Chapter 2721

2721 neng dies (3)

After ning Wenhao finished explaining how Nangong Nuannuan had treated everyone's lung poisoning, he coughed and said, "I'm sorry, I admire my sister-in-law too much, so I said too much."

The audience listened with great interest. Not only did they get a new understanding of Nangong Nuannuan, but they also felt like they had just eaten a melon. they all kindly expressed that adjutant ning had said it well.

"now, let's talk about zhou ruxue. This was originally a scandal for the Chi family. For so many years, for the sake of the Chi family's face, old Marshal Chi had to swallow this matter.

However, when I was about to represent our chief commander and hold a press conference to stand up for our sister-in-law, the old master looked for me and told me to reveal the Chi family's matter to the public."

"Grandpa, Zhenzhen"

Nangong Nuannuan, who had been paying attention to the press conference, was touched by ning Wenhao's words.

Grandpa Chi had always been good to her. She knew that in her past life.

And this life seemed to be even better.

zhou ruxue could be considered the chi family's scandal. no matter how sad grandpa chi was, he had never thought of exposing zhou ruxue's matter.

but now, for her sake, grandpa chi chose to expose the chi family's scandal without hesitation.

How could she not be touched?

Nangong Nuannuan was touched as she looked at old man Chi. However, the old man waved his hand nonchalantly and said with a kind smile, "This Zhou ruxue is only a relative of the Chi family. You're Chi Yang's wife, a member of our Chi family. How could grandfather allow his own family to be wronged and protect what an outsider did?"

Chi Yang, who was watching the livestream with Nangong Nuannuan, also squeezed her hand. He gestured to his wife that this was what they should do.

ning wenhao stood on the high stage and faced all the people present and the netizens. he told them about how zhou ruxue had abused chi yang, had an ambiguous relationship with pei jitong, and had been found out rolling in bed with pei jitong at chi yang's father's funeral hall. then, she had been kicked out of the chi family.

after all the netizens' comments shifted from scolding the nings to scolding the pei family, ning wenhao continued, "You also know why Zhou ruxue was sent to prison. Our Commander-in-Chief Chi had just woken up from his serious injuries and was still in danger. In order to make our Commander-in-Chief like the soup she made and make our Commander-in-Chief unable to live without her for a period of time, she actually added poppy to it.

Although that dosage of opium wouldn't cause too much harm to the human body, and people like us in the central Command could quit if we wanted to, but our Central command's life was still in danger! Wasn't she going to kill someone by doing this? Everyone, if you were to meet such a person, would you want to cut her into a thousand pieces?"

The screen was spammed with words like "live" ["kill that b [tch".

"But our sister-in-law felt that she was dirty, so she locked her up in prison. Our sister-in-law's exact words were, "wouldn't it be better for her to die than to kill such a person?" This kind of person should stay in prison for the rest of her life, turning her from a high and mighty rich lady to a prisoner who could be bullied at will. This was the best punishment for her. That's why our sister-in-law threw her into prison.

Our sister-in-law thought that she would let her off easily even if she died, so how could she kill her after she had only suffered for a day?"

Chapter 2722

2722 the silly girl i've raised for 17 years (4)

"Have you ever seen a cat eat a mouse when it catches it? Rats were all toyed to death. our sister-in-law isn't a kind person. If anyone dares to hurt our Commander-in-Chief, she'll definitely let them know that living is more painful than death. So, why did she go and kill Zhou ruxue?"

[which flirtatious b * tch killed zhou ruxue and then framed our brother nuan?] Come out and I promise I won't beat you to death. I'll chop you to death!

Is there a hole in his brain? [what kind of relative are you to Zhou ruxue? why would you let her die so easily?]

Did you notice that both the ning family and the person who killed Zhou ruxue didn't seem to be very smart? Just how much trouble do they have to go against my brother Nuan?]

"I'll tell you who killed Zhou ruxue."

As soon as ning Wenhao finished speaking, PEI Jitong and old lady PEI appeared on the screen.

In the video, PEI Jitong asked the bodyguard to contact a death row prisoner in Zhou ruxue's prison. This prisoner would be executed in half a month, and she had a daughter. The PEI family had promised her that as long as she could kill Zhou ruxue, they would give her mother five million Yuan, which was enough for her daughter to grow up and finish college.

After that, the recording of the PEI family's call to the convict was also played. Not long after the prisoner answered the phone, Zhou ruxue was killed.

