Chapter 2731

2731 Transfer of assets (3)

Camm's pupils dilated in fear.

After all, he didn't offend the various forces too much, so there were still more people protecting him than harming him in this world.

He had never thought that he would die in Kamino's hands one day.

"I'm begging Yingluo, I'm begging you to let me go Yingluo. As long as you can spare my life, I'll do anything you want. Even if I can't do it well, I can help you transfer the assets of other companies and groups without anyone finding out. Please don't kill me. It's definitely more useful for you to keep me alive than to kill me. Even if the ning family is gone, I can still help you rise again."

"Enough, you overestimate yourself and underestimate the people of Kamino. The hackers on Nangong Nuannuan's side are obviously better than yours, but they couldn't take the assets of other companies without leaving any traces. You've already tricked me once, do you think I'll still trust you?"

Carm was frightened. Ning Haohan saw that he was shaking and peed.

The stench was so disgusting that he almost died.

He didn't want to waste any more time talking to Carm, so he said, "This is the finance department of the ningwen Corporation. Find a way to transfer all the assets of the ningwen group to this account in Rs bank. 10 minutes! If you can't do it in 10 minutes, there's no need for you to continue living in this world."

"Yes, yes! I'll do it now!"

Carm nodded continuously.

Although he was cuffed to an iron chair, his iron bracelet was mobile.

Ning Wenhao had the software to log into the financial background of the Ning Wen group, so it saved him a lot of trouble.

His fingers flew across the keyboard. For the sake of his future, he had no choice but to do so.

in less than three minutes, ning haohan kept receiving messages on his phone.

The messages were all from across countries, and they were all notifications from Rs bank after receiving the money.

Ning Haohan's heart finally settled down when he saw the money transfer.

As he was the nominal Chairman of the ningwen group, he knew the contents of his second brother's notary certificate.

It was only because his second brother had died too suddenly, and his lawyer had also been bribed. At that time, Chi Yang of the Chi family was still a child, and Chi Yuancheng had run off to God knows where because he had lost his son. In short, he had been away from the country for many years, so only he and his father knew that the shares of the ningwen group had been controlled.

Because of this, over the years, the ningwen group had only been receiving dividends verbally, but had no actual shares.

This was because he and his father knew that the ningwen group was not founded by ning Zhennan. The group that ning Zhennan had founded had already collapsed due to poor management. Only the ningwen group, which was founded by his second brother, ning Haoyu, survived. With their careful management, the ningwen group became a first-class rich and powerful group.

Therefore, although he was the chairman of the ningwen group, in fact, he had no share in the dividends.

That was why the nings had been so against ning Wenhao.

This was because once he returned to the ningwen group, the group would be his.

Ning Haohan was finally at ease when he saw that all the cash flow of the ningwen group that could be transferred had been transferred to his account.

“Chairman ning, ning Zhenzhen!”

2732 Why can't you die 4

“I’ve already transferred all the liquid funds that can be transferred to your account as per your instructions. I’m really sorry for what happened this time. I won’t take a single cent of the money you’ve given me. I beg you to let me go!”

When he was done, he looked at ning Haohan apologetically. It didn’t matter if he lost or if his knee was broken. as a hacker, he was prepared for retaliation. With such a big mistake, it would be fine as long as he didn’t die.

However, ning Haohan’s face was twisted.

“Let you go? You’ve caused the ning family to become like this, do you think I’ll let you go? “Kamu, you’re thinking too much! I really want to skin you alive! If it wasn’t for you, the ning family would’ve just transferred their money and wouldn’t have ended up in this state today. The hard work of several generations and hundreds of people has been destroyed by a lowly hacker like you. What makes you think I’ll let you go?”

Kahm’s eyes suddenly widened as he looked at the dagger that had already pierced into his heart before he could even finish his sentence. His eyes were filled with fear and despair.

“Save me! Save me, Yingluo, I can’t die! save me!”

“You can’t die?” “Why can’t you die?” ning Haohan sneered. You’re the one who should be cut into a thousand pieces!”

After Kahm’s death, ning Haohan had already called his son, ning Wenbo, and daughter, ning Hanyu, and asked them to pack up. His wife happened to be abroad, so they went there to live.

Although the ningwen Corporation only had around 3 billion in liquid capital, after the earthquake, the 11.8 billion that they had swallowed was now under their control.

