

Physician Wife 901

Chapter 901: Trampled

As Old Master Wu continued to curse, Wu Yuewen could hear his eldest uncle, second uncle, fourth uncle, and fifth uncle dissuading the old master from getting angry.

Today was Monday—it was the weekly board meeting of the Blessed Rain Group. All five of her grandfather's sons would be present.

Wu Yuewen's face turned green. She instinctively tried to stand up but stumbled and fell back down on her seat once more.

"Grandpa... Grandpa, did you... did you make a mistake? We... We're the Wu family!"

"The Wu family? What Wu family? How dare you bring up the Wu family?! That's the chairman of Shengyang Group! You've offended the niece to Shengyang Group's chairman! How dare you threaten to cause Shengyang Group to go into bankruptcy using the Wu family's name?! Moreover, you want the chairman to beat up his own niece and apologize to you? Wu Yuewen, good job! Just wonderful!"

"What?! The chairman of Shengyang Group?!" Wu Yuewen exclaimed.

The moment she said that, all of the academic high-flyers in the room erupted.

Shengyang Group!

That was the chief financial magnate in Camino!

That was a giant of a company alongside the Nangong family, the Ning family, the Xiao family, and the Shi family. However, since the chairman of Shengyang Group had always been mysterious, even experienced reporters never found out his identity. That was the reason why the Four Dominant Families in Camino remained unchanged all these years.

However, with Shengyang Group's wealth, they could definitely crush any second-tier wealthy family.

So, who exactly was this Zhong Nuannuan?

She called him 'Second Uncle' on the phone just now. Was her Second Uncle the chairman of Shengyang Group?

"What are you waiting for? Hurry up and apologize to Zhong Nuannuan! The chairman of Shengyang Group said that he doesn't have any children, and his elder brother has passed away a long time ago. He only has one niece, and she means more to him than his own daughter. If you're not forgiven within five minutes, there's no need for the Wu family to continue existing anymore! Hurry up and apologize!"

Wu Yuewen came from a wealthy family and was a top student. Her life could be said to be smooth sailing. Even though she was born in Emperor District, it was such a big place. Even if it was a high-class place, it was quite possible for her to not have encountered anyone from wealthier families than hers. Hence, that led to her sense of superiority in every aspect.

Now, she was asked to apologize to Zhong Nuannuan in front of all the top students in the country. Wu Yuewen could not stand it.

She roared at Zhong Nuannuan, “Zhong Nuannuan, look at what you’ve done! Why are you so vicious? I was just joking, and you immediately sent your family to trample on my Wu family. Are you happy to see my family being trampled on?”

“That’s right!”

Zhong Nuannuan’s answer was infuriating.

“Wu Yuewen, hurry up and apologize. There are less than four minutes left! If you don’t apologize, the Wu family will be ruined!”

Wu Yuewen snapped out of her daze.

Only then did she truly feel fear.

After taking a few deep breaths, Wu Yuewen finally apologized with tears in her eyes. “Zhong Nuannuan, I’m sorry. I failed to recognize a formidable person. Can... can you drop this fight?”

Huang Yuanyuan should be the kind of person like Wu Wenqian back then. She did not have any background, but she liked to step on other people’s heads. If she did not have the ability to scare others, she would take advantage of whatever advantage she had.

At this moment, seeing the high and mighty young miss from a rich family apologize to Zhong Nuannuan in tears within a few minutes, Huang Yuanyuan’s eyes were filled with anger, jealousy, and resentment.

Chapter 902: Childhood Sweethearts

Seeing this, Zhong Nuannuan sneered and said, “Wow, your face is paler than your teeth. We’re both adults. What’s the point of a mere sorry?”

Wu Yuewen was furious. She cried and shouted, “Then what else do you want?! You can’t step on others’ heads!”

The moment she said that, the students laughed and mocked her.

Zhong Nuannuan laughed and asked, “Did you hear that? Your words made everyone laugh. When you thought I was a country bumpkin, did that not count as stepping on others? I’m just giving you a taste of your own medicine. How’s that too much?”

Wu Yuewen was sobbing uncontrollably. “Since you’re not a kept woman, why did you say that you came from the countryside? You’re obviously misleading us!”

