Chapter 2801

2801 What's the situation 3

"Yes."

Seeing that Baili Yue had nodded, Nangong Nuannuan's mood could be said to be super good.

she knocked on feng shengxuan's body without mercy and said rudely, " you're awake, you're awake. I've already helped you stroke your wife. If you don't wake up, your wife is going to leave!

However, after knocking a few times, Feng shengxuan still showed no signs of waking up.

"why isn't he awake yet?" nangong nuannuan was surprised.

Huang Ziyu thought of Feng shengxuan's state and couldn't help but say, " "He's probably still in sorrow."

"I'll go in and take a look." Huang Ziyu was silent for a moment.

After all, this was Feng Luan's powerful hypnotism technique. Huang Ziyu didn't dare to be careless, so she held Feng shengxuan's hand and ran in again.

After entering the dream, it was still dark. Feng shengxuan was still kneeling on the ground. Even though she had stopped crying, her hands were still holding Xiao Yue 'er.

"Brother Feng, your hypnosis has been lifted. Sister Yue is still waiting for you outside. You can come out with me. The one who died was just an illusion. Feng Luan had injected a hypnosis technique into your brain when she hypnotized you. I didn't kill anyone just now. I just destroyed the hypnosis. Don't be sad. Sister Yue already said that he won't blame you."

However, Feng shengxuan continued to ignore her.

Huang Ziyu tried to persuade him for a long time, but Feng shengxuan didn't do anything. He could only leave again.

"how is he?" Bai Liyue asked, worried.

"I've already told him that you're waiting for him, and I've even told him that you won't blame him, but he still seems very sad. yingluo, why don't you give brother feng some time? I'm sure he's fine. He's probably just really sad. After all, in the dream, when sister Yue was about to die, he would rather give all the energy in his body to her. "

Only then did Nangong Nuannuan and Baili Yue relax.

Nangong Nuannuan, in particular, had a motherly smile on her face. sister Yue, do you think big brother will kneel on the ground and hug your thigh in repentance after he comes out? " however, baili yue didn't respond to her. she only reached out and poked her head with her finger.

Sometimes, he felt that Nuan Nuan was really mean.

sister-in-law, did you feel the golden light that brother Feng emitted earlier? ”

“Look at this house.”

Huang Ziyu looked around and found that everything in the luxuriously decorated house was broken, even the walls.

Huang Ziyu’s jaw dropped. so, brother Feng’s energy was released directly just now? ”

“In a second, the house was destroyed and the hair grew long. What’s the situation in the dream?” Nangong Nuannuan could not help but ask.

Because he had been in the dream for a long time, Huang Ziyu only realized that Feng shengxuan’s hair had grown longer when Nangong Nuannuan mentioned it.

She opened her mouth wide, her face full of disbelief.

I don’t know either. It was just when I was about to kill Bai Liyue and the three children beside her in the dream that a powerful energy suddenly erupted from brother Feng’s body.

Huang Ziyu took advantage of the time before Feng shengxuan woke up to tell Nangong Nuannuan and Baili Yue what had happened in the dream.

“Baili Xing, Baili Chen, and Baili Hao?” Nangong Nuannuan looked at Baili Yue in confusion. “Are they your cousins who have a good relationship with you?” however, she clearly remembered that when she had asked baili yue, she had told her that she didn’t have a good relationship with her family.

Chapter 2802

2802 A different Feng shengxuan (4)

She said that the only person she was close to was her little sister.

When Bai Liyue heard these three names, she was also confused. I don’t know them.

Huang Ziyu:

“But in the dream, they were not only your elder brothers, but also had a very good relationship with brother Feng. brother feng is also the kind of person who would rather risk his life to save them.”

Bai Liyue was silent for a long time before she said, ” “I really don’t know them. this should be a dream created by feng luan!”

although dreams can be created, ” Huang Ziyu explained, ” the people inside must be people you know and are familiar with. Not only sister Yue is familiar with them, but brother Feng is also familiar with them.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Baili Yue, only to see her confused face. “I’ll ask when big brother wakes up later.”

