Chapter 361: Investigation

Li Qi held onto a big bag of delicious steaming stuffed buns and could not help but swallow his saliva.

He truly wanted to head back into the guard room and gossip with the guys. Their commander was talented in making buns! Not to mention, the buns smelled delicious.

Who said that even though the commander was an outstanding man, the woman that had to live her lives with the commander would be miserable?

Their commander was willing to personally head into the kitchen and cook to capture his little wife's heart, making him look very much like a family-oriented husband. It was no wonder that the group of single dogs inside could not find themselves a wife.

Zhong Nuannuan was not a melodramatic person. However, whenever she was around Chi Yang, she became as dramatic as possible.

She knew very well that her man was so outstanding that no ordinary opponent could ever hurt him. Even if she were the one that wanted to hurt him, it would be difficult for her if he was unwilling.

However, somehow, whenever she thought about him executing a mission and facing danger, she would feel reluctant and depressed.

Perhaps this was what they called being overly-sentimental.

After living two lives, it was her first time feeling this sort of emotion.

It was not at all pleasant.

"What's the matter, kiddo?" Chi Yang sensed that his young wife was somewhat depressed. He could not help but reach out to nudge her pretty little nose.

Zhong Nuannuan nestled into his arms and stretched out her hand to tightly encircle his thin waist.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you promised me before that you wouldn't get hurt."

Chi Yang did not expect her to still be worried about this even when she was about to leave. It made him feel terribly moved.

He used one of his hands to stroke her back, while the other hand rubbed his favorite furry head. Then, he said softly, "Don't worry. I won't get hurt. There are very few people in this world that can hurt me. I promise you I'll come back in the same condition as I left. Okay?"

"Alright," Zhong Nuannuan nodded lightly as she buried her face inside Chi Yang's chest, listening to his strong and powerful heartbeat.

Finally, Zhong Nuannuan left.

She stared on as the person that was watching her leave got smaller and smaller; At the same time, the void in her heart grew larger.

The anxious feeling in her heart made her awfully jittery.

It was a pity that this was not her world. Otherwise, she would have definitely killed dozens of enemies just to calm the emotions that she could not vent out. Instead, she was forced to let these feelings sink into her heart like a pit of quicksand.

After getting out of the car, Zhong Nuannuan dialed a number on her phone. Almost as soon as the phone started ringing, the person on the other end of the phone picked up.

Zhong Nuannuan was startled. "Big Bro, were you playing around with your phone?"

On the other end of the phone, a peal of very sinister yet pleasantly low toned laughter sounded. "I was holding onto the phone and kept looking at it. I was wondering if you, the little unscrupulous person, were going to call me. Then, you actually did."

Zhong Nuannuan could not help but giggle. "I'd have to be a dog to believe you!"

Only

The person on the other end of the phone was startled.

"You haven't called me in 1 month, 13 days, and 16 hours now. It's impossible that you're calling to ask me how I'm doing, right? Come on, tell me what's the matter?"

"... Big Brother, do you have to articulate every single thing?"

"I'll only be articulate if it's about you. If it's any other person, it won't matter much to me. I could, at best, merely nod my head."

Zhong Nuannuan was taken aback for a moment because of the other party's loving tone; his fondness for her was simply indisputable at this point. She also knew that her rejection would have no effect on him, hence she stopped trying to argue with him on this topic.

"Big Brother, I need you to investigate something for me."

"Sure," The person on the other line agreed without hesitation.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 362: Disobedient Patient

"Remember that time I developed a nerve resistance drug in Sab, the one used to relieve pain? But later, I discovered that the drug had a lot of side effects and stopped researching it?"

"TH17," The person on the other line quickly named the experimental drug based on Zhong Nuannuan's description.

"Yeah, that one."

“You found out someone is using this medication?”

“Yes, not only have they used it, but they’re also preparing for large-scale production of it in Sab.”

“Give me three days. I’ll find out who it is and deal with them. You don’t have to worry about the drug entering the market.”

“Alright.”

Zhong Nuannuan did not bother sending a photo of the medication to the other party. This was because she knew the other person’s methods. Within a few hours, all the people who participated in the research would get dug out. Then, within half a day, the person on the other end of the line would find out everything, including where the drug was produced, who was the one distributing it, and how it entered the market. Within a day, he would completely destroy the market chain.

Thus, the three days time frame that this big brother of hers mentioned was completely arbitrary. After all, none of them were in a hurry about this matter.