“Oh, I came from the countryside, so I must be a kept woman? Our manor is 15 minutes away from the city. Doesn’t that count as the countryside for Camino?”

Wu Yuewen was speechless. Manor!!!

The students laughed maniacally.

The girl was actually referring to her manor when she claimed to have come from the countryside. However, these two women took advantage of that and insulted her, saying that she was a country bumpkin. They also accused her as a kept woman just because of the clothes she wore. From the start, they had been badmouthing the girl, and now they blamed the girl for not making things clear from the start.

Was she supposed to shout, "I'm the niece of Shengyang Group's chairman!" the moment she entered?

Everyone was taken aback by Wu Yuewen's b*tchiness and started to boo her.

Seeing that no one was helping her, Wu Yuewen could only turn toward another popular character and called out pitifully, "Brother Anchen..."

This Anchen's full name was Xia Anchen. He was a young master from a second-tier wealthy family.

Before Zhong Nuannuan entered the lecture hall, Huang Yuanyuan had already helped set up Wu Yuewen and Xia Anchen.

That was how everyone got to know that these two were not only top students, but they also had a good family background. At the same time, they were childhood sweethearts.

Although Xia Anchen did not seem to have responded positively, it seemed like Wu Yuewen wanted to marry into a second-tier wealthy family and was pursuing Xia Anchen fiercely.

When Zhong Nuannuan entered the lecture theater, Xia Anchen was stunned by her beauty. Just as he was about to speak up to help Zhong Nuannuan, he heard Zhong Nuannuan say that she was from the countryside and decided to keep his mouth shut instead.

Later on, after Zhong Nuannuan revealed her identity, he realized that he could not intercept this matter anymore. He was filled with regret.

Now that Wu Yuewen had presented him the opportunity, Xia Anchen was afraid that Zhong Nuannuan would not notice him since she sat in the last row, so he stood up.

"Miss Wu Yuewen, your actions have really disappointed me. It's a fact that Zhong Nuannuan's prettier than you, but because she's prettier than you that you've humiliated her indiscriminately. Again and again, you've crossed her bottom line to the point of threatening to bankrupt her support. You've even asked her to kneel before you to admit her mistake. Now that you're looking at me like this, I can only say that you have only yourself to blame. This time, I'm on Zhong Nuannuan's side! To be fair, I feel that she's done nothing wrong."

She had a crush on Xia Anchen for many years now. She knew his thoughts and personality like the back of her hand.

Xia Anchen liked Wu Yuewen too, but he had nothing but disdain for her family background. Hence, he kept a distance from her from Year 1 Senior to Year 3 Senior years.

However, Wu Yuewen had unintentionally gotten herself into trouble this time, causing her to completely burn the bridge with the Xia family.

“Wu Yuewen, you’re running out of time! If you don’t apologize, you and your father will never have to return to the Wu family anymore! The Wu family won’t ever admit to having a prodigal offspring like you!”

Chapter 903: Eliminated

Old Master Wu’s voice was very loud. Although he was not on loudspeaker, the students around Wu Yuewen could hear him clearly.

Wu Yuewen felt so embarrassed she could roll up and die, but she could only sit on the floor insincerely and nod. “Zhong Nuannuan, I’m sorry. It’s all my fault. I shouldn’t have said that you’re a kept woman.”

Zhong Nuannuan sneered. “So, sitting on the ground is your definition of kneeling! I’ve learned something today. Also, other than you, it seems like your loyal dog hasn’t come out to beg for mercy yet! When the fox exploited the tiger’s might, wasn’t it good to rub off on your glory? Why is she silent now that you’re in trouble? A dog should have the attitude of a dog. If you hide when your master’s in trouble, you’re not a dog—you’re a fence-sitter.”

Wu Yuewen glared angrily at Huang Yuanyuan. If Huang Yuanyuan had not put her in such a difficult position, she would not have said such harsh words to Zhong Nuannuan.

Huang Yuanyuan’s expression was horrifying, but how could she kneel down and apologize?

“Zhong Nuannuan, you’re too much! You’re bullying us!”

Although Huang Yuanyuan came from a poor family, she was proud and arrogant. Moreover, she was a straight-A student, so she had a very high outlook on life since she was a child.

