Chapter 521: It's Over

At this moment, Deputy Director Tan looked at Madam Ou with less awe and respect than before, and with more inexplicable emotions that seemed to be a mixture of sympathy and sadness. Even so, Madam Ou clearly spotted a trace of ridicule in his eyes.

At this moment, Madam Ou's heart sank.

The friendship in officialdom changed rapidly.

This Deputy Director Tan had always helped their old man Ou to carry his bags, and when he faced them before, he followed them everywhere and was very thoughtful. Yet now...

Although Deputy Director Tan had not said anything yet, Madam Ou already staggered backward a little, such that she was supported by two secretaries behind her.

"Director, what's the situation?" The two secretaries asked after seeing that something was wrong.

After Deputy Director Tan saw that everyone was gathering around, he finally asked, "Madam Ou, I heard that your daughter has taken a fancy to someone else's fiancé, so she hired a murderer twice and tried to rape and kill someone else."

As soon as Deputy Director Tan's words were uttered, the look in the government staffs' eyes changed.

Madam Ou shook her head vigorously. "No! Our Mingxi was wronged! That woman was the one who clearly hurt our Mingxi. Our Mingxi is the victim, we..."

Deputy Director Tan interrupted Madam Ou. "Okay, Madam Ou, I'm just asking. After all, we don't know the ins and outs of this matter, so we won't talk about it.

"I asked Chief Constable Wang about the situation at the police station just now, and this is what he said: He said that Miss Ou is suspected of a very serious rape and murder case, that the target was the fiancée of a senior military officer, and that the circumstances were very bad. However, Deputy Governor Ou still looked indifferent, feeling that since the military officer's fiancée was not substantially harmed anyway, that not only should Miss Ou not be responsible, but that the military officer's fiancée should be responsible for this instead."

After saying that, Deputy Director Tan glanced at Madam Ou; After all, Madam Ou also behaved like that just now.

"That military officer was very angry, and it's thought that he had already collected some bad information about Deputy Governor Ou before, so as Deputy Governor Ou fought hard with that military officer, the military officer brought out evidence of Deputy Governor Ou accepting huge bribes.

“At that time, Mayor Li, Governor Mu, and Commander-in-Chief Leng of the military base were with Deputy Governor Ou, whilst the evidence that the military officer presented was very solid and unrefutable. Because of this, Governor Mu said that he would deal with this matter seriously.

“Madam Ou, Mayor Li also wanted to help Deputy Governor Ou at the time, but the evidence given by the military officer was too significant, so...”

Knowing that Deputy Governor Ou had suffered his downfall, the two secretaries supporting Madam Ou directly let go of her when they felt Madam Ou’s legs give way again.

Only

Madam Ou fell straight to the ground.

It was over.

It was all over for them.

Originally, the change of political term was imminent, and the political secretaries and the mayor would have to be promoted one level higher. Ou Chenghe ranked high among the deputy governors, and Mayor Li even mentioned to their old man Ou several times that he planned to promote him to the position of mayor.

She originally thought that their lives would continue to be glorious, but because of Chi Yang, their family had been plunged into eternal doom.

At this moment, Madam Ou had no idea how to express the regret in her heart.

If she had not spoiled her daughter, if she did not approve of it when Ou Mingxi had told her at the time that she wanted to attack Zhong Nuannuan, and stopped her instead...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 522: Enough?

Then Mingxi and her husband would not be destroyed. Their family had been envied by everyone, and everyone wanted to claim ties with them.

She watched as the surrounding people looked at her, but did not step forward to help her up. They all claimed that she should not worry about it, and that there might be a turning point in this matter, yet they all had scornful gazes in their eyes. With that, Madam Ou rolled her eyes and fainted because she could no longer bear the blow.

At this moment, the news that Ou Chenghe was taken away by people from the City Administration’s justice department had reached the ears of the police in the hospital, and listening to Ou Mingxi’s vituperation on the bed, the policewoman who had offended Zhong Nuannuan finally could not hold herself back.

She walked up to her and struck her with contempt. “What are you screaming about? Do you still think that you’re in the right after breaking the law? Do you think you don’t have to bear the weight of the law just because your dad is Deputy Governor Ou? You even want to sue us... Sure, as long as you're still lucky enough to get out of prison in this life, we'll be waiting for you to prosecute us.

