

Physicist 101

Chapter 101: A Different World

Hongyi wreaked havoc on the mountaintop, destroying the entire peak before stopping. She looked blurry and confused as if she had no idea what she was doing.

“What’s going on?”

“What happened to me?”

Xue Fanxin was hiding behind a large rock. When she saw that Hongyi had returned to normal, she knew that something was wrong. She was about to play the Xue You Flute again, but just as she took it out, the huge rock in front of her shattered.

With a boom, the rock splintered into pieces.

Without the large rock to cover her, Xue Fanxin was exposed to Hongyi.

Hongyi glared at Xue Fanxin and said fiercely, “Little slut, you do have some ability. Unfortunately, you’re not mature enough to use all of Xue You Flute’s power. How dare you snatch Miss’s man? Why don’t you go back and look in the mirror? With your lowly status, you’re not even worthy of pouring Miss’s chamber pot. Go die.”

“Die? Until the last moment, the outcome is still unknown. From now on, your Miss has already entered my death list. As long as I don’t die, the one who will die will definitely be her,” Xue Fanxin said solemnly.

However, her seriousness was a joke in Hongyi’s eyes. “You can’t even kill me, yet you want to kill my Miss? What shameless boasting.”

“You’ll know in the future if I’m being shameless.”

“In the future? Do you think you have a future?” Hongyi’s killing intent grew stronger. She no longer wanted to waste her breath on Xue Fanxin, so she condensed her strongest killing move, wanting to finish her off in one strike.

Just as she was about to attack, a strong tremor suddenly ran through the top of the mountain. Then, the entire peak sank as if it were a hollow mountain. The top of the mountain collapsed, and everything on it fell in, including the two girls.

“Ah...” Hongyi was the first to fall. She let out a tragic cry. Her body fell too quickly, and with countless rocks pressing down, she could not grab anything.

Xue Fanxin also suffered the same fate. Although she did not cry out like Hongyi, she was very panicked. She had tried a few times but failed to stabilize her plunging body. In a moment of desperation, she could only hide in the Reverse Spirit Heaven Wheel’s space and use the power of space to escape this calamity.

“Phew... That was close. I almost died.”

“Thankfully, I have a life-saving treasure. Otherwise, I would be in trouble.”

1

Xue Fanxin, who was hiding in the Reverse Spirit Heaven Wheel, raised her head to look at the screen above after catching her breath. She noticed that many rocks were still falling outside, which stopped after a while. There was no longer any movement from the rocks outside.

When she took a closer look, she realized that there was another world inside the mountain.

The interior of the mountain was empty. If not for Hongyi’s wanton destruction at the top of the mountain affecting the entire structure of the mountain, it would not have collapsed.

“This mountain shouldn’t collapse again for the time being, right? Let’s go down and take a look?” Xue Fanxin made up her mind and walked out of the Reverse Spirit Heaven Wheel’s space. The moment she came out, she almost fell. Fortunately, she grabbed the rock beside her in time and stabilized her body.

Although the interior of the mountain was empty, it was still thousands of feet tall. If one wanted to go down, they had to descend bit by bit.

Climbing the mountain now was not difficult for Xue Fanxin. Furthermore, she had quite a few darts with her.. If there was no other way, she could use them to support herself.

Chapter 102: Mystic Crystal White Tiger

Xue Fanxin took nearly four hours to climb down to the bottom of the mountain. The base was very wide, at least as big as a football field. Although there were rocks everywhere, they didn’t hide much of the view.

The internal space of such a mountain was definitely not naturally formed, but it also did not seem to be man-made. From this, it could be seen that there must be a strange story here.

“Who on earth created such a large space?” Xue Fanxin carefully observed the interior of the mountain and noticed a huge skeleton not far in front of her. It belonged to a beast. From the shape of the skeleton, it looked like a tiger or leopard.

This skeleton was at least ten feet tall and fifteen feet long, looking like a historical artifact.

Xue Fanxin slowly approached the huge skeleton. Although this behemoth was already dead, she was still in awe. She did not dare to rashly touch the skeleton and only stood below it, looking up.

Suddenly, an ear-piercing laugh sounded from the other side of the skeleton.