If she knelt, not only would she lose her pride, but she would also lose the rest of her life. It would become a permanent stain in her life.

So, since it was Wu Yuewen’s matter and she had no wealth to lose, she refused to apologize.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at the time and said, “Alright, I won’t force you. You don’t have to apologize anymore. That’s because your five minutes is up.”

Wu Yuewen, “...!!!”

“Zhong Nuannuan, I admit my mistake! I admit my mistake! I’ll kneel for you!” Seeing that her Second Uncle called again, Wu Yuewen finally understood that flowers were red for a reason. She quickly knelt in a proper manner, intending to apologize.

“Nuannuan, have you accepted her apology?”

“She didn’t admit her mistake after the five minutes. She just admitted that she was wrong, I didn’t hear her clearly, though.”

“Zhong Nuannuan, it’s all my fault! Please forgive me!”

Wu Yuewen kowtowed to Zhong Nuannuan.

“Yet, the person who insulted me the most hasn’t apologized yet.”

Seeing this, Huang Yuanyuan slapped Wu Yuewen’s hand away and said angrily, “What are you doing? It’s obvious that you’re unhappy with Zhong Nuannuan and that’s why I supported you as you insulted her. Why should I kneel? Anyway, my family doesn’t have money. Why should I apologize for your family’s sake?”

“Did I ask you to insult her? You used my name to insult her, and that makes you reasonable? You must apologize today!”

Then, Wu Yuewen and Huang Yuanyuan started fighting in the lecture theater.

“Enough!”

The person in charge of the training camp could no longer watch on.

“Wu Yuewen, Huang Yuanyuan, with your personalities, no matter how good your results are, your presence violates our mission. So, you can leave now. If you want to fight, fight outside. You’re the first and second students to be eliminated.”

Wu Yuewen and Huang Yuanyuan were stunned. They refused to believe this outcome.

This tournament was too important to them. Initially, both of them participated in the tournament so that they could make their country proud in Yamato. This way, when they returned to their own country, their future would be bright.

However, in spite of their high scores, they had become the first to be eliminated. How could they accept that?

Chapter 904: Blacklisted

“Teacher, we’re wrong! I won’t say bad things about Zhong Nuannuan anymore, okay?”

However, the person in charge of the training camp would not give them a second chance. He shook his head and said, “It’s important to make your country proud, but to us, the students’ quality and character are more important. We’d rather lose the tournament than lose out in character. This doesn’t just apply to both of you, but all the students here.

“Alright, Wu Yuewen, Huang Yuanyuan, both of you have been eliminated. Now, please don’t waste everyone else’s time and leave.”

Wu Yuewen glared at Huang Yuanyuan and slapped her. “It’s all your fault!”

Although Huang Yuanyuan came from a poor family, she still viewed herself as a proud, heaven-granted daughter. Why should she put up with Wu Yuewen’s anger? She also started fighting with Wu Yuewen.

The person in charge of the training camp immediately got the security guards to throw them out of the school compound.

After leaving the school, Wu Yuewen and Huang Yuanyuan continued to fight. Half an hour later, they were finally tired and collapsed to the ground. At that moment, a few cars stopped at the school gate.

The person in lead was the head of the Wu family, Old Master Wu.

Following them were the Wu family's uncles, who were as angry as Old Master Wu. Walking behind all of them was Wu Yuewen's father, dejected and covered in bruises.

However, none of the uncles standing next to them attempted to dissuade the old master.

That was because, at of this moment, they all wished that Old Master Wu would beat this useless thing to death.

"Wu Yuewen, what's the use of studying all day long? Not only did you stir up trouble, but you even landed such a great disaster for your family! Do you know that Shengyang Group has already issued an ultimatum to ban our Blessed Rain Group? All businesses that are associated with our Blessed Rain Group will be blacklisted by Shengyang Group! Do you know that just because you spoke too quickly and offended someone without apologizing, the Blessed Rain Group is finished! Utterly finished, do you know that?!"

Wu Yuewen was dumbfounded.

She thought that Zhong Nuannuan was merely threatening them. At most, they would not interact with each other anymore. However, she did not expect that Zhong Nuannuan was truly going to destroy Blessed Rain Group.

