Chapter 421: The Powerful Woman

"We're from Yamato. We surrender!"

Sanji frowned. He looked at Zhong Nuannuan. "Q, they are from Yamato."

"Yeah."

As she was answering him, she shot another head with a bang.

"Stop! Didn't we say to stop?"

One of the men in black yelled in shoddy Luntanese language.

"Bang bang bang."

Three more people who were kneeling beside the man who yelled collapsed.

The others who saw that things were not going their way tried to run, but in the end, "Bang bang bang bang."

Anyone who stood up got shot. The mafias were so scared they could only press themselves to the ground while covering their heads.

Sanji said helplessly, "Yamato and Sab have always had good relations. If the people from Yamato died on our land, and there'll be trouble in Sab, I'm afraid that even the head of state..."

Sanji wanted to say that even the head of state would not be able to do anything. He finally got two special achievements, and it would be fine if he could stop Yamato from reacting badly. However, if not, he might lose his head.

"What do you mean they're from Yamato? They're just irrelevant people from the mafia. They won't be missed even if they die. Don't worry. I promise no one will cause trouble for your country."

"..." Sanji looked at Zhong Nuannuan in shock.

Was there anything this woman could not do?

Yamato valued its people. So many people died today. Even if it was just one person, the head of state of Mustapha would need to make an official statement.

This woman was manipulating the authority of Mustapha. What would she do to make Yamato remain silent.

Never mind. A minor character like him would not understand this kind of thing.

Phoenix Pavilion was the biggest mining company in Mustapha, but this did not mean they had a lot of mines. There were a lot of people with more mines than them. However, these people's mines either produced less or were completely empty.

Thus, people did not like to mine in Mustapha. They thought that Mustapha's land was barren.

However, this woman's Phoenix Pavilion had unlimited gems to be discovered around every corner.

She was not worried that something would go wrong with these extremely wealthy things, so he should not worry that Sab would cause trouble for Mustapha nor worry about the head of state blaming him for it.

With that, he decided he would follow this woman whole-heartedly.

When he thought about this, his attitude changed and he was being very courteous.

"Sure. I'll do everything according to your orders."

Zhong Nuannuan and her gang were satisfied with Sanji's attitude. So, they started shooting the people below like they were playing with monkeys.

Only

The remaining mafia members were furious. They rolled toward the directions of rocks and wanted to fight back.

While they were getting ready to fight, they were yelling in R-rated language. "B*stards! B*stards! We said we don't want to fight anymore! What do you still want? This is going overboard!"

Zhong Nuannuan aimed at the man who called her a bastard. Before she could shoot, that person's mouth was struck by a bullet.

Zhong Nuannuan almost could not hold in her laughter.

Because the person who swore at her was shot by her Big Brother Chi Yang.

When the other guy saw his friend being shot, he started aiming in Chi Yang's direction. However, he was shot in the head by Zhong Nuannuan.

Chi Yang walked to the guy who scolded Zhong Nuannuan and said in Yamato language while towering over him, "Do you think we'll stop just because you said so? Did you think about sparing the lives of the Camino soldiers when you tried to kill us?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 422: It Would Be Better If They Died!

"You said not to fight and now we're going overboard because we're still fighting? Then what do you call it when you people tried to kill us? Look at you guys. You started screaming because you can't win. Aren't you being lowly and cheap now?"

After he said that, he turned around and said to one of the special forces members, "Capture the remaining people."

There were less than ten mafia members left. When they heard that they were being captured to be interrogated by Camino soldiers, they felt joy.

After all, if they were going to be captured, they would be able to go back to Yamato alive.

However, as they were feeling this joy, “Bang bang bang bang!”

The four shots did not stop. Zhong Nuannuan shot the person who called her a bastard on both of his wrists and kneecaps.

After all, who told him to call her a bastard?

A hysteric scream rang out. Sanji could hear him despite the loud whirring of the helicopter blades. Then, his scalp started to feel numb.

This woman could not only land headshots on people, she could also shoot such a tiny target. She was able to smash someone’s kneecap and hit the nerves on someone’s wrists from such a distance.

Selina and Aiden looked at Zhong Nuannuan in adoration. They were not able to do that.

They could not do that no matter how much they practiced.

On this shaky helicopter that was more than 80 meters above ground, headshots were their limit. Kneecaps and wrists were too small; They had difficulty seeing them, let alone aiming at them while moving.

