Chapter 351: Fighting

He had just flown up when he hit a wall behind him. Naturally, his flight was forced to come to an end.

The collision was accompanied by the sound of human flesh strongly hitting against a wall, and it made onlookers suddenly feel as if they had a myocardial infarction. Instantly, they began to scatter.

At first glance, the elite man was a martial practitioner!

He might even be a superb practitioner!

The girl named Lan Lan ran to help the golden-haired guy after letting out a shriek. Nevertheless, the golden-haired guy already had an ashen expression, and he let out a scream after being pulled by Lan Lan. Lan Lan dared not help him after that.

Seeing this, the remaining few gangsters drew their weapons.

All of them were belts.

However, their belts were somewhat interesting. It could be assumed that they often had to fight outside as, under the flick of a hidden buckle, the iron sheets of the belts stood up and formed iron barbs.

The onlookers exclaimed again and some shouted for help to dial 110 for Zhong Nuannuan and the others.

That was because if one were hurt by even one of those barbs, they would probably end up with lacerated wounds.

The group of people was simply too much!

Therefore, everyone took out their phones and collectively called the police.

One of the gangsters yelled, "If anyone dares call the police, I will kill that person!"

The onlookers in the front row were so scared that they immediately put their phones away. However, some of the onlookers in the back, who were farther away and blocked by the crowd, hid by the wall and phoned the police.

While the gangster was still speaking, another two gangsters began waving their belts and swinging them at Chi Yang.

The remaining gangster even branded his fist shamelessly at Zhong Nuannuan after shouting at the crowd.

Feeling the eagerness of the person in his arms, Chi Yang asked lovingly, "Do you want to beat them up?"

“Yeah.” Zhong Nuannuan nodded.

The very next moment, Chi Yang gently lifted his arms, and Zhong Nuannuan’s body flew up. Not only did her body avoid the belts that had been swung at her, but her leg was now aimed at her opponent’s face.

Seeing that her foot was about to hit the other party’s face before she had the time to bend it, Zhong Nuannuan retracted her foot in a frightening manner and then pretentiously came back to her senses as she kicked her opponent in the stomach.

Her footwork seemed like a series of messy kicks, but each attack she threw hit the weakest and most easily broken rib of her opponent.

The other party began to feel pain, and when he bent over, his face was met with Zhong Nuannuan’s feet. Only then did Zhong Nuannuan forcefully kick her opponent’s nose bridge.

The gangster only heard a crack, and his nose became crooked from the kick. The pain was so severe that he blacked out, and he no longer had any combat power.

Chi Yang did not even look at the two gangsters rushing toward him. The gangsters’ belts were wrapped around his hands. However, with some effort, he channeled strength into one of his wrists and gently pulled on the belt. Consequently, a gangster was dragged over by the tremendous force.

Only

What greeted the gangster next was a fist the size of a sandbag.

“Crack.”

The gangster screamed as his nose bridge was shattered. Additionally, he fell to the ground.

After that, Chi Yang held the belt in his hand and lashed at the other gangster, hitting the person directly in his face.

The gangster uttered a tragic scream and collapsed to the ground.

Subsequently, the onlookers realized that the person’s white nose bridge had been broken in two and a section of it was not jutting out of his nose.

In just the blink of an eye, the four gangsters had been beaten to the ground and could no longer get up. It was estimated that one of them had a broken rib, while the other three had their nose bridges broken.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 352: Dazed

What everyone did not know was that the person who had been kicked by Zhong Nuannuan also had a broken rib.

Regarding Zhong Nuannuan’s kick, the gangster howling on the ground could only suffer in silence.

Just like that, the four gangsters were all over the ground. The four female students could not help but scream when they saw this.

“Who reported the case?”

At this moment, a few police officers walked in from outside the hall. Upon noticing their arrival, the four girls ran toward them in the name of the victims.

“Uncle Policeman, they’re beating people up. Look at how they beat up our boyfriends? You have to call the shots for us!”

Hearing the fat girl’s words, Chi Yang, who was holding his fiancée’s hand, could clearly see goosebumps popping up on the latter’s arm.

Chi Yang could not help but feel distressed.

How much did the utterly coy “Uncle Policeman” address disgust Nuannuan?

