Chapter 2781

2781 I was afraid you'd be bored (3)

"I was afraid that you would be bored alone, so I came up to accompany you. They'll call us when lunch is ready. I'll give you a massage first."

"No need. You've been giving me massages for so long every day, your hands will get tired."

"I won't. I'm strong, you know that. I didn't even use much strength when I massaged you."

Although he knew that Nuannuan was speaking the truth, Chi Yang also knew that a massage was not something that could be done with just a little strength.

Other things aside, he needed to bend over when he was massaging her. His Nuannuan was unwilling to find a caretaker for him, so she had to bend over and massage him every day. His heart ached for her.

Furthermore, he could tell that Nuannuan had used some tricks when she was massaging him. Although his skin didn't hurt, each hit directly affected his meridians.

He knew how strong his meridians were.

Chi Yang's heart ached for her. When Nuan Nuan touched his arm, he took her hand and said shamelessly, "Don't massage me. I'm not tired lying down all day. Talk to me, will you?"

Nangong Nuannuan had no choice but to give up when she saw that her brother chiyang refused to let her massage him. she couldn't just shake off brother chiyang's hand and then press it again, what if he hurt it?

So she smiled and took off her shoes. She nestled herself in the bed and leaned against the back of the bed. She let Chi Yang hold her hand and placed his hand on her stomach.

"I'm preparing to perform the surgery for second uncle next Wednesday."

She had told Chi Yang the moment he woke up that second uncle Chi was looking for her last night.

"Have you discussed it with Grandpa?"

"Yes, I am. He mentioned it to his grandfather and his grandfather immediately agreed. I think Grandpa has the highest EQ in our family. Whether it's you, big brother, or second uncle, he understands all of them."

"Then, do I have a high EQ?" chi yang asked with a smile.

"He's a little taller than big brother. To be honest, your Chi family's emotional intelligence is really getting worse and worse with each generation. Grandpa has the highest EQ, followed by second uncle, and then you two."

Chi Yang raised his eyebrows. what do you mean? Don't you think that second uncle's EQ is the highest? he can always take care of everyone easily."

Nuannuan pouted. in the past, I used to think that second uncle's EQ was quite high. But ever since I saw how he got along with second aunt, I don't think that's the case anymore. Before I met second aunt, I thought that their relationship as husband and wife was very weak. In the end, second aunt was so good and her relationship with him was so good. After he recovered his memory, he actually didn't go to look for her for so many years. Now, he was going to have an operation in advance. It was a matter of life and death, but he did not even inform his second aunt. Don't you think that he's being disrespectful to second aunt?"

"We didn't let second aunt know that he was still alive because at that time, his body was already in a very serious condition. It was equivalent to receiving a notice of delay in death. He didn't want second aunt to be happy just now and then fall into the abyss again." Chi Yang thought that if he had been in the same situation as his second uncle, he would definitely not want Nuannuan to suffer the pain of losing him again.

"He didn't tell her about the surgery because of Feng Kun. Feng Kun will definitely meet second aunt, and second aunt can't accompany him now. If I tell second aunt the time of the operation, she will definitely be worried."

The second uncle of the chiyang gang explained. in his heart, his second uncle was indeed the man with the highest emotional intelligence among the men in the chi family.

"So You Think he's right?"

2782 I was wrong, second uncle was wrong (4)

Suddenly, a warm voice sounded above her head.

Ah?

Chi Yang looked at his wife, and after confirming that he could see the deep dissatisfaction in his wife's eyes, he said with a strong desire to live, "Of course, I don't think second uncle is doing the right thing. This was because he was only thinking for his second aunt from his own perspective. He did not know what his second aunt really wanted. i think it's better for us to discuss this matter. Honey, don't worry. I'll discuss everything with you in the future."

