Chapter 2861

2861 You're finally satisfied? 2

"But I'm still angry, so you can just wait. Maybe in a few days, when I'm in a bad mood, I'll come to you with the video. Alright, I'll be leaving now. Elder ning, please rest well and take care of your health!"

After she finished speaking, Nangong Nuannuan even extended a finger and made a bye-bye gesture to ning Zhennan. Ning Zhennan was so angry that he rolled his eyes but couldn't speak.

before she left, nangong nuannuan restored the monitor and left.

"Miss Nangong, you're leaving already?"

"yes, i am. you've worked hard."

"It's not hard, not hard!" the two police officers immediately waved their hands.

After Nangong Nuannuan left, the two police officers went in to take a look at elder ning. Seeing that he was so angry that tears were streaming down his face, but he didn't seem to have much of an expression on his face, the two of them went out again and continued to stand guard.

When ning Haoran came to the hospital for a routine visit, elder ning could no longer open his mouth. He could not even make a sound. he could no longer write with his left hand, and he could not even control his gaze.

ning haoran knew that this must have something to do with nangong nuannuan, but so what? he had specifically checked the surveillance footage. in the footage, nangong nuannuan had been talking to him with her back facing the surveillance camera ever since she had entered the room. at first, he had opened his eyes to take a look when nangong nuannuan had entered the room. however, he had closed his eyes and turned his head away after that.

Nangong Nuannuan stood there without touching him or harming him.

Even if he said anything malicious, he brought it upon himself.

"master, what should we do about the old master?" The ning family's butler asked. Now that the ning family had collapsed, ning Haohan's family had disappeared, and ning Wenqi had been arrested, only the young master's family was left.

Ning Haohan walked up to the old man and looked into his cloudy and unfocused eyes. "I'm just here to take a look. I've finished my report to the battle Bureau and will be going back tomorrow. Since everything here has been taken over by the judicial Department, you don't have to worry about the nurses. The steward will come to see what you need when he has visiting hours. As for me, you know, I'm so busy in the combat Services Department and I'm not in dizhou province, I'm afraid that I can only come back once or twice a year. I don't know if you can still understand what I'm saying, but it doesn't matter. I've helped you to check on ning Wenqi's side. Nangong Nuannuan also came to visit you just now. I'm sure you already know that he's from the combat Department, but he's actually involved with the DL members. in addition to the ning family's matter, the death sentence would not be given, but life imprisonment was inevitable. i've also asked xiao yushan for you. she's an accomplice, so she should have been here for more than 20 years. thus, he might not be able to see them in his lifetime. Finally, ning Haohan. He would never come back with the money. You should just give up.

"what else can we do? Whatever cause was planted, the result would be the same. If they wanted to court death, then they could only accept the consequences. nangong nuannuan is already very kind to him. do you want me to go to his house and ask?"

"Yes." The Butler nodded.

Ning Haohan walked up to the old man and looked into his cloudy and unfocused eyes. "I'm just here to take a look. I've finished my report to the battle Bureau and will be going back tomorrow. Since everything here has been taken over by the judicial Department, you don't have to worry about the nurses. the steward will come to see what you need when he has visiting hours. as for me, you know, i'm so busy in the combat services department and i'm not in dizhou province, i'm afraid that i can only come back once or twice a year. elder ning looked at ning haoran and realized that his eldest son's eyes were filled with coldness and indifference. he didn't even bat an eye at his father's death.

2862 Wife's support (3)

Not only that, but he also kept cursing him. She said some unpleasant words to make him sad.

Elder ning wanted to lose his temper, but ning Haoran couldn't tell at all. "But even if you're not satisfied, there's nothing you can do now." If you can't even give me a look, you can forget about saving ning Wenqi and Xiao Yushan. If you knew this would happen, why did you do it?"

ning zhennan wanted to see the hierarch ning haoran, but he couldn't make a sound. He gathered all his willpower and finally let out a short "ang."

Listening to the syllables coming out of his mouth, ning Zhennan lay on the bed dejectedly, looking at the bright ceiling.

