Chapter 281: Tracking Down

"It could only be done during that time. Now, I have to trouble you to help me find out the specifics that happened during my stem cell transplant with Zhong Qianqian before I was three years old."

"Big Boss, leave this matter to me, I'll definitely check it out for you." Selina angrily patted her chest and promised, "When we find out what happened, I'll definitely want Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Qianqian to die a dog's death!"

This was just too much!

Just too infuriating!

Aiden kept a sullen expression for a long time before saying, "You started remembering things at three years old. Such a big feat already counts as a big event that should be rooted in memory, yet you have no knowledge about this incident, Big Boss. Therefore, Big Boss, we can hypothesize that you weren't even three years old yet when this operation was done."

"It's life-threatening to have a stem cell transplantation done before the age of three, but your biological father actually approved it. Big Boss, I have reason to suspect that your father is not a good person either."

Zhong Nuannuan smiled indifferently. "He has always been a person who never does anything without a purpose. He will stand on the side of whoever benefits him."

She even suspected that Nangong Yu's death might be related to Zhong Kuijun.

"That's why I asked you to find out about what had happened to Nangong Yu back then. How's your investigation going?"

"It's beginning to take shape. Nangong Yu was indeed the Nangong Family's little princess, and Camino's top socialite at that time. However, due to some unknown reason, Nangong Yu had been very well protected since she was born, and the Nangong Family almost completely barred her from meeting others."

"Therefore, even though she was the top socialite in Emperor District, very few people had ever seen her. Especially after Nangong Yu grew up. By then, almost no one ever saw her. It took me a lot of effort to find a picture of her when she was 15 years old."

Unidentical!

She looked nothing like Nangong Yu.

Noticing Zhong Nuannuan's uncertainty, Aiden took out another photo and gave it to Zhong Nuannuan. "This is Zhong Kuijun and Pu Yu's wedding photo back then. Selina did some hacking and pulled it out of the archives of the Civil Affairs Bureau."

Zhong Nuannuan took the other photo, and raised her eyebrows slightly after looking at it.

"Big Boss, are you sure that Pu Yu is Nangong Yu, the Nangong Family's little princess?"

Only

"Yeah." Zhong Nuannuan nodded. After all, she had experienced all this during her previous life, so she was entirely convinced of Nangong Yu's identity.

"Then Nangong Yu must've undergone plastic surgery." Selina never doubted anything her big boss was sure of.

"However, why did Nangong Yu have to undergo plastic surgery? Did she get plastic surgery before she met Zhong Kuijun, or did Zhong Kuijun make her get plastic surgery after her memory loss? Big Boss, why do I feel that the Zhong Family is hiding a huge secret?" When Selina said this, a bright light shone in her eyes.

Her life was so boring now, so she had a strong yearning to get to the bottom of big mysteries like this.

"Recently, Selina and I wanted to investigate Nangong Yu, but when we dug into the Nangong Family, we were almost counter-tracked by the other party, so we haven't dared to take action since. However, I've already told Dan Qi about this. Once that guy takes action, the Nangong Family will definitely not be able to track us."

Zhong Nuannuan nodded. "Then the two of you should keep investigating the cause of Nangong Yu's death as well as the transplantation of my hematopoietic stem cells to Zhong Qianqian."

"Okay."

Chapter 282: Painless Reward

"Alright, why don't you guys go and play your games. I have to go back and protect Jiang Shuwan."

"Boss, Jiang Shuwan isn't even your mother. She treats you this way, yet you still take the night watch for her?"

"Yes." Zhong Nuannuan nodded.

Just as Selina and Aiden couldn't take it anymore and were convinced that their boss had been possessed by a ghost, Zhong Nuannuan smiled and said. "These are the last few days of kinship, I have to at least leave them with some 'happy' memories."

Alright, that shocked them.

By the time Zhong Nuannuan returned, an hour had already passed.

Seeing that Zhong Nuannuan had return empty-handed, Jiang Shuwan was so angry that her heart and lungs were about to explode.

"Where are the things you bought? You went out for one hour and ten minutes, yet you return empty-handed? What do you mean by this, Zhong Nuannuan? If you are unwilling to buy it for me, just say so."

"Mom, you can't blame me for this. It's so late, so the fruit shops are all closed. I went to several places, but none of them were selling anything. Just tolerate it for a bit, when Zhong Qianqian or Dad comes tomorrow, you can get him to buy it for you."