After talking about the drug-related matter, Zhong Nuannuan could not help but worry and ask, “Big Brother, how are you doing recently?”

Hearing Zhong Nuannuan’s concern, the other party’s gentle and reserved cold-toned voice became much warmer.

“Not bad. With the help of your medication, the old injury hasn’t relapsed.”

“What about your stomach problems? That’s the crucial part!”

The corners of the other party’s lip unconsciously lifted, revealing an incredibly charming smile. “With your medication, the stomach problem hasn’t occurred in a long time.

“That’s good. Your stomach has gotten ulcers and perforated several times now, so it’s incredibly weak. I’m not there to look after you, so you have to remember to take your medications and eat your meals on time, got it?”

“I got it, you’re so long-winded.”

That was what he said; however, the man’s subordinates who were listening to the call could feel that the man was in a good mood at the moment.

“Yes, fine, I am long-winded. Then, I’ll stop nagging now. I have to go to class. Bye.”

Then, without waiting for the other party’s replies, she hung up.

Looking at the call that had abruptly been ended, the man was stunned for a long time. It was not until the butler on his side called out respectfully, “Young master.”

Feng Shengxuan came back to his senses; his eyes were filled with chagrin.

Why did he say she was long-winded just now?

If he did not say she was long-winded, would she not have hung up so quickly?

What a ruthless kid with no conscience!

He waited for one month, 13 days, and 16 hours, but it only took her 2 minutes to end the call with him.

Was going to class more important than him?

As he thought about this, Feng Shengxuan felt all kinds of unhappy. There were big beads of sweat surfacing on his forehead caused by his pain.

“Please take some medication, Young Master. If you continue being this way, your stomach will not be able to withstand it!”

Feng Shengxuan glared at the old housekeeper. His thin lips slightly parted as he said, “Shut up.”

Only

“Sigh...”

The old butler felt helpless.

This person had been showing his temper the whole day. Everything that could be smashed around this castle had been broken to pieces, and the three female servants that had talked bad about the young miss behind his back were executed.

Furthermore, they were thrown into the concrete mixer by this man after being hanged alive.

At this moment, the sun was setting in Sab, and the scenery in the manor was beautiful, but everyone was in a peculiar mood. It was as if they had entered the garden of death.

This person had been on strike for five whole days now. A total of 79 people from the Feng Group’s top management teams had also been sitting in the hall for an entire day.

Everyone was waiting for the boss’s instructions, but the boss kept staring at his mobile phone.

Chapter 363: Master & Friends

Just as the phone was about to explode from his tight grip, the heavenly ringing sound was heard.

The butler knew that everyone was saved.

They thought that the young master would take his medications before anything else, yet he still refused to do so. Then, he instructed them, “Ask them to prepare themselves, we’ll have a meeting in five minutes.”

“Yes sir,” The secretary hurried out to inform the rest as if he had just been pardoned, leaving behind a group of hard-working subordinates and butlers. Their task was to have their boss take his medications!

Just as everyone was feeling bitterly pressured, there was the clicking sound of high heels outside the door.

A beautiful and enchanting figure appeared in front of everyone. The butler saw her, and it felt as if he was looking at their messiah..

“Miss Luna!”

Feng Shengxuan looked at how the butler ran toward the other party, and felt that a dog’s tail was about to sprout from behind his *ss.

The woman glanced at the pillbox in the butler’s hand, frowned slightly, then asked, “Big Brother is not taking his medicine again?”

The butler almost cried out, “Miss Luna, no one else could persuade the young master to take his medication after you left. The young master hasn’t taken his medication for five days now.”

“You’re being too talkative, butler.” Feng Shengxuan frowned when the butler complained to Luna.

However, at this moment, the butler could not care less anymore. He told Luna about the sinful acts the young master’ had committed over the past five days.

Luna listened to the butler’s words and took the medications from him. Then, she walked straight to Feng Shengxuan, “Big Brother, please take your medicine.”

At this moment, Feng Shengxuan’s stomach pain caused by standing for a long time had caused him to sit back down again. His slender body bent slightly, and the fine beads of sweat on his forehead had already begun to trickle down.

The physical discomfort made his temper worse than usual. It was as if he was a sick cheetah—although he was sitting there, he might rush toward his prey at any time and kill it with one blow.

