Chapter 311: She Could Not W

Chi Yang rustled Zhong Nuannuan's hair and pressed it back against his chest. He said, "We'll wait till the day your turn 18. After collecting our marriage license, I'll not let you off even if you beg me!"

The thought of Nuannuan turning 18 lit up his eyes, turning red with passionate expectation. He even had to clench his teeth when he spoke.

His little wife was like a heavenly peach hung on a tree right in front of him. It was pure white, fresh, and juicy, filled with temptation as it was displayed in front of a man like him with voracious hunger. The peach was screaming out to him with vigor, 'Eat me! Eat me! Come on and eat me!'

The more he looked at her, the more tempted he was to ravish her hungrily, but he had to prevent this lethal seduction with utter determination.

Only Chi Yang knew how much restraint he had to practice when faced with Zhong Nuannuan.

Zhong Nuannuan nestled in Chi Yang's arms, enjoying the warmth coming from his fiery chest. She suddenly looked up and noticed the beads of sweat continuously appearing on his forehead. Thus, she replied, "Fine. I'll wait. Although, Big Brother Chi Yang, I can help you do something about it."

Chi Yang was taken aback. Before he could say anything, he felt a little hand reach out to the danger zone.

The flaming black fire within Chi Yang's eyes exploded in an instant as a deep, bottomless darkness appeared once again in his eyes. It was a vast, limitless vortex of black in those eyes, and a splash of reddish-brown once again appeared in them, looking like it wanted to fully consume Zhong Nuannuan.

"Damn it!"

Chi Yang got up violently from the bed and flew toward the bathroom, closing the door with a 'bang'. Next, the flowing sound of water was heard.

Even though there was the sound of the noisy flowing water, it could not cover up the uncomfortable noises coming from Chi Yang. Zhong Nuannuan's face burned like a flame.

Oh no...

What sort of trouble had she caused?!

Although...

Zhong Nuannuan slapped herself on the mouth...

She loved every inch of skin on Big Brother Chi Yang.

Big Brother Chi Yang was not the only one who had a reaction. She had suffered a reaction too.

Oh, how she wished to lunge at him...

He was too shy to even allow her to offer him some help. The thought of another half a year to go before she reached 18 was stifling Zhong Nuannuan.

Half a year...

She would be suffocated to death.

One would think the girls would not have any physical reaction when watching the male leads in television dramas flirting and teasing the female leads seductively.

However...

Even though it was not visible, she was suffering a huge physical reaction too.

Zhong Nuannuan, who had been educated overseas since she was young, was now feeling more than a little frustrated.

This would not do. She could not wait for half a year.

She had to come up with a plan to quickly devour her pure-hearted Big Brother Chi Yang.

When Chi Yang walked out of the bathroom, Zhong Nuannuan could feel the chill encompassing his body.

Only

She was stunned. "Big Brother Chi Yang, were you taking a cold shower?"

Zhong Nuannuan's hair was a little messy and her clothes were all wrinkled. There was a relaxed yet seductive look on her exquisite face. She looked completely different from her usual pure, harmless self.

If Selina were present, she would definitely inform Chi Yang that this was her big boss' true style!

However, Chi Yang was unaware of this. All he thought was that his little kitten had transformed into a cat demoness. She was relaxed, seductive, and emanating lethal temptation.

She was clearly a sexy seductress who looked extra tempting in a schoolgirl's uniform.

Even though he never had a fetish for uniforms, but at this moment, Chi Yang was feeling aroused once again as he started burning up despite just having a cold shower...

This sequence of events was truly fatal for him!

Chapter 312: It Was Better Not To Be Playful

"Big Brother Chi Yang, what's wrong with you?"

Zhong Nuannuan's throat tightened as she stared at Chi Yang, whose hair was still dripping water. When she saw that he was staring back at her with a look as if he wanted to devour her, Zhong Nuannaun was delighted. She twisted her slender waist like a snake as she crawled in the direction of Chi Yang.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, do you feel cold? Come into bed and let me warm you up!"

Howl~

She wanted to be devoured!

Chi Yang felt his abdomen tightened as he turned back toward the bathroom.

As she listened to the sound of flowing water, Zhong Nuannuan, "..."

She knew she should not be so playful with a man who had strong values and was so upright.

If she continued this game, Chi Yang would rather disembowel himself and remove his stomach than devour her completely.

A sarcastic smile appeared on Zhong Nuannuan's face as she howled and also went to take a shower.

