Chapter 2751

2751 Dad, save me (3)

therefore, no one knew that the money was already in the hands of the nangong family.

Ning Haohan knew that once the money was transferred, he would become the public's enemy. The Kamino Kingdom would also put him on the wanted list. So, he carried a box of cyber coins and a box of gold bars with him. With the protection of his bodyguards, he decided to meet his son, daughter, and wife in a small, chaotic country first. Then, he would find someone to change their identities there.

After they successfully changed their identities, they would go to other countries and get the money.

ning haohan's bodyguards knew that he was a rich man now, so they were willing to follow him and work for him.

Therefore, although ning Haohan was living a life of hiding in the gutter, he was currently having the most pleasant time when he thought of the beautiful life that would come after.

Compared to ning Haohan, the rest of the nings were in a worse state.

After Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi were taken to the police station, they had been detained. Three days passed in a flash. during this period, they had only met the lawyer once.

The lawyer went to see them that night and told them that elder ning had managed to survive. Xiao Yushan and ning Wenhao felt a little relieved.

In their eyes, as long as old master ning was still alive, the ning family would definitely be saved.

However, the lawyer had also told them that elder ning had only managed to keep his life. As for when he would wake up and what he would look like when he woke up, it was still unknown. So, the mother and son's mood fell again.

At Xiao Yushan's request, the police station asked her to make a call to the Xiao family. Since her phone had been confiscated, Xiao Yushan had used the landline at the police station to make the call, so Grandpa Xiao answered the call.

xiao yushan's tears fell as soon as she heard old master xiao's voice. she cried like a broken heart.

"Dad, save me, save ah Qi! We were caught and brought to the police station. The old master's side, aww."

Old master Xiao's prestige had always been high. Xiao Yushan thought that if old master Xiao could help her, then she and ning Wenqi would definitely be fine. At most, she would just stay at the Xiao family and not return to the ning family.

After all, elder Xiao was her biological father, and Xiao Yushan felt that her status was much higher than Xiao Yuqi's. As long as she could go back, Xiao Yuqi would immediately step aside.

"I think I should have made myself very clear before. I'll give you a listed company for the sake of your mother's hard work. I won't care about the company's life or death. From now on, we'll have nothing to do with each other. a few years ago, i had someone remove your name from the family tree. I don't think my expression is wrong. Although your surname is Xiao, you're not my daughter. anything you want to do, be it evil, or breaking the law, has nothing to do with me. So after you do these things, you have to bear any problems you encounter. The Xiao family won't receive any honor because of you, so they naturally won't lose any honor because of you."

Before Xiao Yushan could continue, elder Xiao hung up the phone.

Originally, the Xiao family was preparing to go to the Nangong family to visit Chi Yang, but after receiving this call, their mood was simply terrible.

Xiao shenbin knew his father's temper. Although he said so, he really didn't care about Xiao Yushan's life or death. However, if Xiao Yushan really did those things, was arrested, and sentenced, he would definitely feel very bad.

Chapter 2752

2752 The miserable Xiao shenbin (4)

Holding the old man's hand, Xiao shenbin explained, " Grandpa, the younger generation will have their own fortune. You've given us a proper education and set an example for us by establishing the most correct outlook on life. You see, most of us in the Xiao family have the right values. it's just like our country. Most people are good, but there are also a few people who need to be punished by strict laws. so, you don't have to feel sorry for her or grandma. you did the right thing."

After all, Xiao Yushan had caused trouble for the Xiao family time and time again even before she married into the ning family. The old man could not bear it anymore. Marrying into the ning family was the fuse that broke the relationship between the two women, and the child ning Wenqi was the last straw that crushed the father-daughter relationship between old master Xiao and Xiao Yushan.

"Since you've already decided not to care, why should you be sad about her now?"

Only Xiao shenbin, who was the closest to elder Xiao, would dare to say these words.

Other things

Xiao Yuqi was not elder Xiao's biological daughter, and Wu Lingyun had just been brought home by elder Xiao, so they had no idea what had happened between Xiao Yushan and elder Xiao.

However, seeing how angry his grandfather was, Wu Lingyun quickly tried to calm him down. "Grandpa, don't be angry."

wu lingyun's facial features were already very good, and with his pretty face, he was much better than the two ugly fat girls, xiao yaxin and xiao yanan, who he had impersonated.

Elder Xiao's originally depressed mood was instantly lifted after hearing his granddaughter's soft and cute comfort.

