Chapter 931: Serves Him Right

However, Zhong Nuannuan must find out what happened to her mother.

Under her brothers' expectant gazes, Zhong Nuannuan asked, "How did my mother get kidnapped? No matter what, you're the richest family in Camino. Why didn't you try to find her? Although the Internet wasn't as developed back then, it shouldn't have been difficult for you."

Nangong Jin shook his head. "It would be very easy if you just want to find someone. However, you're also aware that our Auntie, your mother, was kidnapped back then. All the girls in the Nangong family are born with supernatural abilities. To some criminals, this is a huge money-making tool. Although not many people know about this, there are still some who do. Therefore, from the moment Auntie was born, no matter how well protected she was, there were always people coveting her.

"After our Auntie was kidnapped, my Grandpa, my father, Second Uncle, and Third Uncle immediately searched for her. However, we were up against someone extraordinarily powerful. We had no way of tracking down Auntie's whereabouts. Every time we managed to get so close to tracking down Auntie's whereabouts after utilizing everything we got, all our information would get wiped out by the culprit.

"A fortuitous encounter in the past granted the Nangong family a treasure called Soul Orb. There is a total of 30 orbs in the set of Soul Orb. As long as we dripped our relative's blood into the Soul Orb, the Soul Orb would continue to glow like a luminous pearl as long as our family members are still alive. However, one day, 17 years ago, the glow on one of the Soul Orb was suddenly extinguished, and the extinguished Soul Orb was Auntie's Soul Orb.

"At that time, everyone had been looking for Auntie for two years, but they found nothing. However, Auntie's Soul Orb had always been glowing, so this could be considered the only gratification Grandpa and Grandma had. Nobody expected the Soul Orb to go out so suddenly. Grandma could not take the blow and passed away. Grandpa also fell seriously ill because of this. He suddenly had a myocardial infarction and almost died. My father and the others searched for the list of people who passed away in the country at that time and sent people to check if Auntie was among the women who passed, but there was no trace of her at all."

Zhong Nuannuan finally said, "That's because when my mother died, my father didn't send out an obituary."

"What?" The Nangong brothers were furious. "Why? Why didn't he post an obituary? Then... How did Auntie die?"

"Zhong Qianqian's mother, Jiang Shuwan, killed her, but Zhong Kuijun was the one who got the poison."

The four Nangong brothers finally switched out of their harmless, big puppy appearance. Although no one said a word, their eyes burned with a ferocity that was absent just a second ago.

Although they did not know what had happened, Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Kuijun were sentenced to death in their books.

The Nangong family... had plenty of ways to make such people like them suffer a fate worse than death. However, even so, the dead had already passed on. Even if they were to hack that pair of scumbags to pieces, their Auntie, the once outstanding princess of the Nangong family, could never open her eyes again.

"Nuannuan, can you tell us what kind of life you've been living all these years? Also, what happened to the Zhong family and Zhong Qianqian? The people we sent told us that Zhong Kuijun has been arrested, and he's charged for getting involved in illegal activities and smuggling firearms."

Zhong Nuannuan laughed coldly and said, "He's arrested because I'm the one who reported him."

"Serves him right!" The four Nangong brothers exclaimed in unison.

Initially, Zhong Nuannuan thought blending in with these people would be uncomfortably awkward. Yet, she never foresaw that the four of them would acknowledge her as their family right from the start. It felt pretty good.

Chapter 932: Overprotective

"However, just capturing him isn't enough to vent our anger. Big Brother, you must take care of our precious uncle-in-law in the future. On account that he was once aunt's man, don't let him die so quickly!"

"Don't worry, I'll take good care of him."

As Nangong Yun spoke to Nangong Jin, he would always emphasize the words 'take good care' through gritted teeth. Zhong Nuannuan had already started mourning for Zhong Kuijun's future.

All Zhong Kuijun wanted was to be treated differently, no? All he wanted was to ride on the coattails of the rich and powerful, no? It just so happened that he could now rely on the rich and powerful. Furthermore, the said rich and powerful family emphasized that they would take good care of this uncle-in-law of theirs. Zhong Nuannuan had to feel gratified for Zhong Kuijun's life too.

After all, Zhong Kuijun would be taken care of by his nephews or brothers-in-law even after getting locked up in prison. Furthermore, his nephews and brothers-in-law were from the wealthiest family in Camino. Ordinary people would never have such honor.

