Chapter 2711

2711 bullet screen (1)

“Dad, you won’t die if you don’t seek death. Everyone else cherishes their life and distances themselves from death, but what about you? You can’t stop yourself from jumping down the cliff. So, I’m sorry, but from now on, I’m no longer related to the ning family. as the person who gave birth to me and raised me, i will take out a reasonable amount from my salary in the future to support you in your old age. as for the rest, i’m sorry, ning wenhao was never in my control, and he’s completely out of the ning family now.”

Then, ning Haoran hung up the phone.

Ning Haoran was completely speechless towards the old man.

Fortunately, he was a Commander-in-Chief. Even if he didn’t rely on the ning family, as long as his son put in the effort, he could still support his son to start a career.

In the future, both he and ning Wenhao might have a ning family, but whether it was his or ning Wenhao’s ning family, they would have nothing to do with the ning family.

when old man ning heard ning haoran’s heart-wrenching words, he fell into a desperate panic. However, even though he was panicking and in despair, he did not admit defeat. Therefore, his unyielding stubbornness still made him very angry when he struck ning Wenhao with lightning and when ning Haoran said that he would be struck by lightning.

The pain in his chest had reached a certain level. In addition to the anger, when ning Haoran hung up the phone, ning Wenqi, Xiao Yushan, and ning Haohan were completely dumbfounded. They didn’t notice that he was in a bad condition, and they suddenly spat out a large mouthful of blood. Fortunately, it directly sprayed on ning Wenqi’s face.

“Ah!”

Xiao Yushan came back to her senses and screamed in fear when she saw the blood on ning Wenqi’s face.

Seeing this, ning Wenqi and ning Haohan’s expressions changed. father (grandfather)!

Then, he went to help elder ning up.

at this moment, old man ning’s face could no longer be described as red. it had already turned a deep purple.

“Call the doctor, Butler, call the doctor!”

a family like the ning family had a family doctor. Ning Wenqi’s voice trembled in fear. He was afraid that something had happened to the old man.

Although the family doctor was at the ning residence, the nings were gathered to discuss top-secret matters. Other than their most trusted Butler, no other people were allowed to stay in the villa's large living room.

While the housekeeper called the doctor, and the doctor packed up the medical supplies and came to the villa, ning Wenhao had already announced the company's name without hesitation.

"As you can see, although the 800 million was indeed transferred to one of disheng's subsidiary companies, less than an hour after the transfer, it was transferred out of the company under various reasons. The name of the transfer was the expense for the reserved seafood.

Now, let's see which seafood distribution center the Kachi department store chain, which mainly produces fresh seafood, is buying from?"

As soon as he finished speaking, the company of the account 6366xxxx3792 appeared on the screen.

When the crowd saw the name, they were instantly in an uproar.

the live broadcast was almost silent. [!!!] [grass, grass, grass] this kind of bullet screen was spammed.

Qi ning Construction Group Corporation. Ning Wenhao read the name of the company out loud.

At this moment, the pupils of ning Wenqi, who was in the ning family, suddenly contracted.

2712 Have you dug into the sea (2)

Her face was pale as she looked at ning Wenhao, who was on TV. She clenched her fists so tightly that her fingertips turned white.

Xiao Yushan also let out a scream and fell back onto the sofa.

He stared at the screen with his eyes wide open and muttered to himself, "How could he do this? how could he destroy the ning family for his own benefit! He was crazy! He was simply a lunatic! We shouldn't have let him Live! He would ruin ah Qi! This lunatic! Crazy! You're crazy!"

Ning Wenqi and the old man, ning Zhennan, were staring at the screen, their faces full of pain and disbelief.

Ning Wenhao stood on the stage of the press conference, his lips slightly curved.

"I'd like to ask, what's wrong with disheng group's department store chain that mainly sells fresh food? why would it place an order of 800 million Yuan on a construction company? Chairman of Qi ning Construction Group, come out and explain to me that your construction company dug into the sea when you were digging, so you got a lot of seafood for free?"

[pfft, hahahaha] why do I feel that Adjutant ning is a little funny?]

[he's handsome and funny. Although he's a completely different type from Lieutenant General Chi, I like this type too.]

I like it too! Adjutant ning, do you have a girlfriend? You just happen to be the type I like!

[so handsome, so handsome, so handsome!]

[@ Adjutant ning, you've directly taken up all the laughing points for me for a year.] Qi ning construction, did you guys dig into the sea? Are there sharks?