Does Chi Yang think he was the only one who needed to extinguish their flame?

Hohoho!

After calming down the burning passion within them, both of them no longer dared to do anything too exciting to each other.

Chi Yang helped Zhong Nuannuan blow-dry her hair like a gentleman. He carried her in his arms without saying a word, as if the most valuable treasure in the world was in his hands. He placed her gently onto the bed and told her his thoughts, "I'd like to sleep with you tonight."

Zhong Nuannuan immediately made space for him when she saw the yearning in Chi Yang's eyes. "I'd like to sleep with you too."

A good-looking smile formed on Chi Yang's lips. It was a smile that was capable of coercing Zhong Nuannuan into committing another sinful act. "I'll accompany you then."

"Okay!"

They laid down together in bed without doing anything overly exciting. All they did was hold hands, in case, for fear of igniting their passion once again.

However...

It was only around 9 pm, how were they able to go to sleep?

"I've forgotten to massage you and give you acupuncture!"

Zhong Nuannuan suddenly remembered this not long after lying down. Her head had previously been filled with dirty thoughts so she forgot all about it.

Chi Yang could not go to sleep either. He laid there, watching Nuannuan's embarrassing antics as his eyes twinkled.

“Did you bring your needles?”

“I did. They’re always on standby in my school bag!”

Zhong Nuannuan jumped from bed as she said this. She then took out the needles from her schoolbag.

Chi Yang had experienced his little’s wife’s massage and acupuncture techniques a few days ago, and he found it very soothing.

This was why he did not take any medication today, as he was afraid it would make him fall asleep.

He wanted to know what it felt like to hug his little wife to sleep today.

“Nuannuan.”

“Yes?” Zhong Nuannuan’s hands were gently massaging Chi Yang’s head as she replied in a very soft voice.

“This feels so good.”

A smile appeared on Zhong Nuannuan’s lips.

“Can I make a request for acupuncture every day?”

“Of course, you can. As long as you are not out for a mission, you can stop by the condo whenever you’re free. If you’re busy, I’ll go look for you at the military base. If you continue with the acupuncture for three months, the blood clot in your brain will completely dissipate and you will no longer have any migraines.”

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan. “How did you know there was a blood clot in my brain?”

Only his grandfather and a few trustworthy friends knew about this.

When Zhong Nuannuan had asked him about his medical condition that day, he did not dare to tell her about this.

Only

He was afraid if she knew about the blood clot in his brain, she would stay away from him because of his health condition.

However, his Nuannuan seemed to know everything.

She knew about the blood clot in his brain, and even know how long it would take for the blood clot to completely disappear.

Zhong Nuannuan, “...”

Should she tell him that she could see the internal structure of his brain?

Zhong Nuannuan struggled with this question, but she soon found that her mouth was already providing a fake answer out of habit.

“People say that if something is opened up, there will be no pain; If there is pain, something must be blocked. This was the problem with Uncle Leng, and it’s the same problem you have,” Zhong Nuannuan almost bit her tongue when she said this.

Chapter 313: Chi Yang’s Suspicion

“You said before that you have healed after you had surgery on your head, but there would be occasional pain. This meant that a foreign object must be pushing against your nerve, which is the cause of the migraine. The bullet grazed your bones, meaning that there should not be bullet residue in your head. If that is the case, the only thing pushing against your nerve would be a blood clot. Understand?”

Chi Yang nodded but immediately asked again, “Do you know that I’ve had professional acupuncture work done on me, but before it was conducted, an ultra-precision scan would first need to be done on my head. After this, the acupuncture would be done with the help of a machine.”

“Those ultra-precise head scans are very damaging to the white blood cells while the effect of the acupuncture is just so-so. This was why I never did it again after three times. However, judging by the scans, I may have gotten hurt in this spot, but it indicates that the majority of where I have the blood clot is where you had inserted the needles, which is here and here. Furthermore, the spot where you inserted the needle into yesterday, which is over here, had a blood clot that even the scanner could not detect.”

“Nuannuan, you’ve never seen any of the files of my scan, so how did you know where the blood clot in my head was?”

This was a question he had wanted to ask yesterday when his little wife was helping him with the acupuncture, but the treatment had been so relaxing that he fell asleep before he managed to ask it.

This was why Chi Yang was asking so many questions like a curious cat. He thought the acupuncture technique of his little wife was really incredible and that she was so great at what she did! She was even better than an ultra-precision scanner.