Originally, today's main purpose was to punish the ning family. The PEI family had killed someone and framed Nangong Nuannuan. Originally, they would not have been criticized so badly, and the PEI family would not have been driven to a dead end because of this incident.

However, the PEI family was followed. After PEI Jitong killed Zhou ruxue, he went to see ning Haohan of the ning family. A pinhole camera in flight mode captured their meeting and conversation clearly.

It turned out that the ning family had given Nangong Nuannuan a call before exposing the three major corporations. As long as Nangong Nuannuan was willing to give them a sum of money or let them do the few projects they wanted, they would not expose the matter.

however, nangong nuannuan did not answer their calls. Ning Wenhao had even threatened the nings that if they dared to do anything shameless to slander Nangong Nuannuan, he would not be able to recognize his own family. If the ning family fell one day, don't go to him, because he would never help the ning family.

This situation was the same as what the PEI family had experienced.

PEI Jitong had told ning Haohan that he had seduced Zhou ruxue because she was Chi Yang's mother. At that time, the Chi family had already cut off all ties with the PEI family, and the PEI family couldn't get any more benefits from the Chi family. So, in order to continue receiving benefits from the Chi family in the future, he had seduced Zhou ruxue.

After all, the old master was going to die sooner or later. If the old master died, and Zhou ruxue was Chi Yang's mother, wouldn't the Chi family be under the control of the PEI family in the future?

Who knew that the silly girl he had raised for 17 years was not Chi Yang's mother in the end. Furthermore, he had such a bad relationship with Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan.

PEI Jitong couldn't accept that Zhou ruxue had nothing to do with the Chi family and couldn't accept that she was still alive. In a fit of anger, he sent people to kill her.

however, now that the nings were preparing to destroy the nangong family and nangong nuannuan, he had come to give them a hand.

At first, when they found out that it wasn't Nangong Nuannuan who had sent people to kill Zhou ruxue, but PEI Jitong, no one felt much and didn't criticize the PEI family. Who knew that the PEI family and the ning family were actually Birds of a Feather?

Chapter 2723

2723 Going out of business (5)

This time, the PEI family had become The Public Enemy.

As for the woman who had been ordered to be locked up by Nangong Nuannuan after coming out of the ruins, ning Wenhao had told everyone that she was the one who had caused chiyang's serious injuries and was still in critical condition. There was no need for any evidence to prove her innocence, and the woman had almost drowned in the saliva of the people.

The entire press conference was carried out in a frenzy of face smacking.

The press conference lasted for three hours, and Ning Wenhao had explained all the questions that the reporters had asked.

There was still one more question. Ning Wenhao had already announced the end of the press conference. Everyone began to watch the members of the Flying Eagle Special Forces start to clean up the field. Ning Wenhao then realized that there was still one question that he had not answered.

“Oh, there’s one more question I haven’t answered. Someone asked if there was a conspiracy behind the fact that Disheng won the Shi family’s bid with a mere one million Yuan, and if it involved any unfair business competition.”

Ning Wenhao sneered, “Is there something wrong with the person who asked this question?” The Shi family won, but they didn’t ask such a stupid question. What are you guys doing here? The business world is like a battlefield. My sister-in-law’s group has the ability to know your bidding price, so you can only blame yourself for not protecting your bidding price well. What right do you have to talk? Instead of making a ruckus here and causing dissatisfaction, if you have the ability, go and check if it is involved in unfair competition. Our society is a society ruled by law. If you think there’s something wrong with them, you can learn from me and slap the other party’s face with the evidence so that the other party’s crimes can’t be hidden. You came to ask me if I’m involved in unfair competition, and I can only answer you with one sentence: I don’t have any!”

He was very arrogant.

In the end, he also exposed his funny and bad nature.

But the people loved it.

Everyone was actually very satisfied with the last answer.

The press conference also ended perfectly.

Chi Yang saw that he had finally stood up for his wife. Although it was a pity that he wasn’t the one who went up today, he was very satisfied with Ning Wenhao’s performance.

After three hours of watching the livestream, he was a little tired and fell asleep.

Compared to Chi Yang’s indifference, the Ning family and the PEI family could not remain calm no matter what.

PEI Jitong, PEI Jicheng, and old Madam PEI were already dumbfounded.

They had never thought that the Ning family would actually lose.

After all, Ning Haohan had told them that he was looking for Carm.

Kahm was an internationally famous top hacker, and he was very reliable. Many international organizations wanted to ask Carm for help, but he didn’t take any orders.

