Chapter 531: Leaving Together

Xue Fanxin had predicted their reaction, but she still found it quite fun. She chuckled and said, "This is the result of my hard work yesterday. I haven't counted the exact number of spirit pills, so I'm not very sure. Your next task is to sell all these spirit pills for me, but you have to remember one thing—I don't want spirit coins."

"What do you want then?" Gu Jinyuan asked in confusion. When he saw the pots of spirit pills, although he was shocked, he was more excited because he could see the decline of the Blue Sea Villa.

Once these pills were put on the market, for three to five years, the Blue Sea Villa would have tough competition.

Furthermore, the quality of these pills was much better. Once everyone had a taste of them, there would be a comparison. At that time, the reputation of the Blue Sea Villa would decrease greatly, and it might even be questioned.

After three to five years, they would release another batch of pills, and the Blue Sea Villa would have no way to turn things around.

Only Xin'er could do this. If it were anyone else, they would not even dare to think about such a method.

"I only want treasures or strange things. Go out and publicize. If anyone has things I like, they can trade them for pills. Delicacies can also be exchanged. My requirements are not high. If there's something valuable, I can trade it for one or two spirit pills. This is only the first batch as well. When the spirit herbs are delivered, I'll refine the second and third batches. Therefore, there will be a lot of pills. You don't have to sell them too expensive. If anyone is in urgent need of medicinal pills, it doesn't matter if they are given to them for free."

"Xin'er, you'll suffer a lot if you use this method to deal with the Blue Sea Villa. I'm afraid you won't even be able to offset the cost of spirit herbs." Gu Jinyuan was a businessman. He could estimate the losses.

She was killing a thousand enemies by sacrificing eight hundred of her own. It was not worth it at all.

"That wasn't my original plan. I wanted to sell these pills at the cost of the materials, but something happened suddenly, so I can only do this."

"Xin'er, are you hiding something from everyone? Quickly tell me." Xue Batian had been recuperating for the past two days. Nevertheless, he could sense the change in the atmosphere and that something was wrong with his granddaughter.

Xue Fanxin smiled and said, "Grandpa, don't be anxious. I called everyone here today to tell you this. Over the past two days, Ah Jiu and I have already dealt with most of the matters here. Ignoring the small stuff, we've decided to leave this place soon."

"What did you say?"

Xue Batian was not the only one shocked. Gu Jinyuan and the others were the same. Apart from Ye Jiushang and Little Lei, everyone seemed to be looking at Xue Fanxin in shock.

“Xin’er, you said you are leaving? Where are you going?”

“Why are you leaving? Are you going to do something? You can come back after you’re done. There’s no need to block all your roads.”

Zhuri and Fuyun did not speak. Ye Yi, Ye Er, Ye San, Ye Si, Ye Wu, and Fuyun were also present. Hearing that Xue Fanxin wanted to leave, they panicked.

If the consort was leaving, the lord must be leaving too. From the looks of it, they did not intend to return.

If so, what would happen to them?

When ordinary people encountered such a thing, they would first dismiss everyone in the residence. Coincidentally, they had heard some rumors yesterday that the estate would dismiss a group of people.

They considered it nonsense. But today, they realized that this matter was true.

They did not want to leave these two masters. They really did not.

Xue Fanxin saw that Zhuri, Fuyun, and the others were all nervous. Not wanting to scare them anymore, she said, “Don’t panic. The reason I called you all over is that I plan to take you with me.”

“Really?” Ye Yi couldn’t help but ask, but then he lowered his head weakly.

Actually, Ye Yi’s question was what everyone wanted to ask. All of them were waiting for Xue Fanxin’s answer. Of course, they were waiting for her because the other master would not say a word.

“Of course it’s true. We’re going to the Mystic Realm. We might not return in the future, so we have to tie all the loose ends here. The currency in the Mystic World is not spirit coins. The money here is just a piece of waste paper there. So you know why I don’t want spirit coins, right? There are still billions of spirit coins in the Lord’s Estate. We have to think of a way to spend them all in the next few days.”

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time, they were excited.

It was great that they could follow their master to the Mystic Realm. Although they did not know what that place was, it must be good.

Among everyone, Gu Jinyuan was the most excited. However, he hid it very well and looked quite calm. “Xin’er, do you plan to take me with you?”