However, Zhong Nuannuan stopped the massaging upon hearing Chi Yang’s words.

This... How should she answer this?

She had no idea what answer could she give for this.

Would he find it incredulous if she told him she could see the clotted blood vessel inside him?

Chi Yang did not think much of this question when he asked it. He treated it as an academic inquiry and looked at it as a topic of conversation.

However, the moment Zhong Nuannuan’s hands paused slightly while massaging him, the highly intelligent Chi Yang noticed something was wrong.

As he thought deeper about it, even if his little wife’s acupuncture skills were amazing, it would still be restricted to the use of acupuncture. How would she know where his blood clots were located?

The smart Chi Yang had detected something was not right at the very moment Zhong Nuannuan's hands paused slightly.

However, he was not able to retract his words now that he had voiced it out. After asking the question, he added on seamlessly, "Or could it be... That these spots in the head are where the acupuncture points are located?"

Zhong Nuannuan was about to come clean to Chi Yang when she suddenly heard him say this. Thus, she immediately swallowed the words she was about to say.

"Yup. The areas where I had inserted the needles yesterday are all the acupuncture points on your head."

This was not exactly untrue. She would not simply insert the needles if they were not acupuncture points.

Only

With that, she continued massaging Chi Yang after saying this.

Chi Yang immediately changed the topic as well. "Do you feel tired massaging me like this?"

Nuannuan exerted quite a lot of pressure when she massaged him. She massaged him this way for half an hour, so he was worried her hands could not take it.

"I'm not tired. I'm not tired at all," Zhong Nuannuan shook her head.

Chi Yang reached out and held the massaging hand of his little wife as he said soulfully, "Nuannuan, it's been hard on you."

Zhong Nuannuan looked at the large hand holding hers. She could feel the rough calluses on his palm and between his fingers. It reminded Zhong Nuannuan of her own hands before they were soaked in herbal water. She felt melancholy over those past memories while feeling heartache for Chi Yang's suffering at the same time.

She could not help it as she lowered her head and kissed Chi Yang gently on the hand.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 314: Keep In Contact Via Messaging

Chi Yang closed his eyes to rest, which caused Zhong Nuannuan to think that Chi Yang had fallen asleep. After she was done with the massage, she lightened the pressure and started inserting needles into his head.

The blood circulation in his head sped up after the needles were inserted. Chi Yang could even feel his head relaxing after the silver needles were inserted.

Chi Yang had planned to pretend to go to sleep, but he soon genuinely dozed off during this comfortable experience.

Zhong Nuannuan gently removed the needles after half an hour. Despite the dizzying sensation in her head improving from the day before, she was still unable to hold on for long. Thus, she collapsed into a deep sleep the moment she laid down and nestled herself into Chi Yang's arms.

Chi Yang was woken up by a ringing phone.

He had been sleeping quite soundly.

He woke up at the first ring of the phone. A vicious look flashed across his eyes as he quickly picked up the phone.

At the same time, he turned to the side and glanced at the girl nestled in his arms and sleeping. He was about to get up and answer the call when he saw that there was no sign of her waking up.

However, the girl frowned with unrest the moment he moved. He had previously managed to move her head a little away from himself, but the next thing he knew, she was acting like a little koala as she snuggled up to him.

Her leg moved over his and she used his chest as a pillow, moving little by little until she was positioned over his heart. Her ear rested right where his heart was before she finally went quiet and continued sleeping soundly.

Chi Yang placed the covers properly over her again and changed the phone to silent mode before hanging up.

Yang Yi had no idea why his Big Boss would want to decline his call when he saw the call had ended. He gazed at the clock and saw that it was only 0:30.

Just as he was wondering if something had happened to his Big Boss, he received a message.

[What do you want?]

His big boss, who would never take a call if he could have a face-to-face conversation, and would never send messages if he could be on a call, had actually done the unthinkable and sent Yang Yi a message.

Yang Yi started to go into attack mode as a bright twinkle appeared in his eyes.

[Big Boss, did something happen? Do you need my help?]

Yang Yi had just returned from studying overseas and was quite anxious to earn some merit, but Chi Yang had only given him the task of protecting Zhong Nuannuan.

It was not that he was unwilling to accept this mission. Zhong Nuannaun was, after all, the future Mrs. director-general. Thus, it was his honor to protect her.

For example, he had done well today to protect her against those who had bad intentions toward her or wanted to physically harm her. However, a mission like this was not really up to par with his abilities.

