Chapter 731: A Double Loss

Zhong Kuijun wanted to refute Zhong Nuannuan terribly, but he felt that no matter how he answered, any words that came out from him would sound so weak.

Even if he reported it to the police and waited two days for news, he thought it through and stopped looking for her after Jiang Shuwan convinced him that losing Nuannuan was a blessing in disguise to them.

“So, since all of you didn’t want me around so bad, I was lucky enough to be adopted by Duke Eton of Luntan and become part of Luntan’s nobility. What does this have to do with you? Do I have to thank you for abandoning me and using my family’s money to support yourselves?”

There was no need for Zhong Nuannuan to say anything more. The righteousness and anger in the hearts of the officers had already been ignited.

Everyone wished to hack Zhong Kuijun into pieces.

So, what were a few dissing lines from the Goddess?

Such a person should be sent to prison and be punished by the law.

After Zhong Nuannuan stuffed the bag into Zhong Kuijun’s hands, she turned around and looked at Ling Pinyuan, who was also staring at her in disbelief with a pale face.

“Miss Ling, Chi Yang is my legitimate fiancé. My father has already called Camino’s Foreign Affairs Office regarding this matter. The director of the Foreign Affairs Office welcomes the union between me and my fiancé. So, if I hear you fantasizing about my fiancé again, Miss Ling, and even announce that I’m not worthy as your rival as you try to force your way into my marriage, I’m afraid my revenge will not be as simple as picking up a few pieces of raw stones from Soaring Clouds Pavilion. Neither will it be as simple as throwing Miss Ling into the pond.

“Of course, if Miss Ling still insists that my goal in approaching Big Brother Chi Yang is to kill him, and I’m an assassin, you can also go to the Foreign Affairs Office to check on my files. After all, since Miss Ling has no problem checking the records in the military base so casually, checking a mere file from the Foreign Affairs Office should be a piece of cake!”

Ling Pinyuan trembled in anger, but she did not have the strength to retort.

Although this turn of events felt impossible and unbelievable, Ling Pinyuan also knew that Leng Jinpeng, as the commander-in-chief, would never lie about Zhong Nuannuan’s real identity.

Therefore, not only was Zhong Nuannuan prettier than her, her figure was better than hers, and her physical strength was higher than hers. Zhong Nuannuan’s IQ was also not on the same level as hers. As for Zhong Nuannuan, not only did she know how to pick raw stones, she... was also the royal family of Luntan!

Ling Pinyuan felt that her self-esteem, self-confidence, and the reason for her pride had all crumbled in front of Zhong Nuannuan.

She felt like a clown who had dug a hole and waited for Zhong Nuannuan to jump in. In the end, she was the one who fell into the hole.

She had screwed herself to death, and assisted Zhong Nuannuan to greatness.

This girl, who had originally been a nobody, was now not only admired by all the officers but also announced her uniquely noble status to everyone.

As for herself? Not only did she slap on the name of being the third party in a military marriage, she was despised by everyone and lost more than five billion bucks worth of jade.

Ling Pinyuan helped Zhong Nuannuan bring out her noble status so openly. However, after descending the stage, she still had to receive her punishment of not getting promoted for at least five years.

This time, she had thoroughly offended her Captain. In the future, when the captain went on missions, he probably would not want to be in the same group as her anymore, right? If they were not in the same group, she would not be able to make any military deeds. If she could not make any military deeds, she would not be able to get promoted quickly.

In other words, even if her punishment banned her from being promoted for five years, she would probably be stuck at the level of a second lieutenant for many years to come.

Saying that she had a double loss was an understatement.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 732: Apologize

At this moment, regret filled Ling Pinyuan's stomach until it threatened to spill.

However...

Would Zhong Nuannuan stop being mean and put a halt to her poisonous tongue?

Obviously not.

After all, she was the classic type of person who would take revenge for the smallest grievances and return it double.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Ling Pinyuan and said with a cheeky smile, "By the way, Miss Ling, Aiden will be holding a large auction at Lijing Mansion in three days. At that time, I'll bring the 14 raw stones selected from Soaring Clouds Pavilion to the auction. Guess, other than the imperial jade that has been discovered, how much jade will we find in the remaining 14?"

Ling Pinyuan, "...!!!"

When Zhong Nuannuan saw that Ling Pinyuan was trembling more and more, she did not stop. Instead, she added, "If Miss Ling is interested, why don't... we have another bet?"

Bet?

Bet your ass!