Ning Haohan was sure that the 3.7 billion Yuan of liquid funds and the 11.8 billion Yuan of control had all been transferred to his account. At this moment, ning Haohan had a total of 15.5 billion Yuan of funds. He did not care about the ning family or the Ning Wen group anymore.

15.5 billion was enough for him to give up everything.

The money had been transferred to ning Haohan’s account, and kamu was dead. Ning Haohan was not afraid of him doing anything behind his back, so he was at ease.

This was his private residence, and the helicopter pilot was already prepared.

Since he had a special pass, ning Haohan was going to take the two children to the neighboring countries first, and then go abroad where he would live.

From then on, birds could fly freely in the sky, and the Kamino Kingdom could no longer control him.

Scold all you want.

Therefore, when PEI Jitong came to the ning family, there was no one who could talk to him except for the confused Butler.

The Butler obviously realized that something was wrong. After leading PEI Jitong to the hospital, he took away all the valuable things in the ning family while the owner was not around.

Because he had lived in the ning family for many years, many of the servants in the ning family were hired by him. The servants who were qualified to enter the main house were all his confidants and relatives.

So when the Butler brought his children, wife, and relatives to pack all the valuable things in the main house and even drove them away in a truck, the servants who had nothing to do with the Butler thought that the ning family needed to move these things to somewhere else. He even opened the door to send the Butler off.

When PEI Jitong arrived at the hospital, old master ning had just been pushed into the operating room.

Because the family doctor had asked them to immediately send him to the nearest tertiary Grade A hospital for emergency treatment, ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan did not send him to the Affiliated Hospital of the medical department.

but fortunately, it was delivered in time.

Chapter 2733

2733 Dumbfounded (1)

When the doctor told them that after a medical examination, elder ning had heart and brain problems. If he had been five minutes late, he would have died without a doubt, and there would not even be time to save him.

Ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan were scared out of their wits.

Because there was a professional family doctor around, after accompanying the elder for a full check-up, the family doctor told the mother and son that elder ning was in danger. Even if he could be saved, the best outcome would be paralysis or hemiplegia.

After Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi heard the results, they were stunned for a few minutes.

Although Xiao Yushan was the daughter of the Xiao family, old man Xiao was so angry that he was hospitalized after Xiao Yushan tried to interfere in ning Haoyu and Mao Yating's marriage, destroyed their marriage, and even gave birth to a child who might be his grandson or nephew with ning Zhennan.

After she was discharged from the hospital, master Xiao gave Xiao Yushan the Hengliang group and then cut off their father-daughter relationship.

Xiao Yushan had encountered many difficulties over the years, but no matter what, as long as she found old master Xiao, he would not help her.

Not only that, but Xiao Yushan had once provoked old man Xiao. Old man Xiao clearly knew that Xiao Yushan had suffered a loss, but in the end, he had helped her opponent. He also told her that the assets had been divided a long time ago. Other than her name not being removed from the genealogy, which was the last bit of dignity left for her mother, she didn't need to think too much about anything else. The more he thought, the more he would lose.

Xiao Yushan was so angry that she never looked for her father again.

Although she and ning Zhennan had always been a father-in-law and daughter-in-law to the outside world, and Xiao Yushan had always called ning Zhennan "dad", elder ning had always doted on and doted on this woman who had given birth to his son.

This was also the reason why Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi had been living well all these years.

It could be said that ning Wenqi was the most favored person in the entire ning family.

They had thought that one day, old master ning would leave them, but it was definitely not now. This was also the reason why ning Wenqi, a young master, had to go through the path of the combat Services Department.

Under elder ning's care, ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan believed that by the time elder ning passed away, ning Wenqi would have already established his own military campaign Department.

At that time, even if ning Haohan was in control of the ningwen group, he would not dare to mistreat the mother and son for the sake of the development of the ningwen group.

But what if elder ning suddenly died or had hemiplegia?

With a “bang,” ning Wenqi’s fist hit the wall. His eyes were red as he angrily roared, “Ning Wenhao, you ungrateful dog! What good would it do for him to destroy the ningwen group like this? Someone like him won’t even let his family off and is so cruel to them. What right does he have to be the Adjutant of the flying Eagles ‘Commander-in-Chief?’”

Xiao Yushan’s hatred for ning Wenhao would only be greater than for ning Wenqi.

She and the old master had originally made a good plan, but because of this accident, it could change dramatically.

