Chapter 471: Violence

Yet, she was willing to show such a haughty look.

Selina felt a deep, stinging, and bitter emotion rising from within her.

Therefore, under Jiang Hongyi's extremely hopeful gaze, Selina stretched out her hand, and just as he thought he was going to slip the ring on, she slapped him right in the face.

The slap did not appear to be too hard, but Jiang Hongyi, a man with a large build, was knocked off his knees and flew over a meter away.

The students were stunned.

What in the world...

Was this not too violent?!

Even if she did not like Jiang Hongyi, she did not have to be so rude to him, right?

Jiang Hongyi's face instantly swelled up to the size of a pig's head. He propped himself up and looked at Selina dumbfounded, unable to understand why she had hit him.

"Regardless of my status, even if I'm impoverished, you're willing to be my solid support?"

Selina repeated Jiang Hongyi's words as she slowly walked to the diamond ring, and stepped on it with her foot. With a seemingly effortless step, she cracked the ring into half, breaking the bezel where the diamond met platinum.

"When the school board personally went through the enrollment procedures for me that day, you must've happened to see it, right? You knew that my identity was something else, so where did you get the audacity to claim that you'd be my backer? You even said you won't despise me even if I'm poor. I despise you... I really despise you! I feel dirty even with you standing in front of me, do you know that?"

She looked at the man in front of her. How dare he bully her big boss together with Jiang Shuwan! When she recalled that her big boss had even give them a bone marrow transplant, she really felt like killing Jiang Shuwan and everyone in the Jiang family.

Jiang Hongyi got up, whereby his original admiration was replaced with anger and resentment. He had always been a chauvinist, so he immediately yelled at Selina, "B*tch, you're ungrateful and shameless! It's your blessing for me to fancy you, you..."

Before Jiang Hongyi finished speaking, Zhong Qianqian rushed up, covered his mouth and prevented him from speaking further. Due to her excessive force, her fingernails dug into Jiang Hongyi's red and swollen cheeks, causing him to jump in pain.

Only

Jiang Hongyi was furious. He tore apart Zhong Qianqian's hand that covered his mouth, then pushed her away.

"What are you doing? She treated me like this, but not only did you not help me out, you even covered my mouth! Zhong Qianqian, if you're my sister, immediately ask Gu Mingzhe to find out their family details, and then punish this b*tch. I want their family to go bankrupt!"

At first, the onlooking students felt that Selina's actions were wrong and excessive, but now they felt that Jiang Hongyi was not necessarily a goody-two-shoes himself. Even so, most of them still felt that Selina deserved it and should not have been so savage.

If others confessed to you, you did not have to accept them, but there was no need to beat up the other party and trample on their gift.

"Brother, stop talking!" Zhong Qianqian could not take it and shouted, almost angered to death by Jiang Hongyi's attitude.

After Zhong Qianqian roared, she gave a 90-degree bow to Selina. "Selina, I'm sorry! I also apologize to you on my brother's behalf! Be the bigger person, and please forgive my brother! My brother is also pursuing you because he likes you! It's not wrong to like someone, is it?"

Selina looked at Zhong Qianqian and sneered. "Yes, it is not wrong to like someone. Hence, if someone else likes me, even if he's a beggar, I can just ignore him. However, if that person is related to you and the Jiang Family, I'd feel disgusted, and I won't be able to control my hands and feet."

Chapter 472: Boldness

The onlookers on the side immediately heard that there was something more to this.

It turned out that the Zhong Family and Jiang Family had offended Selina before this. No wonder the reaction.

Seeing the surprise in Jiang Hongyi's eyes, Selina sneered and asked, "Do you really want to know why I hate you so much?"

Jiang Hongyi was dumbfounded!

"It's because on my first day of school, I went to see my good friend Zhong Nuannuan, but because of my good relationship with Zhong Nuannuan, Zhong Qianqian brought her pack of dogs over to bully me. One of her dogs told me that Zhong Qianqian will soon be the future young mistress of the Gu Family, while I look like a vixen and have the appearance of a home-wrecker, such that a person like me will never sleep on someone's bed as a legitimate wife. Even if I get to climb into a man's bed, I'll always be a home-wrecker."