Ling Pinyuan really wanted to rush forward and hack Zhong Nuannuan into pieces.

However, she could not win.

Ling Pinyuan decided not to make Zhong Nuannuan her enemy because she understood what happened to Ou Mingxi.

After all, Ling Pinyuan nearly lost her entire lifetime's worth just because of a very small matter.

If she continued to suffer these losses, she would probably end up like Ou Mingxi.

This was the good thing about Ling Pinyuan—she was not all empty up there.

Even though she looked down on the weak because of her privileged family background, she would never bow down to those who were weaker than her. If she lost, she would grab everything back at double the rate.

To put it bluntly, she would butter up to the strong and bully the weak.

If Zhong Nuannuan was weaker than her, Ling Pinyuan would make sure to make her claims at double the rate the next day even if she had suffered a loss today, even if it meant that she had to pay the price.

However, once she found out that Zhong Nuannuan was much stronger than her, no matter how much she suffered under her opponent's hands, she would not dare to have the guts to claim compensation for her grievances.

Therefore, when Ling Pinyuan understood the cruel truth, she took a deep breath, took off her peaked cap, and gave Zhong Nuannuan a 90-degree bow.

"I'm sorry, Miss Zhong. I was in the wrong earlier, so I apologize to you. It did occur to me that there was more to your identity than meets the eye, and I was paranoid that Captain would get hurt. Since you have such a powerful background, and the higher-ups have no doubts about you, I won't question you anymore. Please forgive me for the harm I have caused you. Only I, firstly, have lost an imperial jade worth five billion. Based on what Miss Zhong just said, we actually lost more than just five billion. Furthermore, I'm about to receive my punishment from the military base, so I hope that Miss Zhong will forgive the Ling family for what I am about to face, please."

It was undeniable that Ling Pinyuan was more than twice as smart as Zhong Qianqian and Ou Mingxi.

Not only did she apologize at impeccable timing, she even apologized sincerely in front of everyone.

This made Zhong Nuannuan and Chi Yang, who were already prepared to destroy the Ling family, stop their plans at the same time.

Correct. As the saying goes, birds of a feather flock together.

When Ling Pinyuan repeatedly provoked Zhong Nuannuan, Chi Yang and Nuannuan had already secretly decided to destroy the Ling family to teach Ling Pinyuan a lesson.

However, Ling Pinyuan apologized in public and even told the officers about what happened to the Ling family.

Actually, even if these officers heard about it, they could still make a move on the Ling family. However, Ling Pinyuan's attitude was still very sincere as she apologized, and Zhong Nuannuan had indeed benefited a lot from the Ling family, so the two of them decided at the same time not to make a move for the time being.

Chapter 733: Zhong Kuijun Arrested

As long as Ling Pinyuan did not cause any more trouble, this jade worth tens of billions would be considered as an apology gift.

After that, Chi Yang took out his phone and made a call. He only said, "You can come in now."

It was inaudible to most people, but there was a sudden bulge in Zhong Kuijun's heart as he was suddenly filled with a terrible premonition.

Even though he should stay behind to get Nuannuan's forgiveness, the feeling of unease grew stronger. It was so intense that he did not even have the mood to say another word to her. He turned to leave.

What commander position, what Cloud Group, what Pu Yu's assets...

He did not want any of them anymore.

At that moment, Zhong Kuijun only wanted to be a free man living under the sun.

So, while everyone's eyes were on Ling Pinyuan and Zhong Nuannuan, Zhong Kuijun left quietly with his bag.

It was only a matter of time before he was arrested. Zhong Kuijun did not dare return home, so he decided to run away.

Yet...

When he reached the bottom of the stairs, he ran into a group of people.

Zhong Kuijun knew these people. They were from the justice department.

Now that he saw these people, Zhong Kuijun could not help but feel nervous.

Therefore, he prepared to circle to another side from afar.

However, when these people saw him, they took a detour and walked toward him.

Zhong Kuijun's heart skipped a beat as blood rushed to his head.

He continued to walk toward the other exit, while the people behind him continued to walk toward him.

At first, they were walking, but when they saw that he was walking in the wrong direction, they started running directly at him.

Oh, no...

Zhong Kuijun was filled with fear and despair.

Finally, his comrades in the justice department caught up with him and placed an arrest warrant with a red stamp in front of Zhong Kuijun.

“Zhong Kuijun, please come with us.”

At that moment, Zhong Kuijun’s eyes were blurry, and he could not see the people before him clearly.