It was as if Chi Yang was thinking the same thing as Zhong Nuannuan. He yelled, “Why are you still standing there? Capture them, now!”

Then, the special forces captured all of the people angrily and walked out after Chi Yang.

The mafia members who were still alive because they had been hiding behind cover were pulled out by the special forces soldiers one by one. Now, they were back in Zhong Nuannuan’s vision.

Immediately, Zhong Nuannuan shot four times at each of them who appeared.

‘Go ahead, try to kill my man!

You think you’ll be able to go back to Yamato to start a new life after being interrogated by Camino?

Don’t even think about it!

Even if the interrogation ended and you’re sent back to Yamato, I’ll make sure you go back there in a casket!’

The remaining thugs were screaming non-stop. Since they did not know who Zhong Nuannuan was, they could only curse at Chi Yang and the soldiers from Camino.

Especially the two leaders. They were cursing extremely crudely.

They were the ones provoking and slaughtering the soldiers of Camino. However, they were acting like they were the victims, and as if the soldiers of Camino owed them. They cursed and swore loudly, feeling absolutely no shame nor regret for the fact that they had failed their missions.

These people would not be useful civilians even if Zhong Nuannuan decided to spare them. They were all heinous criminals. Naturally, Zhong Nuannuan would not tolerate these kinds of people.

She aimed at the two of them and pulled the trigger. Their mouths were destroyed by the bullets.

Only

The rest of them who could speak shut up immediately after seeing what happened.

However, in the next second, three shots were fired again.

The two who got their mouths destroyed by Zhong Nuannuan and the other guy whose mouth was destroyed by Chi Yang were all shot in the head.

Zhong Nuannuan's message was simple.

They wanted to bring these people back to be sentenced. Now that their limbs and mouths were useless, what use would they have?

It would be better if they just died!

On the other hand, the special forces soldiers did not feel sad when they saw that the mafias were dead. After all, this woman was the one who saved their lives.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 423: Who Is She?

The soldiers threw these people on the floor like garbage when they saw that they could not be saved.

At this moment, the rebels had been completely wiped out by the military. None of them survived.

When Chi Yang and his people got down the mountain, they found Sanji waiting for them with a few military officers from Mustapha.

When Chi Yang saw that Sanji was the leader, he almost could not control his facial expression.

After all, they did not get the approval when they snuck into Mustapha after they got the news that Viper was trading firearms in B City of Mustapha. They wanted to do it fast and they did not want to alert the criminals.

Despite Leng Jinpeng reporting this to upper management and making a deal with Mustapha, as the leader of the special forces, Chi Yang still felt sorry when facing the other country's military officers.

When he saw Sanji, Chi Yang's expressions softened.

Before he could greet the other party, Sanji greeted him with a smile on his face.

"Leader Chi, hello! I'm the commander-in-chief of this operation, Major General Sanji."

"Major General Sanji, thank you for helping us during our time of trouble."

Even though Sanji was not one of the major generals he was familiar with, Chi Yang was still nice to Sanji. After all, if Sanji did not show up, even if he could make it out alive, his soldiers would all have died here.

Thus, Chi Yang and his soldiers were grateful to Sanji.

Sanji replied courteously, "It's the least I could do. I'm happy to help."

He was so happy.

Not only did he finally surpass Venato and gotten his position, but he also used him as a springboard to wipe out the rebels that were troubling the head of state. He successfully intimidated the opposition and at the same time, caught the undiscovered traitor for the head of state.

None of the major generals in Mustapha were able to achieve what he had achieved.

However, as Chi Yang was talking to Sanji, his eyes wandered behind Sanji.

He was dispirited when he could not spot the woman who had helped him.

"General Sanji, there was a 20 something woman in the helicopter who helped us kill most of the mafia members. Where is she now? I want to personally thank her."

When Sanji saw that Chi Yang was clueless about the woman's identity, he felt resentful toward Chi Yang for failing to meet his expectations. At the same time, he felt envious.

He was liked by such an amazing woman and he did not know who she even was?

Only

What a stupid soldier!

Sanji reckoned that if he was Chi Yang and he knew Q liked him, he would risk his life to be with Q,

Looking at Chi Yang's confused face, Sanji could only answer, "Leader Chi, they already left."

"Left?" Chi Yang asked while frowning. "Why?"