He had outstanding grandsons like Xiao shenbin and Li Jingtian, and an outstanding granddaughter like Wu Lingyun. Most importantly, his Ling Yun was going to marry Jing Tian in the future. It was a wonderful picture just thinking about it. Thus, elder Xiao's mood was once again cleared up.

Xiao shenbin couldn't help but laugh. Ling Yun, you have to talk to Grandpa more in the future. I've been counseling Grandpa for so long, but he's still angry. You just told him not to be angry, and he's not angry anymore.

then, xiao shenbin looked at elder xiao and said, " "Grandpa, you're so biased!"

Elder Xiao knew that his eldest grandson was joking, but Wu Lingyun was embarrassed. Her face was red.

Li jingrao, who had just returned to rest, immediately said, " "Big cousin, our Xiao Yun is thin-skinned, don't talk about him."

Xiao shenbin looked at Li Jingchen, who was usually unsmiling, and joked, " "Oh, you're not even married yet and you're already protecting her. I'm going to be miserable when we get married in the future."

her words made li jingrao feel a little embarrassed.

Just as Xiao shenbin won the verbal battle against the two of them, old master Xiao knocked his head with his phone.

"Be more careful! So what if your mouth won over your sister and brother? No matter how sharp your mouth is, you're still not reliable! Look at your brother and sister getting married, and you don't even have a girlfriend. What's the use of you? I thought you've opened your aperture, but what's the result? Baili Yue is such a good girl, she's not even dating Feng shengxuan anymore, and you can't even handle her. " speaking of this, old master xiao was so angry that he almost spat on xiao shenbin's face.

Xiao shenbin was speechless.

There was only Feng shengxuan in Baili Yue's heart. Even though she had stopped contacting him, she still couldn't let go of her feelings for him.

2753 Blacklisted (1)

Even if she wanted to start a new relationship, even if he had already done his best.

However, he understood that he could not make rational decisions about feelings. Even though Baili Yue had decided not to like Feng shengxuan anymore and wanted to start a new relationship with him, both he and Baili Yue found that their relationship was not compatible.

Although he liked Baili Yue very much, although he also knew that Baili Yue was trying her best to like him, Yingluo.

Although he had never been in love, he knew that real love should not be like this.

So, even if the old man knew that Baili Yue didn't like him for the time being, he still told him not to give up.

Originally, he didn't intend to give up, but when he saw how hard Baili Yue tried to like him, but she couldn't put her heart into it, he suddenly felt that this was cruel.

To him, it was nothing. After all, he was only moved. If he managed to get Bai Liyue, he would definitely cherish her. If he couldn't get Yingluo, he would just be disappointed.

However, Bai Liyue was different. She had tried so hard to like him, but neither her feelings nor her body would listen to her.

Instead of painfully breaking in like this until the two of them were both physically and mentally exhausted, not only would they not be able to be together, but they would also fall too deep and could not even be friends. It was better to leave him before he fell too deep.

This was the best for him and Baili Yue.

Therefore, he took the initiative to request to end this relationship. Fortunately, he and Bai Liyue were still friends.

He felt that he had made a good decision, but to old master Xiao, he had lost a granddaughter-in-law he loved.

So Xiao shenbin didn't have a good time at home. he was always subjected to cold violence and real violence. He didn't even dare to go home.

However, old master Xiao also knew that love couldn't be forced. As the saying went, a melon that was twisted by force was not sweet. However, Yingying had watched such a good granddaughter-in-law disappear. He had no place to vent his anger, so he could only vent it on his grandson.

soon, this matter was over with xiao shenbin's comedic remarks.

The Xiao family continued to live their lives the way they should. After watching the press conference and the things that ning Wenhao had exposed, elder Xiao was determined not to look at anything related to Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi.

Xiao Yushan thought that her father would think of a way to save her and ning Wenqi for the sake of their father-daughter relationship and the fact that ning Wenqi was his grandson.

However, before she could finish her sentence, old master Xiao had already hung up the phone.

So, Xiao Yushan called ning Haoran.

As the eldest son of the ning family, he had also received dividends and benefits from the Ning Wen group. Although they didn't listen to ning Haoran's words and let him say that he wanted to cut off all ties with them, Xiao Yushan felt that ning Haoran wouldn't just stand by and watch them die. After all, they were still a family.

