Chapter 2741

2741 This bastard (1)

I should just die! That damn old man from the Ning family must have been angered by Adjutant Ning and my brother Nuan, which is why he's having a headache. He deserved it!

[ please don't insult my brother Nuan, okay? ] Old man Ning is definitely jrrr, why is it my brother Nuan's fault? "

The curses on the internet were endless, and Xiao Yushan didn't dare to continue watching.

It was also at this moment that the call from the combat Services Department came in.

Ning Wenqi looked and saw that it was his direct superior. He had a bad feeling in his heart, but he still picked up the phone.

"Ning Wenqi, you've already applied for a few days of leave. please return to the command post tomorrow. this is related to the deployment of your personnel. "

"Commander, may I ask what Qianqian's transfer order is?" Ning Wenqi was shocked.

"You can only tell me this after you come. if there's nothing else, i'm hanging up."

but, commander, my grandfather suddenly fell ill today and is still in the operating room. Can I take a few more days off? "

It was a normal thing to do, but the other party didn't even think about it and said directly, "There are 365 days in a year. As a major, you're on leave half of the time. Ning Wenqi, if you don't wish to continue staying in the combat service department, you can just let me know, and I will help you remove your name."

Struck off?

How was that possible?

He had such a good background, why did his grandfather force him to enter the combat Services Department? It was because only by having a firm foothold in the official career could he have a breakthrough in business. Would he only have a share in the Ningwen group if he could keep his career?

How could he be removed?

Although he didn't go to the Army much, his grandfather always dragged his subordinates to take him on dangerous missions. Although they worked together as a team, he was able to become a major at a young age because he had fought for his future with his life.

"Commander, I understand. I will return to the combat Services Department tomorrow morning."

the other party heard ning wenqi's words and directly hung up the phone.

"Qi? Why is your commander calling you at this time to ask you to go back? No, don't tell me this has something to do with this?"

At this moment, ning Wenqi was so angry that his veins were bulging. He roared, "How can it not be related? of course it was related! The combat Services Department is a place that values reputation the most. Now that the ning family's face has been lost by ning Wenhao, what good can it do to ask me to go back now? ning wenhao is really torturing me!"

Xiao Yushan was also in tears.

"This bastard! He's trying to kill us! Wuwuwuwu, what should I do now? What should we do now?"

Ning Wenqi was already filled with hatred. if he really makes me lose everything, I will definitely not let him off.

"What else can we do? he's so strong, backed by the eagle eye group, and has better financial, material, and human relations than us. what do you have to compete with him? forget it, ah qi, listen to mom. let's not fight with him anymore. let's go and apologize to him! otherwise, what will happen to us if the ning family collapses?"

Suddenly, the ning family's bodyguard came to report that PEI Jitong had arrived.

Although Xiao Yushan looked down on PEI Jitong, she knew that he had been in contact with ning Haohan before. This time, both of their families had suffered together to frame Nangong Nuannuan. Although she was confused as to why Pei Jitong came to find her and not ning Haohan, Xiao Yushan still agreed to let him enter the VIP waiting room.

2742 The chairman is missing (2) xiao yushan and her son had been busy with the hospital, so they didn't watch the live broadcast. He thought that the result would definitely be that the ning Corporation was in trouble.

However, when PEI Jitong told them what they would do if ning Wenhao took back ningwen group in the future, Xiao Yushan and her son opened their eyes wide and looked at the replay in disbelief.

When they saw ning Wenhao placing ning Haoyu's will and notary certificate in front of everyone, Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi felt as if all their energy had been drained.

He was finished.

he was completely finished!

He had thought that even if ning Wenhao was at Flying Eagle, he wouldn't know about the will as long as the lawyer didn't tell him anything about it. who knew that not only did he know about it, but he had already obtained it.

if he did not plan to take back the ningwen group before, he would definitely take it back after what the nings did.

Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi sat on the sofa helplessly as they looked at the comments that almost exploded.

