Chapter 381: Male White Lo

Mu Qingxuan was not her friend in her previous life, and there were no interactions between them, so she did not help her. However, in this life, they were friends and roommates, so she would not allow hypocrites like Ling Xuyao to approach Mu Qingxuan.

Obviously, a person like Ling Xuyao, who wanted to rely on women for financial support, must have found out about Mu Qingxuan's identity from somewhere, and thus came over to hook up with her.

Mu Qingxuan felt that Zhong Nuannuan was quite right, so she smiled apologetically. "Sorry, Senior, it's not convenient for us."

Ling Xuyao was upset, but he did not show it on his face, and he smiled gently. "It's nothing, it's me who has been a bother. I'll treat all of you to a meal next time if I have the chance."

After saying that, he nodded politely at everyone, then walked out.

"Nuannuan, have you had any bad encounters with him?"

Gu Xiaoli could not help asking when Ling Xuyao left.

"No."

"If you haven't had any bad encounters with him, why didn't you let Qingxuan get to know that senior? Don't you think that senior is very handsome?" Yan Fangfang could not help but pipe up as well.

When Yan Fangfang said this, Gu Xiaoli had already searched the school network using her cell phone, quickly finding Ling Xuyao.

"Wow! The first place and department hunk of the computer science department. He's good at drawing and can speak three languages. He's so outstanding! Unfortunately, he's a poor student like me. However, Qingxuan, your family conditions are quite good, so you probably won't care about the other party's status, right?"

"Richness and poorness can be ignored, but if his character is not good, then it won't work."

Zhong Nuannuan's words startled the group.

"How is he a bad person?" Yan Fangfang could not help but ask.

"This person has quietly followed us all the way here. Didn't you guys realize?" Selina pouted. "I watched so try to see why he was following us, and it turns out he wanted to fake a chance encounter. This is an old-fashioned way of picking up girls."

"..."

The friends were speechless. How did they not realize this?

“Qingxuan, what place did you get in this painting competition?”

“Third place.”

“Turn your head around and look at the table next us, do you know the third person from the left?”

Only then did Mu Qingxuan widen her eyes. “He’s the winner of the painting competition. His name is Qing Yue, I heard that he has won international awards before. He belongs to a family of painters.”

Only

Zhong Nuannuan nodded.

The reason why she knew this person called Qing Yue was great at drawing was because he would become a well-known painter in the country in the near future. She happened to see him in an interview after he became famous. Qing Yue said at the time that he had participated in countless competitions when he was in university, and that the school also paid great attention to his paintings.

Therefore, since Mu Qingxuan participated in the painting competition, it made no sense that Qing Yue would not participate as well.

Seeing Qing Yue in person, Mu Qingxuan immediately fell silent.

Yan Fangfang still did not understand. “What does this have to do with Ling Xuyao?”

Gu Xiaoli knocked her head and said, “Stupid! If Ling Xuyao really liked painting that much, then the person he should follow and meet by chance should be Qing Yue, not Qingxuan. However, he came to discuss painting with Qingxuan in the form of a chance encounter, so this shows that he simply wanted to hook up with our Qingxuan.”

Yan Fangfang still could not understand. “Beautiful girls are a gentleman’s desire, and Qingxuan is also a beauty, isn’t it normal to be admired by others? Can’t we give him a chance?”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 382: Scary

“He was clearly trailing us, but pretended to meet us by chance. He clearly liked Qingxuan, but made the excuse of being interested in painting. Although these deceptive remarks are harmless, coupled with his extremely sincere-looking appearance... Don’t you think this man is terribly fake?”

“It’s said that a dog that bites doesn’t bark, and a barking dog seldom bites. This Ling Xuyao gives people a sense of spring breeze-like comfort at first glance, and it’s very easy to make people comfortable around him and let down their guard, but he’s a very good liar. If Qingxuan gets together with a person like this, she will be chewed so much that she would not even have any bones left!”

Gu Xiaoli’s analysis was spot on. Zhong Nuannuan nodded and said to Yan Fangfang, “Learn a little bit and pay a bit more attention.”

Yan Fangfang was lost for words.

Ling Xuyao's matter was just a short episode to everyone.

For Mu Qingxuan, such a thing was even more impossible.

