Chapter 321: Moron

Zhong Nuannuan answered the phone.

“Zhong Nuannuan!”

Zhong Kuijun’s extremely serious and angry voice came from the other end of the phone.

Zhong Nuannuan raised her eyebrows. She had thought that Zhong Qianqian was already worthless after the revelations, so Zhong Kuijun would not say anything if Chi Yang took action on her. As a result, she did not expect him to be so fierce; this was reaction caught her completely off guard.

“Let me ask you, how on earth did you offend Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang? That’s the military base’s deputy commander-in-chief, do you know that? Who gave you the courage to disrespect him?”

“...” She had thought that Zhong Qianqian already had value to her, and since she seemed to be the only one worth anything at the moment, she was confused as to why Zhong Kuijun would still scold her. It turned out that it was because of Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang’s incident.

This was reasonable, but unexpected.

Before Zhong Nuannuan could speak, Zhong Kuijun’s cannon-like voice continued to roar over the phone. “Let me tell you, don’t think that just because Chi Yang is protecting you that you can do whatever you want without fearing repercussions. Chi Yang is a person with a background, but so is Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang! Also, Chi Yang is just a captain, but Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang is a major general.

“In the military base, officials with a higher rank can crush their subordinates to death. Now that you’ve offended Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, it’s only a matter of time before he takes me down. Forget me, even if he wants to pulverize Chi Yang, it’ll be as easy as blowing dust off his boot for him. Zhong Nuannuan, I’ve always thought that you had more brains than your sister, and are more reliable than her. However, now I think that you’re just as unreliable as her! Even more stupid than her!

“You usually look extremely intelligent, but when you encounter something real, you end up making a big blunder! Let me tell you, I don’t know what unpleasant things happened between you, Chi Yang and Deputy Commander-in-chief Wang, but within three days, no matter what methods you use, you must solve this matter for me, otherwise don’t blame me for not holding back!”

After saying that, he hung up the office phone with a loud smash.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at the black screen of the cell phone for a long time before one word came to her mind—

Moron!

Zhong Kuijun's words could not evoke any emotion from Zhong Nuannuan at all. No depression, anger, or sadness.

After all, he was a person who never did anything without a vested purpose. He was a scumbag who would lick the boots of whoever benefited him, and turn his back against whoever impeded his interests.

If she told him Chi Yang's real identity now, forget offending a small deputy commander-in-chief from a tiny military base like Jiang District's, even if she offended the commander-in-chief of Emperor District, Zhong Kuijun would probably still praise her immediately and announce, "My daughter is amazing!"

Therefore, Zhong Nuannuan had always been indifferent toward Zhong Kuijun.

Only

If he was respectful to her, then she would reply in kind. If he did not respect her, then she could only retaliate.

Zhong Nuannuan continued to read, but as soon as she opened up her book, another phone call came in.

It was Zhong Kuijun again.

Zhong Nuannuan raised her eyebrows.

Did this person discover one of Chi Yang's secrets again, and he had decided to take her side?

When the answer button was clicked, Zhong Kuijun's roar sounded again. "Zhong Nuannuan, what the hell are you doing? Your mother called me just now and said that you took Qianqian to court at the military base. You're not finished, are you? You think that I'd condone your behavior, so that you can act recklessly, right? Will you believe that I can stop that credit card for you immediately? Balabala..."

Zhong Nuannuan no longer wanted to listen to whatever Zhong Kuijun was saying, and she replied with two sentences.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 322: First And Second

"Firstly, Wang Gangyi was finding faults with you because he wanted Ou Mingxi to marry Chi Yang, and the only way to solve this was for me to give up on Chi Yang. Thus, you can weigh the pros and cons by yourself."

After saying this, Zhong Kuijun shut his mouth.

Zhong Nuannuan then went on to say, "Second, you shouldn't look for me just because Zhong Qianqian is in the military base's court, you should look for Chi Yang instead. You know Chi Yang's temper too—he even dares to offend Wang Gangyi. Furthermore, Zhong Qianqian repeatedly sought out trouble, which greatly digested him. Do you know that the reason why Zhong Qianqian had been arrested was because she went onto the dark web and sought out someone to rape me, film pornographic videos of me, and even kill me? Even the court is prepared to seek justice for me, so as a father, do you think you should call me to scold me, or should you give Jiang Shuwan a heavy scolding for failing to raise her daughter properly?"