After listening to Chi Yang's strong desire to survive, the frustration in Nuan Nuan's heart finally calmed down.

let me ask you, when you go to the disaster relief, do you think that you will suffer the worst injury in your life and almost lose your life? "

"No, I didn't," Chi Yang shook his head. The number of enemies who could kill him was already as rare as a Phoenix Feather or a Qilin horn. He had run to the disaster area as soon as he could. Although he knew that the environment there was bad, he really did not expect such a thing to happen.

"If I didn't have medical skills, would you have died this time?"

"Yes." This was for sure. Chi Yang nodded his head without any hesitation, then continued to flatter, "So I must be very lucky to have met such a good wife like you."

However, Nuan Nuan did not fall for it and continued to ask, "If you knew you were going to die today, would you have broken up with me and not proposed to me?"

Chi Yang, who had been answering fluently, suddenly fell into silence.

Would he?

If he knew that he was going to die, why would he propose to her?

Although he regarded Nuannuan as his life, even more so than his own, if he had known that he would die in a few days, how could he have proposed to Nuannuan?

"you're not going to propose to me, are you?" Nangong Nuannuan asked.

Chi Yang was silent.

"You might think that we're not married yet. If we're not truly engaged, then the one that the combat service department reviewed doesn't count. I'm still single, and I'll meet other men in the future, right?"

Chi Yang remained silent. That was indeed the case. If he knew he was going to die, why did he tie Nuannuan up? although he didn't want to see nuannuan being with another man one day, he couldn't do such a thing!

nangong nuannuan reached out and held chi yang's hand, their fingers intertwined. she said faintly, "Then if we moved back in time, if you knew that what happened a few days ago would kill you, would you still like me when we were in the Zhong family? Will they still send an application to the battle Department for our marriage review?"

Chi Yang:

That was a year ago!

But at this moment, Chi Yang finally understood.

nuannuan continued, "although we love each other not because we want to break up, if we know that we'll break up and stop loving each other or fighting for each other, then what's the point of love?" When they got married, the priest would ask, "will you never leave me, whether I'm poor, rich, healthy, sick, or even dead?" Then what's the point of saying that?"

"Nuannuan, I was wrong. second uncle is also wrong." Chi Yang held Nuan Nuan's hand and took the initiative to admit his mistake.

Nangong Nuannuan did not get angry. She smiled and asked him, " what did you do wrong? "

"Every one of us has a limited life. From the day we were born, we were getting closer and closer to death. It's not right for us to give up our love for life and fight for love just because we're about to face death."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2783

2783 That something (5)

some people have an ordinary life, while others have a grand life. It's not that an ordinary life is short, or a passionate life is long, but because some people pursue family, friendship, love, and career in their limited lives. They gain a lot, making their limited lives rich and colorful.

If we don't fight for it when we know we'll lose it, then we'll lose a lot of things in our lives."

Nangong Nuannuan nodded and replied, "yes." What was love? I feel that love should be something that transcends the physical form of life and death. It was an emotion. Knowing that one would die, facing it alone or facing it together might not only lead to a different ending, but also a different mentality when experiencing it.

that's why I feel that second uncle's emotional intelligence may be very high in terms of friendship, kinship, and interpersonal relationships, but in terms of love, his emotional intelligence is probably on the same level as big brother. It was a pity that his big brother was spurned by him all day long.

Second aunt was the most miserable. She was clearly being scammed by second uncle, but she still stood in front of second uncle and said that her son's EQ was low. She said that she and her second uncle had high emotional intelligence, but her eldest brother's emotional intelligence was both positive and negative. At that time, I wanted to say that second uncle's emotional intelligence is also very worrying."

Chi Yang couldn't help but burst out laughing. Nuan Nuan didn't even have the time to stop him.

As a result, he was in so much pain that he curled up on the bed. Nuan Nuan was so frightened that she quickly performed acupuncture on him.

It wasn't until Chi Yang's pain had passed that Nuannuan said to him, her heart aching, " "I told you to control your emotions and not get angry. Let me tell you, you're even more anxious than an 80-year-old uncle before your heart fully recovers. Your wound hasn't recovered yet! Even if he recovered, he still had to wait for his heart membrane to slowly grow back. Why are you laughing so loudly for no reason?"

