Chapter 681: Auction

“That’s right. Zhong Nuannuan’s moves are simple and crude. If she had struck me on the throat when she pulled my leg today, I’d definitely have died today. Think about it, I, a trained soldier in the special forces, can’t even withstand a single blow from her. How can an ordinary person have such skills? If she isn’t a killer, what is she? Grandpa, if that’s really the case, once I tell the commander-in-chief or the chief of staff Zhong Nuannuan’s true identity, I may just make a huge contribution once it’s verified. In this way, Zhong Nuannuan will be caught and Chi Yang will lose his fiancée. I’ll then marry Chi Yang. I know that Chi Yang doesn’t have parents and only has one grandfather. When I become the Chi family’s granddaughter-in-law, how long does his grandfather have to live? Isn’t the imperial jade ours? Moreover, I can achieve a great achievement too.”

Ling Pinyuan became more and more enthusiastic as she spoke, feeling everything was starting to make sense.

In the end, she even felt like she profited from a disaster.

Ling Li also felt that Ling Pinyuan was right. “Then, go to the military base tomorrow and sue her. I want her to regret everything so much that her intestines turn green. I want her to know that going against our Ling family will not end well.”

Ling Pinyuan was a little hesitant. “Tomorrow?”

“Of course! Do you want to wait for others to find out that there’s something wrong with her identity and then steal your credit?”

“However, this is only my speculation. Even though it is very likely the case, what if she’s doing this for another reason and she doesn’t have an ulterior motive? Then, won’t I be digging my own grave?”

Ling Li did not think so.

“Let me ask you, are you sure that this Zhong Nuannuan is from the countryside?”

Ling Pinyuan nodded. “Yes. Although her father is a commander of the military base and her mother is a member of the board of directors at Cloud Group, Zhong Nuannuan was abducted when she was three years old and didn’t return home until she was seventeen. Since Chi Yang is very popular in the military base, everyone is very curious about his fiancée’s identity. Therefore, I’m not the only person who knows about Zhong Nuannuan’s situation, many people in the military base know about her.”

“Then, what else is there to investigate? Children in farming districts don’t even have enough to eat. Who could’ve taught her these fighting techniques? She even knows stone-gambling... Ask her which mountainous she’s from. If there’s such a wonderful area, our Ling family should seek refuge there. Isn’t this obviously a lie? What’s there not to say? Even if she’s not a killer who’s here to kill Chi Yang and neither is she a traitor, she’s suspicious enough to be a traitor, isn’t she? Furthermore, she’s clearly not from the mountainous areas, and the military base’s investigation said that she came from the mountainous areas, which is enough to prove that she has deceived the military base. How can such a person become the wife of a soldier?”

When Ling Pinyuan heard that, she felt that it made sense. Hence, she nodded and said, "Okay, I'll cancel my leave tomorrow. I'll go to the military base early tomorrow morning and make sure everyone knows about this. Why else is Chi Yang so nice to her and the commander is biased toward her? She must've done something behind our backs."

"Very well."

After Zhong Nuannuan and the old master left, Zhong Nuannuan left a large pile of raw stones in the back of the car. The bodyguard drove them to a private restaurant to meet Chi Yang.

"Little Girl, how are you going to deal with those raw stones?"

"I plan to donate them to the military base."

"What?" The old master was shocked.

To be honest, he thought that Nuannuan would sell these raw stones, or cut them out herself and sell them for money. He even thought that since she was so good at picking raw stones, she might start a jewelry store.

He did not expect her to say something so touching.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 682: Good Granddaughter-in-law

"Little Girl, you're not joking, are you?"

"How's that possible?" Nuannuan answered with a smile. "I can guarantee that with my ability, there will be many raw stones with jade inside. When the time comes, I will secretly get someone to cut out the jade. There will be an auction in Jiang District in a few days because I'll donate a necklace to the military base. Therefore, I'll attend the auction and auction the jade along with the necklace."

"Necklace? What necklace are you auctioning?" The old master could not help but think his granddaughter-in-law was full of secrets!

Zhong Nuannuan told the old master about how Aiden had given her a necklace, but Jiang Shuwan wanted to take it for herself. The old master snorted in anger.