"It's her! It's all her fault! She's the one who started scolding Zhong Nuannuan! She's also the one who's been using the Wu family's name to threaten Zhong Nuannuan. It's all her fault. In the end, as I kneel before Zhong Nuannuan, she refuses to kneel!"

When Huang Yuanyuan heard the Wu family say that Blessed Rain Group was done for, she was scared silly. She could not imagine that the country bumpkin she ridiculed earlier could destroy the entire Blessed Rain Group with just a few words...

In the ensuing second, a walking stick and multiple legs hit Huang Yuanyuan at the same time. The Wu family members had already gone mad from this unexpected disaster, and they started to beat her up.

Those who still had a shred of rationality left immediately ordered their people to investigate Huang Yuanyuan's family members all the way up to eighteen ancestors.

They found out that Huang Yuanyuan's family was in Emperor District. Her parents were ordinary people in the working class. Therefore, they threatened Huang Yuanyuan. If she could not obtain Zhong Nuannuan's forgiveness, her parents would no longer be able to survive in Emperor District. They would let Huang Yuanyuan understand what it meant to have one line ruin her life.

Huang Yuanyuan was finally scared out of her wits. She agreed to go in with Wu Yuewen to apologize to Zhong Nuannuan.

Chapter 905: Leave

However...

Someone from the training camp had already relayed some instructions to the people watching over the main entrance and the school entrance. They were determined not to let these two students in.

Zhong Nuannuan, on the other hand, finished reading the questions in the entire section in three minutes and shifted her focus to deal with Wu Yuewen. The person in charge of the training camp saw everything clearly. Zhong Nuannuan only took three minutes to browse through the entire section.

She truly, simply, browsed through the section—she could not have memorized any of it.

The person in charge was convinced so because he too was simply browsing, but he could not catch up to her speed.

After Wu Yuewen and Huang Yuanyuan were chased away, Zhong Nuannuan looked at the person in charge of the training camp. “Teacher, you can select one question now.”

The person in charge of the training camp picked up the entire question bank and started reading the questions in Luntanese.

However, he had only recited three Luntanese words when Zhong Nuannuan took over. After reciting the whole question, she recited the answer, followed by the principle behind it.

The person in charge of the training camp, “...”

“So, Teacher, can I leave in the middle of camp?”

The person in charge returned the question bank to Zhong Nuannuan, his eyes filled with satisfaction and surprise. “Okay, I’ll give you the green light. You just need to participate in the elimination rounds every time.”

“Thank you, Teacher. If there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave.”

The person in charge rushed out of the lecture theater and grabbed a portable storage device from his office. He said with a smile, “You have 25 days. If you can memorize everything inside, you won’t need to participate in the elimination rounds anymore. I can allocate you one of the 10 final spots.”

Zhong Nuannuan’s eyes lit up. That could not be any better, could it?

She received the portable storage device. “Really?”

“Really! If you can memorize it in four days, then you won’t have to participate in all the elimination rounds.”

“Deal!”

Zhong Nuannuan thought about it. There were only five elimination rounds, and even if they were given 700 pages each time, it would only add up to 3500 pages. As long as she utilized her supernatural abilities to the maximum, her speed would be much faster.

Zhong Nuannuan took the portable storage device and fished out her bag from the drawer before she could even warm the spot. She slung it over on her back. "Then... can I leave now?"

"Yep. Leave your phone number and keep it on for 24 hours daily so that the training camp committee can contact you anytime."

"Alright!"

Zhong Nuannuan happily exchanged phone numbers with the person in charge and left.

When she reached the door, she saw Wu Yuewen and Huang Yuanyuan, who had been beaten to a pulp.

Seeing Zhong Nuannuan walk out, the two of them immediately crawled toward her and kowtowed profusely to apologize.

Seeing this, the Wu family, with Old Master Wu as their leader, hurried over to apologize to Zhong Nuannuan. They gave her 90 degrees bows. They looked like they were on the verge of kneeling in front of her.