However, Chi Yang shamelessly held onto Nuan Nuan's hand and said with a wronged expression, " wifey, I was wrong.

Seeing Chi Yang's expression, Nangong Nuannuan couldn't scold him anymore. She could only gloomily order, " "Then don't smile like that anymore."

"Okay, okay, okay, I promise."

"Then you're not angry with me anymore?" Chi Yang said with a smile in his eyes.

Nuan Nuan pouted. do you think I'll be able to get over it if I get angry with you? " she asked.

"Then give me a kiss to prove that you're not angry."

Nangong Nuannuan had no resistance to this man, who was extremely serious in front of outsiders and would never say a word or two if he could, but was like a Chatterbox in front of her. She kissed him on the lips.

Nangong Nuannuan could read his mind from his dumbfounded expression. She didn't know whether to laugh or cry as she comforted him, " "Big brother chiyang, you're injured now."

Chi Yang was depressed, " I don't have such thoughts either. You don't even want to kiss me anymore?"

At the end of his sentence, Chi Yang's eyes were as pitiful as an abandoned, sick, and large dog.

Chapter 2784

2784 I didn't cause you to get hurt (1)

Nangong Nuannuan touched her nose and said, " you're the one who got hurt. I didn't cause it. " It's not like you don't know about your own situation."

After saying that, Nangong Nuannuan prepared to approach.

In the end, just as she was slowly approaching and was about to touch Chi Yang's face, Chi Yang turned his head away in a fit of pique and mumbled softly, " you didn't do it willingly. You can't force it.

"Ha?"

Nangong Nuannuan didn't know whether to laugh or cry at his words. She laughed as she reached out to hold her big brother's big hand, but Chi Yang hid her hand under the blanket.

"Aiya, be good. Give me a Q."

"No Q."

"Q one."

"No," she said.

Nangong Nuannuan's face darkened. are you Q-ing or not q "

Chi Yang:

"Give me your hand."

Chi Yang thought for a moment, then took his hand out of the blanket and let Nangong Nuannuan hold it.

chi yang pouted and turned his head around as if he had been bullied.

At this moment, his second aunt called to say that it was almost time for dinner and asked if Chi Yang wanted to come down for dinner. Nangong Nuannuan hung up the phone after saying that they would be coming down soon.

“Brother chiyang, wait for me. I’ll go get some water for you to wash your hands and then help you down to eat.”

This was Chi Yang’s first time coming down for dinner after returning home, so Nangong Nuannuan was very pleased. After all, Chi Yang’s injuries at that time had even made her feel despair.

Now that he had recovered to the point where he could support her down the stairs, it could be said that Chi Yang’s recovery ability had simply exceeded her expectations.

“No, I’ll wash my hands myself. It’s only a few steps away.”

before chi yang could sit up, nuan nuan turned around and left to fetch water.

After getting a basin of hot water, Nuan Nuan wet the towel and carefully wiped Chi Yang’s face.

Feeling the comfortable hot towel, Chi Yang’s eyes were so comfortable that they almost closed. He couldn’t help but say, “It’s only noon and you’ve already wiped my face three times. I don’t even wipe it that often.”

“Is that the same? If you lie here, your body’s metabolism won’t be good, and it’ll be easy for your face to get oily, which will easily block your pores. How could I lower the value of your unparalleled beauty? Since you usually eat and sleep in the open, I’ll take this opportunity to use my company’s products to keep you fresh.”

Nangong Nuannuan said as she washed Chi Yang’s face. After washing his face, she applied a bottle of first-tier Brand men’s milk that she had been applying for brother chiyang all this time.

Chi Yang originally didn’t like to do these things, but seeing that his wife was so happy, he let her be.

As Nangong Nuannuan wiped Chi Yang’s face, she thought to herself, “these skincare products and cosmetics only have a skin-care effect. Those that have a little medicinal effect are often exaggerated by people. Her Angel potion had so many good medicines. If she could add some points into it, wouldn’t it be a great profit?