“You guys don’t have to worry too much. I can’t contact Chairman ning now, but in addition to the PEI family, there’s another family that has benefited even more from this-the Shi family. Chairman ning had evidence that the ning family had transferred the donations from the other families to the Shi family. As long as Chairman ning took out this evidence and threatened the Shi family, whether it was the PEI family or the ning family, they should not be completely destroyed so easily. I believe that for the sake of this evidence, Chairman Shi will also help us out in private.”

Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi were moved by PEI Jitong’s words.

Ning Wenqi called ning Haohan to discuss this matter, but no one picked up the phone.

Ning Wenqi called ning Haohan a few more times, but he still didn’t answer.

Knowing that ning Haohan was probably busy with the company’s Affairs, ning Wenqi called ning Haohan’s Special Assistant.

Unexpectedly, after the special Assistant received ning Wenqi’s call, he didn’t wait for ning Wenqi to speak and directly said, “Master Qi, that’s great! You’ve finally called me. I called the chairman, you, the young Madam, and the old master, but none of them got through. You’ve all watched the press conference, right? Now, many reporters and citizens had surrounded the group’s headquarters, demanding an explanation from the ning Corporation. They also wanted the ning Corporation to spit out the money they had taken.

The Censorate had already called and said that they would be here in about ten minutes. He said that he wanted to come to our ning Corporation to check our accounts. The chairman couldn’t be contacted. I can’t handle such a big situation by myself!”

The more ning Wenqi heard, the more he felt that something was wrong. He interrupted the special Assistant’s words, “What did you just say? You couldn’t get through to the Chairman’s phone? We didn’t get through?”

“yeah, if you didn’t call me, i wouldn’t have been able to find anyone. Master Qi, is the chairman with you? Please get the chairman to answer the phone!”

Ning Wenqi subconsciously felt that something was wrong. After all, he was also someone who loved to compete with ning Wenhao since he was young. Therefore, she almost thought that ning Haohan had run away.

but on second thought, he felt that it was impossible. After all, his grandfather was not dead yet. Where was he going to go?

Just as he was about to let Xiao Yushan find ning Haohan, who knew that his pig teammate PEI Jitong would say, “There’s indeed something wrong with your phone.”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2743

2743 Something's wrong (3)

"I actually went to the ning family to look for the Butler before, but I couldn't get through to your phone. it was the butler who told me that something had happened to the old master. i called you on the way here, but i couldn't get through to you. Could it have been blocked by Nangong Nuannuan? After all, they can even find a hacker better than Kahm."

When ning Wenqi heard this, he felt that this should be the case.

after all, her grandfather had always been in charge of the ning family, and everyone knew that ning haohan was just a puppet.

"grandpa's old illness has relapsed, so i'm accompanying him in the hospital," she said after counting the time. Her third uncle was already on his way to the company. If he hadn't arrived yet, he must have been stopped on the road. however, he had bodyguards with him. Just wait a little longer, he'll definitely be here soon."

the special assistant contacted ning wenqi and was not as anxious as before. he said, " " okay, then i'll tell everyone that the old man is sick. in two hours, our chairman will personally explain it to everyone. " ning wenqi thought for a moment. other than lowering himself, apologizing, and making up for his misdeeds, there was no other way out.

Fortunately, the money had just been transferred to the ning family's account and had not been used yet. otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"tell third uncle that he must apologize very sincerely, and then let third uncle persuade ning jiwu and the others. let ning jiwu bear most of the consequences. our ning family actually didn't know. In particular, he had to get rid of the old master's side and not let his grandfather's reputation be destroyed. Otherwise, the ning family will have a hard time again."

"yes, i know. Don't worry, master Qi. We'll definitely show you the proper attitude and attitude."

Oh right, when third uncle comes, tell him to call my landline number. It's xxxxxx. If you need anything, call this number directly.

"Yes."