“If you don’t want to, I’ll respect your choice. After all, your roots are here. No matter what, the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company is your home. You can’t bear to leave—”

Gu Jinyuan interrupted her. “Xin’er, it’s not what you think. I’m more than willing to leave with you. Although the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company was the place that gave birth to me and raised me, it has already abandoned me. I don’t want to return. To tell you the truth, my family is no longer around. Those people in the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company are from the other factions. It’s precisely because of this that my position as the Young Master was removed so easily. I'm just happy that you're willing to take me with you."

He could discern that those present here were all people Xin'er cared about. She wanted to leave with everyone. He was really happy to be able to become someone she cared about.

Furthermore, he had sworn to acknowledge Xue Fanxin as his master. He had even promised her that he would earn money for her, so he naturally had to join her.

"Believe me, that place is more exciting than here, but it's much more challenging too. We'll get to it later. Let's talk about spending money now. After the severance pay, there's still a lot left, so we have to reduce our losses. From tomorrow onwards, everyone will bring money to buy things on the streets. Get whatever you want and spend as much as you can. If you want to use the money to help anyone, you can."

This was the first time she felt that spending money was not easy.

Chapter 532: Foodie Spirit

The next morning, Xue Fanxin brought a group of people to the streets. Yes, they were only there to spend money. They would buy whatever they fancied without haggling over the price. Clothes, accessories, and all kinds of daily necessities were on their list.

In short, they bought the most expensive and best things.

"I want all the jars in this pile and also those large urns. Boss, do you have any in stock in your warehouse? Sell them all to me. The price is negotiable."

Xue Fanxin walked into a store that specialized in bowls, pots, and porcelain.

Her group almost cleared the whole street. Every time she reached a store, she would buy everything inside. The news had spread throughout Heavenly Saints City by now. The store owners hoped that she could visit their shop.

Hence, when the owner of the porcelain shop saw her, he was about to go forward to greet her. Before he got the chance though, she loudly proclaimed that she would clear the stock. He was overjoyed.

"Alright, alright, alright. Your Highness, please wait a moment. I'll get the clerk to bring all the porcelain in the storeroom over."

"Your Highness, why do you want so many jars? These are of all sizes, and there are so many of them. I'm afraid it will take two storage bags to fill them all. We've already bought ten storage bags today," Fuyun asked in confusion, not understanding Xue Fanxin's intentions.

These jars were not that useful. Ordinary families used them to store things or marinate food. Wealthy families did not use them.

Could it be that the consort was buying randomly because she had nowhere to spend her money?

After a whole day, they bought a bunch of things, and none of them were random. Every item had its uses. Buying randomly was not the consort's style.

"I plan to use these jars to make canned fish."

Little Lei followed Xue Fanxin out to shop, but nothing here caught his eye. Bored, he was playing with the jars listlessly. As soon as his ears caught canned fish, he perked up. He ran over with the jar in his hand and asked, "Woman, woman, are you planning to use these jars for that canned fish?"

Little Lei became energetic. He was indeed a true foodie.

"That's right! There are no such cans here, so we can only use this kind of porcelain jar. But the taste will be even better. We can put it in the storage bag without worrying about it expiring. You can eat it no matter how long you leave it there." Xue Fanxin was also a foodie. When it came to food, she was always hungry.

She planned to turn those Electric Water Eels into canned fish that she could eat at any time in the future.

After hanging out with these two gluttons for a long time, the people by her side also became little gluttons.

Now that she knew the answer, Fuyun was especially proactive. She took the initiative to make the deal, "Boss, we want as many jars as you have in your store. Money is not a problem."

Zhuri, Ye Yi, and the others secretly smiled as they thought about the delicious food in the future.

They had indeed followed the right master. Not only could they go out and see the world, but they could also eat peerless delicious food. It was amazing.

While everyone was feeling happy, a woman in a black dress and a black bamboo hat walked in.

She first pretended to look at the porcelain, then suddenly ambushed Xue Fanxin when no one was paying attention.

"Xue Fanxin, give me your life."

Chapter 533: It's Actually You

When the woman in black walked into the porcelain store, Xue Fanxin had already noticed her. She found her aura a little familiar but also not.

