Chapter 841: Everyone Arrested

Peng Yaohua choked out a dry laugh. "Lieutenant... Lieutenant General Chi, look at me..."

"Chi Yang, Peng Yaohua is an important military officer in the military base. Are you planning to kill him in front of so many people?" Qu Mingyi hissed through gritted teeth. His gun was pressed against the back of Peng Yaohua's head, scaring Deputy Commander-in-chief Peng so much that he was letting out fearful yells.

"Peng Yaohua imported medicine that contained a large amount of poison from Sab and presented it to Commander-in-chief as a gift in an attempt to murder the Commander-in-chief. I've already reported his crime to the higher-ups. So, today, he'll be put under investigation in Emperor District. If you kill him, it'll just be the death of another criminal. It won't be a big deal."

Peng Yaohua, who nearly had his blood completely drained out of fear, blushed nearly immediately as he explained himself hastily.

"That's not it, Lieutenant General Chi. Commander-in-chief, I swear I didn't mean to do that! Are you sure it isn't a mistake? I really gave Commander Leng the medicine out of goodwill! I didn't know there was something wrong with that medicine!"

Chi Yang did not bother to reply to Peng Yaohua. He retrieved a mini radio player and pressed a button. The conversation Peng Yaohua had with someone else reached everyone's ears.

"Why do I feel like Leng Jinpeng is getting better by the day? Plus, the hospital said that his blood test results are improving. Didn't you say that the medicine can only suppress pain and it's very poisonous? Are you telling me that poison can help improve his conditions? Don't be ridiculous, brother!"

To save time, Chi Yang only played one sentence for Peng Yaohua to hear.

Peng Yaohua's initially flushed face lost all color. Now, his face was even paler than before.

"Commander Leng didn't take the medicine you gave him. Instead, it was sent for a medical examination. The results showed that it was indeed poison with strong adverse effects. Therefore, leave your explanation to the people at Emperor District. Your matters aren't under my jurisdiction."

With that, Chi Yang ignored Peng Yaohua, who was instantly dispirited. He turned to look at Qu Mingyi, who was behind Peng Yaohua, instead. "Qu Mingyi, Qu Wei has been arrested. If you dare hurt anyone here, Qu Wei will receive a greater senten..."

Before Chi Yang could finish speaking, Qu Mingyi suddenly pushed Peng Yaohua away and fired a shot at Chi Yang.

As long as Chi Yang died, the organization would spare Qu Wei.

This way, at least he would have the chance to spend the rest of his life in prison.

However, Chi Yang easily evaded the shot. Meanwhile, Qu Mingyi finally presented an opening that Leng Jinpeng took advantage of by shooting. The bullet hit Qu Mingyi's arm.

Since the hand that he used to hold the gun was injured, he could no longer hold Peng Yaohua hostage. Consequently, Peng Yaohua spun around and took out his gun, aiming at Qu Mingyi, so that he would not get held hostage by Qu Mingyi again. After all, Qu Mingyi was a top soldier when he was young!

Bang!

The explosive sound of a shot resonated in the hall. Yet, the bullet was aimed at Peng Yaohua, who was about to kill Qu Mingyi.

The person who fired the shot was Chi Yang.

Peng Yaohua looked at Chi Yang angrily. Before he could say anything, Chi Yang said, "Qu Mingyi is an important criminal. Deputy Commander-in-chief Peng, do you wish to add on to your crimes?"

Peng Yaohua surrendered himself immediately after hearing that.

"Arrest all of them!"

Following Chi Yang's command, two pairs of handcuffs were placed on Qu Mingyi and Peng Yaohua's hands respectively.

In the military base, there was one Commander-in-chief, one political commissar, and three Deputy Commander-in-chief. Eventually, everyone was arrested except the Commander-in-chief, while another died at the scene.

The cancerous tumor that had been lurking in Jiang District's military base was finally eliminated.

Qu Mingyi was initially unwilling to say anything...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 842: A Sanctimonious Parasite

However, when he saw Qu Wei under arrest, Qu Mingyi told them everything.

18 years ago, when he became one of the top soldiers, he was already targeted by an organization called KE.

This organization was unfathomably complex. Among the top 100 mercenaries in the world, 60 of them were working for this organization. Its business empire spanned across the entire world with countless members under its wing.

Qu Mingyi was not a core member of this organization. Not only was he not a core member, but after being in this organization for so many years, he could not even make it into the internal members' list. He was merely external aid. Every time a mission was issued, his superior would inform him and then, it would be his turn to work.

