Chapter 3291

3291 (Plot) 5

One of the two handsome men who didn't talk much along the way said, "I'm chi Mei,"

The other one's lips were still tightly shut. Just when Bai Liyue thought that he was mute and didn't intend to hear his name, the fifth elder slapped his perky chest. He glanced at the fifth elder, and under the fifth elder's threatening gaze, he said with an expression that was like forcing a good woman to become a prostitute, "zhenzhen."

[ f * ck! ]

"Who gave you your names?"

Bai Liyue suddenly became interested.

After all, the two of them were so good-looking, but they were named Qingfeng and Mingyue. The other two were so good-looking, but they were named Chimei and chiliang.

This was simply a reversal of the world!

"Young master!" The three of them said in unison.

This time, the fifth elder didn't hit anything he shouldn't, so Qianqian closed her thin lips tightly and pretended to be cool.

"When your young master gave you names, you were still babies?" Otherwise, the name wouldn't be so unconventional.

"We were already over 30 years old when we followed the young master," said Qingfeng. Since we've followed the young master, we'll be his people in the future. Of course, the young master will give us our names. He said that Ming Yue and I have to come up with a nice name so that we can slowly become more good-looking in the future."

This was looking down on his subordinates for being ugly!

he was despised by his young master, but this group of people still protected him even after he was in a vegetative state. he was considered lucky.

"What about the Chimei wangliang?" Could it be that he was afraid that being too good-looking would shorten his life?

Bai Liyue thought so, but did not say it out loud.

"It's because the demons and monsters are too good-looking, so young master is afraid that they will have a short life. He said that beautiful things are always lacking in vitality."

Bai Liyue, who was flying in the air with a group of people, stepped on a leaf and lost her balance, almost falling down.

“Young Madam!”

Qingfeng and Mingyue shouted and each of them supported one side of Baili Yue, helping her to the branch.

Bai Liyue was also shocked.

However, after living on glory planet for a long time, he wasn't used to seeing them all standing on the trees.

“The heavenly return sect is so powerful. Don't you have a divine travelling talisman or a car or a horse carriage? Why do you have to rely on your own two legs?”

“Young Madam, you went to that heavily polluted planet when you were 13 years old, so you must have a lot of impurities in your body now,” fifth elder said with a smile. Now that you're back, as the matriarch of the heavenly return sect, you don't have much to do. In the future, you can train with me. Hahahaha!”

Looking at the fifth elder, that fat old man, smiling with a face full of pride, Bai Liyue suddenly had a bad feeling.

Seeing that Bai Liyue did not speak, the fifth elder said, “ young Madam, running is good for your physical and mental health. You should do more aerobic exercise to get rid of the garbage and foul air in your body so that we can proceed to the next step of training.

“what do you want me to do?” bai liyue frowned.

“Ah?” The fifth elder didn't quite understand Bai Liyue's question.

“you want me to marry your young master and even want me to improve my strength. what do you want?”

The fifth elder and the group of young people looked at each other.

“Young Madam, you're the matriarch of our household, so of course we'd like you to remain young forever,” said Ming Yue. You also know that the stronger you are, the longer you live, and the longer your puberty.”

“The elders have chosen a wife for our young master. Our young master is powerful and beautiful. Young Madam, you've really benefited. In order to prevent you from getting old after our young master wakes up, the elders will definitely carry out some basic training for your health.”

The fifth elder nodded. that's right, that's right. Don't worry, young Madam. It's just some basic training!

” what are you guys doing? ” bai liyue nervously looked at the group of people who could easily crush her and asked, ” “Don't tell me you want me to be your young master's drug primer?”

Bai Liyue's words caused everyone to burst into laughter. Qingfeng laughed the most happily, to the point that he even laughed until tears came out.

"Young Madam, have you watched too much television and read too many novels?" The fifth elder said with a smile.

