

Physician Wife 811

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 811: Passage

“Really?” Yang Min was skeptical.

“Of course it’s true. If not, look at that. Our enemy in the opposite building clearly planned for the elevator to stop here and then kill us. However, look at Grandpa Chi, he’s been standing here since the beginning. Is anyone still shooting at him? So, don’t worry about that. With Nuannuan The Sharpshooter here, nothing will happen.”

Zhong Nuannuan smiled confidently and continued, “Alright, everyone, get up. Let’s go up. We’re already on the 27th floor. It’s nice that we went past the 44th floor where the explosion happened. Let’s go up from here and walk down.”

Then, she looked at Yang Min. “Auntie Yang, can you do it?”

From the moment a small window opened up in the elevator ceiling, Yang Min’s complexion looked much better. She nodded. “I’m energized.”

“Okay, let’s go before we complicate things further.”

On the other side of the building, Chi Yang led the group of men down the stairs without any source of light. As they walked, he said to the people behind him, “Since the enemy isn’t found yet, we have reason to suspect that one of you is a mole. Therefore, please cover your heads with your hands when you walk and don’t allow anyone to take your hands off. Once you do, we’ll treat you as a spy.”

“Captain Chi, the 44th floor has exploded. How are we supposed to go down there?” one of them asked.

“You don’t need to know this. All you need to know is that Captain Chi will lead all of you to safety.”

Luo Shangyi walked behind the person who spoke and answered righteously.

Next to them, Peng Yaohua snorted. Even though no one else heard him, Luo Shangyi understood what he meant.

He could not have been more obvious with what he meant.

Peng Yaohua was convinced that Luo Shangyi was the culprit and that he was the mole in the military base. Saying such pompous words now was akin to wiping guilt on himself.

Luo Shangyi was also furious as he glared at Peng Yaohua.

Leng Jinpeng and Qu Mingyi exchanged glances and the light in their eyes darkened.

Everyone went from the 76th floor to the 57th floor, crossing 19 floors.

Chi Yang pushed open the door to the main lobby and walked towards the back of the lobby.

Lijing Mansion was a twin building, and each building’s lobby was located on the 57th floor.

Under everyone's hopeful gazes, Chi Yang led everyone to a large balcony at the back of the lobby with Xiao Shenbin's guidance.

Chi Yang asked everyone to line up, and remain holding their heads with their hands. After ensuring that everyone held this stance, he said, "There is a secret escape route here that allows everyone to move from Block B to Block A. However, due to the limitation on the number of people, only two people can go through each time. Now, based on our current formation, approach me for investigation first."

As soon as Chi Yang finished speaking, the two people at the front of the line immediately walked forward happily and let Chi Yang examine them. Then, Xiao Shenbin walked out from the other direction. As he walked out, a very narrow passage automatically extended from the bottom of the 57th floor of Block B to the bottom of the 57th floor of Block A.

Based on where they were standing, they could not see anything extending to the other side. It was a perfect shortcut for an escape.

"After crossing over, you're not allowed to look back in this direction, and you're not allowed to stay on the other side. Go downstairs immediately, or you'll be condemned as a spy."

Although Chi Yang's words were cruel, almost all the guests supported him. After all, this was for their own safety too.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 812: Escape

Think about it. What if the person who went past the passage was a spy? Although he did not have any bombs or guns on him, what if he damaged the passage after crossing over? What would the rest of the people do?

The rescue ladder could not reach the 57th floor. Would that not mean that they could only wait to be engulfed by the fire?

The two people at the front of the line went down the stairs to the passage. Then, under Chi Yang's constant urging, they reached the other side safely and quickly.

After reaching the other side, they still followed Chi Yang's orders. They climbed up the stairs and reached the 57th floor of Block A. Then, without a single glance to the back, they rushed in.

On the other side, there were already people from the military base waiting for them.

Seeing that male guests were starting to descend the building safely, the military police officers heaved a huge sigh of relief.

If these reputable personages truly died here, the Jiang District military base and the police would be in deep trouble.

Under Chi Yang's inspection and threat, the evacuation came to an orderly end.

"Duke Eton, Aiden, head over there."