He only knew that it was a winter afternoon filled with sunlight. It was almost the same as the afternoon sun on the day Pu Yu died...

A pair of cold handcuffs were placed on his hands. They were so cold that he shivered.

Zhong Kuijun opened his mouth to say something, but he did not know what to say.

He did not know whether these people arrested him because they found out that he killed Pu Yu 17 years ago or because they found out that he had dealings with the underworld.

Regardless, Zhong Kuijun knew that he was done for.

“Oh, Qianqian is here?”

Although it was already late at night, the entire Gu family house was brightly lit.

The Gu family house was a villa located next to a national forest park on Fourth Ring Road.

This forest park used to be the emperor’s secondary palace in ancient times. It was a summer resort surrounded by an elegant environment.

Even though the villa was located outside the imperial summer resort, it was still surrounded by mountains and rivers. It was like an otherworldly paradise, and it was the home of many wealthy families.

This villa was very big. It was nearly as big as the imperial summer resort.

After all, ancient emperors loved to indulge themselves. Even if it was just a summer resort, it was so big that it could make one’s hair stand on end.

Therefore, when this villa was first built, it caused a sensation throughout Camino.

To be able to buy a villa here, the buyer must possess assets of at least ten billion.

The villa was built on a very large mountain range. The mountain range was very large and wide, but it was not very tall. It provided an extensive view of the surroundings that consisted of mountains and rivers. This place was excellent in terms of feng shui.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 734: Old Master Nangongs Long-lasting Wish

Therefore, not only did the Gu family live here, but there were also a few third-tier and second-tier wealthy families. Even the second young master of the Nangong family, Nangong Qin, bought a villa here.

However, as a third-tier wealthy family, the Gu family lived at the foot of this forest park while the young master of a first-tier wealthy family, Nangong Qin, lived at the top of the mountain.

Speaking of the Nangong family, it would not do them justice if they did not mention the outstanding young masters of the Nangong family.

Firstly, the tale must start from Old Master Nangong.

Old Master Nangong's name was Nangong Renyi, and he followed the previous President's quest in conquering his land. He had made countless contributions to the military and was now a top admiral in Camino.

He had three sons and a daughter.

The eldest son, Nangong Shu, was currently the commander-in-chief in Emperor District's military base, an admiral.

The second son, Nangong Qin, was a business genius and was currently the chairman of the largest group in Camino, Imperial Palace Group. Under the company's name, they managed properties, hotels, entertainment, delicacies, department stores, jewelry, games... The company was so large that it was safe to say that he had dabbled in almost every lucrative industry, and was doing very well in all of them.

The third was Nangong Zhao, the director of the Foreign Affairs Office.

He had three sons—one in the army, one in business, and one in politics. All of them were well-known figures.

Therefore, it was not without reason that the Nangong family had been at the top of the Four Dominant Families for so many years.

However, the Nangong family also had something that made every man's heart ache.

The little princess of the Nangong family, Nangong Yu, went missing.

She went missing 18 years ago.

The Nangong family suffered a huge change, and the matriarch of the Nangong family passed away in a fit of anger. Nangong Renyi lost his daughter and his wife. He also walked through the gates of hell once, and from then on, his health had been deteriorating.

The people from the Nangong family would be vegetarian on the first and fifteenth days of every year. They even shouldered the responsibilities of maintaining the various monasteries around Emperor District all year round. They only hoped that by doing these things, their family members who were still alive would suffer less.

The Nangong family's daughter was very, very precious.

This was because since Old Master Nangong's generation, they had always had many brothers and not a single girl.

At long last, when they had finally produced a daughter, they lost her.

Hence, he had been hoping that his three rascals would give him a granddaughter.

It turned out that...

The eldest, Nangong Shu, had two sons—his eldest grandson, Nangong Jin, and his second grandson, Nangong Li.

Right now, his eldest grandson, Nangong Jin[1], was in the military base. He was well-known as the commander of the special forces team in Emperor District; a major general.

His second grandson, Nangong Li, was originally in the Ministry of Public Security. Now, he was working in the South City police station as the deputy station chief.

When Nangong Renyi's eldest son gave birth to two sons and decided to stop having children, the old master placed his hopes on the second son, hoping that his second son would give birth to a granddaughter for him.

After praying to the moon and stars, the old master finally heard something from Nangong Qin when his second grandson, Nangong Li, was two years old.

