

Physician Wife 921

Chapter 921: Threat

That scene reminded Zhong Nuannuan of the instance when she committed a serious mistake and KE Organization decided to execute her. It was Feng Shengxuan who went up against King in the same manner.

Zhong Nuannuan lost her focus for a brief moment there.

After seeing Zhong Nuannuan, Matchmaker walked over to Nangong Xu and Nangong Ling. She held a gun in each hand and pointed them at the two children's foreheads. "Whoever you are, get out of KYC Island within five minutes. Otherwise, I'll shoot them!"

Nangong Xu and Nangong Ling pursed their lips as they looked at the strange masked woman on the screen. They did not speak, nor did they cry for help.

Upon hearing the threat, Zhong Nuannuan laughed.

Even though the upturned corners of her lips were not visible under the mask, Zhong Nuannuan's charming eyes curved into a pleasant smile, but the words that came out of her mouth were extremely cruel.

"No one can threaten me. The people who threatened me are already dead."

Matchmaker, "..."

"You said five minutes, right? Alright, I'll grant you five minutes too. If you send Nangong Xu and Nangong Ling out safely within five minutes, I'll spare your life. If you dare touch a single hair on them, or refuse to present them obediently after five minutes, you'll experience how dying can be a luxury too."

Before Matchmaker could threaten her again, Zhong Nuannuan ended the video call.

She ended... She ended the call...

Matchmaker, "...!!!"

Matchmaker was the one with hostages—she was the one who had the power to give threats!

What the hell was wrong with that woman?!

How could she defy common sense?!

Was she not afraid that they would simply end the children's lives?

The Organization informed them that they must get their hands on the Nangong family's fraternal twins, especially Nangong Ling, the girl.

However, the Organization also mentioned that if all else failed, or if there was an irreversible mistake, they could end the children's lives on the spot.

Why did the woman hang up after getting her message through?

How dare she?!

Matchmaker was about to die from anger. She immediately called back, trying to reconnect with the masked lady through video calls.

However, from the moment Zhong Nuannuan sent the helicopter into KYC Island, all phone reception and internet were no longer associated with members of KE Organization.

Therefore, after many attempts, Matchmaker finally realized that there was something wrong with their reception.

This was simply...

The people inside the room had no idea what was going on outside. They only knew that they made a very powerful enemy—so powerful that even though they had 500 people, their enemy managed to suppress them.

Now that the video call ended and the internet was down, Matchmaker stomped around angrily. She reached out to slap Nangong Ling's face, but Nangong Xu blocked her and threatened, "That pretty lady just said that if you dare touch a single hair on us, or refuse to send us out in five minutes, you'll experience how dying can be a luxury too!"

"Shut up!" Matchmaker shouted angrily.

In all of her human-trafficking career, no children had ever threatened her before.

Even so, Matchmaker's heart was pounding against her ribcage. She lowered her hand and decided to not hit Nangong Ling.

"Go out and take a look at the situation. Don't get too close. Come back and report to me when you find out what's going on."

Although Matchmaker was an aged woman in her fifties, it was obvious that she held a reputable position in this organization.

Chapter 922: Domineering

After Matchmaker gave the order, a killer wearing a black scarf immediately left.

On the other side of the island, the moment Zhong Nuannuan ended the video call, the battle started again without further ado.

This time, Zhong Nuannuan, Selina, Aiden, and Dan Qi had no intention of fooling around with their enemies. They were like reaper scythes that harvested the lives of the enemy killers at a terrifying speed.

Luckily, one shot was sufficient to kill a person—one shot to the head, or one shot to the heart. In the worst-case scenario, they could launch a rocket over and decimate a whole cluster of their enemies, leaving not even a whole body to be found.

The four Young Masters of the Nangong family were also very skilled. After Zhong Nuannuan's participation, the Nangong family's Young Masters quickly got rid of the enemies surrounding them too and joined forces with Zhong Nuannuan.

However, after seeing the massacre that Zhong Nuannuan and the other three brought to the enemies, the four Young Masters were so shocked that they nearly forgot how to fight.

Internally, they prayed for God's blessing too.

The four Young Masters could not be more glad that the four of reapers were here to help them. If the four Young Masters were the reapers' target, not only would the Young Masters be unable to rescue the twins, this would prove to be their end.