Aiden frowned slightly. Big Boss wanted him to stay and help Chi Yang! How could he leave?

However, Chi Yang's words were absolute. After winking repeatedly at him to ask if Chi Yang wanted him to stay behind to help, Chi Yang acted as though he did not see Aiden. He did not even return Aiden's glances. Thus, Eden could do nothing but leave with Duke Eton.

Then, it was the uncle and nephew, Xiao Shenbin and Xiao Wensheng's turn.

In the end, only Chi Yang, Leng Jinpeng, Qu Mingyi, Peng Yaohua, and Luo Shangyi were left.

"I don't want to leave with Luo Shangyi! He has tried to assassinate the Commander-in-chief so many times! What if he's in a bad mood and tries to assassinate me halfway? What can I do then?"

Since there were no outsiders here, Peng Yaohua was not afraid of being overheard. He immediately expressed his stance.

Luo Shangyi also snorted coldly. "Who wants to go with you? If I were really a spy, I would rather assassinate Chi Yang than you!"

"You..."

"That's enough!" Qu Mingyi reprimanded coldly. "We are all major generals. How can we argue in front of a respectable crowd? No matter who the spy is, write me a 30000-word reflection first when we get back!"

Qu Mingyi was a political commissar, so even the major generals of the military base had to obey his teachings on political ideology.

After hearing Qu Mingyi's shouts, the two of them did not dare to speak again.

Qu Mingyi turned to Luo Shangyi and said, "Shangyi, come with me."

Luo Shangyi nodded and was about to say "okay" when Chi Yang stopped him.

"Commissar Qu, this arrangement isn't quite appropriate. Deputy Commander Luo is the first to bear the brunt of this incident. Even if he isn't a spy—like Deputy Commander Peng said—he's the one who's in charge of all the arrangements. That still makes him the biggest suspect."

Qu Mingyi thought about it and nodded. "Alright, you make the arrangements and we'll obey."

Chi Yang was someone who the Commander-in-chief appointed, after all. Additionally, Qu Mingyi had always been on Leng Jinpeng's side. Thus, he agreed right away.

"Although we haven't found any spies, it's obvious that one of the five of us is a spy. I'm not afraid to tell you that I've been specially sent by the higher-ups to investigate this matter, so Leng Jinpeng and I are definitely not the traitors. The remaining suspects are only Commissar Qu, Deputy Commander Peng, and Deputy Commander Luo."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 813: Disarm

"Jiang District has been in chaos for two years, but Commissar Qu was transferred over from Emperor District more than half a year ago. As for Emperor District, he has maintained strict discipline in the military base there and has never made any mistakes. Therefore, the suspicion on Commisar Qu is basically eliminated.”

The more Chi Yang spoke, the more dismayed Peng Yaohua became.

“So, what you’re saying is that I might be the traitor? Hehe...” Peng Yaohua was so angry that he could die.

“Whether you’re a traitor or otherwise, we’ll talk about it when we get back. Right now, our priority is to escape with our lives intact. Therefore, first of all, I’m sorry. For safety’s sake, please hand over your guns.”

Leng Jinpeng and Qu Mingyi were the first to move. They quickly took out their guns from their holsters and passed them to Chi Yang with the guns facing downward.

Chi Yang placed the two guns on his waist and said, “Please raise your hands and let me examine you again.”

Leng Jinpeng and Qu Mingyi raised their hands for the check.

After making sure that there was nothing suspicious on both their bodies and bags, Chi Yang finally said, “Alright.”

Then, he looked at Luo Shangyi. “Deputy Commander Luo, please hand me your gun.”

“Sure.” Luo Shangyi handed the gun to Chi Yang cooperatively.

“I understand that I can’t escape the blame for what happened today, but please believe me, Commander and Commissar. If I were the spy, I wouldn’t have done something so stupid. If I really wanted to assassinate the commander-in-chief, I’d rather find another time and assassinate him quietly. I wouldn’t do it so openly. After all, we all know how strong Captain Chi is. Playing tricks in front of Captain Chi is no different from trying to teach your grandmother how to suck eggs. I’m not that stupid.”

Luo Shangyi handed the gun to Chi Yang. When Chi Yang held the gun, he started to speak. Fortunately, the gun had been handed over and nothing could go wrong.