Only

His devilishly charming almond-shaped eyes looked at Luna as he said in a blunt manner, “Bai Li, don’t think that you can order me around just because you have a good relationship with her, and don’t you ever forget your true status. Moreover, put away that sinful gaze in your eyes. I’ll never again be moved by any other woman in my lifetime besides her. So, don’t think of yourself as the hostess in this house.”

Feng Shengxuan’s words did not cause too much of a reaction in Luna. She merely narrowed her eyes and said, “The subordinates are well aware of their identity, and I’ve never claimed to be the hostess. However, Big Brother, Nuannuan gave me the responsibility of looking after you before she left. She also asks me about your condition regularly. If your condition worsens, I don’t know how I will answer her next time.”

Feng Shengxuan was furious now. “Rubbish, you work under me. What do you think you should tell her?”

Luna retorted without fear, “But, Nuannuan is also my friend. Since I already promised her, I will make sure to fulfill it.”

The pupil of Feng Shengxuan’s eyes dilated dangerously. His malicious gaze, paired with his stunning face and morbidly fair complexion, made him akin to a vampire in the dark. He was seductive yet extremely menacing.

“So, you’ll betray your master for your friends?”

Looking at the handsome face that was slowly approaching, Luna’s expression remained calm. “Big Brother, do you still doubt my loyalty to you? It’s precisely because of my absolute loyalty that I care about your well-being. The things that Nuannuan entrusted to me are beneficial for you, so I strictly abide by her requirements. Big Brother, please take your medicine...”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 364: Complaint

“If you don’t take your medications, I’ll call Nuannuan right now and tell her all of your doings this entire time.”

Feng Shengxuan looked at Luna sullenly for a long while; his face was very close to hers.

The people behind could not help but fall to the ground because of the wicked aura of coercion emanating from him, but Luna stayed in front of him with her back straight, silently bearing his terrifying, paled face.

Ultimately, she fell onto the ground. A “dong” was heard, and it was because she could no longer bear the pressure.

“Are you still snitching?” Looking at Luna, who had fallen to the ground and could not get up, Feng Shengxuan’s paper pale face showed a bloodthirsty smile.

While Luna was lying on the ground, she took out a mobile phone from her bag before pressing a speed-dial without saying anything else. A ringing sound was soon heard.

“Damn it!”

Feng Shengxuan, who had stared at his prey with incomparable grace a moment ago immediately jumped back like an angry lion.

“You b*tch! You...”

“Hello, Big Sis Yue? Why did you call me? I was just talking on the phone with Big Brother earlier!”

On the other end of the phone, Zhong Nuannuan’s voice reached Feng Shengxuan’s ears. The voice sounded much happier than when she called him just now, and this made Feng Shengxuan feel very envious.

Yes, even if it were a woman, he would still get jealous.

The pair of eyes that were looking at Luna was extremely gloomy, envious, jealous, and hateful. It was like he was watching his rival in love.

However, at this moment, Luna also looked at him, and her stubborn eyes threatened him as if she was indicating, ‘If you don’t take the medication, I’ll complain to her right now.’

Feng Shengxuan's eyes grew darker. It was as if he wanted to eat Luna whole.

"Big Sis Yue? Is that you?"

Zhong Nuannuan glanced at the caller ID. It was clearly Luna's name.

They used to be under the same organization, and everyone in the organization had a Luntanese code name. Bai Liyue's code name was Yue, and her Luntanese name was Luna.

Bai Liyue was a couple of years older than her. At the time, when she led everyone to raze the former organization to the ground, everyone called her Boss. One she returned to the Zhong house, she also changed everyone's name. For example, Bai Liyue already had a surname and a name, so she no longer called her Luna, and merely Big Sis Yue.

At the most critical moment, she had also risked her life to save her. Thus, Zhong Nuannuan was eternally grateful to Bai Liyue,

"Yeah, it's me."

Bai Liyue changed her temperament and voice instantly. Her voice which was initially rigid without any sign of emotion suddenly became as soft as calm water. She was now akin to the big sister next door.

"For you to call me at this time... Is there something going on there?" Zhong Nuannuan asked.

"Yeah. "Under Feng Shengxuan's murderous stare, Bai Liyue avoided his gaze altogether and merely nodded in response.

Only

"What's wrong with Big Brother? Is something wrong? Or are there any changes in Big Brother's condition?"

Bai Liyue looked at Feng Shengxuan. If Feng Shengxuan refused to take his medications, she would definitely complain to her.

