Chapter 2881

2881 i promise you (1)

Although Nangong Zheng wasn't very satisfied with this answer, at least it didn't make him angry.

"since it's the same, why can they all know your gender but i can't?"

cang lan star quickly explained, "it's not that we can't!" I just didn't find a good opportunity to tell you, did I?"

Looking at Nangong Zheng's "am I that easy to fool" expression, in order to make him dispel the thought that she was intentionally hiding from him, star Cang LAN said, "didn't i ask you before if i could be your blind date? Actually, I really didn't mean to lie to you! it's because my mother registered me as a boy in my household register when i was born. He still hadn't changed his household register.

You also know the situation of our family at that time. huang tianyun was in a relationship with my mom, but he abandoned her after having sex with her. he took my grandfather's company and money, but he was prepared to marry gu wanyan. My mom had already gotten over it, but she was pregnant with me at that time. Because of the hormones in her body, the doctor told her that she could never get pregnant again.

my mother was determined to give birth to me. even if it was for me, she was not willing to give up huang tianyun. It wasn't that she still loved that stinky man, but she didn't want her child to be born without a father. even without her father, she still felt that she should get back the money that belonged to her.

at that time, the huang family's old master really hoped that the huang family could continue to live on, so after my mother gave birth to me, she directly registered me as a boy in the household register so that i could have a reason with the huang family. i hope that elder huang can give me back my share on the account that i'm a boy.

In the beginning, Huang tianyun still had some conscience. He was very happy when he found out that I was a boy. At that time, Gu Wanyan had not given birth to Huang Yuhang, so he promised to return the shares of mingya group to my mother.

after Huang Yuhang was born, Huang tianyun kept pushing this matter back. In order to get back the shares, my mother never changed the gender. later on, my mother had given up hope on that untrustworthy person and said that she would change my gender back. but when i was five years old, i was hunted down by gu wanyan's men. big brother saved me, and from then on, i followed big brother secretly. Big brother has a very powerful master, he's a very powerful 3s-level top mercenary in the world, but because he was injured, he couldn't take revenge for himself, so I followed big brother and learned martial arts.

Although fan Dong and the others are older than me, they entered battle leopard later than me. that's why they've been calling me sister xing. that was senior sister's intention."

cang lan star felt that her explanation was clear and detailed enough. she believed that with her uncle's tolerance, he would definitely understand her.

"Alright," he said.

"Ah?" cang lan star was a little dazed as they looked at nangong zheng, who had suddenly made a move.

Nangong Zheng looked towards Cang LAN star and said to her solemnly, "i said okay. i promise you."

Cang LAN star blinked its eyes, showing that it was a little confused.

the first thing you said before you explained to me just now, after careful consideration, I've agreed to your request.

what?

cang lan star still didn't react, they kept thinking about what she said.

however, no matter how much he thought about it, he still couldn't understand.

Nangong Zheng looked at Cang LAN star's dazed yet adorable appearance and couldn't help but worry for her.

With this girl acting like this, could she really help Xu Feiyang manage the largest gang in Kamino?

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

2882 marriage (2)

she really couldn't remember nangong zheng, but it wasn't because she was shy. she reminded him, "The first thing you said was that you asked me if you could be my blind date partner. In the past, you were a boy. After careful consideration, I felt that we were at most like brothers. But you're a girl now, so I agree. You were my blind date in the first place, and since you're here to replace a friend, I'll agree."

Canglan star's mouth was slightly open. His face was blank and a little shocked. In addition to the excessive exercise just now, the hair on the top of his head was a little upturned. How could he look at him? why did he look like a cute version of a doll? he couldn't help but have the urge to carry her back and take care of her.

cang lan star was really shocked and dumbfounded. they looked at the extremely handsome uncle in front of them.

What did the uncle mean just now?

was she misunderstanding something?

if she didn't misunderstand anything, then did uncle misunderstand something?

even if she was his blind date partner, shouldn't he first ask for the woman's opinion and whether she agreed to it, besides the uncle's consent?

He couldn't possibly think that a blind date was the same as a couple, right?

Cang LAN star's thoughts were still wandering in space, still thinking that the blind date meant that the relationship was confirmed? then why did so many single men and women fail to go on blind dates? Should she talk to uncle about this, Yingluo?

in any case, just when he was still thinking about all sorts of things on Cang LAN star, nangong zheng was already in a very good mood and had already called his mother.