That was why he wanted to be by the side of his Big Boss, even if it meant an early death.

Something must have happened with his Big Boss if he was receiving a message at this time.

Yang Yi was thinking of this agitatedly when Chi Yang sent another message.

[Keep in contact via messaging after 10 pm in the future.]

Only

Yang Yi, "..."

[Yes, Big Boss! Big Boss, do you have any mission for me?] Yang Yi asked without giving up.

[Protecting her is your most important mission. How is your investigation going?]

[Reporting to Big Boss, the buyer's name is Xue Miqi, an intern at Jia Yong. She has no influential family background. I've found out she had clashed with Miss Nuannuan quite a few times back in school, but they these incidences were all caused by Zhong Qianqian. This time, it seems quite likely that her actions had something to do with Zhong Qianqian. How do you want to settle this?]

Only the phone screen was lit up in the dark room.

Chi Yang's eyes narrowed dangerously. The vicious look in his eyes was overflowing.

The thought of those scumbags hanging around Nuannuan made Chi Yang want to tear them apart.

Chapter 315: Xue Miqi's Winter

[Then let her know that some people cannot be provoked.]

[Yes.]

After putting his cell phone away, Chi Yang watched his fiancée's charming face as she slept, and his narrowed eyes softened instantly.

The next day, when Zhong Nuannuan appeared at the door of the classroom safe and sound, both Zhong Qianqian and Xue Miqi felt unwell.

They should have received news of Zhong Nuannuan being hospitalized, or at least seen Zhong Nuannuan with a languid expression appear at the classroom door, but at the moment, she had a lollipop in her mouth.

The school uniform made her legs appear straighter and slenderer, and her ever-lasting bun hairstyle perfectly complemented the shape of her head, which already looked attractive in the first place. There was a certain charm to her innocent look, with a hint of unruliness sitting sneakily beneath her charm. Even though she was her enemy, Zhong Qianqian felt that Zhong Nuannuan was just too beautiful, so what more the male classmates.

Why did she appear here?

She should have already been defiled, hospitalized, or appeared languidly in school, right? Why was she still so radiant at this moment?

Was it because the people yesterday did not take action at all? Otherwise, did she manage to escape, and those people had suffered instead?

Would Chi Yang investigate her then?

Wu Wenqian could not bear to see Zhong Nuannuan walking in so proudly and arrogantly. At this moment, she was giving out test papers. Zhong Nuannuan walked in front of her, and in the heat of the moment, she stuck out her foot in an attempt to trip her.

Zhong Nuannuan did not even bat an eyelid at such inferior tricks. While waving and greeting Mu Qingxuan, Yan Fangfang and Gu Xiaoli, she raised her foot and stepped right onto Wu Wenqian's foot.

"Ah——"

Wu Wenqian let out a scream. Her hands went limp as the test papers scattered all over the floor. A few papers landed around Zhong Nuannuan's feet.

"Zhong Nuannuan, why did you step on my foot?"

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Wu Wenqian, who was squatting on the ground, holding her feet and sweating in pain. Instantly, a flash of arrogance appeared in her eyes.

"Who told you to deliberately stick your foot out to trip me? If you didn't try to trip me, would I have stepped on you?"

"When did I deliberately stick out my foot?"

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Wu Wenqian as if she was an idiot, and pointed to the security camera on the wall. "Take facts as your basis and the law as your criterion. Have you been studying so much for nothing?"

It was only then that Wu Wenqian remembered that the classrooms were fitted with security cameras.

Her arrogant attitude earlier instantly disappeared.

Her foot really hurt!

Did Zhong Nuannuan really grow up eating spinach?

Only

What Wu Wenqian did not know was that after this one stomp, her foot would just appear red and swollen today, but in reality, her foot had been fractured. Although it was not too painful, it was precisely because of this that one would not pay much notice to it. By the time she noticed it, the bone would have already been irreparably damaged.

In the past, because Zhong Qianqian was still her biological sister, she was reluctant to fuss around with such low-grade scum. However, after learning that Jiang Shuwan actually committed such a disgusting act against her, she should not be blamed for her wickedness.

She was originally a mercenary who regarded human life as worthless, so treating these scums in this way was already considered overly merciful for her.

Zhong Nuannuan bent down and picked up a few test papers from the ground. One of them had Wu Wenqian's name on it, the score was...