Hackers didn’t lack money, and ordinary forces couldn’t move such hackers at all, but the Ning family had hired them.

Originally, PEI Jitong thought that the Nangong family would definitely die this time.

When the Nangong family became a target of scorn, he would go and curry favor with them, sell the Ning family, and help them. This way, Nangong Nuannuan would definitely give the PEI family a lot of benefits on account of their help to the Nangong family.

Who knew that the PEI family, who was already at the end of their rope, would make the wrong choice again.

“Mom, what should we do? This time, the PEI family had completely offended the Chi family and the Nangong family, and their reputation was completely ruined. I don’t think these two companies need to do anything to us. We’ll close down on our own.”

pei jitong asked in a daze.

At this moment, he was completely at his wit’s end.

Chapter 2724

2724 Stop dreaming (1)

Old Madam PEI watched the press conference for a long time before she stood up and said, “I’ll go and beg him. After all, my mother raised him. If it wasn’t for my mother, he wouldn’t have lived until now. He couldn’t just sit back and do nothing. It wasn’t easy for me to run the PEI family, I definitely won’t let it collapse like this!”

“Mom, it’s no use.” PEI Jitong said, “we used the Chi family’s connections to do a lot of shameless things to him.” Didn’t we decide to break up with the Chi family and seduce Zhou ruxue because this method was useless?

What’s the use of begging him for something that was useless 17 years ago after you’ve done so many wrong things?”

“Then what about Yueyue? Are we just going to watch as the PEI family is finished?” Old lady PEI was already scared out of her wits.

She didn’t expect old master Chi to disregard the Chi family’s reputation and crush the PEI family to death. He would rather let the Chi family be laughed at than reveal the PEI family’s scandal.

Furthermore, she had not expected him to be willing to give up everything to clear Nangong Nuannuan’s name.

although nangong nuannuan was his granddaughter-in-law, she was also his sister!

How could he be like this?

Old lady PEI had always been in a daze after ning Wenhao dug out her past.

after so many years, she had always thought that she understood chi yuancheng very well. That was why she had been fearless all these years. The reason was that she knew that what she had done was a little disgraceful, but she also believed that Chi Yuancheng would not speak of these things.

It was because he cared so much about his reputation.

However, all this glory was worthless in front of Nangong Nuannuan, and he had exposed it just like that.

As she watched the pop-up windows on the screen flash by quickly, as if they were about to explode, old lady PEI once again regretted her actions.

“Mom, Chi Yuancheng doesn’t even care about the Chi family’s reputation, do you think he will still help us? If he finds out that we’re working with the ning family to mess with Nangong Nuannuan, we can forget about taking advantage of him.

But fortunately, there was still the Shi family. Although Ji Yun told us not to provoke the Nangong and Chi families, ning Haohan told me that the Shi family is with them. The Shi family didn’t even pay the 3 billion.

Now that the press conference is over, the other party only found out what the ning family did with us, but didn’t find anything unusual with the Shi family. Our Yingluo, we can go and make an exception with the Shi family.”

Old lady PEI’s eyes lit up. She was about to speak, but then she thought of Pei Ji Yun’s warning and felt a little scared.

To be honest, old lady PEI was not afraid of anything, but she was a little afraid of her daughter who had married into a noble family. Especially in the past six months, her daughter had become more and more elusive, and her temper had become weirder and weirder.

“But your sister told us not to provoke the Nangong family when she got off the car that day. Otherwise, if something happened, she would definitely not care about our Yingluo.”

“Mom!” PEI Jitong and PEI Jicheng called out in unison.

“It’s already a life-and-death moment for the PEI family corporation. If we don’t find Ji Yun now, the PEI family corporation will have to go bankrupt. If the Shi family can’t even control us, then the PEI family corporation will fall in less than half a year!”

Old lady PEI’s heart skipped a beat when she heard that.

Chapter 2725

2725 Proud (2)

After all, she had single-handedly built the group and invested her life’s experience in it. How could she watch as the group was destroyed in her own hands?

Thus, old lady PEI immediately called Pei Ji Yun.

Pei Ji Yun had always been the top dog of the combat service department’s medical Affiliated Hospital.

Although the principal of the medical department University had been on guard against her, her husband was the chairman of time Fortune Group and a member of the Shi family. PEI Jiyun had also introduced many elites of the medical department to the medical Association. however, pei ji yun was indeed a very good doctor. Many senior officials in the Internal Affairs Bureau had problems with their livers and gallbladders and all of them specifically requested for PEI Jiyun to undergo surgery.