"Hello, I have something to tell you. I already know that Xingxing is a girl, and she asked me before if I was willing to be her blind date partner, and I just agreed. You guys can start preparing."

"Ah?" Cang LAN star had just woken up from a dream when it suddenly heard this sentence. It was so frightened by the uncle that it cried out.

Nangong Zheng looked at her shocked and cute appearance. While talking to his mother on the phone, he couldn't help but reach out to the side of Cang LAN star's face and pinch it. He had always wanted to pinch it, but because of their relationship as brothers, he couldn't do it. Now that she had become his fiancée, it would be a waste not to pinch her face. He continued to speak on the phone, "yes, is aunt Cang next to you?" That's good, you can talk to aunt Cang about our marriage."

Canglan star:

Wait, wait, wait, wait!

Not Yingluo.

Did she misunderstand the word 'blind date'? Or did the uncle and her mother misunderstand this word?

How did it become a marriage?

"En, okay, you can chat with aunt Cang."

after saying that, nangong zheng hung up the phone. facing Cang LAN star who was in a mess and couldn't even say a word, he gave a smile that would kill anyone.

"What's wrong?"

Ever since they had confirmed their relationship as an engaged couple, Nangong Zheng had a strong sense of belonging to Cang LAN star.

In the past, he didn't dare to rub his sister's head or pull her face.

In the past, he felt very happy just by rubbing his sister's head. Now, not only could he rub her head, but he could also pull her face. Thus, Nangong Zheng took advantage of the situation and gently pinched the part of Cang LAN star's face that still had some baby fat.

the feel of the hand was quite, quite, quite good!

Her skin was soft and tender like jelly, but it was much better in texture.

2883 The meaning of a blind date (3)

Because she was still flexible after being pulled, her too white cheeks even bounced a little after she was done.

“uncle?”

“Yes.” Nangong Zheng’s mood was especially good. When he promised Cang LAN star, his tone was even slightly higher.

“yingluo, did you get something wrong?” Although she felt that the uncle’s serious look was very scary, Cang LAN star felt that there were some things that she had to make clear.

As expected, Nangong Zheng’s face turned serious in an instant. Immediately after, his pressure was completely suppressed on Cang LAN star’s body. It made her feel as if the surrounding summer wind had been instantly isolated by the cold air.

“so you were just teasing me when you said you wanted to be my blind date?”

sensing that the uncle was about to beat her up in the next moment, cang lan star quickly shook her head, “no, no! I’m not teasing you!” That was what she really thought at the time. After all, even if the Huang group was facing the danger of decline, it was still a thin camel that was still bigger than her.

although she was zhan bao’s man, in the business world, she had to use business methods to defeat huang tianyun. In addition, Nangong Zheng was the most handsome person she had ever seen, so she was suddenly possessed and suggested this.

however, after nangong zheng rejected her, she knew that even if she was a woman, she was not worthy of him.

After all, he was the young master of the Nangong family and the vice-chairman of the Imperial Group. He was someone she couldn’t see even if she looked up.

Therefore, she felt that she was already very happy to be good friends with uncle and to be able to take care of her like a little brother. she had never thought about anything else.

Cang LAN star’s reply made Nangong Zheng’s complexion improve a little, and his temperature also rose a little.

“Since you’re not teasing me, I’ve agreed to your request to be my blind date partner. What’s the problem?”

“It’s not Jian Jia.” Cang LAN star was a little dumbfounded as he asked: “Uncle, do you have any misunderstandings about blind dates, dating, and marriage?”

nangong zheng looked at the fellow who wanted to argue with him and almost laughed out of anger.

“What do you think I’ve misunderstood? Hmm?”

Cang LAN star, I suddenly feel that the surrounding temperature is even colder than before.

swallowing a mouthful of saliva, Cang Lan star braced himself and said, "a blind date is a blind date when a man and a woman who don't know each other come out to meet."

"A man and a woman who don't know each other? then, i have to meet a bunch of female colleagues i don't know every day when i enter the imperial group. do you mean that i'm going on blind dates with countless people every day?"

"i didn't mean it that way! What I mean is that a pair of men and women who don't know each other will meet up to see if they can date each other. It's called a blind date."