To his surprise, Xiao Yushan used the police station's phone to call ning Haoran. When ning Haoran heard it was her voice, he immediately passed the phone to Qianqian without saying anything.

He hung up!

He just said “Hello” and hung up the phone without saying a word.

Not only did he hang up, he even blocked the police station’s number. Xiao Yushan tried to call him again, but he couldn’t get through.

Xiao Yushan was completely dumbfounded.

Chapter 2754

2754 More than 20 years (2)

After the lawyer came to see her, his meaning was obvious. Because they didn’t know what the situation was on elder ning’s side, if elder ning woke up in good condition, he would definitely find a way to get them out. However, if he was paralyzed and could not speak properly, it would not be easy for him to order people to do things. Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi would have to stay in there for a long time.

This was because this matter involved 11.8 billion in donations.

Back then, when they had framed the three major corporations, they had only changed their donation from 2 billion to 500 million, and it had already stirred up so much resentment from the public.

Now, ning Haohan had directly transferred the donated money and stolen it, which was against the law. And it was a serious crime worth 11.8 billion.

If they could not find ning Haohan in a short time and pay the money, they would never be able to come out.

the police insisted that the money had been maliciously transferred by the ning family. in addition, the ning family’s finance also revealed that the company’s financial situation had actually been in trouble for a long time.

this made the police even more certain that the ning family was putting on a show of self-injury. Ning Haohan transferred the money away first. They were going to leave with the whole family, but elder ning was hospitalized due to a cerebral infarction and a heart attack. In addition, ning Wenqi was from the combat service department and had a special identity. He didn’t have a special pass like Chi Yang, so he couldn’t leave the country. Therefore, ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan had to stay behind and play the trick of injuring themselves to get the police to change their target.

The 11.8 billion Yuan was too much. If they couldn’t find ning Haohan and make up the money in a short time, they would definitely go to jail. They would be sentenced to at least 20 years in prison.

Even if they were the best Lawyers in Kamino, they would not be able to help the mother and son get away with the crime, let alone the fact that they were only the ning family’s specially hired lawyers.

The best way was for Xiao Yushan to beg elder Xiao to help her pay the 11.8 billion Yuan. As long as the amount was fixed, this matter would be charged with misappropriating charity funds and framing others. The person who was punished would be ning Haohan. After all, ning Haohan was the one who was in charge of everything, and elder ning was the one who supported them. It had nothing to do with Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi. So, as long as they paid the money, they could get out of the police station, and the police would go through the first legal procedure-to arrest elder ning. But since elder ning had just finished his surgery and he was getting on in years, even if he were to be sentenced, it would be carried out outside of prison, but he would not be free.

But Grandpa Xiao didn't answer Xiao Yushan's calls, nor did he care that Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi were in prison. xiao yushan couldn't get in touch with him, and she didn't get any benefits from having a big-breasted father.

The lawyer gave Xiao Yushan a second solution. It was ning Haoran.

Ning Haoran was from the War Department in the northeast. He lived in Chuzhou. After this incident, even if he had to cut off all ties with the old man, he would at least come back to take care of the old man. Therefore, ning Wenqi could ask ning Haohan for help to release her on bail. Then, he could use the ning family's power to find ning Haohan and make up for the 11.8 billion in charity funds that had been stolen.

However, ning Haoran ignored her.

Xiao Yushan really wanted to cry but had no tears.

It wasn't until the third day, when she was transferred to the detention center by the police, that she saw her son, ning Wenqi, in the car.

It had only been three days since they last met, but her precious son had turned from a high-spirited and elegant young master to a bearded, dispirited man with bloodshot eyes that were filled with extreme hatred, as if he wanted to destroy the world.

Chapter 2755

2755 What's the big deal (3)

Even after getting into the car and seeing Xiao Yushan, ning Wenqi did not say anything.

"Qi, what's wrong? Don't scare mom. Did they hit you? If they hit you, mommy will Sue them, okay? your grandpa is out of danger. he'll be fine. When he's better, he'll definitely come to save us! Can you say something? Don't scare mom!"

xiao yushan, who was already on the verge of a mental breakdown, saw that ning wenqi's reaction was obviously not right, and she was scared out of her wits.

Seeing that ning Wenqi was ignoring her, Xiao Yushan turned to the two police officers and shouted, "What did you guys do to him? Did you guys beat him? i'm going to sue you! I'm going to Sue you! we're just suspects, and we're not the most annoying. i'm from the ning family, and i'm the daughter of the xiao family. qi is the grandson of the xiao family, and you dare to hit xiao yun's grandson?"