Because of this strange feeling, she remained wary of her. When the black-clothed woman ambushed her, she immediately counterattacked. The Xue You Sword in her hand flashed. While dodging, she used her sword to remove the black veil and bamboo hat on her head.

Everyone saw the attacker's face clearly.

The first to speak was Zhuri. He said in anger and surprise, "Zhuiyue, it's actually you."

Ye Yi and the others were no strangers to Zhuiyue. After all, this woman had once been a Night Shadow Guard, and her status was not low. She was on par with Zhuri. The five of them had to listen to her orders.

However, they felt that this woman was ridiculous. The Lord had ordered her to be the consort's maid and guard, but she actually dared to disobey him, even looking down on the consort. To top it off, she did not find her actions to be a mistake. This was bordering stupidity.

Everyone could tell how Zhuiyue felt about the Lord, but did she even think about it? Was the Lord someone she could reach?

"Zhuri, if you still remember our past friendship, don't ruin my plans." After Zhuiyue's identity was exposed, she was not frightened or panicked. Instead, she shamelessly mentioned friendship to Zhuri.

"There's no past friendship between us," Zhuri said with a cold smile. He felt disgusted. He hated Zhuiyue's self-righteous manner, and he hated her for being unruly and ungrateful.

If not for the fact that the Lord had saved her back then, Zhuiyue would have long been sold to a brothel and become a woman of the secular world. How would she have had the achievements of today?

But how did Zhuiyue repay the Lord's kindness?

She actually wanted to kill his consort. She was an ingrate.

Zhuiyue could hear the hidden disgust and disdain in Zhuri's tone. The unfriendly gazes of Ye Yi, Ye Er, Ye San, Ye Si, Ye Wu, and the others made her even angrier.

Initially, these people surrounded her, especially Ye Yi and the others, obeying her orders. But now... she really, really hated Xue Fanxin. This damned woman had stolen everything from her and ruined her life.

"Zhuri, Ye Yi, and the rest, if you dare to spoil my plans today, I'll kill you too."

"I really can't stand such an idiot and stupid woman. If you don't move, I'll attack and slap her to death. Living for such a stupid woman is a waste of food, air, spirit energy, and resources. I'll slap her to death now for a greener world." Little Lei couldn't stand Zhuiyue's self-righteous look. He was itching to take action, but he was stopped.

Xue Fanxin smiled coldly and said, "Leave her to me. I'll let her know what self-awareness is today."

She had only seen Zhuiyue once, yet the other party hated her so much. She would not keep such an ignorant, stupid, and inexplicable enemy.

Yi Fentian's matter had taught her a lesson. She could not be merciful to her enemies, let alone think about this and that. She had to get rid of them when she had the chance, in case there were any variables.

Chapter 534: Straightforward

Zhuiyue had only seen Xue Fanxin once. In her impression, Xue Fanxin was an ugly piece of trash. No matter what, she was not worthy of the noble and perfect Ninth Imperial Uncle. Therefore, she was very indignant. She would not permit such a despicable girl to taint her noble and perfect Ninth Imperial Uncle.

After getting saved by the mysterious person, she had always wanted to kill Xue Fanxin. Their hatred compelled Yi Fentian and her to escape.

On the streets, she heard a lot about Xue Fanxin. With each passing second, she became crazier. She learned that Xue Fanxin had become a beautiful, powerful, and legendary figure... All of this stimulated her to act on her impulses.

She was clearly an extremely ugly waste. How could she have become so outstanding?

All of this must be fake. She wanted to expose Xue Fanxin's true colors and let the world know that she was unworthy of the Ninth Imperial Uncle. She had to...

"Xue Fanxin, you lowly person, I'm going to kill you..." Zhuiyue wanted to tear Xue Fanxin's beautiful face off. She could not control her rationality at all. She knew that doing this was stupid, but she could not control her urges.

"Idiot." Xue Fanxin could not even be bothered to reply. She swung her sword mercilessly.

Although it was only a casual slash from afar, the power of the Xue You Sword was enough to kill a small fry like Zhuiyue.

The sword aura cut through Zhuiyue's throat and took her life.

Zhuiyue had yet to arrive in front of Xue Fanxin. Seeing the sword aura, she suddenly calmed down. She felt death approaching and looked at her enemy in extreme horror and unwillingness. Even until her death, she did not understand why trash could become such a powerful person.

