Chapter 3281

3281 I'm sorry, Grandpa (3)

If beiming Qin was really killed, the Shi family wouldn't even be enough for him to play with for a day.

As for him, he was just a college student who had yet to graduate. What could he do? Would he be able to break through the obstacles of the Nangong and Chi families and rebuild the Shi family?

in your dreams!

Shi zhongqiong opened his mobile bank. All his credit cards had been stopped, but he still had a savings card. His parents had also deposited some money for him at Rs bank.

Although it was nothing compared to the glory of the Shi family, it was still worth thirty to forty million.

In addition to the more than 10 million in the card, it was still more than enough compared to an ordinary person.

The Shi family had already been seized, and even the coffee table in the Shi family had been mortgaged. He could no longer go back.

Shi zhongqiong used the software on his phone to edit the news and sent it to the television opposite Shi Gen. After setting it on a loop, he stood up and left.

"I'm sorry, Grandpa. I have no other choice. You're already paralyzed. I believe the country will take care of you. I heard that elder ning is just next door to you. Perhaps you'll have company in the future. There's no way I can support the Shi family on my own. Rather than throwing an egg at a rock, I'd rather keep the Shi family and live a good life abroad. Goodbye, Grandpa."

The Shi family was a very United family. Usually, the elders were very good to the younger generation. hence, after making the decision to abandon his grandfather and leave alone, shi zhongqiong could not help but feel sad.

But there was no other way, the Shi family was powerless to change the situation. He couldn't stay any longer and could only watch as his parents and clansmen were sentenced. He could only leave.

When Grandpa Shi woke up, there was no one in the ward. The wall opposite him was playing the news of the cooperation between Shengyang group and NS group.

After reading the news, Shi Heng's eyes widened.

Even Shi zhongqiong could understand it. Although he could not speak or move now, there was no problem with his thinking.

After carefully reading the news several times, Shi Heng's eyes closed in disappointment. Two streams of tears flowed from the side of his eyes to his white sideburns.

The world didn't know what was going on with the Shi family. Suddenly, so many things were exposed, and then almost the entire family was captured. Without any warning, they collapsed in an instant. However, he also knew that the Shi family must have lost to the Xiao family in the contest.

Originally, because the competition between the 12th and 13th was too intense, the other participants had already transferred to the Deputy profession selection. Now that the 13th had withdrawn, the 12th had the support of the Xiao family, the Nangong family, and the Chi family, so Li Heyi basically had no worries.

A month later was the Spring Festival. The Chi family and the Nangong family gathered together for the new year.

Because they were celebrating the New Year in Dizhou this year, Gu Xiaoli's parents had also come to Dizhou for their daughter. Nangong Nuannuan saw that Gu Xiaoli was busy with the follow-up information of the burn experiment and couldn't go home, so she invited her to the Nangong family for a reunion.

Later, she heard that her parents would come to Dizhou to spend the new year with her. Thinking that her parents would have no place to stay in Dizhou, she invited them along with her best friend's parents.

Gu Xiaoli's parents were from the countryside. They had been to the Nangong family's house before. At that time, there were not many people in the Nangong family other than the size of the house. In addition, the Nangong family was kind and hospitable, so they left a good impression on Gu Xiaoli's parents.

3282 New Year (5)

Two days later, New Year's Eve.

The reunion dinner was held at the Nangong family's house, because it was big enough.

Because of this, the Nangong family and the Chi family also invited many relatives and friends.

The evening was the time for everyone to stay up for the new year, so all the relatives and friends came in the afternoon.

This included Leng Jinpeng, Leng Qirui and his son, Cang Mingya, the mother and daughter from Canglan star, and Nangong Nuannuan's close friends. After all, Aiden had buried his house in the villa on the mountain, so the distance from the Nangong family's house was only a few turns on the mountain road.

Nangong Nuan Nuan did not have many friends. She only had three roommates in high school. Now that Yan Fangfang had returned to take over her family's business and often had to go abroad to study design, she only had Mu Qingxuan and Gu Xiaoli as friends.

Gu Xiaoli was already at the Nangong family's house. When Mu Qingxuan heard about it, she immediately came over. After all, they didn't have many opportunities to meet each other.

Other than that, old master Chi and old master Nangong had also invited old master Xiao and some other old men from the combat Services Department who shared the same goal.