Bai Liyue nodded and looked at Feng shengxuan, who still had his eyes closed. Even though he kept his eyes closed, she felt that he had changed.

The three of them stayed by Feng shengxuan's bed for two whole hours before Feng shengxuan slowly opened his eyes.

The moment he opened his eyes, the three of them felt as if a golden light had flashed through his eyes.

"Big brother, you're awake! how do you feel?"

The moment Feng shengxuan opened his eyes, she could feel that something was different about him.

It seemed to be an aura, but it also seemed to give people a feeling.

At that moment, Nangong Nuannuan felt as if he had been cleansed of lead.

Although Feng shengxuan was powerful, he was also arrogant, no different from a Golden Peacock.

In front of the people he liked, he always liked to show off. In front of the people he didn't like, he wanted to poke them to death.

He was like a Taotie fried chicken. The kind that could explode at any time.

But at that moment, even though Feng shengxuan didn't say anything, Nangong Nuannuan could feel that he had already retracted his fierce aura. It truly gave people a feeling of gentleness and gentleness.

In fact, even brother chiyang couldn't compare to the gentle feeling that Feng shengxuan gave off right now.

big brother chiyang was only gentle in front of her, liked to talk in front of her, and no matter what she did in front of her, he was fine with it. But to others, brother chiyang was still very cold and strict. He couldn't let a single grain of sand enter his eyes.

If someone stepped on his bottom line and broke his request, brother chiyang would definitely be furious. That person was in trouble. That was why chiyang was known as the god of death and the devil in the Eagle Kingdom.

Feng shengxuan glanced at Nangong Nuannuan, then reached out and rubbed her head affectionately without saying a word.

Then, he looked at Huang Ziyu and nodded at her. "Many thanks."

Huang Ziyu waved his hand happily. it's okay, it's okay. You're sister-in-law's big brother. It's what you should do!

Just as Nangong Nuannuan was wondering why this unenlightened person was still ignoring sister Yue, Feng shengxuan's eyes turned to Baili Yue.

"Can I speak to you alone?"

Feng shengxuan stared at Bai Liyue, who was standing in front of him, seriously, as if he was trying to remember every single strand of her hair.

He spoke very softly, so softly that even Nangong Nuannuan could not believe it.

Bai Liyue felt as if her heart had been soaked by this warm voice, and an unspeakable throbbing rose from the bottom of her heart.

Unconsciously, Bai Liyue nodded. Because Yingluo this was the first time Feng Shengxuan had treated her so gently.

Chapter 2803

2803 Darkened (5)

Feng Shengxuan put on his shoes, stood up, and stood next to Bai Liyue. His entire temperament was gentle.

He looked at Baili Yue with a deep and unspeakable emotion in his eyes, which made Baili Yue feel flustered.

After spending so many years together, Baili Yue had gotten used to following Feng Shengxuan around. Because no matter if she was his assistant, subordinate, or friend, she would always be the one who looked at his back.

However, after Feng Shengxuan said that he wanted to talk to her alone, he just looked at her and didn't leave.

Bai Liyue raised her eyebrows slightly, not knowing what this person was up to.

"Let's go," he said.

Seeing that Bai Liyue wasn't leaving, Feng Shengxuan said, "

Bai Liyue took a step back subconsciously, meaning to let Feng Shengxuan go first.

Only then did Feng Shengxuan realize what Bai Liyue was doing.

He stretched out his hand and placed his palm on her back gently. With a little force, Baili Yue automatically opened her legs under his gentle push.

Nangong Nuannuan's mouth turned into an 'O' shape as she watched the two of them leave.

She had been Feng Shengxuan's sister for so many years. Even if Feng Shengxuan had been hypnotized and liked her for so many years, Feng Shengxuan's cocky personality was still deeply rooted in her heart.

Not to mention when he was with sister Yue, even when he was with her, he had never known what Ladies First was.