Her son had not fully grown up yet, and they had not managed to take control of the Ning Wen group. If anything happened to elder ning at this time, wouldn’t they be done for?

Chapter 2734

2734 Begging for help (2)

“No, nothing can happen to your grandfather.” Xiao Yushan was silent for a while, then she called the family doctor in the ward.

“The doctors here aren’t good enough. Aren’t you from the medical department? Immediately call the principal of the medical department University and tell him that something has happened to the old master. Ask him to arrange for the best doctor to come over.”

On the other end of the phone, the family doctor was silent for a moment. He really wanted to say that after such a thing happened to the ning family, the principal of the medical department was so righteous that he probably wouldn’t care much about elder ning’s life or death.

However, after thinking about it, the family doctor did not say so. “Young Madam, it’s not appropriate for me to call the principal of the medical department University,” he said to Xiao Yushan. after all, i’m his subordinate. wanwan, why don’t i give you his phone number, and you can call him to explain the situation and ask him to send someone to perform the surgery on the old master? In short, with the old man’s health, it’s not suitable for him to be transferred to another hospital.”

“Okay, send me his number immediately.”

Xiao Yushan received a text message soon after she hung up the phone. She dialed the number without hesitation.

Xu Ming had just finished watching the press conference. Although he felt good about ning Wenhao’s embarrassment, he felt angry when he thought about how the ning family could do something so dirty.

At that moment, his phone rang.

The call was from an unknown number, but his phone was a private one. Under normal circumstances, no one would call him, so Xu Ming still answered.

“Hello,” he said.

Hey! Xu Ming said, and a woman’s voice came over like a cannon.

“Hello, are you principal Xu? I’m Xiao Yushan, the young lady of the ning family. Just now, our family’s old man suddenly had a headache and a heart attack. He was sent to the Third People’s Hospital of dizhou. however, our family doctor said that for an emergency situation like our family’s old man, where both of them acted up at the same time, even if he can be saved now, he can only save his life after the rescue is over. Most of the time, he will be unable to speak or move. Even in the best case, he will be severely paralysed. This way, our family’s old master’s life will be ruined. Could you please send an expert to dizhou’s third People’s Hospital? our family’s old man has been inside for more than 10 minutes. quickly get someone to come over within half an hour, preferably within 15 minutes! Otherwise, our family’s old master will be in danger.”

Xu Ming listened to his introduction for a long time before he realized who the person on the phone was.

This woman should be elder Xiao’s daughter who had grown up in a bad way and was chased out of the Xiao family. At the same time, he was also a part of the ning family who was in trouble.

Xu Ming was a hot-blooded man with a strong sense of justice. in addition, the incident with nangong nuannuan at the hospital had made him feel very good. now, he had actually met the person who had harmed nangong nuannuan.

He was still in a fit of anger and hoped that the ning family would fall from grace, but the ning family had actually come to him for help.

This ning Zhennan had always been a person who took advantage of loopholes and loopholes, but one day, he finally kicked an iron plate.

For some reason, after hearing Xiao Yushan’s anxious voice and ning Zhennan’s sudden illness, the depression in his heart was relieved a lot.

Ming Xu was not a person who liked to speak in an official tone. As the principal, he would try his best to arrange for the specialists from the various affiliated hospitals of the War Department to treat the retired soldiers who entered the hospital.

Chapter 2735

2735 I’m willing to pay however much it is (3)

If it had been elder Chi, elder Nangong, or elder Xiao who had been in the same situation, he would have immediately called all the brain and heart terrors experts, then rushed over in person, had a quick consultation with them, and come up with a plan in the shortest time possible to carry out the rescue.

However, when the person was elder ning, Xu Ming’s attitude changed.

“So it’s young Madam ning. As far as I know, dizhou’s third People’s Hospital is also a tertiary Grade A hospital. Does this hospital not have an expert in cardiovascular and cerebrovascular diseases? Why do we still need to send people from the medical department?”

Xiao Yushan had never been in contact with Xu Ming, so she didn't know what kind of person he was. She didn't know that he was deliberately trying to avoid saving her. She just felt that Xu Ming's question was too unprofessional, and her voice unconsciously rose a few notches.

"How can an expert from the cardiology department of a tertiary Grade A hospital be qualified to treat our old man? Our family's old man is the Kamino Kingdom's general, how could he let a specialist from a mere Grade A hospital treat him? If our old man really becomes seriously paralyzed or even dies, who's going to be responsible?"