Zhong Nuannuan smiled. "Thank you for your 'care'."

For a moment there, creepy smiles appeared on the faces of those siblings, yet the atmosphere became strangely harmonious.

"Nuannuan, what are your plans for Zhong Qianqian? Do you need us to do anything?"

"I already have an idea when it comes to Zhong Qianqian. However, if you guys don't mind, I can use your help."

By saying that, it meant that Zhong Nuannuan had given up on her resentment toward the Nangong family's young masters for bullying her in her past life. She had also given up on the thought of seeking justice for herself.

“What do you need us to do?” Nangong Ze’s eyes lit up like searchlights.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at him, her words stuck in her throat.

This person had helped Zhong Qianqian bully her when he thought that Zhong Qianqian was his younger sister in Zhong Nuannuan’s previous life. In this life, he found his real sister and was now offering his help to bully Zhong Qianqian again.

However...

This should be considered the overprotectiveness for your own family members, right?

Just like Nuannuan, if anyone dared to bully her people, she would protect them indiscriminately. No matter whose fault it was, it was definitely the other party’s fault.

Zhong Nuannuan finally got over it.

From a different perspective, with a different status, people would do things differently. This was merely human nature.

Then, Zhong Nuannuan told them about her plan to torture Zhong Qianqian. The group of men could not help themselves and laughed, especially Nangong Ze, who exploded in laughter.

As though they were listening to a bedtime story at the side, Lil Sun and Lil Ling’er started to giggle when they heard that their aunt was going to play tricks on that annoying Zhong Qianqian.

It was only when Nuannuan heard the two kids laughing that she realized that she should not have said such disgusting and bloody things in front of the children.

However, the same thought that children should not be listening to such things did not occur to the children’s father and uncles at all. Nangong Li even smiled as he patted Lil Sun and Lil Ling’er’s heads and asked, “Don’t you think your Auntie is especially talented? Isn’t the way she pranks people super interesting?”

The two kids answered in unison, “Yes—”

Zhong Nuannuan, “...!!!”

What in the world were these people teaching young children?

However, looking at the way Lil Sun and Lil Ling’er smiled, Zhong Nuannuan was suddenly convinced without any basis that these two children were the cutest she had ever seen.

Suddenly, a noise came from behind them. A fifty-year-old woman with disheveled hair and dirt all over her face crawled out from behind the broken door.

At the moment where she heard no more explosions behind the door, she thought that the demons who killed without blinking an eye finally left. It was then that she used all her strength to crawl out from the rubble.

Chapter 933: Scared To Death

Unexpectedly, just as Matchmaker climbed out, what welcomed her was a group of people who started a fire and were chatting outside.

In an instant, Matchmaker was overwhelmed by a sense of impending doom.

Meeting the pairs of eyes that shifted toward her, Matchmaker was so scared that she nearly buried her head in the dirt and imagined herself lighting three sticks of incense outside.

When the Nangong family's Young Masters saw Matchmaker, they were shocked too. They thought that Nuannuan exterminated every one of the killers there. Just as they started to feel concerned about how to find the mastermind behind Xu'er and Ling'er's kidnapping, a woman who no longer had her two palms and two feet climbed out of the door.

Nangong Jin's aura descended into the depths visibly. He stood up and walked toward Matchmaker.

When Matchmaker saw the Nangong family, she knew that her chances of survival were slim. Even if she survived, she would only live the fate of getting tortured every day. Dying would probably be a better option than staying alive. Thus, she prepared to bite the poison stored between her teeth.

However, just as she was about to exert force, Zhong Nuannuan, who sat far away, appeared at lightning speed in front of her and gave her mouth a light knock.

No matter how hard Matchmaker tried, she realized that she could not close her jaw.

Just as Matchmaker was occupied with disbelief, her jaw was dislocated.

Just as Matchmaker thought her attacker was being excessively violent, Zhong Nuannuan raised her leg and kicked Matchmaker's face.

Her face instantly swelled up and she was in so much pain that she could no longer feel anything else.

Then, Zhong Nuannuan squatted down, grabbed her hair, and threw her to the ground.

Everyone heard the heavy thud as Zhong Nuannuan smashed Matchmaker's face into the ground. The Nangong brothers could not help but feel their faces hurt.

On the contrary, Nangong Xu's eyes that did not get shielded were beaming so bright stars were shooting out of his eyes.