It would have been fine if she had not mentioned Zhong Kuijun, but the minute he was mentioned, Jiang Shuwan became furious. It was already considered good that he had not divorced her, so how could she expect him to buy her anything nice, or to even visit her?

"Lil Xu, you go buy it for me. I would like to see if the shops are actually closed."

In her desperation, Jiang Shuwan was determined to make things ugly.

The nurse rubbed her hands together. "Big Sister, you will have to give me some money, I don't have enough money here to pay for you."

Jiang Shuwan turned to Zhong Nuannuan and said: "Get some money for Lil Xu, let her buy it."

"Zhong Nuannuan, I gave you so much money just to buy some yellow pears, but you would rather use that money to go on a date with some man instead of buying fruits for your mother, right?"

Zhong Nuannuan didn't even raise her head as she continued going through Jiang Shuwan's purse.

Seeing three bundles of cash in her purse, Zhong Nuannuan generously gave one bundle to the nurse.

The nurse's eyes grew wide as she looked at the ten thousand dollars in front of her. She looked at Zhong Nuannuan, confusion evident in her eyes.

After getting a wink from Zhong Nuannuan, she immediately understood. Happily pocketing her ten-thousand-dollar tip, she used her mouth to quietly gesture to the surveillance camera by the door frame before leaving.

Zhong Nuannuan had noticed the surveillance camera the minute she entered. After all, there had been no such thing there when she entered the ward that morning.

However, it seemed that Jiang Shuwan did not know about the surveillance camera. Therefore, it was obviously Zhong Kuijun who had gotten the nurse to install the surveillance camera.

Nevertheless, the angle at which the surveillance camera was positioned made it such that only Jiang Shuwan was recorded. Thus, the camera did not catch the fact that she had given money to the nurse.

Jiang Shuwan had no idea what Zhong Nuannuan and the nurse had done.

Only

Half an hour later, the nurse returned.

“Madame Zhong, Miss Zhong was not lying to you. I don’t know what’s going on with the fruit shops outside, but they’re all closed. Here is your money.”

When she finished speaking, Lil Xu took a 100 dollar bill out of her purse and returned it to Jiang Shuwan.

“See, I told you that the shops weren’t selling, but you wouldn’t believe me. If you don’t believe me, why let me go out shopping at all?”

Looking at Zhong Nuannuan’s smiling face, Jiang Shuwan was angry, yet she could not refute. Thus, she could only put up with it.

“I want to drink water!”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 283: Pranke

The water was poured and served in front of Jiang Shuwan, but Jiang Shuwan became furious after glancing at it. “How can I drink this plain water you’ve given me? Pour another cup! I want to drink honey water!”

“Mom, it’s easy to have diarrhea after drinking honey water.” Zhong Nuannuan was still being very good-tempered, as if she had resigned herself to adversity.

“Haha, I’ve been drinking honey water for decades, so why haven’t I had any diarrhea before? If you don’t want to pour me any honey water, just say it straight!”

“Mom, it’s really not that I don’t want to buy you honey. You’re hurting now, so even if you didn’t had any diarrhea before, you might have it now.”

“I’m lying down now and my bowel movements have slowed down already, why can’t I drink honey water? I only want to drink honey water, I’m not drinking plain water.”

After saying that, she reached out, swept the glass of plain water onto the ground, and then let out a scream.

The glass that Zhong Nuannuan poured had freshly boiled water in it. Jiang Shuwan’s hands immediately pulled back after being scalded, but unfortunately, Zhong Nuannuan had placed the hot water bottle in the way of her hands when they suddenly retracted.

Although most of it landed on the quilt, a small bit spilt onto Jiang Shuwan’s arm, which made her scream in pain.

“Zhong Nuannuan, you heartless person, you want to scald me to death!”

What happened later was a complete mess. When the doctor came in, Jiang Shuwan's hands were already bright red from the burn, while the sheets and quilts were wet as well, meaning they had to be changed. Besides that, since her ribs were injured, she had to be moved onto a portable bed while the bedsheets were being changed, and had to be moved back again after the changing was done. So much movement almost made Jiang Shuwan want to die in pain.

Since then, she loathed Zhong Nuannuan even more.

She felt that everything was caused by Zhong Nuannuan, and she kept scolding Zhong Nuannuan.

After she had finished reprimanding the latter, she became thirsty for real, and shouted, "Zhong Nuannuan, are you dead? I told you that I'm thirsty, I want to drink honey water."