Jiang Hongyi was speechless.

The onlooking students thought, '...What the hell, is this person a lunatic?'

Selina continued to smile as she asked, "Do you know why they're here to apologize to me now?"

"It's because after I was scolded by her, I ordered the Gu Family to be boycotted, so that all suppliers of the Gu Family's real estate, hotel, and jade jewelry stores would stop supplying goods. In this way, not only will the Gu Family be removed from Emperor District within three months, they'll probably be forced to return to Jiang District, where even they'll be unable to regain their foothold. Do you still want your sister to have her fiancé deal with me and make my family bankrupt?"

Jiang Hongyi cursed to himself.

Zhong Qianqian thought, 'I'm so sad, I want to cry!'

The onlookers thought, 'D*mn, they deserve it!'

"Choking the Gu Family to death is as simple as squashing an ant to death to me. You're just the son of some rotten group. Do you think I'll regard you properly?"

Jiang Hongyi's face turned pale after listening to her words.

"You even said you wanted to be my supporter. Where did you get the arrogance to think that you can support me?"

Jiang Hongyi's face blushed after hearing her words again.

"You're bringing disgrace onto yourself!"

After she finished speaking, Selina ignored Jiang Hongyi, turned to Zhong Qianqian, and gloated, "Oh, future young mistress of the Gu Family Enterprise, you finally got on a bed as a legitimate wife, but instead of enjoying your honor as a young mistress, you've come here to admit your mistakes?"

Only

Zhong Qianqian imagined herself stabbing Selina a thousand times, and when she thought of her own future, she finally swallowed her ego, and stopped her disgusting two-faced act.

"Selina, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have provoked you, let alone allow my friends to talk about you like that. Please, can you be the bigger person and forgive us?"

After Zhong Qianqian finished speaking, Wu Wenqian also stood up. "Senior Selina, I'm sorry, I was wrong! Please forget the misdoings of lowly people like us. Please forgive Qianqian!"

"Forgive? I'm sorry, I, Selina, don't have this word in my dictionary."

Zhong Qianqian cried, and apparently gave up. However, Wu Wenqian rushed to Selina and knelt down in front of her. "Then... What do I have to do for you to let the Gu Family go? Just say the word, and we'll definitely be able to do it."

Selina smiled gently. "I'm a woman of my word. In the past, I had said that I wanted to show you that it's nothing great to be the Gu Family's young mistress, and I did it. Hence, I also hope that classmate Zhong Qianqian can keep her word about what she had said before. If she comes to apologize to me one day, she should be ready to livestream herself eating faeces. Dear students, do you want to watch the future young mistress of the Gu Family's livestreaming herself eating sh*t?"

The students thought, 'Yes I do!' However, they dared not say anything out of fear of this woman.

Chapter 473: Cruel

Zhong Qianqian's face immediately fell, and as she looked at Selina with an incredulous expression, her tears began to flow.

"You... You... How can you be so cruel? I wasn't even the one who said those ugly words to you, she was the one who spoke like that about you, so why do you have to ruin my marriage, my future, and my happiness so viciously?"

"Tsk tsk, you're crying like a two-faced little b*tch, but unfortunately I'm not a man, so use do I have for your tears? Who told you to raise a pack of mad dogs that bite other? You all have this saying in the three-character classic, right? A father is to blame for his dog's faults, right?"

Zhong Qianqian and Wu Wenqian were speechless.

The classmates thought, '...Good literary talent!'

"Student Zhong Qianqian, if you want to apologize to me, just show your sincerity. Set up a live broadcast, tell us the channel, then I will organize your classmates and have them watch your broadcast together. Hahahahaha..."

After saying that, to the horror of Zhong Qianqian and Wu Wenqian, Selina laughed and left savagely.

Her exquisite face and enchanting figure made her look like a beautiful snake filled with dangers.

Selina no longer knew what Zhong Qianqian and Jiang Hongyi were doing outside.

At this moment, she had already returned to her seat and started her classes.

If it were not for the purpose of concealing herself for fear of being suspected by her brother-in-law, she would not have ever come to class on time. Thus, during classes, Selina would often ask Aiden to play games together to pass the time.