Although the special Assistant was the Chairman's Special Assistant, ning Haohan, the other party was his man. Because the old man was the one in charge of the ningwen group, and he was the old man's favorite person, many people understood that the ningwen group would be his, ning Wenqi's, in the future. Hence, he used them.

after hanging up the phone, ning wenqi and xiao yushan thought about the shi family, and they finally calmed down.

The mother and son began to curse ning Wenhao again. the curses were extremely unpleasant to hear.

The surgery was still ongoing. Half an hour later, the special Assistant called the hospital.

Looking at the caller ID, ning Wenqi immediately asked, "Third uncle?"

"Young master ning, it's me. Why isn't the chairman here yet? Who was the bodyguard beside him? Tell me, or I'll call and ask."

"Hurry up and ask. His bodyguards today are in Group Three."

"Alright," he said.

PEI Jitong had been sitting here with ning Wenqi, watching them look for ning Haohan. Suddenly, he had a bad feeling.

Within three minutes, the special Assistant called again.

"Master Qi, something doesn't seem right. None of the bodyguards in Group 3 picked up the phone."

Ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan's hearts sank.

PEI Jitong also sank with him.

"Why didn't anyone pick up?"

Ning Wenqi immediately hung up the call and called ning Haohan. However, no one picked up the phone.

Ning Wenqi immediately called the Butler, but the Butler's phone number was not in service.

Ning Wenqi's forehead was covered in sweat.

2744 Frozen funds (4)

"What's wrong? No one picked up?" PEI Jitong also couldn't sit still. Although it was the ning family's matter, he had to come and ask.

Ning Wenhao was now out of his mind. The old man was inside, and it was unknown whether he was alive or dead. Ning Haohan could not be contacted. Although PEI Jitong was an outsider, he had to inform the other party and try to ask for help.

my third uncle, all the bodyguards who protected him today, and even the Butler didn't answer their calls.

PEI Jitong's face instantly turned pale and he said, "Immediately ask my Special Assistant to check if the company's funds have been reduced. If not, freeze it immediately."

ning wenqi and xiao yushan looked at pei jitong with their eyes wide open. it was as if the string in their minds had suddenly broken.

Ning Wenqi immediately called his Special Assistant and authorized the finance department through the old man to check the information immediately.

“Master Qi, the funds have not decreased. All of the Ning group’s funds, including the funds that were previously swallowed and transferred to the Ning group, are still in the account.”

Ning Wenqi’s face, which had already turned pale from fright, quickly regained color.

The phone was on speaker, so PEI Jitong also heard it. He couldn’t help but immediately order, “Then quickly freeze all the funds and don’t let anyone touch any funds before the old man wakes up. Hurry up.”

The special Assistant did not know who was speaking and was stunned for a moment. Ning Wenqi couldn’t help but shout, “I told you to hurry up, so hurry up!” First, freeze all the funds.”

As she spoke, her heart, which had just calmed down, was hanging up again.

“Yes.”

The special Assistant was about to hang up when Ning Wenqi said, “don’t hang up. Tell the finance department to freeze all the funds immediately. Then, ask the China financial administration to freeze the funds.

After all, Ning Haohan had just sent someone to catch Carm. Although he was the main culprit who had caused the Ning family to become like this, he had his ways of killing the Nings even if he could not kill Nangong Nuannuan. If Camu wanted to transfer the funds, they wouldn’t be able to stop him. So, the best result would be to directly transfer all the funds to the China financial administration.

This way, he could at least gain a good reputation. He would be able to give an explanation to the command post tomorrow.

Ning Wenqi had done the right thing and thought very well. After all, this money could not be kept.

However, his only weakness was his slow reaction. His reflex arc had also become longer.

The special Assistant heard Ning Wenqi’s order and immediately froze the funds. Then, this matter of repairing his face would naturally be done by Ning Wenqi.

Ning Wenqi quickly called the China financial administration and asked them to freeze the Ning corporation’s funds. The China financial administration knew that this incident had a serious impact on society and agreed. Hence, they found professionals to seize the Ning corporation’s assets through the internet.