"Oh okay, sure, hold on, I'll go out to buy you some honey water."

Zhong Nuannuan held back her smile. She ran to the 24-hour supermarket and bought the cheapest jar of honey available, then bought some medicine at the drugstore, mixed them together, and returned.

Seeing the plastic can of honey in Zhong Nuannuan's hands, Jiang Shuwan started to complain again that the honey she bought was of poor quality.

"Mom, the supermarket only sells this kind of honey. If you want to drink other types of honey that have better quality, then how about this? Since the mall should not be closed yet, I can go to the mall and check if they have the type that you want to drink."

"In your dreams! You just don't want to serve me and want to go shopping at the mall instead, right? If I want to drink that type of honey, I'll have Qianqian buy it for me!"

"Okay then, so you'll just make do with drinking this type of honey tonight."

Jiang Shuwan was speechless. Why did she feel as if she was causing hardships for herself?

Only

Zhong Nuannuan soon prepared a cup of honey water with added ingredients for Jiang Shuwan. Jiang Shuwan drank it, and felt tired after some tossing and turning, so she fell asleep very quickly.

However, hidden in the camera's blind spot, a silver needle was stuck directly into Jiang Shuwan's stomach.

Zhong Nuannuan's silver needles were very, very thin, and, in addition to that, the position in which she had stuck the needle was an acupuncture point near the previously done Caesarean section. The muscles there had been severed during the Caesarean section, so even if they were stitched back, they were no longer as sensitive. As a result, even when Jiang Shuwan was pricked, she did not react at all.

At night, Jiang Shuwan was literally awakened by the pain.

It was not her ribs that hurt, but her stomach.

She felt like taking a dump!!!

Chapter 284: Lunatic

As soon as she woke up from the pain, Jiang Shuwan immediately felt that she was unable to hold herself back, and quickly called for the nurse.

Unexpectedly, she found herself unable to make a sound anymore.

In shock, she thought of knocking over the water glass onto the floor so that she could wake the nurse up. However, unknown whether it was due to the shock or the sudden movement, she suddenly felt that the energy channels all over her body were not flowing smoothly. This one movement gave her a sudden shock in the chest as a heart-searing pain spread throughout her entire abdomen.

Jiang Shuwan was in fright and pain, but the nurse was sleeping like a pig and snoring happily, not realizing that anything was wrong with her at all.

After that, Jiang Shuwan turned her head to look toward Zhong Nuannuan. Due to the good conditions here, the wards were of the suite type, and since Zhong Nuannuan was sleeping in another room, it was totally impossible for her to notice the situation here.

Therefore, Jiang Shuwan defecated all over herself in despair.

She felt extremely disgusted, but since it was late autumn, and she was a patient who was afraid of the cold, the quilt was tightly covered. She could smell the stench through the tiny gaps, but the nurse who had fallen into a deep sleep beside her could not smell it at all. Zhong Nuannuan, who was in the other bedroom far away, had covered Jiang Shuwan's quilt tightly and firmly beforehand, so of course she could not smell a thing.

Jiang Shuwan spent the whole night struggling with the severe pain in her chest and the atrocious stench, and even fainted several times.

When the sun rose the next morning, Jiang Shuwan, who had been mute all night, could suddenly speak.

The nurse and Zhong Nuannuan were both yelled awake in the next moment.

"Are all of you dead? I screamed my lungs sore last night but none of you could be awakened. Are you here to sleep or to take care of the sick? You're a nurse, but your snores are louder than thunder, how are you supposed to earn money like this? Let me tell you, there's no way! I want to complain to your hospital, I want to change nurses! This is just too horrible."

"Mom, don't do this! I think that Aunt Xu is quite nice, and she's very diligent. If you're not satisfied with me, you can voice it out, why do you have to scold Aunt Xu? You didn't call us at all last night, so how can you say that you couldn't wake us up even after screaming yourself mute?"

"Yes, Mrs Zhong, I'm very alert when I sleep. I can wake up at your slightest movement without you telling me. Although I snore, it doesn't prevent me from hearing your voice."

Only

"Hehe, do you know that I've pooped myself all over the bed then? Do you think that I would torture myself like this all night just to frame you two? Do you think I'm crazy?"

"I think you're a lunatic!"

"Nuannuan, you go to school. From today onwards until your mom is discharged from the hospital, you don't have to come again."