Peng Yaohua sneered. “So, you’re saying that I framed you?”

The moment he said that, Peng Yaohua reached for his gun.

“Alright, I’ll prove it to you right now!”

However, just as he finished speaking, Chi Yang had already pointed Luo Shangyi’s gun at Peng Yaohua’s head.

Peng Yaohua’s expression darkened. “Chi Yang, what do you mean by this?”

Chi Yang was eerily calm.

“Nothing, but I’m currently examining Deputy Commander Luo. I advise Deputy Commander Peng to not move, and definitely refrain from touching your gun.”

Peng Yaohua choked on Chi Yang’s words and could only swallow his anger.

Seeing this, Luo Shangyi smirked.

After patting down Luo Shangyi and confirming that Chi Yang confiscated everything that looked suspicious—including putting his bank card and wallet under Leng Jinpeng’s care—Chi Yang looked at Peng Yaohua.

“Deputy Commander Peng, it’s your turn now.”

Peng Yaohua raised his hands high. To prove his innocence, he said, “Chi Yang, I have no plans to touch my own gun. For safety’s sake, help me remove it.”

“Sure.” Chi Yang did not argue with that and removed Peng Yaohua’s gun.

After patting down Peng Yaohua, Chi Yang nodded. “Alright, the examination is complete.

“Since the enemy’s target has always been the commander-in-chief, you should go through the passage alone, Commander Leng. After that, it will be Commissar Qu and Deputy Commander Peng’s turn to leave. Deputy Commander Luo and I will go last.”

Peng Yaohua smiled and said, “Chi Yang, you also suspect Luo Shangyi the most, right? Actually, I suspect it’s Luo Shangyi too.”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 814: Unexpected

“That’s why I suggest that since you believe in the commander-in-chief so much, you might as well give the commander that gun. Later on, if Luo Shangyi tries anything funny, you can get the commander to shoot him. After all, I heard that the commander was once a member of the special forces. He’s definitely a sharpshooter.

“Also, I suggest that the soldiers of Block A retreat temporarily because I don’t trust Luo Shangyi’s men.”

Chi Yang smiled. “Don’t worry, Deputy Commander Peng. Those stationed at the entrance of Block A aren’t Deputy Commander Luo’s men. I’ve transferred everyone there temporarily. They’re all men under my command in the special forces.”

This time, not only Peng Yaohua, but even Leng Jinpeng and Qu Mingyi were shocked.

“When the explosion occurred, we lost all network and phone signals. How did you contact the military base?” Qu Mingyi asked.

“After the explosion, Nuannuan’s little sworn brother came from Sab and found himself locked out from the house, so he texted Nuannuan to tell her that he had entered the house.”

Peng Yaohua was taken aback, but Leng Jinpeng was the first to react. He said in an agitated manner, “So Nuannuan’s little brother is a hacker. Even though someone has already cut off all reception, he has managed to break through the attack and allow Nuannuan to receive messages.”

“Along with Shen Bin and I.”

Leng Jinpeng laughed.

“Good, good. A young man with a promising future ahead. When this is over, we’ll treat Nuannuan’s little brother to a meal.”

“Sure.”

All of a sudden, the atmosphere became much friendlier.

“Alright. Please take the passage to the other side, Commander.”

Right now, Chi Yang’s words were the highest command that even Leng Jinpeng must obey.

Therefore, Leng Jinpeng walked toward Block A alone without hesitation.

Soon, he reached the other side safely.

A few soldiers from the special forces rushed over and immediately shielded Leng Jinpeng from danger on all sides.

The soldiers were all armed with machine guns. When Leng Jinpeng arrived, they immediately aimed their guns at the three people next to Chi Yang.

The moment they made an unprecedented move, they would probably send metallic showers over to greet them.

After ensuring Leng Jinpeng’s safety, Qu Mingyi and Peng Yaohua were up next.

The two of them walked over with ease; they even chatted to each other as they walked.

“Commissar, I can guarantee with my head that Luo Shangyi is the traitor. Since it can’t be you, I dare swear on the eight generations of my ancestors that it’s definitely not me, or else my whole family will die getting hit by a car. Truly! I dare swear on my life that this is definitely not me. It can’t be Chi Yang, and it can’t be the Commander-in-chief. That leaves Luo Shangyi.”