Thus, Pei Ji Yun had always been the most popular medical professor in the hospital.

Today, Pei Ji Yun did not have any surgery in the morning, so she turned on the TV in the hospital to watch the live broadcast.

Although she had already known the final outcome of the ning family from her daughter, after all, her daughter was now very powerful.

However, when he saw the ning family's blood-drenched bodies being dug out, Pei Ji Yun was still shocked.

He was shocked by the power of the Chi and Nangong families, as well as his daughter's understanding of Nangong Nuannuan.

She was glad that old master Shi had listened to her daughter and donated 3 billion Yuan to the Shi family despite their tight financial situation. On the other hand, she couldn't help but think about her daughter again.

Shi Yalin was the only daughter of her three children. Although she was a girl, she was the only girl in the Shi family.

Shi Yalin had been pampered since she was a child, because the Shi family had planned for their daughter to be married and their son to bring glory to the Shi family.

However, the Shi family was the same as the Nangong family. They had too many boys and too few girls.

As a result, Shi Yalin had been pampered and protected by the Shi family since she was born. She was like a little princess.

As Shi Yalin's birth mother, Pei Ji Yun had a fair evaluation of her.

Shi Yalin was indeed outstanding, but she was still not as good as the others.

Whether it was in terms of studies, knowledge, or wisdom.

she was very happy that her daughter had met an amazing master and could become a top medical researcher in the medical association.

However, Yingluo

A person's learning could change because of their master, but would their basic personality and wisdom change?

Pei Ji Yun had to admit that after being provoked, his daughter had hired someone to kill Nangong Nuannuan.

However, after acknowledging a master, she could mediate with Nangong Nuannuan and be ahead of her in everything. She could even predict everything about Nangong Nuannuan so accurately.

Was this really something her daughter would do?

pei ji yun had wanted to ask shi yalin about this many times, but he didn't know how to start.

her daughter, who used to be the closest to her, was now even closer to the patriarch, old master shi, and shi maowen, her fourth son. She was not even close to her own father.

PEI Jitong looked at the press conference, but his eyes were a little empty. Pei Ji Yun's thoughts drifted a little further through this press conference that had already been spoiled by Shi Yalin.

It was only when the press conference was about to end and ning Wenhao was done praising Nangong Nuan Nuan that he spoke about Zhou ruxue's death and even exposed the video of the PEI family's PEI Jitong and ning family's ning Haohan. PEI Jiyun's mind finally exploded and he came back to his senses from Shi Yalin's matter.

Chapter 2726

2726 Laughing in anger (3)

She looked at PEI Jitong and ning Haohan in disbelief as they discussed how to suppress the Nangong family and Nangong Nuannuan, how to incite the public's anger and drive disheng out. PEI Jitong felt his head hurt.

She remembered that in the car that day, she had personally greeted this group of dragging family members and told them to settle down. The Nangong family, especially Nangong Nuannuan, was not easy to deal with. Even the Shi family had to be fully prepared.

She had said that the PEI family would be like an egg striking a rock if they went against Nangong Nuannuan. That was why she told them to be obedient. Even if the PEI family went bankrupt, they had to lower their stance.

when the shi family defeated nangong nuannuan, the strong rival, and the shi family rose, the pei family would have a chance to rise again.

But they actually ran behind her back to ally with the ning family, this group of stupid pigs.

The nings had caused the Shi family to lose 3 billion Yuan. Pei Ji Yun couldn't think of anyone more stupid than the nings. she didn't expect the pei family to be even stupider than the ning family.

Just as Pei Ji Yun was feeling flustered and exasperated, her phone rang.

Seeing that it was a call from his mother, Pei Ji Yun laughed coldly and answered the call.

Without waiting for old lady PEI to speak, Pei Ji Yun started to scold her ruthlessly.

"aren't you all very capable? I've already given you guys a heads up, but not only did you kill Zhou ruxue, you even allied with the ning family to harm Nangong Nuannuan. If you guys are so capable, why did you call me? If you're so awesome, then go and die with the ning family! Go and continue to argue with Nangong Nuan! Let's see if it's you guys or Nangong Nuannuan who's going to kill you guys."

“Ji Yun, how can you blame us for this? Who would have thought that Eagle would use the country’s resources to investigate Nangong Nuannuan?”