After a vicious fight, as a 'KO' sign flashed on the screen, Selina's lips raised into a smile.

Very soon, Aiden sent over a text message.

[What the fck! Selina, did you cheat or did you hire someone to play the game for you?]

[Tsk, am I the kind of person who would ask someone to help me in a PK match? Hee hee hee, how is it, did you see how good I am? Before your strength improves, I'll take on all the captain duties from now on!]

[Selina, honestly, explain to me, why did you improve so quickly? We haven't seen each other for only a few hours! Your improvement is a little unscientific!]

Feeling Aiden's grievances on the other end, and his imminent threat of sending her a bomb, Selina did not tease him, and told him very honestly and proudly, [I met 'Talented B*tch' yesterday. He was the one who taught me how to fight this dungeon boss "hand in hand".]

[...!!!!!!!]

Only

After sending this text message, Aiden sent another.

[Selina, think of our brotherhood of many years, if you don't introduce him to me, let's not be siblings anymore!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!]

Upon seeing Aiden's message, Selina's heart burst with joy.

[Come on, this god is a very cold person and doesn't like to talk. I've only just met him not too long ago myself. If you want to meet him, wait until I get more acquainted with him.]

[F*ck! Are you still my good buddy who'll follow me through life and death? Although you're not familiar with him, it doesn't mean you can't introduce me to him! Invite him out and bring him to Tianheng Holdings, I'll go shopping with him and help him pay for everything!]

[Tsk tsk, am I not a shareholder of Tianheng Holdings? Can't I be a bill-paying princess too? Let me tell you, he's from a well to-do family, so do you think he lacks any of your material goods? Look at all the great gods doing live broadcasts on the Internet. Have you seen him livestream before?]

[That's true too... Then... Can't he see me as a good friend for your sake?]

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 474: Where's Your Integrity?

[Well, no. He doesn't like meeting outsiders, and he likes to stay at home. Well, after I get him settled, you can see him whenever you like.]

[Then how are you going to settle him? How long will you take to get him ready?]

[Of course, I'll be sleeping with him! However, when it comes to time... that topic is still open for discussion.]

Thinking to herself about having a May-December relationship, and recalling Leng Qirui's weak appearance after being bullied by her, Selina could not help but stick out her tongue and lick her lips.

The complete image of a female devil.

Aiden: [!!!]

[Selina.]

[What?]

[Can you ask the god if he'd engage in gay s*x?]

[Aiden, where's your integrity?]

[As soon as I joined the game, my addiction to it became as deep as the sea, and since then my integrity became nothing but an afterthought.]

"Pfft! Hahahahaha..."

The teacher in front was still teaching, but Selina was already laughing out loud by herself in the back.

The teacher and students were lost for words.

After Zhong Nuannuan took Chi Yang back to the apartment, Chi Yang truly experienced the wonderful feeling of being cared for like a porcelain doll.

He originally thought that since it was normally so hard for him to be able to take a day off, he could make Nuannuan a good meal to reward her frightened heart, but his Nuannuan refused to let him prepare it.

After returning home, she made him lie down on the sofa and gave him a Shiatsu massage.

After a two-hour massage, the food takeaway arrived and they ate together. During this period, even the dishes that were slightly harder to wash were taken care of by his Nuannuan.

After lunch, he was ordered to take a nap.

Personally, he had never not this kind of order since the age of three. After all, in his mind, he had never even had a nap before.

In the end, he did not know what his little girl had done on his head, but regardless, shortly after he was pierced with the needles, he could no longer lift his eyelids. Eventually, he woke up at four o'clock in the afternoon.

This was completely unprecedented for him.

After he woke up, he found Nuannuan in his arms. After this, the two of them stayed in the bedroom whilst watching TV without even getting out of bed.

He felt that he was already fully recovered, but his Nuannuan did not allow him to do anything that might result in mood swings.

This forced him to suppress the burning lust inside him. The two of them slept together on the sofa and watched TV in a tense atmosphere until Leng Jinpeng suddenly called him.