Baili Yue:

"Qingfeng and Mingyue loved to read novels when they had nothing to do in that world. Before they left, they even packed a lot of mobile phones in their interspatial rings. It's filled with downloaded pirated novels."

Baili Yue:

"Young Madam, as a senior novel enthusiast, I can guarantee with my life that you're definitely not a drug primer. The fifth elder trained you purely so that you can live longer."

Bai Liyue felt that these people's smiles were quite clean and not annoying, so she basically believed them.

After that, the fifth elder was really cruel and made Bai Liyue jump all the way to the heavenly return sect with Qinggong.

Although these few people were running, their speed was so fast that they could leap onto roofs and vault over walls. They were even more powerful than her Qinggong.

They were running, while she was jumping and flying. However, even after using all her strength, she could only barely keep up with them.

Finally, at a very late time, Bai Liyue came to the heavenly return sect.

This was a blessed land with mountains and rivers.

On glory planet, it was rare for her to see a three-thousand-foot waterfall, but here, standing at the foot of the mountain and looking up, the waterfall really looked like the Milky Way flowing down from the sky.

Against the bright moonlight, the Green Mountains and green trees were absolutely beautiful.

On a huge rock at the foot of the mountain, someone used a sword to carve out three wild and unruly words in one go-heavenly return sect.

Bai Liyue saw that there were many people standing at the entrance of the heavenly return sect and was looking at the fifth elder in confusion. Then, she saw a few shadows flying across the sky from all directions like a meteor, and they instantly landed in front of her.

They were all old men in their fifties or sixties. Some of them looked younger than the fifth elder, while some of them looked older.

Should be.

"Greetings, young Madam."

It was as if someone had specially started the beat. Everyone in front of her suddenly bowed at her at the same time, making a 90-degree bow.

She had heard of the heavenly return sect even when she was young. It was a very powerful force that ruled almost the entire heaven city.

Such a force, such a group of people who were high and mighty in front of others, saluted her, a little girl with no background. Bai Liyue's brows slightly raised.

He felt that something was wrong.

After all, there was no free lunch in this world. Although the young master of the heavenly return sect had fallen into a vegetative state, she was just an unfavored young lady of one of the forces under the heavenly return sect.

Although she was still very young at that time, she still remembered these people clearly. More than ten years in Emperor moon wasn't a long time. Back when her father was still alive, she knew that these people were very impressive people in the heavenly return sect.

3293 (Plot) 7

He was a figure that even the head of the Baili family had to bow to.

They were all elders.

Bai Liyue was still not clear about the situation here. Seeing these elders salute her, she also saluted to several elders.

Fifth elder walked out with a smile. young Madam, let me introduce you. This is our heavenly return sect's acting sect master, second elder Feng Luan."

"Sect Master Feng," Bai Liyue nodded in greeting.

the second elder didn't smile or speak, but the way he looked at her was still very respectful. at least, bai liyue couldn't see the slightest trace of neglect.

Feng Luan bowed to Bai Liyue again and said, " "Young Madam, you can just call me Feng Kun or second elder. I'm only acting as the sect master. When our young master awakens, he'll decide on the sect master's position."

A person in a vegetative state who had been lying in bed for so many years. When she was young, she seemed to have heard that the young master of the heavenly return sect was in a vegetative state and the sect master had died. Did they think that their young master would wake up? Even when he woke up, this second elder said that the position of sect master would be decided by the young master, but he didn't say that the sect master was the young master.

Therefore, this second elder was only respectful on the surface, but in reality, he was not willing to give up the position of sect master.

After all, the heavenly return sect was a super force in the entire Emperor moon planet. Who wouldn't be envious of such a big pie? Who would want to lose what they had already obtained?

"Since you're the acting sect master, I should naturally address you as sect master," Bai Liyue smiled slightly.

"Hehe, are you setting a trap for my dad?"

Before the second elder could say anything, a woman behind him sneered.

Baili Yue glanced at the person who had insulted her. She was very beautiful, belonging to the kind of androgynous beauty that was more masculine. Although this person had rebuked her, the way she looked at her was not annoying.