Even if he liked you so much that he would get gastric cancer just to come to a place close to you, except when there was danger, he would usually eat first, and at most, he would eat with her. When they entered the door, he would definitely be the first to enter, and when they got into the car, he would definitely be the first to get in.

In short, to put it bluntly, this person was a straight Man of Steel and didn't know how to get along with girls at all.

So, this might also be the reason why even after so many years, even if she had not met Chi Yang, she had never fallen for him.

However, Yingluo

Seeing the long-haired Feng shengxuan walking behind sister Yue, Nangong Nuannuan turned to Huang Ziyu and couldn't help but ask, "You're a brain expert. Don't you always say that long hair is short of knowledge? Why is it that my brother's hair has grown longer, and his EQ has also improved?"

Huang Ziyu's mouth twitched. sister-in-law, I only know how to hypnotize people. I'm not a brain expert.

"Aiya, it's almost time. From a professional point of view, why did his hair suddenly grow longer, his EQ become higher, and even Yingluo's personality seemed to have turned upside down?"

Huang Ziyu took a long time to organize his words before he finally said, "I've never encountered such a situation before, but I'm guessing that if brother Feng's personality and temperament really changed after the hypnosis, then it can only be said that his previous personality was not his true personality. When the other party controlled his emotions, he also changed his personality and temperament.

Nangong Nuannuan's horizons had been broadened today. "Hypnosis can change a person's personality and temperament?"

"Of course," Huang Ziyu nodded. After all, Feng Luan was hypnotizing brother Feng's feelings. If big brother Feng was someone who valued relationships, once his most important emotions were sealed or changed, there was a high chance that his feelings would change greatly. It's just like how you see on TV, many men and women either fall or become dark after losing their loved ones."

"Dark state?" Nangong Nuannuan caught on to Huang Ziyu's words.

Chapter 2804

2804 daughter-in-law walking in front (1)

"Don't the male protagonists in novels and TV shows all turn evil after their wives and lovers die?"

Nangong Nuannuan thought for a moment. She felt like she now knew why Feng shengxuan had been so bloodthirsty and cruel in the past.

So, the very gentlemanly, gentle, and refined Feng shengxuan she had seen earlier was the real him?

If Nangong Nuannuan was already this shocked, then Bai Liyue, who had Feng shengxuan's hand on her back and was leading her forward, was even more so.

Bai Liyue felt like she was going crazy from the shock of Feng shengxuan's words. She couldn't even walk properly.

when the two of them came down, everyone saw feng shengxuan, who was wearing a black shirt and had long hair that reached his waist. he looked like a demon that had just walked out of a painting. the entire room fell into a strange silence.

even feng jimian, who loved to bully feng shengxuan, blinked in surprise when she saw her son's powerful aura. she didn't dare to ask why he had suddenly become mei chaofeng.

"Are you alright?" Chi zeyao was the first to speak.

Looking at his son, Chi zeyao felt a strange sense of familiarity.

He felt that although this person was still his son, he seemed to have changed.

Feng shengxuan was still very nice to his parents and family. Looking at the group of people who were concerned about her, she smiled slightly. The corners of her eyes, which were already a little devilish, seemed to be dyed with a faint Halo, and there was an indescribable feeling in her eyes.

"Don't worry, I'm fine."

Feng shengxuan's lips curled up even more as he said this. The old man, Chi zeyao, and Feng jimian had interacted with him more than anyone else, so they knew him better than anyone else. As soon as he made this little move, the three of them could already sense that Feng shengxuan was gritting his teeth in anger.

"Xiaoxuan, are you really okay?" grandpa chi looked at this child. why did he have the urge to cut feng luan into pieces?

"Grandpa, don't worry. I'm really fine."

Feng shengxuan's attitude towards old man Chi was extremely good and gentle. Even when he knew that the old master was his grandfather, he rarely treated the old master so gently.

Suddenly being so gentle to others, not to mention the old master, even Chi zeyao, who was familiar with him, could not stand it.