After saying that, Zhong Nuannuan hung up the phone and continued to study—the first term of Year 1 Senior mathematics.

In the evening, it was time to treat Leng Jinpeng again. Chi Yang came to pick her up today.

This time, Zhong Kuijun immediately ordered Zhong Nuannuan to break up with Chi Yang, and also instructed her to end her relationship with Chi Yang in three days. The matter should be done carefully, and it was best not to cause Chi Yang to become upset with the Zhong Family. If this matter was not handled properly, not only would he unilaterally end their scheduled marriage as her father, Zhong Nuannuan's monthly allowance of 50,000 dollars would be cut off as well.

Zhong Nuannuan did not hesitate as she ignored Zhong Kuijun and hung up on him, then promptly blocked his number.

She happily walked out of the school gates, and saw a man, who was wearing a combat uniform, leaning on a car door.

In the evening sun, he was like a luminous body, making the gaze of others unconsciously fall on him.

With an upright body, sturdy posture, handsome features, and determined temperament, this man completely outshone typical A-list popular celebrities in all aspects, regardless of looks, facial features or aura.

Zhong Nuannuan was puzzled. Was her stubborn attitude really that bad in her previous life? How did she cast aside such an excellent, perfect, flawless and handsome man for six whole years?

Zhong Nuannuan looked at her eye-watering fiancé from afar, and had pink bubbles in her eyes. She was just about to step forward when she saw Ye Mengxi, who had returned to her bedroom and changed into a pure white dress right after school, walk toward Chi Yang.

Only

Previously, her Aunt Flo had arrived, and she had run out of sanitary pads; Ye Mengxi saw Chi Yang from afar when she went out to buy sanitary pads. Hence, after shopping, she hurriedly went back to her dormitory to tidy herself up, change her clothes, and even put on some beautiful light makeup. Class had just ended, the students who wanted to go home were starting to come out, and she wanted to improve her favorability toward Chi Yang while those students were watching.

Firstly, most of the students in school had never seen Chi Yang before, and they would think that this man belonged to her.

Secondly, she did not believe that Chi Yang would dislike an aristocratic girl like her and fall in love with a country bumpkin like Zhong Nuannuan.

Ye Mengxi already knew about Zhong Qianqian and Xue Miqi's arrest, and she also knew that these two people must have been arrested because this man was standing up for Zhong Nuannuan. After all, that boorish Zhong Nuannuan would never have been able to get Zhong Qianqian into prison on her own.

For Ye Mengxi, neither of the two girls in the Zhong Family were of any significance to her.

Zhong Qianqian had a fatter body, and was also less beautiful than her. If that was not the case, then why would Zhong Qianqian clearly lag behind her in the number of votes each time the campus belle was selected.

As for Zhong Nuannuan...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 323: Campus Belle Nuan's Man

Although Zhong Nuannuan was beautiful and had a good figure, she was still a country bumpkin from the farming district. A woman like this only looked impressive, but lacked real worth, and would not be a man's long-term choice.

Therefore, Ye Mengxi felt that a mature and stable man like Chi Yang, who had been in upper society for many years, would definitely like her after coming to know her. After all, Zhong Nuannuan was nothing compared to herself. When the time came, she would use this scene. Even if someone criticized her for interfering with another's relationship in the future, she could use what everyone saw today as fuel.

It had to be said that Ye Mengxi was getting ahead of herself.

Even so, she did as she had planned.

Chi Yang's gaze had been focusing on the entrance, so at the moment his fiancée appeared at the gates, his cold and resolute facial features began to soften starting from the center of his eyes, as a sense of thick infatuation and a faint smile appeared between his eyebrows.

She just knew it, before Zhong Nuannuan arrived, almost all the boys in school liked her. Although there had been changes after Zhong Nuannuan arrived, that woman was just a flower vase. It was impossible for men from even a slightly higher class to like a woman who was useless in all aspects except for her appearance.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, why are you here? Is there something wrong?"

Chi Yang's eyes were full of his fiancée, who was standing far away, and it was not until Ye Mengxi had stood in front of him that he realized a woman was talking to him.

He glanced at Ye Mengxi, and then at his fiancée, who seemed to have a forced smile in the distance. Chi Yang only felt his scalp tighten as he felt unwell.