Nangong Zheng didn't want to talk to her anymore. He asked, " "Do you know what the word 'kiss' means?"

Canglan star:

"in ancient times, there was a saying of marriage. 'Close' meant that a man and a woman would become husband and wife and become relatives. This was the true meaning of 'intimate'. You said that you came out to go on a blind date with me. You were willing to go on a blind date with me, and now i'm also willing to go on a blind date with you. What's wrong with letting my Mom Talk about marriage with aunt Cang?"

What's wrong?

There was a lot of things that were wrong!

However, at this moment, Cang LAN star's mind was a little muddled. She could almost feel that there were piles of black lines in her mind, the kind that couldn't be sorted out.

She felt that her understanding of blind dates and uncle's understanding of blind dates were really a little different!

2884 I don't hate you (4)

"uncle, but we're in the modern world now, not the ancient times."

"so?" Nangong Zheng's face was expressionless, but his eyes were so deep that even the Cang LAN star was afraid. It was different from the loving and doting expression that uncle usually had when he looked at her.

"so, at least we should start dating first, right?" it's really fast to talk about marriage without dating!

"Then why did we spend so much time together before?"

"brother!" Cang LAN star subconsciously jumped out.

This time, Nangong Zheng was truly infuriated. They couldn't help but sneer.

"You're a woman, yet you've been with me for so long and even came to my house. Do you see me as a brother? Do you think I, Nangong Zheng, lack a brother who comes to my house to freeload food?"

Canglan star:

As the saying goes, "one's mouth is soft when one eats someone, but one's hands are short when one receives something. not only did she eat at uncle's house almost every day, but her mother had also asked Nuan Nuan for treatment. Uncle had also helped her so much.

He felt like he was going to collapse.

Cang LAN star bit her lips, her head was so low that it was almost buried in the ground.

"i didn't mean it that way."

"Then what do you mean?"

"I mean, you didn't know I was a girl before. Even if Yingluo and I liked you, you wouldn't like me. We're Yingying!"

"Who says I don't like you?" Nangong Zheng directly and forcefully interrupted the words of star Cang LAN.

"Ah?" Cang LAN star raised its head in shock.

"This shows that my love for you is real. Now that I know you're a girl, do you still think there's any problem between us?"

canglan star:

"you think i'm not good enough? Not outstanding enough?"

Canglan star:

if uncles weren't good enough, if they weren't outstanding enough, then there probably wouldn't be any outstanding men in this world.

"Or do you really hate me?"

Canglan star:

"Why aren't you answering?" Nangong Zheng pressed on step by step, not giving Cang LAN star any chance to catch their breath.

"I, Yingluo, don't hate you! Yingluo, you're very outstanding."

since I'm outstanding and good enough, you don't object to going on blind dates with me, nor do you object to getting along with me. You don't hate me, you like me, and our first time meeting was through a 'blind date' with the purpose of marriage. What's wrong with me telling my mother to prepare to discuss marriage with aunt Cang? "

At this moment, Nangong Zheng's smile was much warmer than when he was sneering just now. It made planet canglan feel like it was spring.

However, what should she say to his question?

Canglan star was still thinking about what she should say when a handsome face suddenly grew bigger and bigger in her eyes.

Nangong Zheng looked into her eyes, which were filled with stars. He was extremely satisfied to see his reflection in her eyes, which were like a clear spring.

Looking at his reflection in canglan star's eyes, the gentleness in Nangong Zheng's eyes could almost melt canglan star.

2885 Screwed up (1)

Looking at her blushing face and the look in her eyes that had nowhere to hide, Nangong Zheng explained, "I've appraised it. You like me too.

"I'm Yingying!"

"What's wrong?" nangong zheng raised his brows.

Cang LAN star originally wanted to refute, but seeing Nangong Zheng, who was already very close to her, getting even closer to her, Cang LAN star had no doubt that as long as she dared to deny it, he would let her "verify" this feeling again.

cang lan star was about to say something, but his brain exploded again, and his heart felt like fireworks were blooming.

Nangong Zheng only let go of her when she felt as if she was about to faint from riding on clouds.

I've helped you appraise it again. I think you do like me.

this time, even a cat on cang lan star would be depressed.

he pushed nangong zheng over and said angrily-

"Hooligan!"

After that, she really didn't have the face to face her uncle.