This child, was he possessed?

After Feng shengxuan greeted his family, he followed Bai Liyue out in a gentle and refined manner.

"Zeyao, my wife was the one who walked in front just now, right? Right? Am I seeing things?"

Chi zeyao's gaze was fixed on Feng shengxuan's back until he and Bai Liyue had disappeared out of the door.

"i'll go look for nuannuan."

"i'll go too."

"Let's go together."

after all, he was his only son, and chi zeyao was a little worried. When Feng Ji Mian heard this, she hurriedly followed. The old man couldn't sit still anymore and prepared to follow.

in the end, she saw nangong nuan warm up.

It just so happened that everyone was concerned, so Nangong Nuannuan asked Ziyu to explain the matter to everyone.

Everyone felt that this was a fantasy.

second uncle, no wonder you're the kind of man who's refined and elegant, while my big brother has the image of fried chicken. It turns out that my big brother's personality has also changed.

Feng jimian immediately interjected, " yes, zeyao was hypnotized too.

Chapter 2805

2805 Admit your mistake (2)

no wonder I felt that your personality was so different from before. It was because of the hypnosis.

Chi zeyao glanced at his second aunt and asked, " "You used to say that I have a very interesting personality."

Although it was just a statement, the latter part was very clear. You used to say that my personality is very interesting, but now you say that my personality has changed. Does that mean that my current personality is not interesting?

Nangong Nuannuan looked at her second aunt nosily, wanting to know how she would answer.

In the end, before she could even look over, second aunt spoke with an unusually strong desire to live, " "Yeah, I've always thought that your personality was very interesting. I thought that kind of personality was the best in the world, you know? Who knew that when I saw you again this time, you would hide your edge and your entire person would be calm, like a beautiful jade that has been washed out of lead, not high-profile, but you have a light that no jewelry can compare to."

Hey!

Nangong Nuannuan only wanted to give her second aunt ten thousand likes.

feng shengxuan took bai liyue outside and slowly walked to the lake.

There were mountains and rivers here, and it was all natural scenery. Yue 'er would definitely like it.

"Yue 'er, I'm sorry."

Bai Liyue was stunned, and her heart moved slightly. She didn't expect Feng shengxuan to admit his mistake as soon as he arrived. she didn't expect feng shengxuan to call her 'yue' er'.

He had always called her Baili Yue before.

Being called "Yue 'er" so gently by him, Baili Yue suddenly felt that she was surrounded by happiness.

this kind of happiness came so suddenly, and it was so unreal.

Bai Liyue opened her mouth and was about to say that there was no need to apologize. After all, feelings were things that both parties were willing to do. It was not like she liked the other party and the other party must like her. Therefore, in this relationship, she was serious and sincere, and she did not expect anything in return.

However, Feng shengxuan continued his sentence and added, " "I didn't protect you well."

Baili Yue, [ what??? ]

When she finally came to her senses, Bai Liyue said, " "Are you referring to the dream? feng luan was the one who hypnotized you in the dream. the baili yue in there isn't me. You don't have to apologize. Also, I'm very happy that you're able to remove it. You won't be controlled by Feng Kun anymore."

When Baili Yue was talking, Feng shengxuan kept looking at her gently. He would never interrupt her like before.

seeing that bai liyue had misunderstood him, feng shengxuan didn't explain.

Because he could feel that because of his previous courting of death, a Rift that was difficult to smooth over had already formed between him and Yue 'er.

Thinking back to the past, Feng shengxuan quickly found the root of the problem.

"There's one more thing I need to apologize to you for."

Bai Liyue looked at him doubtfully. She didn't understand why he suddenly became so unfathomable after the hypnosis was lifted. She couldn't guess why he would say such words.

"When I was hypnotized, I always thought that the person I liked was Nuannuan, so I never looked at you. You're good to me. They took care of my body and worried that my condition would worsen, but I trampled on my own body."