Ye Mengxi, who thought that she could seduce a high-quality man, had no idea that Chi Yang already regarded her as an obstruction to his happiness at this moment. She reached out and handed him a bottle of mineral water, then said shyly, "Big Brother Chi Yang, drink some water. You still remember me, right? I also attended the banquet last weekend, my father is the director of Jia Yong, Ye Boyan."

Chi Yang was almost bursting with anger at the nasty woman in front of him. He held in his breath, and his whole body exuded a chilly aura.

Ye Mengxi only recovered from her shyness when she felt the cold. She raised her head to look at Chi Yang and was instantly shocked to meet his icy gaze.

"Chi... Big Brother Chi Yang, you scared me."

"Scram!"

After Zhong Qianqian, what Chi Yang hated the most were white lotus girls like this, who looked soft and weak on the outside.

Only

He felt that such weak-looking women had ruthless characters hidden underneath their gentle appearance. Although they looked weak and could fall to the ground with just one push, it was precisely delicate women like this who could make others let down their guard, and also spared no effort whenever they committed nasty acts.

Therefore, faced with Ye Mengxi's pitiful look, Chi Yang remembered Zhong Qianqian's face again, and decided against giving the other party even a glimpse of humility.

"Tsk tsk, I thought that young military officer was Ye Mengxi's new high-quality boyfriend, but apparently she hasn't managed to reel him in even after so long!"

"Who's this young military officer? What's he doing here in our school? He is really handsome!"

"Since Ye Mengxi couldn't hook up with him, can we try?"

"Alright, stop looking, that's Zhong Nuannuan's fiancé!"

"It turns out that he belongs to the campus belle Nuan!"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 324: Pissed Off Ye Mengxi

When the girls heard that he was Zhong Nuannuan's fiancé, they immediately gave up the idea. After all, most people were still self-aware. Regardless of in terms of looks or figure, they could not compare to Zhong Nuannuan.

The driver, Li Qi, saw that his director-general was being flirted with, and he immediately got out of the car, parked himself in front of his director-general, and obstructed Ye Mengxi's gaze.

“Miss, please leave.”

Ye Mengxi was embarrassed by Chi Yang’s actions earlier, and now that even a lowly driver dared to make her leave. Thus, she immediately became angry.

“Who are you? Why should I leave?”

“Our director-general doesn’t know you, and he doesn’t have a sister, so please don’t treat him as someone you know.”

Ye Mengxi was furious. “Who said that he doesn’t recognize me? You weren’t by his side last weekend, so of course you wouldn’t know. I already met him last week, isn’t that right, Big Brother Chi Yang?”

Seeing that Chi Yang’s fists were clenched, Zhong Nuannuan knew that if she did not save the situation, Chi Yang would not be so gentle as to tell Ye Mengxi to scram any longer.

“Big Brother Chi Yang!”

Watching his fiancée running toward him like a cat with wings, her sweet look instantly attracted his full attention.

His fiancée was not angry!

Not only was she not angry, she was even running toward him with a smile!

In an instant, he had completely forgotten who Ye Mengxi was, or what she had said to him.

Under the gaze of the schoolmates, the man, whose aura was originally cold to the point of freezing, instantly underwent a complete change. His cold and shady gaze when he was looking at Ye Mengxi earlier immediately became gentle and loving when he turned to look at Zhong Nuannuan. The love in his eyes was so intense that even the students who did not want to get into a relationship so early in their life all wanted to fall in love there and then.

Zhong Nuannuan threw herself directly into Chi Yang’s arms and clung onto him like a koala, not wanting to come down.

Chi Yang, who originally paid great attention to his image, could not care less about his self-image as his fiancée hung onto him at this moment. He simply stretched out his hand to lift his fiancée’s legs slightly, and let her hang onto him comfortably with crescent eyes.

“Yeah.” Zhong Nuannuan nodded.

“Are you hungry?”

“Yes!” Zhong Nuannuan nodded furiously.

“Let’s go, I know a restaurant that has delicious bowl chicken, I’ll take you to eat there.”

The little annoyance, Ye Mengxi, was instantly completely forgotten by her.

Only

After that, under the fiery gaze of the students and Ye Mengxi's pitiful but obscurely jealous gaze, Chi Yang carried Zhong Nuannuan into the car before he got in with her.

The black Land Rover drove away and sprayed exhaust gas all over Ye Mengxi's face.