She ran to the window at the end of the corridor to get some cool air, but who knew that there were so many people on both sides of the corridor?

Dozens of people were standing there!

most importantly, they were all looking at her as if they wanted more and couldn't express themselves in a few words.

Cang LAN star's entire person instantly felt unwell.

She had always lived in battle leopard as a man. These brothers did not know that she was actually a woman. They were so far away that they probably didn't hear the conversation between her and the uncle just now, so they now thought that she had been done by a man?

Cang LAN star used the back of his hand to wipe his slightly swollen lips. He looked at his brothers and glared at them. He asked in a dark tone, " "Is it very good?"

The group of men were so frightened that they looked at the ceiling, the ground, the wall, or the other two or three times. No one dared to make a sound at this time.

Nangong Nuannuan had already come out of the operating room when her brother had brazenly wreaked havoc on Canglan star.

seeing her brother standing alone in the corridor, smiling triumphantly, she walked over.

Nangong Zheng nudged GG's arm with his elbow before he turned his gaze to his sister. He couldn't hide the happiness and joy in his eyes.

"Should I change the way I address you?"

"yes." Nangong Zheng agreed without a second thought.

Nangong Nuannuan was also happy for her brother.

Nangong Nuannuan was quite fond of her future sister-in-law.

when she was in high school in Jiangzhou, many people had complained about her, saying that she only had male friends and no female friends.

In fact, it wasn't that she didn't want to make friends with women or talk to them more, but those who were qualified to be recognized as friends by her, or to make her want to talk to them, must at least be the kind that she liked at first sight.

Cang LAN star was one of those.

walking to the side of Canglan star, Nangong Nuannuan immediately called out playfully, " "sister-in-law!"

The wind on Planet Canglan blew, and her face, which had finally calmed down a little, instantly turned red again when Nangong Nuannuan called her sister-in-law.

"Nuannuan!" Canglan star gave Nangong Nuannuan a look, indicating to her that there was still a group of men from Battle Leopard beside her. Please give me some face.

Nangong Nuannuan gave her face and let out an " ah " as she suddenly realized something. then, she changed her words. " sister xingxing. "

2886 External injuries?(2)

What???

When Zhan Bao and the others heard how the big boss addressed Cang LAN star, their eyes widened.

They didn't hear wrong, did they?

In the midst of Zhan Bao's shock, Nangong Nuannuan realized that even Zhan Bao's men did not know the gender of Canglan star. It must have been an accident for Fan Dong to know.

Previously, she had heard Fan Dong call Cang Lan star "big sister." She had thought that Zhan Bao's brothers all knew about it.

Nangong Nuannuan scratched her head in embarrassment. She could only smile apologetically at Cang Lan.

Canglan star also touched their nose. They didn't expect that the gender they had painstakingly worked on for 18 years would be made public just like that.

However,

There was nothing else.

It wasn't that she didn't want to hide anything from her brothers, but she didn't know how to say it, so she couldn't be bothered to.

Since everyone knew about it now, they should just let it be.

"Nuannuan, how are my brothers?"

"Big brother Xu's injuries aren't serious. It's just a superficial wound from two shots. His liver is a little lacerated, but I've already helped him take out the bullet. His liver has a strong recovery ability and can heal itself."

Everyone was speechless.

Two shots and his liver was injured. Was this a superficial wound?

"Thank you, star!" After confirming that big brother was really fine, Cang Lan star's heart was finally at ease.

"We're family, why be so polite?" As she spoke, Nangong Nuannuan even winked at Cang LAN star.

Nangong Zheng was standing not far away. When he saw his own sister's alluring and alluring appearance, the alarm in his heart went off.

Very quickly, Nangong Zheng realized that his Xingxing was staring at his Nuan Nuan, and his face turned red. In an instant, he didn't feel good. He quickly walked in front of Cang LAN star and reached out to hold her hand without hesitation.

Canglan star was shocked and subconsciously wanted to pull her hand back. In the end, she found that the more she wanted to pull back, the tighter the uncle's grip was.

She thought that since she was about to become an uncle and had already given her virginity to him, holding hands was not something that was unacceptable. Moreover, she had always admired and worshipped the uncle in her heart.

feeling that xingxing was no longer struggling, nangong zheng's mood was extremely excited. he looked at the girl and asked on behalf of his fiancée, "How are fan Dong and Guo song's injuries? I think they're heavily injured."