“Haha... It’s actually the skeleton of the Mystic Crystal White Tiger. Even the crystal core is still here. This crystal core must have taken at least a thousand years to form. Haha... God has been good to me!”

Hongyi had not died after falling into the mountain. She had only been injured from the fall and had been in a coma for a while. When she woke up, she saw the skeleton of a Mystic Crystal White Tiger by her side. Under the skeleton was a sparkling crystal core, making her laugh out loud in excitement.

When Xue Fanxin heard Hongyi's laughter, she quickly found a place to hide. Then, she secretly observed Hongyi and realized that she was smiling at a fist-sized white crystal. It emitted a strange glow and had extremely strong spiritual energy. At a glance, she knew that it was a good thing.

She had just heard from Hongyi that it was the crystal core of the Mystic Crystal White Tiger. Furthermore, it would take at least a thousand years to cultivate it. From this, one could imagine how precious the crystal core was.

Since she had seen such a precious thing, how could she let the enemy have it?

Xue Fanxin was thinking about what to do to snatch the crystal core from Hongyi's hand. Unexpectedly, while she was deep in thought, she heard Hongyi's cry again.

"Little bastard, quickly return the crystal core to me, or I'll kill you." Hongyi had obtained a thousand-year-old crystal core and was too excited. In her lapse of concentration, the crystal core was suddenly snatched away.

A thin, white tiger appeared out of nowhere and stole the crystal core from Hongyi's hand. Then, it jumped onto the Mystic Crystal White Tiger's skeleton and glared at Hongyi, giving out an intense hostility.

However, this thin white tiger was only the size of a cat. No matter how ferocious it appeared, in Hongyi's eyes, it was still a small ant that she could easily crush.

"Little bastard, you're looking for death." Hongyi was enraged. She ignored her injuries and attacked the little white tiger forcefully, striking at it with her palm.

The little white tiger quickly dodged. However, its body was too thin and its stamina was insufficient. It failed in the process of jumping and rolled down from the skeleton.

Although it was unsuccessful in its original move, at least it had dodged Hongyi's attack.

"I want to see how many times you can dodge!" Hongyi attacked again. This time, she used a weapon and took out a dagger from her waist, throwing it at the little white tiger.

The little white tiger did not have the energy to dodge. It could only lie on the ground and watch helplessly as the dagger flew towards it.. Fear appeared in its eyes, along with tears.

Chapter 103: No, No

The little white tiger thought that it was dead meat and was so frightened that its tears were flowing like a stream. It never expected that at the critical moment, someone would actually save it.

Xue Fanxin had been watching all of this secretly. She was thinking of a way to deal with Hongyi, but the situation was too urgent. She could not come up with a good plan for a while. Seeing that the weak little white tiger was about to be killed by Hongyi, she panicked and could not be bothered to think too much. She threw out two darts, one deflecting Hongyi's dagger while the other knocking her back.

As soon as the dagger was knocked off, Hongyi noticed Xue Fanxin's presence. She had no time to counterattack, so she quickly dodged the second dart.

While Hongyi was dodging the dart, Xue Fanxin rushed out and took the little white tiger lying on the ground away, protecting it in her arms.

The little white tiger raised its round eyes and looked at the person hugging it in confusion. It was very afraid, but for some reason, no matter how afraid it was, it was unwilling to leave this embrace.

Xue Fanxin could sense that the little thing in her arms was trembling. Hence, she stroked it gently and comforted it. "Be good, don't be afraid. I won't hurt you."

The little white tiger looked at Xue Fanxin innocently. Its round eyes turned even more watery. It had started crying.

"Little one, why are you crying? Be good, don't cry. Did I hurt you?" Xue Fanxin used her sleeve to wipe the little white tiger's tears. Her actions became even gentler as she stroked it lovingly.

The little white tiger felt Xue Fanxin's gentleness and love and was not so afraid anymore. It hid in her arms and was unwilling to leave even if it died.

At this moment, Hongyi had already reacted. She glared at Xue Fanxin and roared, "Little slut, you actually didn't die from the fall? Your life is really tough. Hand over the crystal core, or I'll make you die without a burial place."