"They left after the deed was done, naturally."

"Who is she? Why did she save me?"

Sanji smiled and said, "Leader Chi, you've misunderstood. She did not come here just to save you. She has beef with our vice president. When she discovered that the vice president was in cahoots with Major General Venato and was trying to use the rebels to steal our power, she showed the evidence of them working together to the head of state. The head of the state was furious and asked me to arrest Venato before promoting me to major general so that I could take over B City that very night.

Chapter 424: Global Senior Officer Pass

"Before this, I was just an aide-de-camp for Venato. I was not that competent in leading an army, so she said she'd help me. We only notice what was happening with you guys once we got to B City."

As per Zhong Nuannuan's orders, Sanji explained what was going on clearly.

Everything happened because Q had beef with the vice president. Also, saving the soldiers of Camino was a side-mission that had only occurred because she just so happened to be around.

However, as a general, it was a big mistake to tell the scandals of his own country to a senior military officer of another country.

Chi Yang did not ask any more questions when he saw that Sanji was not planning to tell him the truth.

“Which ambassador was responsible for contacting you guys?”

After all, they came into the country illegally. Even if the military of Mustapha had helped them, they still needed to find the ambassador to thank them for the aid.

“There are no ambassadors. We just ran into you guys by chance.”

Chi Yang frowned. “If no one contacted Mustapha, how do you know I’m from Camino? How do you know I’m the leader of the special forces?”

“I had no idea. When my people planned to wipe out everyone, that woman noticed you and told me your identity.”

“So Camino did not send people to Mustapha?”

“Yes. They did not.”

Chi Yang pondered for a while, even if Leng Jinpeng was the one who reported this immediately, with the attitude of the people in charge, aid would only arrive two days later at the earliest. Hence, he could be sure that Sanji was telling the truth.

“So, we’re just lucky?”

Sanji nodded. “Yes.”

“Regardless, we still have to thank you. We shouldn’t come into your country illegally without telling you. I wonder... When is the head of the state free? I’m so sorry for entering your territory presumptuously. I will explain myself to the head of state personally.”

Sanji was shocked. He thought, ‘You’re just a captain. Your rank is the same as mine before I got my promotion. Even though Camino is more powerful than Mustapha, you do not have the qualifications to meet the head of state if you’re just a captain. How thick-skinned are you?’

After Chi Yang finished talking, he took out a pass from his pocket and showed it to Sanji.

When Sanji saw this, his eyes almost fell out of his head.

This was a secret pass. It was known as a Global Senior Officer Pass.

This pass was only given out to people with special privileges. If one had this pass, they would be able to meet not only the head of state of Mustapha, they could even meet the president of Sab if they so wished.

Only

However, this pass was usually given out to anti-terrorism leaders or officers with the rank of admiral. Venato did not even have this back then. In Mustapha, only the most powerful admiral had this pass.

There was only one in the entire country!

He was just a captain. How did he get the Global Senior Officer Pass?

At that moment, Sanji looked at Chi Yang in adoration.

This was indeed the man Q was after.

He was so excellent at such a young age. Sanji wondered who this person was.

Sanji returned the pass to Chi Yang and said, "If you insist on explaining this operation to the head of state, I can make an appointment for you. However, he did not know about you people coming in. I'm the only one who knows that you people came here illegally. If you think it's too troublesome, it's fine if you don't tell him about this as I won't mention it to him either."

Chapter 425: Rebels from Camino

Chi Yang was stunned. He did not expect the head of state to not know about this.

Also, General Sanji offered to help them keep this a secret!

Under normal circumstances, they would need to offer something to shut their mouths, with this normally coming in the form of a monetary bribe.

However, Sanji did not even know him but was ready to keep this a secret.

At that moment, Chi Yang remembered that demon-like woman.

For some reason, he felt that she must be the one helping him.

Immediately, for some reason, Chi Yang no longer felt like he was indebted to Sanji.

This was a weird feeling. He did not even know why.

"If that was the case, I won't disturb the head of state. Do we need to do any paperwork or procedures?"

Chi Yang looked at the remaining members of the mafia and asked.

After all, Mustapha and Yamato were allies. They killed so many Yamato people here. If this was the case, Mustapha might not be able to offer an appropriate explanation.

"Procedures?"

Chi Yang saw that Sanji was confused and explained, "Them."