The police were clueless as to what had happened. When they saw a few students complaining, they thought they were the ones who had called them. Therefore, under the four girls’ lead, they approached Chi Yang and asked solemnly, “Why are you causing trouble and beating up people in a public area?”

The bystanders could not look any further, and they told the police the truth. After the police had heard their side of the story, they looked at the four gangsters lying on the ground, and their attitude toward Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan improved. “Since this is the case, please accompany us back to the police station to record a confession so that the gangsters can be convicted.”

Chi Yang took out his military card from his arms.

The police officers suspiciously took his military card and looked at it. Their eyes widened, and they immediately straightened themselves before giving a military salute as they shouted in unison, “Greetings, director-general!”

The onlookers were startled.

What!

He turned out to be the director-general of the military base’s special forces team!

Such a young and capable director-general!

Little did the bystanders know that the few police officers saluting him were countless times more shocked than them at this moment.

What!

He turned out to be the director-general of the special forces team!

“I’m going to watch a movie with my fiancée tonight. The movie started two minutes ago, you can call me anytime if you need my confession.”

After saying that, he took out a pen and wrote down a phone number. “This is the phone number of my guard’s office, someone will always answer it no matter the time.”

“Yes, director-general!”

After the police officers received the phone number, they began to deal with the golden-haired guy and his sidekicks.

Then, a phone call was made and a few more police officers arrived. Without a doubt, the gangsters lying on the ground were brought into a vehicle.

Furthermore, the remaining two officers asked the four girls to accompany them to the police station for investigation.

The girl named Lan Lan and the fat girl were terribly frightened. One after the other, they said that they had actually just met the group of people and were not familiar with them; they were just students and could not go to the police station.

Only

Zhong Nuannuan had not yet released her anger and immediately ensnared them by saying, “Oh, didn’t you just tell the police earlier that those people are your boyfriends?”

The onlookers instantly burst into laughter.

“Yes, and this happened because your boyfriend fell in love with this girl in the beginning, and you became jealous. That was the reason why you quarreled with this girl!”

“Exactly, you were even holding that big boss’ arm just now. Both of you were so close, how could you have just met each other?”

“Since you’re their girlfriends and are related to this matter, come with us.”

Lan Lan, the fat girl, and two other unlucky girls implicated in the incident were at a loss for words.

The few girls were so scared that they burst into tears at the thought of having to go to the police station.

Chapter 353: The Movie Chosen By Chi Yang

Nevertheless, Zhong Nuannuan did not care much about them. While the fat girl was still trying to argue with her, she went to the counter and said to the salesperson, “One super-large popcorn set.”

When the waiter put the popcorn bucket that was much larger than Zhong Nuannuan’s head in front of her, the corners of Chi Yang’s mouth twitched unconsciously.

His fiancée was really capable of eating.

Seeing the two large cups of Coke, Chi Yang’s gaze dimmed, and he said to Zhong Nuannuan, “Nuannuan, this cup of Coke is too cold and big, let’s just have one.”

“It’s a part of the set meal though. The set meal has two cups, and it can’t be refunded.”

"If it's non-refundable, don't take that cup then. You can't drink so many cold drinks, let's just take one cup and share it, okay?"

Chi Yang did not want to drink Coke. However, if he could share a straw with his fiancée, he was willing to do it.

"Okay." As long as she was not deprived of her oversized bucket of popcorn, Zhong Nuannuan was very easy to talk to.

Hence, Chi Yang paid for the popcorn and walked toward the cinema while tenderly and considerately holding the cup of Coke in one hand while he hugged his fiancée with the other. On the other hand, Zhong Nuannuan was nestled in his arms, eating the popcorn intently.

When they walked into the cinema, the movie had started ten minutes ago.

Zhong Nuannuan frowned, how had the movie been filmed in Japan? After all, it was a movie that she was heavily invested in. Whether it was a biochemical related one or a spider one, she felt that there should not be any films made in Japan, right? Could it be that after reliving her life, many things had changed, including the content of the movies she had been invested in?

Well, that was not impossible.

After all, she and Chi Yang had not been together in her previous life, and they even died tragically. In this life, they would live to be 100 years old.

If it changed, then let it be.