Qu Mingyi smiled. “You don’t have to swear to me. Everyone knows that it’s useless even if you do. If people really receive heavenly retribution after breaking a vow like how it works in those cultivation novels, many things wouldn’t have happened. Even if you’re the traitor, there won’t be any punishment for you after swearing. So, save it. We’ll definitely find out who the traitor is. There’s no point even if you tell me that.”

Peng Yaohua peered at Qu Mingyi. When he saw that Qu Mingyi was absolutely unforgiving toward him, a glint of hatred flashed across Peng Yaohua’s eyes.

Eventually, both of them arrived safely on the other side.

Now, only Chi Yang and Luo Shangyi remained.

“Deputy Commander Luo, please take the lead.”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 815: Untouchable

“Alright.”

Luo Shangyi went down the stairs and turned around to look at Chi Yang. "Aren't you coming?"

"Please lead the way, Deputy Commander Luo."

"Sure." Luo Shangyi did not argue and walked straight ahead.

Meanwhile, Chi Yang followed him from a distance, ensuring that he had enough space to deal with any form of attacks that he might come up with.

Furthermore, Chi Yang had so many guns on him. If Luo Shangyi really wanted to do something, Chi Yang was confident he could win this fight simply based off on his combat strength. Even if he failed to win this fight, Chi Yang could easily finish him off with a single shot in spite of the distance between them.

Luo Shangyi continued to walk forward until he was almost on the other side. Chi Yang also walked to the center of the connecting bridge before halting.

Luo Shangyi stopped and turned to look at Chi Yang.

Peng Yaohua, on the other side, immediately jumped eighty feet high.

"Commander, what did I say?! I told you Luo Shangyi is definitely the mole! It turned out to be him!"

After that saying, Peng Yaohua continued by shouting at the top of his lungs, "Luo Shangyi, you don't have a gun now! Do you think you can kill Chi Yang? I've always known you're the mole! You've caused chaos in our Jiang District. You deserve to die!"

Luo Shangyi did not pay any attention to Peng Yaohua. Instead, he looked at Chi Yang and said, "Lieutenant General Chi, I've always admired you. You've been able to become the leader of Flying Hawk at such a young age and become a top figure in the special forces of Camino."

Chi Yang's tall figure loomed rigidly in the middle of the bridge. He did not shift as he calmly looked at Luo Shangyi, attempting to use inaction to deal with action.

"When I heard that you're Chi Yuancheng's grandson, I nearly couldn't believe it. As someone who's at the same level as a prince—a lieutenant general—actually took up a position in a small place like Jiang District. Not just that, you're only a captain here. You've allowed people like Wang Gangyi to step all over you and sh*t on your head. It must have been hard on you."

Chi Yang's figure was like a pine tree, unswervingly straight and elegantly tall.

On the opposite platform, Peng Yaohua's eyes widened when he overheard Chi Yang's identity.

"Com... Commander, Chi Yang is a lieutenant general? He's Marshal Chi's grandson?"

Leng Jinpeng glanced at Peng Yaohua and nodded.

Peng Yaohua, "...!!!"

Previously, Peng Yaohua thought of roping in Chi Yang and make him one of his own men. After Leng Jinpeng's retirement, he would do his best to raise Chi Yang's rank as the next commander-in-chief.

Who would have expected that...

He was already a lieutenant general!

Furthermore, he was the grandson [1]of the only Marshal in Camino!

Having this kind of identity made Chi Yang into someone whom Peng Yaohua could not afford to offend!

Chi Yang faced Luo Shangyi and gave him an indifferent reply, "Agreed."

"Chi Yang, Jiang District is so small. Let it be if it's chaotic. Think about it. You're a lieutenant general, the leader of the special forces. Why must you come here and get involved in this mess? Won't be it great if you've never come to Jiang District? That way, I will never be exposed."

Chi Yang pursed his thin lips tightly. "Soldiers serve the people, but you serve the mafia. You don't deserve to be a soldier! My existence is to get rid of you parasites in the military base!"