Leng Jinpeng knew that Chi Yang had a sudden headache, but did not know that he had a cerebral hemorrhage the night before. Since all the officers above the captain level at the military base had left to be investigated, all the departments in the military base lost their leaders, and one could only imagine the chaos that would ensue.

After sensing the heavy pressure on Leng Jinpeng's side, Chi Yang offered to go to the military base to accompany him in handling the military affairs.

Thus, the two could only say goodbye reluctantly.

Only

“Don’t move around too much after you go to the military base.”

Zhong Nuannuan could not help but tell him before he left.

“Okay.” Chi Yang’s resolute and handsome face became extremely soft because of Zhong Nuannuan, and he leaned down and planted a gentle kiss on her lips.

“Also, although your two blood vessels have been merged together, I couldn’t sew them because you didn’t have a craniotomy. Don’t exercise too much during these next few days, and don’t participate in any training, otherwise it may cause the two blood vessels to burst apart.”

“Sure.” Chi Yang agreed to his wife’s request unconditionally.

“Is there anything else you want to tell me?”

“That’s all.” Zhong Nuannuan shook her head, then asked unwillingly, “You were called back even on your day off today. Will you be busy for a long time?”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 475: Reflection

Chi Yang used his fingertips to rub his fiancée’s plump, small face as his eyes filled with reluctance.

“I might be busy for a week. However, don’t worry, I will be in the military base and won’t go out on any missions, so nothing will happen.”

Although he had already guessed his Nuannuan’s identity in his heart, and knew that she understood exactly what he would be doing when he returned to the military base, he would not reveal what he knew.

Looking at the hesitation in his fiancée’s eyes, Chi Yang said, “Although I may not be able to come back to the apartment, if you miss me, you can come to the military base to look up me.”

Zhong Nuannuan’s eyes lit up. “Really?”

“Of course, I have to rest too, and you can even give the commander-in-chief acupuncture when you come over. I saw him stay up until midnight by himself yesterday, but his condition was still very good.”

“Okay. I’ll come to look for you tomorrow then. You’ll definitely be busy when you go back to the military base today, so I won’t go with you now.”

“Okay. Then you’ll stay at home alone and behave yourself. I’ll order you a meal for dinner, so you don’t have to randomly order takeaway.”

“I can order it myself.”

“I’ll order it for you. I know a shop that has tasty food.”

As soon as she heard that the food was good, Zhong Nuannuan, a dedicated foodie, happily agreed.

“Sure.”

As soon as he walked downstairs, he ran into Yang Yi, who was walking upstairs in a hurry.

Yang Yi had thought he was as good as dead when the people from the Wute Organization were about to cut off his head. However, a man wearing a Queen of Spades mask suddenly appeared, and then he was knocked out.

When he woke up again, he found himself in an abandoned demolished house.

There was nothing on him — the watch left to him by his big boss was not with him, nor was his phone. Originally, he wanted to use the public telephone booth outside to make a call, but to be safe, he decided to come back to the apartment and grab his own computer before looking for the commander-in-chief.

Unexpectedly, he ran into Chi Yang just as soon as he walked downstairs.

“Big Boss!” Yang Yi opened his eyes wide, thinking that he was mistaken.

Chi Yang nodded and asked, “Are you all right?”

He thought that if his big boss saw him leaving his post without permission, he would definitely blame him. Unexpectedly, he asked about his condition first.

Yang Yi’s eyes flushed slightly red. “Reporting, Big Boss, I’m fine. Big Boss, what about you?”

“I’m fine.” Recalling his fiancée’s rescue last night, Chi Yang’s eyes could not help but show a hint of gentleness.

“I’ve seen all of your videos; do you know what mistakes you made yesterday?”

Only

Yang Yi was so ashamed that he could not lift his head at that moment as he nodded. “I do.”

“I’m going to the military base now, and I want you to give me an 10,000-word reflection essay when I return.”

After saying that, Chi Yang left without looking back.

Yang Yi looked at the figure of his big boss leaving in amazement. He really wanted to know if the boss knew what he had done wrong?! How could he let him pass so easily with just a 10,000-word reflection???

After Chi Yang left, Zhong Nuannuan turned on her cell phone and used it for a while. Very soon, a missed call from Feng Shengxuan appeared on the screen.