Zhong Nuannuan felt that the movie was very depressing. Additionally, judging by the looks of it, the protagonists were the mother and son. It has to be said there was also a little girl who always wore a yellow raincoat even when it was not raining.

Speaking of her, the little girl looked a bit like a ghost! Was it a new type of zombie?

In that case, they were probably watching a biochemical movie then?

Zhong Nuannuan looked around her, there wasn't much of an audience around her!

Zhong Nuannuan tried to watch the zombies while she munched on her sweet and crispy popcorn. Her Big Brother Chi Yang sat next to her with his heart filled with sweet love.

"Ah—"

At the moment when Zhong Nuannuan was distracted, a scream erupted from the audience, and the sound of popcorn being knocked over was heard.

Many women leaped into the arms of the men beside them at that moment.

Chi Yang looked at his fiancée in confusion. Chen Ke had said not to choose any movies that were popular and instead a horror movie. That was because girls were all afraid of ghosts, and when a girl got scared, a guy would be able to protect her as a man.

Chi Yang looked at his fiancée with an inquiring gaze.

Why did his Nuannuan not jump into his arms. Instead, she was still eating popcorn happily like a little hamster that had stolen oil? Was she not afraid?

Only

Noticing Big Brother Chi Yang's gaze, Zhong Nuannuan raised her head to meet it.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, what kind of movie is this? It doesn't look like an apocalyptic movie or an Avengers movie."

"This is a horror movie."

Zhong Nuannuan was speechless.

'Why aren't we watching an apocalyptic movie or the Avengers movie?' Zhong Nuannuan really wanted to ask.

However, after thinking about it, she assumed that there would be too many people watching them. Chi Yang hated crowds, so he probably chose a specific movie that fewer people would watch.

Thinking about it, Zhong Nuannuan felt relieved.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 354: Chi Yang's Cinema Date

She did not mind what movie they were watching at all. What she liked was the feeling of watching a movie with Big Brother Chi Yang.

"Chomp."

Seeing his fiancée casually throw a piece of popcorn into her mouth, Chi Yang's mouth could not help but twitch violently.

"Nuannuan, don't you like watching horror movies?"

He felt that his fiancée was not intent on watching the horror movie at all!

Chi Yang could not understand why even though all the women in the audience had been frightened by the scene along with many men, his fiancée was still able to eat popcorn insensitively. Was she not watching the movie at all?

"No, I really like watching horror movies! I especially like watching thriller ones. It's the truth."

Zhong Nuannuan's eyes were burning, and she had a serious expression on her face.

To be honest, she liked to watch all kinds of movies except those that were related to art and literature.

Chi Yang reached out his hand, touched her head, and asked expectantly, "Are you afraid?"

"I'm not afraid!" After saying that, she stuffed three more pieces of popcorn into her mouth.

Seeing her cheeks bulge as she ate like a little groundhog, Chi Yang could not help but want to touch her lips.

As he thought of it, he pulled closer to her.

His eyes were dull and deep, like a lonely sea that had raging waves constantly sweeping across it. His mouth opened slightly.

Seeing Chi Yang's greedy expression (a visual mistake, it was too dark in the theater to see after all), Zhong Nuannuan realized that she had been eating the bucket of popcorn the entire time, and her Big Brother Chi Yang had not even eaten a single one yet.

She secretly blamed herself for her carelessness and then grabbed a handful of popcorn before stuffing it into Chi Yang's mouth.

Chi Yang, who was about to kiss his fiancée, was instead stuffed with a mouthful of popcorn. Consequently, he was at a loss for words.

Looking at the resentful Big Brother Chi Yang, Zhong Nuannuan felt a little confused.

What had she done? ...

The movie continued.

The movie was about a little boy whose parents had divorced, and although his mother's financial situation was much worse than that of his father's, the little boy still chose to follow his mother.

His mother was a very good parent and always handled every single detail when it came to taking care of the little boy even though she was tired from work.

Only

They did not have a house to live in, so they rented a cheap apartment that was vacant all year round. What they did not know was that the price of the apartment was low because it was haunted.

The ghost was that of a little girl who had fallen into the water reservoir on a rainy day and drowned because of the lack of maternal love. Although she had become a ghost, she still wanted to have a mother. Hence, when she spotted the little boy's mother, she wanted to claim his mother as her own.