If she really met someone suitable in the past, she might have considered.

However, now...

Ever since she had met Ning Wenhao at Nuannuan's house that day, Mu Qingxuan's heart has been fixated on him.

Although they have not seen each other for a very, very long time, she was still certain that this person was Big Brother Ye.

After eating, the few girls from the dormitory looked at Zhong Nuannuan. "Nuannuan, your Big Brother Chi Yang is not around today, will you be sleeping in the dormitory or going back to your love nest?"

"You girls can go back to the dormitory. I'll just go back to the apartment."

Gu Xiaoli shook her head. "You can really be reckless when you're rich! You've applied for school accommodation, but you've never slept in school for even a day. It feels like we're actually fake roommates."

"I go back to the dormitory at noon every day to read books in bed."

Gu Xiaoli, Yan Fangfang and Mu Qingxuan were at a loss for words.

After sending away the three dormitory girls, Selina looked at Leng Qirui, who was following them, and had not yet left. "Why aren't you leaving yet?"

Leng Qirui looked at Selina blankly. "Why should I leave?"

"I haven't seen my big boss for a very long time, and I want to talk to her alone for a while. Go back to wherever you came from!"

Leng Qirui was speechless.

He felt that he was like a lion at the school in the past—everyone had to listen to him and tolerate him. However, ever since Zhong Nuannuan, the T-Rex had appeared, other carnivorous dinosaurs have appeared one after another, while he, the lion king, could only lay aside submissively.

Only

It was enough to be subservient towards Zhong Nuannuan, Chi Yang and Ning Wenhao, but even a small white rabbit that came out of nowhere was pulling a long face at him now just because of her good relationship with the T-Rex.

Where was his dignity as the school bully?

"I made an appointment with Zhong Nuannuan first tonight, why should I have to listen to you now? Quickly piss off. Since you're also a student of Jia Yong now, make an appointment with her yourself if you want to meet her in the future. Why do you want to take up my time?"

Selina looked at Leng Qirui. "I heard some gossip saying that you were rejected when you confessed to my big boss in public. Is it possible that you're still prepared to continue fighting for her even after knowing that you have a strong love rival?"

Originally, Leng Qirui had basically given up on this. In reality, his reason for insistently inviting Zhong Nuannuan to dinner today was actually to take her as his teacher, and to ask her to teach him some kung fu punches and kicks.

However, after he was agitated by Selina, Leng Qirui immediately rebuked fiercely, "What's wrong with continuing to fight? She's not married yet, so why can't I pursue her?"

"You'd better not pursue me, it's useless. I'll only like my Big Brother Chi Yang for the rest of my life, and that won't change."

Chapter 383: Entering The Woods

After Zhong Nuannuan's follow up blow, Selina laughed loudly.

Leng Qirui did not dare to do anything to Zhong Nuannuan, but it did not mean that he was going to put up with Selina.

"Sh*t, what are you laughing at! If you laugh any longer, I'll hit you! I'm not a gentleman who doesn't hit women!"

As she stared at Leng Qirui's handsome face, she could not tell if his blushing was due to shyness or annoyance. In any case, Selina felt a joyful sense of success from flirting with beautiful men.

To be honest, Little Brother Leng Qirui was really handsome and cute!

Zhong Nuannuan watched Selina staring at Leng Qirui as if he was her prey, and she felt a chill run down her spine. She silently lit a candle for this big brother in her heart.

Selina smiled, clearly thinking that the other party was cute, yet still could not help but tease, "Oh my, I'm so scared! It looks like you really want to speak to my big boss alone."

Leng Qirui gave Selina a look that seemed to mean "Nonsense".

Selina was not angry, and she continued smiling as she said, "I'll give you one chance to fight me, if can defeat me, I'll pass my big boss over to you tonight, okay? Not just tonight, if you ever make an appointment with my big boss in the future, I won't follow if you don't want me to."

"Okay! If that's your offer!" Leng Qirui agreed without thinking.

Seeing classmate Leng self-assured of his victory, Zhong Nuannuan wanted to face palm.

Could he stop being so naive?

Could he stop simply blowing up like a firecracker?

“Big Boss, wait for me here, I’m going to test my skills against classmate Leng Qirui.”