If he did well, he would be granted a huge amount of wealth. If he did not do well... his wife and son would suffer inhumane torture.

Based on the account number Qu Mingyi provided, Chi Yang sent someone to RS Bank to clean up his illegal earnings. There was a total of 3.2 billion sitting in there.

This was definitely a sanctimonious parasite with a shocking amount of money.

This time, the mission that the organization had assigned Qu Mingyi was for him, Yang Min, Qu Wei, Luo Shangyi, and Luo Shangyi's daughter by name, Luo Mengying, to assassinate Chi Yang and Chi Yuancheng during this auction.

Other than knowing that his superior's nickname was Scorpion, Qu Mingyi did not know anything else about KE.

Once upon a time, he took advantage of the convenience he was granted for an assignment to track down the headquarters of KE Organization and attempted to do something to it.

However, the moment his men went 800 nautical miles west of the Pacific Ocean, their communication was instantly cut off. What followed was revenge that was taken out on Yang Min and Qu Wei, along with a warning that if he continued to investigate, they would end either Yang Min or Qu Wei's life. From then on, Qu Mingyi never dared to attempt anything else.

All these years, Qu Mingyi could not even touch break through the surface of this KE organization. Hence, that naturally meant that there was nothing much that Chi Yang could gain from this interrogation.

The only thing he could find out was that Qu Mingyi had attempted to kill Chi Yang during the welcoming banquet held for Zhong Nuannuan after she was released from prison. On their way back, Qu Mingyi intended to kill Chi Yang and arranged for a suicide mission.

In truth, no one had wanted to kill Leng Jinpeng from the very beginning.

From the very beginning, the order they received was to kill Chi Yang. However, it was simply a coincidence that Leng Jinpeng was present every time they attempted to assassinate Chi Yang, thus creating an illusion that their target was Leng Jinpeng.

As for where Yang Min received treatment as a test subject, Qu Mingyi had no idea.

The reason why the operation took place at such a grand scale was that one day when Luo Shanyi returned home from work, he saw Chi Yuancheng, the grand marshal, next to Zhong Nuannuan. Luo Shangyi recognized Chi Yuancheng as one of their targets.

Their mission was to kill anyone on KE's must-kill list, and their family would be set free. As long as they killed two of them, they would be able to regain their freedom. In fact, other than gaining absolute freedom, they were eligible to receive help from the organization if the need arose.

Therefore, Luo Shangyi immediately reported the piece of news to his higher-ups, which led to the assassination attempt that occurred on the night the old master invited Chi Yang over for a meal.

Not only did the small-scale assassination fail to kill Chi Yang, but it also attracted his attention. The organization immediately carried out a maniacal suicide mission. This led to the explosion at the auction.

Of all the spies inside the military base, they had Qu Mingyi and Luo Shangyi who held leadership positions. Below them were Zhong Kuijun and Li Weiyi.

Li Weiyi was the person in charge of the motor transport regiment who was involved in the storage and transport of supplies last time.

Chapter 843: Hardcore Fan Of Meteor Garden

After going through such trauma, the old master needed to rest at home. Since Chi Yang had to settle plenty of matters in the military base, Zhong Nuannuan stayed at home to accompany the old master, of course.

Lijing Mansion was the biggest and most luxurious five-star hotel in Jiang District. Yet, an appalling explosion occurred there yesterday.

The news today announced that there was a problem with the building. As one of the Four Dominant Families in Camino, the Xiao family, with the excuse of wanting to build the safest hotel for people, blew up the building themselves and rebuilt it on the original location.

Although the huge explosion yesterday was dangerous, none of the guests were injured or killed in the explosion. Everyone praised the Jiang District military base's execution and effort.

Therefore, when the military base appeared and asked to seal their mouths, everyone cooperated unconditionally.

Even though this matter caused a huge commotion that shook the heavens and earth, it had a perfect ending.

Zhong Nuannuan stayed at home to accompany the old master. Now that the old master was taking an afternoon nap in the bedroom, Zhong Nuannuan was in the study talking to Selina, Aiden and Dan Qi.

At the other end of the video, Selina was wearing a sexy bra, and her long slender legs were propped up on the table. Sometimes, when she was required to write something down, she would press the buttons with her toes, while her hands were fiddling with her nails.

