

Physician Wife 37

Chapter 37: Banquet

That was the commander in chief! He was the person in charge of the military base in Jiang District!

He knew Chi Yang was not just an ordinary guy.

He was an officer who became the captain when he was just 26 years old. Aside from his excellent physique, if he did not have any background to support him, he would be able to remove Zhong Kuijun's head and kick it around like a ball.

4But he needed to be patient in finding out Chi Yang's background. He needed to slowly discover this himself.

1Now that Chi Yang was willing to help him pull strings with the commander in chief, his future would be bright.

"Alright, thank you very much."

Zhong Kuijun was more enthusiastic planning the banquet now knowing that the commander in chief was coming.

"The most luxurious five-star hotel in Jiang District right now is the newly built Lijing Mansion. Why don't we hold our banquet over there? What do you think?"

"There's no need for it to be that luxurious."

Zhong Kuijun was perturbed. "But we're inviting the commander in chief..."

"The commander in chief won't mind. Plus, the star of the banquet is Nuannuan. I think the banquet should be warm and welcoming.

"Oh? And how should we do that?"

"The courtyard of the Zhong Mansion is very big. There's a garden outside of the courtyard. We can discuss this with the property management so that we can combine that large public area behind the courtyard and the courtyard together to hold one big lawn party. I think it should be able to fit about 300 people."

"Alright, we'll do just that." Zhong Kuijun did not consider much. As long as Chi Yang could help him invite the commander in chief, anything was fine with him.

However Jiang Shuwan's face fell and she said, "No way. We only have Auntie Zhao and one butler, and the butler doesn't know how to cook. It would be illogical to ask Auntie Zhao to cook for everyone."

"That's no problem. I'll hire someone for that."

"But... are they as good as the chefs in a five-star hotel?" Jiang Shuwan did not dare to agree with what was being proposed.

“Aunty, don’t worry. I will make sure that the matter won’t become an embarrassment.”

Jiang Shuwan smiled lightly, “That’s good.”

Zhong Qianqian was sitting on the sofa in front of the television. When she saw that they were happily chatting and planning a banquet for Zhong Nuannuan, her face got dark with anger.

Chi Yang could easily invite the commander in chief that her father was not close to. It was obvious that the two of them had an unusual relationship and Chi Yang’s identity was not just an ordinary person.

He was the captain of the army at age 26. With his overbearing ability and unusual background, it would not be surprising that he would become a major general by the age of 35, and then a lieutenant general like the commander in chief in the military base at 45.

The military base called the shots in Camino. If one could marry Chi Yang and become the wife of a general, then their status would be incomparable to the rich and famous in Jiang District.

1But too bad, Zhong Nuannuan snatched away what was rightfully hers.

6The more Chi Yang showed how amazing he was, the more Zhong Qianqian was unable to let him go without doing anything.

Since young, she would get anything that she wanted. She did not want to lose to some hill billy that was brought back from the mountains!

So what if Zhong Nuannuan had Big Brother Chi Yang’s heart after having that relationship with him?

After dinner, Zhong Kuijun brought Chi Yang and Nuannuan to the living room to have a chat with them. When he saw Zhong Qianqian on the sofa, he felt like her existence was unnecessary so he said, “Qianqian, go help your mother clean up the bedroom so that Chi Yang could rest later.”

Zhong Qianqian’s face fell. She wanted to ask on what grounds would she do that but when she thought of something and smirked.

“Alright. Big Brother Chi Yang, please chat with my dad. I’ll go clean up the room for you.”

Chapter 38: Feed

She knew Chi Yang would not pay attention to her, so she went upstairs after she finished talking.

Zhong Nuannuan sensed that something was not right, but after contemplating for a while, she felt that Zhong Qianqian would not do anything to Chi Yang’s room, so she let her be.

4Half an hour later, Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Qianqian came downstairs and told Chi Yang that his room was ready. Zhong Kuijun did not want to stop Chi Yang from resting so he stopped talking to him.

There were three floors in the Zhong Mansion. On the first floor, there was the living room, dining room, kitchen, and the butler’s room. Zhong Nuannuan and Aunty Zhao’s rooms were on the second floor, Zhong Kuijun and his wife and also Zhong Qianqian’s rooms were on the third floor.

1Naturally, Chi Yang followed Zhong Nuannuan onto the second floor.

"Chi Yang, your room is on the third floor. The second floor is Nuannuan's room," Jiang Shuwan reminded him.

"Mom, my room is on the second floor. Why did you arrange his room to be on the third floor?" Zhong Nuannuan continued asking, "Are you thinking of arranging Chi Yang's room next to my big sister's room?"

Jiang Shuwan got a little awkward with the questions.

When she was met with her husband's icy stares, Jiang Shuwan's heart was beating like drums in her chest, but she had to pretend to be calm on the outside.

"Aiya, the condition of the room on the second floor is so bad. You're living opposite Aunt Zhao, and on the left is Qianqian's piano room, and on the opposite of Qianqian's piano room is her study. How can we arrange for him to stay on the second floor?"

"But the room to my right is empty."

"No way! That room is next to the stairs, plus the shape of that room is very strange. I can't let Chi Yang stay in a weirdly shaped room the first time he comes over to our house, right?"

"At least it's better than staying next to big sister. Chi Yang is my fiancé, not hers, but you arranged his room next to my sister's. Mom, you're obviously trying to snatch Chi Yang away from me and feed him to your own daughter."

3Since Jiang Shuwan was being shameless, Zhong Nuannuan decided to be straightforward with her.

Jiang Shuwan became resentful and it showed on her face after being scolded by Zhong Nuannuan, but she was older and more experienced, so she remained elegant and calm even though Zhong Nuannuan was being straightforward towards her.

"What do you mean feed her? Look at you, where are your manners? The only thing I did was arrange Chi Yang's room next to Qianqian's, I didn't arrange for them to sleep in the same room. There's a lot of stuff on the second floor, and Aunt Zhao's also sleeping on the second floor too. How would Chi Yang sleep? He may be your fiancé, but you two are not married yet, no? Since you're not married, then he's our guest and he's also the leader of your father's military base. How can we arrange for him to sleep on the second floor?"

Zhong Nuannuan was dispirited by Jiang Shuwan's words.

She felt that she must have been blinded with the term 'family affection' in her previous life. That was why she would always treat them passionately even though they would just give her the cold shoulder in return.

"Uncle Zhong, when Nuannuan said that she might not be your daughter, I thought she was only being petty. But after spending time with you guys today, even I'm starting to question whether Nuannuan is your real daughter?"

Zhong Kuijun and Jiang Shuwan's faces changed after listening to what Chi Yang said.

“Chi Yang, Nuannuan is indeed our daughter. You can’t deny this! Just look at Nuannuan and her mother. They look the same. Isn’t this enough to answer your question?”