Leng Qirui looked at the eager Selina, and said to Zhong Nuannuan, “First of all, she was the one who issued the challenge, if I beat her to tears later, don’t blame me!”

Zhong Nuannuan smiled gently. “How could I! For Uncle Leng’s sake, I won’t blame you.”

It was rare for the T-Rex to show a gentle smile to him, and this stunned Leng Qirui a little. Before he returned to his senses, Selina had already dragged the back of his collar into the small forest nearby.

Zhong Nuannuan walked to the far corner of the wall, then turned around and walked in.

Yang Yi was frowning and fiddling with his phone in the alley. When he suddenly saw Zhong Nuannuan appearing in front of him, he had a big shock.

Although he did not deliberately hide his whereabouts, with his skills, it was easy to hide from students like Zhong Nuannuan.

He looked at Zhong Nuannuan with astonishment; he had even been completely unaware of her approach until her appearance right in front of him. Yang Yi’s mouth gaped, clearly stunned speechless.

As a result, Zhong Nuannuan spoke first.

Only

“I see that you’re a little preoccupied today, did something happen?”

She knew that Chi Yang had secretly trained a group of people, and these people only obeyed him. Yang Yi was probably one of these people.

He would also take part in the country’s affairs, but would only obey Chi Yang’s orders, and was not part of the nation’s military. Therefore, for Yang Yi, apart from emotional matters, everything that bothered him should be related to Chi Yang.

Chi Yang went out to execute his mission today, and she had no clue about what the mission was, or where he was going to carry it out.

Moreover, her heart had been uneasy since morning, which made her feel very annoyed and gave her bad premonitions. Thus, she could not help but ask when she saw Yang Yi like this.

Yang Yi was even more dumbfounded after hearing what Zhong Nuannuan said.

Not only had his whereabouts been discovered by Zhong Nuannuan, but Zhong Nuannuan, who had never even glanced at him before, knew that he was not himself today!

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 384: Worried About Big Brother Chi Yang

Yang Yi was so shocked that he only recovered after a while.

“Oh, it’s nothing. It’s just my personal business.”

Yang Yi quickly turned off his cell phone display.

However, before the screen turned black, Zhong Nuannuan had already seen that Yang Yi was a hacker, and he seemed to be tracking something.

Zhong Nuannuan smiled gently and asked, "I won't ask you anything else. Can you tell me whether the mission Chi Yang is participating in is dangerous?"

When Chi Yang was mentioned, Yang Yi's eyes were filled with admiration.

"Even after following Big Boss for so long, I've never seen him get injured before. No matter how hard the mission is, Big Boss is always able to escape safely, and even managed to remedy the situation in many dangerous tasks. Therefore, even if the tasks are dangerous, Big Boss will definitely be able to complete his mission successfully and make a full retreat."

Thinking about Chi Yang's head injury and the scene of him dying for her in her past life, Zhong Nuannuan felt slightly dazed.

Was this how he shouldered the trust of his subordinates toward him?

He made everyone think that he was a superman, that he was omnipotent and invincible.

However, they all forgot that he was also a man made of flesh and blood.

He could also get injured and die.

Looking at the firm belief in Yang Yi's eyes, Zhong Nuannuan felt helpless. She did not know whether it was good or bad that these people trusted in Chi Yang so deeply.

"Okay then, will you know if his mission is completed?"

Yang Yi thought for a while, then nodded.

"Then can you inform me of his situation once you get any news?"

"If Big Boss has really completed his task, the first thing I'd do would definitely be to let you know that he's safe."

Zhong Nuannuan nodded. She could only put this matter aside for now.

After all, it was impossible for her to find out what mission he was executing.

"By the way, if you're busy, you can go off on your own. You don't have to follow me all the time. My friend has a black belt in Taekwondo, and she has the ability to protect me."

When Yang Yi heard this, he immediately stood up straight. "Protecting Miss Nuannuan is the task assigned to me by Big Boss. Before Big Boss left, he was most worried about Miss Nuannuan, so please don't make things difficult for me, Miss Nuannuan. Until Big Boss comes back, I must follow Miss Nuannuan at all times to ensure your safety."

"Okay, I won't make things difficult for you."