"Qinglan," The second elder glanced at the woman, his eyes full of disapproval and denial.

The woman obviously wanted to say something more, but she could only shut her mouth resentfully.

"Young Madam, although I'm the acting sect master, it's only the duty of a temporary one. Everyone else calls me second elder. If you think it's easier to call me acting sect master, you can also call me acting sect master. Anyway, you can call me whatever you like."

When Bai Liyue saw the kind smile in the second elder's eyes, she knew that he had already seen through her heart. "Then I'll keep Qianqian as the second elder," he said, embarrassed.

After all, everyone else called her second elder, so she couldn't call her acting sect master.

"Greetings, young Madam!" Feng Kun nodded.

Baili Yue:

The fifth elder chuckled. young mistress, aren't you very casual with me? why are you so reserved with second brother? "

Bai Liyue slightly pursed her lips and did not comment on the fifth elder's words.

"Come, come, let me introduce you. This is the sixth elder, Feng Luan. He is in charge of the law enforcement Hall."

"Good day, young Madam!"

Feng Luan took the lead to greet Baili Yue, and Baili Yue also nodded in greeting.

"This is the eighth elder, Feng Luan. He's in charge of the financial Hall. Young Madam, if you need anything in the future, you can look for Feng Kun directly. He's in charge of all our money."

"Then I'll have to trouble you in the future, eighth elder." Even Bai Liyue smiled more at the eighth elder. After all, glory planet's currency was not circulated here. She was a rich woman on glory planet, but here, she was still poor.

Feng Kun was flattered and nodded repeatedly. "They're all young master's! They all belong to young master! Young Madam, if you want to, just shout."

I'll announce the winning list tomorrow. I just came back from Shanghai, so I didn't have time to count.

"And me, I'm ranked fifth, and I'm in charge of the martial Hall. All the disciples of the heavenly return sect are my students. So, young Madam, don't worry. I'll definitely supervise your studies in the future.

There were only so many elders left. The other elders are all dead. If you are willing to understand, I can take you to their graves another day."

Baili Yue:

This was not necessary.

young Madam, young master has been waiting for you in his room for a long time. We'll send you back to your room now.

When Baili Yue heard this, she was still a little startled. Then, she nodded. thank you.

"The young master lives at the moon peak, which is the highest peak in the heavenly return sect. It is the closest to the sky and has the most abundant spiritual Qi. Let's go."

Looking at the smiling fifth elder, Bai Liyue had a bad feeling and asked, "The highest peak? How high is it?"

bai liyue's legs went soft as she glanced at the towering peaks and the waterfall that fell from the clouds.

it's not that high, only about 5000 meters.

Bai Liyue's legs went soft, and two female disciples of the heavenly return sect suddenly held her up.

"Young Madam, if you're tired, there's no rush. Young master can wait for a while. Someone, bring young Madam to a seat!"

Soon, someone lifted up a stone stool inside and brought it to Baili Yue. Another person moved a stone table and another person brought a cup of tea.

"Young Madam, these tea leaves are picked in the third month of the lunar calendar every year. You can try them while you rest. You've been on glory planet for 13 years, so you must have forgotten the taste here. The tea leaves on Emperor moon have been baptized by spiritual Qi."

Bai Liyue knew this, so when the fifth elder placed the tea in front of her, she did not refuse.

After drinking a mouthful of tea, Bai Liyue suddenly felt that her body had become much lighter.

The fatigue from running all the way to the heavenly return sect quickly disappeared after drinking this cup of tea.

The fifth elder was worthy of being the law enforcement elder of the martial Hall. He had very good control over her physical condition. Bai Liyue sat under the watchful eyes of the crowd for 15 minutes. Just as she felt that her body had reached a very comfortable level, the fifth elder let her get up.

After that, under everyone's gaze, Bai Liyue followed the fifth elder and the rest towards a mountain in the West.

you've wasted 13 years and still have such a speed. Not bad. the second elder looked at baili yue's back and commented sincerely.