"Let me tell you, forget you being the perpetrator, even your dad has been taken away by the justice department for investigation now. I really don't know why you're still acting up here!"

Ou Mingxi, who had been screaming the entire time, finally came back to her senses after hearing these words. Her eyes were filled with gloom as she looked at the policewoman.

"What did you say? How dare you lie to me!"

The policewoman sneered. "Who's lying to you? Do I have to lie to you? There has been news from the police station just now saying that the military officer you fancied has handed evidence of Deputy Governor Ou's bribery to the police station to claim justice for his fiancée. Now, your dad has been taken away by our comrades from the justice department. Your dad can't even protect himself now, so who's going to save a vicious woman like you who would kill someone in order to pry someone else's fiancée away?"

After saying that, the policewoman went out, leaving Ou Mingxi alone to stare at the ceiling, unwilling to accept her cruel fate.

The case of Ou Mingxi deliberately hiring a contract killing was extremely serious, and her sentence was going to be at least 15 years.

As for how long she would end up being sentenced, that was not a question Zhong Nuannuan needed to worry about.

After all, her Big Brother Chi Yang was very angry this time, and the consequences were expected to be very serious.

After Ou Chenghe was taken away, Chi Yang still had a serious look on his face.

Although Governor Li did not know Chi Yang's identity yet, Governor Li was still filled with awe at this ruthless person, who was able to be a captain at the age of 26, and even make the commander-in-chief watch on in silence when he was angry. It seemed that whoever he targeted was fated for death.

Even if such a person did not have a prestigious background, he was a man of high aspirations and had a promising future.

Therefore, after Ou Chenghe was taken away by the justice department for investigation, Governor Li looked at Chi Yang and asked gently, "Chi Yang, thank you for the revelation. The organization will investigate Ou Chenghe thoroughly."

Chi Yang nodded, and faced Governor Li with a solemn expression. "If you can't find anything, I can always provide more useful information. You can contact me at any time."

Governor Li was taken aback!

This meant that if his sentencing was not enough, he could still provide more evidence until the sentence was in accordance with his wishes?

Was he trying to keep Ou Chenghe in jail for the rest of his life?

Only

Such wickedness.

“Okay, thank you for your cooperation.” Governor Li smiled.

“You’re welcome.” Chi Yang looked serious.

“Then, if there’s nothing else, this matter will end here.”

Chi Yang’s serious expression instantly became even more serious.

“Do you think that’s all, Governor Li?”

Governor Li was speechless.

Chapter 523: Tragedy

“My fiancée is still a Year 3 Senior in high school, but she was taken away by two police officers from the police station this morning, and was even taken away in front of all the schoolmates in an extremely humiliating manner. This has tarnished my fiancée’s reputation.”

“Okay, okay, I know about this. Regarding the damage to the future military wife’s reputation by our police comrades, the police station will arrange for the relevant comrades to go to Miss Zhong’s school to apologize and mitigate impact.”

Leng Jinpeng, who had not spoken this whole time, finally said, “Okay, Governor Li, please arrange for this matter properly then.”

Governor Li was lost for words.

“Alright, Commander-in-Chief Leng, don’t worry about this matter, just leave it to me to deal with this.”

It was originally Ou Chenghe who brought Zhong Nuannuan to the police station in order to denounce her publicly for her crimes against his daughter, but in the end, Ou Mingxi and Ou Chenghe were arrested, and not only did nothing happen to Zhong Nuannuan, the police comrades in the bureau were even forced to eliminate the negative impact of their actions.

Seeing Chi Yang’s serious and stoic face instantly soften when facing Zhong Nuannuan, Governor Li suddenly felt his mouth go a little dry.

He turned his head to look at Commander-in-Chief Leng, but immediately saw that Commander-in-Chief Leng’s eyes were aimed at the ceiling and at the comrades in the police station—anywhere except at Chi Yang. Governor Li sighed inexplicably.

Sure enough, he was a general, and he had foresight. He actually knew how to shift his gaze away in advance.

Chi Yang stretched out his hand in front of Zhong Nuannuan and took his fiancée’s soft hand from the table. Instantly, his expression was one of satisfaction.

“Okay.”

It was not until Chi Yang held her hand that Zhong Nuannuan stood up from the interrogation table, passed by the governor and chief constable under their gaze, and walked to Mu Xigui, nodding slightly to express her gratitude.