Seeing that there were more and more people at the door, many of them were pointing fingers and whispering among each other because they did not know what was going on. In her mind, Zhong Nuannuan could not help but think of it as a small matter. Compared to Zhong Qianqian's gang of four bullying her back then, this was nothing. Zhong Nuannuan did not plan to pursue the matter any further.

"I believe you've learned your lesson this time. I can stop the Wu family from heading to ruins, but you should stop trying to mess with me. If I hear the two of you badmouthing me again, the Wu family will go bankrupt for real!"

"Yes, yes, yes! Miss Zhong, please be magnanimous. We'll definitely teach Wu Yuewen a good lesson and never cause trouble for you again."

Chapter 906: Trouble

After that, Old Master Wu took out a black card and said, "I know Miss Zhong won't think too much of something as small as this, but Miss Zhong must also have friends or classmates of the same caliber. As long as you have this card, Miss Zhong's friends can enjoy all the hotels, restaurants, and department stores under the Wu family's name for free. Free for life! Just show them this card."

To be honest, Zhong Nuannuan did not think much of it. After all, she owned Imperial Phoenix Group and was affiliated with Second Uncle's Shengyang Group. Under them, multiple five-star hotels were spread all over the world. She did not dabble in the food and beverages industries, but as for general goods... there was no need to talk about them.

Zhong Nuannuan glanced at the chairman of the Wu family and asked magnanimously, "Can I transfer it to someone else?"

"Yes, yes, yes. Only you have this card, Miss Zhong. You can give it to anyone. The Wu family will acknowledge it." Chairman Wu bowed.

"Alright." Zhong Nuannuan retrieved the card and threw it into her bag. She was prepared to leave.

"Miss Zhong, then... What will happen on the chairman of Shengyang Group's side?"

Chairman Wu followed after Zhong Nuannuan. His back was bent and he did not dare to straighten it.

Zhong Nuannuan waved her hand and said, "I'll talk to my Second Uncle, but please watch your granddaughter's mouth, Chairman Wu. Since she's well aware that there's always someone better than her, she shouldn't offend anyone. It's not right to assume someone's a kept woman just because she's pretty."

"Yes, yes, yes. I'll definitely educate her well. This will never happen again. Don't worry."

"There's nothing to worry about. If I hear her spouting nonsense again, then prepare to apologize with the Wu family's assets."

Chairman Wu wiped his sweat and nodded. "Yes, yes, yes! Thank you, Miss Zhong, for your magnanimity!"

Initially, Zhong Nuannuan only wanted to apply for leave to take care of the old, weak, and sick at home. Never did she expect herself to obtain a 20-day long leave.

If that was the case, did that not mean that she could return to Jiang District to accompany her Big Brother Chi Yang after treating her Grandpa and Second Uncle?

Just thinking about it made her happy.

Zhong Nuannuan decided to give her Grandpa and Second Uncle another acupuncture treatment today. Tomorrow, she would return to Jiang District to accompany Big Brother Chi Yang and give Uncle Leng another acupuncture treatment.

After enjoying herself for two days, she would return.

If the person in charge of the training camp knew how Zhong Nuannuan would spend her time. Even if he was beaten to death, he would never let her leave.

However, dreams were beautiful, but the reality was harsh.

"Boss, I'm coming to Emperor District!"

"What is it?" Her voice sounded like she was here to cause trouble!

"Boss, the matchmaker has started to move. And it's a big one."

"Huh!" Zhong Nuannuan laughed coldly.

Although she rarely mentioned this person, she did not forget that this was the woman who she had ordered Selina to investigate and stalk.

The people from that organization traversed mountains and rivers just to transport Zhong Nuannuan overseas, sending her into the jaws of the world's top mercenary organization—KE!

Chapter 907: Abduction

However, since the Matchmaker was the lowest downline possible, she was not affected at all by KE's destruction.

This was enough to prove that Zhong Nuannuan did not die unjustly in her past life.

King, the leader of KE, was not dead at all. Yet, she had no idea.

Recalling the time when they destroyed KE, they cornered the world's top mercenary—the mercenary that could be considered her equal—King, at the cliff beside the sea. Zhong Nuannuan shot him in the heart. At that time, she had used her X-ray vision.

She could not be more sure that the bullet hit his heart.