When the little boy's mother was bathing him, the little boy could see that the bathroom ceiling had begun leaking water. Eventually, the leaching water formed a picture of a woman crying tears of blood.

When he fetched water to brush his teeth that night, the faucet was slightly clogged, and when he tapped it with his toothbrush, a big lump of hair fell out of it.

Furthermore, every time they entered the elevator, a little girl in red clothes, a small yellow school bag, and a transparent raincoat would follow them. However, the little girl had no face and it was always blank. In addition, only the little boy could see her, and his mother could not. It made the little boy feel very scared.

The little girl tried to kill the little boy again and again, but his mother always used her weak shoulders to help him fight and survive the crisis.

Finally, the little boy was trapped by the female ghost on a floor that had been vacant for a long time and found himself unable to get out. Hence, in order to save her son, the boy's mother reached an agreement with the female ghost to exchange her own life for her son's.

Chapter 355: Chi Yang Is Leaving

In the end, the little boy survived and left with his father. However, the boy's mother was forever trapped in that house with the female ghost, and became the female ghost's mother.

The plot was very simple, but when coupled with great special effects that amplified the horror, it caused the audience to scream again and again from fright.

The girls did not even eat their popcorn, instead choosing to nestle in the arms of their boyfriends one by one. They covered their eyes with their hands, only leaving a small gap in between their fingers as they watched the movie.

Zhong Nuannuan, who was captivated by the movie, completely ignored the screams of these women in the audience. After all, when she used to be upset in the past, she often went to the cinema alone to watch movies alone, and she would choose to watch whichever movies that were scariest.

Therefore, Zhong Nuannuan watched the film happily as she munched away at the popcorn.

Meanwhile, Chi Yang had no clue what the movie was about at all. He only knew that the other girls were snuggled against their boyfriends' arms the whole time, while his Nuannuan was thick-skinned and never stopped eating popcorn.

Soon, the movie was over, and the popcorn was finished. The benefit Chi Yang had was that the two shared a straw for their drink.

Hence, a certain director-general silently decided in his heart that he should just lie down in bed and play when he had time in the future, instead of doing such time-wasting activities.

He felt that rolling in the bedsheets at home, enjoying Nuannuan undressing him, massaging him and giving him acupuncture was much more relaxing than this.

It was almost 11 o'clock when they got home.

Previously, Chi Yang would still struggle briefly and say that he wanted to sleep on the sofa, but after he had tasted goodness twice, he could no longer say such gentlemanly words no matter how hard he tried.

Thus, after taking a shower, he lay down next to Zhong Nuannuan.

Zhong Nuannuan had also already prepared the equipment to be used for acupuncture.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, I've gotten hold of the silver needles I wanted. Today, I'll use specially made silver needles to give you acupuncture; its effects are much better than ordinary needles."

Chi Yang's lips raised slightly. "Okay."

As long as his fiancée was helping him, the method did not matter.

His fiancée's massage technique was so good that Chi Yang closed his eyes comfortably and could not utter the words he had been wanting to say for a long time.

After the massage and acupuncture session was complete, Zhong Nuannuan was exhausted. Seeing that Chi Yang was not asleep yet, she put her things away, got into his arms dazily, and found a comfortable position to lie down.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, are you thinking about something?"

Although her head was spinning, and she was so sleepy that she wanted to knock straight out, Zhong Nuannuan still could not help but worry about Chi Yang.

Chi Yang looked at the obedient girl nestled in his arms, the glow in his eyes as soft as a puddle of rainwater.

"Nuannuan, I'm going to go on a mission tomorrow. If it's quick, it may take a week, if it's slow, it may take more than half a month before I come back."

Zhong Nuannuan, who was about to fall asleep, instantly stirred.

She looked up at Chi Yang with a look of reluctance.

Only

"Will it take that long?"

She really wanted to ask him what mission he was going on. If she could help him, he should be able to complete it sooner, right?

However, she knew that she could not ask such a thing.

The military base had strict regulations, and as a high-ranked military officer in the military base, he was even less likely to be muddled about these matters.

Seeing his fiancée's hesitant face, Chi Yang finally realized what the saying 'sleeping till the sun rises high, for the blessed night is short, from now on the monarch no longer holds morning court' meant.