Mu Xigui also nodded slightly toward Zhong Nuannuan, and then at Chi Yang.

Chi Yang glanced at Mu Xigui, and nodded back at him.

In the eyes of ordinary people, this was just a polite complimentary nod, but it later benefited Mu Xigui a lot.

After this, Chi Yang led Zhong Nuannuan out of the police station, walked to his Land Rover, and opened the door for her.

Once she got it, he thoughtfully pulled over the safety belt and fastened it for Zhong Nuannuan.

Since it was on the other side, even though Chi Yang was very tall, he still had to lean his whole body over to help her put the seat belt on.

Sensing the familiar, refreshing breath on him, Zhong Nuannuan got into a very good mood, and she smiled sweetly at her Big Brother Chi Yang.

Chi Yang was dazzled by Zhong Nuannuan’s smile, and his spirit instantly went into a trance.

Only

He had always felt that his wife’s smile was the most beautiful and infectious thing on this earth. The weather was clearly cold enough to signal that winter rain was about to fall, but because of his fiancée’s smile, it instantly returned to a sunny spring.

It was also because of Zhong Nuannuan’s smile that Chi Yang, who was holding hands and walking out with his fiancée, had completely forgotten about Commander-in-Chief Leng behind them, who had been the third wheel all this while.

He closed the door, went around to the driver’s seat, opened the door, then closed it again.

Leng Jinpeng and Mu Xigui walked out of the Public Security Bureau’s entrance accompanied by Governor Li and Chief Constable Wang.

Mu Xigui’s driver had been waiting outside for a long time, and when he saw the governor come out, he immediately opened the car door for his boss.

Mu Xigui saw that Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan was ignoring them and had already boarded their car, so he politely said goodbye to Leng Jinpeng.

Today's incident had happened out of the blue, so Leng Jinpeng did not hail a driver, and had instead come here directly in Chi Yang's car.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 524: Calamity

Seeing that Chi Yang had already gotten into the car at this moment and was ignoring him, he did not become melodramatic and, after nodding slightly to Governor Li and Chief Constable Wang, simply walked toward Chi Yang's car by himself.

After all, Sir Chi Yang was used to this, usually in his military base, others would often open car doors for him, and it was normal for him to not open the door for others.

Except, of course, for Nuannuan.

Hence, Leng Jinpeng did not think there was anything to this. He walked toward Chi Yang's car and prepared to open the car door by himself.

Unexpectedly, the car drove away before he arrived!

It drove away... drove away... away...

Leng Jinpeng and Governor Li were speechless.

Chief Constable Wang was stunned!!!

It seemed that this commander-in-chief wanted to get in the car just now, right?

Right?

Otherwise, did sand enter his eyes, causing him to see incorrectly?

However...

This was a lieutenant general!

How many lieutenant generals were there in the whole of Camino?

Hence, sand must have entered his eyes, and he must have seen incorrectly.

"Haha, that... Commander-in-Chief Leng, are you not leaving? Are you still waiting for your driver? If your driver hasn't arrived, we can send for someone to fetch you."

Governor Li felt extremely awkward when he said this. He had never encountered such an embarrassing incident before in his life.

The leader helped his subordinate with his affairs, but the subordinate immediately left with his girlfriend and forgot his leader.

As the governor, he could not simply act as if he had not seen anything. After all, this was the commander-in-chief of the military base!

However, when he really said this, he felt extremely embarrassed.

“Haha, there’s no need. I was going to do something nearby, so I let them go first.”

Leng Jinpeng answered Governor Li politely with a smile on his face. He absolutely confirmed the saying——

Smiling on the surface, but cursing silently!

He helped him with his affairs, and yet he was abandoned...

If the food that Chi Yang usually threw to him barely passed for canned dog food, then whatever was stuffed in his mouth today was non-nutritious dog bones.

He was pissed off!

Governor Li glanced at the area in a one-square-kilometer radius, which was a commercial area, that was to say, shopping malls, and reaffirmed, “Commander-in-Chief Leng, please don’t mention it, I still have to stay in the police station, so I can ask my driver to send you off.”

Leng Jinpeng was at a loss for words.

Did he not already decline? Was his entire face resentfully engraved with the words “I have been abandoned” at that moment?