Xue Fanxin put away the Xue You Sword and stared at the corpse. She said with disdain, "In your next life, remember to be a smart person. Otherwise, you'll die even more miserably. However, you've done too many bad things in your life. I wonder if you can still reincarnate as a human. Perhaps you'll become a pig or a dog."

Xue Fanxin acted decisively this time. She did not even say a word before killing. Her determination stunned the people watching from the side.

Was this how their consort did things?

"Little Lei, deal with the corpse."

Initially, she wanted Zhuri to handle the matter, but when she thought of their friendship, she changed her mind and left it to Little Lei.

Wouldn't letting Zhuri do it make things difficult for him?

Anyway, Little Lei was not one to overthink. He would not take it to heart even if he killed someone, let alone deal with a corpse.

"Woman, you did it much more readily this time. You're not deliberating while killing someone and letting accidents happen as you did in the past. Back then, you couldn't be resolute and left behind a calamity,” Little Lei said as he dealt with Zhuiyue’s corpse. He released some spirit fire and burned it to ashes.

No one said a word. Everyone watched and did not pity Zhuiyue at all.

A woman who brought this upon herself did not deserve sympathy.

Chapter 535: High-profile

Xue Fanxin acted as if nothing had happened. After putting away her sword, she continued her shopping. “Boss, are my jars ready?”

The shop owner was shocked, especially when he saw that young man burn the black-clothed woman’s corpse into ashes. His back broke out in a cold sweat, afraid that the young man would burn his shop.

Fortunately, it was only the corpse that was burned. His shop was fine.

“Your Highness, the jars are all here. Please check.” The boss wanted to negotiate with Xue Fanxin, but he knew how much she loved money. Although unwilling, he did not dare to open his mouth.

Xue Fanxin did not think too much about it. After looking at the porcelain jars, she nodded in satisfaction and said, “Yes, these jars are all good. I want them all. Fuyun, pay the bill.”

“Woman, when will you start making that canned fish? When can I eat it?” Little Lei ran over to Xue Fanxin, not caring about how his earlier actions might have scared ordinary people. His mind was filled with thoughts of canned fish.

“You can’t eat it right away. Wait patiently. Let’s continue shopping.” Xue Fanxin waited for Fuyun to finish paying the bill before leaving. She walked towards the next store and continued emptying the street.

In the end, she failed to spend the money. She did not mind using the rest to help those poor families.

However, just as she left the porcelain shop, she was blocked by a mighty team outside. She had no choice but to stay where she was and wait for them to pass before she could walk onto the streets.

The mighty formation on the streets was not ordinarily large; it was very, very large. It was also high-profile. Two Spirit Transformation experts in golden armor led the way. Following that, four beautiful girls in pink dresses were scattering flower petals, creating a picturesque scene.

Behind them was a gorgeous palanquin that was carried by 18 Spirit Refining experts, who were tailed by another four beauties scattering flowers. Lastly was a group of followers with high cultivation levels.

Be it the beautiful girls or the followers, everyone’s clothes were extravagant.

In the entire Heavenly Saints City, even the current Heavenly Saints Emperor would not have such an entourage. The Ninth Imperial Uncle liked to keep a low profile and had always been elusive. Even if the people from the three great sects came, there would not be such a lineup.

Everyone in Heavenly Saints City was curious. Who was the person in the carriage?

“Who is that?” Xue Fanxin asked curiously.

Everyone looked at each other. They could not answer her because they did not know who was in the palanquin either.

Zhuri, on the other hand, said after observing carefully, “If I’m not wrong, that should be someone from the Hai family.”

“Hai family? Is there a Hai family in Heavenly Saints City? No way.”

“The Hai family’s foundation is not in Heavenly Saints City, nor is it an ordinary aristocratic family. Instead, it is a force between an aristocratic family and a sect. It is like ordinary aristocratic families that use their bloodline to maintain the development of the family. It is also like otherworldly sects that recruit disciples widely and nurture them to become the backbone of the family. At the same time, they are also a business family. Their financial resources are even greater than the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company.”