Faced with his fiancée's reluctance, he became slightly unwilling to go on the mission too.

Reaching out his hand to stroke his fiancée's smooth hair, Chi Yang nodded and promised, "However, rest assured, I'll complete the task as quickly as possible, and come back to accompany you."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 356: Do You Like It

"No!" Zhong Nuannuan hurriedly stopped him. "I'm not afraid of being alone. It doesn't matter if you take half a month to complete a week-long task; it doesn't matter even if you take a month!"

"I'll wait for you to come back. However, you're not allowed to act rashly. I don't have any other demands of you, I only want you to take good care of yourself when you're executing your tasks, and to not get hurt, okay?"

Hearing that Chi Yang was leaving to go on a mission, Zhong Nuannuan could not help but worry.

She was worried that without her acupuncture, he would not be able to sleep well, his headaches would worsen, and his emotions would be out of control due to unexpected situations during the mission. She was also worried that he might get hurt, or even lose his life before returning to her side.

Zhong Nuannuan tried hard to recall Chi Yang's situation when he left to go on his mission after she had come out of the detention center in her previous life. However, nothing came to mind.

This was because they did not meet often, and she never paid any attention to him.

He usually visited her once a week, and even then, he was a guest in her house as he was often received by her father. After that, he did not come for over a month.

He probably should have left to go on his mission then.

Still, why did it last more than a month?

However, Zhong Kuijun did not seem to have mentioned anything about Chi Yang's injury over the course of that duration.

Therefore, he probably did not get injured, right?!

"Don't worry, I promise you that I definitely won't allow myself to get hurt."

Zhong Nuannuan reluctantly reached out to hug Chi Yang's arm, and muttered dully, "Promise."

Chi Yang's heart was already extremely enamored by his fiancée's soft voice, and he replied softly, "Yes, I promise!"

In the past, missions were like stimulating challenges for him, and getting hurt... Well, he was not afraid of death, let alone injury.

However, at this moment, he had a fiancée beside him, a person who was always worried about him and looking forward to his return home, Chi Yang suddenly felt that his life was no longer entirely his own; he had to be responsible for his Nuannuan.

Being so deeply missed and worried for by his fiancée, coupled with feeling such a soft body in his arms, caused Chi Yang to be reluctant.

He looked at his fiancée. He did not know whether it was because he was leaving, but his fiancée, who usually always appeared to have infinite energy, looked slightly listless.

Zhong Nuannuan nestled against Chi Yang's waist. Although he was wearing pajamas, his pajamas were very thin. She could clearly feel her Big Brother Chi Yang's body temperature rising.

Only

However, she was so sleepy...

Chi Yang looked at Zhong Nuannuan, his gaze faint. Deep within his pitch-black pupils, there seemed to be clusters of dark red flames lighting up.

Zhong Nuannuan blinked her sleepy eyes, watching the dark red glow gradually emerge from within Chi Yang's eyes, like a red magical stone that had fallen into the depths of the ocean suddenly illuminating the ocean floor.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, your eyes are so beautiful!" Zhong Nuannuan could not help but stretch out her hand to caress Chi Yang's eyebrows and his deep eye sockets.

Feeling the heat from his fiancée's breath brushing against his face, Chi Yang felt his whole body swell up even more.

His pupils could change color; when he used his special abilities, his pupils would turn maroon. However, almost all his enemies would get scared after they saw his eyes. Only his little girl had told him so sincerely that his eyes were beautiful.

"Do you like it?" Chi Yang asked softly, his voice hoarse.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 357: I Love You

"Yes, I love it!"

After saying that, Zhong Nuannuan could not help but get up and kiss his eyes gently.

Feeling his fiancée leaning in gently, Chi Yang also closed his eyes softly in cooperation, allowing his fiancée to move in.

At this moment, he felt that he would even be willing to give up his life for her.

Then, Chi Yang instinctively reached out and held Nuannuan's hand.

It was as if a big decision had been made in his heart, and it took a long time for Chi Yang to slowly move Nuannuan's hand downward.

However, by the time Chi Yang's hand touched her own, Zhong Nuannuan had already fallen fast asleep.

She was a very vigilant woman, but when facing Chi Yang, she was completely relaxed.