If Zhong Nuannuan had not said that she had found out the secret of the Zhong family, Old Master would have felt like he could no longer control the debilitating anger in his body and ensure that the Zhong and Jiang families be punished by the law.

They were too despicable.

When he found out that his Little Girl Nuan was going to auction off the necklace worth a hundred million and the jade that was about to be mined, the old master sighed.

"Little Girl, you're too considerate!"

"It's nothing. This is what a wife-to-be of a soldier should do. If the equipment in the military base can be upgraded, the soldiers' standard of living will improve, and their combat power will increase. Then, on the battlefield, there will be fewer people dragging Big Brother Chi Yang down."

That was right. To Nuannuan, she would never understand any grand theories in life. Her only reasoning was that she was willing to do anything that was good for Big Brother Chi Yang.

The old master's eyes teared up when he heard her words.

If that woman could have treated Chi Yang's father like this back then, Chi Yang's father would not have lost all hope and died young, right?

Therefore, even though there was still something peculiar about Nuanmuan, after seeing her clear gaze and pure love in the girl's eyes, Old Master Chi felt that even if there was something wrong with her identity, he was convinced that this was the granddaughter-in-law he had always wanted.

Just as he was about to send a message to Emperor District for someone to produce a new identity for Nuannuan, she received a call from Leng Jinpeng.

After hanging up, Old Master asked, "Why did Lil Leng call you? Did he ask you out for dinner?"

Nuannuan nodded.

"You're going to perform acupuncture on him today?"

"No!"

"Then, why is he third-wheeling?"

Zhong Nuannuan, '...Grandpa, you have so much self-awareness. Are you sure Uncle Leng is the only third wheel?'

"I don't know. From Uncle Leng's grave tone of voice, I think he's looking for me for something."

"Okay, then let him come. It's fine, Grandpa's here with you."

Tears welled up in Zhong Nuannuan's eyes. "Yes, with Grandpa around, I'm not afraid of anything."

When Zhong Nuannuan and Old Master arrived, Chi Yang was already there.

Before the car came to a complete stop, Zhong Nuannuan saw a man dressed in a soldier's attire standing at the entrance to the private kitchen. He stood as tall and straight as a pine tree.

To be honest, she was used to seeing how those international mercenaries looked like—they neither sat nor stand properly. Therefore, she really liked seeing someone like Big Brother Chi Yang who was such a meticulous man that he appeared proper even when he was standing.

This type of man was a classic example of standing like a pine tree and sitting like a bell. Even if she did not look at his face, he could still send blood spurting out of her face with his attractiveness.

Seeing Zhong Nuannuan's car drive in, Chi Yang immediately strode over and opened the door for them.

Chapter 683: Collateral Damage

"Grandpa, Nuannuan."

Zhong Nuannuan walked out of the car first, then the two of them helped Old Master out.

Initially, the old master asked the guards to follow him in for a meal, but he told them to take turns to eat and to guard the car. After all, there was an imperial jade here worth five billion yuan and high-quality jade that had yet to be mined. He could not allow these things worth billions to be stolen by thieves.

“What happened?” Chi Yang could not help but ask when he saw how protective the old master was toward the car.

Then, the old master recounted everything that had happened at Soaring Clouds Pavilion.

The expression on Chi Yang’s face darkened.

After hearing that, he quickly pulled Nuannuan’s hand up and examined the soft tissues and bones on her hand and arm. Then he squatted down and pinched the soft tissues and bones on her legs. Seeing that Nuannuan did not cry out in pain, he stood up again and asked with a worried expression, “Little Girl, are you alright?”

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang’s worried face and felt her heart filled with happiness. She shook her head and said, “Big Brother Chi Yang, I’m fine, I’m fine! She’s the one who’s not fine! Didn’t you hear Grandpa say that she was sent into the pond twice?”

After saying that, Nuannuan waved her little fist proudly in front of Chi Yang, like a little kitten waving its furry paw to show off to its owner that it had beaten a cowardly dog.

Chi Yang could not help but pet her head after seeing her like that. If it was not for the fact that his grandfather was there, he would have already kissed her.