Old master Xiao had called his daughter, son-in-law, grandson, granddaughter, and even in-laws.

Whether it was Xiao shenbin, li Heyi, Li Jingtian, or Wu Lingyun, they were all very close to the Chi and Nangong families.

as for the wu family's old man, wu jingcheng, and his two siblings, they all had a deep relationship with nangong nuannuan. Now that elder Xiao was going to the Nangong family's residence for the new year, she happily followed.

Chi Yang had invited ning Wenhao, Huang zichu, Huang Ziyu, and some of Fei Ying's direct subordinates.

The Chi family and the Nangong family didn't invite the President. After all, the two families were already in the limelight, so after dealing with the matters of the beiming family and the Shi family, the two families immediately kept a low profile.

However, they could not keep a low profile even if they wanted to.

Without the Shi family and the ning family, only the Nangong family and the Xiao family were left. The Nangong family, the Xiao family, the Shengyang group, the Hawkeye group, the disheng group, and even the world's number one NS group were all included in the gathering.

In addition to old man Chi and old man Nangong's friends, which one of them wasn't a figure who could shake the entire dizhou with a single word?

The president would step down in half a year after the new year. Knowing that li Heyi would be coming, he wanted to take this opportunity to talk to him.

Hence, the president came uninvited.

Since the president was here, those from the Internal Affairs Bureau, the Court of Justice, and the War Bureau, as long as they had a good relationship with the Chi and Nangong families, also came.

The visitors were guests, so it wasn't appropriate for the Nangong and Chi families to drive them away. They had also thought of such a result, so Chi zeyao and Nangong Qin had already made full preparations. They had transferred some chefs from the two five-star hotels in dizhou to their home.

It was fine to come to the Nangong family for the new year, but the Nangong family and the Chi family, who had given valuable gifts, would reject them all.

although they had already hired a chef, gu xiaoli's parents asked her second uncle to make some peasant dishes for the guests.

The distinguished guests of dizhou usually ate the dishes made by either the hotel's five-star chefs or the chefs at home. They were very interested in the food made by a big pot with a firewood rack, stir-frying chicken while turning cornmeal into a film and roasting it beside the pot.

3283 Heavens!1

the news about the shi family had become the biggest news in the past few days. as long as one turned on their phone, the news about the collapse of the shi family would be everywhere.

The Internal Affairs Bureau, the judicial Court, and the War Bureau worked together. Other than a useless university student like him, no one else was spared. Even the Butler and several servants of the Shi family had been arrested.

Shi zhongqiong continued to read the news and suddenly, he was stunned.

Shi zhongqiong's eyes widened. He rubbed his eyes, which he thought had gone blind. He realized that he was right.

Then, he clicked on the news.

The title was still the same as before.

#Shengyang group and NS group jointly develop the new energy market #

Such a news link would be easily ignored in the midst of popular news. This kind of news would only be reported in the financial news.

Therefore, this news wasn't very popular among the hot topics.

But,

Shi zhongqiong took a look at the time when the news was released. Why was it yesterday?

The war had happened three days ago, and the cooperation between Shengyang group and NS group should have happened three days ago. Why was the post released yesterday and the picture was from the celebration party?

Three days ago, during the battle, he had only gone to a meeting. There was no celebration party at all!

Shi zhongqiong thought that he had misunderstood and continued to flip to the back.

The general meaning of the news was that although Shengyang group was deeply regretful that the two vice-chairman of NS group had met with an accident in Carmino, the cooperation between Shengyang group and the chairman of NS group to develop the future energy market would definitely become a story in the new energy field.

This was nothing, but the further he looked, the colder Shi zhongqiong's heart became.

heavens!

What did he just see?

According to the news, when Nangong Nuannuan proposed to chiyang, the chairman of NS group accidentally saw the chairman of Shengyang group and felt that his temperament and eyes were very similar to her husband's. That was why she had traveled thousands of miles from cyber to Kamino.

however, the chairman of shengyang group had been seriously injured and lost his memory. he could not remember the chairman of NS group at all. Therefore, after Chairman Feng came down, he began to contact Chairman Chi frequently. He even asked his son, the Best Actor, Feng shengxuan, to do a paternity test with Chi zeyao. The final test results showed that Chi zeyao and Feng shengxuan's DNA had a 99.99% match. Biologically, they were father and son.