Soon, even the bright ceiling dimmed. Because ning Haoran had left, no one would come to see him again. At night, the two police officers would sleep outside, so they would usually turn off the lights in his room. There was only a faint light, which was convenient for them to check at night.

however, they had been on night patrol before. after knowing that no one would watch him, they went to sleep at night.

there was no light, no windows, only a closed door and cold equipment in the room.

Ning Zhennan suddenly felt lonely.

on the surface, he had three sons, but in reality, he had four. however, the eldest son had left, the second son had died, the third son was locked up in musta's french prison, and the fourth son was locked up in the imperial capital. His grandsons had left with his sons, and the only one left was ning Wenhao. He might not come to see him again in this life.

He would spend the rest of his life in regret, day after day.

If he could live his life again, he would rather die than let such a terrible thing happen again.

he was startled.

Wrong!

When Nangong Nuannuan returned home, everyone was waiting for her for dinner.

When she saw Chi Yang, Nangong Nuannuan jumped over to him like a little rabbit.

"Big brother chiyang, who got you down?"

"he walked down on his own! I already told him not to move on his own and to wait for you to come back, but he just didn't listen. I can't help but move on my own!"

grandpa chi was so angry that he blew his beard and glared at him. grandpa nangong, on the other hand, was laughing, but he still stood on his good friend's side and said, "Nuan Nuan, you have to discipline Chi Yang. Other than you, he doesn't listen to anyone else now, and he's very stubborn."

As soon as grandfather Nangong finished speaking, the brothers of the Nangong family started to nod their heads.

in any case, these brothers were quite strange. they treated mu chenxiang, their sister-in-law, very well, but they still treated brother chiyang like a pig trotter even though they were already married.

Chi Yang looked at Nuan Nuan, his expression calm. However, only Nuan Nuan could tell that her brother Chi Yang was feeling extremely aggrieved and was hoping that he would back him up.

Nangong Nuannuan walked to Chi Yang's side and examined his body from head to toe. After confirming that he was fine, she finally relaxed.

she was also very surprised at brother chiyang's recovery speed. it was more than twice as fast as she had expected. According to big brother chiyang's current recovery speed, it really wouldn't matter if he went down for a walk now.

therefore, nangong nuannuan held chi yang's hand and looked at the whole family's searchlight-like eyes. she said without giving everyone any face-

“Actually, at home, it’s also good for brother chiyang’s recovery if he occasionally wants to get off the bed and walk by himself. Of course, you can’t walk too much. You have to come down and walk occasionally.”

After Chi Yang heard his wife’s words, his entire heart melted. Not only had the ice and snow melted, but everyone could also see flowers blooming on his face.

“yes, my wife!”

Tsk tsk tsk tsk tsk tsk

The whole family was really starting to dislike this young couple.

They didn’t know who it was that had repeatedly told them to look after her brother chiyang when they left the house. They must not let him get out of bed and walk, and they must take good care of him. She only left after everyone agreed.

now that she saw chi yang being wronged, she stood on chi yang’s side without any principles or position. Everyone was so jealous!

Seeing the interaction between the family, Cang LAN star and Cang mingya couldn’t help but laugh.

In the past, whenever Nangong Nuannuan or the Nangong family was mentioned, she would always feel that she was out of reach.

After all, such a person was not someone they could come into contact with.

however, after being in contact with them for a period of time, cang mingya and the mother and daughter of planet cang lan were very envious of the happy family atmosphere of the nangong family.

During this period, Nangong Nuannuan told everyone that Feng shengxuan, that blockhead, had finally come to his senses after the hypnosis was lifted. He had gone to buy a house for Baili Yue, so he wouldn’t be back for dinner or to stay there tonight.

When old master Chi and second uncle heard this, they were overjoyed.

after all, it wasn’t the first time that feng shengxuan had been so stupid. everyone was glad that he was able to catch up to them now.

suddenly, the phone of canglan star rang. he took out the phone and looked at the caller id. canglan star stood up from the sofa and went outside to answer the call.

when nangong zheng, who was sitting not too far away from her, saw her actions, he suddenly felt a little upset.