The test papers were each student's private matter, and many people were reluctant to tell other students their scores. Wu Wenqian, whose academic ability was currently declining, was no exception.

However, by poor luck, her score was seen by Zhong Nuannuan.

Not only did she see it...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 316: Military Court Police Officer

Zhong Nuannuan smiled, and exposed her score to all the students.

"Wu Wenqian, Mathematics, 123 points."

All the students looked at Wu Wenqian in surprise.

This was a historical low for her. In the past, she used to get full marks for all her math papers.

Wu Wenqian was shamed into anger under the students' strange gazes, and she yelled furiously, "What are you looking at? My results are still higher than yours! Are you able to score 123 points in the test?"

This was an aristocratic school after all, so, apart from the scholarship students, most of the noble students had bad grades. The score of 130 to 140 was basically a chasm between the two classes of students. Thus, Wu Wenqian's result was indeed very good, but it was still a step backward for her.

Despite this, Zhong Nuannuan suddenly said two more names out loud, "Guo Junhao, 132 points, Mu Qingxuan, 127 points."

After reading them out, Zhong Nuannuan blinked at Wu Wenqian.

Wu Wenqian, who once sat firmly on the throne of mathematics, not only missed out on the first place this time, but even had two students overtake her. Not to mention, these were noble students.

Most importantly, she had just finished shouting at everyone, but was immediately slapped in the face by Zhong Nuannuan.

Many classmates did not like Wu Wenqian, and could not help but burst out laughing when they saw her making a fool of herself.

At the same time, Zhong Nuannuan shoved the test papers back to Wu Wenqian with a smile, and made her give them out herself. Who made her not only the class monitor, but also the representative of the math class?

"Zhong Nuannuan, what are you feeling proud of?" Wu Wenqian held Zhong Nuannuan's test paper in her hands, and read aloud. "Zhong Nuannuan, 87 points."

After reading, Wu Wenqian mocked her, "Before you laugh at others, you have to measure your own strength first. Only 87 points! Zhong Nuannuan, don't forget the bet between us."

Zhong Nuannuan raised her eyebrows slightly while looking at the 87-point test paper. She had received all kinds of education since she was a child, but did not learn much mathematics. However, she was very good in chemistry; in addition to that, she had developed some math skills later in her life, so she relied on her gut feelings to gain these 87 points, which was completely out of her expectations. If she had a good look at the math books again...

Zhong Nuannuan responded with a smile. "Don't worry, I'll definitely beat you."

"Just continue being stubborn."

After all, in Wu Wenqian's opinion, it was absolutely impossible for Zhong Nuannuan to defeat her.

Zhong Qianqian watched with an unhappy expression as Zhong Nuannuan defeated her friend like a rooster in a cockfight. Before the anger in her heart subsided, Teacher Liu, the head teacher, came in.

Under the guidance of Teacher Liu, two soldiers also followed her in.

The students looked at the two soldiers in shock, and immediately looked toward Zhong Nuannuan.

Only

After all, the soldiers who came last time were Zhong Nuannuan's father and fiancé.

However, this time, they did not know each other.

The moment they saw the soldiers, Zhong Qianqian and Xue Miqi felt their heart skip a beat. The entire faces turned pale, and they looked as if they were about to collapse from fright.

"Officers, this is Xue Miqi, and this is Zhong Qianqian. May I know why the two of you are looking for them?"

Teacher Liu was also dumbfounded. She had just walked to the door earlier when these two police officers stopped her and solemnly informed her that they were looking for Zhong Qianqian.

Zhong Qianqian was also frightened by the aura of the two of them. After glancing at their clothes, which were different from ordinary military officers, she had a bad premonition. Despite this, in front of the students, she still flashed a decent smile and asked, "Officers, is there anything wrong? Did my father invite you over?"

The female officer took out her officer ID without showing any expression——

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 317: The Inner Workings Of Things

"We are police officers handling a case under the military base's judicial court in Jiang District. My name is Zhou Mei, this is my military officer ID, this is my arrest warrant, and this is your school principal's approval letter for our inquiry."

After displaying her military officer ID, the officer said, "Xue Miqi, we suspect that you are involved in a case of attempted murder, please cooperate with our investigation and come with us."

“Zhong Qianqian, we suspect that the mastermind behind the attempted murder is you, so please also cooperate with our investigation and come with us.”

No matter how ruthless Xue Miqi and Zhong Qianqian were, they were still just Year 3 Senior students.