From today onward, Lil Sun found his idol. This idol was none other than his own Auntie, Zhong Nuannuan!

His aunt was so cool! Even more so than his father!

The Nangong family's uncles did not intend to stop Lil Sun from watching such a violent and gory scene. Firstly, they never intended to stop Lil Sun. Secondly, they themselves were caught in the moment and did not have the time to stop him.

Lil Ling'er, who was surrounded by a circle of coats that kept her warm, was also peeking through the gaps of her clothes. When she saw her own auntie launch such attacks, her little mouth opened wide, and she almost cried out in excitement.

The next moment, as Zhong Nuannuan pull Matchmaker's face from the icy soil, everyone saw how Matchmaker's mouth had turned completely purple.

The bloody mess was accompanied by stains and bruises. Her 36 teeth were neatly lodged on the ground according to the sequence that they used to be in her mouth.

Zhong Nuannuan tugged violently at Matchmaker's hair and forced her to look into Zhong Nuannuan's eyes.

"Haven't I told you before? If you dare touch a single hair on them, or refuse to present them obediently after five minutes, you'll experience how dying can be a luxury too. You disobeyed my orders, no?"

Fourth Young Master Nangong, "...!!!"

Nangong Xu and Nangong Ling, "...!!!"

That was so coooooool—

When Matchmaker met Zhong Nuannuan's eyes, she was initially afraid. However, she seemed to have recalled something and her eyes suddenly widened in shock. Instantly, the fear and uneasiness in her eyes became noticeable.

Seeing the look in her eyes, Zhong Nuannuan smiled.

It was a beautiful yet bloodthirsty smile.

At that moment, an image of a sea of red spider lilies blooming around her—an ocean of flowers that symbolized death. Her mind went blank.

"You've remembered who I am, haven't you?"

Matchmaker, "...!!!"

'No, no... no way. How is this possible?! That devil, why is she here?!'

Chapter 934: Demoness

Matchmaker shook her head violently. She wanted to tell Zhong Nuannuan that she did not know her.

She did not want to know that ruthless demoness who could kill without batting an eye!

However, Zhong Nuannuan enunciated each syllable slowly, "Your eyes have betrayed your thoughts. Your eyes tell me that not only do you know me, but you know me very well."

Matchmaker continued to shake her head vigorously. The tears that were brimming in her eyes threatened to fall. A wave of warmth surged out uncontrollably, and in an instant, the smell of urine filled the air.

The four Young Masters of the Nangong family, "..."

Nangong Xu and Nangong Ling, "..."

Just how powerful was their sister (aunt)? The woman was so scared that she peed her pants!

As Matchmaker sobbed, she glanced at Nangong Jin, who walked to her side, and then at Zhong Nuannuan. Her eyes were filled with nothing but confusion.

However, Zhong Nuannuan understood the meaning behind her gaze and took the initiative to answer her doubts. "You've guessed right. I already know the truth about my family."

Matchmaker's pupils constricted.

Her pupils constricted so violently that even Nangong Jin could tell what was going on.

Zhong Nuannuan still had that attractive smile on her face, but the words that came out of her mouth scared Matchmaker out of her wits.

"Back then, you kidnapped me like you kidnapped Xu'er and Ling'er. Actually, even when I was in the Zhong family, you and the organization backing you have always known my identity, right?"

Zhong Nuannuan's words made the Young Masters of the Nangong family turn pale with fright. They exclaimed in unison, "What?! She's the human trafficker?"

Through the video of the auction that their grandfather showed them, the Nangong family knew that their little princess had been abducted at the age of three. She had only returned home at the age of seventeen.

They did not expect that the person who kidnapped their little princess was the same person who kidnapped Xu'er and Ling'er.

What kind of organization would harbor this much vengeance, that they would try to harm two generations of the Nangong family?

No, not just two generations!

Three generations!

When their aunt was kidnapped and later escaped, the Nangong family never managed to find their aunt no matter what. It must be because of these people.

They kidnapped their aunt and made her marry such a wretched man, then gave birth to Nuannuan. After that, they kidnapped Nuannuan instead. Now that Nuannuan was too powerful to be under their control, they came for Xu'er and Ling'er...

This was simply...

Simply too terrifying to think of!

Nangong Jin kicked Matchmaker's amputated wrist. She screamed in pain, but because her chin had been dislocated, she could not speak.