His younger brother was so handsome and he was already 18 years old. He should be at the age where he could get a girlfriend, right?

although the cang family couldn't be compared to the nangong family, mingya group was still a well-known management company and had produced many artists over the years.

And as the host, canglan star would definitely be very popular, right?

Look at his Nuannuan, she was already married at 18.

'This kid is going to call a girl at this time, is he?'

when he thought of this, nangong zheng felt a little uncomfortable.

The people in the room continued to chat happily, but Nangong Nuannuan realized that her fourth brother was clearly a little distracted.

Not long after, she came back from Cang LAN star. Originally, she brought Cang mingya to the Nangong family for acupuncture and to have dinner. However, there was no other way now.

"uncle, i have something to do and need to leave first. i won't be bringing my mother with me. she's hanhan."

"Don't worry, the family will take good care of aunt Cang."

canglan star revealed a bright, handsome, and exquisite smile to nangong zheng. his milk-like face was full of collagen.

"Thank you, uncle."

She then looked at Nangong Nuannuan, but before she could say anything, Nangong Nuannuan said, "Don't worry, I'll perform acupuncture on aunty Cang."

"Thank you," he said. canglan star quickly bowed to nangong nuannuan and thanked her.

Nangong Zheng felt a little relieved as he looked on. After all, Cang LAN star did not bow when they thanked him.

Today is the 5th. It's my idol's birthday. I wish him good things come in pairs! The first 22 floors are the winning floors, and this is effective for executors and above. I can't leave any comments in the comment area these few days, so after it's restored, the babies can just come back and build new buildings.)

"you're in such a hurry, is there anything i can help you with?"

"i'm fine, i'm fine!" &Nbsp; Cang LAN star quickly waved his hand: " my friend has something I need to rush over to. I can handle it.

nangong zheng really wanted to know what had happened to cang lan star, but since she didn't want to say it, he couldn't ask. In the end, he could only say,"alright, drive safe." If you need any help, just let me know."

“Okay, I got it. Thank you, uncle.”

“why are you being so polite with me?”

Cang LAN star left, bringing with it the memories of Nangong Zheng and Cang mingya.

Cang mingya had always known that her daughter was up to something outside, and it didn't seem to be a small one. He would be lying if he said he wasn't worried when he saw her rushing out like this.

However, Cang mingya trusted her daughter.

she believed that her daughter was a very capable person. otherwise, mingya international wouldn't have been able to develop so well in the past few years. It was impossible for outsiders to always lend a helping hand when mingya international was in trouble.

not long after nangong zheng left cang lan star, he said that he was going out to make a phone call. after that, it was nangong nuannuan, the other brothers of the nangong family, and his second aunt who kept him company and chatted with him.

everyone was happy and harmonious, and it didn't make cang mingya feel uncomfortable at all. instead, it made her feel that everyone in the family treated her as one of their own.

Cang mingya was a little embarrassed. When she saw her second aunt going into the kitchen to help, she also stood up and said that she wanted to help her.

Surprisingly, her second aunt did not stop her at all. They walked in hand in hand like sisters.

Nangong Zheng always felt that planet Cang LAN had met with some trouble. Although he didn't want to do this, he still got his men to monitor the license plates on planet Cang LAN.

It wasn't because he was a stalker. After all, he had been with his brother for so long, but he had never had anyone follow him.

However, this time, after Nangong Zheng went out to take a call on Cang LAN star, he felt a little uneasy, which was why he had someone monitor him.

It was fine as long as she was fine. If something happened, he could at least help him immediately.

After all, he was her brother, so she had to dote on him.

After Cang LAN star drove the car out, he immediately made a phone call.

“Hello, Sister Xing.”

“i called guo song three minutes ago. His 20 men would arrive in 10 minutes. I've already sent people to the headquarters to protect big brother and to surround su Zhi. You guys hold on. ”

“Yes, sister Xing.”

“How's big brother's condition?”

“The doctor will be here in five minutes. Yang's wound is temporarily stabilized with bandages, but it's still bleeding. I've asked the doctor to bring enough blood, don't worry, sister Xing.”