Thus, after being ordered so coldly by the two officers, Xue Miqi immediately collapsed from her seat and sat paralyzed on the ground.

As for Zhong Qianqian, her eyes were wide open, and her face was filled with disbelief.

“Aunty... Aunty Officer, have you made a mistake? I... How could we have anything to do with a murder case? You... You must have been mistaken, right?”

At this moment, Xue Miqi and Zhong Qianqian no longer paid attention to the surprised, strange and disgusted gazes of their teacher and classmates.

They only felt that their whole world had collapsed.

“You just have to follow us, and we’ll find out whether we’ve been mistaken. In yesterday’s attempted murder case, both the killer and substantial evidence were swiftly identified. The murderer has already pleaded guilty, and admitted that he had received the homicide order through a third-party platform, which was his reason for launching the attack on the victim. After verification, we found that the employer who issued the homicide order to the third-party platform was Xue Miqi. This matter is conclusive and cannot be denied.

“As for you, we learned that you’ve always had a bad relationship with your sister, Zhong Nuannuan, who is also the victim. We suspect that, Xue Miqi, as your diehard fan, has been doing things on your behalf. Xue Miqi’s conflict between Zhong Nuannuan is not serious, and the 30,000 yuan fee that Xue Miqi paid to the third-party platform was transferred by you via mobile banking the night before. Therefore, we have enough reason to suspect that you’re the mastermind behind this murder case. Now, please come with us.”

Originally, as case-handling officers, it was not appropriate to publicize such things.

However, who allowed these two girls to have such malicious thoughts and provoke a sleeping giant?

The other party said that even if they are arrested, their reputation should be completely destroyed before their arrest.

Tsk tsk, how cruel.

However, to deal with people like these, who wanted to destroy others whom they did not like, the case-handling officers felt that their superior’s viciousness was appropriate.

Only

Zhong Qianqian was already going mad from fright. Facing the case-handling officers who were about to take her away, Zhong Qianqian could only look at Zhong Nuannuan, and beg sorrowfully. “Nuannuan, how can you treat me like this? Although Mom has been slightly partial toward me, I’ve been with her for 18 years. How can you pull such a manipulative move on me just because Mom is biased to me? How can you slander me like this? I’m your biological sister!”

“Uh...”

Faced with Zhong Qianqian’s sudden tearful accusation, Zhong Nuannuan was also stunned.

She was not the one behind this arrest!

On one hand, she had guessed that those unskilled thugs yesterday were recruited by Zhong Qianqian, and that the latter also planned to get these men to rape Zhong Qianqian, film a pornographic video, and post it on the school website when she was free.

However, she really was not behind this sudden arrest!

How did Jiang Shuwan get to know people in KE Organization? Who had she contacted? Was her trafficking at the age of three was related to Jiang Shuwan?

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 318: Regretted

She had not found out the answer to these questions yet, so she could not yet dispose of the mother and daughter duo.

Therefore, right now, she felt really wronged.

“Um... I’m not a soldier. Even if I wanted to sue you, a military officer isn’t supposed to come and arrest you. Hence, this matter really has nothing to do with me. However, in other words, it turns out that the mastermind who wanted to kill me yesterday, and even wanted to rape me, film pornographic videos of me and ruin my reputation before murdering me was you!”

The teacher and classmates were already very astonished to hear that Zhong Qianqian and Xue Miqi were suspected of attempted homicide, and already felt extremely disgusted at the two of them. However, after Zhong Nuannuan had revealed the other party’s intentions for this paid hit, they felt even more horrified.

A student this vicious could no longer be fully described by the term ‘two-faced white lotus’ alone.

At this moment, Zhong Qianqian felt that Zhong Nuannuan and herself were separated by the entire universe. By the side, Xue Miqi had already lost her mind completely. She sat on the ground, eyes staring straight ahead without saying a word.

She did not understand. Was the website not on the dark web, and didn’t the contractors who went in to order hits all have their ID automatically hidden? Weren’t the thugs supposed to be foreigners, such that it would be impossible for local police to trace them?

When she accessed the site yesterday, she even saw the people who were trafficking humans trading publicly. So, why did it take just one day...

No, just one night, for them to find her?

“Nuannuan, it must be Chi Yang! Chi Yang must’ve deliberately punished me in order to avenge you. Can you tell Chi Yang not to do this to me? Anything! Anything you want! Both of you can tell me and I’ll change, won’t that be good enough? Chi Yang listens to you the most, so please call him quickly!”