Now that Matchmaker's teeth had all been knocked out, Zhong Nuannuan was not afraid that she would bite down on the poison in her mouth and attempt suicide again. Nuannuan pulled Matchmaker's hair and smashed her chin onto the ground with a bang, slamming her chin back into place.

“Argh— This hurts too much! It really has nothing to do with me! I only took the money and help sell the children. It’s because you’re very pretty that I... I recognize your face! It was all luck! It was luck!”

“Is that so?” Zhong Nuannuan smiled. “You’ve been so lucky to kidnap and sell children from the Nangong family every single time? You’ve been so lucky that you can get a helicopter to pick you up and bring you to Velmina after abducting a child every time? You’ve been so lucky to get 500 Rank-3A killers waiting to ambush the Nangong family? Matchmaker, since you’ve already recognized me, why do you still treat me like a fool? You’re a smart one!”

When Matchmaker saw Zhong Nuannuan’s smile, she screeched in fright. Her eyes rolled involuntarily and she opened her mouth to say something.

However, Zhong Nuannuan reacted quickly...

Chapter 935: Let Us Go Together

Before Matchmaker could utter a single word, a silver needle pierced into her forehead and she fainted.

“Nuannuan, why did you kill her?” Nangong Jin was confused.

After all, Matchmaker looked like she was ready to say something useful.

“She has no plans of spilling the beans—she wants to die. There is a bug in her head. Once she opens her mouth to reveal their secrets, she’ll die immediately before she’s done talking. It only takes a little bit. Hence, she wants to die.”

The Young Masters of the Nangong family, “...!!!”

“There are bugs in her brain?” Nangong Jin could not understand. “What bugs are so powerful that they can control what she says?”

“I don’t know exactly how these worms are implanted or how they control people. I can only see that they have bugs in their brains. So, I want this woman. I’ll bring her back for experiments.”

“Sure.” They did not involve the military in this matter in the first place. Therefore, it was up to them to decide how to deal with these people and how to kill them. When Zhong Nuannuan made this request, even though this person was the person behind Xu’er and Ling’er’s kidnapping, the Nangong brothers agreed to hand Matchmaker over to Zhong Nuannuan without hesitation.

However, Zhong Nuannuan told them another shocking piece of information.

“Them?” Nangong Yun asked, “Nuannuan, are you saying that there are bugs in all of their heads?”

Zhong Nuannuan shook her head. “Only important executives of this organization have bugs in their brains. They probably planted these things because they know some secrets of this organization. Qu Mingyi, the mole that was caught in Jiang District before this, we also found such a bug inside his wife’s head. These bugged people possess super strength and high resistance to physical harm. Therefore, for convenience’s sake, I cut off her limbs directly just now. Although she’s old, the bug in her brain is rather small. This is probably why she’s still afraid of pain.”

After all, Yang Min was not afraid of pain at all.

“Big Boss, is there a bug in her brain too?” Selina and the others heard Zhong Nuannuan mention the bug and immediately approached her.

“Yes, but the bug is very small. I don’t know if it will be useful for research.”

“Hmph, this old witch is lucky enough to be a test subject. Otherwise, I’d definitely hack her into a thousand pieces.”

After all, Zhong Nuannuan was not the only one who suffered at Matchmaker’s hands. Selina, Aiden, and Danqi were also children who had been abducted and taken in by the organization.

If it was not because of how adept they were, they would have died in the cruelly competitive environment of KE Organization.

Therefore, even though they were currently at the highest ranks in the world, they still detested people like this child-trafficking woman.

Almost as soon as Nangong Jin finished speaking, two helicopters burst through the low clouds and descended toward them.

Zhong Nuannuan shook her head and said, “No need, my helicopter’s here too. This person is more important. I want to bring her to my place.”

Nangong Jin hurriedly nodded. “Alright.”

After saying that, he asked a little hesitantly, “Then... when are you returning to Emperor District?”

Zhong Nuannuan wanted to say that she would be staying in Jiang District for another half a year. She merely came to Emperor District for her training camp. Now that there was no need for her to attend the camp, there was no reason for her to hang around Emperor District so frequently.

However, when she saw the anxious yet eager looks in the eyes of the Nangong brothers and Lil Sun...

Chapter 936: Three Autumns

There was also Lil Ling’er who was peeking at her nervously through the gaps of the coats that kept her warm. Zhong Nuannuan swallowed the words that were about to come out of her mouth.