Ye Mengxi was extremely embarrassed, and she could hardly hold back her tears. She turned around and rushed back to the dormitory, silently cursing a thousand times at the two wretches of the Zhong Family. Later, she realized that since Zhong Qianqian had been arrested today, her men were also gone, and all her hopes and efforts had come to nothing. It was only then that she started to feel slightly more emotionally balanced.

Zhong Nuannuan followed Chi Yang outside to eat and drink gluttonously, and only went to the military base after she was fully fed.

When they walked downstairs to the headquarters, Chi Yang met the director-general of the Propaganda Department, who wanted to tell him something. Chi Yang glanced at Zhong Nuannuan and considered whether to send his fiancée up first before discussion, or if he should ask her to stand there and listen in as they talked.

His reaction made the director-general of the Propaganda Department speechless.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you can discuss your matters here, I'll just go upstairs first. I can find his office anyway."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 325: How Dare You

When he realized the director-general of the Propaganda Department was not about to let him leave, he said apologetically, "Okay, you can head upstairs first. I'll come in a minute."

The commander-in-chief's office was located on the sixth floor. When Zhong Nuannuan got to the fifth floor, she bumped into a familiar face.

A tight-knit frown appeared on Wang Gangyi's face when he saw Zhong Nuannuan, and he called out to her unhappily.

"Stop right there."

Zhong Nuannuan had every intention of ignoring him, however, his guards immediately stopped Zhong Nuannuan in her tracks the moment Wang Gangyi told her to stop.

“Zhong Nuannuan, who invited you here? This is the military’s headquarters, the highest-ranking command center of the military base. You are but a student. What are you doing running about this place?”

Wang Gangyi had been deeply offended by Chi Yang’s previous actions. However, he had to depend on Chi Yang to climb up the ranks and bring Chi Yang and Ou Mingxi together. There was no practical tactic he could employ to cause Chi Yang any harm. However, when it came to Zhong Nuannuan, there was no need for him to hold back.

Wang Gangyi had received a call from Zhong Kuijun today and they had come to an agreement. Hence, there was no need to guess the reason why Zhong Nuannuan had barged into their headquarters.

She must not want to break up with Chi Yang and wanted to see the commander-in-chief or the chief of staff. After all, the marriage report between her and Chi Yang was approved by the commander-in-chief and the chief of staff.

Since he had spotted Zhong Nuannuan, there was no way he was allowing her to head upstairs and create trouble in front of the commander-in-chief.

The commander-in-chief hated those who used power to bully or oppress others. If the commander-in-chief found out he had threatened Zhong Nuannuan, it would be difficult for him to take over the top position when the commander-in-chief eventually stands down.

Zhong Nuannuan could only freeze when she saw the guards blocking her away, not permitting her to continue up the stairs.

“Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang, are you kidding me? I’m not here for you, why should I tell you my reason for being here?”

The look on Wang Gangyi’s face darkened. It heightened his anger when she refused to comply with his instructions.

“I’m the deputy commander-in-chief of the military base, an officer in this establishment. I have the right to question you if I find you suspicious. Even if it was your father here, I’d have the authority to ask the same question, much less when you are here alone.”

“You are authorized to question him because he is your subordinate, but I’m not. What right have you to question me?”

“Zhong Nuannuan, come in here.”

As he said this, Wang Gangyi got his guards to open the door of his office, which had been shut tight.

Only

“Why should I go in? I’m not here to see Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang. Who are you to make me go into your office?”

Zhong Nuannuan disliked Wang Gangyi a lot.

She knew how delighted Zhong Kuijun was with her upcoming marriage to Chi Yang, but Zhong Kuijun had actually requested for her to break up with Chi Yang the moment she got home from school in the afternoon. It was not difficult to guess that this was the doing of the deputy commander-in-chief.

Wang Gangyi had been meddlesome as he constantly poked his nose into her business, and now, he still insisted on acting in such an overbearing way. He was asking for a beating and she would only be letting herself down if she did not give him a good talking down to.

Wang Gangyi had never experienced someone being insolent to him. Chi Yang had the ability to do this because Chi Yang had a bright future and he was linked to Wang Gangyi's future, which was why Wang Gangyi tolerated it. As for Zhong Nuannuan, she was the daughter of a mere commander. How dare she be rude to him?

Wang Gangyi shouted, "How dare you!"