After she fired, Feng Shengxuan, Bai Liyue, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi sent a rapid shower of bullets at him too.

King's body was already riddled with wounds.

Later, Zhong Nuannuan detonated the barrel bomb at the reef and watched as King was swallowed up by the explosion. The entire reef area sank into the sea, leaving not even a speck of dust intact.

For him to have gone through such a deathly death, how could King still be alive?

Thinking about her rebirth, Zhong Nuannuan guessed that there were only two possibilities for King to be alive.

Firstly, he was reborn too.

Another...

From the beginning to the end, the person who appeared before them was not the real King!

She and King were called Queen and King because, like her, King also earned the title of being a man with a thousand faces.

If King was not the King she knew...

Although Zhong Nuannuan was very reluctant to think of this possibility, it was something that she had to face.

After all, after she thought she destroyed KE along with the files on the six of them, she revealed her true face.

If King had never appeared and had been watching her from the shadows, it would have been a very troublesome matter.

However, in her previous life, King only attempted to take Zhong Nuannuan's life six years later through Viper, who used Jiang Shuwan. Therefore, Zhong Nuannuan was willing to believe that the King they killed was King himself.

No matter what, King might not be able to deal with her for the time being. Therefore, she wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to find the Matchmaker and the organization behind the matchmaker. Then, through that organization, she would be able to find out what she had previously neglected.

Viper and King...

She would not let any of them off!

She wanted them to die deaths so horrible no burial grounds would accept them!

"That Matchmaker, did she capture more children?"

"Yes, Big Boss. Guess who she captured this time?"

"Do I know them?"

"Even though you don't know them, they have a lot to do with you."

Zhong Nuannuan thought for a moment and quickly reacted. She frowned and said, "It can't be the Nangong family, right?"

"Big Boss is truly my Big Boss. As expected of my master, your brain always works so fast. You guessed that right!"

Zhong Nuannuan did not say anything, but Selina added, "Big Boss, to be honest, I wonder if you would've gotten sold by Jiang Shuwan if she hadn't abandoned you in the first place."

If Jiang Shuwan was the cause of Zhong Nuannuan's abduction and the Matchmaker was merely taking advantage of the situation, the fact that the children from the Nangong family got kidnapped again was too strange a coincidence.

After what happened to Nangong Yu—the malicious abduction of Zhong Nuannuan's mother—the menfolk of the Nangong family would definitely protect their women and children well.

Chapter 908: Detector

The fact that the Nangong family's children could still be abducted under such circumstances only proved that this incident was premeditated.

In that case, did it not mean that KE Organization already knew Zhong Nuannuan's identity from the very beginning? Jiang Shuwan was not the only reason why she was abducted at the age of three—KE Organization targeted her from the beginning? Even if Jiang Shuwan did not make the decision to abandon her in the first place, Zhong Nuannuan would eventually be abducted anyway?

"Let's not dwell on this for now. We'll know the answer one day." Then, Zhong Nuannuan proceeded to ask, "The Nangong family only has two young children—Nangong Xu and Nangong Ling. Which one did they lose?"

"Both. They were lost at the same time, taken away by Matchmaker. After she took the children, she went to a very remote place and took a helicopter straight to the border between Z and E Country. Then, someone received her and they left through the river."

"How did the Nangong family react?"

"The Nangong family didn't react in time at first. It was already two o'clock in the morning when Nangong Shu gave the order to seal off the border. However, no matter how good the diplomacy between Camino and Velmina is, Velmina won't allow the soldiers from Camino to enter their territory directly to capture criminals. Therefore, I guess the Nangong family has already sent their own people into Velmina."

"You've kept a close eye on the Matchmaker. You must've installed something on her, haven't you?"

"Big Boss is as amazing as ever! Ever since you mentioned that Matchmaker might be related to Viper, Aiden created a photosensitive detector. As long as there are ultraviolet rays, we can detect where she is."

Zhong Nuannuan raised an eyebrow and praised, "It seems like Aiden's improving in his skills!"

"That's right! That crazy maniac created a photosensitive detector in the form of a needle with a diameter of less than 0.5 millimeters and a length of less than 0.5 centimeters. He also turned it into a mosquito that attached itself to the back of Matchmaker's neck. As the mosquito bit her neck and she felt the itch, she reached out to slap the mosquito to death, sending the needle into her body along the way. Other than detecting Matchmaker through the detector, no other detectors can find out that there's a tracker in her body."