Xu Ming smiled slightly. Hearing that the other party was angry, the knot in his heart was even less. "Young Madam ning, you may not know much about the establishment of the hospital. The best hospital in our country is a tertiary Grade A hospital. As long as it has the qualification to be a tertiary Grade A hospital, it is a good hospital. An expert in the cardiology department of a tertiary Grade A hospital would at least be an Associate Professor. If even an Associate Professor of the cardiology department couldn't help old general ning recover, then it wouldn't be of much use even if an expert professor was sent to the hospital. As for who will be in charge of this matter, young Madam ning, you don't think that if old general ning is really paralyzed, I should be in charge of this matter, do you?"

Xiao Yushan also felt that her last sentence was a little too much. After all, he was the principal of the medical department University. Not only did he manage the medical department University, but he also managed the Affiliated Hospital of the medical department University. He was a Lieutenant General.

"Principal Xu, please don't misunderstand, I definitely didn't mean it that way," he immediately said. I just thought that my family's old man's life is more precious, so of course he should be treated by the best experts and professors. Although experts from tertiary Grade A hospitals can still perform surgery on ordinary people, we still have more confidence in the experts and professors from the Affiliated Hospital of the medical department University."

"Mrs. Ning, with all due respect, although this surgery is not easy to perform, an ordinary expert can do it. The experts and professors from the hospital would not do much better than the tertiary Grade A experts. the point is, if you really want me to find a specialist, I'll still need to contact him. After contacting him, the specialist will need to rush to the hospital you're at. It's lunchtime now, and the traffic is heavy. If the specialist dares to go to your place for a consultation, he might have missed the best time for emergency treatment. However, I do know an expert who is very good in the nervous system. If she does the surgery, there is a 90% chance that old general ning will recover. I just don't know if she'll be willing to perform the surgery for your old general."

Xiao Yushan thought that Xu Ming was deliberately trying to avoid her question, but after hearing the last sentence, her eyes lit up. "Who is he? Principal Xu, as long as he's willing to perform the surgery for our old man, we're willing to pay any amount."

Chapter 2736

2736 Hang me on the internet (4)

Xu Ming muttered, "this isn't a matter of money. She doesn't lack money. You actually know this person, and your grandson, ning Wenhao, is on good terms with her."

Xiao Yushan thought of ning Wenhao when she mentioned her grandson. But she still asked, "are you talking about ning Wenhao?"

"Yes, it's Adjutant ning."

"Then, Zhenzhen, who is this person?"

"Nangong Nuannuan."

Xiao Yushan was speechless.

Not only Xiao Yushan, but even ning Wenqi could tell that the principal was making fun of the ning family.

Ning Wenqi had a bad temper to begin with. Now that their backer had fallen, the ning family was also in the eye of the storm because of that prodigal son, ning Wenhao. He was already so angry and worried, and now a small principal dared to show off in front of the ning family.

Ning Wenqi felt that no matter what happened to the ning family in the future, at least the ning family hadn't collapsed yet. Xu Ming's rank wasn't as high as his grandfather's, so what right did he have to say that about them?

"xu ming, my grandfather is a general. as the vice-chancellor of the military medical university, what right do you have to say such things when my grandfather is in critical condition? I know that you guys have a good relationship with the Nangong family, so after watching the live broadcast of the press conference, you think that you don't have to care about my grandfather's life anymore when the ning family is about to fall, right? But don't forget, you're in charge of the hospital, and every patient needs your care. Aren't you afraid that I'll post what you just said on the internet if you treat my grandfather like this?"

Xu Ming was scolded, but not only was he not angry, he smiled happily.

She felt that everyone in the ning family, except for ning Wenhao, might be fools.

"Young master ning, if you think that I'm wrong or that I'm just patronizing your family, you can just post what I said online."

"What do you mean I think? you know that the nings are not on good terms with the nangong family and that nangong nuannuan would definitely not save her, yet you're suggesting it to us. Aren't you deliberately stirring up trouble?" Ning Wenqi angrily rebuked.