"The crystal core belongs to this little thing. Clearly, it was left behind by its parents. You have no right to snatch it away." Xue Fanxin protected the little white tiger in her arms and faced Hongyi. Her mind was working fast as she thought of a way to deal with her opponent.

From the simple exchange just now, she already knew what was going on with Hongyi.

Hongyi had fallen from such a high place. Even if she had escaped death, she was heavily injured, and her strength had decreased greatly. That was also why she was hit by her dart, and her dagger had landed on the ground. To avoid the dart aimed at her, she had exhausted her strength and fallen to the ground. It took her a while to stand up.

In other words, the current Hongyi was not necessarily her match.

"Little slut, don't speak so self-righteously. You clearly want to take this crystal core for yourself. How hypocritical. Hand over the crystal core. Perhaps I can consider it and spare your life." Hongyi was indeed heavily injured. At this moment, she might not be Xue Fanxin's match, so she was not in a hurry to attack. Instead, she started chatting nonsense with Xue Fanxin.

If it were any other time, she would have long hacked this little slut into two. She definitely wouldn't waste her breath here.

"Between you and me, either you die or I die. There's no other way, so..." Xue Fanxin suddenly stopped in her tracks halfway. She looked at the little thing in her arms and said gently, "Be good. Go hide first. I'll go beat the bad guy."

With that, Xue Fanxin placed the little white tiger down.

However, the little white tiger was unwilling to leave Xue Fanxin's arms no matter what. Its claws clutched onto her tightly.

No, no, it wasn't easy to find a soft and fragrant embrace. It couldn't leave.

Wuwuwu, don't leave me alone, okay?

Chapter 104: A Fact

The little white tiger was really unwilling to leave. Xue Fanxin had no choice but to carry it to the side and let it hide behind a large rock. She calmed it down for a long time before settling it.

"Be good. Wait for me here. I'll come and look for you after I'm done fighting the bad guy. I have some food here. Eat it." Xue Fanxin secretly took out some snacks from her space and placed them in front of the little white tiger.

Seeing the food, the little white tiger became intent on pouncing on it. It no longer clung onto Xue Fanxin and wolfed down the snacks.

Since there was a powerful enemy like Hongyi around, Xue Fanxin did not dare to lower her guard. After calming the little white tiger down, she turned all her attention to Hongyi. The Xue You Flute was already in her hand.

Actually, when Xue Fanxin was appeasing the little white tiger, Hongyi had wanted to take the opportunity to attack. However, she was too heavily injured, so she did not dare to take the risk. She had been hesitating about whether to attack or not, wasting the opportunity. Before she could come to a conclusion, Xue Fanxin had already finished what she was doing and turned all her attention to her again.

The moment Hongyi saw Xue Fanxin's face, her anger surged, and her killing intent boiled. Her rationality gradually turned blurry in the flames of her rage. At this moment, all she wanted to do was kill. "Little slut, prepare to die."

"I'm already prepared. If you have the ability, why don't you come and kill me? Just saying things won't kill me," Xue Fanxin said provocatively. At this moment, she was certain that the current Hongyi was no match for her.

"I... I want you dead." Hongyi was enraged by Xue Fanxin. She forgot about the injuries on her body and jumped up with the dagger in hand, wanting to kill Xue Fanxin in one hit. However, when she was in the air, her body was shot down by several darts.

"Ah..."

Xue Fanxin stood rooted to the ground. Seeing Hongyi leap up, she shot out the darts and watched with an evil smile as Hongyi fell from the sky.

Hongyi slammed to the ground, vomiting blood. Her eyes were filled with disbelief and indignance.

"How... how is this possible?"

She had actually been defeated by a lowly girl who had just awakened her spirit. How was this possible?

“Are you an idiot? You’re so heavily injured. Your internal organs are a mess and so many of your bones are broken. You’re about to die, yet you’re still so stupid to come and fight me. Do you really think you’re that powerful?” Xue Fanxin played with a dart in her hand. After making sure that Hongyi had no more power to counterattack, she walked forward and stood in front of her. She stomped on her chest and said coldly, “Didn’t you want to kill me? Come on, come on, come on, come on!”