“That impressive?” Xue Fanxin’s first feeling was that this Hai family was not simple. However, when she saw the direction the team was going, she asked in surprise, “Why are they going in the direction of the Ninth Lord’s Estate?”

Ordinary men would not use this method of going out, so the palanquin was most likely carrying a woman.

The woman was heading towards the Ninth Lord’s Estate... Could she be coming for Ah Jiu?

Chapter 536: Something to Watch

The current Ninth Lord’s Estate was no longer as magnificent as it had been in the past. Even the door was broken. The surrounding walls were at least ten times more damaged. People passing by could vaguely see what was inside. The place looked dilapidated.

But even so, its defense was still strong. It would not be easy to casually enter. If they were not careful, they would lose their lives.

Therefore, despite looking run-down, the people outside did not dare to have any thoughts. Furthermore, the Ninth Lord’s Estate had been on the rise recently. They could not be provoked. Coupled with the fact that the Heavenly Saints Empire was in chaos, no one dared to cause trouble at this time.

No matter how things developed outside, the Ninth Lord’s Estate was still the same. Everyone just had to do their own thing. They did not care even if the sky collapsed outside.

Gu Jinyuan did not follow everyone out to shop. He was in charge of the pills. He was about to send people to spread the news of the medicinal pills being exchanged for treasures when the butler came to look for him. “Young Master Gu, a group of people has come to see you.”

“Who wants to see me?” Gu Jinyuan thought that it might be someone from the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company coming to settle scores with him, but after thinking about it, he found it impossible.

Those guys were not stupid enough to come to the Lord’s Estate to cause trouble for him. The news of the pills had not yet spread, so they couldn’t be here for that either.

Who would want to see him?

“I don’t know who it is either. The other party has quite the attitude. The moment they came, they directly asked to see you, not even mentioning the Lord. Look at them. They don’t seem to take the Lord and the Consort seriously. Although I’m a little displeased, the other party is here for you, so I didn’t say much. Besides, I’m just a servant. It’s best to let the masters make the decision.”

“Alright, I’ll take a look.” Gu Jinyuan said.

Right then, a guard ran over to report. “Butler, bad news. Those people outside the door are making a fuss. They said that our Ninth Lord’s Estate didn’t entertain their miss well and want us to go out and apologize to her.”

A cold smile appeared on the butler’s face. “Another person who overestimates themselves.”

He had seen too many similar people. No matter how tragic their outcome was, he would not pity them.

Gu Jinyuan and the butler had the same thought, but he was really curious about who was looking for him. From the new news reported by the guard, he was certain that the guest was not from the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company; they would not make such a joke.

The mighty team from before had stopped outside the Ninth Lord’s Estate’s gate. As no one came to welcome them, someone started making a fuss, clamoring for the people from the estate to receive them properly.

The commoners gathered around to watch the scene. Hearing the words of the troublemakers, they all mocked them secretly and even started whispering.

“Which arrogant idiot came to the Ninth Lord’s Estate to cause trouble?”

“Who knows? There are idiots every year, but there are especially many nowadays!”

“That might not be the case. Look at this person’s lineup. They might have a powerful background. Perhaps they’re really not afraid of the Ninth Lord’s Estate.”

“Who cares if they’re afraid? Anyway, there’s going to be a good show later.”

Chapter 537: Back and forth

Outside the door of the Ninth Lord’s Estate, a woman in a pink dress was shouting at the door, reprimanding them for neglecting their master. Her words were sharp, and her attitude was arrogant.

“Do you know who my master is? She has personally come to visit. You actually dare to make her wait outside for so long and neglect her. How ridiculous. Hurry up and get your master to come and personally welcome my master. Otherwise, I’ll teach you all a lesson.”

Thinking that the woman had a screw loose, the guards did not pay her any attention. They mocked in their hearts, “You can be arrogant now. When the lord and consort come, we’ll see how you will act up.”

“Did you hear what I said? Get your master here. Go!

“Are you deaf?

“If you continue ignoring me, don’t blame me for being impolite.”

As the woman finished her piece, the four Spirit Transformation experts behind her got ready to attack. They planned to barge into the Lord’s Estate and teach these arrogant watchdogs a lesson.

But even so, the guards of the Ninth Lord’s Estate remained indifferent.

The woman was enraged. She said bluntly, “Do it. Let these lowly scum know that our Hai family is not to be bullied.”