[are there any blue whales?]

[are there sea dragons?]

There were all kinds of comments on the screen. Compared to the ning family, the netizens were completely excited by ning Wenhao's words.

Ning Wenhao hadn't been watching the internet, so he didn't know that the netizens were so excited about him. He was only trying to clear the Nangong family of all suspicion because he was representing his boss today.

you guys might not know about this Qi ning Construction Group, but I'm very familiar with this company.

[no way???]

[what do you mean by very familiar?]

[is my little brother ning trying to expose himself?] No way? [fear] [fear] [fear]

[how can this be called self-exposure?] At most, this could only be considered as the destruction of righteousness. Adjutant ning was Lieutenant General Chi's Adjutant and subordinate. Nangong Nuannuan was Lieutenant General Chi's fiancée. From the looks of it, Nangong Nuannuan, the Nangong family, and Shengyang group had not done anything wrong. However, they had donated so much money and had become the public's enemy. As a member of the Eagle Special Forces, even if Adjutant ning revealed something that he should not have, it was the other party who deserved it!]

[i'm giving the comment above a like.]

Qi ning Construction Group is a branch company under the ning family.

In one sentence, the bullet screen exploded again.

"You might think you heard wrong. After all, I said before that I'm a member of the ning family. In fact, before things developed, I already knew that the ning family would do this. In the past few years, the ning family had started to go downhill. Their economy had declined rapidly and could not be stopped. Compared to disheng, Imperial Palace, and Shengyang, the ningwen group doesn't have any strong points in any of their businesses. Furthermore, the ningwen group is too conservative and doesn't want to spend time and energy to change."

2713 Illness (3)

“So this year, it’s already an arrow at the end of its flight for the ning family to still be able to become a first-class wealthy family. Next year, the ning family might immediately slide into the bottom of the second-rate family list.

Such a family was unable to afford a donation of 3 billion. I’ve checked, all the circulating funds of the ningwen group added up to less than 3 billion.”

The venue was in an uproar.

The internet exploded.

[f * ck, I suddenly thought of the person called ning Jiwu!]

A conspiracy! A conspiracy!]

Go to hell with the ningwen group! you actually transferred my brother nuan’s money and even tried to frame him!

[@ ning haohan (chairman of ning wen group): i advise you to be kind!]

[how much injustice has my brother Nuan and her family suffered?!] those keyboard warriors who are clamoring for my brother nuan to get out of kamino, don’t you guys owe my brother nuan an apology? ”

At this moment, those who had been criticizing Nangong Nuannuan and the Nangong family had completely disappeared from the internet. In their place were the fans who had always been on Nangong Nuannuan’s side.

There were also some people who claimed to be on the side of justice. They started to scold the ning family in the same way they had scolded the three major corporations before.

in the ning family, old master ning was staring at the tv. on the side, ning wenqi’s eyes were also red and his fists were clenched.

When he heard ning Wenhao’s last sentence, ” all the circulating funds of the Ning Wen group added up to less than 3 billion “, elder ning finally couldn’t hold on any longer. He spat out another mouthful of blood and fell from the sofa.

“Old man! old master!” Xiao Yushan had been supporting elder ning all this time. Now, he had completely fainted and vomited blood all over his body.

The family doctor also rushed over at this time. Xiao Yushan was so scared that she immediately asked the doctor to check the situation of ningzhen nmau.

The doctor had thought that it was just an old heart problem, and that it should not be a big problem because of long-term nursing. At most, it would be an old illness like high blood pressure. Who knew that when he rushed over and saw so much blood, his face was so purple, and his pulse was weak? he was instantly scared and broke out in a cold sweat.

“Hurry up! Send him to the hospital!”

"Butler Guan Wanwan, call an ambulance!" Xiao Yushan was so scared that she almost stuttered. After instructing the Butler, she asked, "will the old master be embarrassed?"

Before Xiao Yushan could finish her question, the family doctor rejected her order and said, "It's too late. Hurry up and drive elder ning to the hospital."

"The nearest hospital!" He added.

"What happened to my grandfather?" Ning Wenqi grabbed the doctor's arm and asked.

elder ning is having a heart attack and a brain attack at the same time. Hurry and send him to the hospital. It'll be too late if you don't!

This time, ning Wenqi didn't dare to wait any longer. He immediately carried the old man and rushed out.