Sanji was surprised. "Who are they? What people? Are they not the rebels from Camino who escaped here?"

The surviving members of Yamato's mafia, "...! When did we become rebels from Camino? Idiots!"

The special forces from Camino snarled, "...! The major general is so dramatic. We bow down to him."

In the end, Chi Yang and his men got onto the ship to return to Camino under the shocked gazes of the Yamato mafia and the protection of the army from Mustapha.

There was no signal throughout the entirety of B City. Chi Yang could not contact Leng Jinpeng.

When he got onto the ship, he realized that the signal Sanji had arranged for them was completely blocked.

Chi Yang, who wanted to contact Leng Jinpeng and Zhong Nuannuan, was speechless.

On the other end, Leng Jinpeng had learned that the mission to stop the illegal trade of firearms was a trap. It was a trap that the rebels from Mustapha and Viper Organization had set for Chi Yang. Leng Jinpeng was so frantic that he almost started to foam from the mouth.

If Zhong Nuannuan had not performed thread embedding for him, he might have just collapsed from his panic attack.

It was 10 at night and the phone was still ringing.

At this moment, the phone rang again. Leng Jinpeng picked up the phone while suppressing the anger in his heart, "Hello?"

"Jinpeng? This is Ning Haoran."

"Hello, Admiral Ning. How did it go? Did you manage to get in touch with the general?"

"Oh, you're talking about Chi Yang, right? I heard it all from Wen Qi. Um... Jinpeng, you know Shi Family and Chi Family have beef. They're trying to keep this in the dark, so it won't be right for me to interfere, right?"

Only

"Ning Haoran, stop talking in official jargon with me!" When Leng Jinpeng heard this, he was furious.

"Eh, I'm explaining this to you, aren't I? How is this talking in official jargon?"

"Tell me. Are you planning to report this or are you planning on doing nothing?"

"Jinpeng, I told you, what can I do when the Shi Family is trying to keep this under wraps? I'm in a very tough position here!"

"Hmph." Leng Jinpeng scoffed. "Are you hoping for Ning Wenhao to die out there?"

"Hey! Ning Wenhao is still my nephew. Why would I want him to die? Don't spew nonsense!"

"Let me tell you, I don't know what you're planning right now, but don't forget, Ning Wenhao is not the only one on this mission right now, Chi Yang is there as well. If something happens to Chi Yang, who knows what the old marshal will say to the president."

Chapter 426: The Ship Loaded With Firearms

“Slam!”

Leng Jinpeng slammed the phone shut.

After he hung up, the phone rang again. He thought the Ning Family had called again after hearing his threat, so Leng Jinpeng yelled furiously into the phone, “Let me tell you, the old master is getting old. I won’t tell him anything and add more to his plate. So, I’ll give you 15 more minutes. Either you get me the pass, or I’ll take my men and charge into Mustapha! Ning Haoran, let me tell you this, when Mustapha declares war with our country, I’m sure I won’t be able to handle it alone. Therefore, I’ll drag you into this even if it cost me my life. Let me tell you again, if I can’t get the Shi Family, I’ll f*cking get you! I’ll look you in the eyes while I do it!”

“Why?”

“I don’t have the energy to drag both the Shi Family and Ning Family down. If the Shi Family is courting disaster, the old master will report immediately to the central authorities. I don’t care how they end up, so I’ll gladly drag the Shi Family down. I’ll target you and only you; I’ll make your life a living hell. Even if I can’t, I’ll do everything to pull you down from your current position. Do you f*cking believe me?”

Leng Jineng put on a stern and strict attitude when he was the instructor of the special forces. He yelled into the phone and he did not give the other party the opportunity to speak.

After a long while, the person on the other side of the phone asked, “I assume you were speaking to Ning Haoran the entire time just now. Did he not want to tell me this?”

At this moment, Leng Jinpeng finally heard his voice clearly. “General?”

“Yes.” Nangong Shu confirmed, then he asked, “I knew about this. This time... you people were the ones at fault.”

After Leng Jinpeng heard Nangong Shu’s voice, he suppressed his anger.

Only

“General, I was the one at fault for this incident. I was the one who asked Chi Yang and the men to march right into the danger zone. I am ready to take full responsibility for this.”

“Let’s talk about this later. Chi Yang is in B City in Mustapha now, right?”

“Yes.”