Aiden carried himself like a business elite. His suit was crisp and he definitely looked the part. No one could tell that he was a maniac who was willing to change his sexual preference for the sake of games.

Dan Qi wore a casual outfit printed with cartoons with a lollipop poking out from between his lips. The lollipop was round and colorful—the kind that very little girls liked.

Who would have thought that all of them were super assassins ranked in the top 20 among the Rank-3S mercenaries?

Among the three super assassins, Selina was an expert in disguise, and Aiden was a mechanic. Simultaneously, they were both hackers. However, no matter these two or Zhong Nuannuan's ultimate hacking skills, Dan Qi was the one who taught them from scratch.

"Dan Qi, have you found anything?"

Dan Qi smacked his lips around his delicious lollipop. He looked at the two types of interfaces now open on his laptop. One of them was the video call that he was having with Zhong Nuannuan, while the other was playing an old television drama, Meteor Garden, that he found after returning home yesterday.

As he listened to Zhong Nuannuan speak, he still had a foolish grin on his face as he stared at the main character, Shancai, with a hint of affection in his eyes.

Zhong Nuannuan could not help but massage her forehead worriedly when she saw this retarded look on his face.

She was convinced that someone would be able to trick this little brother of hers one day. What should she do then?

However, having his eyes on the drama did not affect his communication with Zhong Nuannuan.

After listening to Zhong Nuannuan, his fingers tapped on the keyboard a few times, and a 3D map appeared on Zhong Nuannuan's computer screen.

"According to the information provided by Yang Min, I found the mountain that she was talking about. This is about five kilometers away from the scenic area. It's a busy city with plenty of people entering and exiting. So, it's not easy to detect anything wrong. However, this place is five kilometers away from the scenic area, and it's located at the bottom of a high mountain range. Basically, no one will be able to get there. Even if they did, it's surrounded by an electric fence."

Zhong Nuannuan's eyes lit up. "Not bad, Lil Dan Qi. How did you find this place?"

"I guessed it. Based on my understanding of how brash King was—that old psycho—I guessed that if he wanted to build an important lab, he definitely won't choose a deserted place."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 844: Found The Base

"Therefore, I looked for mountains located in city centers at first, then I turned to the park scenic area. Eventually, I only had to go through two choices before I found the base.

"This mountain has been hollowed out. Since they emit a special radar, it will simply appear as a normal scenic area to any ordinary satellites. It looked like there was nothing there, but I sensed signs of movement here. So, I gave it a special scan only to find myself blocked. That's why I hacked their internal cameras. I've just sent you information on the internal structures of their lab."

Soon, the internal structure of the mountain appeared on Zhong Nuannuan's computer screen.

"The whole lab is built inside the mountain, and 99 people are supervising the lab on the outside. They move around at a circumference that measured about one kilometer away from the mountain as tourists. If they see anyone suspicious, they'll question them immediately or follow them. They'll kill if necessary too.

"There are a total of five areas inside the mountain. They are the arena, the human testing area, the living area, the administrative area, and the research area. There are 200 human test subjects inside, a total of 200 supervisors, including those patrolling outside, and 44 researchers. There's a total of 444 people."

“Hehe, what exactly did a laboratory do wrong to be investigated so thoroughly by a lunatic like you? It’s as though they’re running around naked for us to see. If Old King knew that we were going to kill our way to his laboratory, he would definitely die of anger. Heh... If only we know where King is hiding right now.”

Aiden wore a pair of gold-rimmed glasses and a custom-made suit that cost several million. His back was straight as he typed in all seriousness on the keyboard. Those who did not know better would think that he was making important notes in the meeting. Those who could see his computer would know that he was actually playing a game. Today, their team was on a mission to destroy the tower of another team.

The two sides were locked in a fierce battle in front of the tower, continuously casting their ultimates.

They had already suffered countless casualties on their side, but there were not many enemies left in the enemy team either. Under such circumstances, the enemy focused all their firepower on the whale, Aiden, who was brandishing top-grade equipment that he paid for. The team captain immediately summoned him back to defend. With his teammates’ protection, nothing would happen to Aiden.

Years of experience being a top-notch mercenary gave him a hero complex and the pride befitting a king. Instead of returning to defend, he continued to fling his top-notch equipment and charged at the enemy.

Using one of the maneuvers that his Almighty Leng taught him, Aiden handsomely evaded the enemies’ attacks and rushed straight to the enemy tower. Then, he cast his ultimate to score kills and destroy the tower. He was so overpowering he felt invincible!