Everyone knew that NS group's Chairman had lost her husband a long time ago. Although she was a top fair, rich, and beautiful woman with countless suitors from all over the world, all the men who had pursued Feng Ji Mian over the years had either lost their arms or legs, or even lost their family business. He had made such a beautiful and rich woman, but no one had pursued her for so many years.

When he found out that the chairman of NS group was with the sickly girl from the Chi family, he couldn't help but sigh. Feng Ji Mian had finally been won over by another man.

However, at the celebration dinner, Chi zeyao, Feng jimian, and Feng shengxuan put on a show of acknowledging their family.

It turned out that the man whom old master Chi had saved and acknowledged as his son was the real leader of NS group.

All these years, although Chi zeyao's name had changed, his identity had changed, he had lost his memory, and even his body had collapsed, he had still supported the Chi family financially.

3284 Down-to-earth

Later, when the five-star chefs saw that the guests were all surrounding Gu Xiaoli's parents and that they were almost cooking a big pot of food, they immediately took their own plates and distributed them, so they all ran over to help.

later on, many elderly people also joined in. after all, many of the two old men's friends had suffered a lot in the past, so they were quite good at cooking this kind of country food.

seeing that the old men had also come down personally, who among the guests still dared to be the boss?

What was originally a high-profile gathering of the rich and powerful ended up with everyone rolling up their sleeves and getting to work. He took out all the pots and pans as if he was having a picnic outside.

Those who were skilled made spring rolls on the spot. Some were cold dishes, some were pancakes, and some served their own specialty dishes. Those without skills would help pick vegetables and add firewood. Even the young ladies and young masters of the wealthy families were not idle. They were busy showing off in front of the elders of their families.

it could be said that this reunion of the nangong family was the most down-to-earth and lively one among all the banquets held by the wealthy families in the past.

As a result, the later banquets of the rich and powerful began to follow suit. They no longer took the high-end route and began to take the down-to-earth route.

There were even some who would bring their own food to the door.

On the fifth day of the new year, the people from the Nangong and Chi families had already disappeared before everyone had left.

In order to get close to the Chi family, the Nangong family, and the Xiao family, those rich and powerful families had finally found an excuse to visit, but in the end, they found no one in these three families.

Even the Butler and the more important servants were not around. The unimportant servants didn't know where their master had gone.

At this moment, on an island in the open sea, the entire island had been built into a fairy-tale kingdom.

The small crystal clear freshwater lake was shimmering with golden light under the sun. The lake was surrounded by lush vegetation, birds sang, and flowers were fragrant. Seagulls flew over their heads from time to time.

Standing in the forest, all he could see was the grass, the towering trees, and the sun above him. However, as long as they followed the winding road, they would always see houses that only appeared in fairy tales at the corner.

Some were like mushrooms, some were like castles, and some were like cake buns.

These houses were the hotels that were built for the guests in the past two months.

No one had expected the island to be built like this. Although every house was very gorgeous, Lao Ai's iron-blooded personality and Nangong Nuannuan's slightly cold personality were completely incompatible.

The president couldn't help but laugh when he found out that his family was living in one of the Seven Dwarves' house.

Only his son, who was only in his teens, fell in love with her at first sight.

In the evening, witches and fairies would give out cards to the guests who were checking in, and the interested guests could complete the contents of the cards.

As long as the guests completed the task, they would be able to receive a prize from the two newlyweds.

The guests who were qualified to attend the wedding were all important guests from all over the world.

Not to mention the Presidents of Kamino and Sabo, the Queen and her husband of Renton, and the heads of state of Nabu and Mustaf, even other guests would be able to attract the attention of the entire society, or even the whole world, if they were to ask about their origins.

With such a group of guests, Chi Yang had originally thought that there would be very few people participating in the event.

Chapter 3285

3285 The wedding

Unexpectedly, after the witches and fairies distributed the various cards, there was a fierce competition between the guests.

The wedding was to be held at noon the next day. This event was originally held to kill time for the bored guests, but when the guests saw that the big shots from all over the world had participated, they also participated.

This was a game related to tussling. The name was “find the traitor of the alpha family.” The group that could find the traitor would win.

The groups were not based on the country, but were randomly issued, so everyone still needed to overcome the language barrier.

Since there were people who cleared the stage, there were naturally people who guarded the stage. The people who cleared the stage had to protect the spies of the alpha family and let them continue to stay inside until all the people who were investigating were eliminated.