Cang LAN star was silent for a moment before saying, "did you put it on speaker?."

"No, I didn't,"

Cang LAN star then said, "there's a ghost on the inside, do you and fan Dong have a way to secretly take big brother away?."

The other side was silent for a moment. I'm afraid not.

"before guo song gets here, neither you nor fan dong are allowed to leave the boss, do you understand?"

"Got it, star mayfly! Bang Bang Bang Bang!"

canglan star was still on the phone with yang shuo. after she gave her instructions, yang shuo was about to respond when canglan star heard gunshots coming from outside. Yang Shuo only said "f * ck" and then went silent. however, he didn't hang up. The phone should be in the bag, so canglan star could hear a softer but clearer voice.

2865 Trouble (2)

"we have a traitor here. this warehouse is a secret warehouse used to store weapons. there's no way su zhi would know about it."

Cang LAN star heard a very familiar voice. From the voice, they could tell that it was Fang Qiu.

little four, go get the car. We'll meet at parking lot C5 in three minutes. Fang Qiu ordered.

"Yes."

"Wait," Another voice called Fang Sheng said, " at least we still have this many people. Even if su Zhi's men come, we can still hold them off for a while. If we leave, we won't have enough backup and boss will be in even more danger.

"But if we don't leave, it'll be a dead end behind this abandoned factory. Who knows what su Zhi's men will do?" tu Yi said.

For a time, his subordinates were in a heated argument.

"The boss is still here, what are you guys fighting for?" Fan Dong of the Heng and Ha generals couldn't help but speak up.

If Nangong Nuannuan was here, she would have realized that this fan Dong was the same honest child who had helped Xu Feiyang when she had just been reborn. However, he had suddenly been asked, " how does our boss go to the toilet? "

The boss he was talking about was Xu Feiyang.

There was a gunshot wound on Xu Feiyang's waist. Although the wound had been wrapped in bandages in time, because the bullet had not been taken out and the wound had not been stitched up, the wound was still bleeding at the moment. his black shirt was also soaked.

His face was a little pale, and his lips were even paler. It could be seen that he had been shot for some time.

Seeing that his brothers were all looking at him, Xu Feiyang finally made a decision. "stay here and don't go anywhere."

Seeing that he was not leaving, Fang Qiu sighed and said to a few higher-ups in battle leopard, " this is the WQ library. Since you're not leaving, let's go and choose wq.

Everyone's eyes lit up.

Even Yang Shuo, who was on the phone with canglan star just now and could still hear the conversation with his Bluetooth headset, couldn't help but have his eyes light up.

"Xiaofang, you're really good! Last time, I heard that you had a batch of goods and wanted to take one from you. What did you say?"

fang qiu looked at yang shuo coldly, " "this belongs to zhan bao. without boss's permission, no one is allowed to take it."

"Alright, alright, alright, alright!" Yang Shuo didn't want to argue with this cold-faced block of wood. He chuckled and said, " "as long as we have the weapon now, it's fine."

fang qiu ignored yang shuo's silly smile and walked to a computer. after entering a series of code instructions, a wall behind xu feiyang suddenly opened.

although the wall looked like it was made of cement and steel, it was actually made of a special material. The wall was more than 20 centimeters thick. This showed how good the shielding effect was.

even professional detection equipment would not be able to detect it without professional instructions to open the door.

After the door was opened, the entire wall behind him was filled with all kinds of new models. There were also some less important things that were casually thrown on the ground.

even the bosses of battle leopard couldn't help but be stunned when they saw so many good things. they ran to pick out the new items on the wall.

"the things inside are full, right?" Fang Sheng could not help but ask.

Fang Qiu gave him a look that said he didn't want to respond.

All the guns here were brand new and had not been used at all. Therefore, Fang Qiu didn't want to answer anything he could.

Fang Qiu gave him a look that said he didn’t want to respond.

all the guns here were brand new and had not been used at all. Therefore, Fang Qiu didn’t want to answer anything he could.

Yang Shuo also helped Xu Feiyang to pick out the things that were suitable for him.