After all, this was a man who could spare his youth, career, family, and even his life for her. Hence, Zhong Nuannuan could let down her guard completely with him.

When she was this sleepy and had a broad, solid chest to lean on, surrounded by that refreshing breath that could make her sleep peacefully, and his low voice gently saying to her, "Nuannuan, do you like it..."

At this moment, Zhong Nuannuan felt that she was in an extremely warm and safe harbor. The man who made her feel at ease was right by her side, so even if he still seemed to be talking to her, she soon entered dreamland.

When he felt no response from her side, Chi Yang looked down and realized that Nuannuan was already asleep.

He laughed wryly. It seemed like he had to take care of himself again tonight.

As he hugged his fiancée, who was almost as soft as a puppy, Chi Yang's heart melted.

He placed her on the bed, covered her with the quilt, and carefully examined her sweet sleeping expression. Chi Yang's hands could not help but caress that collagen-filled face.

When she was awake, she was agile, and even with her strong aura, she always looked slightly seductive.

However, at this moment, she was like a newborn baby, and was extremely quiet. She was like spring on a snowy mountain that was thousands of years old, its skies clean and clear.

Chi Yang lay on his side less than 50cm away from her, quietly admiring her perfect sleeping face. The tenderness in his eyes was overwhelming.

He gently brushed her face with his fingertips. "Little girl, why have you suddenly changed? Didn't you hate me a lot in the past? What made you suddenly start to like me and rely on me?"

Chi Yang looked at Zhong Nuannuan, his eyes vacant for a moment.

However, that vacantness quickly passed, and was immediately replaced by firmness.

Only

"No matter what the reason is, since you like me now, you must like me and depend on me for the rest of your life, you can't change your mind and choose to depend on someone else halfway through!"

"Big Brother Chi Yang, I love you."

It was unknown whether the person in dreamland had heard what he was saying, but she suddenly murmured such a sentence.

Chi Yang's hand, which was lightly stroking Zhong Nuannuan's face, instantly froze, and his eyes burst with intense joy.

People often said that one did not lie in their dreams.

His Nuannuan had said that she loved him even in her dreams, so his Nuannuan must really love him!

He did not know why this girl had suddenly changed her mind and came to like him. However, faced with such a change, Chi Yang was ecstatic to see it happen.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 358: Good Morning

Zhong Nuannuan slept alone for a while. She could clearly smell Chi Yang's faint, refreshing and pleasant aroma, but she felt uncomfortable and irritated as she lay on the bed.

Therefore, although she was already in deep sleep at this moment, Zhong Nuannuan was still instinctively looking for the scent as well as its owner.

Despite this, whether she twisted her head to the left or right, she was unable to locate that warm embrace. Zhong Nuannuan's eyebrows instantly furrowed, and it looked like there was a chance she might slowly wake up.

Thinking back to the time when his Nuannuan nestled quietly in his arms when he woke up everyday, Chi Yang moved his body closer... And closer.

He did not reach out and embrace the girl in his arms, but merely approached her. He looked at her with anticipation and curiosity, wondering what she would do while she was sleeping.

Soon, as the refreshing scent became stronger and stronger, the girl's eyebrows relaxed.

Suddenly, a hand was placed on Chi Yang's body.

At the moment his body was hugged, a small, furry head also approached his chest.

After that, the girl turned sideways. Her head, half of her body and one leg were soon placed on top of him.

Chi Yang smiled, then reached out and hugged his girl tightly in his arms.

However, the girl nestled in Chi Yang's arms was not satisfied yet, and after lying down for a while, she continued to tug at him.

After that, Chi Yang saw the girl slowly climb up his body from his right side like a little koala.

It was not until her ear was pressed against his heart that she finally settled down and fell into a deep sleep.

Chi Yang was taken aback. He recalled that during the past few times they had slept together, his Nuannuan seemed to always sleep on his left. When he woke up every day, her ear seemed to always rest against his heart.

Was she that afraid of losing him?

His heart was instantly filled with affection.

He did not understand why his Nuannuan had to listen to his heartbeat before being able to fall asleep peacefully, but...

He really liked this feeling.

At this moment, the girl was lying on his body, and her light fragrance made him feel frisky. Lil Yang, who stood tall all this while, was still looking forward to having a treat.