Suddenly bringing up the topic that she couldn't accept the most, Baili Yue's tensed pretty face immediately flushed red, and the anger that was buried in her heart instantly gushed out.

however, she swallowed the words she had blurted out when she met feng shengxuan's gentle and deep eyes.

2806 The sudden gentleness (3)

"At the time, I didn't think too much. I just thought that even if I had to drag my body down, Nuannuan would still be able to pull me back from the gates of hell. at that time, nuan nuan and chi yang had already gotten together. although i didn't say anything, i was very anxious. Therefore, while he sent people to kill Chi Yang, he also wanted to get close to Nuannuan. But you know Nuan Nuan's personality. If I hadn't worn my body down, I really wouldn't have been able to find a reason to get close to her. "

"I know what you're thinking." How could she not know what he was saying?

However, even though she knew, she could not accept it.

"I know you know. I also know that you gave up on me completely because of me."

Bai Liyue looked at Feng Shengxuan, whose face was full of sincerity, and whose eyes were filled with apology and determination.

"Yue 'er, I'm sorry," Feng Shengxuan said sincerely. Also, thank you."

"Thank me for what?" Bai Liyue was puzzled.

"Thank you for liking me so much. Thank you for taking care of me. I'm most grateful for your company."

Bai Liyue narrowed her eyes slightly. It's nothing. I'm your subordinate, so it's my duty to stay by your side.

Feng Shengxuan looked at the adoration and resistance in Bai Liyue's eyes. The words that were about to come out of his mouth were stuck in his throat.

"Yue 'er."

"What?"

"You're not my subordinate."

Bai Liyue looked at Feng Shengxuan. At this time, the summer breeze gently brushed across his face, causing his long and silky hair to flutter slightly.

His strong hormones brought with them an indescribable beauty, and he just stood in front of her in a shocking manner. It made Bai Liyue's heart beat faster uncontrollably, as she had already gotten used to seeing Feng Shengxuan's face.

"Perhaps I've said a lot of unpleasant things to hurt you in the past, but even when I was hypnotized, I never really treated you as a subordinate. I'm just familiar with you and rely on you, but I'm also afraid of the dependence I have on you."

Feng Shengxuan's voice was very soft, even gentler than the summer wind blowing on his face.

Bai Liyue knew that although Feng Shengxuan had said a lot of hurtful things to her before, he had never treated her as a real subordinate. For example, when she was in trouble, if it wasn't for Feng Sheng Xuanyuan, who was concerned about her, and immediately asked Dan Qi to investigate her whereabouts and come to her rescue in time, she would have become a pile of bones.

In the face of such a gentle and gentle Feng Shengxuan, who even seemed a little humble when he explained to her, Bai Liyue really wanted to tell him that she had forgiven him. She, Yueyue, liked him too.

But when she thought of those people, Bai Liyue swallowed the words that were on the tip of her tongue.

Seeing that Bai Liyue was at a loss, Feng Shengxuan reached out his hand and used his fair and slender fingers to smooth out her slightly messy hair. After seeing that the tips of her ears were slightly red, he said with satisfaction, " "But that was in the past. You also know that I was hypnotized in the past. Even if I'm wrong, you can't blame me for it. Now that the hypnosis had been removed, it was equivalent to a new life. You see, my life has already been given a second chance, so my love should be able to be given a second chance too, right?"

"Huh?"

Bai Liyue looked at Feng shengxuan, who was acting shamelessly, and the words of rejection were stuck in her throat for a long time. Because Yingluo

She was a superficial person.

She really despised herself for this.

Chapter 2807

2807 Leaf?(4)

From the very beginning, Feng shengxuan's good looks had strongly attracted her. He was like a magnet. No matter where he appeared, her eyes would always follow him.

So even if she knew that they would not be able to be together in the future, she could not say cruel words of rejection to him at this moment.

Anyway, she might leave soon, so let it be.

Even if she could not accept him, she did not want to reject him.

For some reason, Feng shengxuan felt that he could read Bai Liyue's mind.