Seeing that Selina had already walked out of the grove within the span of a few minutes, and that Leng Qirui did not follow after her, Zhong Nuannuan walked out of the alley.

"How is he?"

When she glanced into the woods and saw no signs of movement, Zhong Nuannuan felt slightly worried.

"Don't worry, I didn't maim him."

Lying in the grove, Leng Qirui could not get up at all. His body completely sore, as if it had fallen apart; he was at a loss for words.

Looking at the rustling grove above his head, Leng Qirui felt too heartbroken for tears.

He did not understand why the girl, who looked so slender and weak, had such explosive power when fighting.

Only

In order to ensure that other people would not lay their hands on Leng Qirui, Zhong Nuannuan and Selina sat on the chairs outside the grove and started to chat.

"You've managed to investigate the matter, right?"

"Yeah." Selina nodded. Thinking about the truth of the matter, she became slightly reluctant to reveal everything.

"Say it."

"Big Boss..."

Thinking about the big boss' hope for her home since childhood, Selina felt that she really could not express herself.

"It's okay, just say it. In truth, I don't care about anything else except for Chi Yang and you guys."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 385: Dou Dou

"Really?" To be honest, Selina had been dubious until now. She was most afraid of big boss saying that she was fine, but secretly feeling anxious.

"Yeah." Zhong Nuannuan raised her lips slightly. "Why would I lie to you? Am I the type of person who won't speak my heart?"

She was not.

Thus, Selina told her all the information she and Aiden had found during this period.

It turned out that when Zhong Qianqian was three years old, and when she was only two and a half years old, Zhong Qianqian went to the hospital for urgent medical treatment due to acute abdominal pain. At that time, the doctor diagnosed her condition as appendicitis, but Zhong Qianqian still had severe pain after her appendix was cut off.

The medical conditions at that time were completely different from now, and there was no way to diagnose her condition instantaneously.

By the time Zhong Qianqian's leukemia was detected, it was already the third day after her operation.

The number of her white blood cells, which were already not high to begin with, rose sharply on the second day after her operation. The normal value of white blood cells should be below 10,000, but hers had already surged to 140,000 on the fourth day, and she was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia.

Back then, Jiang Shuwan immediately took the blood samples of herself, Zhong Kuijun and Zhong Nuannuan to the hospital for comparison. As a result of the comparison, they found that Zhong Nuannuan and Zhong Qianqian's hematopoietic stem cells could be paired.

However, she was only two and a half years old at that time, and with the medical technology available during that period, children at the age of two and a half years old could not donate bone marrow. Under normal circumstances, only people between 18 and 55 years old could undergo such an operation.

However, Jiang Shuwan ignored the medical conditions and her physical condition at that time, and insisted on using her hematopoietic stem cells to save Zhong Qianqian.

Zhong Qianqian's operation was successful, but on the other hand, Zhong Nuannuan became seriously ill as a result of her hematopoietic stem cells being almost drained.

This was why the DNA similarity between her and Zhong Qianqian reached 100%.

the hematopoietic stem cells in Zhong Qianqian's body had been donated by her, so the DNA of the healthy blood made from hematopoietic stem cells was actually hers.

The Nangong Family must have done DNA testing when they recognized Zhong Qianqian back then but never suspected that Zhong Qianqian might have received blood before. Because Zhong Qianqian's DNA was already exactly the same as hers, paired with the crescent jade pendant, the Nangong Family became completely sure that Zhong Qianqian was their child.

However, hematopoietic stem cells could only change the DNA of human blood and their immune system, but could not change the DNA of muscular and tissue cells.

This was why DNA test reports showed that she and Zhong Qianqian's DNA were the same when she first used Zhong Qianqian's hair, and when she took a blood sample from Zhong Qianqian's muscle tissue the second time, it showed that her DNA similarity with Zhong Qianqian was only 67%.

Only

This was because the roots of hair were connected to capillaries on the human head, but the blood used during the second test was drawn from muscle tissue.

After listening to Selena's report, Zhong Nuannuan flashed a stunning smile.

Selina looked a little dazed as she watched her.

Big Boss was so beautiful and charming!

Looking at the big boss' smile, she imagined red spider lilies in full bloom after sunset, soon covering the mountains and plains completely with these beautiful flowers that represented death.