Even though Chi Yang's body was burning hot at the moment, his unquenchable emotions and desires made him want to take a cold shower immediately.

However, he lay motionless on the bed to ensure that the girl lying on his body would not be awoken.

Not only that, he even pulled over the quilt to cover her. He did not remove the quilt even after he started to sweat profusely.

Only

He thought that this was destined to be a sleepless night, but as his desires gradually faded, Chi Yang eventually fell asleep.

When Chi Yang opened his eyes in the morning, the girl who was sleeping like a fluffy kitten in his arms also opened her eyes at the same time.

The girl's eyes were very beautiful; they were big, curved, lively, and moist.

Looking at her, Chi Yang felt as if he was looking at the first ray of sunshine on a spring morning.

Just as Chi Yang was starting to become lost in thought, the girl's eyes curved into beautiful crescents. "Big Brother Chi Yang, good morning."

Chi Yang's heart was moved, and he raised the corners of his lips. "Good morning."

It was only six o'clock in the morning at this moment, more than an hour before Zhong Nuannuan would leave for school. When he recalled that he would be leaving today, Chi Yang felt very hesitant.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 359: Buns Made With Love

He got up and branded a kiss on the girl's lips, then said softly, "Good girl, sleep a little longer, I'll go and make breakfast for you."

Zhong Nuannuan raised her head, glanced at the time, and felt distressed for Chi Yang, who had to go out on a mission today. "It's still early, you can rest a while longer."

"No, I've already slept enough. I'll make some good food for you in the morning, so sleep for a while more. Good girl."

Chi Yang touched the tip of Zhong Nuannuan's nose, and kissed her forehead without a shred of lust. With a loving expression on his face, he reluctantly left the warm, fragrant body that made him want to drown in indulgence, got out of bed quickly, wrapped an apron around his waist after washing up, and started preparing a breakfast made with love for his fiancée.

Zhong Nuannuan did not stay idle either. After Chi Yang finished washing up, she also washed up and got dressed, and then went to the door to change her shoes.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, I'm going downstairs for a bit. I'll come back up right away."

Chi Yang quickly walked out of the kitchen. "What are you going to do outside so early in the morning?"

"I'm going to buy some things. I'll come up in a bit."

Chi Yang originally wanted to ask what she wanted to buy so he could buy it for her, but the eggs were already in the frying pan, and he could not leave.

“Okay, be careful then. There are many cars on the road in the morning.”

What cars could be around at six o'clock?

Zhong Nuannuan wanted to laugh, thinking about how Chi Yang regarded her as a child, but she still nodded happily. “Okay, don't worry. I'll be back in a bit.”

If she knew that Chi Yang was going to execute his mission earlier, Zhong Nuannuan would have definitely made some medicine for him early on. However, he only told her last night that he was going to leave, so Zhong Nuannuan was restricted to using the medicine available in the pharmacy.

Fortunately, there was a 24-hour pharmacy at the entrance of the military base's compound, which Zhong Nuannuan hurried to visit.

Because the people living in the vicinity were unique customers in the sense that they were soldiers and their families, the pharmacy was very large and the range of medicines inside it were also complete.

Zhong Nuannuan reviewed all the neurological drugs in the pharmacy, and finally selected a few that she found suitable. After buying enough of them, she hurried back.

As soon as she opened the door, Zhong Nuannuan's eyes lit up.

“You're making buns!”

Looking at his fiancée's sparkling eyes, Chi Yang was instantly satisfied.

“Does it smell good?”

“Yes, it smells so fragrant!”

What she liked to eat the most were mushroom buns made by Chi Yang himself. Strangely, although she did not like to eat mushrooms, she especially liked to eat mushroom buns, and they had to be made by Chi Yang.

Only

When she had her menstruation every month in her previous life, as long as she was at home, Chi Yang would do everything possible to go on leave in order to come back and take care of her, but she had never felt grateful toward him.

She never ate any food cooked by Chi Yang, nor ate the fruits that Chi Yang peeled for her. When Chi Yang prepared the water for her to take a bath, she waited for the water to flow, yet did not take her bath... Regardless of the occasion, she went against him.