However, Almighty Leng had only taught him a few flashy maneuvers, but he had not taught Aiden how to kill or escape when the enemy was stronger than him. As such, his teammates watched with bleak eyes as Aiden rushed head down toward the enemy’s tower carelessly and got himself ganked on before being beaten to death.

Aiden, “...!!!”

After killing Aiden, who had the best equipment, the enemies immediately rushed over to kill Aiden’s remaining teammates. As a result, they were all wiped out.

His teammates, “...!!!”

Message: [Clan Leader, ClifflessSon, has removed you from the clan.]

Aiden, “...!!!”

“Thinking about how King was beaten to such a state by us, he must be near death even if he survived. However, I don’t understand how King can still be alive. Is it possible that the person we killed wasn’t King at all? Is the real King still alive and well?”

Chapter 845: Leave Big Bro Out Of This

Selina’s words silenced everyone.

“Big Sis, we haven’t told Big Bro and Luna that King is still alive. Should we tell them first before we start searching? With my ability, even if King is hiding underground, I can dig him out.”

"I'm afraid that Big Bro has been feeling unwell recently. I'm planning to visit him in Sab on my way to Yamato in a few days' time. So, it's best not to let him know about this. Let me find Viper first."

"Yes!"

Even though Feng Shengxuan was their eldest brother and they all relied on Feng Shengxuan's status in KE to live a better life in the past, their ultimate Big Boss who deserved their acknowledgment was none other than Zhong Nuannuan.

Therefore, since Zhong Nuannuan had said so, they would definitely not tell Feng Shengxuan or Bai Liyue about this matter.

"Big Boss, then let's leave tomorrow! Didn't you tell us that the bug in Yang Min's brain was 'highly intelligent'? When Yang Min died, she must have triggered that bug, or else she wouldn't have suddenly died vomiting blood. Viper must've known about her death immediately. She might even move the lab somewhere else!"

"Don't worry. I've already dealt with that bug before Yang Min died."

Selina did not understand. After all, if Zhong Nuannuan did not bring that up, nobody would have known about the existence of the bugged people.

"Will there be no problem if we kill the bug beforehand?"

"Yes." Zhong Nuannuan nodded. "I've witnessed two cases before. In one of them, the bugged man confessed. As he confessed, the bug started to swell in the main blood vessels of his brain, causing the arteries in his brain to explode. This was usually the most direct cause of death for the bugged people. After that, the bug lost its supply of fresh blood and absorbed the already stale blood, causing the bug to shrink immediately and die.

"The other one didn't confess and was shot to death. After the bugged person died, the bug simply froze inside the brain without changing shape.

"Therefore, before Yang Min died, I killed the bug to death in her head. Even if Viper knew that Yang Min was dead, she wouldn't know that we discovered her secret base. Furthermore, she must be in an agitated state right now. If we only head over after a while, she will have lowered her guards then."

Everyone nodded in agreement.

"Okay, then when do you intend to head over?" Aiden was speechless when he saw the comments scolding him and watched as some of them deleted him from their friends' list. He shut the game in a fit of anger.

"Don't I have my High School Student Tournament in a month? I'll go to Yamato then."

Aiden, "..."

Dan Qi, "..."

Selina said, "Big Boss, you're just coming up with an excuse, aren't you? You're just afraid that Bro-in-law will restrict you if you sneak over to Yamato alone, am I right?"

Zhong Nuannuan, "..."

Dan Qi could not help but say, "Big Sis, I've always thought that even if you find the strongest man in the world in the future, you'll definitely be the dom. Who knew that you'd actually become so demure in front of Bro-in-law? What kind of drug did Bro-in-law feed you?"

Zhong Nuannuan glanced at Dan Qi and could not help but say, "Shoo, shoo, shoo. You're just a kid. Your hair isn't even fully grown yet. Why are you asking about this?"

The moment Dan Qi heard that, he was instantly triggered. His temper flared and he jumped out from his seat.

"What do you mean not fully grown? How's my hair not fully grown? Every single strand of hair on my body is fully grown and very manly, okay?"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 846: Rescue

"Also, I'm only half a year younger than you. Don't keep calling me Lil Dan Qi! Otherwise, people will keep thinking that I'm very young!"

"Aren't you young?"

This time, Zhong Nuannuan, Aiden, and Selina spoke at the same time.