"Okay."

"Zhong Kuijun, she's my daughter. I'm hurt and hospitalized now, so why can't you let her come to see me? Do you know how out of line she was? She colluded with this nurse and paid no heed to my life or death last night. I was in so much pain, but even when I yelled and screamed, they just ignored me. Boo hoo... I know you're angry with me because of Qianqian's matter, but do you dare to open my quilt to see how much I've been tortured by her?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 285: Too Talented

Zhong Kuijun sneered. "Sure, I want to see how insane you are too."

After saying that, he pulled Jiang Shuwan's quilt off.

Almost instantly, a stench filled the room, and Zhong Kuijun almost vomited from the smell. He did not call someone to change the quilt immediately, but instead covered Jiang Shuwan with the quilt again to mask the stench.

Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Nuannuan were speechless.

"Do you see this? This is what my good daughter did. In order to retaliate against me, she ignored me when I wanted to go to the bathroom at night. You can't keep saying that I'm biased toward Qianqian this time, right? Although Qianqian is not my daughter, but..."

"Smack!"

Before Jiang Shuwan finished speaking, Zhong Kuijun stepped forward and gave Jiang Shuwan a heavy slap, making her face crooked from the blow.

At this moment, the old lady of the Jiang Family had also brought Xie Congrong over, and they coincidentally saw the scene of Jiang Shuwan being struck.

"You... You hit me!" Jiang Shuwan's tears fell at once. She looked as wronged as ever.

Zhong Kuijun was determined to deduct 10% of the Jiang Family's income because of the incident Zhong Nuannuan. Although this was already agreed upon yesterday, 10% of their income was too much a price for the Jiang Family to pay. Since it was not suitable for Jiang Hanlin to come forward, Grandma Jiang had specifically come to the hospital today to discuss with Jiang Shuwan how the 10% deduction issue can be ironed out. As a result, she saw another family battle as soon as she entered.

Grandma Jiang was very upset. While feeling sorry for her daughter, she was also angry because of the fact that her stubbornness had brought unwarranted disasters upon the Jiang Family.

"Kuijun, what are you doing? Wanwan is still sick, how can you hit her? Look... Oh my goodness, you beat the sh*t out of her!"

...Pfft hahaha!

Zhong Nuannuan, who had been holding back her laughter all this while, almost lost it when she heard the old lady's words.

The old lady was just too talented!

Zhong Kuijun's facial expression could no longer be described with the word 'black' anymore. Before he could even speak about Jiang Shuwan's crimes, Jiang Shuwan was already crying and complaining, while exaggerating the story of Zhong Nuannuan not taking good care of her.

Grandma Jiang looked toward Zhong Nuannuan but did not dare to hit her in front of Zhong Kuijun, so she could only stamp the ground with her cane repeatedly, and point at her with a distressed look.

"You... You just can't stand to see your parents doing well, right? You've never had to worry about food or clothing since you've returned home, and your life is a hundred, thousand times better than before, so why are you still not satisfied? Do you think that your life will get better after you've broken your family up?"

"Enough!"

Only

Before Zhong Nuannuan had time to reply, Zhong Kuijun shouted angrily. After that, he took out his cell phone, clicked on a video, and rudely stuffed it in the old lady's face.

"Watch this yourself!"

The video began with Zhong Nuannuan entering the door the night before. During that period, her good attitude and Jiang Shuwan's nasty demeanor formed a sharp contrast.

Jiang Shuwan cried out for her to buy her snow pears to eat, screamed to drink water, then smashed the glass. What followed was a series of yells to drink honey water.

Zhong Kuijun's cell phone volume was turned on very loudly, and Jiang Shuwan, who was lying on the bed, changed her expression instantly after hearing the audio.

"Just now, she said that she wanted to go to the bathroom at night, but claimed that Nuannuan had schemed with the nurse to ignore her. Let's see now, did Nuannuan ignore her, or did she do nasty things like defecating on the bed in order to frame Nuannuan? Watch properly and see whether your good daughter was wrong, or if Nuannuan was wrong!"

When Zhong Kuijun was speaking, he had already fast-forwarded the video on his cell phone to the part where Jiang Shuwan had awoken during the previous night.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 286: Miserable Jiang Shuwan

Grandma Jiang's eye twitched as she watched the video. After watching it, she shoved the cell phone back toward Zhong Kuijun, then walked to Jiang Shuwan and slapped her on the other side of her face.