"Young master ning, I'm the president of the military Medical University. My family isn't involved in the business field, so I don't have so much time to deliberately frame others or stir up trouble. I'm only recommending Nangong Nuannuan to you because she's an expert in the field of medicine. Even the experts and professors in our cardiology department can't compare to her. If an expert from a tertiary Grade A hospital was compared to an expert from our hospital, the success rate of the surgery performed by our hospital's expert would be higher by 3%, while Nangong Nuannuan's success rate would be higher by more than 70%. This is also the reason why I recommended her to you. However, since you think I'm trying to stir up trouble, I'll stop here. you can post what i said on the internet, or you can find someone else. Please go ahead."

After that, Xu Ming hung up the phone.

This kind of person was a total scum of society. He didn't go to the hospital for treatment anyway, so what obligation did he have to help them?

Ning Wenqi was so angry that he threw Xiao Yushan's phone against the wall.

Because he used a lot of strength, the phone broke.

"Why did you throw my phone away? How am I supposed to find someone to save your grandfather now that you've smashed my phone?"

Chapter 2737

2737 Begging ning Wenhao (1)

ning wenqi was startled, and only then did he react. his mother's phone still had the numbers of many big shots. now that he had thrown the phone, they really couldn't find a single person.

"Young Madam, have you called principal Xu? What did he say?" The ning family's doctor hurriedly came out of the operating room, his face anxious.

"Hmph, that Xu Ming probably thinks that we've offended the Nangong family and we have no way out. Not only did he not find an expert for the old man, but he also asked us to find Nangong Nuannuan! Nangong Nuannuan could indeed treat lung diseases, but could she treat cardiovascular and cerebrovascular diseases? He was simply too much! He's just trying to embarrass us."

The family doctor could not help but frown when he heard that. "Young Madam, you don't know?"

"Know what?"

"Nangong Nuannuan is indeed an all-rounder genius. Not only was she able to cure those who had been poisoned in the lungs, but she also performed a heart transplant operation on an Earl in the forum country. the key was that the earl had come to kamino two days ago. the professor at the hospital had specially given him a checkup and found out that his heart surgery had zero rejection. Do you know that all those who have had heart and bone marrow transplant surgeries need to reject the foreign substances? the process can take up to five years. many people would have problems in the next five years, so they had to take medicine for a long time. However, the Earl had zero rejection, so he didn't need to take any medicine. This had completely shocked the medical world. That's why Principal Xu didn't deliberately embarrass you."

Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi were shocked by the family doctor's words.

The third richest man in the world was actually a general practitioner?

At that moment, Xiao Yushan was filled with regret.

"It's all your third uncle's fault. Why did he have to harm Nangong Nuannuan? Now, she didn't hurt her, but she hurt herself instead. She can't even get your grandfather's surgery done by her!"

“Young Madam, I came out to tell you something. The old man’s condition isn’t very good. The experts inside said that at most, he could only save one life. It’s very likely that the old man will be completely paralyzed or in a vegetative state in the future.”

“What?” Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi’s expressions changed.

“It’s exactly as you heard. The old man’s condition isn’t good. We can only let the expert continue with the operation or contact miss Nangong and ask her to do it.”

Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi looked at each other. They didn’t understand why the plot had taken such a sharp turn.

Qi, why don’t you give ning Wenhao a call? ”

“He has already blacklisted me. How am I supposed to contact him?”

Xiao Yushan:

The two of them suddenly looked at the family doctor at the same time. Dr. Pang, ah Hao has blocked our numbers. Why don’t you give him a call with your phone? ”

Although the family doctor was in a difficult position, he still used his own phone to call ning Wenhao.

at this time, ning wenhao had returned to the ward from the press conference.

Many onlookers were unwilling to leave and gathered at the hospital’s ground floor. they were all worried about chi yang’s condition and nangong nuannuan’s mood. He was helping disheng to appeal for the ning family to get out of Kamino and make the ning family close down.

After ning Wenhao returned to the ward, his phone rang while elder Chi and elder Nangong were praising him.

2738 You might have gotten something wrong (2)

Ning Wenhao wasn’t familiar with the family doctor, so he didn’t have a phone number, so he answered the call.

“Hello, is this ah Hao? Your grandfather is in the hospital because of a heart attack and a cerebral infarction. He’s in critical condition, and the doctor has already issued a notice of critical illness. Principal Xu Ming from the medical University said that only miss Nangong can perform the surgery for your grandfather. As long as miss Nangong takes action, we have a 90% chance of winning.”

ning wenhao moved the phone away from his ear. he looked at the phone to make sure he was not dreaming, then put the phone back to his ear.

after going through such a thing, which leg of yours do you think my sister-in-law would forget about the past and go to treat him? ”

“Ah Hao, don’t be like this. He’s your grandfather! Your own grandfather! No matter what he had done wrong, blood was thicker than water! How can you leave your own grandfather in the lurch? Aren’t you a member of Eagle? You’re an official in Eagle, and you can even be so noble to those ordinary people you don’t know. You can even sacrifice your life, so why can you be so cold-blooded to your own blood relatives?”