Even if he didn't know why this girl was unwilling to accept him, he could tell that she actually wanted to accept him.

It was all about fate between people. As long as they still liked each other, then no matter what happened, it was not a big deal.

" it's okay, you don't have to rush to answer me. i have a lot of time to pursue you again. "

Baili Yue:

Facing Feng shengxuan in this state, Bai Liyue felt helpless. It seemed like everything he said was right, but also seemed like everything he said was wrong.

After he finished speaking, Feng shengxuan stretched out his hand again. Just as he was about to touch Baili Yue's face, his hand wiped her face after her face had turned slightly pink. He reached out and plucked a few leaves from the branch behind her, his peach-like eyes glancing back slightly. Bai Liyue's eyes, which were blocked by his body, instantly turned cold.

"Have you guys watched enough? Does it look good?"

The man who had been following Bai Liyue from a distance and waiting for her to be alone was stunned when he heard Feng shengxuan's sudden words.

However, when Feng shengxuan turned around, they immediately realized that they had been exposed.

They cursed in their hearts, "damn it!" The two of them turned around and ran.

After all, all of them were big shots.

Not only Bai Liyue, but Feng shengxuan, Chi Yang, Nangong Nuannuan, Aiden, Selena, and danqi were also there.

They would have to risk their lives to kill Bai Liyue, let alone face so many experts.

The two of them didn't even think and turned to run.

seeing this, bai liyue immediately chased after him.

However, she had only run a few steps when she suddenly felt a strong killing intent behind her.

Bai Liyue's footsteps paused, and a few afterimages flew out in front of her.

It really was an afterimage. For a person who had reached a certain level in Qinggong, she could see the trajectory of bullets clearly, so she was generally not afraid of being attacked by bullets. As long as it wasn't a dense hail of bullets, she could rely on this feeling to Dodge it. Who knew that the few afterimages that flew past were faster than bullets.

Bai Liyue widened her eyes and looked over, only to see the afterimage arrive in a flash. The legs of the two people who were trying to escape a hundred meters ahead were quickly cut off by these afterimages, and they didn't even have time to Dodge.

Bai Liyue could even see the legs of the two people flying directly.

just a moment ago, feng shengxuan had gently reached out and brushed past her cheek, picking a few leaves from the tree behind her.

he had just been hypnotized, and the nangong family was heavily guarded. there were many people inside, so even nangong nuannuan probably didn't expect someone to come to the nangong family's house to cause trouble. therefore, no one carried any weapons with them when they were at home.

Could it be the leaves of the Pi Xiu that cut off the four legs of the two people in front?

At this moment, Feng shengxuan had already walked in front of Baili Yue.

In the past, Feng shengxuan would have gone up to check it out.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2808

2808 Terrifying power (5)

But today, Feng shengxuan walked right up to her and looked at her like a gentleman. He even looked at her with a doting expression and asked, "do you want to go and see which blind person is monitoring us?"

Baili Yue couldn't get used to such a gentlemanly Feng shengxuan. She coughed and nodded.

"Let's go," Feng shengxuan smiled.

Just like when he asked her to leave, Feng shengxuan placed his palm gently on her back again. Feeling the scorching temperature of the palm, Bai Liyue hurried forward.

There were two people watching them, and now both of them had nothing under their thighs.

Although the two of them did not cry out in pain after being injured, the fear in their eyes was vividly reflected.

even without their legs, they still tried to run away with their legs. they tried to get up several times, but they fell down because of their unstable center of gravity.

By the time they fell for the third time, Feng shengxuan and Bai Liyue had already arrived in front of them.

The first thing that Bai Liyue saw were the few leaves that looked like darts stuck in the stone.

it was green and emerald. when the breeze blew, the upper part of the leaves would still flutter with the wind. however, when bai liyue looked at the section that was stuck in the stone, she could not help but be shocked.

was this yingluo still the feng shengxuan she knew?

cutting off two people's legs with a leaf from a distance of 100 meters was already unbelievable enough. however, after cutting off two pairs of legs, the leaf could still stab into the stone. How much strength did this require?