It was originally just a small game, but the guests were playing it until the whole island was boiling. In the end, Nangong Nuannuan, along with count Latin, Wu pingting, Wu Lingyun, and Li jingrao, managed to find the mole through reasoning and saved the alpha family.

On the eve of the wedding, the entire Island was filled with laughter.

the next day's wedding was also like a dream.

Nangong Nuannuan did not have a father. As the daughter of the Duke of Lun tan, Nangong Nuannuan was naturally supported by Duke Eton as they walked to the flower Pavilion.

The ceremonial dress that Nangong Nuannuan was wearing today had been hand-sewn bit by bit by the royal family of the state of Lun tan after more than 80 days and more than 1000 processes.

It could be said that her gown was one of a kind in the world.

When the father and daughter arrived at the flower Pavilion, Chi Yang was already waiting there. Chi Yang couldn't hide the smile in his eyes when he saw his girl finally become his bride after receiving everyone's blessings.

“Chi Yang, from today onwards, I will officially entrust Nuan Nuan to you. Nuannuan had left home since she was young and had suffered a lot to achieve what she had today. Both of you are independent people, but the independence of your personality and the needs of your emotions are different. I hope you can love her more, pamper her, and tolerate her in the future.”

Duke Eton said what was on everyone's mind.

Today, the Nangong family had asked Duke Eton to deliver Nuan Nuan to Chi Yang not only because he had accompanied Nuan Nuan during her childhood, but also because Duke Eton had truly treated Nuan Nuan well.

if nuan nuan called him 'daddy', he would be nuan nuan's father.

When a daughter was getting married, her father should, of course, send her to the groom.

Chi Yang looked at his gentle father-in-law. When he was facing him, it was much easier than when he was facing his brothers from the Nangong family.

His father-in-law was a typical gentleman.

However, it was precisely because of this that he felt no pressure, and the words he said came from the bottom of his heart.

“Dad, don’t worry. From now on, Nuannuan will be my wife. I will love her and protect her for the rest of my life. Whoever wants to hurt her will have to step over my dead body.”

Because it was the wedding of an important figure, the wedding emcee only explained the process and left the rest to the guests.

In the end, he didn’t expect Chi Yang to say such a thing. He stood to the side and didn’t know what to say.

Duke Eton, however, did not think much of it. Compared to those auspicious words, saying some good things was not as practical as this sentence.

Therefore, after hearing Chi Yang’s words, Duke Eton did not ask him to take back his words. Instead, he praised him.

Chapter 3286

3286 The ending of the main text

“These are the most touching words of love and promises I’ve ever heard. I believe you can do it. Then I’ll leave Nuannuan to you.”

Duke Eton didn’t make things difficult for Chi Yang at all. He put on an expression that said, “ I trust you, I trust you very much. My Nuannuan will be happy for the rest of her life with you. then, he handed Nangong Nuannuan’s hand to Chi Yang.

Chi Yang took the little hand that was placed in his palm with both hands. Her eyes were filled with honey as she touched the softness.

The emcee was about to speak, but Chi Yang stopped following the script and said to Nangong Nuannuan, “ “Nuannuan, I will make you happy for the rest of your life.”

Looking at the man who doted on her so much, Nangong Nuannuan wanted to say, “ in your previous life, you have already fulfilled your promise at the wedding today.

However,

Let those unpleasant memories vanish into thin air.

From now on, there would be nothing that could stop them.

Nangong Nuannuan nodded and said, "yes, we'll love each other forever." I'll love you as much as you love me. "

This was her promise to him.

Love is not just about one party giving. To get a happy love and marriage, it must be the contribution of both parties.

She felt that it was wrong to have feelings that only required the man to give.

So, since they were together, they should love each other for the rest of their lives!

"good! It's a deal!"

although he felt that his nuannuan already loved him enough and treated him well enough, these sweet words still warmed his heart and he couldn't get tired of them.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled sweetly and nodded. "Yes, it's a deal."

"Let's go," he said.

Chi Yang held Nangong Nuannuan's hand and walked step by step to the center with the blessings of his friends and family.

"Big brother chiyang, have I always been a child in your heart?" nangong nuannuan could not help but ask.