Ning Wenhao sneered, ‘I didn’t expect you to use the word cold-blooded, aunt Xiao.’ since you know what cold-blooded means, then you should know that the ningwen group that my father founded belongs to my mother and me. For so many years, that so-called grandfather helped you and my mother to control the ningwen group. When I was in urgent need of 20000 Yuan for the hospital fees for my meningmeng, you didn’t give me a single cent and drove my mother out of the ning family, saying that she would never accept a bastard child like me into the ning family for the rest of her life. Why didn’t you think that you were cold-blooded? Why don’t you think that my blood-related grandfather should save my life?”

Xiao Yushan:

“Hehe, I’m fine. I have nothing to do with the ning family anymore. If what happened before doesn’t count, I’ve made it clear at the press conference that I, ning Wenhao, have nothing to do with the ning family. That’s why I don’t understand what blood ties are.”

“A Hao. Your grandfather is in a critical condition now. If you have any grievances, can you come back and vent them on aunt Xiao? Quickly tell miss Nangong to come and perform an operation on your grandfather and save his life. The ning family has become what it is now, and we can’t do without your grandfather!”

“What does it have to do with me what the ning family has become? What does it have to do with me that ning Zhennan is sick? Xiao Yushan, are you out of your mind? You just killed my sister-in-law and now you want her to save him? On what basis?”

“Just because she’s a doctor! If she was a good doctor, she would have saved the enemy even if they were right in front of her!”

“I’m sorry, Ms. Xiao. You might have made a mistake. My sister-in-law is a businessman, not a doctor.”

“She’s clearly a doctor! Even the principal of the medical department University said that she’s the best in this area!”

“No, you’re wrong. My sister-in-law is only very skilled in medicine, but she’s not a doctor. She’s a businessman. Have you forgotten that disheng group that you just destroyed belongs to her? If my sister-in-law had to save just about anyone, then what was the point of her being a businessman?

After all, she’s not a Saint. After people tried to kill her, she still had to help the other party, so that she could cure the other party and then mess with her again.”

Chapter 2739

2739 I’ll help you release 3

Xiao Yushan was furious at ning Wenhao's words, but she also knew that it was not the time to be angry. She also knew that ning Wenhao and Nangong Nuannuan would love to see them dead, but she couldn't let elder ning become a cripple. otherwise, she and her son would be really annoyed in the future.

"Ning Wenhao, I know you don't like me or Qi, so all these years you've been trying to kick me out of the ning family and let your mother come home. However, the old man is your grandfather after all. There are only wrong children in this world, but where are the wrong parents? Now that your grandfather's life is at stake, you're making such sarcastic remarks to me. As a member of the combat Services Department, are you going to just watch your grandfather die without saving him? Even though Nangong Nuannuan was a businessman from disheng, she was still a family member of the combat Department. As a prostitute, was it right for her to be petty and leave people in the lurch? Aren't you afraid that I'll post our conversation on the internet? Aren't you afraid that the reputation that you've just built up will be destroyed again?"

Xiao Yushan knew that she should ask ning Wenhao for help, but she was used to bossing him around. because in her eyes, ning wenhao was a bastard child, the child of a mistress. Xiao Yushan's biggest failure was that even though she had married the man she loved the most, she had never been able to get together with him because of the existence of this third party. In the end, she had a child with the old man by accident.

Ning Wenhao and her mother were like poisonous thorns in her heart.

Xiao Yushan couldn't pull the Stinger out no matter how hard she tried. Even if she begged ning Wenhao, she still couldn't act submissively.

"Then I won't trouble you with this, Ms. Xiao," ning Wenhao smiled. Since you want to put this conversation on the internet, I'll help you. I would like to post your reasonable words on the internet and ask everyone to comment on it. Let's see if your thoughts are right or mine. For some reason, he felt that the world had been turned upside down.