Seeing that Jiang Shuwan had clearly been framed but was unable to explain herself, Zhong Nuannuan felt happy.

"Boo hoo... What sins have I committed to have given birth to a daughter that would film me in secret! Zhong Nuannuan, why is your heart so vicious that you'd secretly take videos of me. I'm your mother!"

"Shut up!"

"It wasn't Nuannuan who secretly filmed you, it's me instead who couldn't believe you, and was afraid you'd cause trouble. Thus, I got Lil Xu to help me quietly place a camera in the room."

Jiang Shuwan and Grandma Jiang were speechless.

"Jiang Shuwan, I have a serviceman's marriage with you, so divorce won't be easy. However, that's not to say it's impossible to divorce a serviceman! Besides, don't forget that apart from divorcing you, I can also distance myself from you."

After that, he said to Zhong Nuannuan, "Nuannuan, let's go, this place stinks."

Grandma Jiang originally came to discuss how to make Zhong Kuijun calm down and take back his punishment, but in the end, she was faced with such a messy situation.

She hated Zhong Nuannuan in her heart, but she was even angrier at her daughter, who not only liked to act on her emotions, and was also not very smart.

Seeing that Zhong Kuijun and Zhong Nuannuan had gone out, Grandma Jiang immediately followed them as well.

Xie Congrong had felt like vomiting for a long time now, so she did not want to stay for a second longer and immediately followed the old lady out.

The nurse was not only blamed by Jiang Shuwan, but was also heavily scolded. She was originally a nursing staff assigned by the hospital, and had not been privately hired by the Jiang Family. After being blamed, she was reluctant to continue serving Jiang Shuwan, so she ran out to type out a report to her superior. After all, she still had video evidence.

Seeing the group of people swarm out, Jiang Shuwan's whole body felt unwell.

"Who's coming to change the sheets for me?"

"Who's coming to wipe my body? I want to take a bath!"

"Nurse? Where the hell did you go? I want to change nurses! I request to change nurses!"

Jiang Shuwan was rambling inside alone, while Zhong Kuijun did not pay any heed to her. Although Grandma Jiang felt sorry for her, for the better good of her son and the Jiang Family, she could not care for her either.

Only

Grandma Jiang walked up to Zhong Nuannuan and completely got rid of her previous arrogant and impolite attitude. She looked like a kind grandmother, but as soon as she reached out to hold Zhong Nuannuan's hand, she was avoided.

"Nuannuan, it was Grandma's fault earlier, Grandma shouldn't have just scolded you indiscriminately. For the most part, Grandma didn't even know that your mother had been so possessed to the point that she could do such nasty and disgusting things just to frame you.

"Grandma didn't treat you well in the past, and the Jiang Family treated you badly as well. However, your mother always told us about your inadequacies and faults, which is why we had negative opinions about you.

"Grandma knows that she had been wrong now. It's all your mother's fault! You have to be considerate of your mother. She lost you in the past, so she regarded Qianqian as her whole world. That's why now that you and Qianqian are in conflict with each other. She always couldn't change her attitude so quickly, so..."

"You don't have to say any more, Grandma. Don't you feel tired having to give such fake performances everyday? Even if you're not tired of performing it, I'm tired of listening to it."

Since it had been proven that this family had nothing to do with her at all, Zhong Nuannuan did not have the need to be considerate of her any more.

After saying that, Zhong Nuannuan looked at Zhong Kuijun. "Dad, you said earlier that I don't have to come to the hospital any more until my mother is discharged, right?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 287: Jealousy

“Yes. Don’t come anymore. Since she loves her other daughter so much, let her other daughter take care of her. You go back to class.”

“Okay.” Zhong Nuannuan nodded.

“By the way, Nuannuan, are you going to the military base to give acupuncture to the commander-in-chief today?”

“I’m not going today.”

“When are you going then? Let Dad come along with you.”

Of course, Zhong Nuannuan knew what Zhong Kuijun’s intentions were.

“Dad, it’s enough for the commander-in-chief to have me there, I promise I won’t bring you shame. Don’t go, in case others start to gossip.”

Zhong Kuijun thought about this for a while, and figured that it made sense.

His daughter’s acupuncture skills were still quite formidable, which he could tell from his mother-in-law’s reactions. If she could cure a stubborn disease that even the hospital at the military base considered tricky, it would be a huge achievement.