The Zhong Family was done for!

"Since I saved Zhong Qianqian, I thought I'd be regarded as a savior. Still... Jiang Shuwan never abandoned me in the past. She always nurtured me, and in my memory, she has always treated me very well. Why did she abandon me after I gave Zhong Qianqian a bone marrow transplant?" Zhong Nuannuan did not understand.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 386: Inheritance

"Big Boss, this matter completely disgusted me. You know what, Nangong... Well, your biological mother, and my aunt, knew that she wouldn't be alive for long, but she didn't trust Zhong Kuijun and Jiang Shuwan, and feared that you'd suffer under their care. Hence, she found the investment department of the Swiss Bank and contacted a very reliable team of lawyers to supervise Zhong Kuijun.

"Zhong Kuijun can use the money she left behind to make investments and start a company. Her ultimate goal is to have you live a prosperous life, so all his profits belong to you. If he unfortunately loses 60% of the total amount, this team of lawyers can immediately freeze all of Zhong Kuijun's funds. "

"Isn't she afraid of Zhong Kuijun transferring her property?" Zhong Nuannuan asked, raising her eyebrows.

"That won't happen." After saying that, Selina took out the contract between Nangong Yu and the team of lawyers from her bag.

Not only did the contract state that all of Zhong Kuijun's funds would be frozen if there was a loss of more than 60%.

It even stated that once Zhong Kuijun and any senior management of the company were found to be suspected of embezzling funds, a verbal warning would be given the first time, 50% of total property would be frozen as a serious warning the second time, and for the third time, members of the lawyer team would confiscate all property under Zhong Kuijun's name.

The contract also stated that no matter what her daughter's name was, the team of lawyers must take a little blood from her on her birthday every year for DNA testing with reference to Nangongyu's own blood in the blood bank. This was to prevent the child from being swapped halfway through.

Only

Therefore, it did not matter what the child is called, what was important was that the child must have the same DNA as Nangong Yu.

The contract also raised some questions to be asked while taking blood samples. These questions were different every year, but the purpose was also to try to learn how happy the young Nuannuan was in the Zhong Family.

For example, the last time the real Zhong Nuannuan was questioned was on her third birthday.

The test questions were not like “How are you doing”, or “Does your father and mother love you, do they treat you well”, but——“What color do you like?”“Then how many clothes of this color do you have at home?”“Who is your good friend?”“What is the name of the kid who bullies you the most in kindergarten?”“Did your father help you teach this naughty kid a lesson?” etc.

Selina said, “Zhong Kuijun actually had the idea of taking these funds as his own from the very beginning, so he planned for a long time, and after several operations, he used external means to embezzle the company’s funds. The result was that just after the funds were embezzled, those embezzled funds were completely frozen. The team of lawyers also gave a warning to Zhong Kuijun. From then on, Zhong Kuijun no longer dared to have think of anything funny. Thus, he and Jiang Shuwan could only treat you well.

“Therefore, Aiden and I guessed that the reason why Jiang Shuwan did not abandon you before you were three years old and treated you as well as Zhong Kuijun was because auntie’s lawyer team needed to take blood from a living body for DNA check every year. They needed the inheritance left behind by auntie, so they would naturally treat you well and worship you like a bodhisattva. This led you to still think about your happy family even after being trafficked into the organization.

“However, after Zhong Qianqian got leukemia, the incident became a blessing in disguise, and she ended up having the same blood DNA as you. With Jiang Shuwan’s cruel personality, why would she bother to still accommodate you? ”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 387: Worried Heart

“Hence, you immediately became a stumbling block, and were sold to human traffickers.

“After you disappeared, Zhong Kuijun called the police to search for you, and he looked for you throughout the year after the incident. We can deduce from this that although he wanted to embezzle Auntie’s inheritance, he did not participate in your abduction.

“It’s a pity that there were very few security cameras in the year 1995, even after I hacked everything, I couldn’t find evidence of Jiang Shuwan’s dealings with the human traffickers. However, according to your description of the human trafficker, I’ve identified a few people who matched the description and appeared in the surveillance of People’s Park. I’ve already sent people to watch them, and will tell you immediately if something happens.”

Zhong Nuannuan nodded. “What about my mother? Have you found out the cause of her death?”