“Boss, what do you think of this submachine gun?” On the other side, fan Dong picked up a submachine gun and turned around to point it at Xu Feiyang.

The moment the submachine gun was aimed at Xu Feiyang, other than Yang Shuo, who had been supporting Xu Feiyang and had not had time to pick a gun, Fang Qiu, Fang Sheng, and tu Yi all pointed their guns at fan Dong.

“why?” Fan Dong’s eyes widened and he roared in displeasure, “i just want to show boss this gun.”

“do you think it’s necessary to point the gun at boss?” fang qiu, who spoke the least, had no intention of putting down the gun in his hand.

the other two were also looking at fan dong with vigilance.

fan Dong, don’t blame us. It’s a critical time right now, so don’t take out your gun for now. Tu Yi also said.

Fan Dong was going crazy.

” damn it, i’ve followed boss everywhere. even if i’m going to jail, i’ll still follow boss. now you’re suspecting me? ”

Fan Dong was an impetuous person. Among the few of them, his skills could be said to be on par with the most powerful star, Cang LAN. However, he was not good at strategy. therefore, under normal circumstances, fan dong’s job was to protect xu feiyang.

Now that tu Yi had provoked him, he immediately pointed his gun at tu Yi, "you want me to put down my gun so badly. Is it because I'm the strongest and you have some ulterior motive?"

Seeing that the three of them were about to fight, Xu Feiyang slowly opened his mouth.

"alright, we're all brothers, i trust all of you. put down your gun."

"Boss!" Tu Yi looked at Xu Feiyang angrily, his face full of worry.

"What, you're not listening to me anymore?" Xu Feiyang's words were still light, but they were full of deterrence.

"I believe in fan Dong. I also hope that you will believe in him." xu feiyang said something that his subordinates did not dare to refute.

Yang Shuo didn't say anything from the beginning to the end. He just stood quietly beside Xu Feiyang with a Bluetooth headset in his ear.

on the other side of the phone, canglan star was speeding through the congested roads of dizhou at an extremely high speed. Along the way, he was fined countless times.

when nangong zheng found out about this news, he immediately ordered his bodyguards to head in the direction of cang lan star. At the same time, he gave Nangong li a call.

As a civil official of the combat Services Department, Nangong li had previously held a position in the police department of dizhou. Because he didn't know what would happen, Nangong Zheng didn't want to blow up the matter, so he could only ask his second brother for help.

Nangong li was downstairs, sitting beside Chi Yang and chatting with him. Although he still despised this pig, it was only because this pig had stolen away his good cabbage. However, he still admired this pig's brain and planning.

He had always thought that Chi Yang's achievements today were because he had a different martial strength from others. However, after getting along with him, he realized that Chi Yang was not only better than others in martial strength, but he was also one of the best in strategy.

the more he removed it, the more he discovered this person who could achieve great things.

Suddenly, Nangong Li's phone rang. When he looked at the caller ID, he saw that it was Nangong Zheng.

because of chi yang's injuries, his entire body was leaning against the back of the sofa, while nangong li was sitting up straight out of habit. Therefore, he didn't have to be deliberate. Because he was chatting with Nangong li, the moment he picked up the phone, Chi Yang saw the caller ID.

Chapter 2867: cheating (4)

Nangong li stood up to answer the phone. Chi Yang also looked at Nangong Nuannuan and said, "Nuannuan, I want to go to the toilet."

As a patient, Chi Yang really liked the days when he had his wife to accompany him when he went to the toilet.

When Nangong Nuannuan heard this, she immediately stood up, helped him up, and accompanied him to the toilet.

After coming out of the toilet, Nangong Nuannuan returned to her room and came back down with a notebook.

he opened his laptop and fiddled with it. the license plate of canglan star appeared on the screen.

Nangong Nuannuan gave her future sister-in-law a thumbs-up as she watched her overtake the cars one after another and even drive in the opposite direction of the single lane.

Even though she didn't want to do this, Nangong Nuannuan still hacked the phone for her future sister-in-law.