Zhong Nuannuan was not a soldier, so this achievement would naturally be credited to him. If he did not lick their boots and hook up with them, maybe the commander-in-chief would have a higher regard for him.

However——

“Nuannuan, Dad didn’t manage to ask you properly when we were in front of Leng Qirui yesterday. Can you let Dad know whether your acupuncture will really be useful in treating the commander-in-chief’s disease?”

“It’ll be useful. In any case, it definitely won’t hurt the commander-in-chief, so don’t worry about it.”

Zhong Nuannuan’s toward this person was good attitude. After all, he could help her pile the misery upon Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Qianqian at any time.

Although the experiences in her previous life told her that her father was not a good person, before she investigated the truth about her mother’s affairs, they could still make false promises to each other.

He took a card out of his wallet and handed it to Zhong Nuannuan. “Nuannuan, you can use up to 50,000 dollars from this credit card every month, and you can cash out the money as well. Its password is your birthday. Dad doesn’t know what you like and how much money you usually need, but since you already have a fiancé, you have to ensure you don't look too shabby. Take this. If you want to buy anything for yourself or for Chi Yang, just swipe this card."

Even they did not have 50,000 dollars every month!

"Kuijun, aren't you spoiling your children too much? Nuannuan is just a student, and usually gets her food and accommodation in school. Why would she have the need to spend so much money?" Xie Congrong could not help but complain.

Grandma Jiang was just about to speak in agreement when she saw Zhong Kuijun shoot a razor-sharp glare at her. Hence, Grandma Jiang immediately decided to shut up.

Only

Zhong Kuijun had many opinions toward the Jiang Family now, and he felt angry whenever he saw these incompetent teammates.

Zhong Nuannuan watched the interaction between the three of them. Suddenly, a lightbulb popped up in her mind, and she suddenly felt enlightened about the doubts that had lingered in her mind since her previous life.

She accepted the card that Zhong Kuijun gifted to her, and gloated as she curiously flipped the card around and looked at it from all sides in front of Grandma Jiang and Xie Congrong, which made them envious. She even asked, "Dad, is this card really for me?"

Zhong Kuijun had a fatherly expression on his face. "Of course."

"Then if I spend 50,000 dollars every month, will you scold me, Dad?"

Zhong Kuijun was afraid that Zhong Nuannuan would not understand, so he said bluntly, "This is a gift from me to you. If you feel unsafe about it, you can even open a bank card yourself, then withdraw the money from this card on the 1st of every month and deposit it into your own card."

Seeing that Grandma Jiang and Xie Congrong's eyes were almost green with envy, Zhong Nuannuan waved the card in the air. "Dad, thank you."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 288: Jiang Family Surrender

Zhong Kuijun felt slightly guilty when he saw Zhong Nuannuan's eyes squinting as she smiled.

"You're Dad's daughter, so you don't have to be so polite with me. If you can deal with your mom and sister, try to interact with them, but if you can't handle them, you can ignore them. This is Dad's special permission I'm granting you."

“Dad knows that asking them to apologize to you can’t make up for the harm they’ve caused you, so Dad cut your sister’s allowance from 30,000 dollars a month to 5000 dollars yesterday, in case she has too much money and starts causing trouble when she becomes bored.

“As for your mother, having to lie here for 60 days is already the biggest punishment for her.

“Don’t worry, your mom won’t be wandering around during these two months, and you don’t have to come and see her again. If she calls you, you can choose not to answer it as well.”

Zhong Nuannuan suddenly realized why Zhong Qianqian had looked so unpleasant when she saw her last night. Her allowance had been deducted!

Zhong Nuannuan flashed a bright smile. “Fortunately, I have Dad to support me so that I don’t feel like an unwanted orphan.”

“What are you talking about! Of course Dad will support you! You’re a well-justified daughter of our Zhong Family!”

Zhong Nuannuan had had enough of the Jiang Family, so she soon said goodbye to Zhong Kuijun. She also ignored both members of the Jiang Family.

“Kuijun, will Nuannuan still be angry with us?”

Zhong Kuijun looked at Grandma Jiang as if she was an idiot. He did not have the inherently humble attitude of a son-in-law toward his mother-in-law at all.

Grandma Jiang also felt that her question was a bit silly, and immediately said, “Sigh, we’ve misunderstood this girl all along. Tell me, why do you think Wanwan just can’t figure it out? Our Cloud Group clearly depends on...”