However, in these four years of hearing cries from the delivery room twice, Nangong Renyi's second son, Nangong Qin, still gave birth to two sons—his third grandson, Nangong Yun, and his fourth grandson, Nangong Zheng.

These two grandsons had perfectly inherited their father's mantle. At the age of three, they displayed astonishing talent in doing business, much like Nangong Qin. The old master was very gratified to know that.

Since both the eldest and second eldest children had stopped giving birth to more children, the Old Master began to exert pressure on his third son, Nangong Zhao, who claimed not to marry.

Under his father's tyranny, Nangong Zhao eventually established his own household too. He listened to his father and had children.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 735: A House Full Of Men

Although Nangong Renyi's third son decided to have children much later than his eldest and second sons, the old master was still very happy as long as he was willing to bear children.

Old Master Nangong promised his third son that it would be enough if he produced one child, regardless of gender.

After all, Old Master Nangong's last child was a girl too.

Therefore, Old Master Nangong invested all his feelings into his third daughter-in-law's pregnancy. When he heard that this third daughter-in-law was pregnant with fraternal twins, he even built a pink and sweet nursery to house the twins.

Everything in the room was pink.

However, as two sets of cries exploded in the human world, they opened the babies' swaddles and saw—

That the two children still came with protruding taps!

They became the Nangong family's fourth grandson, Nangong Yi, and fifth grandson, Nangong Ze.

Nangong Yi was a mathematics genius. He had a master's degree from Capital University as an exam-exempted student and was currently working in the Tax Department.

Nangong Ze was a medical genius. He was originally a member of the Combat Medic Association, but he was later transferred to the Medical Administrative Department.

It could be said that the Nangong family was fully deserving of its title as the number one among the wealthy. The three generations of men in the Nangong family were all outstanding individuals. Their only regret was that there were too few girls, and they had lost their only girl.

This caused the whole family to be awash in pity and sadness for the past 20 years.

It was not until Old Master Nangong's eldest grandson, Major General Nangong Jin, had a pair of fraternal twins that produced the little princess, Nangong Ling, that Old Master Nangong Renyi's desire for a granddaughter was fulfilled.

However, Nangong Yu remained a pain that the Nangong family could never bring up.

The second young master of the Nangong family, Nangong Qin, lived at the peak of the villa area. Gu Mingzhe knew the third young master of the Nangong family, Nangong Yun, and the fourth young master of the Nangong family, Nangong Zheng. One time, when he attended a banquet held by the Nangong family, he accidentally discovered a crescent emerald jade pendant on an oil painting in the corridor.

Emerald jade was one of the best among imperial jade and was very rare on the market. Since the Gu family was involved in the jade and jewelry industry, Gu Mingzhe was very sensitive to these things since he was young.

Although he despised Zhong Qianqian so much that he could not remember what she looked like, he remembered her wearing that jade pendant around her neck every time he met her as she attended various banquets in Jiang District.

Although the jade pendant was valuable, it was only worth a hundred million. It was nothing to the Gu family, who had a net worth of nearly 30 billion. Therefore, Gu Mingzhe never paid attention to Zhong Qianqian. He only noticed the necklace.

Later, Gu Mingzhe was fortunate enough to attend a banquet in the Nangong family and accidentally discovered the oil painting of this necklace. He was shocked, so he pretended to ask Third Young Master

Nangong Yun about the origin of this painting. Only then did he know that this was the portrait of the little princess of the Nangong family who had been missing for many years.

The young masters of the Nangong family all had a sister complex. Each of their family had a collection of things related to their missing sister.

Therefore, Gu Mingzhe suspected that Zhong Qianqian had something to do with Nangong Yu, so he immediately rushed to Jiang District and happened to run into the banquet that Zhong Kuijun had organized to celebrate Zhong Nuannuan's return.

Now, everyone in the Gu family knew that Zhong Qianqian was Nangong Yu's daughter, the true little princess of the Nangong family, the little granddaughter.

Therefore, even though Zhong Qianqian offended Selina and landed the Gu family in such a desperate situation, the Gu family was not angry.

After all, there was nobody nobler than the little princess of the Nangong family.

The Gu family was located at the foot of the mountain in the villa are on the left bank. It was a six-story villa.

There was a 600-square-meter grass garden in front of the villa. On both sides of the villa were gardens that took up nearly 500 square meters. Behind them was an infinity pool.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 736: Country Bumpkin

The garden was beautiful. There was a fountain surrounded by uniquely shaped tables and chairs. It was obvious that this was a family that liked to organize banquets.