“I was only able to find out that Auntie previously gave birth at Second People’s Hospital in Jiang District. In every checkup before the delivery, all of Auntie’s physical indicators were good, but on the day of delivery, a young nurse mistakenly took a medicine that promotes blood circulation and removes blood stasis instead of a nutrient solution.

“This caused Auntie to bleed heavily during childbirth, and two lives were almost lost in one corpse. Later, although the doctor discovered this in time, changed the liquid, and kept both mother and child safe through a timely Caesarean section, this disaster caused Auntie’s health to become very poor.

“Thus, we immediately dug up news about the nurse. She was expelled from that hospital after that incident. Due to her bad reputation, her family pulled a few strings and allowed her to go to Sab as a tourist. Within 15 days of her departure, she married a person from Sab. Moreover, before she left the country of Camino, 10,000 US dollars suddenly appeared in her account.

Only

“Therefore, I can conclude that Auntie was viciously murdered. Although she did not die on the spot, it caused her direct damage. Big Boss, even if you want to go through legal channels in the future, we still have evidence at hand. If you manage to find this nurse and ask her to come forward to testify, the murderer will not be able to escape. However, I think that the person who hired the murderers must be Jiang Shuwan.”

Zhong Nuannuan shook her head. “The drugs that promote blood circulation and dissipate blood stasis can indeed cause heavy bleeding and even cause death to a pregnant woman, but you also said that the doctor discovered that something was wrong at the right time, stopped my mother’s bleeding and allowed me to be born smoothly. Hence, my mother’s death was definitely not caused by this. After all, as long as her hematopoietic stem cells were normal, the blood would be replaced after blood loss. However, she died shortly after giving birth to me, which shows that something else must have happened between the time of childbirth and her death. Therefore, focus on what happened before my mother died.”

“Yes, Big Boss! Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you something. In addition to her inheritance agreement with the team of lawyers, Auntie also had a will, and she asked the team of lawyers to give it to her daughter when she turns 18. Thus, the suicide note must be in Zhong Qianqian or Jiang Shuwan’s hands right now. It is possible that they’ve already processed the will.”

“I’ll take care of this myself. It’s fine if they’re still keeping it; If they’ve processed it, I’ll always be able to know the contents of the will before they die.”

“Okay.”

Selina watched Zhong Nuannuan’s microexpressions, for fear that she was currently sad.

After all, the warm and harmonious family that she had been thinking about for 14 years was so filthy in reality. This worried heart...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 388: Smile Under The Sunset

To be honest, Selina felt that if she had encountered such a thing and had her 14-year-old dream completely shattered, it would be a huge blow to her.

She might become so angry that she would go on a killing spree.

In truth, Zhong Nuannuan was also furious.

However, she was not angry at Jiang Shuwan, but herself.

Sh*t, she was the world's top mercenary, and had red wanted notices by military forces from various countries, but in her previous life, just because of the recognition of her parents' amiableness and kindness in her memory, and the fact that Jiang Shuwan looked a little like herself, she completely believed that she was her own mother. This caused her to become unguarded in the end, get drugged by Jiang Shuwan, taken back by remnants of the organization, and injected with muscle atrophy medicine. Not only was she incapable of saving herself, Chi Yang's life was also sacrificed.

Therefore, she was not killed by Jiang Shuwan, but by her own stupidity. Not only did her stupidity kill herself, it even killed Chi Yang.

However, fortunately God took care of her and allowed her to meet Chi Yang again.

In this life, everything was only just beginning, and the timing was just right.

"Big Boss, I've also investigated Prison Guard Wang, who bullied you in prison. The day before you entered the detention center, 200,000 dollars separately appeared in his mother, father, brother, uncle and aunt's accounts, with the total being 1 million dollars. It's estimated that the person was afraid of getting monitored for transactions above 250,000 dollars, so the money was divided among five people's accounts. The benefactor was a third-party platform which hid the first party's ID account, but we still managed to find it out anyway. The person who sent money via the third-party platform was Jiang Shuwan herself.

"Originally, Aiden and I wanted to arrest this Prison Guard Wang and bring him to you for trial, but half a month ago, this Prison Guard Wang mysteriously disappeared. I suspect that Jiang Shuwan had already dealt with him."