Knowing that with Feng Shengxuan's temper, he would not want to go to bed if she did not take his call, even though it was only four o'clock in the afternoon, but before dawn in Sab, Zhong Nuannuan dialed the phone number. Sure enough, with only one ring, the call was answered.

"Nuannuan, you blocked me!!!"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 476: Sorrow

Listening to the sorrowful accusation on the other end, Zhong Nuannuan felt a shred of guilt.

Just a tiny shred.

"Sometimes it's inconvenient for me to answer, so I blocked all your numbers. If you encounter this situation in the future, you don't have to wait for me, I'll call you back as soon as it's convenient."

Feng Shengxuan was speechless.

He wanted to flip the table. He was furious. Inconvenient? Why was it inconvenient? Who was she with for this to be inconvenient? D*mn it!

The venom in Feng Shengxuan's heart had condensed and seeped out, frightening the middle and high-level leaders of the group enterprise.

They all felt that they could withstand the meeting in the early morning, but what they could not bear was the boss' viciousness that might kill people at any time.

However, when Feng Shengxuan's voice fell, his words sounded extremely gentle. "Okay, it's fine. As long as you call me back, it's fine."

"Did you call me to talk about something?"

"It's nothing, I just heard that you went to Mustapha with Aiden and Selina yesterday, and you even arrested Venato. Apparently, Venato had rebelled."

When Feng Shengxuan said this, he was not asking a question but rather, making a statement. At the same time, Zhong Nuannuan knew that when his call could not get through to her, he must have conducted thorough research of the situation there.

"Have you contacted Sanji?"

"Yeah." Feng Shengxuan replied, "I exchanged a few words with him, but you have a good judgement; Sanji is more suitable than Venato."

"Sanji has ambitions, but his ambition is not as large as Venato's, and his family is also not as well off compared to Venato's. In addition to this, when we suppressed Venato yesterday, we also let them know the final resting place of Lieutenant General Nelson, which also shocked Sanji. In short, we can at least be sure that he won't betray us for the next five years."

Feng Shengxuan could not help but laugh. "With you frightening him, forget the next five years, he definitely won't betray us in the next fifty years."

Zhong Nuannuan could not help but smile as she said, "Do you trust me that much?"

"Of course, who are you? You're the famous..."

"Big Brother."

Feng Shengxuan was just about to say it when Zhong Nuannuan stopped him aloud, and reminded him, "I'm already out."

Feng Shengxuan's breath stopped for a moment, and he then smiled gently. "Thanks to you, we're all out."

"Yeah."

"Why did you suddenly go to Mustapha yesterday?"

Only

Zhong Nuannuan knew about Feng Shengxuan's feelings towards her, so she did not want to deliberately cause more problems before getting married. She did not even plan to tell him about Chi Yang's existence before her marriage.

"The military base has a mission in Mustapha, and after I came to know about this by accident, I was worried about its impact on the mines in City B, so I went to check on them. Unexpectedly, I saw that Venato not only united the opposition forces to embezzle our mines in City B, he also wanted to use our wealth to declare war on the president of Mustapha. Thus, I dealt with him directly."

At this moment, Zhong Nuannuan could not see the gloomy expression and dark aura surrounding Feng Shengxuan's body, because what Feng Shengxuan said next sounded so normal.

"I see. If he dared to touch your things, then he deserves a fate worse than death."

"Yeah."

Although Feng Shengxuan was the eldest brother of their group, Zhong Nuannuan was the big boss of their group of six. She was notified whenever Feng Shengxuan did anything, whereas she did not need to report to anyone herself. Therefore, Zhong Nuannuan simply grunted her affirmation and no longer said anything.

Seeing that she was not speaking and sounded as if she was about to hang up the phone again, Feng Shengxuan spoke quickly.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 477: Support

"If you want to do anything, just go for it. No matter who you're dealing with, I'll support you unconditionally."

Zhong Nuan raised her lips; she was actually very dependent on Feng Shengxuan's pampering. After all, if she did not have the protection of Feng Shengxuan and Bai Liyue in the organization at the beginning, no matter how powerful she was, she would not have been able to stay alive.