Hongyi spat out a few more mouthfuls of blood from Xue Fanxin’s stomp. She glared at Xue Fanxin, who was looking down on her. Although she was unwilling, fear had started taking root in her heart. She warned, “If you kill me, it won’t implicate just you. Everyone related to you will die miserably, especially those you care about. So you’d best think things through.”

“Are you threatening me?”

“I’m just telling you the truth.”

“Then, I’ll also tell you the truth.” Xue Fanxin’s gaze turned sharp. Then, she stabbed the dart in her hand into Hongyi’s heart and said solemnly, “I hate it when others threaten me.”

Before Hongyi died, she stared at Xue Fanxin with wide eyes, her gaze filled with unwillingness, anger, hatred, and regret.

She had actually died at the hands of a lowly ant. How could she?

Chapter 105: Strange Encounter in the Cave (1)

Xue Fanxin was not like Hongyi, who took their sweet time to kill people. Once she had the chance, she would immediately grab it and kill the enemy to resolve her own crisis.

“In your next life, be a good and smart person. You must not be so stupid anymore. Have a good trip. I won’t send you off.” After killing Hongyi, Xue Fanxin casually threw a few words and turned her attention elsewhere as if taking her life was an insignificant matter to her. The little thing chewing on a pastry was more important to her.

The little white tiger covered all the desserts under its body while nibbling on one of them with relish. It protected all the other desserts that it had yet to eat. Its appearance was extremely cute.

Xue Fanxin squatted down beside the little white tiger and stroked its head gently. Seeing that the snacks were too dry, she took out some water for it to drink. “Don’t be anxious; eat slowly. Drink some water first, or your mouth will be dry and uncomfortable.”

The little white tiger glanced at the water Xue Fanxin had poured in the bowl, then raised its head and looked at the person in front of it with its round eyes. Only then did it stick out its tongue to lick the water. After drinking enough, it went back to snacks, eating piece after piece. It only stopped when there was only one piece left. It reluctantly putting it away, unwilling to eat it.

This little guy was so thin that it did not even have any meat. It was just skin and bones. Clearly, it had never had a full meal since it was young. Most likely, it often starved. It was no wonder it cared so much about food.

“You can’t leave this snack for too long, or it’ll go bad. Eat it. If I can get out of here alive, I’ll definitely get you more delicious food.” Xue Fanxin gently patted the little white tiger’s head. She did not care whether it understood her or not and no longer stared at it. Instead, she turned her gaze to other places and started exploring this mysterious place properly.

To create such a mystical grotto-heaven within a mountain, there must be something extraordinary here. It was even more miraculous for a thousand-year-old Mystic Crystal White Tiger to die here. Her intuition told her that there must be something else going on here.

If there was really another mystery, what could it be?

Just as Xue Fanxin was studying her surroundings, the little white tiger jumped in front of her. It was still chewing on the last remaining snack. It shook its head at her, then wagged its tail before walking in one particular direction.

“Little Tiger, are you taking me somewhere?” Xue Fanxin asked.

The little tiger turned around and nodded at Xue Fanxin before continuing forward. Evidently, the little tiger understood Xue Fanxin.

Xue Fanxin smiled happily and followed the little tiger. After making many turns, they arrived at a precipice. There was no path ahead.

“Little Tiger, there’s no way out here. Why did you bring me to this place?”

The little tiger turned back to look at Xue Fanxin as if to say, “You’ll find out soon.”

She watched the little tiger jump onto a rock by the side and sit there. Its body emitted a strange white light, which should be its exclusive spirit energy.

When the white light flashed, a door appeared on the cliff in front of her.

The white tiger led the way and walked through the door first. Then, it nodded at Xue Fanxin, indicating for her to come in.

With her heart bubbling with curiosity, Xue Fanxin followed the little white tiger into the door. Unexpectedly, the door closed and disappeared just as she entered, making her feel a little nervous.

She wouldn’t be killed by the little tiger here, would she?

Chapter 106: Strange Encounter in the Cave (2)

The little white tiger could tell that Xue Fanxin was nervous. It came to her feet and sat upright. Shaking its head at her, it blinked its round eyes as if saying, “Don’t be afraid.”

Xue Fanxin was liking this lively little tiger more and more. She smiled at it and nodded. "Okay, I'm not afraid."