The four Spirit Transformation experts attacked, one of them especially ruthless. That was a fatal move, intending to kill the other party.

The guards at the door were only in the Spirit Refining Realm. They were no match for the other party, yet they did not retreat at all. Despite knowing that they would die, they still bravely accepted the challenge.

There was a major realm difference between the Spirit Refining and the Spirit Transformation. The difference in strength between the two was too great. The guards were quickly knocked down, with each one heavily injured. Some of them were only left with one breath.

The woman said even more arrogantly, “I was talking to you nicely, but you just had to be rude. You can’t blame us for that.”

A few black shadows suddenly appeared in the surroundings. Their movement techniques were mysterious, and their skills were even more impressive. The moment they appeared, they repelled the four Spirit Transformation experts, heavily injuring them.

This back-and-forth fighting style made the atmosphere even tenser.

The expression of the woman changed drastically. Her arrogance vanished in a puff of smoke. How could she still dare to throw her temper?

It couldn’t be helped. This was the world. Everything depended on the fist.

“How dare you cause trouble outside the Ninth Lord’s Estate and even injure our people. It looks like you have a death wish.” Zhuri had returned with Xue Fanxin. He had seen everything and was extremely dissatisfied with the Hai family.

The woman turned to Zhuri and asked, “Who are you?”

Zhuri ignored her and followed Xue Fanxin towards the door.

Xue Fanxin went to the guards and treated their injuries.

The woman wanted to question her further, but unexpectedly, Xue Fanxin walked past her and did not even glance at her. This made her very angry.

These people actually dared to look down on their Hai family. How detestable.

Chapter 538: Publicity Event

Xue Fanxin ignored the woman no matter how ugly her expression was or how terrifying her gaze was. She focused on treating the injured guards and even took out pills to feed them. Then, she said to the Night Shadow Guards, "They need to rest for a while. Carry them in and get someone to take good care of them."

"Yes." The Night Shadow Guards were obedient to Xue Fanxin. After receiving the order, they quickly carried the injured guards into the residence.

Their reverence for Xue Fanxin made the woman realize that her identity was not simple... Nevertheless, she could not compare to their miss's nobility.

With this thought in mind, the woman questioned Xue Fanxin arrogantly, "Who are you? How dare you be so arrogant? Do you know who my master is?"

Xue Fanxin still did not answer her. Instead, she said to the surrounding crowd, "Everyone, we are about to hold an event here for pill exchange. If you are interested, you can go back and prepare things to trade for pills. They can be strange treasures, delicacies in the world, or even a good story."

The crowd was originally waiting for a show between Xue Fanxin and the mysterious person in the palanquin. But the development exceeded their expectations. That Ninth Imperial Consort was simply not playing by the rules. Although the woman was calling out to her, Xue Fanxin was promoting some event. The activity made people confused. Even though they did not understand, they felt that it would be a good thing.

A bolder commoner stood out and asked, "Ninth Imperial Consort, can we use treasures to exchange for pills?"

"That's right. I'm not talking about are not those priceless treasures. As long as they have a little value or are strange, it's fine. Perhaps a rotten piece of wood will do. As long as I'm satisfied and happy, I can trade them for pills."

Xue Fanxin had said it so clearly that everyone understood now. They were thinking about watching the show, but now, they pondered on what to offer for pills.

Although they were ordinary people, medicinal pills were very valuable. Any one of them could be sold for a sky-high price. Furthermore, they could be taken to treat illnesses, so they were as fanatical about medicinal pills as those cultivators.

“Ninth Imperial Consort, I wonder when the pill exchange activity will begin?”

“From tomorrow. The number of pills will be huge. Everyone, don’t worry about not having a piece of the action. Feel free to come and participate in the event.

“What are you waiting for? Go back and bring any strange treasures!”

“I think I have ancestral agarwood at home. I wonder if it’s okay?” someone asked weakly.

Although the agarwood was valuable, it was far inferior to spirit pills. The guy did not have any confidence.

Xue Fanxin said readily, “Sure. Forget about the agarwood, even red sandalwood and the iron pear wood are all fine.”

“That’s great. I’ll go back and find it immediately.”