At that moment, the Gu family was brightly lit. All the lights in the six-floored castle-like building had been turned on.

The warm light illuminated the villa beautifully.

When Zhong Nuannuan arrived at the Gu family's villa and saw the villa that looked like a castle, she was stunned.

"Brother Mingzhe, your house is so beautiful!"

Gu Mingzhe held Zhong Qianqian's hand with a smile on his lips, but he was lamenting about how much Zhong Qianqian acted like a country bumpkin.

"You said... Whose house is it?"

"Your..." Zhong Qianqian understood after saying that word and switched immediately. "My home!"

Gu Mingzhe let out a happy and gentle laugh. At that moment, the door to the Gu family opened up automatically.

Gu Mingzhe's father, Gu Zhongcheng, Gu Mingzhe's mother, Qin Yun, and the matriarch of the Huang family who was also Selina's biological mother, Gu Mingyan, were currently surrounded by a group of socialites and wealthy ladies.

The door opened, and dazzling fireworks lit up the surroundings. It looked especially beautiful in the dark night sky.

"God, it's so beautiful!"

Zhong Qianqian covered her mouth as tears streamed down her face.

Yes, these were tears that she had been brewing for a long time.

She had already decided to cry at Mr. and Mrs. Gu's kindness when she saw them.

Everyone was dumbfounded when they saw Zhong Qianqian crying.

She cried because it was beautiful?

What was she crying for?

Hearing that Young Master Gu had already obtained his marriage certificate, those ladies who insisted to come to see the daughter-in-law of the Gu family were all dumbfounded.

This Zhong Qianqian did not have the looks, the figure, height, background, or style. She was old-fashioned and as dumb as a country bumpkin...

Could it be that Young Master Gu had glaucoma?

Everyone was a lady. Although they did not say anything to slander the Young Lady of the Gu family who acted so embarrassingly, Zhong Qianqian could clearly see the contempt and disdain in their eyes.

So angry!

Was this the only thing they knew?

Qin Yun gave an awkward laugh as she rushed forward warmly. She held Zhong Qianqian's hand and said, "Qianqian, I've waited so long for you. How is it? Are you tired?"

Zhong Qianqian had already stopped crying when all the daughters of prestigious families looked at her with disdain.

After receiving Mrs. Gu's care and concern, Zhong Qianqian felt a little less dismayed. Initially, she was a little embarrassed. However, just so she could give these rich young ladies who thought that looking down on her was justified just because they were from prestigious families a hard time, Zhong Qianqian stopped pretending and smiled. "Mom, I'm not tired. Thank you for preparing such a grand welcome party for me, Mom and Dad."

Upon hearing Zhong Qianqian address them as her mother and father so easily, Mr. and Mrs. Gu could not help but feel their mouths twitch and their heads spin.

To be honest, the little princess of the Nangong family, whose arrival everyone looked forward to receiving, appeared to be nothing more than ordinary after everyone saw her true appearance.

Why had they not realize that the daughter from the Zhong Family was so tacky when they were in Jiang District?

After that, the daughter of the Liang family could not hold it in anymore. After all, she was not there because she had a crush on Gu Mingzhe. Although she was only the daughter of a third-tier wealthy family, she was engaged to a son of a second-tier wealthy family.

She came here today purely to see the daughter-in-law of the Gu family. After all, Gu Mingzhe was considered one of the most handsome young masters in the third-tier wealthy families.

However, after looking at Zhong Qianqian, she nearly burst out laughing.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 737: Second Child

“Miss Zhong really likes to joke. This is just a simple fireworks display, and you praise it for being grand and welcoming... Miss Zhong, have you never experienced a so-called welcome party before?”

Zhong Qianqian, “...”

“Young Master Gu, I used to think that you had such high standards that you won’t even fancy a girl like Sisi. I even thought that you’d marry a rich daughter from the first-tier wealthy families. Yet, this Zhong Qianqian... Young Master Gu must have married her as a joke, right? What exactly do you like about her? Comparing her to Sisi is an insult to Sisi!

“Sisi has been with you and has a crush on you for so many years. When she told me that you married someone else in tears, I couldn’t believe it. However, now that I’ve seen you bring back this unpresentable woman... Young Master Gu, you really disappoint us. You don’t deserve Sisi!”

Zhong Qianqian felt like she had been cursed.

She did not even know this woman. What right did she have to criticize her?