“I just got the news. B City has been taken over by the rebels. I believe the head of the state of Mustapha will take appropriate emergency measures. I called them before and asked if they needed Camino’s aid. I proposed that they took action as soon as possible. When they take action, we can simultaneously save Chi Yang through this operation. This way, we can prevent alerting Mustapha’s head.”

Leng Jinpeng's eyes brightened. "Yes, =General. There's something else I have to report to you."

"Tell me."

"We stopped a ship that was loaded with firearms in the dock tonight..."

Chapter 427: I Can't Let Anything Happen To Chi Yang

"Initially, Chi Yang was going after this batch of firearms and he'd tracked the origin of the firearms using the clues he discovered. However, they got there too early. Eventually, these firearms were stopped by the military. There are a total of 10 containers full of firearms."

When Nangong Shu heard Leng Jinpeng's news, he could not help but take a deep breath.

"Adding in the two containers of goods you confiscated in the warehouse last time out, this means you've halted a total of 12 containers of firearms from being distributed!"

"Yes."

"Good job."

Leng Jinpeng was feeling good after getting validation from the general. So, he requested, "So, General, please don't worry about Chi Yang."

"Don't worry. I'll try my best to help Chi Yang. Even if I don't care about you, he's the old admiral's only grandson. You don't have to be too worried. With Chi Yang's ability, it won't be difficult for him to escape from danger."

"However, with his personality, I'm scared he might lose his chance to escape as a result of trying to save his men."

Nangong Shu fell silent after hearing this. Chi Yang would definitely do something like this.

"Okay, I'll stop chatting with you. I'm going to get in touch with the people from Mustapha."

"Thank you, General!"

After he hung up the call, Leng Jinpeng finally calmed down slightly.

Two minutes later, the phone rang again. Leng Jinpeng picked it up immediately.

"Hello."

"Hello, Old Man Leng. Um... I called the general just now, but his secretary was the one who picked up. I'm risking offending the Shi Family..."

"The general called me just now."

"Ah? What? Hello? Hello?" Ning Haoran was shocked. He was about to ask more questions, but Leng Jinpeng had already hung up the phone.

The phone rang again. This time, it was from Nangong Shu. Leng Jinpeng asked impatiently, "How is it? Can we provide aid to them?"

Only

"The latest news in Mustapha is that the rebels in B City have been totally wiped out. Major General Venato and Vice President Badu who tried to take part in the elimination of the rebels were the leaders of the rebel army. However, while they were plotting this, Venato's assistant, Sanji found out about this, so he decided to join up with the head of state and deployed their army just in time. Not only did they eliminate the rebels, but they also caught Venato. In the meantime, Badu is on house arrest as ordered by the head of state."

"What about Chi Yang?" Leng Jinpeng did not care about these gnats. He only cared about Chi Yang.

"Chi Yang is in B City. If the rebels had been wiped out, Chi Yang will not be so stressed. Even if they're outnumbered by the mafia, with Chi Yang's ability, I believe he can take care of it. So, you have two choices now.

"Number one, I can authorize you to get in touch with the newly appointed General Sanji. You can join forces with Mustapha to save Chi Yang. However, you might get the corresponding punishment. After all, our special forces were endangered because of your strategy department failing to obtain proper information. Number two, trust Chi Yang, and wait patiently; Wait for him to come back with the special forces."

"I'm going to say number one." Leng Jinpeng chose the first proposal without hesitating.

Leng Jinpeng continued after sensing the other party's silence, "It's fine if I am punished. I can't let anything happen to Chi Yang."

"Okay then."

Chapter 428: Fishy

Nangong Shu replied in regret, "After you get in touch with L Country, and they contact us, I'll take care of you publicly. Even though I'll go easy on you, you should know that the Shi Family is growing more powerful by the day. If they decide to take this and run with it..."

"General, I'm happy that you're willing to help Chi Yang. The strategy department is indeed at fault. It's all my fault. So, as long as Chi Yang comes back safely, I'll be willing to accept any punishment the president wants to impose on me. I'll also stop Chi Yang when that happens. I won't let him cause trouble for you."

"Okay. Then please jot down General Sanji's number and get in touch with him."

"Alright, thank you, General."

After he hung up the phone, Leng Jinpeng did not waste any time calling Sanji.

At this moment, Sanji had returned to the headquarters of the commander-in-chief. After some tinkering, he got the phone there to work.