Bai Liyue looked at Feng shengxuan in surprise, but Feng shengxuan only gave her an extremely pleasant and gentle smile.

I told you, I have a new life.

Bai Liyue seemed to have understood something from this short sentence.

This freshman wasn't just a freshman whose hypnosis had been removed, but also a freshman whose strength had been suppressed and could see the light of day again, right?

Feng shengxuan looked down at the two people who were struggling in horror. Just when the other party thought that Feng shengxuan was going to ask them questions, he only said nonchalantly, "I told him long ago that although the bugmen are powerful, they won't be of much use in the end. Didn't you hear me when I said that there can't be bugmen in KE?"

The two monitors:

"Since you can't hear him and are still willing to work for him, then you can die before him. in the future, i'll go to the infernal realm and serve him."

After that, Feng shengxuan did not do anything, but the two of them screamed at the same time.

Bai Liyue was wondering if these were bugmen, they should not feel pain. As a result, the two of them exploded with a loud bang while screaming.

“Be careful,” he warned.

Let's go! Feng shengxuan said as he blocked Baili Yue with one hand.

Following the sound of two watermelons bursting, the two people actually didn't even have a corpse, and their entire bodies exploded into a cloud of blood mist.

The blood mist splattered everywhere. Bai Liyue was not far from them, so she thought that she would be splashed with a lot of blood. However, she did not expect that when the blood was about to splash on her, it was as if it was blocked by some force. It all sprayed on a spot a foot away from her and fell heavily.

The area within a foot of her was completely clean.

Once again, Bai Liyue looked at Feng shengxuan in surprise.

“How is your strength so weak?”

(I saw many treasures asking me when it will end. Soon, ha. The main event was already coming to an end. However, there was an exception.)

Chapter 2809

2809 True personality (1)

Feng shengxuan looked at his hand and smiled. He didn't seem to care. “Maybe it's because I was born with divine strength. He probably didn't just hypnotize my feelings, he also sealed my strength. Do you believe that I can definitely crush Chi Yang right now?”

Although he had already understood his feelings, Feng shengxuan's heart had always been soft for Nuannuan.

Nuannuan was like a little sister to him. Which normal man would be indifferent when he saw the good cabbage that he had raised carefully from a young age being eaten by a pig, and even clap his hands and praise it?

Definitely not. Therefore, Feng shengxuan still had a strong desire to win against Chi Yang.

“chi yang is lying there and can't even move. where does your sense of superiority come from?”

Seeing that Yue 'er had finally relaxed and started to joke around with him, Feng shengxuan's tensed heart finally relaxed.

“Let's go in. They're still waiting for me. ”

“Yes.” Bai Liyue nodded.

It was obvious that she was indeed the eye of Feng shengxuan's hypnosis array.

He didn't believe that Feng shengxuan liked him before, but Feng Su wouldn't allow that to happen. So, he might have hypnotized Feng shengxuan when he was very young. However, at this moment, Bai Liyue believed it.

Because at this moment, Feng shengxuan was really warm and considerate, and she could feel his sincerity.

He clearly liked her, but he didn't force her.

He only explained what had happened earlier and did not explain himself too much.

Although he had expressed his feelings for her, he did not force her to be with him or ask her to stay by his side.

he had only told her that he would start over.

It was as if the God of fate had suddenly descended. Everything that she had envied Nuan Nuan for was now returned to her in its original form. In fact, it was even gentler than before.

Although she was about to leave, Bai Liye's heart was still sweet.

In the days to come where she wouldn't be able to see him, perhaps this moment could be fixed for eternity.

After seeing Feng shengxuan and Bai Liye return, the lively house instantly quieted down.

Feng shengxuan raised an eyebrow and asked Nangong Nuannuan, "what are you guys talking about that i can't hear?"

The eloquent Nangong Nuannuan chuckled and quickly waved her hands. no, no. I'm just telling everyone that you're a lot better than before after your hypnosis was removed.