If Governor Li could hear Commander-in-Chief Leng’s heartfelt thoughts, he would definitely answer yes sincerely.

Forget him, even the low-ranked policemen on the side could see it!

“There’s really no need, I did let them go first. Governor Li, Chief Constable Wang, thank you for today.”

Seeing that Leng Jinpeng really did not intend to leave by car, Governor Li and Chief Constable Wang finally gave up.

Only

“Commander-in-Chief Leng, this is the least we can do. We hope you can understand the inconvenience caused to you and Captain Chi.”

“There will always be negligence in our work, but as long as it can be corrected in time, it’s fine.”

“Yes, yes.” Governor Li nodded vigorously. “After this incident, I’ll hold a City Administration meeting to call on all City Administration public officials in the state to take their work seriously and act strictly in accordance with the law.”

Leng Jinpeng and Governor Li finished their formalities, and after that the embarrassing moment had passed, the Land Rover, which had already driven away, suddenly drove back.

The windows on both sides were lowered at the same time. Chi Yang still had a serious face, and did not seem to be very apologetic toward Leng Jinpeng; On the other hand Zhong Nuannuan had an awkward smile on her face. “Sorry, Uncle Leng, we forgot about you just now.”

Governor Li and Chief Constable Wang were speechless.

Leng Jinpeng was appalled!!!

Chapter 525: Heartbroken

At this moment, Leng Jinpeng felt as if he had been stabbed in the chest with ten thousand knives by someone he trusted.

After getting in the car, Leng Jinpeng felt unwell.

“Why did you drive back? I told Governor Li that I still have to work nearby.”

After the car drove a few hundred meters, Leng Jinpeng could not help but complain.

Unexpectedly——

With a sudden brake, Chi Yang pulled the car over.

He turned his head to look at Leng Jinpeng. “You want to carry out some errands here?”

Leng Jinpeng was speechless.

“Get out of the car then.”

“Big Brother Chi Yang, let’s drop Uncle Leng at the place he’s going to carry out his errands. Uncle Leng, where are you going to work, do you need us to send you there?”

Leng Jinpeng was aghast!!!

Watching the two people hoping that he would get off the car now and stop disrupting their quality time together, even a good-tempered man like Leng Jinpeng could not stand this, so he snorted and got off the car angrily.

Although he was depressed, it was better to return to the military base by himself than to sit in the car and be the third wheel.

Looking at Leng Jinpeng’s lonely figure, Zhong Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang. “Big Brother Chi Yang, are you sure Uncle Leng is here to carry out some errands?”

There were department stores everywhere, and she felt that it was not the case.

“It doesn’t matter, he isn’t polite to me anyway. If he said he’s here to do errands, then he must be here to do errands.” He knew that Leng Jinpeng still had to go back to the military base, but he had already applied for a day off, and in order to accompany his fiancée, Chi Yang lied without blinking an eye.

Regarding the abandonment of his own superior, Chi Yang was able to handle the matter with ease, and did not feel any sense of incongruence.

Going back in their car was no different from going back by taxi. Therefore, he thought that it was still better for the commander-in-chief to return by himself.

At this moment, Chi Yang's phone rang.

Seeing that it was a call from Leng Jinpeng, he picked up the phone. "What?"

"What?" There was a monstrous roar on the other end of the phone. "Come to the military base in the afternoon! Since Nuannuan is fine now, and there are still so many things to do in the military base, you can't just leave me to handle everything alone after such a huge incident happened, right?"

"Understood."

After saying that, regardless of whether Leng Jinpeng still had more to say, he hung up the phone, and the slight guilt in his heart disappeared.

"Nuannuan, I have to go back to the military base in the afternoon, and it's almost noon already, so I'll accompany you for lunch. You should rest at home in the afternoon, and I'll arrange for someone from the police station to go to school with you to clear up the misunderstandings tomorrow."

"Okay." Zhong Nuannuan nodded. She would follow whatever her Big Brother Chi Yang said.

Only

Seeing his Nuannuan in her best behavior, Chi Yang could not help but unfasten both his and Nuannuan's seat belts, and took her into his arms.

He would only have a sense of realism only when he clearly felt her warm body temperature.

He would feel that this girl really existed in his life.

No matter who she was outside and how powerful she was, the woman in front of him was extremely real.

She loved him and was attached to him.

