Chapter 33: Peeling Crayfish

He only noticed this when he saw Chi Yang taking food with his left hand. Did he also fire his gun with his left hand?

Zhong Nuannuan who was eating while feeling touched at the same time, "...!!"

Chi Yang was not left-handed. He could not use his right hand because he was holding her hand the whole time, and that was why he was holding his chopsticks with his left hand instead.

"I'm ambidextrous." After saying that, Chi Yang took another slice of braised pork for Zhong Nuannuan.

Since there were not a lot of people eating and the braised pork was very fatty, there were only a few pieces left on the plate. Chi Yang kept taking the braised pork for Zhong Nuannuan. When Zhong Qianqian wanted to eat the braised pork, the plate was already cleared.

Zhong Qianqian was speechless after seeing Zhong Nuannuan chewing a piece of braised pork while having three more on her plate.

"Nuannuan, don't you like to eat crayfish and hairy crabs? Why are you not eating them?" Jiang Shuwan asked curiously.

"Mom, did you not notice that they were holding hands this entire time? Big Brother Chi Yang was afraid to let go of her, which is why he has been eating with his left hand."

"Nuannuan, stop clinging to Chi Yang. The hairy crabs and crayfish won't be delicious anymore when they're cold."

Zhong Nuannuan looked at the hairy crabs and crayfish greedily. However, she prioritized Chi Yang's happiness more. Hence, she continued to hold on to Chi Yang's hand and gave up on the hairy crabs and crayfish.

2 "Mom, I'm a bit heaty recently, so it's okay if I eat something light."

"I have some tea in my car that can help combat the heat. I'll get it for you later. Your favorite foods are crayfish and hairy crabs, so I'll peel them for you."

Even though he wanted to keep holding his wife's hand, he could not watch her acting like that toward her mom. In the end, he let go of her hand and grabbed a crayfish.

His bony fingers pinched the crayfish's head, body, and tail. He then removed the head and pulled on the tail. A big chunk of meat was pulled out from the hard shell. Everyone was amazed by his tactics.

Zhong Nuannuan swallowed her saliva after seeing the white meat of the crayfish that was covered in red oil broth.

"Here."

Chi Yang placed the crayfish meat into Zhong Nuannuan's bowl. She picked it up immediately and ate it in one bite.

The delicious juice and soft meat exploded in her mouth. This was like heaven on earth for her.

When Zhong Qianqian saw Chi Yang picking up another crayfish with his hand, she said, "Big Brother Chi Yang, your skills are amazing. I want to eat the crayfish that has been peeled by you too! Look at me, I always eat directly with the shell on and meat in my mouth. I can never taste the freshness and softness of the crayfish. I would always end up cutting my tongue from the shell too."

7Chi Yang ignored Zhong Qianqian. He peeled another crayfish from the big bowl and placed it in Zhong Nuannuan's bowl. After that, he picked up a hairy crab and started peeling again.

He was peeling fast enough so that Zhong Nuannuan could take her time to enjoy eating. She could not catch up with Chi Yang's speed even if she tried. After just a short while, there was a mountain of crab and crayfish meat on Zhong Nuannuan's plate.

Zhong Qianqian was being completely ignored. She had been lovingly calling him Big Brother Chi Yang from the beginning and was incessantly talking to him.

4However, he treated her like she was the air around him. He did not pay any attention to her. Even though Chi Yang was in front of her parents, he would still not even pretend to be polite to her.

Frustrated, Zhong Kuijun said, "Qianqian, Chi Yang is Nuannuan's fiance. Why are you still clinging onto him? If you want to eat it, peel it yourself. If not, don't eat. What are you trying to achieve by clinging onto Chi Yang?"

Chapter 34: Not Fair

Zhong Qianqian was already embarrassed enough. After being scolded by Zhong Kuijun, her eyes became red.

Yet, she refused to give up. If Chi Yang did not want to peel the crayfish for her, she would take food for Chi Yang instead!

Zhong Kuijun and Jiang Shuwan were startled by Zhong Qianqian. She picked up a crayfish and put it on Chi Yang's plate. "Big Brother Chi Yang, don't just peel the crayfish for Nuannuan. You have to eat too! The crayfish Aunt Zhao made are amazing!"

2Chi Yang furrowed his brows. He immediately stopped peeling the crayfish. Judging from his reaction, it was as if the crayfish Zhong Qianqian gave him was covered in germs.

"Change my plates for me," Chi Yang ordered Aunt Zhao coldly.

... The room was silent.

When he saw that everyone was quiet, he said in a serious tone, "I am a germophobe."

3"Oh, Big Brother Chi Yang is a germophobe. I am sorry, I did not know that."

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Zhong Qianqian with an amused look. Tears were about to fall from her eyes, but she still managed to make herself look less stupid.

Zhong Nuannuan decided to play a prank on her. She picked up a piece of braised pork from her plate and put it onto Chi Yang's.

As expected, Zhong Qianqian got mad. "Nuannuan, Big Brother Chi Yang said he's a germophobe. Also, did you not know that Big Brother Chi Yang does not eat fatty meat? Auntie Zhao, change the plates."

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang apologetically. She did not know that he did not eat fatty meat.

Or rather, she did not know the things that he liked or hated.

In a surprising turn of events, Chi Yang picked up the piece of braised pork and nonchalantly put it in his mouth even before Auntie Zhao could change the plates. He savored it for a bit before swallowing the meat.

When Zhong Kuijun saw this, his eyes twitched.

It was a known fact to the chefs in the military base that Chi Yang did not eat fatty meat. It was why there would never be the slightest trace of fatty meat in his food. Now, however...

"Um... You don't have to eat it if you don't like it." Zhong Nuannuan felt guilty after he swallowed such a big piece of fatty meat. She hurriedly handed him a glass of water.

Chi Yang took a big gulp of water to combat his nausea. He said to Zhong Nuannuan in a gentle yet stern tone, "As long as it's from you, anything would taste good."

"Then eat some vegetables so that you'll feel less greasy." Zhong Nuannuan promptly picked up some vegetables for Chi Yang.

"Alright."

After eating the vegetables, it was as if Chi Yang had eaten the most delicious food in the world. He ate three more spoonfuls of rice.

Jiang Shuwan was so angry that she could not stand this any longer. She pretended to taunt her unintentionally, "Nuannuan, before this, you wouldn't pay attention to Chi Yang no matter how much he flirted with you. But now you're so close to him after going to prison. What happened to you? What changed you?"

Everyone in the family including Chi Yang wanted to know the answer.

"Mom, I was bullied in the detention center. Chi Yang was the one who hired someone to protect me. He was also the one who helped me with my court case, and that's the only reason why I managed to get out safely. I think the most basic trait a human should have is gratitude. If someone helped me and I did nothing about it, what's the difference between me and those ungrateful animals?"

Everyone's faces changed when they heard what Zhong Nuannuan had to say. They felt embarrassed.

Ignoring what her sister said, Zhong Qianqian twisted her face all together to taunt Zhong Nuannuan, "Nuannuan, you're only so good to Big Brother Chi Yang because you want to thank him. But isn't love the most basic thing that a couple should have when they're together? Don't you think you're being unfair to Big Brother Chi Yang?"

Zhong Nuannuan was already very obviously expressing her dissatisfaction with the whole family, but Zhong Qianqian still decided to taunt her. Jiang Shuwan pinched Zhong Qianqian's thigh under the table in fear, urging her to stop talking.