The police officer looked at Xiao Yushan as if she was an idiot. The other officer, with a rude tone, pushed Xiao Yushan, who had just stood up, to a stool and sat her down.

Xiao Yushan was suddenly pushed and fell on the stool behind her. The chair had no back, so her head hit the car wall with a muffled " Dong " sound. Xiao Yushan's face turned pale from the pain.

Xiao Yushan, who had never been in a passive position, was just a paper tiger who only knew how to use the power of the ning and Xiao families to scare people. She didn't have any power at all.

She had already exhausted all her abilities and was pushed by someone when she was at her wit's end. Her courage had been pierced.

"Xiao Yushan, don't forget that you're a prisoner now. "what ning family?" the police were speechless.

"The ning family has already been removed from the list by the president. The president issued a press conference, promising that he would definitely recover the 11.8 billion in charity funds, and on the other hand, he has already permanently removed the ning family from the four big families. the ning family has lost all their face. they're just street rats that everyone hates, and you're using them to threaten us?"

as for Xiao Yushan, " the policeman sneered, " I was there when you called old master Xiao. Old master Xiao has already called the police department and said that you were no longer a daughter of the Xiao family twenty-seven years ago. The Xiao family has already kicked you out of the house, so no organization has to care about the Xiao family's face when they do things. The Xiao family's face was long gone when you insisted on marrying into the ning family!"

Xiao Yushan didn't know what the police were saying.

she thought that old master xiao was just angry with her and didn't want to talk to her, but after his anger subsided, he probably wouldn't leave her to die.

However, what the police said next made Xiao Yushan's heart sink.

"Oh, elder Xiao also said that ning Wenqi isn't his grandson because he and elder ning were once comrades-in-arms, and they weren't on very good terms. Ning Wenqi is elder ning's son, and he doesn't want to make his family relationship too complicated. So, the Xiao family won't care about you and ning Wenqi. If the ning family has a way to get you out, then do it. There's no other way, then."

Xiao Yushan's mouth was wide open. She wanted to say something, but nothing came out. She could not believe it.

Chapter 2756

2756 Don't slander others (4)

She did not expect her father to be so heartless.

She was his daughter!

Biological daughter!

He was so good to Xiao Yuqi, a bastard child that he had picked up from the streets. He had even personally found Li Heyi, a husband who could compete for the president's position, for her. However, he didn't care about her at all.

Right now, it was a critical moment of life and death for her and Ah Qi. Even if he didn't care about her, Ah Qi was still his biological grandson! It was said that even if the elderly didn't care for their children, they would care for their grandchildren. Her Ah Qi was so outstanding, how could he be so cruel to say such words?

Xiao Yushan couldn't imagine that if Elder Xiao really didn't care about Ning Wenqi, then would Ning Wenqi still be able to keep his position in the combat service department?

While Xiao Yushan was still in shock, the police officer continued to speak.

"Although we're not afraid of you, as the People's Police, I still have to explain some things clearly. "We won't beat up any suspects. From the moment Ning Wenqi entered the police station to the moment he left, there was a video recording of the entire process. It's useless for you to accuse him. The reason why he was like this was because he had received a notice of expulsion from the combat Department the previous morning. The combat Services Department had already fired Ning Wenqi. His position has been confiscated as well."

It's finished!

That was Xiao Yushan's only thought at the moment.

Her mind was completely blank.

In order for Ning Wenqi to make more contributions and be promoted faster, how many things had the Ning family done? How many contribution points did he get? Only they themselves knew this.

However, one wrong move was not only a destructive blow to the Ning family, but it was also to her and Ning Wenqi.

What was the difference between this and directly destroying Ning Wenqi?

Ning Wenhao had made a great contribution to the earthquake relief, and he had almost died. He would definitely get a first-class merit when he returned.

Now that he had accumulated enough credit, he could advance another step.

Now that Ning Wenhao was a Colonel, he would be a Major General soon.

However, her Ah Qi was clearly so outstanding, but he couldn't even protect the major, let alone the major general.

He was fired!

From then on, apart from Ning Haoran, no one else from the Ning family was in the combat service department.

Even if someone from the side family entered the combat service department, it would not be the main Ning family.

She was the only true heiress of the Xiao family, and yet, in order to marry ning Haoyu, she was willing to sever ties with her own family.