Chapter 2785

2785 Princess carry (2)

nuannuan was only thinking that way. She didn’t expect that when she really put it into action, it would actually become a top brand in one leap.

Therefore, some people were born to do business.

But that was a story for another time.

After she had wiped Chi Yang’s face, Nuan Nuan slowly helped him up.

For the past two days, Chi Yang had already started to sit on the bed from time to time. Although he could clearly feel that his breathing had become shorter and more rapid after sitting up, Chi Yang was still very happy.

After all, he could still breathe and sit up.

After sitting up and washing his hands, Chi Yang prepared to get off the bed.

In the end, before her feet touched the ground, she was touched by Nuan Nuan.

A Princess hug.

Chi Yang knew that he was going down in a wheelchair, but it was only two steps away. He felt that he could walk from the bed to the wheelchair.

“Nuannuan, I can do it myself.” Chi Yang was a little helpless. After all, he was a tough man, yet Nuannuan had treated him like a porcelain doll.

“That won’t do! It wasn’t easy for me to heal your wound so perfectly, what if you tear it? no one will laugh at you since you’re at home and in the bedroom. Even if someone laughed at you, I don’t think you can get off the bed before you do.”

Seeing how angry she was, it was as if he had to disobey her orders.

Chi Yang laughed as he reached out to touch Nuan Nuan’s nose, “ alright. I’ll listen to you. I’ll do whatever you say.”

Nuan Nuan quickly took the elevator down with Chi Yang.

In the dining room downstairs, the entire family had already been seated at two large tables. Later on, ning Wenhao, Huang zichu, and Huang Ziyu also joined the lunch gathering.

The originally happy and harmonious atmosphere became even more lively and happy with Chi Yang’s participation.

Because everyone was in a good mood, Great White, Buttface, and fatty were allowed to enter the house by second aunt to have dinner together.

Da Bai, who had been raised in a Manor in the cyber nation and killed all the small animals in the mountain, had no friends in the end. After coming to Kamino, especially in a family like the Nangong family, where there were more small animals, he was ordered by the Great Demon King, Chi zeyao, not to kill. Although it was very difficult, very difficult, da Bai still played with the silly dog Buttface, who only wanted to tear down the house, and the vengeful goose, fatty.

When he saw Buttface, dan Qi said to Nangong Jin, “ Oh, right, big brother. I’ve found the murderer who installed the bomb in your house.

“A bomb?” nangong jin was stunned.

Because he had just returned from the disaster area and hadn’t had time to go back to his little home, he was at a loss about what danqi was saying.

Seeing his reaction, dan Qi also looked at his boss with a blank face.

After receiving danqi's gaze, Nangong Nuannuan naturally turned to look at the beautiful mu Chenxiang, who was sitting beside Nangong Jin.

Mu Chenxiang was also taken aback. She looked at her husband, who still had a piece of glutinous rice chicken in his mouth. She blinked and added, "Ah, I forgot to tell you. Someone took advantage of our renovation and installed explosives in the wall. Fortunately, Buttface tore down the wall of our house. Otherwise, the bomb would have exploded."

Nangong Jin was usually serious, serious, and reserved. When he heard his wife say that there was a bomb in his house, he couldn't help but open his mouth wide in shock.

"Why didn't you tell me?" Nangong Jin felt his heart clench tightly when he thought about how the woman he loved the most and his adorable children had almost died.

2786 The ning family (3)

Mu Chenxiang hadn't completely swallowed the glutinous rice chicken in her mouth. She pouted and chewed as she said, "You went to the earthquake relief."

"Why didn't you tell me when I came back?"

"i was so happy that i forgot about it."

Nangong Jin looked at his beautiful wife and couldn't bear to scold her. He couldn't help but rub her head. "Wife, can we be more careful when we encounter such things in the future?"