Of course, death was certain for the Young Masters before Zhong Nuannuan arrived too. After all, the Nangong family only brought 40 people. Despite looking like it was enough to outnumber their enemies from KE Organization, there were actually 500 KE members lying in ambush on KYC Island.

KE Organization was determined to kill the four Young Masters in a stranger's land!

The four Young Masters of the Nangong family stared at Zhong Nuannuan in a daze. They could not help feeling how familiar the girls' eyes were, but they could not recall where they had seen her before. Thus, they kept staring at Zhong Nuannuan and forgot to attack.

Meanwhile, those killers who had been scared out of their wits knew that escape was impossible today. At long last, when the enemies finally noticed that four Young Masters stopped resisting, they raised their guns and were prepared to make the Nangong Young Masters hostage after injuring them.

Meanwhile, Zhong Nuannuan was caught in a fight with seven other killers. In the blink of an eye, she killed five killers surrounding her, and then, fired a sudden shot in Nangong Jin's direction, nudging him awake.

Nangong Jin swerved to his back only to see a headless assassin on the ground. He broke out in cold sweat.

Only then did the four brothers quickly collect their thoughts and focus on dealing with the enemy killers.

The four Nangong brothers were not as good as Nuannuan and her other three companions—it would not be an exaggeration to say that they were far inferior. Even so, Nangong Jin was a young and promising major general; Nangong Li was a rising fledgling in the Ministry of Public Security; Nangong Yun was a business magnate who survived many assassination attempts, and Nangong Ze was a medical prodigy who was often on the hit list for no reason when he stayed at the Medic Association Hospital. Without authentic skills and knowledge in killing, none of them could have lived to this day. Otherwise, the Nangong family would not be at ease sending the four of them out to retrieve the twins.

It could be said that the four of them, together with the remaining three sworn fighters from the Nangong family, were quite useful.

At the very least, against these killers, there was no problem for one of them to go against two enemies or even one against three enemies.

Moreover, every time one of them was in danger, it was like Zhong Nuannuan had eyes all over. She would notice the dangers they were in and give their enemies headshots at the most crucial moment. Therefore, the Young Masters' war became easier.

As the end of the fight neared, the enemy was scared witless by Zhong Nuannuan's squad and started to scramble to safety.

However, Zhong Nuannuan and the rest would not give them a chance to escape.

Even the killers who hid behind the rocks and never showed up tried to escape when they realized victory was not siding with them. Even if there were no planes available, jumping into the sea was a viable option too.

Chapter 923: Her Wimpy Elder Brothers

It was as though the girl had X-ray vision. Regardless of whether these killers were facing them head-on, scrambling away, finding a place to hide before escaping, or staying hidden because they did not have the guts to escape, the killers were easily discovered and eliminated by the girl with god-like speed.

Zhong Nuannuan did not even spare the killers who had buried themselves in the tall grass under the rocks. She sent shots flying over, and the four Nangong brothers could only see blood seeping out from the ground.

They had to suppress the urge to ask if she had X-ray vision—how else did she know there were people under all the mess?

Just as this thought appeared in the minds of the Nangong brothers, they froze.

They widened their eyes and exclaimed in unison, "Nuannuan!"

Zhong Nuannuan, who remained in front with Selina and the rest of her squad, suddenly stopped in her tracks. She had been ignoring the four Nangong brothers until this happened.

The four Nangong brothers felt their scalps go numb...

Oh my!

Dang it!

Their little princess, Nuannuan, heard them!

Grandpa reminded them that before Nuannuan was informed of her real heritage and accept this willingly, he would skin everyone who dared expose this knowledge to her.

Grandpa was a man of his words.

Zhong Nuannuan turned around and looked at the four Nangong brothers. Since they had already announced her name so blatantly, there was no need for her to keep a mask on anymore.

After all, she was not afraid of being recognized by these killers in dark attire. After all, she planned to wipe them out from the start.

The only reason she masked herself was to avoid getting recognized by the Nangong brothers.

However...

Zhong Nuannuan took off her face scarf and revealed her delicate yet aggressively beautiful face. She asked coldly, "How did you recognize me?"

Had Zhong Qianqian asked the Nangong family to settle matters with her so quickly?