Chi Yang's words were sonorous and powerful, sending involuntary trembles into Luo Shangyi and Peng Yaohua's hearts.

"Luo Shangyi, I advise you to surrender. You've already caused so much trouble. You can stop now."

"Stop?" Luo Shangyi suddenly laughed. "I do want to stop, but if I don't kill you, my superiors won't let my family off..."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 816: Threat

"Do you think I want to fight you? I'm not crazy. Why would I insist on fighting you head-on after knowing that you're the supreme soldier from the special forces? Yet, what can I do? If I don't kill you, my family will die. So, I must kill you!"

"Who is your superior?"

Luo Shangyi remained silent.

"Alright, let me change the question. Do you think you are capable enough to kill me?"

After Chi Yang asked this question, Luo Shangyi guffawed.

"I think that if anyone ever mentions me in the far future, that person must be lamenting that I, a mere major general of the military base, actually killed Chi Yuancheng's grandson, the captain of Camino's special forces, Chi Yang!"

Hearing Luo Shangyi's words, Chi Yang's expression remained austere without any visible change in his emotions.

"Chi Yang, I know you have supernatural abilities. You have immense strength, and you can even pick things up without exerting any physical effort. That's why you were able to protect yourself and your subordinates in City B of Mustapha when dealing with the field army and assassins from the opposition. You, truly deserve to be called a god of war."

Peng Yaohua, "...!!!" Supernatural abilities???

Why did it feel like he had suddenly arrived in some mysterious fantasy world?

“Since you know that I have supernatural abilities, then you should understand that our combat strength is not on the same level. I can kill you easily.”

Luo Shangyi nodded. “That’s right. That’s why I gave you the gun. I know that I won’t be able to kill you with my current abilities.”

Chi Yang nodded. “That’s why you still have a backup plan, one that can definitely kill me.”

Luo Shangyi broke into a smile and replied, “Yeah. To be honest, I never intended to fight you head-on. So, when you took the gun from me, I applied a drug that could be lethal on it. The moment you touched the gun, your supernatural abilities would’ve disappeared temporarily.”

Luo Shangyi’s words did not scare Chi Yang. With a serious face, Chi Yang waved the painful truth in Luo Shangyi’s face. “Even though I have temporarily lost my supernatural abilities, I can still fight 20 of you.”

Luo Shangyi, “...”

“Hehe, that’s why I never thought of fighting you. This is the 57th floor. Chi Yang, tell me, if this bridge suddenly explodes and you fall from the 57th floor, what are the chances of your survival?”

“Luo Shangyi, you have made many mistakes already. I can give you a chance to turn over a new leaf. However, if you insist on killing Chi Yang, I can guarantee that not only you, but your family will suffer as well.

“Wow, even the Commander has learned how to threaten others? Even if we’re enemies now, isn’t our duty as soldiers to keep the innocent out of harm’s way?

“Do you know? What I hate the most in my life is the people who use my family’s lives as a threat. You guys can’t protect my family and let them fall into the hands of evil. In order to save my daughter, I can only do things for them. It’s you who failed to protect us, so you can’t blame me for being heartless. If I can’t even save my little family, how can I protect everyone? Or protect the country?”

Luo Shangyi’s words stunned Leng Jinpeng and Chi Yang.

Chi Yang asked, “Since your family’s safety is threatened, why didn’t you report it to the military base?”

“Report?”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 817: Huge Explosion

Luo Shangyi sneered. “Is making a report useful? If I make the report, will you guys rush into my house with guns and protect my daughter? Do you believe that the moment I lodge a report, the next thing I see... will be my daughter’s corpse?”

Luo Shangyi’s words sent Chi Yang and Leng Jinpeng lapsing into a long silence.

It was a disgrace to the military base.

As a soldier, he could not even protect his own family, so how could he talk about achieving military deeds and protecting his country?

However, Luo Shangyi laughed. “It doesn’t matter. After that demon set his eyes on our home, I’ve been trying to free myself from it. Today, the demon gave me a mission. As long as I complete the mission, my daughter will be free.”

The minute he was done talking, the whole building erupted in multiple explosions simultaneously, starting on the 76th floor.

“Chi Yang!”