Just as she was about to say it, she was frightened by Zhong Kuijun’s sharp gaze. She instantly swallowed her words in fear.

She sighed again.

“Kuijun, I’ve been deceived by Wanwan all this while, that’s why my attitude toward Nuannuan was a little harsh. I promise you that from now on, I’ll definitely look over Wanwan strictly and make her treat Nuannuan well so Nuannuan won’t feel uneasy any more.

“Nuannuan is angry with her mother and I, and this has nothing to do with Hanlin. You can see that Hanlin is handling things for you all day long, but instead of punishing Wanwan when she does something wrong, you ordered for Hanlin’s income to be reduced. Isn’t that a bit inappropriate?

Only

“How about this? From today onwards, everyone in our Jiang Family will make Wanwan go through ideological reeducation. As for the 10% deduction in income, can you choose not to execute it?”

Zhong Kuijun glanced around him. After making sure that no one was around, he replied gloomily, "Everyone in the Jiang Family knows about my warning to her, right? Yet what did you do in the face of my warning?"

"If I don't honor the punishment, you'll be fearless, and will only ever agree with me overtly. Now, not only do I want to honor it, I'll also show my ruthlessness now. If I ever find out if you bully and abuse Nuannuan again, it won't just be a simple matter of deducting 10% from your income anymore. Don't forget how you managed to get to where you are today!"

After saying that, he did not wait for Grandma Jiang to respond, and left the hospital with a stony expression.

Xie Congrong looked at Grandma Jiang with a dejected face. "Mom, what should we do? You can see that he is determined to do this."

Grandma Jiang was silent, and she looked crestfallen.

Xie Congrong stomped her feet in anger. "It's all Jiang Shuwan's fault for insisting on causing trouble for Zhong Nuannuan. In order to frame Zhong Nuannuan, she actually defecated herself on the bed. Is she insane?"

Chapter 289: Black Screen

She was afraid that Grandma Jiang would be angry and defend her daughter's shortcomings after she scolded her, so she immediately channeled her hatred toward someone else. "Hanlin has to reduce our income now. Mom, you previously said that you were interested in the jade at Phoenix Pavilion, but we don't even know if we can buy it anymore."

Grandma Jiang was obsessed with collecting jade, and she particularly liked valuable jade. She had previously fancied a piece of jade worth 2.3 million dollars, and Jiang Hanlin had promised to buy it for her birthday. However, as things stood, her birthday was fast approaching, but the Jiang Family's income had been reduced.

Sure enough, upon hearing Xie Congrong's words, Grandma Jiang's face darkened.

"Mom! Mom! What are you doing outside, hurry up and call someone to change my clothes and quilt, I want to take a bath! I'm getting choked to death!"

Jiang Shuwan's yelling came from the room. Grandma Jiang snorted, ignored her, and left with Xie Congrong.

Jiang Shuwan shouted for a long time, but nobody responded. She was stunned.

The nurse was also gone without a trace.

She could not reach it!

Her cell phone, where was her cell phone?

Jiang Shuwan looked around, and finally saw it on the table beside her. She reached out for the cellphone, which had water all over it.

Jiang Shuwan tapped the screen...

It was black.

She remembered that the big cup of boiling water and all the water bottle's contents had probably poured onto the cell phone, and that the table had a groove specially designed to hold cell phones. She quickly realized that the water had been collecting in the groove and was aghast!

This time, Jiang Shuwan could only yell herself hoarse in the room until her voice started to croak. After half an hour, the patient in the room next door came for an infusion, but asked his family to see what was going on after hearing her screaming. Afterward, he helped her to call the nurses at the hospital.

After exiting the hospital, she gave Selina a call.

"Big boss!"

"Go and help me find out who the actual shareholder of Cloud Group is."

"Cloud Group?" Selina was startled. "Isn't that the Jiang Family's property?"

"Well, yes, but I suspect that the actual shareholder is not Jiang Hanlin, but my dad, Zhong Kuijun."

"Tsk tsk, Big Boss, your dad is really accomplished! Even as a commander, he controls such a large financial group. I heard that your Cloud Group is going to be listed soon, right?"

"Seems like it."

"Wow, Big Boss, then you'll be so dope when you go out in the future. You're the daughter of a soon-to-be publicly listed group!"

"Scram!"

"Hahahaha..."