Zhong Nuannuan was not deterred by this show of power. A second later, she sneered as she returned the favor with just as much bravado...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 326: Threat

"You're crazy!"

She turned to head upstairs after saying this.

Wang Gangyi almost died of anger at Zhong Nuannuan. He no longer cared about where he was nor who she was here to see. She had offended him today and he was about to make sure she was punished severely.

If he did not do so, what dignity would he have as a deputy commander-in-chief of the military base?

The two guards rushed to the front of Zhong Nuannuan once again as they each held up a hand, stopping Zhong Nuannuan forcefully.

"Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang, you really are joking! I'm here to see someone else and I haven't done anything to provoke you. Even if you are deputy commander-in-chief, you don't really have the right to stop me, do you?"

"Why don't I have the right to stop you? Not only am I able to stop you, I can even have you detained! Zhong Nuannuan, you aren't thinking about taking the opportunity to get the commander-in-chief to back you up just because Chi Yang reports directly to him, are you? Is it because Chi Yang has broken up with you that you are in such a hurry to see the commander-in-chief?"

"How thick-skinned are you to be so sure that our Chi Yang would give me up and choose Ou Mingxi? Let me tell you this, my relationship with Chi Yang is strong. All of you should stop wasting your time! If you have that much time, you should use it to correct Ou Mingxi's mindset and stop her from doing something she will regret."

Wang Gangyi was also so angered by Zhong Nuannuan that he burst out laughing.

“Zhong Nuannuan, who do you think you are? You are nothing but the daughter of a mere commander. Oh, or do you think because your mum is a shareholder of the Jiang Group that it makes you a prized catch, which is enough for you to think highly of yourself and act so insolently towards me, a deputy commander-in-chief, as well as Deputy Governor Ou?”

“Let me tell you this, there are more powerful people out there in the world. Commoners do not fight government officers and businessmen do not fight politicians. I approached your father today and have given him three days. If your family renounces the engagement to Chi Yang unilaterally, I will give your father the compensation he desires. This deal is something your father could never achieve from the marriage between you and Chi Yang.”

Only

“If you continue to act so stubbornly within these three days, the first to go will be your father’s position. The next would be the Jiang Group. I heard that little girls like you enjoy being known as socialites from influential families of the Jiang District. You’ve been a socialite for such a long time, so I bet you won’t be willing to return to the old days of living poor, will you? Even more so when you’d be dragging your family with you into that lifestyle.”

Zhong Nuannuan narrowed her eyes dangerously. “Are you threatening me, Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang?”

“You would think so. However, if you break up with Chi Yang, these threats will cease to exist.”

“What did you promise my father if I took the initiative to renounce the engagement?”

“Chi Yang is a captain now. Even though your father could never be the instructor of the special forces team, he wants the position of the equipment operations director. This has always been his aspiration. He has good performance in the military base and has a friendly rapport with the people. If you are able to dissolve your engagement to Chi Yang, your father will immediately get what he wants. This will be more direct than you marrying Chi Yang and getting Chi Yang to approach the commander-in-chief on his behalf.”

Zhong Nuannuan nodded. “Deputy Commander-in-Chief, you really do know how to oppress others and use power for personal gain. I really wonder how you even managed to become deputy commander-in-chief in the first place. Nowadays, government officials are considered the weaker group. They wouldn’t dare to cause any trouble in public for fear of being caught on video and tracked down by netizens, which will end up with them losing their positions. With that being said, you’re really something, aren’t you? Making such direct threats to others.”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 327: Zhong Nuannuan’s Trap

“Do you really think that the internet does not dare to report news and conduct identity searches when it comes to the military base? Is that why Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang is acting so fearlessly?”

“Threaten? When did I threaten you? Did anyone hear me threaten you?”

When he saw Zhong Nuannuan smiling so happily, Wang Gangyi thought she must have been smiling in anger.

He continued, “Of course, you are allowed to make a complaint to the commander-in-chief upstairs. Although, please consider that I’ve been colleagues with the commander-in-chief for half a year. Do you think he will listen to the complaint of a future army wife he has never met over a colleague like me? I am completely capable of suing you in the military court for defaming a high ranking official.”

Zhong Nuannuan watched him act arrogantly as she sneered. Then, she turned away, unbridled.

Wang Gangyi was angered when he saw Zhong Nuannuan continue heading upstairs obstinately, acting as if nothing but a solid wall ahead would stop her. He shouted in a rage, “Stop her right now!”