The explosions were too powerful, and they went off at the same time. The huge shockwave caused this connecting bridge to crumble in an instant.

Leng Jinpeng shouted, but before he could rush forward, soldiers from the special forces pounced from behind him, sending him to the ground.

The explosions only lasted for five seconds. Yet, 5 seconds were all it took to make everyone feel like the world was about to be buried.

Chi Yang and Luo Shangyi were both submerged in the explosion. Everyone only heard him shout “Nuannuan” at the instance of the explosion.

After the explosion, everyone was temporarily deafened before getting overwhelmed by a loud ringing in their ears.

After a long time, everyone’s hearing finally returned to normal.

Leng Jinpeng looked at the broken bridge in a daze. He stared lifelessly at the leftover rubble that the initially towering structure collapsed into.

On Zhong Nuannuan’s side, everyone managed to reach the elevator ceiling with Nuannuan and Selina’s help.

The ceiling was initially sealed. However, through her X-ray vision, Zhong Nuannuan managed to find the weak points of the sealed dampers. Then, she hurled her leg out for a violent kick.

It was not a single damper that fell down but a string of dampers.

Everyone, “...!!!”

After that, they followed the same sequence of escape from the elevator—Selina got off first, followed by Old Master Chi, Zhong Nuannuan, and then the group of female guests.

After Nuannuan landed on the ground, she immediately used her X-ray vision on the old master. After confirming that he was in good health, she asked, “Grandpa, are you feeling unwell anywhere?”

Old Master Chi was in high spirits. After all, he was once a soldier in the special forces too. Although he had not participated in any battles for many years, the same passion still boiled in his bones.

In the face of such a dangerous situation, not only did the old master not show any fear, but his eyes were beaming with a subtle glow.

“No, no. Little Girl, ever since you treated my legs, my ancient arms and legs have become more useful. Even though I can’t walk fast, at least I won’t be a burden to all of you.”

“Grandfather, we’re a family. There’s no such thing about being a burden or otherwise. If you feel uncomfortable, you must tell me, okay?”

The old master chuckled and answered, “Sure, sure! I’ll let you know for sure!”

The old master could not be more satisfied with Nuannuan.

He admitted that his grandson was ten thousand times better than his son.

That was perhaps why his grandson could live a long life while his son could not make it past his prime.

After everyone descended the elevator, Zhong Nuannuan and Selina led everyone to the 22nd floor.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 818: Stopping

When the group reached the 22nd floor, Selina and Zhong Nuannuan stopped. Everyone stopped too.

“Why are you stopping?” Luo Mengying asked in confusion.

Selina smiled. “Yes, we don’t plan to continue walking.”

“Why?”

“Wait here for someone to rescue us.”

Luo Mengying shouted, “Are you guys crazy? This is the 22nd floor. Even if we want to take the aerial, we have to walk to the 18th floor before we can stop.”

“That’s right. We’ll need to go to the 18th floor to get to the ladder, and we don’t even know how far the aerial ladder can reach. Why don’t we just go down?” Mrs. Liang also expressed her dissatisfaction.

Zhong Nuannuan ignored them and led Old Master Chi into a hall quickly.

Luo Mengying and the rest followed closely behind, trying to catch up with Zhong Nuannuan. As they chased after her, they said, “Hey, Zhong Nuannuan! Did you hear what we said? You’re going to kill us all.”

However, when they attempted to go forward, Selina blocked their path.

“If you think this will kill you, then you should bring this Mrs. Liang who trusts you down for the aerial ladder.”

Luo Mengying was shocked, and a vicious look flashed across her eyes. She tried to get past Selina but was firmly blocked once more.

While Selina waged her verbal war with the women, Zhong Nuannuan had already brought the old master into a hall.

This was a 270-degree viewing hall that housed more than ten luxury cars.

Zhong Nuannuan brought Old Master Chi into a limited edition Lamborghini that had the best specs among the cars and helped him fasten his seatbelt.

Everyone was stunned.

“Zhong Nuannuan, you can’t be thinking about driving this car down the building, are you? All the elevators in this building have been destroyed.”

After being blocked by Selina, Luo Mengying could only watch as Old Master Chi got into the car. At the same time, she also felt that this was unbelievable.