"With this speed? Dad, haven't you always been unable to tolerate a single grain of sand in your eyes? Why are you still in such a good mood even though your eyes are filled with sand?"

The woman named Qinglan, who had just rebuked Bai Liyue, couldn't help but speak.

Feng Luan glanced at her daughter and said, "Qinglan, you have to remember that everyone had to give in to you on this day, so you can say whatever you want. But she's the young Madam, and she needs you to give in to her. I hope that you can get along well with young Madam."

"Alright, what do you mean by" young Madam, young Madam, and young Madam "? The young master has already become like this, do you really believe that the young Madam can wake the young master up?"

"Qinglan!"

Because Feng Qinglan had mentioned the young master of the heavenly return sect, the smiles on the elders' faces instantly disappeared and they all called out to her in unison.

Feng Qinglan also knew that she had said something wrong, so she opened her mouth to explain.

3295 (X) 9

However, she also knew that this kind of thing didn't need to be explained to the elders, so she could only wave her hand. "Al, I know, I know. She's the young Madam of our heavenly return sect, our Savior. I'll give in to her in the future. This should be fine, right?"

"qinglan, you have to remember your promise. otherwise, if you offend the young madam, even father won't be able to protect you. you'll be punished according to the rules of the heavenly return sect."

"Alright, dad, I know. I don't have any grudges with her. I'm a madman to compete with her with a beating. But could Yingluo really wake young master up? When would the young master wake up? Nimo, what kind of methods will you use?"

"I don't know. Let's wait for a miracle."

After the second elder finished speaking, he said to the inner disciples gathered at the door, "Everyone has seen young Madam today. In the future, be more respectful to her."

"Yes."

After giving his instructions, the second elder dismissed everyone.

Bai Liyue followed the fifth elder's original team and jumped up the mountain.

yes, it was jumping.

Other than the fifth elder, who had flown to a straight line about a hundred meters away from her to wait for her, Mingyue Qingfeng and the others had been following her all along.

because it was a world of cultivation, no one was found to build a road on the mountain. the faint road was just a trace of someone stepping on it in the forest.

The mountain wasn't steep, but she could only jump 10 meters at a time.

Mingyue, Qingfeng, and the other two followed her unhurriedly. After Bai Liyue finally reached the 100-meter mark, the fifth elder jumped again and ran to the 200-meter mark.

Baili Yue:

"Young Madam, you're actually quite fast. You've been on glory planet for 13 years, and there are too many impurities in your body. As long as you go through a certain period of rejection, you can jump 30 meters without any study." Ming Yue consoled him with a smile.

"Thank you!"

Although she had come to a strange place, Bai Liyue could feel the kindness of these people.

"it's what i should do, young madam." Ming Yue replied sweetly.

the fifth elder can jump 100 meters in one go. What about you guys? " Baili Yue really wanted to know what was going on with the people who followed her.

"We can only jump 60-80 meters in one jump."

Baili Yue,"alright, Zhenzhen, forget she asked."

She thought that she had never slacked off in her cultivation all these years, especially in her Qing Gong. at least on emperor moon, she would have no problem escaping. The result:

young Madam, you're actually too slow. You're only jumping 10 meters per second. You can't keep up.

Ha?

At this moment, Bai Liyue had already jumped 500 meters in one breath without resting. When she suddenly heard Qingfeng's words, she instantly decided to catch her breath.

Anyway, the gap was so big, so it was better to rest for a while before leaving.

15 minutes later, Bai Liyue finally reached the top of the moon peak.

Although the spiritual Qi at the top of the mountain was indeed very abundant, it was still very dense.

"What's wrong, young Madam?"

Seeing Baili Yue lying on the ground without saying a word, Ming Yue and the other three were shocked. Just as they were about to help her, they heard the fifth elder say, "stop! You little brats! She's your young Madam, how can you help her? The young master is still in the room!"