Mu Chenxiang knew that she had done something wrong and quickly nodded like a chick eating rice. Little Ling added, "don't worry, laybit. I'll take good care of mommy when you're not around." We still have Buttface at home!"

nangong jin looked at his wife, then at little ling, and then at buttface, who was howling like a blood wolf. he looked completely unreliable. finally, he looked at his son, who was sitting beside him. the two men silently wiped their sweat.

Nangong Jin and little sun's actions made the entire family laugh.

Nangong Jin looked at dan Qi and said, "dan Qi, thank you." If it wasn't for you, I think it would be hard to find the murderer."

dan qi smiled, "you're welcome. we're family." I'm still freeloading at your house every day."

Dan Qi's words also caused everyone to burst into laughter.

Aiden had bought a house on the peninsula, and he, Selina, and Baili Yue lived there. Sometimes, Feng shengxuan would also stay there. Although the servants and chefs that were supposed to be hired were all there, the chefs of these families were all just slacking off and coming to the Nangong family to help. This was because these few people would come to the Nangong family's house for free meals whenever they were free. even if they were alone, they were still very thick-skinned. It could be said that Nangong Nuannuan's friends had completely integrated into the Nangong family's life.

"dan qi, who is it that wants to kill us?" Nangong Jin asked.

"can you guess?" danqi mischievously asked a question instead of answering.

"The ning family?"

although the answer was a question mark, nangong jin was very certain, which surprised dan qi and a small number of people who hadn't guessed it yet.

ning wenhao was the most shocked, or perhaps the most furious.

After all, his surname was ning.

Although he had already cut off all ties with that family, he still felt extremely uncomfortable when he suddenly heard that those crazy people not only wanted money, but also wanted to kill Nangong Jin.

He didn't think that Nangong Jin's guess was fake, because even he had guessed the ning family.

Cang LAN star was originally just a quiet onlooker. She thought that the Shi family was the one who did this. After all, the Shi family and the Nangong family didn't get along well. This was something that everyone in the entire di Zhou knew.

after dan qi confirmed that nangong jin's answer was correct, cang lan star finally couldn't hold it in anymore and asked angrily, " "why the ning family? It was not enough that they had already taken the Nangong family's money. Now, they even wanted to kill the Nangong family. Can't they be kind for the sake of Adjutant ning?"

Because Nangong Jin was the one who answered the question, the question was directed at Nangong Jin. However, the one who rushed to explain to the people of the canglan star was Nangong Zheng.

"it's just eldest brother's guess that it's the ning family. Although the Emperor state was huge, the circle was small. Even if the second-rate wealthy families have grudges with the Nangong family, they will at most be jealous in their hearts or take advantage of them like before."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2787

2787 i have no relationship with the ning family (4)

"They don't have the guts to attack the Nangong family. Only the Shi family, the Xiao family, and the ning family had the guts. The Xiao family has a good relationship with us, so it can't be the Xiao family. Although the Shi family is going to stir up trouble, after our Nuannuan's warning, they're going to stir up big trouble. It was impossible for him to do such a small thing that would be easily found out by danqi. Previously, when the Shi family members had been disrespectful to Nuannuan, the Shi family had already decided on their own. Therefore, such a simple and brutal method of assassination could not have been done by the Shi family. Only the ning family was left. As for why the ning family did this, and what kind of deep hatred they have with the Nangong family, we can only know after asking them.”

“It seems like they really want to spend the rest of their lives in jail.” Nangong Nuannuan laughed coldly with a fake smile.

Ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan had been locked up, ning Haohan would never come back, and the old man had become a Living Dead man. The ning family had been cut off except for ning Haoran, who had not offended them.

As a result, the tree wanted to be quiet, but the wind wouldn’t stop.

or rather, the wind was blowing too hard. there were actually two gusts. How could Nangong Nuannuan endure this?

chi yang looked at the angry nangong nuannuan and reached out to hold her hand. it took him a long time to calm nangong nuannuan’s violent temper.