Dan Qi looked at the three people in front of him with a pair of injured eyes. He hugged his laptop and left with his slippers clattering loudly away.

When Zhong Nuannuan was in the video call, Jiang Shuwan called her dozens of times. However, since Zhong Nuannuan had already blocked Jiang Shuwan's number, the call was instantly rejected.

Inside the detention center, Zhong Qianqian was absolutely distressed.

She never thought that after her mother sold the country bumpkin Zhong Nuannuan to human traffickers, that human trafficker actually sold Zhong Nuannuan overseas. Zhong Nuannuan actually became Duke Eton's daughter, goddamnit.

Zhong Nuannuan was constantly reminded of the evening gown that Zhong Nuannuan wore during her grand entrance was actually the work of the world's top designer, Mr. Maire. It was worth tens of millions, and Zhong Qianqian felt nothing but jealousy toward her.

If she knew that human traffickers were able to abduct people, send them overseas, and get adopted by Duke Eton, she would have preferred that she was the one who was abducted.

Zhong Qianqian was like a trapped beast. She stayed in the detention center for an entire day and night, but there was not a single trace of Gu Mingzhe.

When she first came in, she believed that even though she was charged with murder, as the little princess of the Nangong family, she could definitely leave this prison.

However, after a day and a night, Zhong Qianqian's confidence was slowly chipped away as the number of interrogations she had increased.

The person that Gu Mingzhe liked was obviously Zhong Nuannuan. He might feel that Zhong Nuannuan was more worth making use of now. If he decided to ignore her and give up on rescuing her from here, what was she going to do?

It was all that b*tch, Zhong Nuannuan's fault!

Everything was her fault!

If Zhong Nuannuan did not show up, Zhong Qianqian would already be the precious young miss of the Nangong family!

Undeniably, Zhong Qianqian's brain had completely malfunctioned.

If she had not insisted on coming back to attend the auction—or bringing Huang Yuhua along with her—would she be where she was today?

Gu Mingzhe did not stay idle for the whole day either.

He heard that there had been an explosion where the auction was held, but eventually, everyone evacuated safely. He was sure that Chi Yang must have gained some credits for that.

Thinking about how the beautiful Nuannuan he loved was actually Duke Eton's daughter, Gu Mingzhe's heart started palpitating uncontrollably.

This poor soldier, Chi Yang, was really lucky!

Initially, he was gleeful for the explosion to have happened during the auction. He was hoping that Chi Yang died in the explosion, but he did not expect the poor soldier to be so tough!

Yes, in Gu Mingzhe's eyes, Chi Yang was just a poor soldier. He was flabbergasted to hear Chi Yang refer to Young Master Xiao as 'Shen Bin' with such familiarity and intimacy. However, after coming back yesterday, he looked up all the surnames that made up the wealthy families in Emperor District and even extending his search to other districts. There was no surname 'Chi' at all.

Therefore, Gu Mingzhe made a bold decision to fight for the chance to keep both Zhong Qianqian and Zhong Nuannuan in his life.

Firstly, Zhong Qianqian was already his wife. He still had to rely on Zhong Qianqian to bring the Gu family to greater heights. Secondly, even if Nuannuan was nothing, she blossomed like a rose to his thorny mind; glowed like the brightest moon in his darkest skies!

Gu Mingzhe brought the contract with him and confirmed that Zhong Qianqian's tolerance had probably reached its limit. If he did not hurry, that stupid woman would probably spread the news that she was the granddaughter of the Nangong family. After reasoning with himself, he finally started to head out.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 847: Agreement

After pulling some strings to enter the detention center, Gu Mingzhe arrived to see a tear-streaked Zhong Qianqian.

Gu Mingzhe waited for her to finish crying but did not comfort her. After all, she was a woman who took advantage of others. The more you comforted her, the more unreasonable she became.

Therefore, when her wails were reciprocated with Gu Mingzhe's cold attitude, Zhong Qianqian soon stopped crying and asked with some resentment, "Brother Mingzhe, why... why are you ignoring me? Aren't you going to rescue me?"

Gu Mingzhe smiled gently. "Of course not."

Then, he placed a contract in front of Zhong Qianqian. "After you sign this contract, I'll find someone to get you out immediately."

When she heard the word 'contract', Zhong Qianqian felt a tingling sensation crawl up her spine.