“After I’m done with these matters.”

“Okay, then we’ll wait for you! Grandpa is sick now, and things don’t look very optimistic for him. However, if he knows you’re coming back, he’ll be very happy.”

“Grandpa’s fine now.” Zhong Nuannuan wanted to inform the Nangong brothers when they brought Grandpa Nangong up earlier, but she did not find the chance to do so. Now that the chance presented herself, she immediately told her elder brothers about that.

Everyone’s faces lit up when they heard that.

“Really? How did you know? Did you receive news about Grandpa before coming to KYC Island?”

Before Zhong Nuannuan could answer Nangong Jin’s question, Nangong Ze said happily, “Grandpa says that you have miraculous medicinal skills. You must have saved Grandpa before rushing over to save us, right? Nuannuan, you’re truly the best!”

In her previous life, she clearly hated Nangong Ze the most. However, in this life, seeing how much Nangong Ze liked her and the admiration in his eyes, Zhong Nuannuan felt that he seemed to be the most outgoing and cheerful among her elder brothers.

Seeing that Zhong Nuannuan did not refute, the few Young Masters from the Nangong family were even more certain of this matter. While they were finally relieved at how things progressed, they were even more surprised at how lucky they were to have a Doraemon-like sister.

Long after this, Zhong Nuannuan noticed that her elder brothers kept bringing up something that sounded like ‘Ding Dang[1]’. After asking around, she finally realized that it was Doraemon’s name and that she was Doraemon in her elder brothers’ hearts.

Zhong Nuannuan’s helicopter arrived before the Nangong family’s helicopter landed.

After removing the needles, the recovered Nangong Ling looked at Zhong Nuannuan reluctantly, accompanied by Nangong Xu. They each held Nuannuan’s hands as they shook her hands.

“Auntie, when are you coming to visit Ling’er?”

Lil Ling’er and Lil Sun looked so adorably cute that they could give everyone the urge to show kisses on them. Lil Ling’er was especially adorable. Perhaps it was due to her congenital heart disease, her soft and chubby appearance was especially adorable.

At this moment, Lil Ling’er had the look of a little girl who could not bear to let go of Zhong Nuannuan’s and watch her walk away. Zhong Nuannuan’s heart nearly melted.

“I... I’ll come back after dealing with that old witch.” For the first time, Zhong Nuannuan stuttered.

“Auntie, how long will you take? Xu’er will miss you.” Lil Sun also transformed into a clingy child.

Zhong Nuannuan estimated that she would have to make one or two trips to Jiang District after dealing with Matchmaker and said, “I’ll definitely be back in Emperor District in 20 days.”

“Huh—?!”

As soon as he said that, Lil Sun and Lil Ling’er gave an unhappy “Huh!”. There were another four lower voices that accompanied these “Huh!” too.

Not only were the two children dissatisfied with Zhong Nuannuan’s reply—even the four adults were dissatisfied.

To them, not seeing each other for a day felt like three passing autumns. Their sister and also aunt who had just returned home was their closest relatives. They would feel like a piece of their heart was missing if they did not see each other for a day. How could this group of siscon allow their younger sister (and aunt) to leave for another 20 days before they could see each other again?

“Nuannuan, didn’t you say that you’ll torture Zhong Qianqian when she gets married?” Nangong Ze asked.

“She hasn’t graduated from high school yet, so she probably won’t get married so soon,” Zhong Nuannuan replied.

“That’s hard to say. What if she wants to get married early just to join the Nangong family?”

Chapter 937: We Really Want to See You Again

“This... is impossible, right?”

“Based on my understanding of Gu Mingzhe, it’s very possible,” said the sly fox, Nangong Yun.

Actually, he was not familiar with Gu Mingzhe, but he had a good memory. That was why he was convinced that Gu Mingzhe was someone who would sell his soul for the sake of profit. What was the big deal about getting married earlier?

“We’ll talk about it when the time comes. If she gets married, I’ll just rush back.”

“Okay,” the Nangong brothers responded in unison.

Zhong Nuannuan, “...”

Did she say something wrong?

What Zhong Nuannuan did not know was that to shorten those 20 days before seeing their precious little sister—someone they started missing even before they separated—the Young Masters of the Nangong family could shamelessly return to Emperor District and hasten Zhong Qianqian and Gu Mingzhe marriage. Their sister complex was in full bloom.