This little lass of his was so cute even when she was mad.

Even so, standing in front of the two of them and looking at the two lovebirds, the old master felt both happy and embarrassed.

He had never seen his grandson treat anyone so well.

This was especially so for girls. No matter what type of girls he faced, he often maintained a cold expression on his face. Unless it was a female military officer that he had to communicate with, he would not even look at them. Even if someone was within his one-meter radius, he would fully unleash his aura and fill his face with displeasure. It scared the girls so much that they could never dare to approach him even if they wanted to.

The old master nearly thought that those old things were right—that his grandson really disliked women and had fallen in love with that Ning Wenhao who was always with him.

(Ning Wenhao sneezed violently, indicating that he had no idea!)

He did not expect his grandson who was usually mean to girls to be so gentle in front of Nuannuan that he could rub her fingers for her. The old master felt like he was a gigantic third wheel, but at the same time, he was very pleased.

After making sure that his little wife was fine, Chi Yang said, "You don't have to worry about Ling Pinyuan anymore. I'll talk to her tomorrow and make her give up completely. I promise she won't hurt you anymore."

Nuannuan pursed her lips. "She's your colleague. You can't beat or scold her. You're so outstanding. Perhaps she wants to attempt to go to the graves just to compete with me like Ou Mingxi?"

Looking at Nuannuan's depressed look, Chi Yang could not help but chuckle.

"Are you jealous?"

Seeing how happy Chi Yang was, Nuannuan felt even more depressed. She pouted. "What do you think?"

"I'm so happy to finally see my Nuannuan so jealous." Chi Yang turned to the old master before Zhong Nuannuan could say anything else. "Grandpa, let's all go in."

Old Master's heart was glad to see the couple fight-flirting.

The old master quickly nodded and followed Chi Yang and his granddaughter-in-law into their private room.

Since it was a private restaurant, they could park their own cars at the entrance of each private room. Furthermore, the location was hidden, so other than summoning the staff through the device provided, the private rooms were quite far from each other.

"Add a seat for Uncle Leng. He wants to come over."

"Why is he here?"

"I don't know. He only asked where we're having dinner and said he's coming."

Chi Yang raised his eyebrows. Why did he feel that this person was becoming more and more courageous? Was he no longer afraid of being drowned in dog chow?

"Grandpa, are you hungry?" Zhong Nuannuan asked.

"I'm not hungry. I've already eaten so many snacks from Jiang District with you. Let's wait for Lil Leng to come before we eat together."

Zhong Nuannuan also felt that the old master should not be hungry yet, so she asked the waiter to serve the tea first and waited for Leng Jinpeng to arrive before everyone started eating.

The three of them were originally sitting inside the private room. Since it was not time to eat yet, the eight guards were patrolling the courtyard. Everything was peaceful and quiet.

Suddenly, both Chi Yang and Nuannuan reacted.

Chi Yang sat on the old master's left side while Nuannuan was to the old master's right. Nuannuan suddenly moved first. When she told Chi Yang to be careful, she had already pressed the old master's body down.

Just as the old master's body bent down, a high-quality black iron ashtray flew over in front of the old master's forehead.

A bullet hit the ashtray and let out a sharp screech. As the bullet ricocheted, the ashtray was flung out as well. It smashed through the window behind them and crashed into a masked killer who was trying to rush in through the back window.

The assassin was knocked off his feet by the ashtray before getting shot dead by the guards who came into the private room.

Soon, a large group of masked killers rushed into the private room. The guards outside the door soon started fighting with these killers.

There were so many killers, probably amounting to around a dozen at first glance. Not only were they highly skilled, but they were also huge and tall. They did not look like they were from Camino and looked more like assassins hired from abroad instead.

Several guards tried to approach the old master, but they were all held back by the killers.

Almost all of the weapons used by the killers were machine guns. This put the guards who were only armed with handguns at a disadvantage.

Even though no one was injured so far, they were far more suppressed when it came to fire power.

This group of killers had excellent training. They assigned ten people to deal with eight guards, while the remaining ten focused their firepower on Zhong Nuannuan, Chi Yang, and Old Master.