Feng Shengxuan's eyes were already like an abyss, but under the warning of Bailiyue's stubborn gaze, he finally compromised.

"You win this time!"

Feng Shengxuan said this sentence without opening his lips.

The man who was deemed as powerful as the heavens became inexplicably warm and gentle in front of Zhong Nuannuan.

He silently grabbed the medicine in Bai Liyue's hand and then poured it all into his mouth. The butler immediately offered water, of which Feng Shengxuan took two sips.

Chapter 365: His Girl

Bai Liyue made sure that the medicine had been swallowed before she said to Zhong Nuannuan, "There's nothing wrong here, they're all old problems. I came in and saw that he just hung up on you, so I knew that you called. I thought that there shouldn't be any inconvenience for you on our end, so I decided to call you and have a chat. How's the situation at home?"

Bai Liyue gave a lengthy explanation and then immediately changed the subject. Feng Shengxuan's agitated heart finally calmed down, and in order to hear what Nuannuan was talking about, he squatted down and sat next to Bai Liyue. He almost attached himself to Bai Liyue's phone, in fear of missing out on Nuannuan's voice.

"It's the same as it was before. You don't have to cover for him, did he stop taking his medicine again and is not listening to your advice?"

Zhong Nuannuan's words caused Feng Shengxuan's long and narrow eyes to enlarge instantly, and he looked at Bai Liyue with a look of warning.

Bai Liyue had no doubts that if she were to mispeak, the cruel man in front of her would strangle her to death.

Bai Liyue quickly shook her head, even though Zhong Nuannuan could not see it at all.

"No, no. Even though he has a bad temper, he'd do everything you tell him, fortunately. So, don't worry. He's eaten his medications, and I'll keep an eye out for him for you."

"Good. Anyway, if he stops taking them, just let me know."

"Okay, sure. You're the only one that can cure him anyway!"

When Bai Liyue's voice fell, she felt a gloomy gaze staring at her, almost drilling a hole in her body.

"How are you guys doing over there? Are you very busy?" Zhong Nuannuan asked with concern.

"Of course," Bai Liyue nodded quickly.

Feng Shengxuan suddenly stretched out his hand to grab Bai Liyue's wrist tightly, and Bai Liyue knew he was getting nervous.

"We got our hands full here, and Big Brother's nearly exhausted to death. If you don't come back, you might come back to find me and Big Brother's dead bodies."

Bai Liyue's words catered to Feng Shengxuan's desires, causing his grip to loosen.

"Aren't you exaggerating? Only you and Big Brother are busy? What about Dan Qi?"

"Him? Do you think he's reliable?"

"I thought Selena told me that Big Brother had asked Dan Qi to stay and help you guys out."

"It's not like you don't know of Dan Qi's character. He spends all his time chasing dramas when he's not on missions. Last time, I hadn't seen him for half a month, nor had I received any calls from him. I was afraid that something might've happened to him. Then, I went over to his house to check on him, and do you know what I saw?"

“What?” Although Zhong Nuannuan could not guess, but she immediately started smiling.

“The man was watching ‘The Legend of White Snake’ that was filmed in Camino many years ago. On the day that I went over, the White Snake happened to have been caught, and I caught him bawling his eyes out.”

“Hahahahahaha...”

Zhong Nuannuan laughed uncontrollably.

She knew that Dan Qi had stayed behind for a reason.

Only

That homebody would never go out under normal circumstances. If he were not on a mission, he would typically be at home watching TV shows.

Upon hearing Zhong Nuannuan laughing so happily, Feng Shengxuan’s eyes instantly softened.

The beauty was akin to jade, while the handsome young man was unmatched in the world.<sup>1</sup>

The man who had initially been gloomy and terrifying like a vampire instantly became as gentle as jade; his softness was unparalleled.

Listening to Zhong Nuannuan’s happy laugh, all the resentment, gloominess and unwillingness disappeared.

She was his girl!

The girl he had brought up!

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 366: Dinner Alone

His girl should have the right to live so rampantly happy and without worry.

No matter how formidable she was, none of the darkness in this world should bother her.

“Nuannuan, how long are you planning to stay in the Jiang District? If you still insist on not returning, all that’s left would be for you to prepare the funeral of me and Big Brother.”