Therefore, Zhong Nuannuan truly regarded Feng Shengxuan as her family, her brother, and even as the biggest backer in her life aside from Chi Yang.

Even so, she never forgot the words she should say.

"Big Brother, if you spoil me so much, you won't be able to find a girlfriend in the future. Even if you find one, she will get jealous. So, don't be so good to me, if I did anything wrong, you can still criticize me."

If this was the past, Feng Shengxuan would definitely have laughed it off, but now Feng Shengxuan was in a bad mood, and the gloomy, black aura that surrounded his body was so thick that it could almost condense into a solid. His repressed feelings were about to explode, yet, his reply sounded extremely gentle and fragile.

"You always knew about my feelings for you. I never forced you to like me the way I like you, I'm content just liking you silently. Can't I even do this? Must you strike me down just because of this?"

Hearing the other party's hurt voice, Zhong Nuannuan also felt distressed.

However, she knew Feng Shengxuan was a man who was extremely proud of himself. It was very possible that the only goal he had not achieved in his life was winning her heart.

Therefore, he had an almost alarming obsession towards herself.

When it came to people like this, although she knew she would hurt him, and also knew that she should not hurt him because he had been so kind to her, there was no other option.

Her love could only be shared with Chi Yang.

In her previous life, in order to get rid of Chi Yang, she did not explicitly refuse Feng Shengxuan's efforts at courting her. She discovered that this not only deeply hurt Chi Yang, but also hurt Feng Shengxuan, which led to her being unable to shake off his pursuit in the later stages.

Therefore, this time, she could not give Feng Shengxuan even the slightest glimmer of hope from the beginning.

"Big Brother, it's not that I want to strike you down, but matters like this must be made clear. I'm afraid you'll sink deeper and deeper into your feelings towards me, and eventually form obsessions, so I have to say this. Big Brother, I didn't like you before, I don't like you now, and I will never like you in the future. My feelings for you are as a friend from now until death — it is the same kind of love that brothers and sisters share. I'll be your relative, accompany you for the rest of my life, and be your support pillar. However, as for the love between man and woman, I'm afraid that that is simply impossible. Hence, I have to make this clear first to avoid you conceiving any expectations, otherwise you'll feel even more reluctant to let go."

On the other end of the phone, Feng Shengxuan was clutching his stomach. He was in so much pain that his face turned extremely pale, and sweat dripped down heavily from his forehead.

His lips were closed tightly, and his long and narrow phoenix eyes were filled with bitterness from the pain.

Only

He did not even know whether it was a stomachache or heartache.

The phone creaked as he clutched it in his hand.

“Since when did my stupid sister start to have such high EQ?”

“Maybe I was afraid that you’d be hurt more deeply, so I got the feeling that I should let you know in advance.”

Feng Shengxuan felt his stomach pain peak, and suddenly there was a surge of colic acid. With a “poof” sound, his stomach acid refluxed, and a taste of fishy sweetness poured out into his mouth from his esophagus, spewing out without warning.

“Big Boss!”

When a subordinate saw Feng Shengxuan suddenly vomiting blood, he was so frightened that he could not help but stand up and exclaim.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 478: Cruel an

Although the other subordinates were all shocked, all of them sat still and did not dare to speak.

Some of the blood was on the table, while some of it was still around his mouth. Feng Shengxuan stretched out his hand, causing the blood that had converged into a single rivulet to drip onto his slightly raised fingers. They left a stark imprint on his slender, white fingers before slowly sliding down his fingertips.

“Big Brother, what happened to you?”

Zhong Nuannuan had heard the subordinate’s cry and frowned.

“Did you vomit blood? Is your stomach in pain? Did you not properly take any of the medication I had prepared for you?”

“Who says I’m vomiting blood?” Feng Shengxuan’s sharp gaze swept across the meeting room. The entire room fell silent and no one dared to speak again.

“I heard you spurt as well as someone’s cry of alarm.”

“I was fuming from what you told me earlier, so I killed someone in the spur of the moment. When they saw me kill that person, they got scared.”

Zhong Nuannuan, “...”

Well, this was indeed something that Feng Shengxuan was capable of.

“You honestly didn’t spew any blood?”