The scene was in chaos. Most of the audience hurriedly went home to look for treasures. Only a small number of people stayed to continue watching the commotion.

However, no one knew that the person sitting in the palanquin had already clenched her fists in anger.

Chapter 539: Play Until the End

After Xue Fanxin finished promoting her pill exchange activity, she finally turned her attention to the woman. “Miss, you’re not beautiful at all with your fierce glare.”

“You...” The woman still wanted to scold her, but for some reason, she felt afraid when she faced Xue Fanxin. The words got stuck in her throat and she could not utter them at all.

This woman’s aura was so powerful.

Fortunately, her master intervened. Otherwise, she really did not know what to do.

The person in the palanquin was still sitting in the sedan chair and did not come out. Her attitude couldn’t be more arrogant. “So this is the Ninth Imperial Consort. What happened today was purely a misunderstanding. Please forgive me.”

These words were indeed an apology, but her tone and attitude didn’t show any sincerity. She did not look like she was apologizing at all; rather, she was perfunctory.

“How can you say such an obvious thing is a misunderstanding? There must be something wrong with your head.”

The surrounding audience listened with relish, but the person in the carriage was furious. “Ninth Imperial Consort, I’ve already apologized to you. Why must you be so unreasonable?”

“If you had apologized sincerely, I’d naturally forgive you, but you did not. Why should I give you face?”

“How does the Ninth Imperial Consort know that I’m not sincerely apologizing?”

“You didn’t even show yourself and just sat comfortably inside, saying a few meaningless words. Is this called an apology?” Xue Fanxin’s tone was a little aggressive.

The people beside the palanquin revealed angry expressions. All of them glared at Xue Fanxin, ready to attack at any moment.

Xue Fanxin said coldly, “I’ve never been afraid of fighting. Be it strength or numbers, I’ll accompany you to the end.”

The person in the palanquin said with a hint of anger, “Ninth Imperial Consort, I treated you politely, but you humiliated me in return. Don’t you think that’s too much?”

“You injured my people. Isn’t that too much?”

“It looks like you have to make things difficult for me?”

“What if I want to?”

“Don’t blame me then.” The person’s tone was filled with anger and distaste. She made a gesture in the palanquin.

Her followers immediately launched an attack, especially the four Spirit Transformation experts in front. They were the most ruthless, and their target was Xue Fanxin. They wanted to kill.

Xue Fanxin stood rooted to the ground without any intention of retaliating. Instead, she let the people beside her fight.

Zhuri and Fuyun were in front of Xue Fanxin and blocked the four Spirit Transformation experts. In just a moment, following that...

“Ah...”

Screams resounded through the sky. Four people were sent flying hundreds of feet away at the same time. They fell to the ground and could not get up, vomiting blood.

Apart from Xue Fanxin’s people, everyone was shocked. Yet it was still not the end.

Chapter 540: Cancel Engagement

While everyone was watching Zhuri send the four Spirit Transformation experts flying, Little Lei unknowingly appeared on the gorgeous palanquin and casually tore it apart.

Crack, crack, crack... In just a few breaths, no one in the surroundings could react. Even the people in the palanquin were stunned. Only the floor of the palanquin was left.

“How dare you come to my door to show off with a lousy palanquin? You’re really overestimating yourself.” Little Lei had almost torn the entire thing apart, leaving only the two Night Pearls. He cleverly flipped over from the back of the carriage and jumped to the front. He came in front of Xue Fanxin and handed her the two Night Pearls. “Do you like these things? If you don’t, I’ll throw them away.”

He had originally wanted to throw these two pearls away, but after thinking about it carefully, he remembered that Xue Fanxin liked these shiny pearls and gold.

Xue Fanxin accepted them and said with a smile, "Little Lei, you're the best. I'll treat you later."

"Sure, sure! Remember, you owe me ten feasts! Including this one, that's a total of eleven feasts. Remember that."

Xue Fanxin's face darkened. However, this was her promise to Little Lei. No matter how depressed she was, she had to admit it. "Yes, yes, yes. I remember it. Don't worry."

In the future, she could not casually tell Little Lei that she would treat him to a feast. This guy would calculate everything.

"As long as you remember," Little Lei said seriously. He treated the feast as a very important matter.

The scene here had changed again. Apart from Zhuri, Fuyun, and the others, everyone was stunned. They could not understand what was going on.