“Stop trying to scare me! There’s two of you there right now, and honestly, even if Big Brother decides to wash his hands of our business, you alone are more than capable enough to take good care of all my properties. Big Sis Yue, I have full confidence in both of you. Although, if you’re getting tired, you can stop working on the property industry, or you could even transfer some of the work to Camino. We aren’t lacking money and it would take more than a few generations to use up the money. You’ll only tire yourselves out by expanding the business too widely.”

“Your words just mean that you’re not willing to come back! Selina has already told me that there’s no point in staying on in the Zhong family!”

“Big Sis Yue, I have my own purpose in life.”

Bai Liyue knew Zhong Nuannuan’s temperament well. She immediately gave in when she heard Zhong Nuannuan say this.

“Fine, I know it’s been your wish all these years to return home to reconnect with your family. I won’t force you any further, but don’t you forget us. Come back to pay us a visit when you have the time. If you have free time, we can go over and see you too. Also, don’t forget about Big Brother once you manage to discover some top-notch gastric medication.”

“I’ll take full responsibility for Big Brother’s medicine. As for both of you coming to visit me... It’d be best not to do so right now as both of you are too high profile. I’ll invite you guys over once I’ve settled down in Emperor District.”

Feng Shengxuan’s mesmerizingly seductive eyes immediately dimmed when he heard Zhong Nuannuan’s words.

“Okay, I have to go now. The bell is ringing for class, I have to go. Remember to give Big Brother constant reminders to take his medication. Let me know if he doesn’t take them on time.”

“Okay.”

Bai Liyue hung up and Feng Shengxuan got up from the ground. He instructed his subordinates and Bai Liyue with a cold expression, “Start the meeting.”

He walked out first as his long legs strode off arrogantly after giving the instruction.

“Big Brother, give me a moment.”

Feng Shengxuan turned toward her impatiently. “What do you want now?”

“The housekeeper just informed me that you did not have your breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Please have your meal before starting the meeting.”

Feng Shengxuan flew into a rage. “Bai Liyue, can you be any more annoying?”

“I’ll tell Nuannuan if you don’t eat anything.”

Only

Feng Shengxuan took a few deep breaths and finally admitted defeat. With one kick, an antique vase worth tens of millions flew from the door and fell from the third floor to the first. It scared a few little maids who were moving around the first floor as they screamed aloud.

It was only after he heard the vase break into pieces that he roared, “Let’s eat!”

Feng Shengxuan’s phone rang when he arrived at the base of the stairs. There was a subtle steely look in Bai Liyue’s eyes.

Feng Shengxuan normally did not like picking up calls; she picked up almost every call that came in. However, someone had actually obtained his personal number and he had actually accepted the call. It was obvious that the person on the other end was not Nuannuan.

“Hello,” Feng Shengxuan picked up the call, but most of the talking was done from the other end. It was difficult to tell what was being said. However, a bloodthirsty smile soon appeared on Feng Shengxuan’s perfect, devil-like face. All he said was, “Let him come, but make sure he won’t return.”

With that, he hung up.

The dining room of the Feng Family Manor was huge, but Feng Shengxuan was the only one who was having his meal there.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 367: oming Out Clean

This was because he did not like anyone else but Zhong Nuannuan having meals with him; even Bai Liyue was not allowed to accompany him even if she wanted to.

Dong! Dong! Dong!

The gigantic Zodiac grandfather’s clock chimed six times. The huge bell echoed through the empty castle as the light shined on his lonely figure, forming a very long shadow on the ground...

***

Zhong Nuannuan returned to the classroom after hanging up. They were starting lessons on Year 2 Senior Mathematics.

She had just taken out her schoolbook, but before she could flip through more than a couple of pages, someone who should not have appeared walked right into everyone’s view in an unusually high-profile manner.

Zhong Nuannuan lifted her head when her classmates screamed in unison.

Gu Mingzhe was standing at the door dressed in a dapper suit. He had his hand around Zhong Qianqian’s shoulders and was standing at the podium in public sight.

To be honest, Gu Mingzhe was definitely not as handsome as Chi Yang.

To Zhong Nuannuan, he was not even a millionth of Chi Yang. Chi Yang was, after all, too outstanding.

However, to the average person, Gu Mingzhe was still the young master of an influential family from Emperor District—this alone made him sit atop of the list of most desirable bachelors. Anyone could tell with one look that he was at least 180cm tall, and as he paid quite a lot of attention to his image, he was always training at the gym and had a body that would make young girls scream for him. He had on a pair of gold-rimmed glasses that managed to hide the scheming look in his eyes, making him look like a gentle and elegant person, much like a charming young master. At the same time, his clothes made him looked slender, but anyone could tell that he was muscular without those clothes on.