However, as soon as it was seized, the finance department frowned.

After Ning Wenqi made the call to the China financial administration, he finally felt relieved.

He had made a contribution and the combat service department had an explanation. There shouldn’t be any changes to his official position.

After this incident, Ning Wenhao would take back the shares of the Ningwen group, so the group would no longer be his. It’s fine even if you hand it over.

All that was left was to hope that the situation on the old man’s side would not be too bad.

Even if he had partial paralysis, as long as it wasn't too severe, he could still control the ning family's situation.

This could be considered a blessing in misfortune.

PEI Jitong, who was at the side, also felt relieved.

Chapter 2745

2745 I'll have to trouble the police department to make a trip 1 after all, if the funds were not used, it meant that ning haohan had not run away. As long as he didn't run away, he would definitely be able to get the evidence.

therefore, they guessed that the people must have been too excited and stopped ning haohan on the road.

However, what they didn't know was that when the China financial administration found out that the ning family's assets were empty, they didn't tell ning Wenqi immediately. Instead, they reported the matter to the finance department. The financial department reported to the president immediately.

The president was furious and asked the police department to immediately send people to arrest all the people who might have come into contact with the ning family's funds, and focus on monitoring every person in the ning family.

While the old man was still in the operating room and PEI Jitong was waiting for ning Haohan's call with ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan outside the operating room, the police had arrived.

are you ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan? "

When they saw the police, both mother and son thought that the police were here to question them about the press conference.

Ning Wenqi slightly pursed his lips and said with the attitude of a victim, " "you're here to ask about the donation? My grandfather was very angry about what happened to the ning Corporation. He had a brain and heart attack in a fit of anger and is now in the operating room. I hope that the police can give the ning family some face and wait until my grandfather's surgery is over. As for the ning family's funds, I've already spoken to the China financial administration and asked them to regulate the funds. As an officer of the combat service department, I can't do anything about it. Please go to my third uncle ning Haohan for the details. He is the chairman of the Ning Wen group."

When the police heard ning Wenqi's words, they couldn't help but laugh.

"Face? Your ning family embezzled the life-saving money of the disaster victims at will, transferred the donations of enterprises to your own at will, and even shamelessly framed others. Families and businesses like yours have long lost their face in the eyes of the people."

Usually, the people in the police department would be polite to anyone from the ning family, even if they were subordinates. Who would dare to say anything?

At this moment, the police officer was scolding the ning family in front of him.

ning wenqi's brows furrowed, and his entire person became fierce.

when the police officer saw this, he couldn't help but say, " "what, are we wrong? Young master ning and old Madam ning, you are suspected of annexing and transferring assets. Please come with us to the police station."

After saying that, a group of police officers suddenly rushed in from outside and arrested ning Wenqi while he resisted.

Although ning Wenqi had some skills, the other party was a police officer. Even if he resisted, it would be useless. So, he resisted in anger, but he could only let the police arrest him.

"Tell me clearly, what do you mean by transferring assets? I clearly handed it over to the China financial administration to handle!"

"Young master ning, don't tell me you don't know about the transfer of the ning family's assets! Hehe, take away all the funds and leave a good-looking account book there. Then hand the account book over to the China financial administration. Do you think that the China financial administration will take the blame for the ning family?"

Ning Wenqi, Xiao Yushan, and PEI Jitong's eyes widened.

Ning Wenqi was the one who couldn't accept it the most. He shook his head and tried his best to explain, "No, I didn't know about this! My third uncle must have done this. We're also trying to contact my third uncle, but neither I nor his Special Assistant can find him. Hurry up and go after my third uncle. You can't let him run out of the country. We must stop him in the country."

Chapter 2746

As ning Wenqi spoke, he tried to use his already cuffed hands to touch the police officer's hands, trying his best to convince the other party to believe him.

But now, the ning family had become sheep-herding children. After their scandal had been exposed by ning Wenhao, the ning family was already unforgivable and beyond redemption.

