

Nangong Nuannuan glanced at him and took out her phone to reply to his message.

The referee was not in a hurry. It was better to wait for ning Wenhao to deal with this matter. I believe in him. ]

On the other end of the message, the president glanced at the encrypted phone Nangong Nuannuan had given him. He raised his eyebrows slightly and continued to work.

"What's up? I'm taking care of my boss. If there's nothing important, you'd better not call me. "

Ning Wenhao could never like his grandfather. He had no idea how the old man had gotten to where he was today.

Elder ning was a man of his word in the ning family. Hearing ning Wenhao's attitude, he frowned even more.

"Is this the attitude you should have when talking to your own grandfather?" Elder ning questioned in an overbearing manner.

"I told you, I'm just my mother's son. As for the ning family, we've already broken away from them a long time ago. What do you want? Hurry up and tell me. " elder ning suppressed the anger in his heart and asked, " "Chi Yang, why did you block me?"

Ning Wenhao frowned. boss's phone was transferred to another location by sister-in-law. He can't answer any important calls now. Why are you looking for him?"

"I'm looking for Nangong Nuannuan. She probably didn't save my number. I called her twice, but she blocked me. Give her the phone, I need to talk to her about something."

"What is it?"

"This has nothing to do with you. Give her the phone."

"She's my sister-in-law. How is her business none of my business? If you have anything to say, just tell me directly. Boss is having a fever now, and sister-in-law is worried. She's not in the mood to answer your call. So, if you have anything to say, just tell me. If there's nothing else, I'm hanging up."

"Ning Wenhao!" elder ning couldn't take it anymore and said, " "I'm ordering you to pass the phone to Nangong Nuannuan. This concerns the reputation of the Nangong family, as well as the rise and fall of disheng, Imperial Palace, and Shengyang. Are you sure you don't want her to answer the phone?"

"That's enough! Rise and fall?! No one can touch sister-in-law and the Nangong family." Ning Wenhao still didn't care and said, " "have you thought it through? to say or not to say? If you don't, I'm hanging up. If you call me again later, I'm going to help sis-in-law take care of boss, so I might not pick up your call."

The originally high and mighty old man ning was about to be angered to death by this grandson who was not of the same mind as the ning family.

He was thinking for him and didn't touch the Hawkeye group in the end, but this kid didn't know how to appreciate his kindness.

However, for the sake of his own benefit, elder ning had to tell ning Wenhao everything.

Ning Wenhao tightened his grip on his phone, and a cold smile appeared on his lips.

But in the end, he still finished listening to elder ning's words.

"So? What are you trying to do by saying so much? You want to use this to destroy the Nangong family?"

Chapter 2660

2660 Don't take 3

"what are you saying?" Elder ning said unhappily,"I also thought that you have a good relationship with Chi Yang, and Chi Yang usually takes care of you. That's why I informed her in advance before the matter exploded." What do you mean I want to destroy the Nangong family?"

Ning Wenhao couldn't help but sneer this time.

“Ning Zhennan, do you think I don’t know what you are thinking? You know very well whether you want to inform my sister-in-law or take this opportunity to extort her. I don’t care what you’re thinking, but ning Zhennan, listen to me, my life belongs to my boss. If you dare to do anything bad to my boss and my sister-in-law, I will kill the ning family first.”

“Ning Wenhao, you unfilial son! What did you just say? I dare you to say that again!”

“You don’t have to say it again. Although you’re old and sometimes your brain isn’t working well, your ears can still be used. ning zhennan, my sister-in-law and the nangong family would not do such a dirty thing as saying that they would donate money and then transfer it back. i dare to use my head as a guarantee for this matter.

Although I’m not in the ning family, don’t think that I don’t know that some of the ning family members are in the donation Association, and some of them are in the audit department. However, I advise you to be kind. If you really do anything to the Nangong family, you will regret it. ”

“Ning Wenhao! What are you talking about? The Nangong family was the one who transferred the charity funds, and there’s already conclusive evidence on my side. Nangong Nuannuan knew very well whether or not she had done that. Why were you speaking up for her? Now, pass the phone to Nangong Nuannuan, I want to talk to her. If you don’t call her, or if she still doesn’t want to talk to me, I can’t control how this matter will develop.”

Listening to the shameless voice on the phone, ning Wenhao’s last bit of indifference to the ning family disappeared.

“As you wish. but i’ll say this first, if you dare to touch my sister-in-law, i’ll be the first to not let the ning family off. Also, you should be clear about my sister-in-law’s status. Before you touch my sister-in-law and the Nangong family, you should think twice. If you touch my sister-in-law, you’ll be touching the entire Nangong family, disheng, and Hawkeye. Not to mention, you’ve even touched the Shengyang group. Hehe, ning Zhennan, I really don’t know who gave you such courage!”

“Brat, are you going to pass the phone to Nangong Nuannuan or not?”

“I won’t. You can do whatever you like! You can do whatever you want. In any case, my mother and I were kicked out of the house by you a long time ago. Even if the ning family falls, it has nothing to do with me. So, just do whatever you want, and don’t come begging me when the time comes. Of course, it’s useless even if you beg me. ”

After that, ning Wenhao hung up the phone.

Elder ning stared at the phone for a long time before he came back to his senses. Then, he threw the phone on the ground with a ” bang.

Seeing that the phone was broken, Xiao Yushan asked, ” ah Hao still hasn’t passed the phone to Nangong Nuannuan? ”

Elder ning angrily said,”that unfilial son!” He had never treated the ning family as his own home! In his heart, he, Chi Yang, and Nangong Nuannuan are family!”