This Gu Mingzhe might not have a devastatingly handsome face, but it was good-looking enough to make any ordinary girl scream.

More than half the students at Jia Yong were of noble birth while those who were not born from such families had been studying there for quite a few years and had learned to have a sharp pair of eyes by spending time with students from noble families. It took one look for them to immediately recognize that the clothes on the man who was holding onto Zhong Qianqian while walking into the classroom was a bespoke suit that was worth no less than a million. He was not of ordinary status.

However, this begged a different question.

Only

Was Zhong Qianqian, who had always fought with Zhong Nuannuan over handsome military men, not taken away by the military court? How did she get out in just a day? She even brought along such a fine specimen of a man with her in such a high-profile manner.

Just as the students were still in shock at the situation, the director of Jia Yong brought along a group of deputy directors, including the headmaster, and walked into the classroom. Zhong Nuannuan's father, whom the students had previously met, was walking next to the school board. However, he was present this time as Zhong Qianqian's father.

"Dear students, I believe everyone is aware of what happened yesterday when Zhong Qianqian was taken away by the military court. This matter has seriously affected the entire school and had caused serious damage to Zhong Qianqian's reputation. Today, the school board has unanimously decided to do right by Zhong Qianqian.

"When the military court took Zhong Qianqian away, the main reason given was that Zhong Qianqian had attempted murder due to her liking the fiancé of her younger sister, Zhong Nuannuan. That was why she had allegedly transferred 30 thousand Yuan to Xue Miqi and requested for her to kill Zhong Nuannuan."

"After conducting an investigation, it was discovered that Zhong Qianqian has a boyfriend. It is none other than Young Master Gu from the renowned family of Emperor District. I believe all of you are familiar with Emperor District's Young Master Gu as the Gu Family had been a top-notch family in our Jiang District in the past. Young Master Gu himself was a top student who graduated from Jia Yong.

"Zhong Qianqian is with the outstanding Young Master Gu. It is therefore impossible for her to get someone to murder Zhong Nuannuan out of jealousy and envy.

"After the investigation, it has been found that the third party contacted by Xue Miqi was nothing but a low-grade website. If Zhong Qianqian was truly the mastermind behind this and had wanted to kill her sister, Zhong Nuannuan, Young Master Gu would have managed to get it done without leaving a single shred of evidence."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 368: Stupefied

"From this situation, we are able to tell that it was slander on Xue Miqi's part when she claimed to be innocent and that the mastermind behind Zhong Nuannuan's attempted murder was in fact Zhong Qianqian. This was nothing but a baseless accusation. Zhong Qianqian had indeed transferred 30 thousand to Xue Miqi, but it was a loan from Zhong Qianqian to Xue Miqi to take part in the dinner auction that had been postponed to two weeks later.

“The military court did not have enough evidence to convict, and Zhong Qianqian was acquitted and released. The school board is here today to clarify this matter to our students.”

After the director was done with his speech, Gu Mingzhe stood up as well. “When I was on the way here, I overheard the various discussions the school had about Qianqian. Everyone was talking about how Qianqian’s embarrassment evolved into rage as she attempted to get between Chi Yang and Nuannuan, which caused her to try to murder Nuannuan. I would like to clarify this matter here with everyone present. Qianqian is not the black-hearted lotus flower described by all of you. She never wanted to get between Chi Yang and Nuannuan. She has a boyfriend and her boyfriend is me, Gu Mingzhe. Not only are we in a relationship, but Qianqian and I will be getting engaged next month.”

Gu Mingzhe’s words caused many female students, who had crowded outside the window of the classroom, to scream.

This was the young master of Gu Family Enterprise!

This was a man who could only be seen in certain business magazines, and now, he was about to become Zhong Qianqian’s husband!

That being said, everyone felt that Young Master Gu’s eyes seemed to be just a tad too firm. There was a certain headstrong look to them.

All men are creatures who judge another physically, right? Zhong Qianqian and Zhong Nuannuan may share the same father, but the appearance and body of both sisters were like heaven and earth. How could Young Master Gu lay eyes on Zhong Qianqian when he had a sister-in-law who was so attractive, especially when compared to her sister?

Even so, this doubt in everyone’s mind was insignificant compared to the envy and jealousy of the students, especially within the girls.