However, children would never understand the shamelessness of their father and uncles. Lil Sun and Lil Ling’er felt that 20 days was a long time.

“Auntie, 20 days is so long. Lil Ling’er will miss you. Can you be a little earlier? Just a little earlier?”

To illustrate how little she was asking for, Lil Ling’er indicated a distance of less than one centimeter between her index finger and thumb. Zhong Nuannuan could not help but laugh.

She patted Lil Ling’er’s head affectionately. “Alright, I’ll try my best to come back within 15 days.”

“Hurray!”

Children were angels. Even though 15 days was still a very long time for them, they understood that adults had things to do. It was not easy for their aunt to reduce the time she needed from 20 to 15 days. Therefore, the children understood that they would have to be content with what they had.

Therefore, Lil Sun and Lil Ling’er hopped around happily.

Zhong Nuannuan held Lil Ling’er down and said, “Then, you have to promise me one thing. Before you fully recover from your illness, you can’t simply run around, okay?”

“Okay!” Lil Ling’er nodded without hesitation.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Although Lil Ling’er looked docile and cute, she had never admitted that Nangong Xu was her elder brother all these years even though he was born one minute earlier than her. It was obvious that she was a very headstrong child and would not agree to anything easily, much less something like this.

Due to her congenital heart disease, everyone in the family had made the same request to Ling’er. Yet, to prove that she was no different from other children, Ling’er would never comply openly.

Everyone wondered how much she really liked Zhong Nuannuan to agree to her request so easily.

The men from the Nangong family were awestruck.

Zhong Nuannuan had no idea what was going on and praised her. “Lil Ling’er is such a good girl! Alright, hurry up and board the helicopter with your father and the rest of them. It’s cold down there.”

“Okay.” Although Ling’er was reluctant, she still nodded obediently. “Auntie, see you in 15 days.”

Selina was amused.

Zhong Nuannuan nodded. “Okay, see you in 15 days.”

“Goodbye, Auntie!” Lil Sun also waved Zhong Nuannuan goodbye.

“Goodbye!”

The two children were the Nangong family’s absolute trump card for Zhong Nuannuan to return to the Nangong family willingly.

No matter how determined Zhong Nuannuan was, her determination to resent the Nangong family was shattered by the look in those children’s eyes.

Finally, under Zhong Nuannuan’s gaze, Nangong Ling and Nangong Xu boarded the helicopter. However, the Nangong family brothers insisted on watching Zhong Nuannuan leave first.

Zhong Nuannuan had no choice but to get someone to drag Matchmaker onto her helicopter and leave.

Chapter 938: Zhong Qianqian’s Wedding

Only then did the Nangong brothers got ready to board their helicopter.

Before boarding the plane, Nangong Jin called his father.

“Hello, Dad. Nuannuan brought her people to KYC Island to save the two children and us. We’ll talk about the details when we come back. Think of a way to urge Zhong Qianqian and Gu Mingzhe to get married... We’ll talk about this when we come back. Contact Zhong Qianqian first, then tell them to find set a date for their wedding.... Nuannuan said that she’ll be back when Zhong Qianqian gets married. She’s gone to deal with the kidnappers now. Yes.”

No matter how hard Nangong Jin tried to convince him, Nangong Shu had no interest in Zhong Qianqian's wedding whatsoever. However, when he heard that Nuannuan would come back for the wedding, he agreed immediately.

If Zhong Qianqian knew that her lifelong happiness was being toyed with by the Nangong family, she would probably die of anger.

When Zhong Nuannuan got into the helicopter again, Chi Yang called her and she picked up the call.

Hearing the noise on the other end, Chi Yang frowned slightly. "Nuannuan?"

"Big Brother Chi Yang!"

Upon hearing Chi Yang's voice, Zhong Nuannuan was so happy that her heart nearly leaped out of her chest. She ignored Selina, Aiden, and Dan Qi, who had goosebumps all over their skin. Her transformation from an arrogant demoness into a cute little bunny girl was too fast!

Hearing his little girl's excited voice, Chi Yang finally felt relieved.

"Are you on a helicopter? It's so noisy."

"Yes, I'm on a helicopter. I'm going back with Daddy to Luntan for two days. I'll return to Jiang District after these two days."

"Grandpa has already told me about this. I'm sorry I can't accompany you back."