"he's fine now, and it won't affect his future. however, four of fan dong's sternum is broken, and he'll need to rest in bed for at least three months before he can recover."

"What about Guo Song? guo song's arms were trembling. thinking of his arms that were bent to the point of being hideous, cang lan star's heart was still clenched.

"Guo Song is fine, it's just a superficial wound. I've already fixed the bones in his shoulder. He'll be fine after the external wounds are treated."

ha?

Guo Song only suffered a superficial wound?

The group of brothers were all dumbfounded. They really wanted to ask, did you get the wrong person?

However, canglan star had absolute trust in Nangong Nuannuan's medical skills.

After all, her mother's illness had been getting more and more serious over the years, and she had seen many doctors and taken many medications. However, her mother had lost several kilograms during this period of time after Nuannuan had performed acupuncture on her mother a few times. Even her mind was clear, and the feeling of being a successful businesswoman gradually returned to her.

"Nuan Nuan, I'm so grateful to ran ran."

Chapter 2887

2887 We're one family (3)

before he could finish his sentence, he was stopped by nangong zheng.

"we're all one family, so don't talk like two different families. nuan nuan will be unhappy if you do this."

"sister-in-law, you're not the only reason i saved brother xu," nangong nuannuan said with a smile. brother xu is my friend. remember when the nangong family was framed by the ning family? Although I have a way to get a lot of information from the other party, I don't have many people around me in the country, especially in a place like dizhou. Therefore, it was always brother Xu who sent people to keep an eye on them 24 hours a day. Whenever they went to a teahouse or coffee shop, brother Xu would send people to set up the private rooms there in advance. That's why I could get such good material."

"really?"

"of course it's true. If you don't believe me, you can ask brother Xu when he wakes up." nangong nuannuan said.

Canglan star looked at Nangong Nuannuan in a daze, her face full of surprise.

She didn't even know about this.

she could be said to be big brother's most trusted subordinate, but big brother didn't even tell her about this. it could be seen that this matter was personally done by his big brother's trusted aide.

Could it be that Yueyue likes Nuannuan?

Before this, she could tell that there seemed to be someone in her big brother's heart that he liked. Every time it was about this person, he would personally do it.

However, as his sister, she had never had the chance to know who this person was.
now, she seemed to know.

He also knew why his big brother had never mentioned the girl's name.

So it turns out that Thinking of such an outstanding big brother Chi Yang, Cang LAN star could only light a candle for their big brother in their hearts and sigh.

other things might be fine, but against a powerful love rival like big brother chiyang, her big brother's chances of winning were in the negative.

"if my big brother knew that you helped him this time, he would definitely be very happy. He's also very happy that he can help you." Cang LAN star felt that this should be her big brother's state of mind.

Since he couldn't have her, he would just watch her live well.

It was good that they could still be friends.

Nangong Nuannuan also nodded and said,"so you don't have to be so polite." My people are guarding this place, so no one will come here to cause trouble. You can rest assured. They'll wake up tomorrow. You don't have to stay here. Go back."

Cang LAN star thought for a while and nodded, i'll come back tomorrow. I'll have to trouble you here."

nangong nuannuan nodded.

"Where are you going now?" Nangong Zheng asked.

i'm going back to that warehouse to settle the matter of those traitors. "

"I'll go with you."

Cang LAN star thought for a moment and nodded,

"then i won't accompany you guys anymore, brother chiyang is still waiting for me at home."

This was the longest time she had been away since Chi Yang's incident, and she couldn't wait to go back.

three days later, chi yang's body was much better.

That day, after lunch, Chi Yang went upstairs on his own. Nangong Nuannuan saw that his injuries had almost recovered, so she agreed to let him go upstairs on his own. She only went upstairs after performing acupuncture on Cang mingya.

cang mingya's seven-day acupuncture session had been completed. after that, she would have to perform acupuncture once every seven days.

in just seven sessions of acupuncture, although there was a lot of delay in between due to various things, cang mingya's weight went from 220 pounds to 130 pounds.

In addition to her height of 167 centimeters, 130 pounds was not considered fat. it was just that he had lost weight too quickly, and his skin was a little wrinkled. but this was not a problem.

After being fat for so many years and being laughed at for so many years, now that he had slimmed down, would he be afraid that his skin would not be able to be trained up?