I would like to use this chat record to ask many netizens if the people of the combat service department deserve to die. Even if they almost lost their lives, they still have to help the other party. If they don't help, they don't deserve to be part of the combat service department. I also want to ask, as a wife of a prostitute, is it necessary to treat and save people regardless of whether you are a doctor or not when you have excellent medical skills? If she didn't save him, she wouldn't be worthy of being a prostitute, even if the other party had just wanted to kill her completely a moment ago. If the netizens agree, then I'm willing to take off my battle uniform. Xiao Yushan, you really disgust me!"

Ning Wenhao didn't want to mess with Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi. After all, he felt that ning Wenqi was not worth his effort. In addition, he admired old master Xiao a lot. Even though the old man had cut off his father-daughter relationship with Xiao Yushan, they were still father and daughter by blood.

However, Xiao Yushan had shamelessly come to his sister-in-law for help after what she had done to the ning family. If she didn't help, she would expose his sister-in-law. Ning Wenhao was completely disgusted.

After hanging up on Xiao Yushan, ning Wenhao immediately posted their conversation on Weibo without any filter.

Originally, he didn't have a Weibo account, but he registered one for this press conference.

Chapter 2740

2740 Why don't you all go to hell (4)

In just one day, ning Wenhao's Weibo account had more than 50 million fans. It was almost comparable to the number of fans in the A-list.

Although there was nothing else on the Weibo page other than the news of the press conference, many people were still fans of ning Wenhao and followed his Weibo.

Therefore, when ning Wenhao posted what Xiao Yushan had said, Weibo exploded.

this time, not only did ning wenhao post the conversation between xiao yushan and him, but he also posted the dna test of xiao yushan, who claimed to be ning haoyu's wife and had given birth to a child of elder ning.

Originally, the ning family was his father's family. He didn't want to push the ning family to their deaths like this, but the ning family had never been able to wring the truth out.

Since they thought that he, ning Wenhao, was easy to bully, and that he was still as easy to talk to as his mother, even after they had tortured him to death, he would be fine. Then, he would make them lose their right to speak.

Only when they lost their right to speak and couldn't even guarantee their basic lives would they stop thinking about causing trouble all day long.

ning wenhao's posts were getting more and more explosive, and his fans were cursing the rotten ning family.

Xiao Yushan had wanted ning Wenhao to plead with Nangong Nuannuan, but it didn't work out. She didn't threaten Nangong Nuannuan either. The recording of the call and ning Wenqi's background were also posted on the internet.

Xiao Yushan was already angry, but less than five minutes after she hung up the phone, ning Wenqi's Weibo began to ring.

After ning Wenhao registered his Weibo account, they had followed him secretly and even set a special reminder. When ning Wenhao posted on Weibo, Xiao Yushan's phone was broken by ning Wenqi, but ning Wenqi's phone was still in good condition. He received a notification immediately.

When he opened it, ning Wenqi was so angry that he almost smashed his own phone.

mom, ning Wenhao is going to ruin me!

ning wenqi was very angry because ning wenhao had always given in to him. as long as he, ning wenqi, wanted anything from the ning family, ning wenhao had never been able to get it. Therefore, ning Wenqi was already used to ning Wenhao being at a disadvantage. he had suddenly suffered a huge loss, and it was a continuous loss. how could ning wenqi accept this?

In a situation where he was flustered and exasperated and at his wit's end, ning Wenqi was actually so angry that he cried.

xiao yushan was also confused by ning wenqi's expression. she quickly went over to see what else ning wenhao had sent besides their call records.

She almost fainted from anger.

Xiao Yushan cursed as she endured the churning blood in her body and the dizziness in her eyes.

"Ning Wenhao, you bastard! This shameless bastard child who doesn't care about his life! how could he dare to provoke him? how could he dare to post such a thing? He was simply too much! This was too much! i knew that the bastard child of that slut mao yating would be the most disgusting in the world!"

It had only been five minutes since ning Wenhao posted on Weibo, but there were already more than 100000 comments. Xiao Yushan felt her hands shaking.

"f * ck," as expected, there was no such thing as the most despicable, only more despicable. This group of people from the ning family are simply despicable to the extreme!

[you guys pushed such a good brother Nuan to death for a little benefit. Now, you want brother Nuan to save someone. Not only did you not kneel in front of my brother Nuan and lick her feet, but you even dared to use my brother Nuan's identity to make trouble.] What's wrong with a prostitute? Should a prostitute be trampled on by you? Why don't you all go to hell?