Zhong Nuannuan sneered internally. If that was really the case, the second the Nangong brothers attempted to provoke her, she would definitely smash their handsome faces in this life.

Although it was only the Nangong brothers' wild guess, when Zhong Nuannuan removed her mask, the four brothers' hearts nearly leaped out of their chests.

Nuannuan!

It was Nuannuan!

It was their little princess!

What was this anticipation? What should they do?

Also, could Nuannuan get any cooler than this? Not only did she was an expert in her medical skills, but she also possessed such an overpowering combat ability.

Was Grandpa aware of how powerful Nuannuan was?

If Grandpa knew, he would definitely be very happy, right?

"I asked you a question. Why aren't you answering?" Nuannuan asked coldly.

Old Master Nangong's sixth grandson, Sixth Young Master Nangong Ze, could not help but step forward. Just as he was about to speak, Eldest Young Master Nangong Jin intercepted him and lodged himself between Nangong Ze and Nuannuan instead.

"Nuannuan, please don't misunderstand us. We recognized you because Grandpa showed us your pictures and the video on the news. He has told us that you're his sworn granddaughter, and he wants us to treat you like our own sister in the future. We were discussing having a big party for you this weekend, but these people kidnapped my son and daughter. Nuannuan, thank you for coming to save them."

Zhong Nuannuan, "..."

Why was the trajectory of this life different from the previous one?

She remembered that in her previous life, Zhong Qianqian had already returned to the Nangong family at around this time. After that, these annoying brothers of the Nangong family would come over from time to time to cause Nuannuan trouble, all for Zhong Qianqian's sake.

Especially Nangong The Sixth, Nangong Ze. Zhong Nuannuan hated him with a passion.

However, why were the Nangong brothers looking at her with the same eyes they used to look at Zhong Qianqian in her past life?

Chapter 924: Unbearable

Could it be that Gu Mingzhe had yet to bring Zhong Qianqian back to the Nangong family after staying in Emperor District for so long?

Impossible!

"I'm just a god-granddaughter that he acknowledges in a whim; there's no need to make it grand. Also, I'm not here to rescue you. I just happen to have a grudge against these people."

The four Nangong brothers, "..."

Why did it feel like their Little Princess Nuannuan disliked them?

Why?

Sob...

How their heart hurt!

Noticing the piercing coldness from their little sister, the four siscons' [1]eyes started to brim with tears.

How they wanted to wrap their arms around their little sister and burst into tears! They would give everything to acknowledge her as their family in this instant.

Bang!

While the four brothers were still struggling internally, Zhong Nuannuan raised her gun and sent another man's head exploding.

It was the same man who received Matchmaker's instructions to find out what the situation was outside.

Nuannuan and her squad wiped out all the killers on this side of the island. None of them survived with the help of her X-ray vision. Thus began Nuannuan's arduous wait for another killable living thing. Zhong Nuannuan harbored a lot of pent-up anger as she recalled the suffering that she had to go through in her previous life. Now that there was someone she could kill, she ended him without hesitation.

"Let's go."

Zhong Nuannuan summoned Selina and the other two as they started making their way toward Matchmaker.

The Nangong brothers hurriedly followed after her.

Zhong Nuannuan halted in her path after taking a few steps.

She could not help feeling awkward and anxious with these four behind her tail.

"I'll save the two children. You guys wait here."

"But..." Nangong Ze still wanted to say something.

“No buts,” Nuannuan snapped at the young master she hated the most. “I don’t like people questioning me. Don’t forget, without me, even you won’t be able to escape death, children aside.”

The little princess yelled at Nangong Ze.

Not only did the little princess yell at him, she even gave him a look of disdain.

His heart was bleeding.

As soon as Zhong Nuannuan finished speaking, she saw four pairs of eager eyes staring after her. It was the same sad eyes puppies would have when they wanted to follow their master but were afraid of being scolded. In the face of imminent abandonment, they wanted nothing in the world but to follow their master. Even so, they were afraid that it would only make their master loathe them even more.

Despair, helplessness, and a look of endless grievance were written all over their faces.

This was especially so for Nangong Ze, who had just been told off. How dare this annoying man looked at her with such pitiful and watery eyes.

Damnit...

What happened to the domineering attitude he showed her before?

What happened to his previously conflicted self?

Where was the swagger he used to have?