She, that soft and cute little cat, was Chi Yang's fiancée. In the future, she would be his family member; she would spend a lifetime together with him, never abandon him, and would stay with him until death.

Zhong Nuannuan listened to the fluttering heartbeat in Chi Yang's chest, stretched out her hand to caress it, and asked with a caring expression, "Big Brother Chi Yang, what's wrong?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 526: Male Tsundere

Chi Yang buried his head in Nuannuan's neck, smelling the fragrance on her hair and body. Then, he said dully, "Nothing, Nuannuan, can I give you a hug?"

"Sure." Nuannuan nodded obediently and wrapped her hands around his slender and powerful waist, hugging him tightly.

Big Brother Chi Yang had no sense of security in the past, but after getting along with each other for so long, his sense of security had been gradually established.

However, since he came back from his mission, she obviously sensed that Big Brother Chi Yang's sense of security had decreased again.

What was going on here?

She felt that she had already done a good job!

She also believed that she could convey her love to Big Brother Chi Yang very accurately and clearly.

Why would he still have this sense of impending doom that seemed to be emanating from him involuntarily then?

She should not be questioned on how she knew Chi Yang felt a sense of impending doom.

As Big Brother Chi Yang's woman, and as a top mercenary with such keen senses, it was impossible for her not to sense the feelings of the person she cared about the most.

Could it be that when he went out this time, Big Brother Chi Yang felt that his work put him very close to death?

Otherwise, could it be due to the recurrence of his brain injury when he came back—that gave him a sudden cerebral hemorrhage—that made him feel closer to death?

Thus, was he still afraid that his work and illness would affect their love? Afraid that she would give up on their love because she was too worried for his safety?

What should she do?

Nuannuan felt that she was already trying very hard, but her Big Brother Chi Yang was still very insecure.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, I'll always be with you forever and ever, and I'll never change my mind for the rest of my life. Even if you chase me away, I won't leave your side." Nuannuan said dully.

She did not know what to do to comfort this man's fragile heart anymore, so she could only repeat the lover's prattle she had said over and over again.

"Really? You said that you won't leave even if I chase you off, and you'll never leave me for the rest of your life?" Chi Yang's arms hugged Nuannuan even harder.

He was like a child whose candy was about to be confiscated by his mother, and later coaxed that his candy would be returned to him as long as he studied hard and got first place in exams.

His emotions while hugging Nuannuan were filled with expectation, fear, and the depression that would be felt during moments of impending loss.

Nuannuan had run out of words to say too. She felt that she could clearly feel Big Brother Chi Yang's feelings, but Nuannuan had no idea about how these feelings came about and what situation gave him such pitiful thoughts.

Only

However, as she nestled in Big Brother Chi Yang's arms, she felt his bewilderment and how he had silently endured his fear of loss. That made her feel very distressed for him!

“Big Brother Chi Yang...” Nuannuan whispered.

A warm but refreshing breath exhaled on her neck in response.

Zhong Nuannuan raised her head a little, and as she looked up, she was faced with Chi Yang’s somewhat lonely gaze.

The reason why Chi Yang behaved in this extremely worried and afraid-of-losing manner was entirely because when he opened the door yesterday, there was no one at home. The darkness and emptiness inside left a large impact on his senses.

When he returned to the military base last night, he originally planned to take a shower and go to sleep, but his nights of good sleep seemed to have suddenly left him, and he could not fall asleep the entire night.

He had become accustomed to the days of having Nuannuan accompanying him; this made him feel extremely relaxed and happy, and made him feel that he was the happiest man in the world.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 527: Insomnia

He could make any sacrifice for their little family. Even if it came to death, he would die happily and willingly.

However, he was afraid that when he returned home one day, he would face a perpetually dark house.

The figure that should have appeared in the house might suddenly disappear one day.

It was also at this time that Chi Yang suddenly realized with shock——

Although his relationship with Nuannuan had been so good—besides her identity that he dared not know—what kind of friends did she have, and who were her enemies? Who would she ask for help when she encountered any difficulties? Since she was so powerful, apart from the Zhong Family’s trivial matters, what other major issues could she not solve by herself...?

He did not even know these.

However, what he could not stand most was that he was hit with an epiphany last night that he did not know a single thing about his future wife.