Chi Yang didn't let Nuannuan hold his arm. Instead, he interlocked his fingers with Nuannuan's and held her arm as they slowly walked forward. After hearing his wife's question, his eyes were filled with love and heartache. He said, " "Although you're very powerful, you don't have a childhood. Although I'll spend every day of your life with you, I'll regret those days without you."

nangong nuannuan could not help but smile. " regret? that's why you made our wedding look like a fairy tale? We didn't even know each other when we were young, what are you regretting?"

"I don't know. He just felt regret. I think that I should be the one spending every day with you. That's perfect."

Nangong Nuannuan's grip on Chi Yang's hand tightened. it's already perfect. big brother chiyang, thank you!"

"Nuannuan, thank you too."

They had already agreed not to say thank you, but at this moment, before the sacred red carpet and the altar, the two still said thank you to each other.

Chapter 3287

3287 (plot) 1

Three months ago.

Bai Liyue stood at the intersection of glory planet and Emperor moon planet and took a deep look behind her.

That was the direction of Chi zeyao's surgery, and the direction of the angel Medical Association.

There was a person she had loved for many years.

This person was full of flaws. He was arrogant, violent, and stubborn. She didn't like any of them.

She didn't understand why she had liked him for so many years.

Perhaps Yueyue was just as Nuan Nuan had said-she only cared about looks.

she thought that her love for him was deep enough, so deep that she could give her life to him.

But she was wrong.

Because she realized that after Feng shengxuan's hypnosis had been lifted and he had returned to his true self, his personality was what she liked the most.

she had thought that she had loved him to the extreme, but after he recovered, she realized that she could love him even more.

This kind of love and adoration seemed to have long been integrated into his bone marrow.

She was going to leave soon, and she was going to marry another man. although this man was said to be a vegetable who had lost his five senses and only had a trace of breathing left, she had married him in the past.

That world was different from glory planet. Although everyone in that world wore modern clothes, they were more brutal, and those who were strong had the right to speak. Regardless of whether it was a man or a woman, the stronger one could have multiple wives or one wife.

Unfortunately, her family was the weaker party, so even if she married someone in a vegetative state, she could not regret it. Otherwise, the other party's family could exterminate her entire family.

when she had given up on feng shengxuan, she had agreed to marry someone from the heavenly return sect. After all, the sect master of the heavenly return sect was already in a vegetative state. To her, this was no different from cutting her hair to become a nun. She could also help her sister and save the family.

However, when the people from the heavenly return sect came and the marriage contract was signed, she found out that Feng shengxuan had been hypnotized.

After the hypnosis was lifted, Feng shengxuan's personality and temperament were perfect, and she liked him so much.

That was why she had delayed her departure time and time again.

She thought that the other party would make things difficult for her, but he did not. The few people who followed her in the dark were very good to her and even counseled her.

Of course, they were only talking bad about Feng shengxuan.

In the end, she knew that she couldn't delay any longer, so she said that she would wait until Feng shengxuan was out of hypnosis before leaving. she thought that the other party would stop her, but he still did not. Not only did he not, he even said that he would save her life. As long as her life was in danger and they made a move, it meant that her life belonged to the heavenly returning sect and not Feng shengxuan.

She agreed.

So today, when Feng Kun hired people to kill her, they helped her, and she had no excuse to stay.

Although it was a pity that he had missed it, at least he had helped his family, so he didn't feel so regretful anymore.

young Madam, our young master is quite nice. You'll definitely fall in love with him after you meet him. Said the short, somewhat apologetic, unremarkable-looking boy.

Another man who was as cool as the moonlight said.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 3288

3288 (X) 2

to be honest, I admit that your Feng shengxuan is not bad looking. But compared to our young master, he's just a low-quality version.

"Little brat, tell me clearly, what do you mean by 'your family'?" Shouldn't the young Madam belong to our family?"

At this time, Bai Liyue had already followed this group of people into the spatial portal and walked in a vast white space.

She was shocked by the fifth elder's strength. He was able to walk so steadily between the two spaces.

When the Wei family and Baili family had asked her to come here, they had been blown away by the storm in this space even with the wind-stabilizing pill. They had even been scattered in different countries.

However, the fifth elder was able to support the six of them so easily until they left glory planet and arrived at Emperor moon.

she was sent to glory planet when she was 13 years old. now that she was back, she was 26 years old.