There was nothing on his face—only the looks of a man who was about to burst into tears because she told him off.

Zhong Nuannuan, “...”

She could not stand the look in his eyes.

Ugh! So angry! Now, Nuannuan was the conflicted one!

If Big Brother Chi Yang was here, Nuannuan would have leaped into his arms and block the whole world out.

Yet, now that Big Brother Chi Yang was not around, she could only raise her defensive thorns herself.

However, why did these people not suppress her with their domineering aura?

Why did they not?

Finally, Nuannuan could no longer stand the pitiful gazes of these four men. She turned around and left angrily.

After walking for quite a distance, she noticed that the four men did not follow her, per her demand. However, Zhong Nuannuan could feel that with every step she took that put distance between her and the men, the gaze that was almost tangible on her back became one level more intense.

Finally, Miss Nuannuan could not hold it in anymore.

She turned around and shouted at the four pitiful puppies, "What are you waiting for?!"

When the four Nangong brothers heard this, they broke into smiles and followed Nuannuan immediately without holding any grudges against her.

Looking at their expressions that changed so drastically, Zhong Nuannuan suppressed her urge to beat them all up!

Chapter 925: Search

The four Young Masters were aware that their little sister did not like them. Although they did not know the reason, the four Young Master possessed the advantages that only siscons could possess.

Although they were in high spirits and could not wait to follow her, they were surprisingly quiet and did not give Zhong Nuannuan any room to find fault with them.

Zhong Nuannuan could not find any excuse to be mad at them.

Frankly, if Matchmaker did not send her scout, Zhong Nuannuan would not have been able to pinpoint her location.

After all, although they knew from the sensors on Matchmaker's body that she was still on KYC Island, KYC Island was still too big for a quick search. As long as Matchmaker stayed in a room that no ultraviolet rays could reach, Zhong Nuannuan would not be able to find Matchmaker quickly even if she had X-ray vision.

However, Zhong Nuannuan had been paying attention to the direction that the killer came from. Thus, she was heading in the same direction.

After walking for a short distance, they saw an off-road vehicle in the jungle. Zhong Nuannuan got into the car, followed by Selina, Aiden, and Dan Qi.

There was only one car, but the Nangong family had four young masters. At this moment, the struggle was obvious on the Young Masters' faces.

Finally, the other three said humbly, "Big Brother, you should go with Nuannuan. We'll wait for you here."

Seeing the disappointment in the eyes of the other three, Zhong Nuannuan finally said, "There's no traffic police here. What are you guys doing?"

When all four of them heard that, they beamed at the newfound hope. Hence, one stood next to the driver's seat, while another stood next to the passenger's seat. Meanwhile, the other two stood on either side of the backseat. They held the car door with one hand and a machine gun with the other, forming a defensive wall of flesh for Zhong Nuannuan and her squad.

If anyone dared to fire at them en route, at least they could protect Nuannuan and her friends.

The four Young Masters' instinctive move touched Zhong Nuannuan right in the heart.

If they could have done a tenth of what they did right in this life, perhaps she would not have hated them.

However, she did not know how to forgive them since she long established her hatred.

However...

Looking at the four of them, they did not seem that annoying all of a sudden.

Since KYC Island was located in a cold area, it was rarely frequented by people. Therefore, once a car drove past here, it would leave an unmistakable mark.

Zhong Nuannuan and the rest easily located Matchmaker.

It was a remote hill. The wheel marks they had been following disappeared at the bottom of the hill. Furthermore, it was obvious that this car was previously parked here.

Everyone quietly got out of the car.

The crowd that was to split up to look for Matchmaker now turned to look at Zhong Nuannuan unanimously.

Zhong Nuannuan, "..."

If Selina, Aiden, and Dan Qi managed to guess that Nuannuan had supernatural abilities after spending such a long time together, that was understandable. Yet, what about these four from the Nangong family?

Why were they looking at her like that?

Zhong Nuannuan peered at the four of them, but they still had no intention of splitting up to look for Matchmaker.

After all, their little princess possessed X-ray vision, and it was obvious that Matchmaker was nearby. Using X-ray vision was the best method to go about this.

Of course, what Zhong Nuannuan did not realize was that her siscon brothers were well-aware of her biggest secrets. She just found it weird.