After pacifying Xue Fanxin, the little white tiger continued forward and led the way. Wherever it passed, all the mechanisms and formations would shut down.

Seeing these exquisite array formations and mechanisms, Xue Fanxin was in awe and admiration. The array formations and mechanisms here were combined perfectly, making people feel like they had entered a mechanical world. Furthermore, it was a world with spirituality. The walls were smooth and flat with neatly arranged crossbows, and the floor was covered with shiny stone slabs. There were profound array formations everywhere with strange carvings on them like countless eyes were watching your every move.

This place was too exquisite and profound. It had already far exceeded her understanding.

If not for the little white tiger leading the way, no one would have been able to walk through here. Ignoring the fact that the mechanisms and formations here could kill countless experts in an instant, probably no one could even open the door outside.

"Little Tiger, where is this? Where are you taking me?" Xue Fanxin had been following the little white tiger for a long time. She still had no idea about her destination, so she started to panic again.

The little white tiger stopped in its tracks and turned back to look at Xue Fanxin. It blinked and shook its head at her as if saying, "It's right in front. Follow me, don't be afraid."

Xue Fanxin was not immune to the little white tiger's cute appearance. She knew in her heart that the little white tiger would not harm her, so she continued walking.

After another fifteen minutes, a silver lake appeared in front of her. The lake looked calm, but it was actually filled with turbulence.

A small bug flew out of nowhere and wanted to fly over the silver lake. Just as it reached the surface of the lake, it lost its ability to fly. It fell into the lake and was instantly melted by the water, leaving not even a scrap behind.

Clearly, the water in the silver lake was extremely corrosive. Anyone who touched it would be turned into dregs. Furthermore, there was a strange power on the lake surface that forbade any objects from flying. There were also powerful mechanisms and array formations set up on both sides of the stone wall. Wanting to cross the lake was difficult.

Hence, even if some experts were lucky enough to reach this place, it would be difficult for them to cross this silver lake.

Xue Fanxin turned her gaze to the white tiger. She saw it release its spirit energy into the silver lake. Before long, a bridge appeared from the bottom of the lake. Although it looked ordinary, it was anything but that.

The little white tiger glanced at Xue Fanxin and told her to follow her before walking to the bridge.

Xue Fanxin did not hesitate and walked with the little white tiger. While crossing the bridge, she was extra careful. From time to time, she would look at the lake water under the bridge, afraid that she would get splashed.

However, the strange thing was, the silver lake was extremely calm, and not a single ripple was visible.

After they crossed the bridge and reached the other side of the lake, the bridge automatically retracted to the bottom of the lake. Everything returned to its original state.

Up to now, Xue Fanxin was already stunned by all the mysterious things happening here. She secretly rejoiced. Thank god she did not have any ill will towards the little white tiger as Hongyi had. Otherwise, she wouldn't even know how she had died.

The little white tiger was so familiar with this place and could control all the mechanisms and array formations. Even if she had not saved it just now, Hongyi would not have been able to kill it.

She wondered what kind of surprise the little white tiger would give her next.

Chapter 107: Strange Encounter in the Cave (3)

After crossing the bridge, the little white tiger turned back every three steps and kept urging Xue Fanxin to follow it. A while later, they came to another cliff. The little white tiger used its small claws to press on a few rocks as if it was opening some mechanism.

Once the mechanism was activated, another door appeared on the cliff, emitting an ancient aura that could be felt from outside. It was as gorgeous and glorious as a palace.

After opening the door, the little white tiger first placed the snack in its mouth on the ground. Then, it shook its skinny little head and looked at Xue Fanxin with its round eyes. It opened its little mouth gently, revealing its small teeth, and said in a childish and soft voice, "Awr awr..."

Xue Fanxin squatted down and stroked the little white tiger's head gently. "You mean to call me in?"

"Awr, awr, awr..." The little white tiger nodded in response, then picked up the snack on the ground again and led the way. A few steps later, it turned back and blinked at Xue Fanxin, seemingly telling her to hurry up.

Xue Fanxin did not hesitate anymore. She followed the little white tiger and walked through the ancient door. As soon as she entered, the door automatically closed and disappeared, leaving her trapped in a mysterious palace.