She even claimed that Zhong Qianqian was unpresentable

However, Zhong Qianqian was well aware of this girl named Sisi who she was referring to.

At the time, as the Gu family’s business shifted its focus to Emperor District, the girl named Chen Sisi started going around Gu Mingzhe’s vicinity.

Zhong Qianqian remembered that it was the last time the Gu family held a banquet in Jiang District. After the banquet ended, they were going to move to Emperor District. That time, while Zhong Qianqian attended the banquet, so did Chen Sisi.

At that time, the person Zhong Qianqian hated the most was Chen Sisi.

That was because Chen Sisi was pretty and played the piano at a master’s level. She was the daughter of a third-tier wealthy family in Emperor District. She also had a master’s degree and could speak six languages. It was said that her family planned to send her to the Foreign Affairs Office to be a diplomat after she graduated from university.

At that time, all the daughters of the wealthy families in Jiang District surrounded Chen Sisi and praised her for her beauty, good family background, and good piano skills. She was also a talented girl who was proficient in six languages. They felt that when she stood beside Gu Mingzhe, other women paled in comparison. People even claimed that they were a match made in heaven.

At that time, Zhong Qianqian was very angry. She wanted to be the person who stood beside Gu Mingzhe and made Chen Sisi jealous.

Finally, she did it.

She wanted to show off in front of Chen Sisi today, but before she could even see Chen Sisi, she was humiliated by Chen Sisi's friend.

Just as Zhong Qianqian's anger was about to burst, a slightly shrill voice suddenly rang.

"It's none of your business what kind of woman my brother looks for! Who the hell are you? What right do you have to criticize our Gu family? Who does Chen Sisi think she is? Can she compare to my sister-in-law? I think that my sister-in-law is better than Chen Sisi in every aspect. What are you going to do about it? When the man didn't even want her anymore, you still insist on sticking close for what? Getting criticized? If you're not asking for a bashing right now, I don't know what is."

The girl stood between Mr. Gu and the other woman.

Zhong Qianqian took a closer look. This woman's facial features... were exactly the same as Selina's!

However, Selina's looks carried hints of European American descent.

Other than her European American descent, Selina's facial features were a replica of this woman's.

This woman was very beautiful, and her facial features were well-defined.

This must be Selina's mother, Gu Mingyan, who married into a second-tier wealthy family, right?

Meanwhile, it was obvious that this girl did not inherit Gu Mingyan's beauty. Her looks were very average. However, after this girl said such hurtful words to the young lady who dissed Zhong Qianqian, not only did Gu Mingyan not reprimand her, but she looked at the girl with eyes full of affection. This...

This should be the daughter that Gu Mingyan gave birth to with the Huang family's head, Huang Tiancheng—Huang Yuhuan!

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 738: Backup

Of course, otherwise, she would not have called Gu Mingzhe 'brother'.

Even though Huang Yuhuan looked like a mean person, Zhong Qianqian still liked her cousin-in-law, especially after she stood up for Qianqian.

Liang Wanchen's cheeks flushed with anger after being scolded so viciously by Huang Yuhuan. "Huang Yuhuan, where's your self-restraint as a lady? You're so young, yet you're already so sharp-tongued. Is this how the Huang family raise you?"

Seeing that her cousin-in-law had been wronged, Zhong Qianqian stepped forward and prepared to start a fight with Liang Wanchen.

However, before Zhong Qianqian could say anything, her words were cut off once more.

“You keep criticizing others’ upbringing, but does that make Miss Liang well-mannered? My nephew’s wife did not provoke you, right? She’s the one joining the Gu family and is about to become the Gu family’s daughter-in-law. May I ask what does this have to do with Miss Liang?”

“My niece-in-law didn’t provoke you, yet you speak rudely and call her ignorant. Is this the so-called upbringing Miss Liang keeps harping on about? Chen Sisi is wonderful and good at everything. However, to marry such a woman, don’t you think it will feel like bringing home a 3D computer? Although Qianqian isn’t as well-rounded as Chen Sisi, she’s better than Chen Sisi in one aspect and it’s the fact that she’s being real.

“Qianqian is much more real than Chen Sisi. She’s the real young and lively girl with flesh and blood. For someone like Miss Liang who has the upbringing and noble character of a wealthy family, you should quickly marry into a second-tier wealthy family and become the rich wife that you’ve always wanted to be. Our Gu family has no need for women like Miss Liang and Miss Chen who possess knowledge without liveliness.”