This feeling kept him awake all night, and he almost rushed out again, wanting to return to the apartment to find Nuannuan, or go directly to the Zhong Family’s house to see if she was there.

However, he was also afraid that she might not be at the Zhong Family’s house...

Conversely, even if she was at the Zhong Family’s house, he wondered if she would feel annoyed at him for coming over because she wanted to do something...

When Chi Yang did anything, he was used to possessing more than 90% control of the matter.

However, regarding Nuannuan, one of the people he cared about most in his life, he had no idea about her and had completely zero control over her.

The more he thought about it, the more insecure he felt.

The more he thought about it, the more he wondered, did Nuannuan just come back to settle the Zhong Family's affairs? When she had finished handling the affairs of the Zhong Family, she would leave.

Would she go to a world that was completely out of his reach?

Hence, at this moment, when Chi Yang was hugging Nuannuan, Nuannuan would feel as if she was watching a large dog who looked as if it was about to be abandoned by its unscrupulous owner.

What should she do with this tsundere-like, loyal doggy with fragile emotions?

Feeling hot exhalations on her neck, Zhong Nuannuan's wolfish blood started to boil within moments.

How about...

Should she make love with him?!

Previously, she heard Selina say that between a woman and a man, there was nothing that could not be solved with sex. If it still could not be figured out, have sex twice.

Thus, after calling Big Brother Chi Yang once, but still seeing his pitiful expression, Zhong Nuannuan finally could not hold back her impatience. She freed one of her hands and pressed it against the seat, and Chi Yang's seat reclined sideways.

With a slight exertion of effort, Zhong Nuannuan pushed gently, and Chi Yang fell onto the chair.

Now, Zhong Nuannuan could see Chi Yang's expression clearly.

Damn!

He looked even more pitiful than she thought.

She had not seen it clearly before at the police station, and now that she was closer, she observed that this man was like a bracelet that absorbed the essence of the moon some time ago—he had a radiant, plumpish and faintly glowing feeling, but that was gone today.

The area under his eyes looked a little pallid. Although after many years of insomnia, he might have become immune to this mild insomnia and would not produce such dark circles, but who was Zhong Nuannuan?

She cared about Chi Yang so much that she could almost finish counting all the hairs on his body, how could such a change escape her eyes?

When she thought that Big Brother Chi Yang did not sleep last night, Zhong Nuannuan felt so much pain for him.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you didn't sleep last night? Were you too busy to sleep, or you couldn't fall asleep?"

Chi Yang did not struggle when he was thrown down. Instead, he liked the feeling of being dominated by Nuannuan. He said pitifully, "I couldn't sleep."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 528: Angry

"Why?" Zhong Nuannuan was puzzled.

According to the continuous acupuncture she gave Chi Yang, his mental state should be good, it made no sense for him to be unable to sleep!

"It's because I miss you." Chi Yang felt even more wronged now. His deep and melancholy eyes were filled with worry for Nuannuan. He was just afraid that his fiancée would suddenly disappear.

Zhong Nuannuan was at a loss for words.

Although she was a little speechless, Zhong Nuannuan still answered Chi Yang's questions with a very amiable attitude.

"Didn't we stay together during the day and just separated at four o'clock in the afternoon? Why weren't you able to sleep at night?" Zhong Nuannuan asked, while gently stroking Chi Yang's cheek with a distressed look.

Chi Yang liked to watch his Nuannuan feel sorry for him.

It was only when he saw that distressed face, would he feel that this girl really loved him—that what she said was the truth; that she really would never leave him for the rest of her life. Only then would he realize that he was just overthinking about everything.

"I don't know, I just thought of you so much that I couldn't fall asleep all of a sudden, and I was afraid that you'd leave me one day."

Zhong Nuannuan also realized that something was wrong.

She frowned and asked, "Why would you think that I'll leave you one day?"

Chi Yang kept silent.

"What have I done to have given you such a terrible idea?"

Chi Yang continued to look very injured but still did not say anything.

"Say it!"

Zhong Nuannuan tickled the most ticklish and sensitive part of his waist. The agitation made Chi Yang's body shudder, and his waist quickly shrank away.

Immediately, his hesitant look was replaced by a pitiful appearance that seemed to say 'I'm already hurt, but you're still bullying me.'

Oh my goodness—!

How could Zhong Nuannuan stand such a provocation!