This palace was not large. Although it was magnificent, everything inside could be seen with a single glance. There were powerful spirit energy fluctuations in the surroundings, and an invisible pressure enveloped the whole place. When one stood in it, they would feel like they were about to suffocate and that walking would be extremely difficult.

"Awroo, awroo..." The little white tiger called out to the empty palace twice. In a few moments, the spirit energy fluctuations and pressure in the palace disappeared.

A red badge slowly fell from the roof of the palace. It was like a little bird that could fly as it slowly flew in front of Xue Fanxin.

“What’s this?” With doubts in her heart, Xue Fan reached out and grabbed the badge floating in front of her. The moment her fingers touched the badge, it immediately turned into a red light and disappeared into her body.

“What’s going on?”

“Awroo...” The little white tiger swayed its head foolishly. Clearly, it did not know what was going on, but it was not anxious at all. It shook its cute little head from side to side and stared at Xue Fanxin carefully as if thinking about something.

Failing to obtain an answer from the white tiger, Xue Fanxin carefully checked her body. She discovered that the red badge had actually become extremely small and settled in her dantian. There was no activity at all. If she had not paid close attention, she would not have been able to discover the badge at all.

The dantian was the most important thing to a cultivator. If an unknown thing went inside it, how could she not be anxious?

“Little Tiger, that thing flew into my dantian. Is it okay?” Xue Fanxin could only seek help from the little white tiger.

“Awroo...” The little white tiger shook its head adorably and did not give an accurate response.

Just as Xue Fan was feeling puzzled and anxious, a few lines of golden-red words appeared on a stone wall in front of the palace: Those with good intentions receive my orders. Once the Supreme Badge is out, the five continents and ten regions, three heavens and six earths, no one will dare to disobey.

1

The golden-red words only appeared for a moment before disappearing.

Although the words had vanished, Xue Fanxin remembered them clearly in her mind.

“Once the Supreme Badge is out... no one will dare to disobey. Could it be that the red badge just now was the Supreme Badge?”

What Supreme Badge?

She did not believe that a badge could make everyone in the five continents, ten regions, three heavens, and six earths submit to her!

Furthermore, she did not even know where the five continents and ten regions were.

1

However, the badge felt strange staying in her dantian, so she had to think of a way to take it out.

Just as Xue Fanxin was thinking about what to do to take out the badge in her dantian, the little white tiger took out a scroll from somewhere and placed it in front of her.

“Awroo...”

Chapter 108: You're the Jealous One

Xue Fanxin took the scroll and looked at it carefully, but she could not understand a word on it. She had no idea what was written at all and felt that it was very profound.

“Which planet's language is this? It's like a ghost drawing.”

“Awroo...” The little white tiger tilted its head with a confused expression. It looked like it only knew how to act cute. However, its skinny appearance was pitiful. Although the fur on its body was a little dirty, it was still very lovable.

“Forget it, it's useless to ask you. Let's figure out what's written on the scroll after we get out.” Xue Fanxin placed the scroll into the Reverse Spirit Heaven Wheel's space. Unexpectedly, just as she put it away, the entire palace started to shake as if it was about to collapse.

If one listened carefully, one could even hear the rumbling of rocks being smashed onto the ground.

“What's going on?”

The little white tiger was also puzzled. It had no idea what had happened because it was out of its control. It got nervous and afraid. Not knowing what to do, it directly jumped into Xue Fanxin's arms to seek protection.

“Awroo...”

“Little Tiger, you were the one who brought me in. You have to take me out!” Xue Fanxin hugged the little white tiger and said to it nicely.

“Awroo...” The little white tiger became increasingly nervous in Xue Fanxin's arms. It seemed to have sensed a fatal threat, and all the hair on its body stood on end as it looked around vigilantly.

Xue Fanxin sensed that something was wrong with the little thing in her arms. Just as she was about to ask what was wrong, she heard a familiar voice from behind her, startling her.

“Little Xin'er.”

Ye Jiushang suddenly appeared and stood behind Xue Fanxin. When he saw that the person he was thinking of was safe and sound, he was very excited. He rushed forward and pulled her into his arms tightly. Feeling her aura, his previously suspended heart finally slowly calmed down.