"Big Boss, Jiang Shuwan is just too much, Aiden and I strongly suggest killing her and Zhong Qianqian."

Zhong Nuannuan glanced at Selina. "Their death is certain. However, instead of immediately taking them out, I want them to be unable to die in peace, and live a life worse than death. Since they're so good at planning, I would like to see how hysterical she becomes after all her calculations come to nothing."

Selina's eyes lit up. "I'll do it, I'll do it, I'll do it! Big Boss, tell me, how do you want them to live a life worse than death? I'll help you carry out the specific tasks, and you can just watch on from the side."

Zhong Nuannuan smiled gently, and quietly told Selina of her plan. After hearing it, Selina laughed loudly. This was going to be fun.

"Big Boss, leave this to me. I'll first let Zhong Qianqian know that it's not so easy being the young wife of the Gu Family!"

Under the sunset, two smiling girls who looked youthful and completely harmless became the focus of the passing crowd.

However, no one knew that behind such a beautiful scene was two of the top 20 super mercenaries in the world.

Only

When Leng Qirui limped out while clutching his waist, he saw this perfect picture.

Under the sunset, in the evening breeze, on the grassland beside the bushes, two girls were smiling extremely brightly while sitting on the bench. Their different, yet equally exquisite smiling faces were like mountain flowers blooming in clusters, which made Leng Qirui's eyes blurry.

At this moment, there was only one thought in his head—

D*mn, the T-Rexes have collectively upgraded. The upgraded version of the T-Rex was covered with fresh flowers.

“Hey, you’ve come out? How do you feel?”

Leng Qirui was speechless.

This cursed woman! She was always asking things that should not be discussed!

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 389: Chi Yang's Protection

He did not want to care about these two women anymore. Thus, Leng Qirui decided to head back and calm down.

Selina grinned, stood up and walked towards Leng Qirui. Young Master Leng was so frightened that he staggered and almost fell backward as he lost his balance.

“You... What are you doing?” Leng Qirui got into a fighting stance.

It was not that he was scared, nobody knew what he had experienced in the grove just now!

This woman was just too terrifying!

He decided that he would never enter the woods with her ever again.

Selina wanted to laugh when she saw him like that. “Big Boss asked me to send you back. She said that it's not safe for you to go back alone.”

“There's no need! There's no need, there's no need!!!” Leng Qirui waved his hands in fright.

Sh*t, he was afraid that if this woman sent him back, he be left without a single unbroken bone.

“Stop talking nonsense! If I don't send you back, I won't be able to complete the task that Big Boss gave me. I'll be punished if I fail to complete the task, and you're not going to like it if I get punished!”

Leng Qirui looked at Zhong Nuannuan pitifully, and motioned with his eyes: 'Can I go back by myself? I'd rather encounter gangsters halfway and get beaten to death!'

Zhong Nuannuan was just about to ask to let him go back by herself, but Selina stood in front of him, blocking the eye contact between him and Zhong Nuannuan.

"Do you hate me?"

Selina narrowed her eyes slightly and looked at Leng Qirui with an unfriendly expression.

Leng Qirui's face twitched in pain. How could he dare to hate her? Under the threat of this T-Rex, the school bully, Young Master Leng immediately succumbed.

"I don't hate you."

"If you don't hate me, why won't you let me take you back? Hey, I haven't sent any man back home yet, it's your honor to have me take you home, okay?"

"Let's go home then, who's afraid of who?"

Although he spoke this in a rigid tone, the hairs on his body stood up straight.

He felt that he was just a fat little sheep in the eyes of that T-Rex; he was not even enough for her to swallow.

After being beaten, Young Master Leng no longer felt like a lion. Compared to Selina, he was just a fat little sheep who was not even enough to fill her belly.

After Selina and Leng Qirui left, Zhong Nuannuan decided to return to the apartment.

Walking to the entrance of the apartment, Zhong Nuannuan turned to look at Yang Yi, who was already focused on his work and hiding in the dark, then accurately found his position and appeared next to him again.

"Yang Yi, give me your phone number."

Yang Yi was lost for words.

He was doing a hidden task, okay!?

Could she not find him so easily every time? This made him feel that all his years of training had been for nothing.