When the four teenagers heard this, they were so scared that they quickly retreated a few meters away.

5000 meters was not high for Bai Liyue, but it was really difficult for her to jump 5000 meters in a straight line in 15 minutes.

Chapter 3296

3296 (X) 10

Bai Liyue looked at the stars in the sky. She was as tired as a dead dog. If it weren't for the group of strangers here, she would have stuck her tongue out.

Suddenly, the starry sky above Bai Liyue's head was blocked by the fifth elder's chubby face.

"Young Madam, do you need me to get someone to carry you in?"

Bai Liyue shook her head. no, there's no need. I'll be fine after a short rest.

As she spoke, Bai Liyue was still panting.

He had never felt so tired before.

The fifth elder chuckled. alright, take a rest then. I'll accompany you in.

Bai Liyue rested for a full five minutes before she could stand up. After she stood up, she felt that her legs were trembling, and her whole body was exhausted.

After standing up, Bai Liyue saw a Palace-like building.

it was very grand and majestic, just like the camino kingdom's imperial palace. it felt like every brick and tile contained its long history.

Although she knew that the person lying inside was in a vegetative state, Bai Liyue still felt inexplicably nervous at the thought of seeing him.

"Young Madam, let me accompany you to meet the young master." The fifth elder said.

bai liyue nodded and followed the fifth elder to the palace.

Just as he was about to reach it, the fifth elder took a different path.

"The main hall is the place where the young master meets his private guests. Your residence is not here." The fifth elder explained, "you are the wife of the young master. In the future, if you want to meet guests, you can meet them at the main hall at the foot of the mountain. For the more important ones, you can meet them at the main hall halfway up the mountain. You can meet those who are close to you in this living room."

bai liyue followed the fifth elder and listened to his introduction of yue feng.

"If you want to meditate in the morning, you can meditate on the moon Peak Stone over there. There's a road sign here. You can just follow this road sign. The spiritual Qi on the moon Peak Stone was the most abundant in the entire heavenly return sect. That stone is the place with the densest spiritual Qi of heaven and earth. Meditating on it will yield twice the result with half the effort."

Although the fifth elder had introduced the moon Peak Stone, he did not bring her to see it. Instead, he headed north in the direction of his young master.

"You and the young master's bedroom is in the moon House, in this bamboo forest. The young master liked bamboo, so this mountain peak was planted with bamboo. if you like other plants, you can plant them, but you can't remove the bamboo."

"No need,"

Although she had left the man she loved and married someone else, she was glad to find that every blade of grass and tree here seemed to be to her liking.

She felt that this sea of bamboo was very beautiful and artistic.

As he walked closer, a three-story villa appeared in front of him. it was a villa similar to the one on planet glory, but it was made of bamboo.

The villa was beautiful and Grand, but it did not lose its elegance.

At this moment, a group of servants walked out with their heads lowered. They cupped their fists and saluted Bai Liyue, calling out in unison, "Greetings, young Madam!"

"They're the servants of the moon House. Young Madam, you can just tell them if you need anything. This was Yi one, this was Yi two, this was Yi three, and this was Yi four. The four of them were in charge of the house. The rest of them will be waiting outside. If you need anything, just give them one, two, three, four instructions."

Baili Yue:

"Is there a problem with young Madam?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 3297

3297 (X) 11

"Does the heavenly return sect name its members so casually?"

"The young master doesn't like complicated names. He can't remember people's names, so he replaced them with easy-to-remember ones," the fifth elder said with a smile.

"i can tell," bai liyue nodded.

"You don't usually have to do many things. You just have to take care of the young master's physical condition and help him wash up. Although the young master could no longer move, he still needed to wash up every day. The servants have no right to touch young master, so you have to do everything yourself, young Madam."

"Then, he hasn't washed up in so many years?" A hundred miles of moon shock.