Ning Wenhao said to Nangong Jin apologetically, ” “Big brother, I’m sorry. i didn’t know they were so crazy. i’ll definitely find out who did it. I will definitely give you and the Nangong family an explanation. I’m really sorry Yingluo, no, this isn’t something that can be explained with an apology, Yingluo.”

although nangong jin was still scared and his hatred for the nings was still burning, he could still tell the difference between ning wenhao and himself. “Don’t blame yourself, a Hao,” he interrupted ning Wenhao. For one, you don’t know about this at all, and for two, you have no relationship with the ning family. so, xuanji, every injustice has its perpetrator, and every debt has its debtor. this matter is none of your business. However, Yingluo ”

Ning Wenhao knew what Nangong Jin was going to say.

After all, the nings had hired assassins to kill their entire family. Who knew how much Nangong Jin loved his wife and son? the nings actually wanted to destroy the next generation of the Nangong family.

If framing the Nangong family could still be dealt with at discretion, then there was no way this matter could be resolved peacefully.

“Big brother, I’m just like you said. I have nothing to do with the ning family, so no matter how you and the Nangong family plan to deal with this matter, I’ll accept it.” Ning Wenhao had completely given up on the ning family.

He didn’t need to think to know who did such a crazy thing.

Nangong Nuannuan looked like her brother had no intention of letting ning Wenhao handle this matter, so she naturally took the blame for it.

He took out his phone and called Sanji on the spot, telling her that she was very unhappy with the ning family and asked him to get the person out and beat him up, then ask him who did this.

The two old men only knew that Feng Ji Mian had gotten the money back, but they didn’t know that Nuannuan had already arrested them.

Old man Nangong looked at Nuan Nuan and asked, "girl, did you imprison ning haohan?"

kamino did not allow private imprisonment, and it would be against the law if it was discovered. Even though elder Nangong knew that his granddaughter wasn't an ordinary person and no one would find out if she wanted to imprison someone, Yingluo was still illegal.

2788 Unlucky child (5)

"Grandpa, don't blame me. I'm not the one who imprisoned them, it was musta, France's Sanji."

Nangong Nuan Nuan pouted and immediately swallowed the old man's next words.

okay.

The old man swallowed his words.

Mousta, France.

That would be far away.

He had nothing to do with it.

Nan gongze, on the other hand, looked excited. so, Nuan Nuan, you know general Sanji and you were the one who called him just now? "

Before Nangong Nuannuan could reply, her uncle Nangong Shu suddenly thought of something. He looked at Chi Yang and asked, "Leng Jinpeng called me earlier to say that something happened to you in Mosta, France, and he wanted to send people over to rescue you. in the end, not long after, he said that you were safe. If I remember correctly, the one who captured venetong and destroyed the Yamato Kingdom's ranking list was Sanji, who was promoted from Colonel to Lieutenant General, right? It's said that he's a popular person by the side of the French head of state, musta."

Chi Yang's eyes were filled with a blissful smile as he nodded to his uncle, "It's him."

Her first uncle looked as if he had just eaten a melon. He looked at Nuannuan in surprise and asked, "So you were the one who asked Sanji to save Chi Yang?"

Nuan Nuan shook her head and said, "that was the first time I met him. Actually, weinai was one of us back then." Wei nai was also big brother's man. However, I instigated Sanji's rebellion and captured venetong. After that, Sanji became my man. "

With that, Nangong Nuannuan shot Feng shengxuan, who was sitting next to her second aunt, a provocative look.

although she felt that her big brother was already in a very miserable state, she still sympathized with him in her heart. but xuxu's second aunt was about to leave, and she wouldn't be able to see her for a long time, so she had to give her a chance.

as expected, as soon as nangong nuannuan finished speaking, second uncle and second aunt's eyes fell on feng shengxuan.

Second aunt's voice was a few pitches higher than usual."So it was you who asked veneton to make things difficult for chiyang?"

Feng shengxuan liked to eat the food his second uncle made. At first, he was the only one eating while everyone else was talking. However, he didn't expect Nuannuan to suddenly direct the trouble to him. Everyone in the family suddenly turned to look at him.