Feng shengxuan raised an eyebrow.

"What true personality?" asked Bai Liye.

"Sister Yue, you've been talking to big brother for so long just now. Don't you feel that big brother's personality has changed? Don't you feel that big brother's personality is actually very similar to second uncle's? they're both refined and elegant, gentle as Jade, just like a splash-ink painting, simple and elegant but also hiding a heavy feeling?"

"You little girl, stop flattering me. Are you saying that my personality was already bad in the past?"

"Of course! Otherwise, do you think you had a good personality in the past?"

Nangong Nuannuan was the only one who was very casual in front of Feng shengxuan. Even though Feng shengxuan now exuded a refined and intimidating aura that even his mother, Feng jimian, couldn't bear to call him a child, Nangong Nuannuan, as his younger sister, didn't seem to feel the pressure at all. The only feeling she had was that Feng shengxuan's personality had changed for the better, and she could bully and oppress him more now.

2810 Fate (2)

Feng shengxuan didn't know what to say in the face of Nangong Nuannuan's question.

by the way, big brother, who are Baili Xing, Baili Chen, and Baili Hao? ”

Huang Ziyu had asked Baili Yue about these three people before and thought they were her family, but Baili Yue didn't know them at all.

That was why Nangong Nuannuan was more eager to know who the three people were.

However, when Feng shengxuan heard this question, he was stunned. An image seemed to flash across the depths of his mind. But it was too deep, so deep that when he wanted to look, there was nothing left.

so he turned to look at bai liyue. ” they both have the same surname, baili. are they your family? ”

“I don't know him,” Bai Liyue shook her head. However, I left home at a very young age, so it's possible that there are such clansmen.”

Huang Ziyu shook his head. in brother Feng's dream, these three people were very important to both you and him. They were so important that you could sacrifice yourself to protect those three people. Those three people seemed to be able to sacrifice themselves to protect you. Huang Ziyu glanced at Feng shengxuan, making sure that he really didn't know who these three people were, before he said, ” “She doesn't seem to like brother Feng. They all think that it was brother Feng who snatched you away.”

Huang Ziyu's words made Baili Yue and Feng shengxuan feel strange. They looked at each other and confirmed that they didn't know each other. Feng shengxuan then said, ” is it possible that you didn't create this dream, but Feng Tan? ”

Huang Ziyu nodded,”I didn't create this dream.” I created a different scene, but when I came in, I found that you were in a Fairyland-like scene. Moreover, Yingluo, whether it was sister Yue or the three people with the surname Baili, they were all wearing ancient-style clothes. they were all like you in ancient times. Especially when you found out that sister-in-law was going to kill Baili Hao, your hair in the dream suddenly grew longer, and you were even prepared to resist sister-in-law's Silver needle with medicine. Although dreams were illusory, it was impossible to not care about them if they wanted to anger you to that extent. That's why I wanted to ask if you knew those three people.”

“I don't.” Feng shengxuan answered without thinking.

“So, Xiao Xuan's situation should be the second one you mentioned just now?” Grandpa Chi couldn't help asking.

Huang Ziyu nodded, and then the whole family fell silent.

“What second option?” Bai Liyue could not help but ask.

She really didn't want him to suffer anymore.

“Do you remember second uncle's speculation that Feng Luan's enemies were actually you and brother chiyang?” Nangong Nuannuan explained.

“Of course.”

“we’re all very curious as to why feng kun had been planning these things since decades ago. Why did he start scheming against you all from his grandfather’s generation? we even guessed that big brother chiyang’s mother was from that world and might be related to that world.

But in your dream, those three people who can make you and sister Yue protect them with your life appeared. Although they look like children, I can see that they have a very good relationship with you and sister Yue, especially with sister Yue.

In Buddhism, there was a saying called fate. Some people will dream about things that happened decades ago, or even one or two hundred years ago, while others will dream about things that happened a long time later.”