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Zhong Qianqian’s crying and pleading face with a dazed look. “Why should I call him?”

Zhong Qianqian was aghast!

“He must have his reasons for getting people to arrest you. If even police officers from the military base’s court have come to arrest you, you must’ve broken the law. Even if I’m your sister, I can’t interfere with official business, right? Besides, you know now to beg me, but when you hired a murderer to kill me, destroy me and film a pornographic video of me, why didn’t you think about what tragic end I would’ve endured if I fell for your trap yesterday?”

“Okay, stop talking nonsense! It doesn’t matter who intercedes for you, we’re out here with an arrest warrant.”

After saying that, each of the case-handling officers took out a pair of handcuffs, and slapped them on Zhong Qianqian and Xue Miqi’s wrists.

“No! No! I don’t want to be arrested! It’s her! It’s Zhong Qianqian! It’s Zhong Qianqian called me at 8 o’clock the night before and asked me to find someone to kill Zhong Nuannuan! It wasn’t convenient for her to find someone, so she told me to help her find a murderer. I only helped her to find someone online, it was all her!”

When Xue Miqi saw that she was about to be taken away, she knew that it would be impossible for her family to get her out based on the situation at home. She panicked, and immediately blew Zhong Qianqian’s cover.

She regretted it!

Only

She really regretted it!

Completely regretted it!

If she did not want to find a rich boyfriend through Zhong Qianqian, why would she have helped Zhong Qianqian do such a thing?

Even so, she had helped her so much in the past, but Zhong Qianqian had never introduced anyone to her before.

As for her, not only was she unable to find a rich and powerful boyfriend, she was even about to pay for it with the rest of her life.

At this moment, Xue Miqi knew that she was ruined, and started to feel hatred for Zhong Qianqian. She betrayed her without hesitation.

The case-handling officer on the side nodded. "Well, if you can provide strong evidence, your confession can help you fight for a reduced sentence. However, this matter has to wait until we reach the military base's court."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 319: Arrested

"No, no... I didn't! I didn't instruct her! I didn't know about this at all. I called her at 8 o'clock the night before yesterday, but she said that she wanted to borrow 30,000 yuan from me to buy a dress. She's making unfounded accusations!"

"Zhong Qianqian, how shameless can you be? It's clearly you! You're the one who ordered me to do this! You're the one who bears hatred against Zhong Nuannuan, because Zhong Nuannuan made you lose Chi Yang, Aiden and Gu Mingzhe. You couldn't stand to see her doing better than you, and that's why you wanted to get rid of her. You're a malicious, evil-hearted white lotus!"

"Besides, at that time, you were also the one who pushed Zhou Jinhui down! I saw it clearly from the side. Although Zhou Jinhui had an epilepsy episode while arguing with Zhong Nuannuan, he did not fall down the stairs. However, in order to intensify the conflict between Zhou Jinhui and Zhong Nuannuan, you pushed him during his episode, which made him fall to his death. You were scared of going to jail, so you knelt and begged Zhong Nuannuan, and Zhong Nuannuan agreed to help you in this matter. Zhong Nuannuan is so good to you, but because the partner whom your dad introduced to you likes your sister instead of you, you wanted to kill your sister!"

"I've done so many things for you, but now you're accusing me and framing me! Why don't you go to hell?"

After saying that, Xue Miqi furiously pounced forward and choked Zhong Qianqian.

Zhong Qianqian was just a brainless two-faced white lotus, and with this one chokehold, she acted as if she was dying.

The case-handling officers immediately separated the two, then took away Zhong Qianqian, who was about to fall unconscious, and Xue Miqi, who was having a breakdown.

The whole classroom completely erupted, and all the students asked Zhong Nuannuan if she was alright. This was especially so for those three roommates, who almost exploded in anger at Zhong Qianqian, and repeatedly called for justice.

Only Young Master Leng, who knew that Zhong Nuannuan was really a T-Rex, was surprisingly calm.

At this moment, he only felt that Zhong Nuannuan was a pit. Not only that, she was a pit full of spikes.

Anyone who thought that she was a softie and wanted to step on her would end up falling into the pit, disappearing without a trace.

Seeing the concern in the students' eyes, Zhong Nuannuan felt quite touched.

Although she had met a few particularly annoying white lotuses when she came to this ordinary world that was completely devoid of sword fights and knife battles, apart from these rare few, whether it was the people in Chi Yang's military base, her roommates, or these classmates who she was not close to, they were all kind and had good intentions.