In her impression, all of the Nangong family's young masters were extremely conceited.

Their current reactions did not seem to match their previous image!

However, Zhong Nuannuan did not think too much about it.

Chapter 926: Acting Pitiful

As the group of people followed her up the hill, Zhong Nuannuan located the underground room with her X-ray vision almost immediately.

It was a room that had less than 30 square meters of space. In the room, Nangong Xu and Nangong Ling stood in the middle of the room. Other than the little space facing the door, killers surrounded the whole room as their guns pointed at the two children.

Nangong Ling looked much worse than before. Zhong Nuannuan quickly scanned through Nangong Ling's body with her X-ray vision. Eventually, she discovered that Nangong Ling had a severe case of congenital heart defect. Furthermore, after getting locked up in such a cold place where there was not even a fire to keep her warm, the little girl's illness had already acted up.

Although her elder brother, Nangong Xu, had considerately draped his coat over her, Nangong Ling was still pale from the cold. There was a growing sheen of green and purple on her face.

This child was seriously ill. Zhong Nuannuan frowned and was ready to barge in.

Unexpectedly, at this moment, Nangong Ling seemed to sense Zhong Nuannuan's gaze. She suddenly looked up and met Zhong Nuannuan's gaze.

Zhong Nuannuan paused. At this moment, she was convinced that Nangong Ling saw her.

Then, Zhong Nuannuan made a gesture toward the hill. Her fingers extended to form three, two, and one, and followed by a collapsing movement.

Nangong Ling actually responded with a slight nod.

Zhong Nuannuan suppressed her shock and excitement and quickly took out a pen and paper. She started scribbling on the paper.

She drew the distribution of the killers and the location of the children.

"When we go in later, just shoot at these people. Don't worry about the hostages."

"Yes!"

Selina, Aiden, Dan Qi, and the Young Masters of the Nangong family answered in unison.

This not only surprised Zhong Nuannuan, but also Selina and the two others.

How was it proper for the children's biological father and uncles to agree to Nuannuan's order?

Were they not afraid that something would happen to the children?

After Zhong Nuannuan finished speaking, she added, "The four of you can just watch from the side. You don't have to do anything."

The four Young Masters from the Nangong family, "..."

Was their Little Princess Nuannuan doubtful of their competence?

Seeing the pitiful expression reemerged on their faces, Zhong Nuannuan's heart skipped a beat in spite of herself. She added, "The door is too small for all of you to fit through."

With this explanation, the eyes of the four young masters of the Nangong family lit up again.

"Nuannuan, thanks for going through the trouble, then." Nangong Jin thanked her.

Zhong Nuannuan, "...". She was suddenly at a loss of words.

Therefore, Nuannuan decided not to reply and turned around.

Much to her surprise, even though she had already turned her back to Nangong Jin, she could not help feeling his disappointed gaze burning into her back all because she ignored him.

Zhong Nuannuan's dismay was real.

Putting her revenge against them aside, she must now speak to them properly and not ignore them now?

What happened to serving some face-smacking revenge to these young masters' faces? How was she going to continue with her revenge?

"It's no trouble. You guys stay here. If anyone escapes, kill on sight."

Finally, Nuannuan yielded to his aggrieved gaze.

"Sure, it's no problem."

As expected, Nangong Jin retracted his sad gaze when he finally received a response from his precious little sister.

Zhong Nuannuan was puzzled. Could it be that Nangong Jin became a major general at such a young age by acting pitiful?

Young and promising generals should be as resolute as her Big Brother Chi Yang, should they not?

Zhong Nuannuan criticized the disappointment she had for Nangong Jin internally. However, she had conveniently forgotten all about her Big Brother Chi Yang's acts of inciting her pity and selling her his cuteness—he begged her to apply ointment on his hands even for a tiny scald and asked for a kiss.

Chapter 927: Rescue

At the same time, it was fortunate that Nangong Jin could not hear Nuannuan's thoughts. Otherwise, he would really like to claim that other than acting pitiful in front of his wife and sister, he would never act pitiful in front of everyone else. Not even his mother.

Zhong Nuannuan led Selina and the other two to the door. By then, Matchmaker was starting to get anxious.

"Heiwa's been gone for so long. Why hasn't he returned? There's no sound of gunfire outside. Has the battle ended? Did we win, or did that crazy woman win?"