The Butler had already asked the bodyguard to get the car. By the time ning Wenqi carried the old man outside, the car had already driven in.

Ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan immediately put the old man in the car and got in, only to find that ning Haohan had not followed them.

"Third uncle, what are you still doing? Hurry up and come up!"

Qi, you and your mother send the old man to the hospital immediately. The ning family has been sold by that bastard ning Wenhao. The entire ning family and the Ning Wen group might be surrounded in a while. I have to rush to the ningwen Corporation to take charge. I'll leave dad to you. You must make sure that dad is well!"

Ning Wenqi was from the War Department and was not a professional when it came to business. Previously, the old man had been helping him keep an eye on it, so he had never suffered a loss at the hands of his third uncle.

Chapter 2714

2714 Questioning (4)

At this moment, the old master was unconscious and in danger. The ning family had also encountered an unprecedented disaster. It was definitely impossible to let ning Wenqi handle the ning family's matters. Although Kamino allowed the combat Services Department and Internal Affairs Bureau to do business, if ning Wenqi stepped in after such a huge incident, it would definitely have a huge impact on his career as an officer.

Ning Wenqi didn't think it was strange that ning Haohan had volunteered to stay and deal with the ning family's Affairs. Instead, he was very grateful to his third uncle.

"Alright, I'll have to trouble you then, third uncle." Don't worry, I'll take good care of Grandpa. It's awkward at the ningwen group."

“Leave the ningwen group to me. The paparazzi are very fast. If you don’t leave now, I’m afraid the old man will be blocked at the door.”

“Alright,” he said.

Ning Wenqi immediately got into the car and followed his mother, Xiao Yushan, and the family doctor to send elder ning to the hospital as quickly as possible.

Even on the way to the hospital, ning Wenqi couldn’t help but watch the live broadcast.

Although he knew that ning Wenhao was determined to sell out the ning family, he still held on to that tiny bit of hope.

He hoped that ning Wenhao could give the ning family a way out on account of the fact that the ningwen group was founded by his father.

Xiao Yushan was also staring at the screen, at ning Wenhao, who didn’t care about the collapse of the Ning Wen group at all.

Ning Wenhao waited for the crowd to quieten down, and when it was time to enjoy the show, he continued, “The fact that Qi ning Construction Group is the ning family’s business is something that everyone can easily find out by simply searching on the internet. this was a subsidiary company under the ning family. although its name didn’t appear much in the capital, it was often seen in other cities. As such, the 800 million Yuan donated by disheng seemed to have been returned to the various accounts under disheng’s banner in a different way, causing disheng to be attacked. In reality, disheng had indeed donated this sum of money, but it had been transferred away after some shameless people had used shameless means to frame it. As for where Qi ning Construction Group would transfer the money to, it was self-evident! After all, it’s impossible for them to throw this 800 million into the ocean they dug out.”

“Adjutant ning, this is just your guess. You don’t have any evidence to prove that the 800 million Yuan was transferred to the ning family. but I’ve heard a rumor that you’re actually the son of a mistress that the ning family doesn’t recognize, so you’ve always harbored a deep enmity towards the ning family. Otherwise, as a member of the ning family, how could you slander your own family like this? What we see is only some information. Who knows if the information is true or false? After all, you’re the Adjutant of the Flying Eagle Commander-in-Chief. You must have a very powerful hacker around you. If you ask people to do something to slander the ning family, everyone will be easily led astray by your wind. May I ask if you have any evidence to prove that the evidence you presented is true?”

The reporter’s words once again attracted a wave of doubt from the audience and the Internet.

It had to be said that the reporter had picked the right time to ask such a question. Some of the people who had already believed in ning Wenhao began to question him again.

[our President Inran’s post is on the internet. It’s on all channels. Applause, welcome, and recommendation.] Hua danran, “ the farmer’s Princess has some land “), come and organize a trampling activity. Those above the deacon on the first to tenth floors will be the winning readers.

Chapter 2715

2715 Notary certificate (1)

after all, ning wenhao was chi yang's second-in-command, and chi yang was nangong nuannuan's fiancé. Even though Chi Yang was a good person and a good officer, Nangong Nuannuan's character had been questioned by many people. Chi Yang loved Nangong Nuannuan so much that he had carefully set up the wedding venue in the Flying Eagle. It was hard to guarantee that ning Wenhao would remain neutral and fair in this matter.

Especially when ning Wenhao was the son of a mistress.