Then, without waiting for Liang Wanchen to speak, Gu Mingyan walked up to Zhong Qianqian with a smile and held Zhong Qianqian’s hand tenderly. “Qianqian, you must be tired, right? Come, come sit in the room with me. Your uncle has to attend a social gathering tonight, but when he heard you’re coming, he specially prepared a gift for you. Come in and take a look.”

This was the first time Zhong Qianqian had been protected like this.

At that moment, even though she was not the richest and most powerful woman in the world, Zhong Qianqian was the happiest woman in the world.

“Everyone, all of you wanted to take a look when you heard that our Mingzhe brought his newly-wedded wife back. Now that you’ve seen her, please return to your house. It’s getting late now. I hope everyone will attend the banquet that will be held the day after tomorrow.”

Mrs. Gu, Qin Yun, did not feel that Gu Mingyan or Huang Yuhan were being mean at all. She smiled and let everyone leave.

Most of the ladies here lingered among the third-tier families, so even though they felt that Zhong Qianqian was inferior to them—disgustingly beneath them—they did not dare to say it out loud.

Although Liang Wanchen was about to marry into a second-tier wealthy family, she was not married yet after all. Compared to the matriarch of a second-tier wealthy family, Gu Mingyan, Liang Wanchen was nothing.

Therefore, even though she was angry, she did not dare say anything else and left in a fit of anger.

Gradually, most of the people left, leaving only the Gu family, Aunt Gu Mingyan, and Huang Yuhan.

Zhong Qianqian thought about how she had offended Selina and caused so much trouble for the Gu family. Also, Selina was Gu Mingyan's daughter, which sent Gu Mingyan on a trip to Jiang District and chucked into the trash can. Zhong Qianqian felt a little embarrassed.

"Auntie, Dad, Mom, I'm sorry. I said something that upset Selina and caused so much trouble for Auntie, Mom, and Dad."

Hehe, did she think that she could make up for the Gu family's loss with just an apology?

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 739: The Gu Family

If not for the sake of the Nangong family, Mrs. Gu would have rushed forward and bashed Zhong Qianqian to death.

Eventually, Mrs. Gu managed to suppress her murderous aura.

Mr. Gu was someone who often made big decisions. He was the first to recover from the dismay. He sighed. "Qianqian, actually, this incident has brought irreparable damage to the Gu family."

Zhong Qianqian was stunned by his words. She was about to say something when Mr. Gu added, "However, you're young, and everyone makes mistakes, no? Since you're already married to Mingzhe, you two are bound by legal law. In the future, your mother-in-law and I will be no different from your biological parents. We're family now, so there's no need to stand on ceremony."

Zhong Qianqian knew that Gu Mingzhe's parents were extremely good, but she did not expect them to be this good. Her tears started to fall as though someone turned on a tap.

Gu Mingyan smiled slightly and walked to Zhong Qianqian's side. She held Zhong Qianqian's hand tenderly. "Silly child, why do you keep crying during such a happy occasion as meeting your in-laws? No matter what grievances you've suffered, you must remember that we're your family. We'll stand on your side unconditionally. Understand?"

Zhong Qianqian nodded vigorously. "Yes, I understand, Auntie. Thank you."

"We're family, why are you thanking me for!"

Huang Yuhan quickly walked up and held Zhong Qianqian's hand too, immersing Zhong Qianqian in the warmth of her family on the first day she came to the Gu family. She had undoubtedly considered herself as a member of the Gu family.

Since it was already very late, Gu Mingyan and Huang Yuhan stayed at the Gu family's house for a short while and left after exchanging a few pleasantries.

It was only when the two of them left the Gu house and got into the Rolls-Royce Phantom that Huang Yuhan pursed her lips. "Mom, are you sure Zhong Qianqian is the little princess of the Nangong family? Doesn't she look too inferior to be one? This is... I think Liang Wanchen is right. Standing with someone like her is an insult to me."

Gu Mingyan reached out for a bottle of mineral water and took an elegant sip. Then, she said slowly, "Lil Han, you must remember that it's impossible for people to remain unchanged in this lifetime. If you look down on her today, she'll be beyond your reach in the future. The Nangong family aside, even if it's the other three families, even if we're talking about the sons of the mistresses raised outside the other three families, will they take a second look at you if you talk to them?"

Huang Yuhan snorted. "That's because I'm still young. When I grow up and become an absolute beauty, they'll still like me because of my status as the daughter of a second-tier wealthy family."