She could have listened to her father and married Leng Jinpeng, but she had wanted to have a crush on ning Haoyu.

In order to be with ning Haoyu, she was willing to endure his anger and cold violence. In order to stay in the ning family and have a child with her and ning Haoyu, she did not hesitate to put down her pride and drug him. In the end, she accidentally drugged the old master and made a huge mistake.

Later on, ning Haoyu passed away and she gave up completely. She only hoped that her child would be well, but the ning family's situation had been going downhill. On the other hand, the bastard was doing better and better.

"Why? Why was it like this? What did my son do wrong? Why are you treating him like this?"

He just wanted to become the true leader of the ning family in the future. What was wrong with that?

Xiao Yushan had never understood what was so good about Mao Yating. What right did a weak and incompetent woman have to receive ning Haoyu's love that he would never regret? How could a woman without any background give birth to a son like ning Wenhao? Why did Chi Yang favor ning Wenhao instead of her ning Wenqi?

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2757

2757 She woke up (5)

"Why? It turned out that Madam ning still didn't understand why she felt wronged. You!!!"

One of the police officers was speechless and wanted to explain to her, but he was pulled back by another police officer.

"Why did you say so much to her? Now, the whole society is so angry that they can't wait for the ning family to die, and they even want us to maintain the peace of the ning family. They did such a thing and still don't feel that they did anything wrong. They even asked why. It's obvious that their three views have been destroyed. You're just wasting your breath explaining it to her. For people like them, going to jail, suffering, and suffering for a lifetime was the best way to make them repent. I don't believe that they don't know where they went wrong after decades in prison. If you don't know, then you can continue to stay in jail."

Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi, who had been immersed in hatred, heard the police's words. They suddenly looked up and looked at the police in front of them in disbelief.

"What are you guys talking about?" Ning Wenqi looked at the few of them with eyes full of hatred. He simply wanted to tear these stinky policemen who took advantage of the situation to pieces.

"In the past, all of you were as obedient as dogs in front of me. Who dared to talk to me like this? I've only temporarily lost my power, and they're already looking down on me like this. Remember, one day, I, ning Wenqi, will stand up again, to a height you can't imagine. I hope you still dare to talk to me like that when the time comes!"

The police officer was also drunk. He used his Baton to knock on the iron plate beside Ning Wenqi and said, "Wake up! There was a limit to dreaming. You're already like this, do you still expect to turn things around in the future? I'm telling you, if your Ning family did all these things, the Internal Affairs Bureau can still help you turn over a new leaf and let you continue to be a wealthy class. Not to mention being a first class wealthy class, even if I let you continue to be a wealthy class, I'll take off my own clothes."

“Why are you betting your own clothes for this kind of person? Are they worthy?”

"I was just saying, wasn't I? I still love my clothes. It's because I know they won't be able to get up that I said that."

In fact, several police officers had been helping him since the earthquake. Their salaries were not high, and they did not have much savings. However, after the earthquake, all of them donated 10000 Yuan each. They would even drive to the disaster area to help during their breaks. They had also created a small group in private. In this group, some were in charge of buying tents, some were in charge of buying water, and some were in charge of buying food. On rest days, everyone would send the items to the places that the disaster area needed.

everyone was a warm-hearted person. thinking that the money they had worked hard to earn had not fallen into the hands of the victims, but was used by the grandchildren of the ning family, how could the police's attitude towards them be good? If it wasn't for their request, they would have beaten the two of them to death. However, even though they couldn't beat them up, it was none of their business if they angered the two of them to death.

Three days later, elder ning, the culprit, finally woke up.

He wanted to move, but he found that one of his hands was handcuffed.

He suddenly recalled the press conference from before and his temper rose.

"Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!"

Elder ning realized that something was wrong after he shouted. He had wanted to ask, 'who handcuffed me? Let go of me!'

Who knew that the words that came out of his mouth didn't have a sound, they were all "oh, oh, ah, ah."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2758

2758 a prisoner (1)

There was no one in the room. Elder ning couldn't get the handcuffs off with one hand, so he was so angry that he wanted to get up and use the other hand to get the handcuffs off.

Who knew that his other hand would not be able to control it.

Elder ning wanted to get up, but he realized that he couldn't move.

This time, he panicked.

He only remembered that ning Wenhao, that unfilial son, had actually betrayed the Nangong family. Not only did they fail to make the Nangong family part of their family, but they could not even keep the money that the Nangong family had transferred.