Using the marble table to shield himself from the fire, Chi Yang fished out a pistol and handed it to Nuannuan.

"Nuannuan, can you?"

Nuannuan nodded. "No problem."

With Nuannuan's assurance, Chi Yang rushed out without any hesitation.

Even though he did not have a gun on him when facing the ten killers that surrounded them in a fan shape, the second Chi Yang flipped forward, ten water glasses flew out into different directions and crashed into the heads of the ten assassins that were raining bullets at them.

Even though the water glasses could not kill them, Chi Yang's strength made the ten assassins dizzy from the impact.

Taking advantage of the moment when the assassins were stunned, Chi Yang threw a punch and an elbow at the heads of the two assassins, blowing up their heads on the spot.

Chapter 685: Overpowering

However, Chi Yang only managed to kill two people.

The deaths of the two killers bought time for the other killers. When they returned to their senses, everyone started shooting at Chi Yang.

However, despite being fast, Chi Yang was faster than them. The moment they rained bullets at him, Chi Yang had already turned around and aimed his gun at the assassins who were less than three meters away from him.

Bang bang bang!

With a series of shots, more than half of the killers had been taken care of by Chi Yang, along with a few killers who were holding back the guards.

However, two killers who were really close to him managed to roll away in the nick of time. Even though their legs or bodies were injured to different degrees, they were not fatal. Most importantly, it did not affect their ability to shoot.

Therefore, when Chi Yang aimed his fire at the other killers, the two killers fired at the same time.

Initially, Chi Yang wanted to finish off the two killers obstructing the guards, but the killers next to him were already aiming their guns at him. If he did not dodge, it would be too late.

However, if he could get rid of two more killers, the guards would be able to help Nuannuan immediately.

Just as Chi Yang was trying his best to kill one more person, Nuannuan made her move.

Although the marble table was thick, after the continuous bombardment by ten people, its exterior was already riddled with holes.

Zhong Nuannuan pointed her gun at the weakest part of the table and fired. Then, she shifted the angle of the gun slightly and fired another shot after 0.1 seconds.

Old Master looked at Nuannuan, who was shooting at the table, in shock.

Shooting across the table, would that work?

Whether the bullets could pass through the table aside, even if it could, would it be able to hit anyone on the other side?

Old Master hoped that it would not end up badly where the table got completely shattered before she could hit anyone on the other side.

However, the old master kept his thoughts to himself.

Even though this was a very unorthodox method of shooting, the old master still trusted Nuannuan unconditionally.

Therefore, when she fired the shot, the old man realized that not only did the table not break, but it was also easily pierced through by Nuannuan.

Someone outside groaned, and then there was the sound of a body falling to the ground with a thud. Then, came another thud.

Old Master, "...!!!"

The old master knew that the person outside must have been hit. He opened his mouth and widened his eyes at Nuannuan!

As expected of his granddaughter-in-law. She managed to hit someone even under such circumstances. She hit two in a row too!

How overpowering!

What the old master did not know was that not only did Nuannuan hit the other party, she also exploded her target's head directly, as usual. She did not allow her targets any chance to turn the tables against them.

Chi Yang, who was about to dodge, noticed that the two killers who were about to shoot him had already been shot. Relieved of his worries, he mercilessly attacked the killers who were out in the open and besieged by the guards.

When the killers on the other side realized that all the killers on this side were killed in an instant, they were all mortified. One of them let out a whistle and prepared to retreat.

Yet, how could Chi Yang and the guards allow them to retreat?

Previously, they had been caught off guard by these people, and with the old master around, they had been restrained. Now that the danger that the old master faced was eliminated and he was now under Nuannuan's protection, Chi Yang no longer had any scruples. He casually pulled off one of their machine guns and rained his shots mercilessly at the group of killers.

Chapter 686: Amazing Equipment

The only option the killers had was to hide somewhere. Even so, they could not escape the fate of death by Chi Yang's hands.

A killer hid behind the wall of the private room, preparing to ambush Chi Yang. However, just as he was about to move, an iron frame on top of the private room suddenly collapsed and crashed down on him.