In 13 years, nothing seemed to have changed on Emperor moon.

It was still the blue sky, white clouds, lush vegetation, and abundant spiritual energy in her memory.

The people here practiced cultivation. They believed that as long as they could get their hands on the roulette that could change the world, they would be able to succeed in their cultivation.

The people here were not used to using all modern things. Even if they used more electricity, they would still feel that it was a waste of the planet's resources, creating waste gas and reducing cultivation resources.

The people here were most interested in the concentration of spirit Qi in the air, so the rich people here all lived in the mountains, and only the poor would live in the bustling city.

The heavenly return sect was the most powerful sect in heaven city, far above the Baili family and the Wei family. Therefore, when the heavenly return sect wanted her to celebrate their sect master's birthday, the Baili family and the Wei family made it happen.

Although the sect master of the heavenly return sect was in a vegetative state in the words of the glory planet, the fallen heavenly return sect was still an unshakeable Overlord in heaven city.

So even if their sect master was already a cripple who couldn't wake up, they still wanted the Baili family's legitimate young miss to marry him.

The Baili family and the Wei family were famous people in Sky City. In the words of the glory planet, they were rich and powerful.

Moreover, they were a wealthy family that had the power to decide life and death and could establish their own forces.

However, because the Baili family and the Wei family both wanted to be on good terms with the heavenly return sect, she became the sacrifice.

She was the Baili family's legitimate daughter, and she had a sister called Baili Xi. Unfortunately, their father had passed away a long time ago, and their mother, Liu susu, had married the young master of the Wei family not long after their father's death.

Most of the wealthy families only looked at benefits and were indifferent to family ties. It was the same on glory planet and Emperor moon planet.

When her father was still alive, she and her sister were pampered daughters of the heavens. However, after her father's death, the power of their bloodline was divided between her second uncle and third uncle. Thus, she and her sister instantly went from princesses to servants who were even worse than butlers.

After her mother married into the Wei family, she was only the second wife, also known as the aunt. Moreover, under the pincer attack of the first household, only one of the three children had survived over the years.

she and her half-brother couldn't even save themselves, let alone her and her sister.

in order to ensure her sister's survival, she had gone to glory planet to collect spirit stones.

The so-called spirit stone was called Jade on glory planet. It was a type of Jade that was rich in spiritual power and was formed by gathering the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 3289

3289 (Plot) 3

Spirit stones were divided into red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue, and purple. Red Spirit stones contained the lowest amount of spirit Qi, while purple spirit stones contained the highest amount of spirit power.

The people here were born with the ability to sense spiritual energy, so purple spiritual stones had been excavated in large numbers many years ago.

Although spiritual stones were renewable, they needed to be accumulated over the years and could not be excavated without restraint.

Later on, the big forces on Emperor moon controlled the high-grade spirit stones and only distributed them to their own forces. Those who were not as powerful would gradually lose their chance of obtaining high-grade spirit stones. In the end, if they wanted to obtain high-grade spirit stones and train experts for their families, they could only rely on the large forces or find other ways.

The heavenly return sect had always controlled the passage between Emperor moon planet and glory planet. The Baili family had somehow gotten the news that although glory planet was a heavily polluted planet, the development of spirit stones was limited to its appearance. They did not know how to absorb the power inside at all. Therefore, they sent her, an dispensable lady, to seek benefits for the Baili family.

For glory planet, the old-pit ice-type Emerald was the most expensive Jade because most people thought pure Emerald looked good.

but what they didn't know was that, according to the theory of spiritual energy, the purple jade of the ice-type, which was also the pure violet, was actually the most precious thing.

The second was the ice-type blue jade, the cyan Jade, and the so-called Emerald Jade.

It was also because she had discovered Nangong Nuannuan's x-ray vision that they had become friends. Under Nangong Nuannuan's suggestion, Nangong Nuannuan had gone with her to Nabu and musta France to buy a mine and a river bed.

As for the Jade that Nangong Nuannuan had bought from the river bed, she would use the large number of diamonds her family had sent to exchange for it.

There was no lack of diamonds on Emperor moon. It could be said that diamonds were no different from decorations on Emperor moon. Although they were hard and beautiful, they were not practical for the people of Emperor moon.