Maybe she it was impossible to live a life without any white lotuses in the future, but she believed that as long as she was dedicated to good, the sins she had committed would fade away little by little, and her life would gradually get better.

Only

Although the case of Zhong Qianqian and Xue Miqi hiring a murderer had caused a big uproar, the students' main job was to study.

Therefore, Teacher Liu allowed everyone to act out their excitement for a while, but the class eventually started.

Zhong Nuannuan took out her cell phone and sent a message to Chi Yang.

[Are you behind Zhong Qianqian's arrest?]

[Yeah. Zhong Qianqian is the mastermind behind this incident, Xue Miqi is an accomplice, and both of them launched an attack against you. Even if Zhong Qianqian is your sister, I'll never let her go. You don't need to try to persuade me because it will be useless.]

Whenever he thought about Zhong Qianqian rushing to ruin his fiancée's life, Chi Yang felt nothing but fury.

This time, since he had managed to catch Zhong Qianqian red-handed, he wanted to go as far as he could. He was adamant not to let this disgusting woman come out to loiter around them again.

Chapter 320: Scared Jiang Shu

[Okay, I won't advise you, you can do whatever you want.]

Zhong Nuannuan could understand Chi Yang's anger completely. If someone were to treat Chi Yang like this, she would also get back at the other party via her own methods.

Although she had not thought about taking action on Zhong Qianqian so early, it was okay to let her suffer a little.

However, she knew that since Gu Mingzhe had appeared, that man would definitely get Zhong Qianqian out at any cost in order to become the grandson-in-law of the Nangong Family.

[However, I predict that Zhong Qianqian won't stay inside for too long. If someone manages to get her out, don't put her in again!]

[...Nuannuan, you seem to know something that even I don't know...]

Looking at this message, Zhong Nuannuan could almost imagine Big Brother Chi Yang with a face full of resentment.

[If Big Brother Chi Yang wants to know, I'll tell you everything in the future.]

Very soon, she got a reply.

[Okay, I'm not in a rush, as long as you'll share it with me eventually, it's fine. I'm waiting for the day you tell me.]

As Zhong Nuannuan and Chi Yang were chatting, Jiang Shuwan's phone call came in.

Looking at the name flashing silently on her cell phone, not only did Zhong Nuannuan not answer it, her fingers even typed quickly on the screen, creating a blue interface. Her fingers continued to fly around, and finally, a blue interface with a series of numbers on it flew straight to Jiang Shuwan's name before disappearing.

Jiang Shuwan, who was still in the hospital and unable to move, received a text message from Wu Wenqian. After learning that her Qianqian had been harmed by that wretched Zhong Nuannuan, her face flushed with anger, and without waiting, she called Zhong Nuannuan in exasperation.

Unexpectedly, the phone rang for a long time without anyone answering.

Just as Jiang Shuwan was determined to keep calling Zhong Nuannuan until she picked up the phone despite her not answering, an extremely grim laughter rang out from her cell phone.

It was like the laughter in horror movies, which was clearly far away, but still sounded like it was close at hand.

Jiang Shuwan was taken aback. Thinking that she had made a wrong call and accidentally called a pervert, she immediately pulled her cell phone away from her ear to check if she had made the right call.

However, when she looked down, she was frightened out of her wits.

Her mobile screen was covered in blood...

Blood was dripping from the top of the phone.

Jiang Shuwan was scared sh*tless. Her eyes stared wide open, and her hands remained clenched around the phone.

Only

It was only until the moment a child with a pale white face and a pair of completely black pupils with blood flowing from them suddenly appeared screaming, broke through the phone screen and turned into a 3D image rushing toward her face, that Jiang Shuwan suddenly came back to her senses. She instantly screamed and threw aside her phone.

However, at the same time, she had instinctively jumped up from the bed, and after feeling a sharp pain, she fell from the bed onto the ground again.

By the time the doctor found her, Jiang Shuwan was already completely passed out, and it was unknown whether it was due to pain or shock. Her ribs, which were originally healing, were broken once again.

Zhong Nuannuan was quite satisfied with the low-quality 3D virus she had produced in the short period of time, so she saved it directly into her phone.

If Jiang Shuwan came to bother her and call her again in the future, she would make a human head appear to scare her once more.

She thought that the Jiang Family would drown her in phone calls later, but they did not.

Just after class, Zhong Kuijun's phone call came in.