Zhong Nuannuan shook her head profusely and said, "It's not a big deal. It's not a big deal. You do what you need to do. We can go back whenever you're free."

"Okay. Take care then."

"Okay."

Chi Yang could not shake off the feeling that something was off and asked, "Then... I'll call you whenever I'm free. Is it convenient for you to answer my call?"

Zhong Nuannuan nodded. "Of course. You can call me anytime. My phone is switched on 24 hours a day."

With Zhong Nuannuan's assurance, Chi Yang chatted for a while before hanging up.

His little girl was not an ordinary girl. Even with Duke Eton as her cover, Chi Yang felt that his little girl must be more than a mere girl from a noble family.

Yet, no matter what, she was the girl he would love and pamper for the rest of his life.

Therefore, he believed in her and would support her no matter what she did.

As long as her life was not in danger.

Zhong Nuannuan's helicopter flew along Velmina's seas toward Sab, all the way to the high seas.

Three hours later, a small black dot appeared on the open sea, and the helicopter pulled over.

The black dot grew larger and larger. Soon, the tarmac on a super-large ship similar to the color of the deep sea appeared in front of everyone.

After Zhong Nuannuan ensured that the helicopter was properly parked, countless muscular men in white coats and masks rushing out from all directions. All of them were armed with weapons that hung from their waists.

Since the passengers in the helicopter released the highest frequency that allowed them to pass through and get to the ship, everyone was very respectful to the passengers in the helicopter.

At that moment, Zhong Nuannuan had already transformed into Q. When they saw Zhong Nuannuan, the people in the white coats beamed in excitement. They all bowed their heads and called out in unison, "Boss!"

Chapter 939: Queen's Identity

Zhong Nuannuan nodded and instructed, "Bring the captive inside to my laboratory."

"Yes."

"Don't touch the needle on her head," Zhong Nuannuan instructed.

"Yes, Ma'am!"

This was Zhong Nuannuan's research base.

It belonged to her alone and no one else.

Everyone here was the killers who she rescued in the past. Out of gratitude, they followed Zhong Nuannuan willingly.

Apart from Selina and Dan Qi, even Aiden was here for the first time.

It was not that Zhong Nuannuan did not allow him to come. Back when Zhong Nuannuan invited Aiden here, that idiot rejected her because he was playing games.

Aiden was shocked to see Zhong Nuannuan's private laboratory.

"Big Boss, didn't you say that it's just a mere private laboratory? What is all this? Looking at the design of this ship, this is a submarine, am I right?"

Aiden said as he followed Zhong Nuannuan with surprise written all over her face.

Noticing how Selina was looking at him like he was an idiot, Aiden knew that sense was not on his side. He then turned to look at Dan Qi in astonishment.

"Lil Dan Qi, don't tell me you've been here too?"

As Dan Qi walked on, he looked at the downloaded TV series on his phone and nodded. "Yes, I'm the one who built the network here for Sis Nuannuan."

Aiden curled his lips as though he was the only one who had not been here before.

Zhong Nuannuan turned to Aiden and consoled, “Selina and Lil Dan Qi are the only ones who have been here before. Neither Big Bro nor Sis Yue has been here.”

Hearing that he was not the only one who had not been here before, Aiden’s tilted heart quickly calmed down.

The mercenaries carried Matchmaker to Zhong Nuannuan’s laboratory and laid her down on the laboratory bed.

The bed was installed with high-tech devices. Almost as soon as they laid Matchmaker flat, the various mechanisms on the bed started operating on their own. Soon, Matchmaker’s limbs and neck were firmly secured onto the bed.

Selina and the other two knew what Zhong Nuannuan wanted to do, so they did not disturb her.

Thus, Selina and Aiden played games outside while Dan Qi resumed watching his TV series.

Soon, a day had passed and Zhong Nuannuan did not even do as much as stepping out of that door.

Everyone was used to this kind of thing.

On Zhong Nuannuan’s side, this was the first time she tried to remove a bug that could control its host’s actions.

In her previous life, Nuannuan spent most of her time with Big Bro, Bai Li, and the rest. Therefore, it could be said that she never encountered any bugged people.

In that life, the only time she saw a bugged person was also her last time. It was the time when she was captured by Viper and Chi Yang went to rescue her. Both of them died in that fight.