The two guards immediately reached out to block her way when they saw this. Zhong Nuannuan lifted her hand and gave a vertical chop to the two hands blocking her path.

She did not use much strength, but both guards immediately let their hands down as they felt immense pain from the vicious force that had struck them.

Zhong Nuannuan made a run for it up the stairs while they were still reeling from the shock.

“Damn it! Did both of you forget to eat? Get her!”

The two guards came to their senses as they quickly ran up the stairs two to three steps at a time.

Unfortunately, they were too late.

By the time they had caught up to her, Zhong Nuannuan had already stepped into the office zone of the commander-in-chief.

There were only the offices of the commander-in-chief as well as the chief of staff on the sixth floor. It was guarded by special guards, but the guards from downstairs did not fear them. After all, the guards upstairs would not interfere with them capturing anyone without the specific order of the commander-in-chief.

Zhong Nuannuan stopped running when she reached the sixth floor and both guards immediately caught hold of her when they arrived at the sixth floor a moment later. One of them pulled her arms behind her while the other quickly took out a pair of handcuffs to cuff her up.

Zhong Nuannuan turned with her back facing both guards after making sure she had been cuffed up. She was not about to let them touch her again.

“Let’s go!”

The two guards were quite furious because they had not expected Zhong Nuannuan to escape from them twice. They acted rough with her as they shouted sternly, displaying their military prowess.

“What are the two of you doing?”

The few guards on the sixth floor had seen Zhong Nuannuan the previous night. She was an important guest of the commander-in-chief and they had also heard that she was the fiancée of Director-General Chi. Thus, they immediately approached Zhong Nuannuan when they saw her being handcuffed.

Only

“This person is trespassing on our headquarters when she was stopped by our commander-in-chief, yet she had the gall to continue intruding as she headed toward the sixth floor. Our commander-in-chief instructed us to arrest her.”

The two guards ignored the sixth-floor guards after they were done with their explanation and shouted at Zhong Nuannuan again, “Let’s go right now!”

“Stop!”

The sixth-floor guards immediately stopped the two of them and asked, “Why did you say she trespassed? Which restricted zone has she trespassed on?”

“The deputy commander-in-chief found her sneaking into headquarters as she attempted to get to the commander-in-chief’s floor. This was why we stopped her to question her. We didn’t expect her to reply to us rudely and insult the deputy commander-in-chief. We also weren’t able to stop her from pushing us away forcefully before she ran up here quickly.”

Wang Gangyi had walked up the stairs while the two guards were explaining the situation.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 328: Wrath Of A Commanding Officer

He gave both guards a look as they went forward to grab Zhong Nuannuan, but Zhong Nuannuan managed to evade them.

Who were they kidding? She had intended for the situation to blow up right from the start. If they brought her downstairs and took the handcuffs off her, how would she be able to act all pitiful in front of Uncle Leng?

The fact that Zhong Nuannuan was able to escape despite being held down by both guards even though she was handcuffed made Wang Gangyi think about how relaxed his guards were about their duties.

If a weak woman were able to escape from them numerous times, how would they protect him during critical moments?

Wang Gangyi stared viciously at both guards and they quickly moved toward Zhong Nuannuan again. This time, they were taking her away by hook or by crook.

Zhong Nuannuan saw Leng Jinpeng about to open the door through her X-ray vision and immediately allowed herself to be captured.

Just as she was being callously treated by the two guards pulling at her hands that were cuffed behind her back, Leng Jinpeng walked out quickly after receiving reports from his guards about Zhong Nuannuan being arrested.

He did not believe them initially as Zhong Nuannuan was his personal guest. She had even registered her name for entry downstairs. How could something so drastic happen in such a short time?

However, when he witnessed Zhong Nuannuan actually being accosted by the two guards and treated rudely, the usually mild temperate Leng Jinpeng immediately flew into a rage.

"What are the two of you doing? Let her go!"

The two guards from downstairs were stunned. Before they were able to react, the commander-in-chief had rushed toward them at high speed before sending them stumbling away with a swift kick.

When he saw Zhong Nuannuan's hands still behind her back after the kick, he walked behind her to look. His face turned red in an instant as he roared at the group of people, "Who did this?"

Wang Gangyi went pale with fright.

This was the first time he had seen the commander-in-chief lose his temper.