When she flipped through the contract, she read that she was to admit that she murdered Zhou Jinhui and attempted to murder Zhong Nuannuan. That was why she informed Gu Mingzhe that she was a member of the Nangong family. As long as Gu Mingzhe could get her out, she would stay together with Gu Mingzhe forever. If they divorced, she would give Gu Mingzhe 200 billion as compensation. Otherwise, Gu Mingzhe would have the right to expose the video and this contract to the public.

Zhong Qianqian was puzzled. "Isn't this the same as the contract that you've asked me to sign before this? The compensation amount is the same, too. Is there a need for me to sign another contract?"

Gu Mingzhe smiled. "Of course it's necessary. The previous contract seemed a bit far-fetched no matter how you look at it. This one is much more pleasing to the eye. Just sign it. It's no different from the previous one anyway. The contract you signed previously will automatically be invalid. After signing you, you just need to wait patiently."

Zhong Qianqian signed the contract without hesitation.

"Come, let's record this."

Zhong Qianqian was puzzled. "What for?"

"If you betray me in the future, who am I going to reason with? This is the detention center. Since it's a deal, of course, that means both parties consented to this contract, right?"

After saying that, he gave Zhong Qianqian a piece of paper and told her to read it carefully to know what she should say before starting the recording.

Zhong Qianqian could not shake off the dismay in her heart. However, the thought of being able to leave and become the precious young miss of the Nangong family made her endure this.

After reading the paper, Zhong Qianqian quickly recorded a video. The general content was that she killed someone and could not find a way out, so she told Gu Mingzhe the secret behind her identity. She asked Gu Mingzhe to find her family to help her. To thank Gu Mingzhe, she promised to never divorce him. If the marriage reached the end of her tolerance and she wanted to divorce him, she promised to compensate Gu Mingzhe 200 billion in the name of the little young miss in the Nangong family. If she went back on her word, Gu Mingzhe could hand over all the evidence he had.

With all these in his possession, Gu Mingzhe did not delay any longer. He told her to be a good girl and stay inside, waiting for the moment she returned home as the young miss of the Nangong family.

Once she regained her freedom, she would no longer be her pathetically broke self, but the young miss of the Nangong family. Thinking about that, Zhong Qianqian's mood instantly soared from rock bottom to the clouds. She would become someone that not even Gu Mingzhe deserved to look up to!

So what if she killed someone?

As far as she was concerned, she could kill anyone she wanted once she became the precious young miss of the Nangong family!

However, what Zhong Qianqian did not know was that after the reporters who participated in the auction were successfully rescued, they were extremely grateful. From that day onward, pieces after pieces of elaborate news took Jiang and H District by storm. Due to Duke Eton's appearance, even the newspapers and electronic news in Emperor District screamed the same things.

'A country bumpkin transformed into an international socialite. Miss Sunny graced Jiang District auction with her presence!'

'Miss Royalty in love with Jiang District officer. Duke Eton descended at the auction venue!'

Chapter 848: Relations With The Nangong Family

'The elder sister committed murder and the younger sister jailed in her stead; shook that the family "country bumpkin" is actually the daughter of the Duke!]

"Real-life Cinderella's revenge served on a silver platter. Evil stepsister exposed!"

"Duke Eton spoils his daughters! He exposed the real murderer on the spot!"

"Shocking news! Young Madam Gu is actually a murderer?!"

Jiang Shuwan had been dreaming of becoming a top wealthy family for the past few days. Although Zhong Kuijun might expose all of them, Qianqian reassured Jiang Shuwan that none of these would be a big deal. That was because she was the precious young miss of the Nangong family, the wealthiest family in Camino.

It was not until Grandma Jiang showed Jiang Shuwan the newspaper that she realized Zhong Qianqian had been arrested!

What surprised her even more was the fact that Zhong Nuannuan was adopted by the Duke of Luntan after getting abducted. Whatever she told them about how she came from a farming district and all that? Those were lies. This b*tch was now Duke Eton's daughter!

With such a reputable status, she did not say anything when she returned home. She must have despised them for being poor.

She was indeed despicable!

It was a good thing that they had taken over her mother's inheritance back then. Otherwise, she doubted that she would gain anything as Zhong Nuannuan's stepmother.

At this moment, Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Qianqian blamed Nuannuan for everything after knowing her real identity.

If Nuannuan revealed her identity as Duke Eton's daughter from the start, which idiot would be dumb enough to mistreat her?

If they did not make things difficult for Zhong Nuannuan, they would not have ended up in such a miserable state.

Everything was Zhong Nuannuan's fault.