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 2888

2888 Nuan Nuan leveled up (4)

During this period of time, as long as she was free, Cang mingya would spend her time in the gym.

She used to be a very rare beauty in dizhou, but now that she had slimmed down, even the fitness coach who was more than ten years younger than her couldn't help but keep his eyes on her. Especially after hearing that she was single, he wanted to pursue her, but he was stopped by Cang mingya's words: you can already be my son, and you refuse.

After Nangong Nuannuan sent Cang mingya off, she went upstairs.

The moment she entered the bedroom, she suddenly felt a very comfortable wind blowing on her face.

he took a deep breath and instantly felt his entire body become lighter.

suddenly, nangong nuannuan felt that something was wrong. she walked to the mirror and looked at her own body. she found that with every breath she took, the cells in her body would jump as if she liked the wind.

However, Nangong Nuannuan could feel that this wind was not the wind that usually blew into their bedroom through the window. It was a special wind.

because her ability cells liked it very much, she didn't need to breathe anymore. the wind directly entered her skin.

After the wind had entered her body, Nangong Nuannuan suddenly felt that her hearing and sight had become much sharper.

Nangong Nuannuan's jaw dropped when she looked at her own ability cells.

yingying seemed to be more powerful than before.

She could now see the small cells that she couldn't see before.

This level of skill was the same as what she had achieved before she died in her previous life!

Nangong Nuannuan looked in shock at Chi Yang, who was still lying on the bed. When she saw the smile on his lips, she understood immediately.

He was so happy that he couldn't hold back the smile on his face.

nangong nuannuan happily rushed to chi yang's side and pounced on him, giving him a smacking kiss.

"How did you do it?"

seeing that he could finally do something for his wife, chi yang's heart was filled with emotions.

no matter how capable he was, his wife would never be able to experience it.

Although it was a very happy thing to have a powerful wife, Chi Yang had long discovered that no matter what problems she encountered, her wife could solve them herself. She didn't need him, her husband, at all.

In front of his wife, he was just a vase, a decoration.

now that it was finally useful, chi yang was also a little impatient and asked, "Did your strength increase?"

"It's more than just an improvement! The improvement is simply too much!"

Then, Nuan Nuan told Chi Yang about the changes that had occurred in her body. She also told him that she could see even smaller cells.

To her, the increase in her X-ray ability also meant an increase in her speed.

for example, if an object could only see huge objects and not small objects, it would be very slow.

However, if this object could not only see very small things, but also the movement speed and even frequency of those small things, it meant that the object itself was very fast.

her ability was the same.

as long as she could see even smaller things, her speed would increase.

to her, this was a double harvest.

hearing his wife's words, chi yang was also very happy. "actually, after i got injured, i felt that all the special ability cells in my body were in a state of chaos. There was one time when you massaged my head and cleared the channels and collaterals in my entire body. I suddenly felt that my head seemed to be a little different."

Chapter 2889

2889 I'll give it to you (1)

"I didn't think too much about it at the time, but later on, I could always see some transparent and glowing things. They looked like rays of light, but they were thicker than light. These things were directly connected to the trees, flowers, grass, soil, and even to everyone. That includes me, and that includes you."

nangong nuannuan:

seeing that his wife was a little confused, chi yang asked, "a few days ago, when i was recuperating, i told you that the tree opposite was malnourished. do you remember?"

Nangong Nuannuan nodded and replied,"of course I remember!" At that time, I even said that there were specialized gardeners who would regularly give it nutrient fluids, so it wouldn't be malnourished."

Chi Yang nodded,"but when I look at it, I realize that it's already malnourished." because i could feel that there was a part of the trunk that couldn't absorb the light. No matter if it's a human, an animal or a plant, as long as it's alive, even if it's water, it will have to accept that light."

"So?" after nangong nuannuan heard this, she could already understand what the so-called light might be. His eyes lit up.

"Can't I move objects through space?"

"you used your ability?" Nuan Nuan, who had been very easy-going, instantly exploded.

chi yang quickly explained,"you also know that the heavier the mass of an object, the more energy it will take to move it." For example, moving a feather and moving a building required different amounts of energy. moving a feather is like holding a feather with my hand. it won't cause any trouble to my body. Moreover, the things I'm moving are light."

seeing that his wife's hair had been straightened out, chi yang said,"So, I moved the light around me and moved some of the light that shone on the flowers and other trees to that tree. i found that after the trunk of the tree was repaired, it started to absorb the light."

so a few days ago, aunt asked the flower farmers to come and take a look. They said that there was no problem with the tree because you've already repaired it? "

"Yes." Chi Yang nodded.