However, only silence answered her.

"Frog, go out and take a look. You must return in five minutes. If you don't, we'll take it that you're dead."

"Yes."

After responding to Matchmaker's order, the man called Frog was about to leave.

However, Nangong Ling, who stood in the middle of the room with everyone pointing their guns at her, suddenly collapsed out of weakness.

"Lil Ling'er!"

Nangong Xu suddenly yelled and knelt down as well.

Meanwhile, Matchmaker and the others were still standing.

Just as they were about to squat down to check on Nangong Ling, the door collapsed with a bang.

Everyone was shocked. They raised their guns and prepared to shoot at the door.

However, in spite of their speed, their enemies were faster.

After a series of deafening gunshots, the room lapsed into silence.

When the four Nangong brothers saw that no one came running out, they guessed that the killers inside had probably been dealt with, so they immediately rushed to the door.

After all, the children locked up in the room were Nangong Jin's son and daughter; the nephew and niece to the other three.

At that moment, everyone in the room was dead. Zhong Nuannuan and the rest had already rushed in.

When the four Nangong brothers rushed over, Zhong Nuannuan was already carrying Nangong Ling in her arms. Nangong Xu followed behind her.

Seeing how pale his daughter's face was and how her eyes were closed, Nangong Jin felt like his heart was on the verge of stopping.

When he saw that Lil Ling'er was not injured or bleeding, Nangong Jin felt slightly relieved.

"Nuannuan, what happened to Lil Ling'er?"

Zhong Nuannuan carried Lil Ling'er out of the place and said to Nangong Jin, "Take off your coat and lay it on the ground."

Without further ado, Nangong Jin immediately took off his coat without asking for the reason.

The remaining uncles hurriedly took off their coats and waited for Zhong Nuannuan's instructions.

Zhong Nuannuan instructed, "Selina, start a fire."

Zhong Nuannuan lay Nangong Ling on the coat on the ground. Then, she retrieved a coat from Nangong Ze and covered her with it before saying, "She has a congenital heart defect and shouldn't do any strenuous exercise or stay in a cold place for too long. Send a plane immediately to pick her up."

"After entering KYC Island, I have no way of contacting the outside world."

"You can now."

"Alright, I'll call for a helicopter immediately."

"Boss, there's ice everywhere. The trees won't catch fire easily. Do you still need that car?"

"No need."

At this moment, Zhong Nuannuan had already asked the young masters of the Nangong family to block the wind around Nangong Ling with their coats. Then, she removed Nangong Ling's clothes and started to treat her.

Suddenly, a series of explosions came from not far away, and that was not all. Even the off-road vehicle that they rode in earlier exploded. The vehicle was now engulfed in flames.

In the next moment, Aiden and Dan Qi were already throwing chunks of dried tree trunks into the flames.

Chapter 928: Auntie

The flames got bigger and bigger. Even though they were very far away, the air here gradually became warmer.

After witnessing this crude yet effective method, the Nangong brothers were speechless.

Seeing that Zhong Nuannuan stopped inserting needles into his daughter's heart, Nangong Jin asked, "Nuannuan, how's Ling'er doing?"

"This illness originated from her mother's womb and it's a severe one. Acupuncture alone won't be able to cure her completely. For her to recover completely, we can only operate on her."

"Then, can you soothe my little sister of her pain before her operation?" Nangong Xu, who had been unnaturally calm for a child, finally opened his mouth. He was completely unaffected by the gunfight and the explosion that Selina and the rest had created to quickly start a fire.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Nangong Xu sternly. To be honest, even Zhong Nuannuan was surprised by Nangong Xu's calm composure.

This child's mental fortitude was not only superior to ordinary people—even trained killers could not be as calm as him.

Nangong Xu met Zhong Nuannuan's gaze without fear. His obsidian-like eyes were beaming with anticipation.

There was a light blue tinge on Nangong Xu's lips from the cold, but he ignored it completely. Zhong Nuannuan could not help but take off her coat and cover him in it. Then, she petted his head affectionately and said, "Don't worry, before she fully recovers from the surgery, I'll definitely think of a way to ease her pain."

After Nangong Xu heard Zhong Nuannuan's promise, he broke into a wide smile.