The other killer detected Chi Yang's approach and pulled the trigger, but the wall behind him collapsed unexpectedly, burying him underneath.

Although these assassins were powerful, they were like fluttering chicks when facing Chi Yang head-on. They could not resist his attacks at all.

What Chi Yang did not know was that while he was dealing with the little chicks, a sniper from 1.5 kilometers away was pointed at his head.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, duck!"

Suddenly hearing Nuannuan's cry, Chi Yang lost no time in reacting. He instinctively squatted down. As he ducked, he managed to kill off the last killer who stood somewhere close to him.

The moment he ducked toward the ground, a bullet fizzed past the spot where he had been standing. However, since there were no buildings behind him, the bullet continued on its projection toward somewhere far away.

One kilometer away, a sniper on a skyscraper saw this and thought that Chi Yang had suddenly squatted down to pick something up. He cursed, "F*ck!" He thought that Chi Yang was lucky to have dodged the bullet at such a critical moment.

However, because there were no buildings behind Chi Yang, it never occurred to the sniper that Chi Yang was already aware of his presence and the fact that he nearly got shot. Therefore, the sniper decided to fire again!

However, taking heed from Nuannuan's words, Chi Yang had been moving continuously. Even though his movement speed was not fast, it was not slow either.

To the sniper in the opposite building, he thought that Chi Yang was looking for survivors on the ground.

He was still secretly gleeful. Since his target was not alert anymore, he would definitely succeed in the next attack.

Even though his companions were all dead, their death paved the path of his success. This could reflect the value of his existence even more.

They had originally come to kill Chi Yuancheng. Since Chi Yang was present too, he decided to kill Chi Yang first before killing Chi Yuancheng. Then, he would have made a name for himself.

He aimed at Chi Yang and fired over and over again while Chi Yang kept slipping away from his bullets. Unbeknownst to the sniper, as Chi Yang ran from a body to another body to confirm their conditions, Zhong Nuannuan had already picked up a five-hundred-meter long-range gun and started to dismantle it.

"Nuannuan, the enemy is so far away. Are you sure you can kill him with a gun like this?"

Zhong Nuannuan smiled and said, "Yes, I have a friend who is a fan of this convenience. I just need to change the barrel and make it my own."

Then, to everyone's shock, Zhong Nuannuan took out two inconspicuous black cylinders from her bag. The cylinders looked light and looked like silencers, but Zhong Nuannuan quickly removed the barrel of the machine gun.

Chi Yang also realized that there was nothing more than meets the eye.

"How far does this thing go after turning it into a barrel?"

That was correct. This seemingly unremarkable black object was a gun barrel. "The barrel will increase by the range by 500 meters."

The people who disgusted her the most were snipers hiding in the back—that was why she placed four of the same barrels in her bag.

Currently, the furthest sniper rifle in the world could reach was only 2,400 meters. Under normal circumstances, unless they were top-notch mercenaries, it would be very difficult to kill someone at a range of 2,400 meters.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 687: Torturing The Opponent

Under normal circumstances, these snipers liked to snipe their targets at a distance of 1000 meters or 1500 meters. Hence, carrying four cylinders was more than enough for her to use.

For example, with just two cylinders and the 500-meter range of the long-range machine gun right now, it all added up for Nuannuan to kill that person.

Chi Yang had been pretending to examine the corpses. While the old master hid behind the table and remained out of sight. Therefore, the sniper had been searching for an opportunity to kill Chi Yang.

Finally, after 40 seconds, Chi Yang stopped moving.

A cruel smile appeared at the corner of the sniper's lips.

However, just as aligned his gun, the sniper saw Chi Yang smiling at him through the telescope.

Startled, the sniper realized that something was wrong.

After a momentary daze, the sniper took aim again. However, this time, it was Zhong Nuannuan who appeared in his telescopic sight.

Unexpectedly, Zhong Nuannuan was sneering at him.

The eyes in which Zhong Nuannuan looked at him were totally different than Chi Yang's.

Even though Chi Yang was looking at him, through the scope, the sniper noticed that Chi Yang's gaze was fleeting. Even though his face and eyes were facing him, his pupils were not focused on him.