Then, he was so angry that he vomited blood.

Elder ning was usually very afraid of death, and he was also very afraid of people with mental problems. Now that he couldn't even control his own actions, he suddenly thought of the word " mental problems.

originally, a stroke could not be associated with a person like him no matter what. who knew that one day, he would actually suffer a stroke as well?

Elder ning wriggled and screamed desperately, but he couldn't even understand what he was saying. A sense of powerlessness welled up in his heart. What followed was a deep panic.

Elder ning was shouting angrily in a simple-looking Ward for a long time before a doctor finally came in.

Seeing the doctor come in, elder ning kept saying " oh, oh, ah, ah " for a long time. His hand that could still move a little under the handcuffs kept signaling the doctor to bring him a pen and paper.

However, the doctor only looked at him as if he was a test subject. Then, he looked at the various instruments on his body and then at the display screen of the instrument. He was emotionless, and even more so, he turned and left without a trace of expression.

He wanted to stop the doctor and ask what was wrong with him. She even wanted to ask him where his family was? Why was he staying in such a dilapidated Ward?

In fact, the ward was not shabby. It was a single Ward in a tertiary Grade A hospital. There was a television and an air conditioner in the ward. However, elder ning was someone who was used to receiving the best treatment. In the past, he was either admitted to the top private hospital or the top VIP Ward of the War Department's subsidiary hospital. Everything was the best, and the room was even better than a five-star hotel.

Apart from when he was young, Wanwan really hadn't stayed in such a Ward for decades.

However, in such a lousy hospital and Ward, the nurse actually ignored him.

Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi were not there either.

This was simply illogical.

Elder ning was getting fiercer and fiercer. The doctor had wanted him to continue with his nonsense, and it would be best if he died from another blood vessel rupture, but as a doctor, she had her own professional ethics, so she finally stopped and turned around to kindly remind him, " you just had an operation. Although you managed to survive, you'll still suffer from partial paralysis. If you want to recover well in the future, you'd better not be too agitated.

With that, he was about to leave.

but old man ning was still shouting angrily, with no intention of stopping.

The police officer who was watching over him had just gone out to get his lunch. When he came back, he saw the doctor standing at the door and talking. Two police officers quickly came over and asked, "What's wrong? you're awake?"

The doctor nodded. yes, he's awake. But just as the chief surgeon speculated, the cerebral hemorrhage in his left side is too severe, causing damage to his central nervous system. He won't be able to move his entire right side of his body in the future.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2759

2759 You reap what you sow (2)

"In addition, his central nervous system is being suppressed so he can't speak for a while. If he recovers well in the future, he might be able to sit up. At that time, he can use the wheelchair. When he can sit in the wheelchair, he can speak slowly and others can still roughly understand what he is saying."

After the police had learned about elder ning's basic condition from the doctor, they nodded, thanked the doctor, and went in.

She placed the two lunch boxes on the bed and looked at elder ning.

Because the foam in the lunchbox wasn't stuck properly, the lid was slightly open, and elder ning happened to see it from his direction.

Seeing that there were only one meat and two vegetables in the box, their eyes widened in anger.

He didn't know that his eyes and mouth were crooked. His eyes and mouth were crooked. He even stared at his face, making his face very distorted.

these sons of b * tches actually fed him this kind of pig food!

Elder ning decided that even if the police gave it to him, he would not eat it.

However, elder ning was obviously overthinking things. These two boxes of food were just for dinner.

Because the eldest of the ning family, ning Haoran, had been called back to the general Administration of warfare to report on his work, there was no one here to guard him, so the police had been watching over him for the past few days.

Seeing that he had woken up, one of the police officers said, " Mr. Ning Zhennan, you are suspected of embezzling charity funds and framing others. Now that we have verified the evidence, we are arresting you according to the law.

As he spoke, the police officer took out an arrest warrant from his arms. It was an arrest warrant approved by the Court of Justice for the arrest of ning Zhennan.

however, since you had heart and brain problems at the time of the incident, and you've just finished your surgery, it's not appropriate for you to go to the detention center directly. So, before your life is in danger, this will be your execution ground. We'll take turns to watch over you.

Elder ning's eyes were almost popping out of their sockets.

He felt that he had heard wrong.

These people actually wanted to arrest him?

With his current status, they actually dared to arrest him?