"Impressive! Looks like he hasn't completely turned himself into an idiot." Zhong Nuannuan was amazed.

"Big Boss, don't mention this anymore. I'll feel depressed every time this gets brought up. This idiot woke up at six this morning and made a lunch box. He sent the lunch box of love to Young Brother Leng's house directly. Aiden scared Young Brother Leng so much that he hid under the covers and didn't dare come out."

Zhong Nuannuan, "...!!!"

At the mention of Aiden's shamelessness and pervertedness, Selina was totally dismayed. Then, he continued to insult him. "There's a big problem with the photosensitive tracking device he made. For instance, if Matchmaker stays indoors all the time, we won't be able to follow her. Also, this tracking device can only pinpoint a general location within a three-kilometer radius. Only an idiot like him would make something so dumb."

"Are they still in Velmina?"

"Yes. The tracker shows that they are heading west with all their might. I think they'll head to KYC Island and then move to Sab."

Zhong Nuannuan made some internal calculations. "How's their speed today?"

"They're moving at 160 kilometers per hour. They should be in a car."

"Got it."

"Big Boss, shall we meet up in Emperor District or at KYC Island directly?"

"Let's not waste time. Let's meet up at KYC Island. Utilize the special communication channel to contact each other too. We'll want to avoid any problems, if possible."

Chapter 909: Contradicting Emotions

"Yes, sir!" Selina's voice was full of vigor. It had been a long time since she could do something so cool with her Big Boss.

"Remember to bring Aiden along too."

Selina was instantly rendered speechless. She could not be more reluctant to bring him along at this point.

When Zhong Nuannuan reached home, Old Master Chi was about to leave.

"Grandpa, where are you going?"

Old Master Chi was also surprised to see her. "Little Girl, why are you back? Did something happen?"

"Nope. The teacher saw that I was good at memorizing, so he allowed me to come back to memorize them. It just so happened that Selina and I needed to go back to Luntan for a few days. I came back earlier to perform acupuncture for Grandpa and Second Uncle. I'll have to leave in the afternoon."

"I see." The old master sighed in relief before his eyes lit up. "Little Girl, you came back at the right time. Something happened at your Grandpa Nangong's place—his two great-grandchildren were kidnapped! This morning, he fainted from the trauma, and he's still in the hospital. I need to go see him now."

"Then, I'll go with grandpa. Maybe I can help."

"Good, good, good! That's what Grandpa meant!"

"Then, let's go!"

Zhong Nuannuan and Old Master Chi hurriedly got into the car and rushed to the Military General Hospital.

The incident where human traffickers abducted Nangong Xu and Nangong Ling was a huge blow to the Nangong family. This disaster had yet to pass, but Nangong Renyi, the Nangong family's pillar of support, had fallen unconscious.

The initial diagnosis from the hospital claimed that it was a cerebral ischemic stroke.

A cerebral ischemic stroke was basically a death sentence for the elderly.

Patients with cerebral ischemic stroke could end up either dead or paralyzed, and less than 5% of people could regain mobility.

Even so, patients with cerebral ischemic stroke would not be able to move as fast as they did in the past even after regaining their mobility. Be it their brain reaction, the agility in their limbs, or the speed of their speech and movement, they would not be the same as before the illness made its mark.

Meanwhile, Old Master Nangong could not take the trauma and that led to his bout of cerebral ischemic stroke.

The three Nangong brothers, Nangong Shu, Nangong Qin, and Nangong Zhao, as well as their wives, were waiting outside the operating theater.

Meanwhile, among Old Master Nangong's grandsons, the eldest, Nangong Jin, major general of the special forces; the second, Nangong Li from the Ministry of Public Security; the third, Nangong Yun, Vice President of Imperial Palace Group; and the sixth, Nangong Ze from the Medical Administrative Department in the Ministry of Health, were absent. The ones present were the fourth, Nangong Zheng, Vice President of Imperial Palace Group, and Nangong Yi from the Treasury Office.