Chi Yang was very powerful, but those bugged people were very resistant. Furthermore, they wore bulletproof helmets on their heads and bulletproof vests on their torso. With Nuannuan on his back, Chi Yang fought for a long time and suffered many injuries. Eventually, he came to a realization that unless he completely cut off their heads or limbs, making their supreme strength unusable, he would be able to restrain them. Otherwise, once these bugged people started fighting, they would be as persistent as zombies. They could not be killed and they possessed inhuman combat strength.

She knew that Big Brother Chi Yang would encounter this one day, but she hoped that before he did, she would have already dealt with Viper and King.

After all, she did not know if King still kept her identity.

Now that she had cleared all affiliation for herself and her companions, she did not wish for anyone who was not her companions to know about her identity as the world’s top mercenary, Queen. After all, she was about to become a military wife too.

Zhong Nuannuan carefully observed the structure of Matchmaker’s brain...

Chapter 940: Upgrade

However, Zhong Nuannuan realized that her current level was quite far from where she would be in six years—that was the time she could easily see the larger cells in the brain with her naked eye.

For now, she could only see the bug wriggling in the narrow arteries.

However, the bug resided near the central nervous system of Matchmaker's brain. That was the place where most of the cells were located, and it was also one of a person's vital points.

Suddenly, Zhong Nuannuan thought of the question bank that the teacher from the training group gave her.

Zhong Nuannuan's eyes lit up. She fished out the hard drive immediately, connected it to the computer, and opened up the file.

At that moment, even the corners of Zhong Nuannuan's mouth twitched uncontrollably.

The question bank that was originally given to everyone had a total of 500 A3-sized papers in Luntanese. Therefore, Nuannuan estimated that after 5 rounds of examinations, there would only be 2500 to 3500 papers in the question bank.

When Nuannuan saw the 10000 sets of papers inside the question bank, Nuannuan could not help but ask internally, 'What does he mean by this?'

Did he think Nuannuan was a repeater?

However, it was coincidentally beneficial to her right now. She needed to improve her mental strength. Therefore, Zhong Nuannuan sent the question bank to her people outside and asked them to print it out before handing the papers back to her.

No one knew why their Boss wanted to print these. They would do whatever Boss told them to do. After all, they owed their lives to her.

When the 10000 sets of paper were placed on the long desk in six tall stacks. Zhong Nuannuan browsed through them. They looked overwhelming on the computer, but things seemed to be much better than she thought after seeing them stacked up on her desk.

Therefore, Nuannuan grabbed one of the stacks and activated her X-ray vision. She activated her supernatural ability to its fullest extent. Zhong Nuannuan's browsing speed and the speed of her hands seemed to be increasing rapidly. Even though she sat immobile on her chair, anyone could witness x24 speed of her slightest movement, even if she was merely putting one leg over the other.

At this speed, Zhong Nuannuan managed to finish reading a set of questions in less than half a minute. Then, she immediately started on another. In less than half a minute, the third set was followed by the fourth set...

After reading twenty sets of questions in this manner, she could feel her mental strength getting depleted.

She opened the lid to the medicine bottle that had been sitting next to her and popped a pill into her mouth. and After resting for about a minute, Zhong Nuannuan felt rejuvenated. With that, she picked up the papers and continued reading.

This time, she read more than 30 papers before she felt exhausted from her depleted mental strength.

She took another pill, rested for another minute, and continued reading.

This drug that allowed the user to recharge their mental strength was especially researched for herself. It was only available in her laboratory. In the past, she was unaware that Big Brother Chi Yang also possessed supernatural abilities that required him to increase his mental strength to improve said abilities. Therefore, it never occurred to Zhong Nuannuan to bring this drug with her. This time, she returned to the laboratory for another important reason—to mass-produce a whole batch of the same drug.

Since it was developed and manufactured by Nuannuan herself, it was much better than any other drug on the market despite being unlicensed, and it did not have any side effects. Furthermore, by mass production, Nuannuan meant to produce the drug only for herself and Big Brother Chi Yang.

At most, she could only produce 2000 pills.

After all, after a certain intake, the drug would no longer be as effective once the brain had grown accustomed to its effects.

Even though Zhong Nuannuan's method of consuming the drug might cause the drug to be ineffective on her, the urge to improve her supernatural abilities convinced her that the drug was meant to be taken after researching it anyway. Once the drug was useless to her, her strength would have leveled up vastly. By then, she would definitely be able to develop more powerful drugs.