The fifth elder's mouth twitched, and he almost fainted from the obvious disdain in Baili Yue's eyes.

the young master has a divine elixir on him, so even though he has been asleep for so many years, he is still as clean as before he fell asleep.

then he can continue to use the divine pill. Why do I have to do something unnecessary to help him wash up? "

The fifth elder's mouth twitched again. young mistress, isn't this what you should do as a wife? " bai liyue looked at the fifth elder's expression, which was like 'you're in a position, but you're not planning anything'. she opened her mouth and nodded, " "Alright, I know. I'm in charge of your young master's washing, right?"

"Of course not." The fifth elder's eyes widened.

"What else do I need to do?"

Under Bai Liyue's clear and transparent eyes, the fifth elder's old face turned red. young mistress, what are you in the heavenly return sect? "

"How would I know?"

"You're the young Madam! She's our young master's official wife!" The fifth elder's face was filled with disappointment.

"Didn't your young master become a vegetable?" a hundred miles of moon shock.

The reason why she had agreed to save her family and help Baili Xi was because she had no hope of pursuing Feng shengxuan back then, and she knew that the young master had been in a deep sleep for many years and could not wake up.

If he could be humane, she wouldn't have married for the sake of her family and sister even if she was beaten to death.

"Although our young master is in a deep sleep, he still has feelings and consciousness. So, young Madam, you need to accompany him with your feelings. Do you understand?"

Hearing this, Bai Liyue finally felt relieved. As long as he didn't make her do that, she was fine with serving a person in a vegetative state. She would just treat herself as a professional nurse.

"Can you be more specific? what do you need me to do?"

The fifth elder was depressed by Baili Yue's unprofessional attitude. He said seriously, " young Madam, are you still thinking about Feng shengxuan from glory planet? "

Baili Yue:

"Now that you've returned to Emperor moon, everything there has nothing to do with you. The heavenly return sect controls the passage between the two planets. We will never allow him to come here. So, I hope that you can see this clearly and give up on him.

And now you've married our young master and become the young Madam of our heavenly return sect. While you're enjoying the glory brought to you by the heavenly return sect, you should also do your part. For example, your words and actions must be appropriate. From now on, you can't fall in love with anyone else except our young master. You can't be good to any other man except our young master. Also, our young master is only in a deep sleep, he's not dead. So, other than not being able to have sex, you have to do everything a wife should do. Do you understand, young Madam?"

Chapter 3298

Seeing that the fifth elder was already unhappy, and that young master was indeed in a vegetative state, Bai Liyue nodded. I understand. Don't worry, I won't fall in love with anyone. Since I've already agreed to marry, I won't go back on my word."

The fifth elder's face immediately lit up with a smile.

"Then, young lady Xuanji, please follow one, two, three, four in. I won't be going in. Everything inside, one, two, three, four, will be handled by young Madam."

"Alright," Bai Liyue nodded.

After the fifth elder and Ming Yue left, only Bai Liyue and a group of servants were left in the moon residence.

"Young Madam, please follow me." Yi Yi nodded slightly to Baili Yue and turned to enter the house.

Two, three, and four followed behind her.

Bai Liyue rushed behind the four of them, while the rest of the people followed behind her. They only stopped when she entered the house.

After the four servants entered the house, Yi Yi turned around and introduced them to Baili Yue, "this is the main hall. The vases in the main hall are all young master's favorites. Young Madam, be careful when you go in and out. The vases are fragile.

After saying that, he took Baili Yue around the first floor and walked to the backyard. He pointed at the flowers and plants in The Glass Room and said, "Those orchids are all young master's beloved items. In the future, young Madam, please treat them with care. The orchid grass is not suitable for survival. If it destroys the young master's hard work, it is not something that us servants can bear."

Bai Liyue's face, which had been quite warm, had now turned gloomy.

She continued to follow one, two, three, and four. Seeing them go upstairs, Baili Yue also followed them up.

Yiyi stopped at the corner of the stairs.