“If I lied to you, I would be shot at random on the way out.”

Fine.

He made such an extreme promise that Zhong Nuannuan did not inquire any further.

“Even if you didn’t spew blood, you still need to take your medication properly, okay? Otherwise, you’ll develop stomach cancer in no time.”

Hearing Zhong Nuannuan’s concern for him soothed Feng Shengxuan’s heart—which had already been ravaged into a bloody mess.

“Don’t you dislike me? Why do you still care about me? Just let me die.”

The group of executives was already immune to such words that only an abandoned woman would say. In front of others, Boss Feng was murderously decisive. One could even say he was cruel and inhuman. Only in his younger sister’s presence was he a begrudging, abandoned woman.

Zhong Nuannuan was speechless. “Since when have I disliked you? You’re the most important family member I have. Why would I not care about you?”

Feng Shengxuan curled his lips—the blood outlining a devilish red grin—before miserably asking, “Then would you be sad if I died?”

Only

“Oh bah!” Zhong Nuannuan quickly dismissed his question, then cursed angrily, “Feng Shengxuan, are you itching now that you’ve lived the good life for such a long time? Don’t think I won’t kick your ass just because you’re older than me and because I call you big brother. Feng Shengxuan, I’m warning you, if I ever hear such words from you again, I’ll immediately fly to Sab and beat you up, you hear?”

Having been admonished, Feng Shengxuan immediately straightened out.

“Alright, I got it! How fierce! Who’s going to put up with a temper like yours? The man you’ll end up liking will probably reject you. I reckon I’m probably the only person in the world who won’t scorn you for being a temperamental woman.”

Zhong Nuannuan was silent for a moment, then responded confidently, “No way! The one I like—he’s bound to like me as much as I like him. No matter how I’m like, he’ll never spurn me.”

The other end of the call was silent for a long moment, after which Feng Shengxuan asked unhappily, “Do you already have someone you like?”

Originally this was the moment to come clean, but Zhong Nuannuan knew that if she admitted it, Chi Yang may have to face a boundlessly powerful opponent.

She did not want Feng Shengxuan and Chi Yang to be enemies, because these two people were the brother she grew up with and the man she loved most. For this reason, she would have to wait until she was already married before she could reveal the truth to him. This way, it would be too late, and she would make him give up completely.

Chapter 479: It's A Long Life

Thus, Zhong Nuannuan replied, "No."

On the other end, Feng Shengxuan's look—which had already become one of complete malice—returned to one of doting tenderness.

"No is good. No, that proves there's still hope for me?"

"Big Brother..."

Zhong Nuannuan was about to retort, but Feng Shengxuan was one step ahead of her, "Life is very long, and no one can predict the future. The future has the possibility of presenting any outcome.

"Just like you. When you were 3 years old, you were sold to the organization and watched those children who were much older than you die one after another in brutal competition. Did it occur to you then that you would be the odd one out among them to succeed and survive? Did you ever think that one day you'd be Queen alongside King? Did you ever think that one day, even King—the organization's leader—would be defeated by you; and you, at the age of 17, would destroy the largest international mercenary organization to become the king who controls the entire mercenary world?"

Zhong Nuannuan, "..."

"Life is full of countless possibilities. Before you or I die, nobody can determine if the future will go the way we want it to, right?"

"You're wrong!"

Zhong Nuannuan replied without even thinking.

Feng Shengxuan was slightly taken aback by her answer.

"Even though I was only 3 years old when I was abducted and sold to the organization, I had the will and confidence to survive, regardless of how scared I was. Whether or not you had saved me, I had the confidence that I would not be killed by those my age and even those older than me. Ultimately, I succeeded.

As for what you said—that until the moment of death, nobody will know if the future will go the way we want it to—that may be the case for others. But for me, that isn't the case.

My future will be the way I envisioned it. If there is a deviation, I will find a way to eliminate it and only rest when I'm dead. But then again, if I am dead, I shouldn't care if the future doesn't end up the way I envisioned it. Don't you think so?"

She was sold to the organization at the age of three to undergo brutal combat training.

After knowing that she had to kill others to survive, after watching those people kill her friend—who had protected her all along—with her own eyes, she lost it. It was also at that time that her special powers manifested.