The ning family had only framed the Nangong family. As for the money, it wasn't like it had disappeared. They could just transfer it back. In the past, when they encountered such a situation, they had used their connections. Who wouldn't give the ning family a favor for his sake?

Were these people bullying an old man like him because they saw that he had a stroke?

Old man ning yelled again in exasperation.

Although he had a terrifying expression and a fierce aura, he was still a person who had just undergone surgery. Even his screams were weak.

old man ning was so irritated that he found that he couldn't control his body at all. he couldn't move at all.

The police didn't know about the ning family's disgusting Affairs, so when they were carrying out the arrest, they still told them what had happened.

"Ning Zhennan, you instructed the nings to use the convenient conditions to transfer disheng, Imperial Palace, Shengyang, Yunxiao, Wu's, as well as the second and third-rate noble families, enterprises, and individuals, a total of 11.8 billion Yuan into your ning family's account. At the same time, you also framed the three major corporations. After the incident, not only did he not repent, but he also did not hand over the 11.8 billion Yuan that he had swallowed. Instead, he used hacking methods to transfer it. Ning Haohan's family was still on the run, while Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi had been captured. Your eldest son, ning Haoran, had already reported to the general Administration of warfare a day before the incident, severing all ties with the ning family. So, he's not being arrested yet, and is currently making a report to the general Administration of warfare."

Chapter 2760

2760 Bubble (3)

you have two options now. First, tell us where ning Haohan is and help us find him to get back the money. Then, you, your wife, and your son will get a lighter sentence. The second is to put up a stubborn resistance. However, you have to know that the Internal Affairs Bureau, the Court of Justice, and the War Bureau have worked together to deal with this vicious case. You and your family will not be able to escape. You're already so old, while ning Wenqi is only in his 20s. Do you really have the heart to see this old man being fired by the combat Department and stripped of his position? If you know where ning Haohan is, please tell us."

The police's words could be said to be quite harsh.

When the police said ning Wenqi was his son and Xiao Yushan was his wife, he didn't even realize how the police knew about the ning family's scandal. He only heard that ning Wenqi had been captured! His most beloved ah Qi had actually been captured!

The reason why ah Qi was arrested was because of ning Haohan, that unfilial son of his. After the incident, he absconded with donations after ah Qi's illness acted up!

Elder ning still had some memories. When he vomited blood and fell unconscious, he could actually vaguely hear the sound. He could feel that it was his ah Qi who had sent him to the car and the hospital.

Ning Haohan must have taken the opportunity to run away with the money.

He also had a very powerful hacker, kamu. If he let go of Carm and asked him to transfer the money, it would be difficult for the police to get the money back.

After all, elder ning had been scheming for his entire life. Although he couldn't speak or move, he could understand this little trick with just a thought.

They had thought that the ning family had suffered the biggest blow after being betrayed by ning Wenhao, who had helped the Nangong family clear their name, and had even found out where the Nangong family's donations had gone.

He had originally thought that after this incident, the ning family would really decline. Therefore, he planned to temporarily withdraw from the ning family.

After all, he was ning Wenhao's grandfather, and he had to take responsibility for the ning family's destruction. Ning Wenhao still had the Eagle Eye group that he hadn't touched this time. In the future, ning Wenhao would have to take care of the ning family and bring them out of the mud. At most, he would return the ningwen group to ning Wenhao, and his Qi would stay in the combat Department after the defeat. He would think about it when he became a general.

Who knew that the ning family's current situation was actually ten thousand times worse than he had expected.

He had spent so much money, resources, and manpower to finally make ning Wenqi a major. He had seen that ning Wenqi was considered to be very motivated and talented in the combat service department. Who knew that he would be fired!

All his years of hard work had gone to waste!

Even the ning family had collapsed!

Now, he was paralyzed and couldn't speak. Ning Haohan was his son, and he knew him well. Since the other party had run away with the money, he would definitely not leave any money for the ning family when he left. Ning Haoran was also forced to go back to the General Administration Department to report on his work, so he didn't even have time to care about him, let alone Xiao Yushan and ning Wenqi.

As for ning Wenhao's teasing of old master ning, he ignored it.

After much thought, elder ning's only thought was the Xiao family.

Even though Xiao Yun was arrogant and unlikable, ning Wenqi was still his biological grandson.

Elderling resisted the waves of dizziness in his head and used his cuffed left hand to knock on the armrest of the bed.