“hehe, you don’t know? You have the nerve to say you don’t know? You don’t even know what your opponent’s trump card is and what’s the most powerful. You don’t even know the basic situation of your opponent and you’re already going to fight to the death. This isn’t called a life-and-death struggle, this is called suicide by jumping off a cliff, understand?”

Old Madam PEI had always been the one to give in to her daughter, who was already married to a rich man and had a bad temper. Her attitude was completely different from her two sons and daughter-in-law.

in old lady pei’s eyes, pei ji yun was the only one who had inherited her ability. If Pei Ji Yun was a boy, then there would be no PEI Jitong and PEI Jiming.

“Alright, alright, alright. I know it’s all our fault. We underestimated Nangong Nuannuan. We underestimated the enemy and attacked them without understanding their basic situation. I was wrong. But Ji Yun, you should know that the PEI family group was built by your father and me after a lifetime of hard work. This is our life, and also the life of the PEI family’s descendants! And you have 15% of the PEI family’s shares. Are you just going to watch it go bankrupt?”

Pei Ji Yun was about to die from anger. He continued to sneer, “now you know that I also have 15% of the shares?” why didn’t you think about my 15% share when you were doing all these stupid things?

I didn’t agree with you when you insisted on big brother seducing Zhou ruxue!”

Chapter 2727

2727 Cold salad 4

“but no matter how much i advised you, you still did what you wanted. when i found out that zhou ruxue wasn’t chi yang’s mother, i told you to ignore her and let her run her own course, but what did you do? Not only did you kill her, but you also framed Nangong Nuannuan!

you all know that disheng is one of the top three companies in the world, and nangong nuannuan’s brother, feng shengxuan, is the future leader of NS group. You guys actually went to frame Nangong Nuan. do you guys have sh * t in your heads?”

Old lady PEI had put the phone on speaker, so PEI Jitong and PEI Jichen could hear PEI Jiyun’s scolding. However, the two men remained silent after hearing Pei Ji Yun’s scolding.

Because their future depended on this sister of theirs. If his sister didn’t care about them, they would be dead.

Hence, no matter what Pei Ji Yun said, they had to bear it.

“Whether it’s NS group or disheng group, they’re both top three tycoons in the world. They’ve stepped on countless corpses to stand at the peak of the world’s powerhouses. How could they not have any enemies? Would there be no one who wanted them dead? But were they dead? not only did they not die, but their development was also getting better and better each year. Why? The reason is that there are too many unrated companies like you who are going in to make up for it! They just devoured you without even burping!”

“Then, what do we do now, Yueyue?” Old lady PEI was really scared after hearing Pei Ji Yun’s words.

In the past, she wasn’t afraid because of Zhou Ruxue. No matter how much Nangong Nuannuan disliked Zhou Ruxue, she was still Chi Yang’s mother.

But now, Zhou Ruxue was no longer Chi Yang’s mother, and they had killed her and pushed the blame on Nangong Nuannuan.

The key was that after the Ning family’s matter was exposed, the PEI family’s layer of shame was gone. The Chi family no longer recognized her as their sister, and Nangong Nuannuan was so terrifying.

Old lady PEI could not think of a way out for the PEI family.

“What do we do? What else could he do? Cold mix! I’ve already warned you, but you didn’t listen. You always think that you have the Shi family behind you. But let me tell you, even if the Shi family really wants to mess with Nangong Nuannuan, they are not ready yet. What are you? He dared to touch Nangong Nuannuan?”

Since you’ve dared to make a move, then you must have the courage to accept Nangong Nuannuan’s revenge. I can’t do anything about this. Although the PEI family still existed, it was equivalent to death. It’s useless even if you call me. At most, you’ll just drag me down and let me die with you.”

Pei Ji Yun’s words could be said to be cold. After scolding everyone in the PEI family, there was no help at all.

The PEI family had only listened to her scolding so that she could help them. Seeing that Pei Ji Yun had no reaction and was about to hang up the phone, the three people of the PEI family became anxious.

“Pei Ji Yun, is this the attitude you should have towards the mother who gave birth to and raised you? If it wasn’t for the PEI family back then, would you have been able to marry into a family like the Shi family? Don’t forget that the PEI family is your mother’s family. If you don’t even have a mother, the Shi family will look down on you! It won’t do you any good if the PEI family falls! I don’t care, you have to intervene in this matter if you can or can’t. The PEI family has no way out. If you can’t save the PEI family, then you’ll go to hell with them!”