Especially Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi, who seemed to have gone even further than ning Haohan. After ning Wenhao uploaded the recording of their conversation onto the internet and exposed the ning family's scandal, the mother and son were no different from rats on the street.

Thus, the police didn't care about what ning Wenqi said. He sneered, "hehe, your ning family is really an ancestor of scheming!" Not only do you want to embezzle more than 10 billion in charity funds, but you also want to kill the Nangong family with one stone and give your family a place in the economic development. Now that your scandal has been exposed, transfer all your assets. then, you act like a victim of money theft, as if you're facing a great enemy. Then, you put on the image of a good grandson who cares about the elderly. Do you think that the people won't be angry when they know that your old man is in the hospital? Or do you think that by pretending to be the victim and not knowing what to do, we will believe your nonsense?"

the other police officer couldn't help but say angrily, "Who doesn't know that although the chairman of the ningwen group is ning Haohan, the actual person in charge is your elder ning? Who doesn't know that your achievements in the combat service department were not because of your father? Master Qi, just because you're from a good family doesn't mean you're smarter than us. This is such a clumsy act of transferring assets. Whether you know it or not, you have to come with us to the police station today."

Ning Wenqi roared angrily, "whether or not I've transferred my assets, you can just check my mother's and my bank accounts." Or where the money went, you just need to find out who took the money. My grandfather is in critical condition, my third uncle ran away with the money, and my eldest uncle is in the Chuzhou war service department. If my mother and I are called in by you, what will happen here? If anything happens to my grandfather, will you be responsible?"

"Ning Wenqi!" The police officer shouted, "do you still think that you are the son of a first-class family? do you think that you can ignore the police just because you are rich and powerful? You and your mom broke the law, so you have to follow us back to the police station. As for this place, even if someone were to die, you have to come back with us today! If you want to reason, please go to the police station first, then hire a lawyer, and then file a lawsuit for yourself! Take him away!"

The police were angered by ning Wenqi's rudeness. They already felt that the ning family was particularly hateful. In addition, they heard that the president had already ordered a thorough investigation of the ning family's case and suspended all the relatives of the ning family in the audit and donation Association. They had also ordered for this matter to be dealt with strictly. It was clear that the ning family was finished.

He still dared to be so arrogant even after he was done for. He was simply bullying people.

Xiao Yushan knew that the ning family was in deep trouble when she saw that the police were not even afraid of elder ning's only two relatives. His eyes widened, and he could not say a word before he fainted.

Today's series of blows was simply devastating to her.

2747 Messing with the Shi family (3)

"let go of me, my grandfather only has my mother and i as his relatives. even if you think i'm a criminal, at least let me care about my grandfather's life! He's a person who has contributed to our country. How can you treat the descendant of a hero like this?"

However, the police had already ignored him. They carried him and the unconscious Xiao Yushan out of the room.

When ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan were arrested, the guards and bodyguards were also stunned and looked at PEI Jitong.

PEI Jitong's heart was already more depressed than a F * cked dog.

The PEI family desperately needed evidence to threaten the Shi family. It was obvious that ning Haohan had run away. If the police caught him too late, the PEI family would be finished.

Inside the ward, Nangong Nuan Nuan saw that ning Wenhao had finished his call in a fit of rage. "Do you need any help?" he asked after ning Wenhao entered the room.

ning wenhao smiled, revealing his white teeth. he was handsome, sunny, and a little bit roguish as he replied, " no need, sister-in-law. This is a grudge between me and the ning family. Even if it ends, the ning family will end it through me.

"yes." nangong nuannuan nodded.