Facing the commander's future wife, Yang Yi felt distressed, but he dared not say no.

However, since his phone number had been asked for, of course he could also get Zhong Nuannuan's phone number.

Only

Zhong Nuannuan called his number briefly and was about to go back to the apartment, but she was stopped by Yang Yi.

“Miss Nuannuan, in order to prevent any accidents from happening, can I install tapping devices at the entrance to your home and beside a few windows?”

Zhong Nuannuan was speechless.

“Don’t worry, this tapping device has a limited eavesdropping range, but I’ll know whenever someone enters your room. The biggest thing that Big Boss was worried about is your safety, I...”

Zhong Nuannuan, who was still frowning and unwilling, heard that this was to make Chi Yang feel at ease and immediately changed her mind.

“Okay. However, even if I install the tapping devices, if something does happen, will you be able to get to me in time?”

“I stay in that apartment, so if anything happens, I can rush over immediately.

“Also, in order to ensure your safety, you can also place a tapping device in your school bag, if anything happens in school, I can also rush there as soon as possible.”

Faced with Yang Yi’s meticulous planning, Zhong Nuannuan was at a loss for words.

Her Big Brother Chi Yang was really doing his best for her safety.

“I will put the tapping devices at home. As for the school bag... there’s no need for that. There are many people in school, and the security there is quite good as well, if someone is trying to hurt me, they’ll have to think twice about doing so in school.”

Yang Yi was too embarrassed to push his luck. He was already grateful enough for Zhong Nuannuan to put the tapping devices in the house. After all, it was his job to protect her.

Zhong Nuannuan glanced at the several tapping devices in her hand. They were very small, with a range of about 3 square meters. Indeed, as Yang Yi said, he just wanted to monitor the suspicious sounds coming in through the door and windows.

Meanwhile, Selina sent Leng Qirui back. She originally thought that he was hurt quite badly, so she felt that she should still help him.

Unexpectedly, she had just reached her hand out when Young Master Leng, who was walking with her, was so frightened that he moved aside, looking like an angry little wife after being raped. “What are you going to do?”

Selina rolled her eyes. “Help you, Big Brother!”

"I don't need your help!" Leng Qirui looked terrified, for fear that his hands and feet would be broken after being helped by this woman.

Selina was irritated by his submissive look.

She had never taken the initiative to help anyone before in all the years of her life. Now that she had taken the initiative to do this, Leng Qirui refused to let her help. How could that be?

Thinking of this, Selina's eyes widened. "Do you want my help or not?"

Gulp.

Leng Qirui swallowed a mouthful of saliva, then nodded proudly but guiltily. "Help me then."

Hence, Selina helped Leng Qirui to walk toward the Leng Family's private car.

"Young Master!"

Butler Wen saw Leng Qirui being helped, and ran up hurriedly with a look of concern.

"Young Master, what happened to you?"

Seeing that Leng Qirui's face was emotionless and did not answer, Butler Wen looked at Selina again and glanced at the world's top-tier brands all over her. Although her attitude was good, she still had an arrogant look on her face.

"You're my young master's classmate? What's the matter with my young master? How did he get this hurt?"

Selina looked at Butler Wen and said bluntly, "I beat him up."

Butler Wen's eyes widened. He instantly became furious and his whole body jumped into the air.

"What? How dare you hit my young master! Do you know who my young master is? My young master is so noble, yet you dare to beat him, are you sick of living?"

"You're sick of living!" Leng Qirui felt that Butler Wen had become jumpier recently.

"Young Master!" Butler Wen looked at Leng Qirui with an injured expression. He did not expect his master to side with others once again.

"Stop talking nonsense, help me in."

Only

"Yes."

Butler Wen hurried forward to help, trying to squeeze Selina away.

Unexpectedly, Selina helped Leng Qirui with one hand while pushing Butler Wen with the other, causing him to stagger.

"You..."

Butler Wen was just about to lose his temper when he saw Leng Qirui shooting a cold glance at him. Thus, he quickly shut his mouth in fright.

Why did he feel like the young master was being held hostage?

Sitting into the car, Leng Qirui automatically moved to the side, while on the other hand, Selina sat cross-legged like an arrogant idler, took out her cell phone, and started to play games.