Chapter 2728

2728 I raised him for nothing 2

Old lady PEI’s character was extremely strong, and now her temper was rising as well. She yelled at Pei Ji Yun.

Pei Ji Yun was amused by old lady PEI’s words.

After feeling the coldness of his family, he sneered, “I originally thought that you’re my mother, my brother, and my younger brother. If the PEI family collapses, at least I won’t let you starve to death. But since you all think so, then just do it.

I'm a hepatobiliary specialist from the medical department University. There are so many prominent figures in the Internal Affairs Bureau and the combat Services Department who want me to do the surgery. My in-laws are already treating me so well, why would they embarrass me just because of the PEI family? I'm afraid you have some misunderstanding of your position in society, right?

Also, I gave birth to three outstanding children for the Shi family. Now, everything in the Shi family is decided by our Yalin. Even her father and her second uncle can't make the decision. Do you think that my status will become lower after losing the so-called PEI family?

To tell you the truth, if it wasn't for me, do you think the Shi family would be so kind to your PEI family? The PEI family was nothing in the eyes of the Shi family. So without the PEI family, without you annoying and trouble-making poor relatives, the Shi family will probably think even more highly of me. "

Pei Ji Yun's words angered Pei Ji Tong to death. He couldn't bear it anymore and shouted at Pei Ji Yun, "Pei Ji Yun, don't go too far with your words. I'm telling you, this time the ning family's matter is with the Shi family. do you think the pei family is the only one who is stupid? Let me tell you, the PEI family only killed Zhou ruxue and framed Nangong Nuannuan, but the Shi family is the one who really followed the ning family to take over the six big corporations and the donations from social groups and companies."

"Not bad!" PEI Jichen, who was at the side, also said, " "Tell your Shi MAODE that the Shi family can either pull the PEI family back at this juncture, or we'll spread the news that the Shi family and the ning family are in cahoots with each other and have swallowed the donations from the six major corporations. If we're going to die, then let's die together! Since you're so unkind, then don't blame us for being heartless."

When Pei Ji Yun heard what they said, not only was he not angry or panicking, but he also laughed sarcastically.

"Ning Wenhao's press conference is over. Did you hear him slander the Shi family? The Nangong family and the Shi family have been enemies since the last term. Compared to the PEI family and the ning family, Nangong Nuannuan would rather kill the Shi family. But why didn't ning Wenhao mention anything about the Shi family?

Forget it, I've told you so much, your brains won't be able to process it. The men of our PEI family are useless except for seducing women. If you want to drag the Shi family down with you, go ahead. From the moment you said you wanted to drag me down with you, I was no longer a member of the PEI family. You can try and see what the consequences are for trying to drag the Shi family down. you can try and see if you can drag the shi family down with your low iq. If you really can, I might even look up to you."

After saying that, Pei Ji Yun hung up the phone and blacklisted all the PEI family's numbers.

old lady pei, pei jitong, and pei jimo were left looking at each other.

"Mom, brother, did we do something wrong again?"

Old lady PEI could not hold it in and started crying.

"I've raised them for nothing! It was all in vain! It's all in vain!"

Chapter 2729

2729 Looking for death again (1)

"If I had known that Pei Ji Yun was this kind of person, I would have married her to a hunky man. I want to see if she can still have her current achievements and talk to me like this! No wonder people said that a married daughter was like water poured out! She was just a basin of dirty and unbearably dirty foot-washing water! Bah!"

As old lady PEI scolded, she couldn't help but spit on the expensive Persian carpet. Even PEI Jitong, who was obsessed with cleanliness, had his eyebrows twitching slightly.

"Mom, Pei Ji Yun will definitely not help us. I'm going to look for Ning Hao Han now. He had clearly said that the Shi family was involved. They had also clearly transferred 3 billion from other accounts to the Shi family's donation. As long as I get this evidence, no matter how much Pei Ji Yun hates us, the Shi family will have to help. After all, if the people knew about the Shi family's plan, Shi maowen would not be able to compete for the next president. He doesn't even have the right to promote himself in the streets and alleys."

Old lady PEI wiped her tears dry. She could scold them, but she was still a little afraid of the Shi family. Although the Shi family wasn't as famous as the Chi family, the old master of the Shi family was also a black-hearted and merciless master.