What she liked most were the mushroom buns made by her aunt, but there was a strange familiar taste to them. It was not until later that she found out that all her favorite mushroom buns were made by Chi Yang himself. In order to get her to eat her favorite mushroom buns, Chi Yang always prepared the mushroom buns in secret, and then asked her aunt to bring them to her.

She had not eaten the mushroom buns he made in this lifetime, so she almost started to drool just by smelling its aroma,

Chi Yang's face was filled with affection. "Hurry up and wash your hands, they'll be ready in five minutes. I know that you like to eat steamed buns, so I made a lot today."

"When did you make these buns?" They were together the night.

"I bought the fillings yesterday morning, and then packed and placed them in the refrigerator before noon. You can eat them after steaming them today."

Chapter 360: Separation

Zhong Nuannuan swallowed a mouthful of saliva greedily. "Okay, you go prepare the buns then."

"What did you buy?"

"Medicine."

Chi Yang frowned, and asked anxiously, "What's wrong, where do you feel uncomfortable?"

"I'm not feeling any discomfort, I bought these medicines for you. Aren't you leaving for a few days? I can't give you acupuncture during these few days, and I'm afraid that you might not be able to sleep well, so I bought some medicine for you. Later, if you take them with the bottle of sleeping pills you bought in Sab, the effects will be better."

Chi Yang totally did not expect his fiancée to go downstairs so early in the day to buy medicine for him because she was worried that he could not sleep well. Instantly, his heart was filled with emotion.

He rubbed his fiancée's head. "Okay, I'll listen to you, I'll take the medicine however you want me to."

"Well, I'll go to divide the medicine then."

After that, Zhong Nuannuan entered the room, leaving Chi Yang to stare at her from behind. He could not help but raise the corners of his lips the entire time.

His fiancée was so kind.

In a short while, Zhong Nuannuan took out all the medicine and packed them into very small bags.

At the breakfast table, Zhong Nuannuan pushed a bag in front of Chi Yang. "I don't know how long you'll be gone for your mission. Although you said that it can be completed within half a month at the latest, but in case anything is delayed, I prepared a 30-day portion for you. You can take one bag every day when you're resting, don't eat more than that, understand?"

Chi Yang opened the bag and found that there were dozens of small packaged bags inside. They were very small and easy to carry. After listening to Zhong Nuannuan's words, he nodded and replied, "Okay, I'll take the medicine according to your instructions. Don't worry, I won't take them randomly."

"Okay."

Chi Yang then handed her a bun. "Be careful, it's a bit hot, so eat slowly. It's still early, so there's still enough time."

“Okay.”

“I made a few extra buns. Li Qi will place these buns in the apartment when he sends you to school later. If you don’t want to stay in school, you can warm up a few buns to eat when you wake up in the morning.”

Zhong Nuannuan laughed out loud.

Chi Yang was startled. “What are you laughing at?”

“I’m laughing at you being like an old mother!”

Although he was being laughed at, Chi Yang did not feel annoyed. The corners of his lips were still happily raised, and he sneered, “Who was it that bought medicine early in the morning, specially repackaged them one by one in order to prevent the other party from eating the wrong medicine, and then gave such detailed instructions?”

Zhong Nuannuan was lost for words.

She did not know that in addition to verbally assaulting the bad guys, Chi Yang would also verbally attack her.

Thus, she promptly pouted and ignored him.

Seeing that even an oil bottle could be hung on her pink, soft lips, Chi Yang laughed softly in amusement. With his melodious voice lingering around the room, Zhong Nuannuan felt as if her ears were about to get pregnant.

After laughing, Chi Yang said softly, “However, in this world, apart from old mothers who will care of people like this, wives will also take care of their husbands like this.”

Zhong Nuannuan’s face blushed slightly.

Only

Subsequently, Chi Yang’s voice became even softer. “Husbands will also care of their wives like this.”

“...” Could he not tease her like this? She could not stand it!

Soon, it was time for school, and Chi Yang reluctantly sent his fiancée downstairs.

Li Qi was already waiting in front of the car door, and when he saw Chi Yang, he immediately gave a standard military salute. “Greetings, director-general.”

Chi Yang nodded, handed a big bag of buns to Li Qi, and instructed, “Place this in the refrigerator to be frozen.”

“Yes.”

Li Qi was aware about the director-general personally making buns for his future wife because he had called him earlier to explain some matters.