"But Qianqian, zichu didn't find out that the Shi family was involved. Sister-in-law, the call records of the nings and the shis that you've managed to hack don't match the real accounts of the shis. That's why zichu didn't expose the Shi family."

nangong nuannuan smiled. " the shi family has shi yalin. after all, she's the tongue of a venomous snake. she has a big plan up her sleeve. how could she expose herself and fall for such a small matter? "

Ning Wenhao laughed. I used to think that venomous snakes were mysterious and difficult to deal with. But ever since you were able to beat her from a distance on the mountain, I've thought that she's just so-so. Especially now that she had become Shi Yalin. In order to prepare for her big move, she would let you have her way every time and take a detour whenever she saw you. She thought that we didn't know, but in the end, not only did we know, but we also took advantage of her every time. It felt great. I really don't know if Viper will be driven mad by you if he finds out one day that you already know her identity and that the president is still on our side. Sister-in-law, you've already known her identity. it's not easy for the shi family to get this 3 billion!"

Three billion was nothing to Nangong Nuannuan, but to the Shi family, which had a shallow foundation, it was almost the same as digging up a big piece of meat.

"We'll deal with the Shi family when your boss is fully recovered."

Ning Wenhao's eyes lit up. what about the person behind the Shi family? "

Before Nangong Nuannuan could say anything, Chi zeyao said, " "Let's do it together."

ning wenhao was stunned, and his eyes were filled with a strong desire to fight.

Ning Wenhao didn't know how second uncle Chi could say such words with such certainty, nor did he know how his body, which could not even be described as " broken ", could make him so confident. However, ning Wenhao knew that with second uncle Chi's identity as the old King, he would definitely not resist the enemy with such an image.

Therefore, ning Wenhao looked at Chi zeyao excitedly, eager to know what kind of trump card he had.

feng ji mian was so happy that she almost jumped.

At first, she thought that she would have to wait a few more years before she could be with her husband in a high-profile manner. So when she heard that her dear husband was going to declare war on the Shi family in three months, which meant that she would be able to be openly intimate with her husband in a few months at most, Feng Ji Mian was very happy. She could not help but kiss Chi zeyao on the mouth again.

2748 Causing trouble together (4)

Chi zeyao, who was suddenly kissed in front of everyone, held his breath. He looked at his wife, who was no longer young but still so beautiful and passionate, and then at his family, who was staring at them. He silently accepted the W.

Looking at her husband's slightly red ears, Feng Ji Mian always wanted to find a chance to adjust her breathing (voice).

She couldn't stay in Kamino for too long, only a few days, so Feng Ji Mian treasured this opportunity.

As she watched the two of them interact, Nangong Nuannuan couldn't help but say, "second uncle, I'll perform the surgery for you in advance.

"Alright," he said. Chi zeyao agreed without a second thought.

it was now late august. originally, nangong nuannuan had planned to perform the operation on her second uncle in october when the weather had cooled down. however, seeing how loving her second uncle and second aunt were and how they couldn't bear to part with each other, nangong nuannuan decided to do it in advance.

Feng jimian, on the other hand, didn't agree.

"no, no, then this matter has to be postponed. The prime time for surgery was in October, and it was not hot at that time. Moreover, this was a major operation, and it would take at least three months to recuperate after the operation. We'd better deal with the Shi family next year!"

but, Yingluo ... second uncle Chi wanted to say that he didn't want her to wait for so long, but before he could finish his words, second aunt Feng hugged him pitifully, snuggling in his arms like a little bird and mumbling, " "We're not in a hurry. In any case, Nuannuan had been watching over them, so there was no need to worry. but i'm worried about you! If the juniors want to fight Feng Kun, will you not step in? Your current body is weak, Yao. Sharpening the knife will not delay the work of cutting wood. Don't make me worry, okay?"

Second uncle Chi's lips were slightly pursed. After hearing second aunt's words, he nodded without any resistance.

Nangong Nuannuan:

he had said that he would deal with the shi family's matter in three months, but it had been delayed.

It felt like child's play.

Ning Wenhao was also a little confused, but he was the Deputy commander. When would he destroy the Shi family? KE, ah, no, it should be fengyao. These were all decided by the bosses.