Ning Wenhao looked at the reporter with a cold smile. He didn't avoid the reporter's question at all and said directly and firmly, "It seems that this reporter's gossip is very effective!"

The reporter knew what ning Wenhao meant, but since he dared to take money to go against someone like ning Wenhao, it meant that he was a man who would go all out.

The reporter smiled and did not answer directly. He said, "I'm just a small figure who is well-informed. I'm not worth mentioning," Ning Wenhao also smiled and gave a look to the computer Operator beside him. The other party understood and immediately released a document.

On the document, everyone could only see the words "notarized."

As for what kind of notary certificate it was, everyone was very curious.

"This is an notary certificate. It's a document jointly notarized by the notary Hall and the Eagle Special Forces. The reporter was right. I've never been truly acknowledged by the ning family. So, I'm only the eldest grandson of the ning family by blood, but my name was forcibly added to the ning family genealogy in the past two years. And that's because they saw that I'm a promising man, so they added me without my consent.

However, I'm not the son of a mistress. I need to be serious about this. My mother was my father's first love and the only woman he had ever loved. Back then, elder ning, who is my biological grandfather, was very particular about family status. He didn't allow my father and mother to get married. After my father and mother became fathers and registered their marriage, they unilaterally destroyed their marriage certificate and persecuted my mother. My mother was afraid that I would be affected, so she had no choice but to take me away. and he forced my dad to choose his daughter-in-law.

My father, ning Haoyu, was an important officer in the Eagle Special Forces. He was also the founder of the Ning Wen group. Even the people of the ning family don't know that when the Ning Wen group was first established, my father had notarized the ownership of the Ning Wen group with the Flying Eagle Special Forces and the notary office."

At this moment, the notary certificate on the screen was flipped open, and it said in black and white-

[I, ning Haoyu, as the founder of the Ning Wen group, have a special job that could put my life in danger at any time. So, I would like to notarize the ownership of the Ning Wen group in advance. I only have one wife, and her name is Mao Yating. We gave birth to a son together, and his name is ning Wenhao. If I'm unfortunate enough to die, all the shares of the ningwen group that I've founded will belong to my son and wife. His son, ning Wenhao, owned 50% of the shares, and his wife, Mao Yating, owned 50%. I didn't give out any shares, and any shares that were given out were useless.

[due to family reasons, my father has disregarded my wishes and is preparing to forcefully erase my marriage certificate. Now, I will notarize my marriage certificate and the certificate number of the Civil Affairs Bureau.]

2716 I apologize (2)

≪ I also promise that I, ning Haoyu, will only have one legal wife. My wife's name is Mao Yating, and my son's name is ning Wenhao. " as for the woman named xiao yushan, who the ning family forced on me despite my wishes, she's not my wife. the child in her stomach is not my biological son. This is notarized.]

This notary certificate caused another wave of crazy comments from the audience. They all cursed old master ning for a terrible death.

Ning Wenhao looked at the reporter and said, " this notary certificate was jointly notarized by the Eagle Special Forces and the notary office. Do you still need me to prove the authenticity of this notary certificate? "

The reporter's face was burning with pain. He didn't expect the news that the ning family provided him to be so fake.

Ning Wenhao said, " if you don't need to prove the authenticity of this notary certificate, I hope you can apologize to me for saying that I'm the son of a mistress.

Everyone's eyes turned to the reporter who had jumped around.

The reporter had no choice but to apologize.

"I'm sorry, adjutant ning. i didn't understand and said you were the son of a mistress. I apologize for my words."

Ning Wenhao nodded. I accept your apology. You said it yourself, you didn't figure this out. As a journalist, you can slander others in public without knowing the truth. Then, other than this, have you ever slandered anyone else against your conscience?"

The reporter's face darkened. Adjutant ning, although I did say something wrong, I have already apologized to you. Isn't it a little bad for you to be so overbearing?"

"So, you don't think you've slandered anyone against your conscience? And you didn't go against your conscience to create fake news?"

The reporter's face instantly darkened when he was questioned by ning Wenhao ruthlessly. There was a trace of guilt in the depths of his eyes.

"Of course." The reporter thought for a moment and answered firmly.

“That’s good. Since you said that you didn’t go against your conscience and publish fake news, then I’ll answer your previous question. You said that I’m not recognized by the ning family, so I hate them. Maybe what I showed everyone just now was fake?”

“Yes.” The reporter replied.