This was a man who was brought in from the Emperor District. Rumor had it that he had an extremely influential background. An officer one rank higher was capable of destroying an individual, what more a man with a background such as the commander-in-chief. He could annihilate Wang Gangyi.

Leng Jinpeng may have been from the special forces, but years of self-cultivation had masked him with an elegant charisma. Many had almost forgotten he was once from the special forces and had earned numerous battle merits.

This roar of his filled the entire building with his sonorous voice, creating a mild tremor throughout the structure.

"I'm asking all of you who did this? Have you all gone dumb?" His voice got louder this time.

Wang Gangyi swallowed his saliva in fear. He wanted to ask about the relationship between Zhong Nuannuan and the commander-in-chief. Could it be that the commander-in-chief was not only on good terms with Chi Yang, but also knew Zhong Nuannuan?

Only

He was about to ask the question when the guard from the sixth floor started reporting what had happened between Zhong Nuannuan and the guards under Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang.

Wang Gangyi had never felt such immense pressure before as he was glared at by a seasoned special forces military ace who was also a long-serving commander-in-chief of the military base. An indescribable fear instantly formed within him.

The commander-in-chief had lost his temper at the military base for the first time, and it was directed at Wang Gangyi. All was lost... Would he even get Leng Jinpeng's help in moving up the ranks to commander-in-chief?

"Deputy Commander-in-Chief Wang, could you please explain to me why you are arresting my esteemed guest when everything seems well?"

"Es... Esteemed guest...???"

Zhong Nuannuan was but a Year 3 Senior student! When did she transform into an esteemed guest of the commander-in-chief? Could Zhong Nuannuan really know the commander-in-chief and was in fact not here to make a complaint to him?

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 329: Warmth Of A Kitt

It was then that Wang Gangyi realized that he had made a mistake. It was a mistake that might cause him everything.

The commander-in-chief already had a bad impression of him, and the thought of the commander-in-chief's retaliation at this matter made him shudder. Wang Gangyi suddenly felt regretful.

If he knew that dealing with Zhong Nuannuan would cause this sort of trouble, he never would have helped Ou Mingxi in the first place.

Wang Gangyi quickly organized his thoughts and said, "When I saw an outsider like her moving around the headquarters and refusing to leave even after asking her to, I ordered for her to be arrested. This was especially since she had referred to me as a retard. Commander-in-chief, I had no idea she was your esteemed guest. I'd asked her several times about who she was here to see, yet she did not answer me. That was why I had gotten my men to stop her. When she could not be stopped, I had to have her handcuffed."

As he said this, Wang Gangyi gave Zhong Nuannuan a sincere look. "I'm so sorry, I had no idea you were the esteemed guest of the commander-in-chief. This was a misunderstanding. If I had known earlier that our commander-in-chief had an appointment with you, I would never have dared to interrupt your meeting."

His words may have sounded sincere but the look in Wang Gangyi's eyes seemed to be threatening Zhong Nuannuan.

His eyes seemed to be telling her if she dared to spout any nonsense, he would make sure her father and the entire Jiang Group would pay for this.

Unfortunately, Zhong Nuannuan did not care for her father, nor did she care for her 'mother'. If she did not care about her parents, why would she care about her father's position or the Jiang Group, which was Jiang Shuwan's backing?

Leng Jinpeng looked at Zhong Nuannuan and asked gently, "Little Miss Nuan, is that true?"

As he asked this, Leng Jinpeng reached his hand out to the two guards. "Keys."

The guards quickly took out their keys to unlock Zhong Nuannuan's handcuffs but Leng Jinpeng took it from them and unlocked the cuffs for her personally.

As Leng Jinpeng was about to unlock the handcuffs on Zhong Nuannuan wrist, a tall, dapper figure came walking up the stairs. When Zhong Nuannuan spotted him, she quickly retracted her sharp, prickly claws and transformed into a little kitty cat who had just been bullied. She was acting as if she had just spotted her master as she flew toward Chi Yang and buried herself into his arms.

All that was missing were the maligned little meows that would have gone well with her pitiful demeanour.

Even though Chi Yang had no idea what had happened, but he could tell that his little wife had suffered some wrongs. When he reached out to hold her in his arms, he suddenly touched the metal of the handcuffs on the hands behind her back.