Yet, how was Zhong Nuannuan able to focus her gaze on him and look into his eyes through the scope?

When he saw that Zhong Nuannuan was holding a gun and pointing it at him, the sniper was shocked and ready to scamper after abandoning his weapon.

However, on second thought...

This could not be right!

So what if this woman could see him?

Did she think that the gun that could reach 500 meters in her hand could hit him?

What a layman!

The sniper, who initially wanted to escape, smiled. He looked at Zhong Nuannuan through the scope and formed shapes with his mouth that sent a provocative message.

"Come on!"

Bang!

The sniper who was about to pull the trigger suddenly felt a sharp pain in his hand and screamed.

Lowering his head, he realized that his right hand and the trigger had shattered into mush.

The sniper screamed in fright.

He was not convinced at all that Zhong Nuannuan missed and hit him in the hand instead of his head.

What the sniper regarded as important as his life was his hand.

Without his hand, a sniper would be useless.

Meanwhile, Zhong Nuannuan was obviously toying with him.

She did not kill him with one shot. Instead, she decimated his hand.

Such a vicious woman!

Looking at the hand that had been separated from his wrist, the sniper was furious. He aimed the gun at Zhong Nuannuan once again, intending to use his left hand to open fire. Even if his left hand was not as powerful as his right hand that he might not be able to kill Zhong Nuannuan, he could still injure her.

However, Zhong Nuannuan, who had not moved for a long time, was like a cat playing with a mouse. When the sniper finally aimed at her, she raised her gun effortlessly and shot off the sniper's left hand again.

"Argh!"

The sniper howled again.

This time, his left and right hands were completely destroyed. No matter how unwilling the sniper was, he could only choose to survive.

Therefore, he started to leave.

However, just as he moved, his left ear was shot off.

The sniper howled again and cursed ceaselessly. "Crazy! You crazy woman! Crazy!"

He could not get it. Even if his opponent wanted him dead, she could just kill him. Was there a need to torture him like this?

Schwack!

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 688: Nuannuans Revenge

The sniper's right ear was also shot off.

The frightened sniper quickly ran for his life.

However, how could Miss Nuan forgive this despicable sniper who tried to assassinate her Big Brother Chi Yang and her grandfather-in-law?

He went past her bottom line.

Therefore, instead of killing the sniper off with a single shot like she usually did, Nuannuan fired a total of five times. After decimating the man's hands and ears, she finally shot him in the head.

The accuracy was comparable to shooting the man at point-blank.

"Nuannuan, how's it going? Did you hit him?"

Since Chi Yang could not see too far away, he was a little worried after seeing Zhong Nuannuan open fire so many times.

Staring at the man who could not be more dead than he was, Zhong Nuannuan nodded. "Yes, he should be dead. I saw that he's already fallen."

"That's good."

Due to the gunfight, Chi Yang immediately contacted the military base.

The people from the military base and Leng Jinpeng arrived at the same time.

Leng Jinpeng was stunned when he saw the mess.

"What happened?"

Chi Yang explained the situation to Leng Jinpeng, whose expression immediately darkened.

He asked if there were any survivors. After confirming that the killers committed suicide via biting off their tongues when the assassination failed, he got someone to clean up the scene.

This private restaurant had a compound huge enough that the distance between each private room was relatively far and the private room that Chi Yang booked was at the innermost part of the restaurant. In addition to the involvement of the military base, this incident did not alarm too many people.

When most of them had left, Leng Jinpeng turned to look at Zhong Nuannuan. While Chi Yang was busy relaying instructions, he said to her, "Nuannuan, come here for a while. I have something to ask you."

"Okay."

Chi Yang was talking when he heard Leng Jinpeng speaking in a softer volume. His heart sank and he walked over immediately. He pulled Zhong Nuannuan, who was about to leave with Leng Jinpeng, into his arms.

"You can ask me if you have any questions. Why ask her alone?"

At the side, Old Master also frowned slightly. He went along with his grandson and said, "Lil Leng, what do you want to ask Nuannuan alone that we, her family, can't hear?"