"The painting in the middle was drawn by young master. Even before young master fell into a deep sleep, no one was allowed to touch this painting and the few paintings in the corridor. So all these years, although these paintings were hung in the corridor, the four of us sisters had been taking care of them carefully. Now that the young Madam is here, we hope that the young Madam can move to the right when going up and down the stairs and not touch the wall."

When Yi Yi was talking, two, three, and four all had a proud expression. Baili Yue didn't know what they were happy about.

"Are you sure my husband drew this?"

Bai Liyue's words successfully made the four women's faces darken at the same time.

Yiyi's face was the darkest.

However, she could not refute Bai Liyue's words. After all, she was not the one who became the young master's wife.

if the young master didn't draw it himself, could it be the young Madam? " Yiyi's heart was already filled with resentment. Now that she was rebuked by Baili Yue, she was even more displeased.

"Of course I didn't draw it," replied Bai Liyue, smiling. After all, I've been on glory planet for more than ten years. However, some of Yingying's paintings were of orchids, some of them were of gardens, and some of them were of swings under the sun. Yiyi, do you know what these paintings are?"

"What?" Yi Yi asked with a dark face.

"On glory planet, this is a typical illustration of a teenage girl comic."

Yiyi's already dark face turned as black as the bottom of a pot when she heard the illustrations for the shoujo manga.

"you're talking nonsense!"

She couldn't believe that the young master, who was so well-off and Noble, would treasure the illustrations of a shoujo manga like a treasure.

young master is such a god-like man. How can he draw illustrations for a young girl's comic? " Yi 'er felt that it was ridiculous.

my husband's an elegant man. He doesn't know how to draw such a strong symbol of a woman, but it can't stop him from having such a woman in his heart.

maybe it was drawn by the White moonlight in her heart, and then he hid the picture of white moonlight? "

"You're talking nonsense! The young master has never liked any woman!" Yi San also said angrily.

"Looks like you're not servants, but wives."

"F * ck you!" Yi san's face instantly turned red.

we have nothing to do with the young master. Please don't talk nonsense, young Madam. Yi Si's face also turned red as he spoke in a low and angry voice.

It was as if she had blasphemed against the gods.

"I'm not talking nonsense. Look at the signature at the bottom of the painting, it's a month old."

"The young master's name is Feng Jiyue. If you don't sign it with the word 'Yue,' which word should you use?"

After hearing Yi'er's words, Yi Yi looked at Bai Liyue and asked, "Young Madam, don't tell me you still don't know the young master's name?"

The corners of Bai Liyue's eyes twitched.

She had really forgotten to ask Wanwan about this.

However, she still raised her eyebrows and asked, "how do you know if he's not in love with a girl with a moon in her name?" Or perhaps, in your hearts, your young master is a man with the style of a young girl's comic?"

The four maidservants:

"Alright, I'll go find my room on my own, so you don't have to worry about me. since you're so afraid that I'll dirty and break the things in the house, then you can put them away. I live a more casual life, so I might accidentally break something."

Yiyi's face darkened again.

"Young Madam, what do you mean?"

At this moment, Bai Liyue had already walked to the second floor. She turned around and said, "I mean what I said."

"This is something the young master likes!"

"But I'm the one living in this room, while your young master is in a deep sleep. Don't tell me that I, as the mistress of our Wedding House, am not qualified to ask you to take away the things?"

baili yue looked at yiyi coldly and went to find feng jiyue room by room.

She had opened and closed all the rooms on the second floor.

When he found no one, he went to the third floor.

Finally, he saw a huge bedroom on the third floor. Everything inside was red. He walked in and kicked the door, closing it with a bang.

Yi'er, Yi'er, Yi'er, and Yi'er looked at each other. Yi'er looked at Yi'er and said angrily, "Sister Yiyi, what's with her attitude?"

Yi Yi sneered, "I'm afraid she really thinks of herself as the female master of the heavenly return sect!"

"But isn't she the lady of the heavenly return sect? I saw that the few elders were very polite when they spoke earlier."