What she could not stand the most was seeing her loved ones looking wronged, okay?

This person was even the man she loved the most!

Thus, Zhong Nuannuan hurriedly leaned down and kissed Chi Yang's lips gently.

"Are you telling me or not?"

"..." Not only did Chi Yang stay silent, his mouth even pouted a little, looking like an aggrieved little girl.

It was not that he refused to say it, but he dared not say it.

Therefore, in the face of Nuannuan's questioning, he was still thinking about how to phrase his words so that he could ask something out of her, and not let Nuannuan know that he had discovered her secret at the same time.

A long time later, Chi Yang found out that Nuannuan did not intend to hide from him from the beginning, and merely did not tell him because they were not married yet. She was afraid that it was not safe for her to say it—that they would not get married after telling him her situation. When he knew this, he turned over, took off Nuannuan's pants, and spanked her exposed, fair-skinned buttocks.

"You torturous little nymph, don't you know that you'll get sick from overthinking such things?"

Seeing that Chi Yang was still not talking, Zhong Nuannuan opened her mouth and bit down on the spot she had just kissed earlier.

When she let go, red marks had appeared on Chi Yang's lips, and there was even a row of small tooth marks in the center.

"Are you telling me or not?"

Under Nuannuan's persecution and threats, Chi Yang finally used his quick wits and made up a reason.

"Why didn't you call me when Ou Mingxi's people came to kill you yesterday?"

"..." She did not expect that he would suddenly ask this question. Zhong Nuannuan thought about it before answering, "How could I have the time to call you when they're about to kill me?"

Her explanatory voice sounded wronged no matter how he listened to it. This made Chi Yang feel bad to question her further.

"Why didn't you call me after the incident then?"

"It was already so late... I thought you needed to rest."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 529: Silly Boy

It was easy to notice that it was a half-hearted answer.

“Rest? If something happened to you, how can I rest?” After saying that, Chi Yang felt really wronged.

He was so cowardly to the point that he did not even know what his wife was doing last night, nor dared to ask her. What kind of man would live like that?

He was sad.

Tsk tsk, this man had already changed from being pitiful to being tsundere-like, what should she do?

Nuannuan used her hands to support the seat, leaned down, and changed her bites into kisses. She kissed the tip of his nose first, and felt that it tasted quite good. After that, she kissed his tall nose tip a few more times and coaxed, “I know I was wrong, I’ll call you whenever I come across anything in the future, okay?”

Chi Yang was enraged. “Do you think this is about the phone call?”

This little woman did not even realize where she was wrong!

Unexpectedly, Chi Yang had just finished his words when Zhong Nuannuan subconsciously stretched out her hand and affectionately scratched his nose bridge.

This action was too casual, so Zhong Nuannuan did not notice this, but Chi Yang did.

How...

His little kitten suddenly transformed and became the overlord between them, while he just turned into a petty woman who lost her temper at the overlord?

Big Brother Chi Yang’s perpetually serious face was not only mixed with emotions of unsatisfied frustration at this moment. His arrogant features even twitched slightly and showed signs of cracking.

What went wrong there?

However, a certain ‘kitten’ still had not realized how flirtatious and wickedly charming her involuntary action earlier was, and continued to coax, “What is it then? Be a good boy, don’t be angry, just tell me properly. As long as you let me know, I’ll do everything I can.”

Chi Yang was shocked!

So, had his Nuannuan made a mistake?

However, very soon, Chi Yang’s attention was no longer on this matter.

His Nuannuan said that she would do whatever he wanted, as long as she could do it.

Therefore, Chi Yang hurriedly said, “I never knew whether you’ve encountered any problems or not, nor have I ever known whether you need someone to help you when you’re in trouble. Whether it was about you going to check on news of the Zhong Family, or when Ou Mingxi came to assassinate you, I was never the first person you’d think of.”

Zhong Nuannuan was taken aback!

She just did not dare to find him! If she dared to, he would definitely be the first person she would look for!

Seeing Zhong Nuannuan stunned and not making any further explanation, Chi Yang felt even more depressed.

“Hence, you don’t even consider me as the person closest to you. You don’t trust me at all!”

For goodness sake, this silly little boy!

Zhong Nuannuan did not know whether to laugh or cry at Chi Yang’s words.

“How did I not think of you as my closest person? How did I not trust you?”