Feng shengxuan was still trying to recall who venatong was, and as soon as he thought of him, the f * cking iron sand palm rained down on him.

"Aiya, you unlucky child! How can you be like this? After all this time, Chi Yang's assassination attempt was something you did! you unlucky child, how can you kill your own brother? hurry up and apologize to your brother!"

Luckily, Feng shengxuan reacted quickly and put down the bowl. Otherwise, his mother would have knocked the bowl out of his hand.

Seeing Feng shengxuan getting beaten up, Chi Yang felt a strange sense of comfort.

Everyone in the family laughed. At that moment, Chi zeyao felt that his wife had hit him too hard and was about to ask her to stop. After all, Feng shengxuan didn't know anything at that time. It was understandable that he would kill Chi Yang as King. However, he saw Bai Liyue, who was smiling faintly.

Although Baili Yue's character was a little cold, she was actually a very gentle girl. She treated Nuan Nuan, Selina, and danqi like an older sister, giving in and doting on them. however, at this moment, her smile was very faint, and there was an unspeakable sense of alienation in her eyes. chi zeyao was instantly enraged. He knew that he couldn't blame Feng shengxuan for this, as he had been hypnotized.

2789 Potion Master (1)

However, when he saw his future wife's eyes losing their previous glint even after knowing that Feng shengxuan had been hypnotized, Chi zeyao couldn't help but feel depressed.

As a result, he swallowed his words back even though he was about to shout 'stop'.

although feng shengxuan was a vicious person, he was very kind to his parents and the people he cared about.

Therefore, they could only hold their heads and wail. They didn't scurry away, nor did they dare to fight back.

After everyone had a happy and harmonious meal, Nangong Nuannuan brought Chi Yang back to his room to rest.

After carrying him to bed, she brought a basin of water for Chi Yang to wash his face and hands carefully. Chi Yang then urged her to go down.

"I'm fine here. go down quickly. ziyu still needs to remove the hypnosis from big brother. he can't do it without you."

it's fine. Ziyu still needs to set up. I'll accompany you for a while.

Chi Yang gently pushed Nuan Nuan and said, "go down, don't worry about me, I'm fine here. Even if something happens, I can just ring the bell. Even if you're with Feng shengxuan at that time, there will be someone else at home to help me. There are so many people in this room, what are you worried about?"

Nuannuan thought about it and agreed.

"Then lie down properly and don't move. I'll turn on the TV for you. Watch it and turn it off to sleep if you're tired."

"Alright," he said.

here's water. I've already adjusted the electromagnetic temperature for you. If you're thirsty, you can drink it directly. After you're done, you can just put it on top.

"alright," he said.

After Chi Yang had agreed to everything, Nuannuan then leaned over and left a w on his lips.

When Nangong Nuannuan came downstairs, Huang Ziyu had already set up the necessary items for the hypnosis. For the first time, Nangong Nuannuan took out an entire leather bag of silver needles of various size. He swore that he would kill those things in Feng shengxuan's head today.

"What are you holding in your hand?"

Feng shengxuan was lying on the recliner, feeling rather relaxed. At this moment, not only was Nuannuan by his side, but his father, mother, and grandfather were also there. His entire family was by his side.

However, when he saw that Nangong Nuannuan was not only holding a full set of silver needles, but also a bottle of medicine, Feng shengxuan was shocked.

Outsiders might not know, but as Nangong Nuannuan's elder brother who had grown up with her, he knew the extent of the effects of the medicine. More than once, he had seen the iron-blooded men of various organizations being defeated by these potions. So far, no one had been able to survive.

Initially, Huang Ziyu had already calmed Feng shengxuan down, but when he saw Nangong Nuannuan, Feng shengxuan was like a cat whose hair was standing on end. He asked in shock, "you want to use your perverted potions on me?"

"Don't worry, you won't feel any pain from this medicine. However, it would agitate him. Ziyu wants to get rid of all your hypnosis today, but I felt that the black fog in your head was still very strong last time, so I'm going to give him something."