From the fact that the people of Emperor moon were environmentally friendly and low-carbon, it was still similar to the Republic of China era. It could be seen that the things that the people of this planet advocated were completely different from those on glory planet.

the people here only cared about strength. Without strength, one could only hole up in one's own small world and become the most ordinary, most ordinary person, one who would never be able to stand out. As for powerful people, even if you were born in a poor family, no one would look down on you. As long as such people were tested after birth, various forces would naturally find their way to your family. Your growth from childhood to adulthood would be contracted by the forces you relied on, so you would not have to worry about development at all.

Therefore, in this world, the rich and powerful people also had powerful strength. He wasn't someone ordinary people could easily offend.

Moreover, in this place, there was no need to be polite to the commoners, and there was no need to punish the doctors.

As long as they had the protection of a big force, even if they killed someone, as long as they could have a good relationship with the law-enforcement team, it was not a big deal.

Bai Liyue followed the fifth elder and the others all the way back to heaven city.

The streets here were still the same as she was familiar with, nothing had changed.

seeing the fifth elder and the others walking to the left, bai liyue was startled. " "fifth elder, isn't the baili family this way?"

The fifth elder was a short and chubby old man. When he smiled, his squinty eyes could not be seen.

At this moment, he was smiling.

"Young Madam, we're going back to our own home, not to the Baili family."

My head!

Chapter 3290

3290 (X) 4

Bai Liyue frowned,"although I agreed to come back with you, I haven't married your young master yet." We're not even married yet, isn't it a little inappropriate for me to move to the heavenly return sect?"

The fifth elder was still smiling.

"How is this not good? This is clearly too good!" Not only did the fifth elder say that, but he also clapped as he spoke.

"Young Madam, didn't you hear us calling you young Madam? Our family's young master can't be touched, so you don't have to be polite to her. From the moment you agreed, you were already registered under the heavenly return sect. It's not easy for you to come back, so of course you should go back to your own home. Why do you want to go back to your Maiden Home?"

The plain-looking young man beside him quickly nodded and said, " "That's right, your family sold you for some resources, what's there to be concerned about? But the heavenly return sect was different! You're the young Madam of the heavenly return sect, the wife of our young master! You and our young master have a marriage certificate! It was issued by the Civil Affairs Bureau!"

Baili Yue:

With the appearance of the space Channel, many people on Emperor moon had been to glory planet and learned a lot of things. For example, the Civil Affairs Bureau was one of them.

“So, we’re officially husband and wife now?” Bai Liyue asked, somewhat speechless.

“Of course! Do you think we would call you young Madam so casually? We’re not that kind of people!”

Baili Yue:

If this wasn’t casual, then she didn’t know what that was.

“Let’s go, young Madam. The young master is still waiting for you. All the elders in the sect know that you’re coming back, and are also waiting to pay their respects to you.”

Baili Yue:

He was in a vegetative state. He didn’t know what kind of waiting was that.

However, Bai Liyue could still accept the character of this group of people. In addition, her future husband was in a vegetative state, so she didn’t need to serve him. She could always love the person she was willing to love, which was still acceptable.

This was already the best outcome. Bai Liyue nodded and followed the fifth elder in the direction of the heavenly return sect.

Even though she said she was walking, Bai Liyue was actually using her own Qinggong. It was her ability.

Her strength was considered very good on glory planet, the top kind. However, on Emperor moon, it was a bit of a noob. Although she wasn’t a complete noob, she had always been very powerful before she was 13 years old. However, after her father’s death, her two uncles couldn’t tolerate her and her sister. They were afraid that the two sisters would steal the limelight from their children, so they sent her away, and her sister went to the Wei family.

After she went to glory planet, her development was not as good as that of the family disciples. Without her willingness to cultivate, she was probably far behind the disciples of the clan.

So it’s good for Yingying to go to the heavenly return sect directly. He didn’t want to see the cold eyes of the baili family.

“I still don’t know what your names are.”

Although she had been with the five elders for a long time, she had never asked for their names.

When the fifth elder and the rest saw that Bai Liyue had finally taken the initiative to ask for their names, they were all very happy.

“Young mistress, my name is Feng Zhuo, the fifth elder of the heavenly return sect.”

The fat young man with an ordinary appearance said, “I’m Qingfeng.”

Another plain-looking thin young man said, “I’m called Ming Yue.”

Bai Liyue glanced at the short fatty who was not even as tall as her. She felt that the name Qingfeng needed to be considered.