After hacking in, he heard the dispute over Yang Shuo's side.

due to her photographic memory, nangong nuannuan was able to recognize fan dong's voice with just one sentence. From this, he could also guess who the boss fan Dong was talking about was.

Very quickly, Nangong Nuannuan sent a message to Xu Feiyang.

Xu Feiyang felt the phone in his pocket vibrating. At this time, other than those on canglan star, everyone who knew his private phone number was in this room. He knew that canglan star was on the phone with Yang Shuo. He looked at the people in the room hesitantly before taking out his phone.

After seeing the message on the phone, Xu Feiyang was surprised for a moment. his eyes were filled with joy.

Although this girl was already taken before he entered her circle, the first time he saw her, she had left a deep impression on his heart.

Back in Haizhou, if it wasn't for her, he would have been seriously injured, if not dead. Not many of his brothers would be able to come out alive.

Not only had she saved his life, but she had also saved his brother's life.

After reading the message, Xu Feiyang kept replying.

And it was a text message.

His subordinates were a little dumbfounded. Seeing that the people outside were about to break in, they only had a few people here, and their boss was still leisurely replying to messages?

After replying to the text message, Xu Feiyang instructed Yang Shuo, " find me a lighter one.

"Yes."

Yang Shuo took a 16-round pistol from the wall for him.

"let's go," he said. they left through this door.

Xu Feiyang, who had originally planned to stay inside and deal with all changes without changing, pointed to a door for his subordinate. Everyone rushed over to open the door at once.

After checking the situation outside the door and making sure that no one was there, Yang Shuo helped Xu Feiyang and followed everyone out.

“To the right.”

at a turn, tu yi was about to turn left, but xu feiyang ordered him to turn right. Everyone looked at Xu Feiyang. However, in Zhan Bao, Xu Feiyang had the final say. Thus, tu Yi immediately changed direction and followed Xu Feiyang to the right.

During this period, Nangong Nuannuan led Xu Feiyang and his men around. She told Xu Feiyang’s subordinates that they had no idea what their boss was doing, but Xu Feiyang was very familiar with this kind of operation.

now, everyone knew that there was someone internally who wanted to get rid of the xu family and su zhi. even the core personnel that xu feiyang trusted had a problem.

the fact that su zhi’s men were able to come here so quickly must have been because of the disclosure by their internal staff.

Chapter 2868

2868 Probing (1)

At this moment, in order to prove that he was definitely not a traitor, even if he had doubts in his heart, he would definitely not voice out his doubts. Everyone protected Xu Feiyang in the middle and opened up a path for him according to his instructions.

This place was originally a large factory. After the factory closed down, it was bought by Zhan Bao to store some things. After all, there were many storage units and machines here. it was also a good place to hide.

xu feiyang looked at tu yi and made a hand gesture.

This was their special gesture, which meant that there were three people in the southeast.

After tu Yi received Xu Feiyang’s message, he rushed forward without a second thought. don’t make any noise.

Xu Feiyang instructed.

tu yi suddenly rushed out from a transfer point and met the three of them.

because xu feiyang’s request was to not make a sound, the moment he rushed out, tu yi’s knife fell and he killed two people with one knife. by the time the other one reacted, tu yi was already facing him. One against one. After all, one was Zhan Bao’s top level, while the other was just Zhan Bao’s minion. The difference in strength was so great that it only took one move to see who was stronger.

in less than a minute, the three of them were all lying on the ground without even being able to make a sound.

The moment the three of them fell to the ground, Fang Qiu and Fang Sheng immediately dragged them in. Tu Yi had also dragged someone in. It just so happened that there were old machines everywhere, so he threw them directly into the machine.

although there were no roads behind the factory, there was water. As long as they climbed over a wall, there would be a River behind them. However, the river water was fast. Under normal circumstances, no one would think of jumping into the river unless it was a life and death situation. Therefore, only a portion of su Zhi's men chased after them, while most of them searched the factory.

After throwing the man into the machine, everyone continued to follow Xu Feiyang's instructions. In fact, when they killed the first three people, they already knew that Xu Feiyang had foreign aid, and that foreign aid was quite powerful. He could point him in the right direction and let him know the enemy's position and distribution.