“Don’t you know whether I’m lying or not?”

No matter how calm the reporter was, he couldn’t stay calm at this moment.

His expression changed drastically, and his pupils constricted as he looked at ning Wenhao in shock.

“Everyone, this reporter is the one who asked sharp questions and targeted disheng. Now, he’s suspecting that there’s a problem with the things I’ve provided everyone with. We’ll know who’s the one with the problem after watching the video.”

on the big screen, a few men were sitting in a private club and chatting. No one could hear what they were talking about.

However, the audience realized that the few people present were the reporters who had asked the question just now. The reporters’ questions were all very sharp, as if they wanted to kick di gang out of Kamino.

The media on the reporters’ microphones happened to be the big V who had pushed the topic of fake donations from the three major corporations to the forefront.

When the reporters saw that they had been secretly photographed, they stood up and prepared to protest.

But the moment they stood up, the camera suddenly zoomed in.

It was very close.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2717

2717 a large-scale face-smacking scene (3)

They were so close that everyone could hear their voices clearly.

“Use your media’s internet celebrities to forward some of the content from the audit Office. Then, he would start this wave of rhythm. In fact, it would be even better if you could hire some Internet Water Army to defame Nangong Nuannuan and incite public anger.”

we also need to help find fake reviewers. This might cost more money.

“Don’t worry. The ningwen group is such a big company. “For this matter, depending on how well you’ve done your promotion, if you can cause public outrage, each of you will receive 8.88 million in red packets.

If you can find someone who is a fan of the trend and has a Weibo level of haters, the money will be calculated separately. Depending on the number of posts per person, it will range from 200 to 3000 Yuan."

After the host finished speaking, everyone's eyes lit up when they saw the reporters.

Then, the scene changed, and the time came to yesterday afternoon.

It was still these people, still the same club.

you guys did a good job before. This is your reward for your hard work.

After that, the man gave each of the reporters a bank card. The reporters happily accepted the cards and thanked him, saying that it was their duty.

ning Wenhao is holding a press conference tomorrow. You must guide the public's opinion. If ning Wenhao comes up with some proof that's beneficial to the three major corporations, or something that's not beneficial to the ning family, you must do your best to guide the public opinion, understand? "

"But Xuanji, ning Wenhao, is chiyang's Adjutant. Our Xuanji ..."

"Don't worry, ning Wenhao is a descendant of the nings. He won't do anything to you. "Also, for tomorrow's matter, according to the severity of the sudden incident, our old master will also give you a reward ranging from 1 million to 8.88 million."

When the reporters heard this, their joy was beyond words.

"Then we'll thank elder ning in advance."

"it's my pleasure, it's my pleasure. thank you for your hard work."

With a " PA " sound, a slipper smacked the face of the reporter who was arguing with ning Wenhao.

"I knew you weren't a good person! He kept on leading the way! He had accepted more than 10 million Yuan from her! No wonder you're so shameless. You don't even have a f * cking butt, okay?"

The public was furious. After they realized that disheng group had been slandered by the ning family, they were already ashamed of what they had done and said. Now, they realized that someone was actually leading the way.

Not only did the ning family shamelessly swallow the charity funds of the three major groups, but they also slandered the three major groups. They not only made a fortune from an earthquake, but they also trampled on their competitors. Even at this time, they still wanted to find reporters to defame the three major corporations.

'despicable' was not enough to describe how disgusting the three major corporations were.

Because this was a press conference held by ning Wenhao, Fei Ying was in charge of the order of the venue.

Originally, the Eagle Special Forces could have pulled the excited people away at the first moment so that these unscrupulous reporters would not be beaten up.

But what could he do? Their sister-in-law had been slandered. They were also very angry.

Although they also had to maintain order, it didn't stop them from returning order later.

As a result, a few slippers landed on the reporter's face, and even the camera in his hand was hit to the ground.

Professional cameras were very expensive, but unfortunately, there were too many people, so they didn't know who had smashed it.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2718

2718 Five hiding places (4)

Anyway, they had earned so much ill-gotten wealth that it was enough for them to compensate.

Seeing that the reporters were almost beaten up, the members of the Eagle team came forward to stop them.

Very quickly, the situation was under control.

"I know that everyone is very excited and angry, but this matter isn't over yet," ning Wenhao continued. What everyone saw just now was just a donation of 800 million Yuan from disheng group being swallowed by the ning family. And what the ning Corporation swallowed up was far more than just the 800 million donation."