After all, the elevator was already broken, so it was impossible to drive the Lamborghini down the stairs. The only possibility left was that this crazy woman was about to burst through the exhibition hall in that car.

However, no one answered Luo Mengying’s question.

Selina stood her ground in front of Luo Mengying, subtly preventing her from approaching.

Luo Mengying guessed that she must have been seen through after being guarded like this. However, she did not give up and said, “Zhong Nuannuan, this is a five-star hotel. This place is covered in tempered glass. Even if you bust through the building in that car, you won’t be able to reach the rooftop in the opposite building. Even if there isn’t any glass here, with the Lamborghini’s speed, it can’t carry so many of us to the opposite side!”

“Anyway, I believe in Nuannuan. If you don’t believe her, just like what Selina said, you can go down with those who believe you,” Yang Min said unhappily.

“Is there something wrong with you? Even if you trust her, you can’t trust her so blindly! Am I wrong? Come, come, come, come, everyone. If the car breaks the glass here and leaps out, how far can it fly? Look at the roof of the building opposite. Even though it’s a pool, we’re all a bunch of wealthy women from wealthy families. You...”

Everyone followed Luo Mengying to the window and listened to her. Looking at the distance, they had no doubt that it was an impossible feat. Attempting to fly the car over to the other side was like wishing for hell to freeze over.

However, just as everyone focused on observing the odds—nearly agreeing with Luo Mengying—Luo Mengying lifted one of her sleeves quickly.

Seemingly casual, she raised her hand...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 819: Nuannuan Makes A Move

While she seemed to be casually pulling up her sleeve to point at the opposite building, a short dart shot out from Luo Mengying’s sleeves like a bullet.

Their target was Old Master Chi in the car.

“Be careful!”

At first, Ling Pinyuan's expression remained grave as she carefully calculated how they could drive the car to the open-air swimming pool on the roof of the opposite building. However, no matter how she thought about it, she could not think of anything. When she suddenly saw Luo Mengying making her move, Ling Pinyuan could only shout loudly. She threw herself forward in an attempt to block the flying dart from reaching the old master.

However, even though she was fast, the dart was even faster.

When Ling Pinyuan pounced over, the dart brushed past the side of her body while Ling Pinyuan fell heavily to the ground.

Nuannuan had always been on her guard. She followed Old Master Chi closely. Therefore, the moment Luo Mengying sent the dart flying, a silver needle flew out from Zhong Nuannuan's hand.

The soft silver needle clashed with the sharp spear-like weapon. This was originally a battle with no chance of victory.

However, the reason behind Nuannuan's success in becoming the world's top mercenary was not only because she could identify the weaknesses of objects through X-ray vision, but also because of her ability to multiply her speed the second she activated her supernatural abilities. Furthermore, her speed would also increase the greater the accuracy of her X-ray vision was.

As a result, Nuannuan could see the trajectory and speed of the dart when everyone else could only register the unblockable dart as a flash.

Then, she launched her silver needle at a speed that was invisible to the naked eye.

The silver needle was thin, soft, and long. At such a high speed, it collided with the dart accurately and quickly wrapped itself around it.

Thud!

With a soft thud, Luo Mengying was shocked to realize that the dart she had fired was free-falling until it landed on the hood of the Lamborghini without doing any damage.

Zhong Nuannuan was right beside the car. She reached out and seized the dart. She flipped it around a few times before taking a whiff of it.

"Neurotic poison. As long as it scratches the skin, the poison will seep into the bloodstream through the damaged skin and damage the heart in half a minute. It will cause the heart to shrink rapidly, and it will be fatal in one minute. Not bad, not bad. Well, aren't you fully prepared?"

What in the world?! How it did turn out this way?!

Hell, is this Zhong Nuannuan even human? She could twist a needle around such a fast dart, making it land in front of her so coincidentally!

Not only that, she could even identify the poison on the dart?

Ling Pinyuan laid on the ground in shock.

Since she agreed that Deputy Commander Luo Shangyi was suspicious, she had been keeping an eye on Luo Mengying the whole time. The more she watched her, the more suspicious she felt. Ling Pinyuan was almost certain that something was up with Luo Mengying when Luo Mengying started stirring up trouble. Initially, Ling Pinyuan considered tackling Luo Mengying without anyone noticing. Hence, that had led her to approach Luo Mengying intentionally.