Leng Jinpeng, "...!!!"

Why were they acting like Leng Jinpeng was about to eat Chi Yang's wife and Old Master Chi's granddaughter-in-law?

Was he not just asking questions, like they routinely would?

Must they look at Leng Jinpeng like he was a thief?

They were clearly comrades, but at this moment, it felt like they had become enemies.

"I just have something to ask Nuannuan. What's with your expression?" Leng Jinpeng was displeased.

"Nuannuan is also my savior. How could I not treat her well?"

"Then, ask away in front of my grandfather and me. Don't talk to Nuannuan alone."

"That's right!"

Chi Yang and the old master echoed each other's words, making Leng Jinpeng so angry that he wanted to stomp his feet.

Frankly speaking, Zhong Nuannuan knew what Leng Jinpeng wanted her to ask in private. It was also time for her identity to be made public. After all, she did not want her Big Brother Chi Yang to live in fear all day.

"Uncle Leng, I know what you want to ask me. I also know that you chose not to let Big Brother Chi Yang and Grandpa know because you're afraid that they'll be hurt because of me, but it doesn't matter. They are the closest family I have in my life, so there's nothing that they can't know about me."

Leng Jinpeng, "...!!!"

She was right! Initially, he had wanted to ask Nuannuan secretly and find out her identity. Only then would he be able to change the identity that she had already established in the first place.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 689: Nuannuans Identity

If there was truly a problem with Zhong Nuannuan's identity, he would help her to the best of his abilities as long as she did not approach Chi Yang with the intention of killing him.

However, after what had happened tonight, Leng Jinpeng was no longer worried about Zhong Nuannuan.

If she had approached Chi Yang to kill him, then tonight would be the best chance.

Even though Chi Yang was not easy to kill, he had an old master with him.

After this incident, Leng Jinpeng felt that even if Zhong Nuannuan turned out to be someone with a horrifying background, at least she stayed true to Chi Yang.

Everything that Leng Jinpeng did this time was for the stupid brat's sake.

Yet, how did the brat respond?

Tsk tsk!

Leng Jinpeng was furious when he saw that Chi Yang still looked like he wanted to bite him.

"Fine, fine, fine! You're all good people, but I'm the only bad person!"

Initially, he thought that Chi Yang—or the old master, at least—would understand why he was doing this. However, Leng Jinpeng quickly realized that he had been overthinking.

Not only did Chi Yang look at Leng Jinpeng like he was the worst person in the world, but even the old master looked like he was saying, ‘How can you be so dumb?’ Leng Jinpeng was dismayed.

“Then, let’s go in and talk while we eat.”

The guards, “...”

“Nuannuan, can you still eat?”

Zhong Nuannuan nodded and said, “Of course! Why not? Besides, Grandpa must be hungry now. Although this private room is unusable now, isn’t there no one in the private room in front of us? Let’s go to that private room to eat! We’ve already ordered the dishes. It’s not worth it if we skipped out on dinner!”

Looking at the bloody mess on the ground, the group of men cursed silently—

How tolerant was this girl’s heart?!

Having gone through this kind of assassination many times, the old master was calm. Yet, Nuannuan...

From this, it could be seen that Nuannuan must have experienced this as much as Old Master, if not more.

However, Chi Yang was the first to react.

“Alright, then we’ll go to the private room in front to eat. The dishes I ordered earlier should be ready. We’ll just let them serve the dishes.”

“Alright!”

Upon hearing that the dishes would be served, Zhong Nuannuan’s stomach growled.

Chi Yang gently rubbed Nuannuan’s stomach, his heart aching. “Bear with it for a while. It’s almost time to eat. I ordered all your favorite food.”

“Okay.” When she heard that it was all her favorite food, Nuannuan’s stomach cooperated and growled a few more times.

The old master, ‘... What about me???’

Leng Jinpeng, ‘... I don’t feel anything anymore.’ After eating too much dog chow, he knew that none of the food Chi Yang ordered would be Leng Jinpeng’s favorite.

Due to the fact that the guards had not eaten for a whole day, the old master’s heart ached for his guards, so he asked them to come in for dinner first. They could ask questions after having dinner.