As for the person sitting in the palanquin, she was glaring at Xue Fanxin and Little Lei with burning eyes. Her anger was like a raging fire, and it was all displayed on her face. There was even killing intent. "Kill them."

Everyone got ready to fight, but at this moment, Gu Jinyuan hurriedly rushed over. "Stop."

The originally tense atmosphere eased a little. The person in the sedan chair put on an even more arrogant posture, waiting for him to grovel at her feet.

But nothing of the sort happened. Instead, she got even angrier.

Although Gu Jinyuan had rushed to the scene and also called out to stop the battle, he first came to Xue Fanxin and said, "Xin'er, I'm really sorry. This was originally my trouble, but I've implicated you. Her name is Hai Lan, and she is the daughter of the head of the Hai family. At the same time, she is my fiancée."

"Oh, so she's your fiancée! As your good friend, there are some things I have to tell you. If you marry her, forget happiness, there might be endless trouble. With her arrogant personality, do you think she can restrain herself? Take today for example. She came to the Ninth Lord's Estate to behave atrociously. With Ah Jiu's personality, what chance do you think she has to live? Her people just injured his men. It's impossible for her to leave today."

Based on her understanding of Ah Jiu, this matter could not be resolved without blood. She could not stop this because Ah Jiu's personality was like that.

Gu Jinyuan also understood, but at this point, he could only accept the truth. "I know. Let me handle it first. Let's talk about what he wants to do later."

"Alright."

“Mm, you just fought. Are you okay?” Gu Jinyuan asked her. He had been chatting with Xue Fanxin for a long time, ignoring his fiancée.

The person in the palanquin was the daughter of the Hai family’s master. Her status was incomparably noble. Sitting in the damaged palanquin was embarrassing enough, let alone Gu Jinyuan’s actions.

Hai Lan couldn’t remain patient any longer and interrupted Gu Jinyuan and Xue Fanxin’s conversation. “Gu Jinyuan, are you done?”

Gu Jinyuan was waiting for Xue Fanxin’s answer. He looked up and said coldly, “Miss Hai Lan, why are you looking for me? This is not the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company but the Ninth Lord’s Estate. It’s really inappropriate for you to throw your temper here.”

He really hoped that Hai Lan could leave. Otherwise, he would be unable to protect her.

No matter what, she was his fiancée. If Ye Jiushang really wanted to deal with her, he could not watch her die.

Hai Lan did not know Gu Jinyuan’s good intentions. She felt provoked. “Gu Jinyuan, you are no longer the Young Master of the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company. What right do you have to speak to me? I came to look for you today to tell you that I, Hai Lan, will never marry someone like you. Let’s call off our engagement.”

“Alright, everyone present, please be my witness. From now on, I no longer have an engagement with Miss Hai Lan. She’s no longer my fiancée.”

“Gu Jinyuan, you...” Hai Lan had thought that if she told him about the annulment, he would become anxious and beg her. After all, only she could help him restore his status as the Young Master of the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company. Who knew that Gu Jinyuan would be happy instead? He even announced it publicly as if he could not wait to break up with her.

How was this possible?

Gu Jinyuan was no longer the Young Master of the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company and had even been driven out. Without her help, he could forget about making a comeback.

Didn’t he want to return to the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company to be the Young Master?

“We didn’t have any feelings for each other to begin with. This marriage agreement was set by the old ancestors, and they made a rule that only the woman can cancel the marriage. I’m very happy that Miss Hai Lan can make such a correct decision. From now on, we’ll have nothing to do with each other.” Gu Jinyuan thought that Hai Lan had come to look for him to help him return to the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company, but unexpectedly, she was here to break up.

This was also good. Without the ties of the Young Master of the Heavenly Treasure Trading Company and this engagement, he could easily follow Xue Fanxin to the Mystic Realm.

“Gu Jinyuan, even if I cancel the marriage, I won’t let you live well. You’ve offended me today, so I’ll take your arm to vent my anger. Someone, cut off his left arm.” Hai Lan was enraged.

Hai Lan did not feel that her order was inappropriate. Rather, she considered herself to be kind.

She had not taken Gu Jinyuan's life. She had only cut off his arm. Wasn't that kind?