His little wife had run toward him from where Leng Jinpeng was. It did not matter what had just happened nor who had handcuffed his Nuannuan as Leng Jinpeng had been present but had done nothing about it. That meant this was all Leng Jinpeng's fault.

"What do you mean by this?"

It did not matter that this man had been Chi Yang's instructor and mentor... His little wife was his life!

Even his commander-in-chief was not allowed to bully her.

To put it even more plainly, he should not be bullying her!

Leng Jinpeng was speechless as he faced Chi Yang's wrath.

He felt bad about it, okay?

Only

He was angry as well, okay?

However, Chi Yang had come at him over this. What could he do when Chi Yang's little wife had been wronged in front of him?

He was anxious about the whole situation too!

"Chi Yang, calm down! About this..." He was taking care of it, okay?

“Calm down? How the hell do you want me to calm down when Nuannuan has been handcuffed?”

Qu Mingyi, who was on the sixth floor, had walked out when he heard the commotion. He was quite surprised at the scene in front of him. As he approached the scene, he heard Chi Yang shouting in a rage.

Chapter 330: Echoing Each Other's Words

Qu Mingyi roared, “Chi Yang! How can you speak this way to the commander-in-chief?”

“How do you want me to speak when he has Nuannuan in handcuffs?”

Chi Yang was in a terrible rage. He was shouting at everyone while his body shielded Nuannuan in his arms. He hugged her gently, afraid that he would hurt her.

“How could this be the work of the commander-in-chief? I don’t believe it! Have you lost your mind?”

Qu Mingyi looked at his commander-in-chief but realized there was no anger in his superior’s eyes.

Chi Yang continued roaring, “Even if he had not done it, but had seen someone handcuff my Nuannuan without doing anything about it, then what is he playing at?”

How could Qu Mingyi, who was cunning as a fox, not realize that these two were putting up a show?

Chi Yang snorted coldly. “Commander-in-chief, I am requesting for the person who had conducted a personal arrest on Nuannuan without proper cause to be severely punished! Otherwise, I will not let this go!”

Leng Jinpeng breathed a sigh of relief when he saw that Chi Yang’s rage had somewhat subsided and immediately worked on calming him down. “Don’t worry, I will give you a proper account of what had happened today.”

Wang Gangyi was horrified.

He knew Chi Yang had a close relationship with the commander-in-chief as he was the instructor of the special forces team and reported directly to the commander-in-chief.

However, he did not expect Chi Yang to hold such a strong position in the dynamic. Chi Yang dared to say such things to the commander-in-chief, who helmed such a powerful background.

Not only did he dare to rebuke the commander-in-chief, but he did not even bother to act respectfully toward the commander-in-chief and the chief-of-staff.

He was so regretful that he could feel his colons twist about.

If he knew that they shared such a close relationship, he would never have used brute force on Zhong Nuannuan.

He was in a terrible position now and the only thing he could hope for was for Zhong Nuannuan not to spout nonsense.

Only

Whatever happened could not be changed, and Chi Yang was determined to pursue the matter with the commander-in-chief's support. All he could hope was for the situation to slowly subside and disappear.

He hoped Zhong Nuannuan would understand that he was fully capable of destroying her. It was as easy as killing an ant. As long as she stayed quiet, he would pretend that nothing had ever happened and would not force her to break up with Chi Yang.

Zhong Nuannuan had arrived at the headquarters ahead of time. The other two deputy commander-in-chiefs had not left either as they still had work to do. Thus, they headed up from the fifth floor when they heard the commotion, curious about what was going on.

"Hey, isn't this Director-General Chi? What's going on? Why do you look so mad?"

The one speaking was the second deputy commander-in-chief, Peng Yaohua. Wang Gangyi, who was a rank above him, was his greatest competitor. He would always look out for any opportunity to cause trouble for Wang Gangyi, and so, was quick to chime in when he saw the desperate look on Wang Gangyi's face as well as Chi Yang's raging expression. This was an attempt to blow things up.

The commander-in-chief's health was getting worse by the day and he might suddenly retire or die without warning. If he could take this opportunity to take down Wang Gangyi, there would be a higher chance of him taking over the position. Even if he could not touch Wang Gangyi, he could at least try to stop the latter from moving up the ranks whilst simultaneously building a better relationship with the commander-in-chief and Chi Yang.

Just as Peng Yaohua was about to say something, the look on Wang Gangyi's face changed as he commented unhappily.