"But didn't that damned girl just say that if we dared to pull the Shi family down, we would be in trouble? How about Yingluo or forget it? After all, the Shi family isn't the Chi family, and we can't threaten them. Look at those who have threatened the Shi family, they all have a bad ending."

PEI Jitong had already gone all out.

"Mom, the PEI family's group and the ning family are Birds of a Feather now. Do you think we can still survive? Since there's only death no matter what, we might as well fight for ourselves. After all, the PEI family group would be destroyed if things did not work out. Wouldn't it be better to die in their hands?

Besides, the ning family must also want to grab the Shi family as a life-saving straw. Ning Haohan and I will talk it over again. We will ask the Shi family for help. Maybe we can get through this. Even if we can't get through it, we can still rise again in the future with this handle, don't you think? I believe that the Shi family is more willing to lose some money to make peace than Shi maowen's future as the president."

Old lady PEI and PEI Jichen felt that PEI Jitong was right when they heard this.

So he immediately urged PEI Jitong to quickly find ning Haohan.

On ning Haohan's side, after ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan left, he no longer paid attention to ning Wenhao's behavior.

Things had already developed to this point, and the ning family could not get up no matter what.

Hence, the first thing he did was to ask the Butler if he had caught Carm.

Because he knew where he was, and because he was too confident in his own firewall, he wasn't very professional, so he didn't pay attention to the livestream at all. He had been working on another company hiring him to crack another company's firewall.

This was a clash between two top companies from two other countries. Both companies had hired top hackers, so it wouldn't be easy for Kahm to climb over the wall.

Therefore, although Kamm was in Kamino, in the seven-star hotel that ning Haohan had arranged for him, he did not pay attention to the things here.

After all, he had always thought that he would call the police if Nangong Nuannuan had really succeeded in climbing over the wall.

Since he didn't call the police, no matter what happened between the ning family and di mo, at least he would win.

Therefore, when the ning family's bodyguards put a sleeping drug in the air conditioner of his room and took him away, he didn't know anything.

When he woke up, he was already in a secret room. In the secret room, Camm was tied to a welded iron chair. In front of him was an iron table with a notebook on it.

Kamu stared at ning Haohan in confusion, but he was met with a pair of twisted faces.

"Chairman ning, what do you mean by this?" Camm was furious, but also afraid.

"What do you mean? Don't you know what I mean? You made the firewall so weak that it couldn't even withstand a single blow. It's already been broken and you still act like you don't know anything. What's the meaning of this? I should be the one asking if you're with Nangong Nuannuan!"

carm's eyes widened and he said with righteous indignation, "This is impossible! I know my own firewall very well. Even now, Nangong Nuannuan has not managed to crack it."

"Then What is this? what was this? it's already on the live broadcast of the press conference. Our ning family has already become the target of public criticism, and you're still telling me it's impossible.

what did you promise me? You said that after the ning family transferred the money, they could still secretly frame disheng group without them finding out. But now? The ning family has already become The Public Enemy!"

Ning Haohan sent him the highlight of today's livestream as he yelled.

Camm's eyes widened as he looked at the phone that ning Wenhao had handed to him.

He shook his head in disbelief and murmured, "Impossible! How did this happen? It won't! They clearly didn't succeed in climbing over the wall, so how did they get the evidence? I didn't even call the police, how did they get it?"

This moment was also a deep blow to Carm.

He thought that he was already the world's top hacker. With the continuous improvement of his hacking skills, there was no one better than him in the world except for the two No. 1 who were hunted down all year round. After all, even if he were to climb the wall at the shop he was at now, even if they hired a top hacker, it would only be a matter of time before he could do it.

How could the other party have climbed over the wall without triggering the alarm?

It was not scientific!

ning haohan wanted to cut him into pieces when he saw his stupid look. after all, if they had not listened to his words, the ning family would not have fallen to such a miserable state today.

If they had not listened to him, the ning family would have at most found someone to transfer the assets of the six big groups to his name. As for whether it would be used on the victims, who would know?

it's because I listened to you, and it's because you have a grudge against Nangong Nuannuan that I believed you would frame Nangong Nuannuan. But now, not only did the ning family not succeed, but we've become The Public Enemy. What do you think I should do? "

As soon as ning Haohan finished his words, he had already pierced the kneecap of Carm's left knee with a sharp dagger.

Kahm let out a terrible shriek and began to beg for mercy using sai Bowen's name.

you caused our ning family to turn from a high and mighty first-class noble family into a street rat. I should have killed you to vent my anger.