When he heard that the call was from Chi Yang's superior, the commanding officer of the military base in Jiang City, Sanji's arrogant attitude changed completely.

After kicking everyone out of the commander-in-chief's office, Sanji said, "Commander-in-chief Leng, don't worry. Chi Yang and his men are fine. Three of them are hurt pretty badly, but I already asked the doctor to have a look at them and bandage them up. They'll be fine after some rest. As for Leader Chi, he's amazing. He's not hurt at all after being surrounded by so many people. His strength was impressive; Camino's army is powerful indeed!"

After Leng Jinpeng made the call, he told the other party his name and was about to promise them numerous benefits so that the other party would help him. However, the other party started rattling off and told him everything about his special forces before he could say a word.

"Oh right, since the communication and internet service in the entire B City was down, Leader Chi could not get in touch with you when he left. Since you called me, Leader Chi asked me to tell you that he and his men are all fine. So please don't worry."

When Leng Jinpeng heard that Chi Yang and his men were safe and sound and were on their way back, his dangling heart finally settled down. He thanked Sanji repeatedly.

Sanji immediately replied, "No need! No need!" After all, the person most responsible for this was his employer. He only got to where he was because of his employer.

"General Sanji, we were clumsy. The Camino military will surely compensate you."

"No need! Really!" Sanji quickly rejected the idea.

Then, he said in a small voice, "The head of state did not know that Leader Chi was in B City. Now that he has left, just pretend that none of this ever happened. It'll be much more convenient for everyone."

Leng Jinpeng, "..."

Only

Leng Jinpeng had been a military officer for a long time and had shared relations with all kinds of people from different countries. Despite this, this was the first time he had met such an honest and straightforward general.

Not only did he save Chi Yang and allow him to return safely, he did not even want any form of compensation from Camino. Even better, he had helped them dodge a bullet!

Why did he feel that something was wrong with this free lunch?

"I'm sorry, I have to ask, you're General Sanji, right?"

Sanji, "..."

Leng Jinpeng was not paranoid, but why did this look and sound so fishy?

Even though Mustapha and Camino were neighboring countries, Mustapha was loyal to Sab.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 429: The Return Of Chi Yang

They were always an obstacle to Camino, let alone in urgent times. Shouldn't they be hitting them when they were down at a time like this?

"Commander-in-Chief Leng, I am indeed Sanji. If you don't believe me, you can ask Leader Chi Yang when he gets back. He boarded the ship an hour ago and should arrive at Jiang District's port in about an hour."

Sanji had already said this, so there was no reason for Leng Jinpeng to not believe him.

"Then I shall thank you, General Sanji. I, Leng Jinpeng, owe you for this. If you're in any trouble in the future, as long as it's not illegal, I'll do my absolute best to help you."

Leng Jinpeng knew Chi Yang must have helped Sanji too, so that was why he was conceding. Even so, Leng Jinpeng was willing to thank Sanji.

Because Sanji kept this in the dark, the head of state of Mustapha would not ask for an explanation from Camino. Hence, the general would not punish him.

Thus, he was willing to owe Sanji a favor.

Under any normal circumstances, the other party would accept this.

However, Sanji rejected this graciously, "No, no, no! Commander-in-chief Leng, I accept your kindness, but you don't owe me anything, so you don't have to thank me. If there's anything you need help with in the future, we'll talk about it. I inadvertently saved Leader Chi this time, so I can only say I did it because it was convenient for me to do so. You don't have to be grateful to me, Commander-in-chief Leng."

On the contrary, if Chi Yang was not there and if Chi Yang did not come to Mustapha, his employer would not have appeared. If his employer did not go to save Chi Yang, he would still be Venato's dog.

Venator might even have killed him if he found out that he had overheard his secret.

He did not do anything and he became the star of Mustapha; He became rich because of his employer. If this was the case, how could he go and reap any goodies from the man his employer likes?

He wanted to get some form of reward, but he was afraid that if he did, his employer would be upset and she would have him experience the same fate that befell Lieutenant General Nelson and Major General Venato. That would be the worst thing that could happen.

Sanji's mindset was orthodox. Since he got such a big piece of the pie, he would not try to ask for more. If he pushed his luck, it would be a tragedy if his pie was taken away from him.

He was sure that the day his employer stopped supplying him with pie would be the day he was destroyed.