They all wanted desperately for a tall, handsome, rich man, who had such stubborn taste, to fall in love with them and announce their engagement right on the spot.

The screams of those students made Gu Mingzhe laugh quietly.

“Everyone is aware that Gu Family Enterprises has moved to Emperor District. This engagement was supposed to be held in Emperor District, but Qianqian is currently still a student. In order not to interfere with her studies, we will hold the engagement ceremony in Jiang District.”

Only

Gu Mingzhe’s words stunned Zhong Qianqian.

“Bro Mingzhe, how can you do this? Your family...”

Zhong Qianqian wanted to say that she had not even met his family and did not know if they would agree to this. If they had gotten engaged and his family did not agree to the marriage, what would happen to her?

Gu Mingzhe seemed to be aware of what Zhong Qianqian was worried about. He turned toward her and said passionately, "I informed my parents about this yesterday. Even though they have yet to meet you, but my parents are respectful of my decision. Besides, when they found out you were still a student, they decided to book two private airplanes to fly our friends from Emperor District over here. First of all, you are the only future daughter-in-law of the Gu family and the Gu family should give you the respect you deserve. Second of all..." Gu Mingzhe smiled slightly, almost dazzling Zhong Qianqian's eyes.

"Don't forget, the Gu family started out in Jiang District."

Zhong Qianqian was completely stupefied by the sincere smile that appeared on Gu Mingzhe's lips.

To be honest, she had hit rock bottom when the military court had taken her away yesterday. However, Gu Mingzhe had suddenly appeared in front of her to bail her out. Next, he suddenly asked her to be his girlfriend, and today, she was suddenly informed by Gu Mingzhe that they would be getting engaged next month.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 369: The Happiest Woman

Zhong Qianqian felt like she had just taken a rollercoaster from hell to heaven. Everything was moving too fast and she was unable to recover in time.

Was she about to get engaged?

To the young master of a third-rate influential family from Emperor District, who owned the Gu Family Enterprise?

And his parents were agreeing to it?

Even though Gu Mingzhe was not as highly regarded as Aiden, he was still a piece of unattainable pie that had fallen from the sky onto Zhong Qianqian's lap.

Zhong Qianqian was still standing there stunned when Gu Mingzhe suddenly calmly went down on one knee in front of everybody. Then, he took out a huge fully green emerald ring from his coat.

It was not until the huge emerald ring was on Zhong Qianqian's finger, establishing her as the owner, that Gu Mingzhe said, "Qianqian, will you marry me? This is our family heirloom, a fully green emerald ring that is Imperial green. One of these is worth billions and it's now on your hands. If you don't say yes, I'll make a run for it and won't stop moving until I reach the ends of the earth where you are."

Even though most of the students disliked the white lotus Zhong Qianqian, they were still students after all; It was easy for them to change their opinions on what they liked or disliked.

Since Zhong Qianqian had a boyfriend, and it was one as outstanding as Young Master Gu, it would make sense that she would have no reason to want Zhong Nuannuan dead out of anger at Zhong Nuannuan and Chi Yang's relationship, right? There was no clash in terms of relationships, which meant that two biological sisters' conflict would never be so extreme as to want each other dead, right?

When they heard Gu Mingzhe's slightly cliche yet cheeky way of proposing, the students started laughing in goodwill and started to chant, "Say yes! Say yes! Say yes!"

Zhong Qianqian was so moved by this that she started laughing and crying.

The heavens were kind to her. Even though she did not end up with Chi Yang or Aiden, Gu Mingzhe was still a very outstanding man. By the looks of it, he was even more outstanding than Chi Yang.

Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan ran to the very front with stars in their eyes, looking enviously at Zhong Qianqian.

Zhong Qianqian looked at Zhong Kuijun under the envious stares of her classmates and the smiles of the school board. When she saw Zhong Kuijun nodding, Zhong Qianqian nodded as well.

"You must promise to treat me well in the future. You're not allowed to ignore me or turn off your handphone for no reason, nor are you allowed to not want me and say you don't want me for no good reason."

Only

Zhong Qianqian's words almost made Zhong Nuannuan, who was watching this with amusement, snort out in laughter.

Her older sister must have suffered psychological damage from Aiden to be able to say such low-quality words during a girl's happiest moment.

As expected, Zhong Kuijun frowned while the members of the school board could not help but twitch their mouths.

However, Gu Mingzhe was quite capable of handling the situation well.