After that, ning Wenhao used strong evidence to prove that the ning family had not only privately embezzled 1.5 billion Yuan each from disheng, Imperial Palace, and Shengyang, which amounted to a total of 4.5 billion Yuan in donations. They also shamelessly slandered the three major corporations, spreading rumors that they had used despicable means to return the donations. Other than causing public outrage, they also privately embezzled the donations of the Eagle Eye group, the Xiao family's Yunxiao group, the Wu group of Haizhou, and many second and third-rate wealthy families.

Although the second and third-rate corporations, companies, and organizations that were not part of the third-rate wealthy families did not donate as much money as the top companies such as disheng, this disaster was not only a disaster for Kamino, but also a disaster for all of mankind. Even foreign companies and people had donated and helped the victims of the disaster in Shengzhou. Some foreigners had even come to Shengzhou to take in homeless orphans who had been hit by the earthquake, and some were even disabled.

However, the ning family, as the top wealthy family in dizhou, shamelessly seized as much as 11.8 billion in charity funds by making use of management donations and auditing.

This was simply intolerable.

Furthermore, the nings had not only bribed the reporters, but even the auditors were from the nings.

The auditor ning Jiwu, who had first appeared on the big screen, was the one who had helped the ning family with these disgusting things.

Ning Wenhao dug out all the people from the auditing and donation associations. Not only that, but he also got evidence that these people had negotiated with ning Haohan. These people couldn't even quibble.

The screen on the internet was almost completely occupied by the comments.

Everyone finally knew that there were only more despicable people in the world, not the most despicable.

you should be struck by lightning for secretly embezzling the charity funds. Not only did the ning family earn 11.8 billion Yuan from an earthquake, but you also poured dirty water on the three major corporations, making them the target of public criticism and The Public Enemy.

This time, all of the anger of the people had been transferred to the ning family in an instant.

They were as disgusted with the big three's methods as they were with the big three. No, they were even more disgusted with the ning family.

the entire weibo exploded, and everyone was condemning the ning family, asking them to get out of kamino and make them disappear from kamino. at the same time, they wanted the people from the judicial department to bring the ning family to justice.

The most infuriated people were those second-rate, third-rate, and not-so-well-off people, rich businessmen, groups, and enterprises.

Under Huang zichu's bull-nosed hacking methods that had reached a certain level, the ning family's assets invasion operation could not be hidden at all.

Huang zichu could check the entire ning family's accounts and clearly find out all the charity funds that the ning family had taken.

So, since the old man was willing to die for his son, he would let the ning family die completely.

After that, ning Wenhao announced all the names on the big screen.

It was a rolling playback.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2719

2719 Wealth comparable to a country (1)

There was a detailed description of how much each company had donated, how much had been swallowed up, and what accounts and names had been used to transfer the money.

Therefore, when these wealthy people saw on the rolling screen that their donated money had been quietly swallowed up by others, almost all of them could rush into the screen with a vegetable knife and cut the ning family.

The reporters who had received bribes from the ning family were also under the control of the Eagle team members.

The venue was in a mess.

Without the reporters' aggressive attitude, plus the fact that Disheng and the other two big companies had been framed before, everyone now sympathized with Disheng and hated the Ning family. As a result, the news that Nangong Nuannuan had hired someone to kill Zhou Ruxue and that she had used her relationship with Chi Yang to imprison the people who were affected by the disaster had all been forgotten.

"Everyone, be quiet. The press conference is not over yet. Our face-smacking is still going on."

Ning Wenhao said this with a very cool expression.

However, after he finished speaking, he attracted a wave of laughter on the internet. They said that Adjutant Ning was indeed Brother Nuan's husband's good friend, having inherited Brother Nuan's suave face-smacking technique.

Therefore, when Ning Wenhao said his first sentence, the venue was still noisy. The people were in a rage and angrily criticized the Ning family.

However, when they heard that the face-smacking was still going on, they immediately quieted down.

Then, a series of "666" was sent to Adjutant Ning.

"Everyone, don't forget that I'm here on behalf of the Nangong family to hold this press conference. Recently, there were always some people who didn't like the Nangong family. Because the Nangong family has my sister-in-law, the chairman of Disheng, in charge, they feel that Disheng has taken away their limited resources, so their envy has turned into jealousy. After getting no benefits from Imperial Phoenix, they started to mess with Imperial Phoenix, trying to drive the overseas group out of Kamino.