“Little Xin'er, you're okay. You're okay. I knew you would be okay.”

“Ye Jiushang, do you want to strangle me?” Xue Fanxin was being hugged too tightly by Ye Jiushang and almost couldn't breathe.

The little white tiger, who was stuck in the middle, nearly went into shock.

“I'm just too happy.” Ye Jiushang let go of Xue Fanxin and smiled happily. His smile had a magical power that could mesmerize people like the sun in the winter that could warm their hearts.

Xue Fanxin was originally still angry at Ye Jiushang, but she forgot about it because of his magical smile. If not for her strong resistance, who knew how long she would have been charmed!

“Ye Jiushang, why aren’t you chatting with your fairy sister? What are you doing here?”

Ye Jiushang naturally guessed who Xue Fanxin was talking about. He smiled evilly and said, “My Little Xin’er is jealous!”

“You’re the jealous one. Your entire family is jealous.”

“My entire family includes you.”

“Who’s your family? My surname is Xue, and yours is Ye. There’s nothing between us.”

“Alright, alright. Don’t be angry. I’ll tell you after we leave this place. We can’t stay here for long. We must leave right now.”

“What’s wrong?” Xue Fanxin sensed the warning in Ye Jiushang’s tone. She no longer threw a tantrum and turned serious.

“Let’s go.” Ye Jiushang had no time to explain. He brought Xue Fanxin along and directly broke through the stone wall and escaped. In the blink of an eye, he had reached the place where the Mystic Crystal White Tiger’s skeleton was placed.

However, this place was still not safe. The entire mountain was shaking and could collapse at any moment.

Xue Fanxin looked up and realized that a huge rock was about to fall. She said anxiously, “Let’s go quickly. This place is about to collapse.”

However, just as she finished speaking, she saw Ye Jiushang vomit blood, startling her.

Chapter 109: New Ripples

Seeing Ye Jiushang vomit blood, Xue Fanxin’s anxious expression changed dramatically. She hurriedly supported him and asked worriedly, “Ah Jiu, what’s wrong?”

After spitting out blood, Ye Jiushang took a few deep breaths to calm the chaotic aura in his body. Once he recovered, he forced himself to say, “It’s just the backlash of the Draconic Lotus. I’ll be fine after sleeping.”

“What backlash of the Draconic Lotus?” Xue Fanxin was confused. She wanted to check Ye Jiushang’s pulse, but right then, the interior of the mountain swayed even more violently. Large cracks had started appearing on the mountain walls, and a large-scale collapse could happen at any moment.

“Let’s talk after we get out of here. Let’s go.” Ye Jiushang made a prompt decision. The moment the interior of the mountain collapsed, he brought Xue Fanxin along and used a powerful force to break through the seal at the top of the mountain and fly out.

Rushing out of the mountain, they were still midair when the sound of a huge rock collapsing sounded from behind them.

Rumble...

Xue Fanxin was being hugged tightly by Ye Jiushang. That gentle and safe embrace made her dead heart ripple again.

Ever since Jiang Donghai and Pei Xiangxiang, her lover and close friend, betrayed her, she had sealed her heart in ice. She thought that she would no longer be attracted to any man, at least not for a short period of time. Unexpectedly, in less than a month, she had actually fallen for a man.

Was this feeling good or bad?

While Xue Fanxin was conflicted about her feelings, Ye Jiushang had already brought her down from the mountaintop and landed safely.

The little white tiger had been nestled in Xue Fanxin's arms, so it was brought out together. Outside, the little white tiger seemed to be especially excited. It jumped out of Xue Fanxin's embrace and bounced around ten feet away.

Xue Fanxin did not have the mood to care about it. After landing, she immediately checked Ye Jiushang's pulse and his physical condition. When she sensed the severity of the injury, her brows furrowed tightly. "Why is the spirit energy in your body so chaotic? It will cause harm to you. If you don't stabilize it, you will be killed by your own spirit energy."

Ye Jiushang looked at Xue Fanxin in shock and said with a hint of disbelief, "So my Little Xin'er's medical skills are actually so superb."

He knew that Xue Fanxin had read quite a few medical books recently. However, just by reading a few medical books, her skill should not be enough to detect the anomaly in his body. Only someone who had practiced medicine for many years and had excellent medical skills could do such a thing.