Therefore, everyone was in a relaxed state of preparation for battle.

Only Yang Shuo and fan Dong could feel that Xu Feiyang's body was getting heavier and heavier because they were supporting him. This could only mean that Xu Feiyang's physical condition was getting worse and worse.

With Nangong Nuannuan's guidance, they quietly killed two more waves of enemies.

When they encountered the third wave of enemies, it was Fang Sheng. Because his gun had a silencer, after taking care of two, he directly opened his mouth to shoot the third one.

the moment fang sheng opened his mouth (voice), a change occurred.

This was because the purple dan (sound) that shot out of his chest (sound) was actually hollow.

The moment the "PU" sound was heard, Fang Sheng had already reacted. After all, he was also a person who spoke often. He knew very well what it felt like to have purple but no purple, or to put it another way, to have a real purple but and a fake purple but.

Therefore, the moment the fake purple was thrown, before the other party could react, he had already reacted.

Xu Feiyang also reacted at the same time as him.

Even though his body was completely leaning on Yang Shuo, he still reacted at the first moment and leaped to the side because of Nangong Nuannuan's reminder.

With a loud bang, Fang Qiu, who had been standing in front of Xu Feiyang to the right, raised his left hand and punched Xu Feiyang's heart before Yang Shuo and fan Dong could react.

(I can't write any sensitive words, so the pronunciation is a little more similar.)

Chapter 2869

2869 fake (2)

Yang Shuo and fan Dong were dumbfounded. even if they knew there was a traitor, they didn't think that the traitor would make a move at this time.

moreover, he had attacked so unexpectedly.

fortunately, xu feiyang had been on the phone with nangong nuannuan the entire time. the moment nangong nuannuan spoke to xu feiyang, she had already seen through xu feiyang's cell phone that the voices in the wall were all fake, so she had reminded him.

Xu Feiyang clutched at his chest and rejoiced that Nangong Nuannuan had saved his life again. If it wasn't for Nangong Nuannuan, that sound would have definitely hit his heart.

But even so, he was still hit on the left side of his chest near his shoulder. in addition to the wound from before, it seemed to have grazed his liver a little. xu feiyang felt that his blood was flowing out of his body rapidly.

The moment Xu Feiyang was shot, fan Dong had already reacted and kicked Fang Qiu.

At the same time, Fang Sheng and tu Yi also attacked Fang Qiu.

When su Zhi's men heard the gunshots, they rushed over immediately. They were about to win, but they had wasted too much time looking for people. When this group of people rushed over, Xu Feiyang's first batch of reinforcements had already arrived.

This group of backup had come with doctors. When they heard the gunshot, they also came over. Because Zhan Bao was a very big gang, even if they were on the same side, they couldn't really distinguish between each other.

This was Fang Qiu's territory, so there was no one else here except for a few people with Xu Feiyang and a few brothers who had followed them.

therefore, when xu feiyang's reinforcements arrived and saw these traitors of zhan bao, everyone immediately rushed up.

they were mixed in with this group of people and couldn't tell who was who at all. once they started fighting, it was completely like they didn't recognize anyone. each of them was king, and soon, the scene where they all aimed at xu feiyang was in chaos.

On Fang Qiu's side, seeing that his reinforcements had arrived and that everyone had guns, Fang Qiu didn't even have time to relax before he realized that Xu Feiyang's men had already mixed in with his men.

Fang Qiu was skilled, but he felt that he could not compare to Yang Shuo, fan Dong, tu Yi, and Fang Sheng.

under the pincer attack of the four, fang qiu was quickly subdued.

These people had all gone through life and death with Xu Feiyang. Back then, who didn't follow Xu Feiyang and slowly carve out a Path of Blood because they had no other choice?

to them, xu feiyang was more important than their lives.

to the five of them, betrayal was an unforgivable humiliation.

They showed no mercy to the traitors.

Soon, the tendons in Fang Qiu's hands and feet were cut off.

Fan Dong picked up Fang Qiu's accent and joined the group outside.