When they were eating, Leng Jinpeng wanted to sit further away from Zhong Nuannuan and Chi Yang. Who knew that he would sit opposite the two of them? He was forced to take in every single detail within his gaze—the loving gaze Nuannuan and Chi Yang exchanged while they ate; and how Chi Yang could not help himself from wiping Nuannuan’s mouth every time he picked up food for Nuannuan.

Thankfully, Leng Jinpeng already had dinner at Selina’s house, or he would have lost all of his appetites.

When everyone was done eating and the guards had already left, their conversation began.

“Nuannuan, I went to Selina’s house today because Lil Rui was attacked again. Once again, Ye Hai wanted to take Lil Rui’s life but thankfully, Selina saved him! You’re right, Ye Hai is a poisonous snake.”

Chapter 690: Family

Leng Jinpeng’s words stunned Chi Yang.

He knew that Ye Hai was someone with deep thoughts, but he did not expect Ye Hai to really want to murder Leng Qirui.

However, Zhong Nuannuan looked unfazed as if she expected it. She smiled and said, “Although this is very infuriating, it’s still worth it to let Uncle Leng see Ye Hai’s true colors. At least Leng Qirui won’t be harmed by Ye Hai in the future.”

Leng Jinpeng sighed. “Yes.”

“Ask whatever you want to ask. Are you a soldier? Why are you beating around the bush for? Lil Leng, you’ve changed!”

Leng Jinpeng, “...”

The old master beside him was so anxious that his mouth was about to bubble. He did not even enjoy his meal to the fullest, but when they finally got down to business, Leng Jinpeng brought the topic to his son.

“What I wanted to say was that when I went to thank Selina today, I found out that Selina was actually the daughter of Duke Eton of Luntan. Although she’s adopted, Duke Eton likes her very much. He didn’t just include her in his genealogy book, but he has also announced that he’ll give his inheritance to Selina and her younger sister. I knew that Selina is close to you. I also know that you, Selina, and Aiden grew up in an orphanage abroad.

“This means that what Chi Yang said about you in the marriage report is wrong. Although you are Zhong Kuijun’s daughter, you’ve been through extraordinary things. You also know that Chi Yang is an extremely important and outstanding officer in our army. I am happy to see the marriage between the two of you. However, you also know that since I am the commander-in-chief and Chi Yang’s direct supervisor, I have to fulfill my duty and investigate his fiancée’s identity. Therefore, I hope that you can tell me the truth.”

Afraid that Zhong Nuannuan would be put in a spot, Leng Jinpeng added—

“Everyone here is trustworthy. If you’re facing any difficulties, we’ll try our best to help you.”

Chi Yang was about to fly into a rage when he heard all those things about Zhong Nuannuan. However, he withdrew his usual austere expression and held Zhong Nuannuan's hand as he said gently, "Don't worry, we're already a family. No matter what, we'll be together!"

Zhong Nuannuan, "..."

Big Brother Chi Yang's words struck her head over heels, but it was clear that her heart was filled with happiness.

This kind of happiness was something that she was unable to achieve even after spending her entire life in its pursuit.

Money was important to a mercenary, but when you realized that you only had money left in your life, how bland would that life be?

Therefore, in her previous life, she pursued kinship so desperately. If it were not for the fact that Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Kuijun still managed to disappoint Nuannuan although they tried so hard to hide it, she would have given in to their love for money and spoil them with money they never imagined seeing.

However, what she did not get in her previous life, she still got it in this life.

Chi Yang was not only her lover but also his family!

"Little Girl, I'm also your family. If there's anything, I'll definitely stand on your side." That was all he said.

Seeing the determination in the old master's eyes, Zhong Nuannuan's eyes became wet again.

Old Master was such a protective person.

He was a very upright man, and he was very picky when it came to judging people. However, once he had decided, he would treat you very, very well!

In her previous life, even if she did not perform well, once the Old Master approved her, he would still love and protect her like how a real grandfather would. However, from time to time, he would sigh and let her know that he still felt a little regretful about this marriage.

However, in this life, she would not allow Grandpa to have any regrets.