Actually, upon careful thought, he should have known that her medical skills were impressive. If not, how could she have saved Gu Jinyuan from the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company?

Where did she learn her medical skills from?

It seemed that his Little Xin'er had quite a few secrets!

"You're already on the verge of death, yet you can still laugh?" Xue Fanxin rolled her eyes at Ye Jiushang. She took out her silver needles and cast the Yang Needle Art in the Yin Yang Nine Needles Art to stabilize him, but the effects did not seem to be very obvious.

In Ye Jiushang's body, another force was rejecting her acupuncture treatment. Not only that, but that force was also stirring the spirit energy in Ye Jiushang's body wantonly, making it even more chaotic.

In such a situation, the difficulty of Xue Fanxin's acupuncture increased tremendously. She was unable to even insert the needle.

When Ye Jiushang saw Xue Fanxin struggling, his heart ached. He held her hand and prevented her from exhausting herself further with the needles. Smiling gently, he said, "It's useless. With your skills, you can't resist that force at all."

"But if you don't suppress the chaotic spiritual energy in your body, you will die soon." Xue Fanxin was anxious, even more so than Ye Jiushang himself.

"With you around, I won't die."

"Huh?"

Chapter 110: How Chatty

No matter how chaotic the spirit energy in his body was, Ye Jiushang did not panic. He acted as if it wouldn't matter even if the sky collapsed. He looked at Xue Fanxin with a smile and habitually used his finger to touch her forehead, saying dotingly, "As long as you are around, I won't die. You are my lucky star!"

"What do you mean?" Xue Fanxin still did not understand, but she did not think that Ye Jiushang would joke with his life. If he said that he would not die, then he would not die.

"Your blood can help me."

"My blood?"

Right, he had once said that her blood contained the power of nirvana.

"The power of nirvana in your blood can help me suppress the chaotic and devastating power in my body. However, I need to sleep for a while, at least ten days, at most a month," Ye Jiushang said. A faint look of worry appeared on his face as he added, "When I sleep, you must protect yourself, okay?"

"You mean that the fairy-like woman will still send people to kill me?" Xue Fanxin could sense Ye Jiushang's worry, so she asked directly.

"Don't worry. She temporarily doesn't have the ability to cause you trouble. Whoever dares to touch my people, I'll definitely make them die miserably." When Ye Jiushang thought of what Su Baifeng had done, his heart was filled with anger, and his eyes revealed terrifying killing intent. However, because of the chaotic spirit energy in his body, his body could not last for long. He did not waste time on Su Baifeng and continued to say to Xue Fanxin, "Little Xin'er, I want a drop of your blood. Are you willing?"

"Forget about one drop of blood. As long as I can help you, even ten drops won't be a problem." Xue Fanxin did not hesitate. She took out a silver needle and pierced her finger, squeezing out a drop of blood for Ye Jiushang readily.

Ye Jiushang gently stroked Xue Fanxin's head and said gently, "Silly girl, do you know how precious your blood is? In the future, you must not casually give your blood to others, okay?"

"You're really chatty today. Do you want it or not?"

"Of course." Ye Jiushang placed Xue Fanxin's bloody finger in his mouth and sucked on it.

With just a small drop of blood, the chaotic spiritual energy in his body had calmed down a lot. It was no longer as rampant as before, but it was still disorderly.

Ye Jiushang adjusted his breathing briefly before standing up. He led Xue Fanxin towards the cave ahead of them and said, "Let's go. I'll send you back to the cave from before."

"Cave? That cave with the crystal coffin? If I go back now, does that mean that my experience here is over?"

"Mm. I originally wanted you to train here for a month, but with such a thing happening, I can only send you out first. However, I don't have the ability to send you back to Duke's Estate. After you reach the cave, you have to return by yourself."

The backlash from the Draconic Lotus was too intense this time. Even with Xue Fanxin's blood, he would soon fall into a deep sleep. In the next month, he would not be able to accompany her.

A month's time was neither long nor short. He believed that with her ability, she could definitely handle everything around her.

When he woke up, he would make those who had bullied her pay a thousand times the price.