Winter in KYC Island was below -15 degrees Celsius, but the sunlight was perfect.

The gentle rays of the sun shone on Nangong Xu's smiling childish face. He looked as cherubic as a child that had crawled out of a painting.

Just as Zhong Nuannuan was busy melting from Nangong Xu's smile—her eyes blinking from his bright eyes—he unexpectedly reached out his short arms and wrapped them around Nuannuan.

Other than Chi Yang, Zhong Nuannuan disliked hugs.

Yet, for some reason, Zhong Nuannuan liked Nangong Xu's hug very, very much.

Just as Zhong Nuannuan was surprised by how much she liked this hug, Nangong Xu whispered into her ear, "Thank you, Auntie."

Zhong Nuannuan froze. "...!!!"

Nangong Xu said it very softly. Selina and the other two could not hear him, but the four Young Masters of the Nangong family heard him clearly. Their bodies froze in place too.

Nangong Xu wriggled out of Zhong Nuannuan's embrace and looked at his father and uncles. "The woman called Zhong Qianqian that you guys found previously isn't my auntie at all. This unbelievably beautiful sister is my real auntie. Lil Ling'er and I will never acknowledge Zhong Qianqian as our aunt. You guys can either acknowledge my real auntie, or Lil Ling'er and I will stay at my auntie's house and never return home."

The Young Masters of the Nangong family had yet to react to how their Lil Sun knew that Nuannuan was the real little princess of the Nangong family. Before they could react, Lil Ling'er, who had her eyes shut the whole time, had her illness alleviated. She opened her big eyes that were like black grapes and called out in her tender voice—

"Auntie..."

Seeing that Zhong Nuannuan ignored her, Lil Ling'er started to get a little anxious. She reached out a chubby hand and tried to tug at Zhong Nuannuan.

Chapter 929: My Auntie

However, Nangong Ling's hand was too short. In spite of the small gap, she still failed to reach Zhong Nuannuan's hand. Therefore, she tried her best to shift toward Nuannuan.

This time, it was Zhong Nuannuan who reached out to hold Nangong Ling's chubby hand.

"Don't move."

Upon hearing Zhong Nuannuan's words, Lil Ling'er instantly stopped moving.

Zhong Nuannuan thought that she might have frightened the little girl and added.

"Good girl!"

Zhong Nuannuan's words made the four Nangong brothers smile.

"Daddy, this beautiful big sister who saved me is my Auntie! That Zhong Qianqian who came to our house that day will never be my Auntie! I like my Auntie. I won't allow you to let Zhong Qianqian come and be my aunt."

Nobody expected the first thing Lil Ling'er said to her father after opening her eyes to be the same as what Lil Sun said. However, it was very obvious that Lil Ling'er used a more domineering tone from getting spoiled by everyone in the family.

Upon hearing this, Zhong Nuannuan's body stiffened again.

In this life, she reimagined the scenes of how the Nangong family would attempt to reunite with her. In those reveries, the reunion would only happen after she served Zhong Qianqian the best face-smacking experience she would ever have.

However, it also occurred to her before that no matter what kind of reunion it was, she would never join the Nangong family easily due to how badly they treated her in her previous life.

Much to her surprise, her identity was exposed by two kids about the age of four or five.

Even Zhong Nuannuan, who was rarely shy or embarrassed in front of Big Brother Chi Yang and Grandpa Chi, could not help but feel a little awkward.

She wanted to put on a cold demeanor but to no avail. However, asking her to accept being a part of the Nangong family...that was impossible at the moment.

The Nangong brothers had long realized that Little Princess Nuannuan did not like them. They also knew that this was not a matter that could be achieved with force. If they messed this up, things would not be as simple as being hammered to death by Old Master Nangong. Even they themselves would regret this to the point of death.

Therefore, the young masters of the Nangong family lowered their stance all the way to the dirt on the ground and said to Zhong Nuannuan, "Nuannuan, to tell the truth... Before we met you, we already knew that you're the real little princess of the Nangong family."

Zhong Nuannuan felt her heart wrench.

Although she was from a wealthy family and would not care about being a part of the Nangong family, hearing that the Nangong family knew her identity long ago and chose to pretend to not know her made her angry. When she recalled how they even supported Zhong Qianqian against her, Nuannuan felt her discomfort escalating into a burning hatred.