“Although we have to wait for half a year before we fight with Feng Luan, I won’t let the Shi family have an easy time in this half a year.”

Chi zeyao looked at Feng jímian and asked worriedly, “What are you doing?”

I’ll ask the NS group or the president to use the power of cyber country to suppress the Shi family!

Chi zeyao frowned and was about to reject Feng jímian’s decision when she continued, “i know you’re worried that i’ll mess it up. After all, when I used the power of Saibo to suppress the Chi family, I often exposed myself. but don’t worry, i suppressed the chi family because i was ready to risk everything. i wanted the whole world to know that i hate the chi family. whoever is on good terms with the chi family is going against me, feng jímian. However, I’ve always known that Feng Kun is very powerful, so don’t worry. I won’t do this myself. There are many ways to deal with the Shi family.”

Nangong Nuannuan actually really liked this ex-godmother and current second aunt. Because Feng Ji Mian’s personality was to her liking.

So, when he heard Feng jímian’s words, he smiled and said, “second aunt, let’s cause trouble together!”

“yes, let’s do it together!” feng ji mian looked at nangong nuannuan, her eyes shining.

Chi zeyao, Feng shengxuan, and even Chi Yang, who had been sleeping with his eyes closed, were jolted awake by their words. he looked at his wife, who was about to cause trouble, and his eyes were full of adoration.

2749 My dad is the Dragon slaying saber (1)

When the time came, he would also help his wife cause trouble.

At this time, ning Wenhao received another phone call. Ning Haohan had taken all the money of the Ning Wen group, leaving only a shell company.

When ning Wenhao heard this, he was so angry that he exploded. He hung up the phone and took advantage of the fact that Chi Yang was awake to report this matter to him.

“Boss, I’m sorry. I’m afraid I’ll have to borrow zichu for this matter. Only zichu can get this money back.”

we’ve just troubled zichu. Why are we troubling him again? ” Nangong Nuannuan, who had nothing else to do, said, “don’t you still have me?”

Feng shengxuan was about to ask why Nangong Nuannuan had to do such a small thing and that he should handle it, but second aunt Feng spoke first. Nuannuan, you take care of chiyang. Just leave this to us.

Nangong Nuannuan thought for a moment and nodded. sure, second aunt. I’ll have to trouble you with this.

Feng Jimian smiled evilly, "don't worry. I'll make him spit it out the way he swallowed it. I'll make him spit out more than he swallowed! If I don't vomit all my jaundice out, I won't let this matter rest."

Chi Zeyao saw that his wife had brought Feng Shengxuan's laptop over and was hacking into the Ningwen Corporation's financial system at lightning speed. He asked considerately, "Do you need my help?"

Second Aunt Feng glanced at her husband, her face full of pride. "How can you use a butcher's knife to kill a chicken?"

"Mom, my dad is a dragon slaying saber." Feng Shengxuan said.

This time, Feng Shengxuan had gotten to the heart of the matter. Feng Jimian finally smiled brightly at her son and said, "My son really knows how to talk! No wonder so many girls like you!"

Feng Shengxuan thought, 'didn't Yingluo just say that she'll never get old for the rest of her life because he has a negative EQ?

"How girly you are doesn't mean that you'll have a wife," replied Chizawa Masahiro.

Feng Shengxuan:

Nangong Nuannuan:

Sometimes, he felt that his big brother was quite pitiful.

On the third day after Chi Yang's fever subsided, Nangong Nuannuan called over a dozen helicopters. When people thought that these helicopters were here to pick up Lieutenant General Chi and bring him back to the hospital in Dìzhōu, they realized that they were only responsible for sending him from the hospital in Shengzhou to the airport in Shengzhou.

In Nangong Nuannuan's words, the cabin pressure of a helicopter was not as good as that of a passenger plane, and the bed was not as comfortable as that of a passenger plane. So, in the end, these helicopters were only used to send Chi Yang, the Nangong family, and the Chi family to the airport.