Peninsula Mountain Resort, Emperor District.

This was where the Gu Residence was located. It was also where the Nangong family's second son, Nangong Jin's residence was located.

However, the Gu family resided at the foot of the mountain, while the Nangong family was at the top of the mountain.

Gu Mingzhe drove to the house at the mountain top. There was only one entrance, but it was surrounded by rustic iron gates.

Gu Mingzhe parked the car at the side. Even though it was winter, the grass on the lawn still boasted of their bright green colors. He pressed the doorbell.

Soon, a man who looked like a butler appeared on the screen above the doorbell.

"This is the Nangong Residence. How can I help you?"

"Hello, I'm from the Gu family of Emperor District. I know that the Nangong family has been searching for Miss Nangong Yu who was lost many years ago. I have news of her now. If it's not too much of an inconvenience, I'd like to meet Chairman Nangong, or the Third and Fourth Young Masters. Is that okay?"

However, after Gu Mingzhe said that, the person did not even look at him seriously. He treated Gu Mingzhe like a salesman trying to promote his product.

After a long while, the man finally said, "Gu family? Which Gu family?"

"Gu Group in Emperor District. My father's name is Gu Zhongcheng."

"Never heard of him."

Gu Mingzhe, "...!!!"

"Young Master Gu, since you are someone with reputable status too, I hope that you'll refrain from saying such things from now on. You may not know what our Miss means to the Nangong family. As someone who manages the household, I can reassure you that if my employer hears what you said just now, he'd definitely remove the Gu family from Emperor District."

With that, the person turned off the camera.

Gu Mingzhe was a little confused, but the more unyielding the man was, the more obvious how great Nangong Yu was in their hearts.

Soon, Gu Mingzhe rang the doorbell again.

When the butler saw that it was still him and was about to end the video call again, Gu Mingzhe hurriedly blurted out, "I'm married to Nangong Yu's daughter."

Butler, "...???"

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 849: Chairman Nangong

"I had no idea that my wife was Nangong Yu's daughter in the first place. Even when I found out about that later, it didn't occur to me to proclaim to be a part of the Nangong family. I understand that the Nangong family is the most prestigious wealthy family around here, not something a small family like ours can compare to. However, my wife is in trouble now and urgently needs the Nangong family's help. I have the comparison between my wife's DNA and the Third Young Master's DNA here. If Chairman Nangong is still unwilling to help after seeing the blood test report in my hands, I won't disturb you a third time."

Looking at the bag of DNA test report in Gu Mingzhe's hand, the butler started to take Gu Mingzhe seriously.

"Mister Gu, please wait a moment. I don't have the authority to decide on this matter. I'll have to ask the master of the house."

Gu Mingzhe nodded in the sophistication befitting an educated man. "Thank you."

Gu Mingzhe waited outside, but the screen where the doorbell was never lit up again.

He waited for 10 minutes and started to wonder whether he should keep waiting or go home. After all, he was here for a simple request of entering the premises. If they took forever for such a simple matter, could it be that the Nangong family did not want Nangong Yu to go back at all?

Just as Gu Mingzhe started to second guess himself, the door suddenly opened.

A limited-edition Maybach sped out and stopped in front of Gu Mingzhe.

Gu Mingzhe was slightly shocked. Did the Nangong family send a car just to pick him up?

The door opened. It was a gloved driver who got out.

After getting out, the driver was about to open the door for his passenger, but the said passenger had already flung the door open himself.

The person who alighted from the car was none other than Old Master Nangong Renyi's second son—the business magnate—Nangong Qin. At the same time, he was Nangong Yu's second elder brother, the father to Third and Fourth Young Master.

Nangong Qin was already 50 years old, but he maintained his looks well and retained his handsomeness. Additionally, being immersed in the business world for ages, he could never conceal his sharp and assertive bearing that belonged to an alpha in the business world despite leaving the car in a hurry. He looked like a mature and steady business magnate in his thirties. Nobody would have thought of him as a 50-year-old man.

Gu Mingzhe had already memorized the looks of everyone in the Nangong family through photos. Now that he saw Second Master Gu welcoming him personally, he could not help but feel excited.

Nangong Qin hurriedly got out of the car and pinned his gaze on Gu Mingzhe immediately.

To be honest, since the first time he saw Gu Mingzhe, he had already developed a dislike for this nephew-in-law.