Gu Mingyan touched Huang Yuhan's head lovingly. "Of course, my daughter is an authentic daughter of a second-tier wealthy family. You did very well today. Although you've been complaining nonstop along the way that you refuse to talk to her, Zhong Qianqian will remember your standing up for her just now.

"A person's temperament was built from the accumulation of money. Even though Zhong Qianqian looks old-fashioned now, I guarantee you that Zhong Qianqian will undergo an earth-shattering change in less than a month after returning to the Nangong family. At that time, when she became the little princess that the Nangong family can't bear to put down and fusses over, you'll become her best friend and sister.

"When the time comes, she'll be surrounded by the rich and powerful men from the first-tier families. And are you scared that you won't have your chance? As long as you marry into a first-tier wealthy family, even if she abandons your cousin after that, we'll be fine."

Huang Yuhan's eyes widened. "With such a lowly temperament, not even my cousin has started despising her. How dare she abandon my cousin?"

Chapter 740: Silly

Gu Mingyan shook her head. "Lil Han, you're still too inexperienced. At first glance, Zhong Qianqian might look like a foolish and magnanimous person. Such a person not only doesn't know how to be grateful, but she'll also burn the bridge after crossing it. Once she returns to the Nangong family, it's only a matter of time before she abandons your cousin. That's why I told you to find a way to get close to her no matter what and become her best friend. You have to remember that you're still young. Before you marry into a first-tier wealthy family, you still need her protection. Therefore, even if she divorces your cousin one day, you have to stand on her side, support her, and become her bosom friend. That way, even if she gets a divorce, you can still stand by her side. Understand?"

A look of determination flashed across Huang Yuhan's eyes. "Mom, don't worry. I'll definitely marry into a first-tier wealthy family in the future. However... My brother is such a smart person. He must have thought of this, mustn't he?"

Gu Mingyan smiled slightly. "Of course he has. Yet, he can only say that he's thinking of ways to maximize his own benefits. When he really has no way of controlling Zhong Qianqian, it's sufficient for him to think of ways to protect the Gu family while getting what he wants from her."

Huang Yuhan pouted, "Tsk ts, I really didn't expect that lowly country bumpkin to be so popular."

Gu Mingyan's gaze instantly glinted sharply, scaring Huang Yuhan so much that she was stunned. She quickly waved her hands. "Alright, alright, I know. Qianqian is the bestest friend that I have in my life. In front of her, I won't show any hint of looking down on her. I'll become her best friend and let her introduce the best man to me."

When Gu Mingyan heard that, her lips spread into a wide smile.

"The Nangong family's fifth grandson and sixth grandson are both rare talents. Mom likes Sixth Young Master Nangong Ze more. Although he has gone to the Medical Administrative Department now, he's a child with considerable talent in medicine. Previously, he had some conflicts with the Medic Association Hospital, but I believe that the Nangong family won't give up on the Medic Association Hospital and hand it over to someone else so easily. Nangong Ze will return sooner or later.

"If you can marry Nangong Ze, you'll have a strong say in the entire Camino in the future. Look at the Shi family. They were originally the last of the Four Dominant Families, but because they took over the Medic Association Hospital, they obtained a say in the hospital. They don't even care about the Ning family and the Xiao family. They even dare to openly challenge Nangong Shu's orders."

"Then, why don't you just let me marry someone from the Shi family? Isn't Shi Zhonglei in the Medic Association Hospital? Furthermore, his father is the director, and he's doing much better than Nangong Ze in the hospital. I heard that Nangong had transferred to the Medical Administrative Department in a fit of anger because he had several conflicts with Shi Zhonglei.

Gu Mingyan could not resist using her finger to poke Huang Yuhan's forehead hard, making her cry out.

"How could Shi Zhonglei fancy you? Furthermore, you can only get to know a young master from a first-tier wealthy family because of Zhong Qianqian. Nangong Ze will be Zhong Qianqian's elder brother, while Shi Zhonglei has already begun to oppose the Nangong family. Do you think Shi Zhonglei will find a woman from the family he's opposing to be his wife? What are you thinking?

"Although the Shi family seems to be currently swept away by an unstoppable momentum, the Nangong family is an old noble family. Whenever their two families clash, everyone will always think of the Shi family as an old-fashioned nouveau riche."

Regarding his mother's description, Huang Yuhan's lips could not help but twitch.

Perhaps her mother was the only one in the world who could describe the wealthy family ranked fourth in Camino as an old-fashioned nouveau riche.