As Luo Mengying spoke boldly and confidently, Ling Pinyuan had already quietly closed in on the distance between them. Just as she was about to lunge, she saw Luo Mengying attack.

She was so close to Luo Mengying, but she could not stop her in time.

On the contrary, Zhong Nuannuan had obviously responded only after Luo Mengying made her move. Not only did she stop Luo Mengying's attack, but... also wrapped her silver needle around the dart.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 820: Not Bad

How insane must one's skills and strength be to reach such a level?

Furthermore, was she the reincarnation of the dog god? How could she identify the poison on the dart and its function just by smelling it?

Ling Pinyuan started to compare Zhong Nuannuan to an existence similar to an oasis from afar but muddy up close. As you walked deeper, you would soon find yourself in a bottomless swamp that could swallow people whole without any bones left—a man-eating swamp that not even bubbles could escape.

Luo Mengying's eyes widened into two huge beans. She could not believe that a weapon meticulously crafted by a top-notch mechanic in their organization would be useless against Zhong Nuannuan!

When Selina heard what Zhong Nuannuan said, she mulled it over before asking, "Big Boss, why does this poison sound so familiar? This poison... You're the one who developed it, right?"

Zhong Nuannuan was surprised by Selina's words. "How rare of you to remember such trivia!"

Ling Pinyuan, "...!!!"

Luo Mengying, "...!!!" There was some matter that she was not sure if she should mention there. However, even if she said it out loud, the idiot in the organization who gave her the poison like it was some stupid absolute top secret sh*t would never hear her.

Luo Mengying's eyes flickered for a moment before she suddenly made a move and grabbed Ling Pinyuan.

Ling Pinyuan was a member of the special forces and she had been on three missions with Chi Yang.

Even so, Ling Pinyuan was only an ordinary soldier in Jiang District's special forces. No matter how impressive she was, she could only be impressive among ordinary soldiers in the special forces.

Meanwhile, an assassin like Luo Mengying, who had been sent out on a high-ranking mission to assassinate high-ranking officers, was at least Rank-S. In other words, Luo Mengying was much stronger than the two mercenaries from the Giltash Mercenary Organization.

In this world, any assassin or mercenary who could be classified as Rank-S was usually placed on the red list[1] by various countries because such people were too dangerous.

Therefore, Ling Pinyuan was subdued by Luo Mengying before she could even attempt to retaliate.

“Don’t move, or I’ll kill her!”

As soon as she said that, the ladies who did not witness the exchange between Luo Mengying and Zhong Nuannuan clearly finally realized what was going on and confirmed their guesses. They screamed and tried to escape.

“Get in the car!”

Yang Min shouted and led the ladies towards the Lamborghini that housed Old Master Chi.

The ladies knew how capable Zhong Nuannuan was. Since she wanted to protect the car that Grandpa Chi Yang was in, she would definitely protect them. Hence, getting into the car now was the best way to avoid the killer.

Bang!

Just as Yang Min ran over and attempted to pull the car door open, Zhong Nuannuan mercilessly opened fire at Yang Min’s forehead.

Meanwhile, Yang Min, who was supposed to be shot, dodged it at an alarming speed.

“Argh!”

After seeing Zhong Nuannuan open fire, the wealthy ladies were confused and thought that Zhong Nuannuan was also one of the killers. They started fleeing in all directions.

Since their legs had turned to jelly, they did not run far. They could only hide behind other cars and tremble in fear.

Soon, only Zhong Nuannuan, Selina, Ling Pinyuan, Yang Min, and Luo Mengying were left in the empty hall.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Yang Min and sneered, “Not bad.”

Yang Min also switched out of her sickly appearance and smirked, “I should be the one saying that to you. You’re not bad yourself. Not only did you discover Luo Mengying in time, you’ve also discovered me.”

[1] Since the meaning of the color codes differs between countries and fields of study, this translator has chosen to stick to the RAWs. Being on the red list can also mean being prioritized, which is the opposite of being on a blacklist.