This was because although Gu Mingzhe had a smile in his eyes and carried himself in a modest and chivalrous demeanor, he was the kind of people that Nangong Qin encountered too many times in the business world.

People like him hid their true selves too perfectly. They thought acting like a modest gentlemen could paint themselves as friendly. Yet, little did they know that people who were actually capable to expand their businesses disliked people like him the most.

However, in view of what Gu Mingzhe just said, Nangong Qin still chose to tolerate this young man. One look and one could tell that Gu Mingzhe was an opportunist. If he was really husband to Yu'er's daughter—after confirming his statement—the Nangong family would definitely spare no effort to support him, as long as he did not do anything outrageous.

Gu Mingzhe walked to Nangong Qin's side nervously and gave him a ninety-degree bow for politeness' sake. "Nice to meet you, Chairman Nangong!"

Was he not already married to Yu'er's daughter? How dare this man still referred to him as Chairman Nangong after marrying her? Was this Gu Mingzhe not taking him, her biological uncle, seriously?

Chapter 850: Kin

Although Nangong Qin's mind was bubbling with doubt, there was nothing he could do but to go along before everything was confirmed.

Suppressing the excitement in his heart, he nodded.

"You said that Yu'er gave birth to a girl? That girl is now your wife? How did you find out that she's Yu'er's child? Also, how did you get your hands on Nangong Yun's blood?" Nangong Qin went straight to the point.

"It's like this. Our Gu family owns a few small private hospitals in Emperor District. Once, Third Young Master was injured and had his blood drawn at our hospital. As you know, sir, the country is advocating for blood banks to be built, so we retained a small blood sample of every patient who comes to our hospital."

Noticing the absence of displeasure on Nangong Qin's face, Gu Mingzhe continued, "My wife's name is Zhong Qianqian. We grew up together in the same city. Her mother passed away 17 years ago. The only thing her mother left her is an emerald jade necklace with a crescent-shaped pendant."

Gu Mingzhe's words made Nangong Qin narrow his eyes. His previous calmness was instantly replaced by a sense of urgency. Now utterly agitated, Nangong Qin grabbed Gu Mingzhe's hand. "And then? You sent their blood samples for a DNA test?"

Gu Mingzhe knew that Nangong Yu had three elder brothers who loved their sister as much as their lives. He knew how excited Nangong Qin was at this moment. He passed the DNA test report to Nangong Qin. As Nangong Qin looked like he was about to tear the report open, Gu Mingzhe added, "Previously, I was fortunate enough to visit the Nangong Residence as a guest. I knew I saw this pendant before. When I went back, I asked Qianqian for her blood sample. Since I couldn't be too sure, I sent Qianqian's blood and Third Young Master's blood for the DNA test first. This is the test report."

At this instant, Nangong Qin's hands were trembling as he muttered the results. "Their DNA is 76% similar. The result proves that they're... kin!"

Nangong Qin's eyes were instantly brimming with redness. To avoid embarrassing himself in front of the man who was a few generations younger than him, he finally blinked back his tears.

"Where is the little girl now? Is she at the Gu residence? How do we get there? Bring me there immediately! I want to see her first!"

Gu Mingzhe felt a bit awkward after hearing Nangong Qin's words. It was hard to bring the matter up.

"What's wrong?"

When Nangong Qin saw Gu Mingzhe's expression, his heart sank. He asked with concern, "Did... something happen to the little girl? Is it a blood disease? Everyone in our Nangong family can go to the hospital for a blood test! If she's really Yu'er's daughter, then she's our family!" After saying that, he added, "She's our precious family! So as long as we can save her, we'll pay no matter how much it costs."

"That's not it. Don't worry, she's not sick."

Nangong Qin was a smart man. His brain had gone into hyperdrive when he heard the news. Hearing Gu Mingzhe's reaction, Nangong Qin's expression turned grim as he recollected himself and asked, "Did she commit a crime? Or was she implicated by your Gu family?"

"No, no, of course not! If we're talking about being implicated, it's our Gu family that won't hold on long after getting dragged along because of her. That's why I've shamelessly approached Chairman Nangong. If this was a problem that we could solve on our own, I definitely wouldn't have interrupted you as you go about your day."

When Nangong Qin realized that things might not be that simple and that Zhong Qianqian might not turn out to be as good as he expected, his heart sank.

That was Yu'er's child.

Yu'er was gone. If her only child who wandered outside on her own had gone astray, how could they explain this to Yu'er after they rejoined her in the land of the dead?