Selina truly felt that her big boss was really awesome. She did not want to assume her position as the president of four companies which were among the top 50 listed firms worldwide, but instead decided to become the daughter of a trashy financial group that had not even been listed yet. She even had to deal with in-house fighting all day while she was at it. Selina had no idea what she was thinking at all.

Only

Could it be that she really wanted to become a doctor in the future like she had said?

Pfft!

Selina felt that her big boss must have been fooling them. Big Boss was definitely hiding her big move.

She would just wait. She believed that what her big boss was about to do after this would certainly throw them off guard.

“I got it, Big Boss, I’ll give you an answer as quickly as possible.”

After leaving the hospital, Zhong Nuannuan went to school.

The first class was mathematics, which was Zhong Nuannuan’s weakest subject. After all, she had never studied it systematically before, and in order to serve as a foil to Zhong Qianqian when she returned to the Zhong Family in her previous life, she had never read the books either. Hence, when it came to the subject of mathematics, she really did not know anything apart from the basics.

Chapter 290: Last and Penultimate Place

Therefore, in order to get good grades in her Year 3 Senior graduation exam, Zhong Nuannuan decided to start with mathematics from the Year 1 Junior level.

After buying the Year 1 Junior to Year 3 Junior textbooks from the Office of Academic Affairs, Zhong Nuannuan quickly started to read. Year 1 Junior mathematics was still quite simple, and she could basically understand it at a glance.

Leng Qirui saw that Zhong Nuannuan was reading very carefully, but she was not reading the contents of the teacher’s lecture, so he stretched his head and peered at her.

Was there a problem?

There was a huge problem, okay?!

“Didn’t you make a bet with Wu Wenqian, saying that you want her to make her give you her seat during the final exams?”

Oh my goodness, she was only beginning to study Year 1 Junior mathematics now, but she wanted to claim the spot of first place?

“Yes indeed!”

Leng Qirui’s eyebrows twitched. “If she asks you to kneel down to her when the time comes, I’ll think of a way to prevent her from coming to school for six months.”

Zhong Nuannuan finally raised her head to look at Leng Qirui. “Your father is the commander-in-chief, not an underworld boss. Now that Zhong Qianqian already knows your identity, can’t you just keep a lower profile?”

Leng Qirui put on an injured expression. ‘...I’m just doing this for you!’

"You don't need to worry about my affairs, just take care of yourself. Don't just play games all day. Fooling around with simple pleasures can sap one's ambitions, do you know that?"

If someone else talked to him like this, he would be unhappy. He would be upset even if Leng Jinpeng had lectured him like this. However, after being scolded by Zhong Nuannuan, Leng Qirui did not feel angry at all. On the contrary, he liked the feeling of being controlled by her.

"I'm not just being playful. Do you know how good I am? I'm the No 1 guru in the entire server of this game, and so many people want to win me over. With my skill level, I'll definitely be competing in the future."

Leng Qirui's eyes were shining when he said this. It was obvious that he really loved games and treated it as a career.

"You're already first place in the whole server, so who else do you have to fight? Aren't your opponents just scum to you?"

"This is different, I..." Leng Qirui wanted to give an explanation to Zhong Nuannuan, but when faced with a person who knew nothing about games, he felt that whatever he said would be pointless.

"Anyway, in short, I'll definitely establish myself in this field, so that my dad will never underestimate me anymore. He'll no longer assume that I'm mixing around in the underworld whenever I talk about playing games in Internet cafes."

Although Zhong Nuannuan did not understand e-sports at all, she had never thought of this as just a plaything.

Society nowadays was diversified, and being able to play games well was also a way out of poverty.

"I have faith in you!"

Leng Qirui's eyes lit up. This was the first time someone had encouraged him like this.

"Really? You really have faith in me?"

"Yeah." Zhong Nuannuan nodded. "As long as you can reach the national finals, I'll definitely drag your dad out to cheer for you. Let him understand that e-sports are just like other sporting events, and that you can also win glory for your family and country."

Leng Qirui was almost moved to the point of tears.

Only

"Okay."

"However, you still have to take the exam properly. What if your team becomes the top team in the country, but then people find out that you placed last in the whole grade for the final exams. Wouldn't that be too embarrassing?"

Leng Qirui was taken aback.

He had really never thought about this before!

However...

“You’re the one who’s placed last in the whole grade, right?” He was clearly in the penultimate place.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Leng Qirui until his back started tingling, and then asked, “Is there really a difference?”