As the group of Nangong men was enshrouded in anxiety, none of them expected to see the little Nangong princess at this moment.

Since Old Master Nangong had shown them the video that day, all the men in the Nangong family engraved Nuannuan's face into their hearts.

Therefore, when they suddenly saw their Nangong family's little princess under such circumstances, the men of the Nangong family were overwhelmed by an indescribable joy amidst the contradicting worries in their hearts. They had mixed feelings.

If the twins had not been kidnapped—if the old master did not suffer from a cerebral ischemic stroke—then, this moment would have been perfect.

Therefore, when Old Master Chi appeared in front of the men from the Nangong family, he was aghast to find that all of them were staring at Nuannuan.

They were not even blinking!

“Ahem! Ahem!”

Old Master Chi was furious!

This bunch of rascals still had the energy to stare at his granddaughter-in-law when their father or grandfather was sick.

Chapter 910: Butterfly Effect

Even if his granddaughter-in-law was pretty, these men could not act so brazenly, could they?!

No matter what, she was already taken!

Old Master Chi's cough sounded particularly fake. As he coughed, he glared at the men from the Nangong family.

“Uncle Chi!”

Although Nangong Shu was already a grand general, he would forever be junior to Old Master Chi. Furthermore, in terms of status, a rank like Old Master Chi's would probably never appear in Camino ever again.

Any soldier would have absolute respect for Old Master Chi.

“How did Old Nangong's stroke get so serious? Is he still unconscious?”

He nodded with an austere expression. “Yes, he's still receiving urgent treatment. The doctor informs us that my father's having a really serious stroke and it's not easy to operate on him. He's still dealing with the blood clot in his brain. Even though he's no longer in a critical state and his life is no longer in danger, walking and talking normally is out of the question from now on.”

When Old Master Chi heard this, he seemed to have aged a few years instantly. He muttered, “Then, Nangong... will be paralyzed in a wheelchair from now on?”

Nangong Shu did not say anything, but his silence proved Old Master Chi right.

“Can I go in and take a look?”

Zhong Nuannuan frowned after hearing Nangong Shu's words.

Although she did not intend to acknowledge the Nangong family as her own, she had taken quite a liking to this maternal grandfather of hers. Those that left a horrible impression on Zhong Nuannuan were Nangong Li, Nangong Yun, Nangong Zheng, Nangong Yi, and Nangong Ze.

In order words, she did not like all of Old Master Nangong's grandsons except those from Nangong Shu's family.

In Zhong Nuannuan's past life, this group of men was too protective of the mistakes committed by those they thought were family. Every time Zhong Qianqian came to provoke Zhong Nuannuan, Zhong Nuannuan had always been tolerant. She had been so tolerant that she had gotten angry before retaliating a little. Eventually, when Zhong Qianqian bullied Zhong Nuannuan, none of these men stopped Zhong Qianqian even though the conflict in their eyes was apparent. Once Zhong Nuannuan retaliated—despite not causing too much harm to Zhong Qianqian—these men leaped at the first chance they got.

When the men from the Nangong family heard Zhong Nuannuan's indifferent voice, their eyes softened and they looked at her tenderly.

Zhong Nuannuan was not a master of detecting emotions, so she did not sense the change in their eyes. However, Old Master Chi was so frightened that he shivered.

Oh, heavens! What were these guys trying to do?

"Nuannuan, you're willing to see Grandpa? Of course you can! If Grandpa sees you, he'll definitely be very happy!"

Nangong Qin could no longer suppress the brimming emotions contained within his mortal body and replied excitedly.

Zhong Nuannuan, "...". She finally realized something was wrong.

"Grandpa?" Could it be that the Nangong family had discovered something wrong in this life?

Nangong Qin also realized that he seemed to have said something wrong due to his excitement. Afraid that he would upset the little princess, he quickly corrected himself. "Nuannuan, your Grandpa told us yesterday that he had admitted you as his granddaughter before he even returned home. He's extremely happy about it. Last night, he even called for a family meeting and said that he wants to hold a family banquet for you. Who would've known..." He sighed loudly after trailing off in his sentence.

So, that was what happened.

Zhong Nuannuan heaved a sigh of relief.