"Don't you think I've been recovering very quickly these past few days?"

Nangong Nuannuan nodded and replied,"yes, I did." but because your healing speed is already very fast, i thought that after your ability cells were stimulated, it would speed up your recovery."

"Actually, I've transferred all the light I can gather to myself. it was only when i was in my body that i realized that this power was actually the energy you had me absorb from the jade."

Nangong Nuannuan's eyes lit up. actually, i've already asked the phoenix court to send the jade over. i was thinking of letting you absorb the jade's energy after your internal injuries have recovered."

chi yang smiled,"the energy of a jade stone is limited, but the energy in the air is infinite." Also, I now know why I can't absorb more energy from the Jade after a certain amount. This problem no longer exists. So, you can leave your jade stones for others."

"If I leave it to others, they won't know how to absorb this energy! i'm leaving it to you!"

Chi Yang was very happy that his wife was thinking about him. He didn't reject her because the energy in the Jade was something that ordinary people could never use. It would be a pity to waste it.

Chapter 2890

2890 Thank you, second uncle (2)

He could extract the energy and give it to his wife or his wife's friends.

"Alright, then you can leave it to me. leave them all to me. "

"Alright," he said. Nangong Nuannuan agreed without hesitation.

"Brother chiyang, since you have nothing to do here, I'll go to the laboratory."

Chi Yang couldn't help but laugh. He pinched her face and said,"alright, but be careful not to tire yourself out."

"yes."

the experiment on the bugman was a success, but ever since shi yalin obtained brother chiyang's blood, she must have developed a way to create mutants.

Shi Yalin must have started experimenting with mutants by now.

The corners of Nangong Nuannuan's lips curled up, and an indescribable evil smile appeared on her face.
another three days passed.

That day was the day of her second uncle's surgery.

After the warm treatment, Chi zeyao's body had reached the best state he could achieve.

However, due to the severe internal damage 17 years ago, all the major organs in his body were in an uncontrollable state of failure, so it was necessary to replace the internal organs.

in order to ensure that her second uncle was in good condition, nangong nuannuan had him move into the angel research institute the morning before.

As he was King's father and eldest brother's second uncle, the person in charge of the angel research Institute, Gu Mingcheng, welcomed Chi zeyao in like a VIP.

most people would be shocked by the fully automated facilities in the angel research institute.

Even old master Chi couldn't help but be amazed when he entered the ward and saw the fully automated facilities.

However, uncle Chi was extremely calm after using the facilities in the ward.

After the blood samples were taken and the group was about to leave, second uncle Chi said, " "when i'm better, i'll give you something good."

nangong nuannuan's eyes lit up when she heard that.

"alright. Thank you, second uncle."

"as long as you don't mind," chi zeyao smiled.

how could I be disgusted? I haven't forgotten what a ko is like.

everyone here was one of their own, so nangong nuannuan had no qualms. Nangong Nuannuan was well aware that old King was not only the boss of a top 3S mercenary group, but also a mad scientist and a super hacker.

after leaving chi zeyao's ward, nangong nuannuan went to the organ cultivation room.

Here were the kidneys, liver, left lung, and heart that needed to be transplanted the next day. this was also the first time nangong nuannuan had performed such a major operation since she entered the medical field.

She was the one who performed the surgery because she was the only one who could suture the transplant. In addition, she was the only one who could clearly see the degree of rejection in second uncle's cells.

More than a month ago, Nangong Nuannuan had already drawn 200ml of Chi zexao's blood twice to simulate blood circulation in these four internal organs and adjust the disharmonious self-generating cells in the internal organs. After confirming that these four internal organs would not have any rejection reactions, she had arranged for the surgery the next day.

after brother chiyang helped her improve her power, nangong nuannuan thought of this and immediately came to the laboratory. he actually found tiny cell rejection in two of the internal organs.

This rejection was very, very subtle, to the point where she couldn't even see the reaction when second uncle's blood flowed through these internal organs. In other words, the rejection was much smaller than those small cells.