Leng Jinpeng and Sanji exchanged courtesies for a long while. Leng Jinpeng felt that General Sanji was a straightforward and honest man, so he insisted that he owed Sanji a favor, or else he would feel uneasy. On the other hand, Sanji kept on rejecting over the phone, causing him to sweat from frustration.

In the end, Leng Jinpeng could not win against this honest and just general. Thus, he hung up the phone after thanking him profusely.

After he hung up the phone, he got Chi Yang's call.

"Commander-in-chief."

Only

"Chi Yang? How are you? Are you on your way back?" Leng Jinpeng asked emotionally.

"Yeah, we're in the sea of Camino now. We have three critically injured men on our side. There were no casualties."

When he got Chi Yang's answer, Leng Jinpeng collapsed on the chair weakly.

His restless heart finally settled down.

"Alright, I'll get someone to provide support at the port."

"Okay."

Chi Yang stood at the bow of the ship and put back his phone. His long and lean body was facing the wind as the moonlight shone on his firm and muscular body, casting a long and clear shadow on the splint.

Chapter 430: Muah

On his handsome and chiseled face, his long and narrow eyes flickered, filled with unreadable emotions.

After a long time, he picked up his cell phone again and made a call to the apartment.

The phone rang four times, and Chi Yang was almost about to hang up when there was a sudden movement on the other end of the phone.

Chi Yang could hear the phone being picked up from the bedside, and because the owner could not hold it firmly, it fell to the ground with a bang before being picked up again.

"Hey—"

A bewildered voice rang out, and although no one could be seen, Chi Yang could already imagine the cute look of his fiancée's confused face; her eyes closed, and with a few strands of hair stubbornly sticking out of her head, looking like a sleeping cat who had been forced to wake up, with a helpless gaze in her eyes that had yet to come into focus.

"Nuannuan."

Chi Yang's voice rang out softly in the dark night, soon drowned out by the waves of the sea. However, Zhong Nuannuan still heard it.

Her initial confusion and laziness was instantly replaced by joy. "Big Brother Chi Yang!"

Hearing the little girl's loud and joyful voice, the serious look on Chi Yang's handsome face could not help but raise into a beautiful smile that could even anger the gods above.

"Yeah. I'm sorry I've disturbed your sleep."

"Don't worry, don't worry about it! It really doesn't bother me at all! Big Brother Chi Yang, why are you free to call me right now? Did your mission go smoothly? Was it dangerous? Why aren't you sleeping yet at this late hour?"

"There was no danger, and the mission has been successfully completed. I'm on my way back now."

"Really?"

On the other side of the phone came Zhong Nuannuan's happy cheer, which was so loud that it could almost punch a hole through the ceiling.

"Yeah."

"Have you eaten dinner then? How much longer before you get back? I... Should I go to the supermarket to buy you two boxes of instant noodles?"

Chi Yang did not know whether to laugh or cry.

He knew that his Nuannuan did not know how to cook. However, he was very happy that she had the intention of buying him two boxes of instant noodles at this time.

"It's okay Nuannuan, I went to another country today, and I'm just on my way back into the country now. I have to report to the military base after I return, so I can't come back tonight. I just couldn't rest well, and was afraid you'd worry about me, so I decided to give you a call."

"Then how much longer before you return to the country?"

"About an hour more."

"You should hurry up and sleep then, if you can't fall asleep, you can also close your eyes and rest your mind. You'll definitely have to report to work when you come back later, and there'll be many things for you to do, so you should take this time to rest."

"Okay. You rest well then."

"Okay, I'll also come to the military base to accompany you after school tomorrow."

"Sure. Muah."

"Pfft..."

Zhong Nuannuan did not have the time to react, and when she suddenly heard such a cold and serious man like Chi Yang say "Muah" to her, she instantly snorted.

Only

Oh my, this scene was so weird!

Chi Yang raised his eyebrows. "What's wrong? Didn't you say that we have to say 'Muah' as a matter of principle whenever we say goodbye? Have I used it wrongly?"

"No! You're right!" Zhong Nuannuan immediately replied in the affirmative.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you have to say 'Muah' to me every time we say goodbye in the future."

Chi Yang's eyes were glistened with joy, and he obediently said, "Sure."

After hanging up the phone, Zhong Nuannuan exhaled.

She knew that with Chi Yang's powerful powers of observation, he would definitely have suspected her and called her as soon as possible.