She could clearly see the weak points on each person's body and relentlessly attacked those areas.

She realized that as long as she observed hard enough, not only could she see the weak points of the other children, but was also able to move much faster than them. That was when she was certain that she could survive.

Feng Shengxuan, who was listening to Zhong Nuannuan speak so domineeringly, reddened at how adorable she was at this moment.

The only person in the world who would dare retort against him and not end up dead was her.

Only

It could not be helped. He was simply willing to spoil her so.

Because Nuannuan was dashing like this!

From the moment she was 3 years old, all the other children who came to the organization looked scared and frightened. Although she was fearful, her eyes shone with an undeniable conviction and sparkled like a star. It was at that moment that he became captivated by those very eyes.

It was inconceivable that this world had a girl with eyes that beautiful.

At the time, he was 13, while she was only 3 and a half.

That was why at this moment, in the face of Zhong Nuannuan's resistance, rather than becoming angry, Feng Shengxuan completely softened.

Then in a somewhat playful tone, he asked...

Chapter 480: Till Death Do Us Part

"That also means, once you fall in love with me, that it's till death do us part, right?"

Zhong Nuannuan was baffled. That was totally not what she meant!

"Big Brother, don't always change the subject. I know you obviously understand what I mean. I'm very thankful for the help you provided when I was young. I'm also truly grateful that you stood by me—aiding me in destroying the KE organization, enabling me to become a free person, even helping me manage my business. However, trusting you, depending on you, and adoring you doesn't mean that I'm going to like you..."

"Oh, enough of that, Nuannuan. Have you noticed that you've been nagging more and more like an old lady lately?"

Zhong Nuannuan, "...!"

"I already know about what happened to Venato. Seeing as how you chose Sanji, you should let Sanji take Venato's place. I'm hanging up."

“Big Brother, I’m not done talking.”

“What else do you have to say? I’m extremely busy, okay? I’m still in a meeting right now.”

“This time out, Mustapha’s opposition forces are in cahoots with the Wute Organization, and you’d have been informed about many of these mercenary groups’ large operations. Did you know about the Wute Organization’s operations?”

“They are wary of us, so how am I to know of their operations? No... Do you suspect that I ordered the Wute Organization and the opposition forces to attack Mustapha’s legitimate military? We have 28 quarries in Mustapha which bring us endless profits. What good would it do us if Mustapha is in civil unrest?”

“That’s why I’m asking. If you knew about this, then what made you choose to abandon our 28 mines in favor of allowing Venato to collude with the opposition forces and the Wute Organization?”

Zhong Nuannuan’s words trailed off, leaving the other end was in complete silence.

“Big Brother?”

“Hmm?”

From the other end came Feng Shengxuan’s muffled voice.

“Why don’t you say something?”

“What should I say when you think that of me? You just told me that you subdued Venato and promoted Sanji. I told you that I’d support you no matter what you do.

“But you turned around and are suddenly suspicious of me. If you really don’t trust me, I can return all assets under your name to you and you can manage them on your own. I’ll have you know that I’ve been thinking of calling it quits for a long time. Do you know how many assets are under your name? Every time you list a buttload of assets under the group’s name on a whim, I’m over here working my *ss off as your CEO, while you’re in Camino being the hands-off rich woman. Do you believe that I’ll call it quits tomorrow, announce my comeback, then run to Camino to be a movie star?”

Zhong Nuannuan, “...!”

This arrogant man, what should she do with him?

Although she felt like she was going overboard by doubting him like this, he was clearly making a fuss out of this, was he not?

Only

“Fine, return it all to me then! Write off all the tax relations, hand over those assets and I’ll re-register them in Camino. From today onward, I’ll manage my assets by myself.”

After saying that, she hung up the call with the sound of a click.

“Hello?!”

Hearing the white noise from the other end, Feng Shengxuan was dumbfounded.

Nuannuan was so upset that she had immediately hung up on him.

In a fit of rage, Feng Shengxuan seized a gun from the table and fired at the subordinate who had cried out when he had vomited blood earlier.

Although it didn't kill him, the bullet punched a hole right through his shoulder.