“If you trusted me, you wouldn’t have looked for other people or even Yang Yi, you would’ve looked for me instead!”

Well, there was no way to discuss this matter any further.

She really never thought of looking for him when she encountered any problems. Although this was her fault, they had not gotten married yet! She dared not say it!

Therefore...

“What are you doing?”

Chi Yang, who had been waiting for an answer for a long time, did not get his answer, but got his clothes stripped off instead in the end.

“Big Brother Chi Yang...”

Zhong Nuannuan called his name, and Chi Yang was just about to respond when Zhong Nuannuan directly planted a kiss on Chi Yang’s chest, on the spot where his clothes had been unbuttoned. This caused a tingling sensation in his chest.

Very quickly, his body reacted to this kiss.

Chapter 530: What Was There To Be Afraid Of?

He originally thought that this was just a normal kiss. No matter how her kiss landed—even if his body was swept with raging changes—Chi Yang used his firm willpower to tell himself that he would not budge.

He would fight this urge like an enemy to the end!

If this matter was not resolved, the problem would never be over.

He truly, really abhorred that sensation that he felt last night.

Even if Nuannuan kissed him twenty times, he would not give in today.

However, this decision only lasted for a second before he felt his belt loosening.

One second later, a creature that she had no words to describe had crawled out.

Chi Yang, “!!!”

Looking at Lil Yang, Zhong Nuannuan felt her scalp tingle.

Lil Yang was really... tall.

Big guy.

It looked like it was over-nourished.

Although she was afraid, Zhong Nuannuan made up her mind when she thought about how sad Big Brother Chi Yang was.

She also firmly believed that when dealing with a man who loved you, there was nothing that could not be solved by sleeping with them.

If bedding them once was not enough, bed them twice.

She believed that everything could be solved as long as she was truly sincere about her actions.

Besides, what was all that nonsense about she was too young for this and that it would not be good for her body?

She knew she had a great body!

Furthermore, had he not forcefully deflowered her four months ago?

Since she was already deflowered, what was there to be afraid of?

“Nuannuan, what are you...”

Before he could finish his sentence with the word ‘doing’, Chi Yang saw his Nuannuan’s wolf-like gaze the moment he raised his gaze.

He was dumbstruck.

Thus, his Nuannuan was planning to... eat him up?

Why?

Chi Yang could not understand why Nuannuan would choose to do this with him at this time...

“Nuannuan, no! I told you I wouldn’t touch you before you turned eighteen. And we’re in the car!”

Even though they were not parked on the side of the main road, they were still on the street.

It was broad daylight. Even if the car’s windows were bulletproof and nobody could see anything from the outside, they should not allow their first time to happen in the car!

This made Chi Yang, who was a righteous person, feel like he was doing something shady.

Zhong Nuannuan could not care less about Big Brother Chi Yang's feelings anymore. After all, her Big Brother Chi Yang had been hurt so badly that he had started to act like a wounded little wife.

Therefore, Zhong Nuannuan did not bother arguing with him. She made up her mind and sat on Chi Yang's body.

Chi Yang's eyes widened in disbelief before he felt all the blood rush to his head.

Then, all that fuss about the promise that he would not touch Nuannuan until she was eighteen or the feeling that it was too shady to do it in the car was thrown out the window.

That feeling that he gave Nuannuan in their first time—although six years passed and she had been reborn once—Nuan Nuan still remembered it.

At that time, she did not feel good at all.

As a matter of fact, it would be fair to say that it was a terrible experience.

It was because she was not familiar with Chi Yang back then. Never had she expected to have any contact with the man who would interact with Zhong Qianqian in the future.

At that time, her initial thought was that although Zhong Qianqian did not share the same mother with her, Zhong Qianqian was still her elder sister. Whether Chi Yang liked her or not, as long as Zhong Kuijun introduced Chi Yang to Zhong Qianqian—as Zhong Qianqian's younger sister and for the sake of her elder sister's future—she should not have any emotional or physical contact with Chi Yang.

Unfortunately, she had seen Zhong Qianqian drug Chi Yang that day, and Chi Yang gulped it down.

The effect of the medicine was very strong, and it should have been effective after two minutes. However, even though Chi Yang's injury relapsed at that moment, he endured it for ten minutes before saying that he wanted to borrow the bedroom in the Zhong Family's house.