Feng shengxuan almost died from Nangong Nuannuan's words.

"then why didn't you use it earlier?" This was the third time he was hypnotizing someone.

Nuannuan said, feeling wronged, "I just developed this!" I've been working overtime these past few days. What do you think I've been doing?"

Feng shengxuan's face turned red. his face was a little gloomy, but the corners of his lips could not help but curve up. he looked at nuan nuan and revealed a motherly smile. second uncle, second aunt, and grandfather could not help but feel a headache.

Chapter 2790

2790 can be angered to death (2)

so, you've been working overtime these past few days to develop a drug to help me hypnotize? "

"Of course! In order to deal with Feng Luan, removing your hypnosis is the first step. Who knows if he's doing anything else in your body?"

Feng shengxuan couldn't stop smiling after hearing Nangong Nuannuan's words.

Everyone looked at the silent Bai Liyue and fell silent.

Alright, I'll let this kid be happy for a while longer. When the hypnosis is over, he'll be crying.

"Sister-in-law, are you ready?" Huang Ziyu looked at Nangong Nuannuan.

Nangong Nuannuan was taken aback. it's mainly up to you. I'm just cooperating with you. You're the big boss."

As she spoke, Nangong Nuannuan subconsciously blinked at Ziyu.

Huang Ziyu had always idolized Nangong Nuan, and now that he saw his idol winking at him, he almost fainted from her handsomeness.

In order to take care of Chi Yang, who was seriously injured, Nangong Nuannuan had been wearing a t-shirt and a pair of wide-legged waist-hugging pants. She looked androgynous. huang ziyu's face reddened immediately.

"I'll start then, Yueyue."

Huang Ziyu didn't even dare to look Nangong Nuannuan in the eyes. He turned around and looked at his patient, Feng shengxuan.

The moment she saw Feng shengxuan, she finally managed to suppress her embarrassment.

everyone in the family:

"Your son is finished." even if you like nuannuan, you won't like him."

Chizeyao:

"Mom, why don't you wait for me outside?" Otherwise, I might be so angry that I can't hypnotize him."

"You little rascal, your mother is concerned about you! why are you so fierce?" Chi zeyao said unhappily.

feng shengxuan:

“Why am I always the one getting hurt? what did I do wrong?” Nuan Nuan started singing as she set up her silver needles.

feng shengxuan said, “i feel like i’ll die of anger if i don’t hypnotize him.”

When the hypnosis began, Bai Liyue, Chi zeyao, Feng jimian, and her grandfather left for the time being, leaving only Nangong Nuannuan and Huang Ziyu to keep Feng shengxuan company.

After a few rounds of hypnosis, although Feng shengxuan had developed a certain level of immunity to Huang Ziyu’s hypnosis, Huang Ziyu had also gained a certain level of understanding of Feng shengxuan. The layout of the scene was very beneficial for hypnosis.

The two of them chatted for less than ten minutes before Feng shengxuan closed his eyes.

Soon, Huang Ziyu entered the dream with Feng shengxuan.

The old man, Chi zeyao, Feng Jiming, and Baili Yue had walked in after Feng shengxuan had fallen asleep, and stayed by his side quietly. Looking at Huang Ziyu, who had already entered the dream realm, their faces were filled with worry and concern.

Nangong Nuannuan took the opportunity to open the medicine bottle and put all the different types of needles into it.

Bai Liyue was a woman of few words. After knowing that Feng shengxuan had been hypnotized and that the center of his hypnosis was related to her, even she herself couldn’t describe her feelings.

in this relationship, she had always thought that it was a one-sided love, so it didn’t matter if feng shengxuan’s attitude towards her was bad. However, ever since Feng shengxuan had developed stomach cancer in order to get closer to Nuannuan, she felt that he had crossed the line.

She couldn’t stand the man she loved with her life giving up his life for another woman.

Seeing that his eyes were slightly closed, Bai Liyue could only hope that he could successfully get rid of the hypnosis.

She probably didn’t have much time left to be with him.