After all, he was about to marry the future little princess of the Nangong family. Putting aside the fact that Zhong Qianqian could still be considered a looker, even if she was an extremely ugly, big, fat lady, Gu Mingzhe would probably still be able to express himself passionately.

"Qianqian, don't you worry. I'm a very sentimental and conservative person. It's not just me, the entire Gu family is this way. My grandfather and grandmother spent their whole life together, my mum and dad only had eyes for each other, and I promise you, as long as you agree to my proposal and become my wife, I will be good to you. I may not be able to make you the wealthiest woman in the world, but I can definitely make you the happiest one."

"Okay, I will say yes. Bro Mingzhe, I agree to be your bride!"

Chapter 370: You Should Break Up

Zhong Qianqian was absolutely touched and mesmerized by Gu Mingzhe's words as she quickly agreed to his marriage proposal.

The school board members immediately stood up in applause, attempting to get into the good books of the Gu family.

When the students saw the school board clapping, everyone followed suit.

At that moment, Zhong Qianqian was leaning completely into Gu Mingzhe's arms as she cried messily.

As for Gu Mingzhe, he was looking quite delighted as he had secretly nabbed himself the little princess from the Nangong family.

"The school board members and students here are the most important people by Qianqian's side. When the time comes, the Gu Family will send out invites to everyone present today. If you are willing, please do make your presence felt at Lijing Mansion for a drink to celebrate the occasion."

The director immediately smiled. "Of course, we will, we will!"

As he said this, the director turned to congratulate Zhong Kuijun on his two daughters who had brought glory to the family name.

Zhong Kuijun had always wanted to build a connection with the Emperor District, and this situation cheered him up considerably. However, the thought of Zhong Nuannuan's quarrel with the deputy commander-in-chief made him lose his temper.

"Zhong Nuannuan, come out with me."

Zhong Kuijun could no longer hold it in after he was done with all the small talk. He did not want his daughter to enjoy triumph while he had to suffer the deputy commander-in-chief's wrath.

Since it was not necessary for him to go through Chi Yang to achieve his goal of becoming the instructor for the military base in A District, what reason could there be for him to stand by and offend the deputy commander-in-chief?

That was why he felt that the marriage between Zhong Nuannuan and Chi Yang would be better off annulled.

Zhong Kuijun turned to walk out with a stoic look on his face. All of the students thought he was about to berate Zhong Nuannuan on behalf of Zhong Qianqian. Everyone was left with a good impression of Zhong Nuannuan after enjoying the food she had treated them to, so they were quite worried about her now.

However, Zhong Nuannuan followed her father casually without a care in the world.

The moment she stepped outside, she saw Zhong Kuijun standing in the walkway.

He roared in his loudest voice when he saw Zhong Nuannaun walk out, "I told you to annul your upcoming marriage to Chi Yang, have you done it?"

The school board members were about to leave the classroom when they heard Zhong Kuijun's roaring voice. The entire school board was at a loss at whether to continue walking out or to back up slowly. Thus, they could only stand frozen to the stop as they stared at each other. They could not understand why Zhong Kuijun would want his daughter to annul her upcoming marriage to a military man such as Chi Yang, who had a bright future.

Only

Zhong Kuijun had broadcasted this loudly on purpose for the school board members and the school's students to hear.

After all, with his capability, there was really nothing he could do if Chi Yang was not willing to annul the marriage. However, if everyone at school was aware of Zhong Nuannuan offending someone she could not afford to, and he had forced her to annul the marriage because of it, it would be seen as Zhong Kuijun doing his duty as a responsible parent.

"Why should I annul my upcoming marriage to Chi Yang? Our marriage report had gone through a double approval process conducted by the commander-in-chief and the chief-of-staff themselves, which means that my marriage is under the protection of the military base."

"With your impetuous temperament combined with your constant need to offend, let's not mention the protection of the military base. Even if you had the protection of our entire country's military, I'm pretty sure you'd still land yourself in trouble!" Zhong Kuijun roared angrily.

Huh? Zhong Nuannuan was surprised. Zhong Kuijun was not wrong with that.

"I don't care if you are under protection. As your legal guardian, I have submitted an application to the military base this morning to annul your marriage. Just let go of everything between you and Chi Yang.

"You are not allowed to see Chi Yang if he comes looking for you, do you hear me? Also, unless the commander-in-chief requests to see you, which you will need to inform me in advance for me to accompany you there, you will only be allowed to stay at home at all times."