Tu Yi also joined the battle at the first moment.

Yang Shuo and Fang Sheng were protecting Xu Feiyang.

Very quickly, fan Dong's voice came over, and Yang Shuo took it.

Not long after, tu Yi also threw a handful over, and Fang Sheng had a voice.

Although there were many more people on the enemy's side, there were very few of them who had a voice. Hence, tu Yi and fan Dong's main role was to steal the spotlight.

at this time, having a voice meant having the right to speak.

Very quickly, the situation reversed, and a large group of su Zhi's men were under control.

The doctor also ran to Xu Feiyang's side to check on his injuries.

The outcome was already going in a good direction, but at this time, su Zhi led all the remaining people and rushed in.

Chapter 2870

2870 Nuan Nuan's phone (3)

"Xu Feiyang, you killed my entire family. I will make you pay with your blood today!"

As the Deputy sect leader of battle leopard, su Zhi had a lot of power in battle leopard. Coupled with the support of the Xu family, su Zhi had a lot of words of thanks.

At this moment, su Zhi wasn't much better off than Xu Feiyang. His entire body was covered in blood, but at this moment, he had already thrown all caution to the wind. His eyes shone with the light of revenge and the excitement of completely defeating Xu Feiyang.

In the future, the battle leopard would be his.

fan dong was the first to see su zhi, and he immediately shouted, " "Let's go!"

yang shuo and fang sheng couldn't care less about xu feiyang's injury. they pulled him up and ran towards the corner inside.

fan dong and tu yi were the first to engage su zhi.

Su Zhi was old, and his strength was definitely not on par with fan Dong and the other man, but he also had strong subordinates. especially the mercenaries from abroad, their strength was not something that ordinary people could compare with. It was also because of their participation that su Zhi, who had long been kicked out by Xu Feiyang, was able to make a comeback.

Nangong Nuannuan also saw the people beside su Zhi immediately. She didn't plan to help at first, but when she saw the International mercenaries, she immediately called Nangong Zheng and left with her.

Nangong Zheng had just gotten Nangong li to contact the police, and the police had already sent people over at the first possible moment. Because they didn't know what had happened, Nangong Zheng only got people to follow the cars from Canglan star. to prevent her from getting into trouble.

After listening to Nangong Nuannuan's brief account, Nangong Zheng immediately followed Nangong Nuannuan onto the plane.

Cang LAN star didn't know that Nangong Zheng wasn't the only one who had made a move. Even Nangong Nuannuan, the big boss, had come personally.

her call with yang shuo had not been cut off. the moment she heard that su zhi had brought people over, the entire Canglan star was on tenterhooks.

The distance between the Nangong family and the factory was not far. It would take at least 3 minutes to reach Cang LAN star.

However, could her big brother hold on for three minutes?

"Sister Xing, I'm here."

Guo song's voice came from another phone call.

cang lan star's eyes lit up,"quick, big brother and the others are in area 21, hurry." I've already sent you the location. Be careful of su Zhi and his international mercenaries. They were the ones who injured boss. If you can't beat him, then we'll use underhanded means."

"Yes, I know. don't worry, i'll definitely protect big brother."

Guo Song was about to hang up when a third person's voice suddenly came from the phone. hit their joints and fatal spots. It's useless to hit other places.

guo song thought that Canglan star had called their friends, so he agreed and hung up the phone. the group of people went straight to the 21st area.

Leaving Cang LAN star in a mess on the phone.

this is yingluo.

"Nuannuan?"

"Xingxing, those three people are experimenters. You can't beat them. buy some time and protect yourself. my brother and i have already taken off from the nangong family's house. we'll be there in five minutes."

Although she didn't know how Nangong Nuannuan was able to hack into her encrypted phone, nor did she know how Nangong Nuannuan knew about her big brother's situation, to be able to get help from Nangong Nuannuan and the uncle, her heart that was hanging in her throat immediately relaxed.

Guo Song and the others didn't have many people, and they definitely couldn't beat those international mercenaries in terms of martial strength. However, they won in that each of them had five Qis.