At the airport, Disheng Group's private jet was already parked at the designated location. The helicopter landed directly next to the private jet, and Chi Yang's bed was carried off the helicopter by professionals, then he was carried back into the private jet.

This private plane was for Nangong Nuannuan's personal use. There was a two-meter red bed in the plane, and the entire bedroom in the plane was filled with the pleasant smell of essential oil.

Chi Yang could tell that the essential oil in this room was the essential oil that Nuan Nuan used to massage his head every day.

And the luxury of this plane was also considered to have opened Chi Yang's eyes.

Hawkeye Group had their own private planes, so did the Chi family. Even old master Chi often took his private plane when he went out with him. However, he was a man, and his private plane was decorated like a conference room. Even if there was a resting room, it was a simple one. It couldn't be compared to Nuannuan's, which was extremely luxurious.

However,

2750 Darkness and light (2)

It was quite comfortable to lie on the soft bed.

The plane landed after flying for more than half an hour. The captain was a dedicated personnel of disheng, and the take-off and landing were very smooth.

the cabin door opened. the chi family and nangong family's cars had already been arranged.

Chi Yang's car was a comfortable RV.

In short, throughout the entire process, Chi Yang did not feel any discomfort.

although chi yang was still seriously injured, he had already passed the critical period. this made the chi and nangong family's atmosphere livelier.

When the two families left the airport in more than a dozen cars, all the cars on the originally congested Airport Road only occupied two roads. There were no cars on the remaining road.

on the side of the road, which was the emergency stop lane, there were many cars and people.

Those people all held up signs like [ welcome back, Lieutenant General Chi ] and [ welcome back, hero ].

nangong nuannuan's eyes reddened when she saw the people's attention on their car.

She suddenly felt a surge of excitement surging out of her chest, hitting the tip of her nose and her eyes.

Her tears fell unconsciously, but she couldn't help but smile.

This Kasaya should be the reason why Brother chiyang and the others were willing to risk their lives to save her.

There was no doubt that there was a lot of darkness in this world, but this world had never lacked light.

When you stand in the dark, all you see is ugliness. Gradually, your heart begins to assimilate, and life is nothing more than an ant in your eyes.

However, when you stand in the light, you see many things that are full of positive energy. Gradually, your heart will start to assimilate with them. Slowly, in your eyes, life will become noble, and you will cherish life more.

Although she used to live a carefree life, it was a disaster that she really didn't like to mess with anyone she saw. However, after following big brother chiyang, the Chi family, and the Nangong family, she began to like this kind of life.

Her second uncle, Nangong Qin, had returned home early in the morning and had specially prepared a large family's meal at the Nangong residence.

Because the Nangong family had an annex building filled with Nangong Nuannuan's various medical and experimental supplies, which would make it more convenient for Chi Yang to recuperate, old man Chi was very generous to let his grandson and granddaughter-in-law stay at the Nangong family's house for this period of time.

Second uncle Chi was also about to undergo surgery, so Nangong Nuannuan suggested that Grandpa Chi and second uncle should move into the Nangong family's house for a while.

Old man Nangong and old man Chi had a good relationship, so old man Chi happily agreed.

Even though Chi Yang couldn't eat, and could only drink a little rice soup at most, and was mostly dependent on nutrient fluids to sustain his life, this didn't stop him from watching his family gathering on video in his room. His family members would also talk to him through the video from time to time, making fun of him, making him feel happy and happy in the happy and harmonious family atmosphere.

However, compared to the Chi and Nangong families, the ning and PEI families could be said to be quite miserable.

On the same day, second aunt Feng had managed to track down the 15 billion Yuan that ning Haohan had transferred. However, both she and Nangong Nuannuan felt that the money should not have been transferred back so quickly.

Although the ningwen group had been given to ning Wenhao and his mother by his father, it was still a gift. However, ning Wenhao had never touched the ningwen group for so many years, and he even ruthlessly suppressed it. It was obvious that he did not take the group seriously.