However, before her temper flared, it was extinguished by Nangong Jin's words.

"Grandpa was the first to discover your identity. That day, Grandpa hung out at Elder Chi's house..."

Nangong Jin did not dare hold back any information at all. He explained everything that happened that day, including the fact that all the girls in the Nangong family possessed X-ray vision. He even told Nuannuan about the day Zhong Qianqian and Gu Mingzhe came to see him.

"Ever since the news of my aunt's death came seventeen years ago, we lost her completely. We never thought that she'd left behind a daughter before she died. If we knew, we would've tried our best to find you, even if it meant giving up everything we had. We would never give you up.

"We don't understand how Zhong Qianqian has the same DNA and blood as you. Sixth Brother says that it's probably because Zhong Qianqian went through a blood exchange transfusion with you that gave her DNA similar to the Nangong family. However, from that video, we learned that..."

Chapter 930: Do You Resent Us?

"You were abducted by human traffickers when you were three years old. You only returned home when you were 17 years old. In that duration, Zhong Qianqian didn't undergo any surgery.

“Thus, Grandpa told us to investigate this matter thoroughly. We must find out the situation between you, Zhong Qianqian, Auntie, and the Zhong family before we can invite you home. You’re the only little princess of our Nangong family. As the people closest to you in this world, we definitely can’t sit back and watch as you suffer in Zhong Qianqian’s hands”

So, that was what was happening.

After finally knowing the truth, Zhong Nuannuan was slightly touched.

All this time, she had always been the one who had been wronged and had to seek justice for herself. However, after everything that happened, she found Big Brother Chi Yang, Grandpa Chi, and Second Uncle... Now, she had a family who had already started to seek justice for her silently even before they admitted her into the family.

At that moment, Zhong Nuannuan could not pinpoint what exactly was this emotion that she was feeling.

If she had to describe it, it made her feel a little bloated and a little sour amidst her slightly sentimental feeling.

“Ah...?” Lil Ling’er was depressed. She said softly, “Why didn’t you say so earlier? You made me and Big Brother angry and ran away from home for this? We even got kidnapped after that.”

Nangong Jin glared at his son angrily.

“Your sister has always been impulsive, yet you followed her lead? Look at how tortured your sister is just because you brought her out this time.”

Nangong Xu was not angry at all after being scolded by his father. After all, he admitted that he was being too impulsive.

However, Lil Ling’er refused to accept that.

“Daddy, don’t scold Lil Sun. I’m the one who came up with the idea. Lil Sun wanted to wait and see. He said that we could leave if all of you really brought Zhong Qianqian back, but I couldn’t stand it. That’s why I said that even if Lil Sun didn’t leave, I’d leave myself. That’s why Lil Sun followed me. After all, I’m his elder sister. He’ll always follow me willingly.”

Under normal circumstances, Lil Sun would have yelled back at Lil Ling’er because not only did she call him Lil Sun, she even shamelessly called herself the elder sister. He remembered clearly how she had always called him Big Brother since they were captured until today.

This girl definitely knew how to dispose of others after using them!

However, when Nangong Xu saw how pitiful Nangong Ling looked right now, he swallowed the scolding that was about to escape his mouth.

Forget it, he would just bully her after she had recovered.

After being interrupted by the two children, the atmosphere was no longer as awkward. As a cunning little fox who was up and rising in the business world, Nangong Yun immediately struck while the iron was hot. “Nuannuan, we don’t know what you’ve experienced in that household. It’s all our fault for not finding you early and protecting you properly.

“Originally, the plan was to let Grandpa seek justice for you, approach you, and explain everything to you personally after we figure out the truth. Then, after obtaining your approval, we’ll bring you home together. However, after Grandpa found out that the two little kiddos were kidnapped, he had another stroke and went into a critical condition instead. We don’t know how’s Grandpa doing right now, and these two little ones have now exposed us...

“Since things have come to this, Nuannuan, can you forgive us on account of the fact that we’ve never intended to lose your mother? Although you haven’t experienced love from your family in the past 17 years, I promise that as long as you’re willing to go home, from today onward, we’ll transfer this love to you twice as much. This way, you can experience the warmth that family brings you, okay?”

So... These fools thought that she resented the Nangong family losing her mother?