Yiyi's face turned even darker.

that's because she was born in the most suitable year. She's a person of extreme yang.

"But didn't she marry in her sister's place? She and her sister are twins?"

Yi Yi sneered, "they're not twins, this is just the heavenly return sect's Tai Chi." Those people from the Baili family are extremely greedy. If they know that we wanted to find Baili Yue from the beginning, they will definitely quote a price. That's why he said he wanted to marry Baili Xi. It was said that Baili Xi had already hooked up with someone from the Wei family, so they would definitely not let Baili Xi marry into their family. then the only one who can come is bai liyue."

"Then why can't it be someone else?" Yi si asked.

"Someone else?"

"Don't the Baili family still have two di-born young ladies?"

"Are they worthy?" Yi Yi sneered.

3300 [ fan ] what relationship? 3

Yi si nodded, "that's true!" They're not worthy!"

Seeing that Yiyi was about to leave, Yi si quickly followed. sister Yiyi, should we keep the flowers and painting? "

"If she likes to pack, she can do it herself!"

Then, the four of them really left.

After Bai Liyue entered the room, she sized up the bedroom that was decorated in an extremely festive manner.

Although the bedroom was decorated in red, it could be seen that everything was relatively simple and elegant. It matched Feng Jiyue's name.

This bedroom was in the form of a suite. Outside was a small living room with a television.

however, the tv was as old as the tv in the early 1980s, thick and small. it was a world of difference from her home theater.

There was a fan above his head, the kind with three leaves.

From the living room to the real bedroom, there was a large round bed more than three meters wide.

In front of the round bed, there was a wooden coffee table with a pile of red candles arranged into a heart.

The big bed had a red veil, and there was a small window outside the floor-to-ceiling window that was not closed. The wind blew in, flickering the red candles inside and fluttering the veil at the same time.

through the swaying gauze cover, bai liyue saw a man in red lying on the big bed.

So she walked over and pulled up the gauze cover, trying to get a clear look at her husband in name.

This person looked very similar to Feng shengxuan in both height and body shape.

He was about 188 centimeters tall and had a tall figure.

His hair was about shoulder-length and slightly curly. It was unknown if it was permed like this or if he was dressed in the image of an oppa from Country H.

as for his face ...

He was wearing a mask that covered all the parts above his lips, leaving only his good-looking lips and a firm chin.

The moment she saw the lips and the chin, Bai Liyue's pupils suddenly shrank.

In the next moment, she had already placed her hand on the mask, impatiently trying to take it off.

However, after pulling and looking for a mechanism for a long time, the mask seemed to have grown on his face, as if it had become one with his bones and blood.

After pulling a few times and seeing that the mask couldn't be removed at all, Bai Liyue didn't dare to use any more strength.

She sat on the edge of the bed and looked at the sleeping man in front of her for a long time, her face full of shock.

Could it be an illusion?

why did she have the feeling that this person was feng shengxuan?

Although most of his face was covered, Bai Liyue could still see Feng shengxuan's shadow from Feng Jiyue's lips and jaw.

They were both surnamed Feng.

was feng shengxuan related to feng yanyue?

Baili Yue sat on the edge of the bed in a daze, staring at those lips and jaw, her mind a little confused.

Feng shengxuan was indeed the child of Chi zeyao and Feng jimian. There was no doubt about it.

After Feng shengxuan had reunited with his family, she had heard more than once about how Feng jimian had given birth to Feng shengxuan.

if feng shengxuan wasn't feng jimian and chi zeyao's son, they wouldn't have been so disdainful of his eq.

moreover, feng jimian had shown him a photo of chi zeyao before his face was disfigured. feng shengxuan and chi zeyao had a 70 – 80% resemblance.

Even if the DNA test hadn't been done, Feng shengxuan was still the son of Chi zeyao and Feng jimian.

Therefore, when she thought of this, the man in bed no longer attracted her.