So, after the Ning family embezzled the donation from Disheng, they could still shamelessly say that Disheng took the money back. But what about the Ning family? Was there no one who wanted to see Di Mo suffer? Everyone can look at the screen. These are the questions that the reporters have just asked. Someone asked. They heard that my sister-in-law, Nangong Nuannuan, hired a killer to kill Zhou Ruxue. After experiencing the Ning family's incident, may I ask, do you still believe in such a guiding post?"

"I don't believe it!"

All the people who attended the press conference said in unison.

Now, they could see that the young miss of the Nangong family had the looks, the talent, the background, and the wealth. No matter if it was the 2 billion donation or someone like Zhou Ruxue who had been arrested, she didn't even bother to touch them.

After all, Adjutant Ning had just shown everyone that Disheng's annual working capital was more than 300 billion Zhengzhi cyber dollars.

What did that mean?

The concept was 300 billion multiplied by 7.

It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that he was as rich as a country.

After all, even though di gang had come to Kamino, his most profitable military business was still in cyber country.

As the world's largest officially certified military group, disheng's wealth was beyond imagination.

He had so much liquid funds in a year, so why would he care about the two billion that he had donated?

not to mention 2 billion camino dollars, even 2 billion cyber dollars would be nothing to disheng.

So, why would a Big Boss like him care about a woman who was already in prison?

Chapter 2720

2720 the person i admire (2)

Ning Wenhao was very satisfied with everyone's answer.

This was also the purpose of his guidance.

2 billion was an astronomical figure to ordinary people. They felt that it was understandable to break the law for 2 billion, let alone break the law. After all, it was a huge number.

However, after he revealed Di Shi's true wealth to everyone, and after everyone realized how ignorant they were, and how powerful Di Shi was, they naturally no longer believed that Di Shi would do anything for a mere 2 billion. They would never believe that the chairman of disheng would hire a Hitman himself to kill someone, and that a small-time reporter like you would find out.

he had ten thousand ways to kill zhou ruxue, okay? Moreover, he could avoid you and not let you know about each of them.

Then what you know must be fake.

After all, the ning family could still slander others like that after taking advantage of them. Those reporters knew that the truth wasn't like that, but they still disregarded their professional ethics and slandered others for the sake of money. In that case, Zhou ruxue's incident was 100% fake.

Ning Wenhao was pleased to hear everyone's reaction. "I'm very happy that everyone can believe in my sister-in-law. I've been in contact with sister-in-law for so long, and I already know her character very well. She was very capable and capable. From the fact that she managed disheng group and eternal land, one could tell that she was not a woman who relied on men to show her true self. She herself was an extremely powerful luminous body.

Although she was only 18 years old and was the daughter of the Nangong family and the daughter-in-law of the Chi family, she was already a person standing at the top of the world. There were some things that she disdained to do, and there were some people that she disdained to care about. Some people were just clowns to her.

however, even though she was disdainful, it didn't mean that she was a soft persimmon that could allow those jumping clowns to distort the facts and attack her. don't forget, other than being nangong nuannuan, she's also the daughter of the nangong family, the granddaughter-in-law of the chi family, and the leader of di xun and tian-heng!

Also, you should be glad that I, ning Wenhao, am the one who slapped you in the face today. I'm representing our Commander-in-Chief to stand up and slap him in the face. If our sister-in-law had personally slapped you in the face today, you might have died a worse death."

Ning Wenhao could not stop talking about Nangong Nuannuan.

After experiencing so many things, especially after Chi Yang's heart had been seriously injured and he was beyond saving, Nangong Nuannuan had still managed to pull him back from the gates of hell. Ning Wenhao didn't know whether he should admire his boss or his sister-in-law more.

He really admired these two people.

therefore, when he talked about his admirers, ning wenhao was more talkative than when he had gone to support the ning family.

Everyone was still watching the live broadcast, waiting for Adjutant ning to slap them in the face, but the funny Adjutant ning began to seriously go off topic.

Fortunately, because everyone had misunderstood disheng, and compared to the disgusting ning family, the disheng group led by Nangong Nuannuan was much nobler. Furthermore, Nangong Nuannuan had a special status, was beautiful, and rich, so everyone listened with great interest.

He had already been explaining for half an hour. Huang zichu, who was in the headset, felt that this person was too off topic, so he reminded him.
