Chapter 551: Try Your Luck

Ghost Street was also called the Dead Market. As the name suggested, this was mainly a place to do business. Any black-market goods were allowed to circulate here. No matter their origin, they could be bought back through trade. No other method was allowed.

Ghost Street also had a particularly strict rule. No one and nothing was allowed to destroy a single flower, grass, brick, or tile. Those who violated it would be killed without mercy.

As the place to wash black into white, there were many good things here. It all depended on your ability to find treasures.

Xue Fanxin had a rough understanding of the situation. When she saw the glowing gems and beads, she did not covet them. At most, she would take a few more looks. She followed Ye Jiushang towards the shining nine-story tower. "Ah Jiu, can spirit coins be used here?"

"No," Ye Jiushang said bluntly.

"Then why did you bring me here?"

"We have to change the spirit coins into ghost coins first. Be it spirit coins, crystal coins, or other currencies, they all need to be converted to ghost coins. The exchange ratio is determined by Ghost Street. Generally speaking, the lower the place, the smaller the exchange ratio. Spirit coins are only a little more valuable than gold and silver in the secular world, so you can't exchange for many ghost coins here, nor can you buy much."

"Ah... Then how many ghost coins can I get?"

The feeling of the currency depreciating was really tragic!

"I'm not too sure either, but it's definitely not much. It won't exceed a million ghost coins. Now, you don't have to worry about not being able to finish spending the money, right?" Ye Jiushang teased. He was not sad at all about the devaluation of the currency. In his opinion, that was a trivial matter.

To cultivators, the most important thing was cultivation resources. Although money could buy cultivation resources, that was only a small number. They mostly originated from those spiritual mountains and lands, and those places were controlled by factions.

"Only a million ghost coins? That's too little." Xue Fanxin really could not accept such a huge difference. She felt that the money in her pocket had become scrap paper.

Previously, she had been worried that spending money was difficult, but now, she was worried that there was not enough to spend.

"One million ghost coins is indeed quite little, but this method can let you spend those spirit coins quickly. If you're lucky, you might be able to buy a priceless treasure from here."

Xue Fanxin felt a little better. "What kind of treasure?"

“That will depend on your luck. Someone once bought a peerless sword in Ghost Street, and someone else bought a rare opportunity. Everything here depends on luck and judgment. I brought you here today to try your luck with those billions of spirit coins.”

Only a certain lord could use billions to test their luck.

“Really?” Xue Fanxin was still a little unwilling.

Ye Jiushang said indifferently, “If you don’t want to do this, we can return.”

“Forget it. I’m already here. Besides, I won’t have anywhere to spend these spirit coins in the future. I can use them to try my luck.”

“Silly girl, when you become more knowledgeable in the future, you will know that these so-called coins are actually not valuable. Alright, I’ll take you to exchange for ghost coins.”

“Oh.” Xue Fanxin followed Ye Jiushang into the nine-story tower. The moment she entered, she felt like she was in a treasure hall.

This place was really not ordinary golden splendor!

Chapter 552: Only Eight Hundred Thousand

Xue Fanxin entered the first floor of the nine-story tower. Inside was a spacious and bright comprehensive hall, housing the various service and management centers of Ghost Street. There was a sign at the door. No matter if you were a buyer or a seller, if you wanted to exchange for ghost coins or do business, you just had to follow the instructions.

There were also various Night Pearls and crystals used for illumination. The interior decoration was even more beautiful, like a tall modern indoor square.

Perhaps because the main hall was too huge, it seemed a little deserted. From afar, one could only see a few people walking around.

Ye Jiushang brought Xue Fanxin to a counter with copper coins hanging on it. “Take out all the spirit coins you have.”

“Oh.” Xue Fanxin was still admiring the various new things in front of her. She even forgot to feel sorry for her coins and obediently took them out.

When the person saw the spirit coins, although he did not have much of a reaction, there was a hint of disdain on his face. He picked them up expressionlessly and used the abacus in his hand to calculate briefly. “These spirit coins can be exchanged for a total of 800,000 ghost coins.”

Xue Fanxin could not help but cry out, “Only 800,000?”

With that, she was immediately ridiculed by the person at the counter. “A low-level currency like spirit coins is useless. It’s almost equivalent to being trash. It’s already very good that I’m willing to give you 800,000 ghost coins. People from remote places are just ignorant.”

"I'm ignorant?" Xue Fanxin wanted to retort, but she had nothing to say. What the other party said was the truth. She was indeed ignorant.

Forget it, forget it. After all, she was an ignorant person.

"Consider those two 200,000 ghost coins my reward to you," Ye Jiushang suddenly spoke up. Then, without giving the person a chance to respond, he left with Xue Fanxin.

The person at the counter looked at Ye Jiushang and Xue Fanxin's departing figures. For some reason, he was inexplicably panicked. He felt that the handsome man's last sentence had another meaning.

He had indeed pocketed 200,000 ghost coins, but he had done this discreetly. Spirit coins, a worthless currency, rarely appeared on Ghost Street. Furthermore, the exchange rate of the currency was not public. How did that man know that he had pocketed 200,000 ghost coins?

He believed that someone who came to Ghost Street with spirit coins would not have a powerful background, so he had dared to secretly take it. Who knew...

The moment Ye Jiushang and Xue Fanxin left the exchange counter, a mysterious person on the top floor of the tower ordered, "Return the 200,000 ghost coins. It's time to change the staff at the exchange counter."

Ye Jiushang and Xue Fanxin did not know what had happened behind them. They were already strolling around with 800,000 ghost coins.

Touching her empty bag, Xue Fanxin felt indescribably depressed. "A few billion turned into eight hundred thousand. It's too cruel. Ah Jiu, how much can eight hundred thousand buy here?"

"It depends on luck," Ye Jiushang said indifferently. He only accompanied Xue Fanxin to shop and did not care about anything else.

"This also depends on luck?" Xue Fanxin was about to complain more, but her attention was attracted by something in a shop beside her. She stood rooted to the ground and looked at it in a daze, her expression turning uglier and uglier.

Chapter 553: It Must Be Her

Ye Jiushang originally thought that Xue Fanxin had taken a fancy to something. When he saw her expression, he asked worriedly, "What's wrong? You like something?"

"That ring..." Xue Fanxin stared straight at the ring placed in the most central and conspicuous position in the shop in front of her. The more she looked, the more shocked she became. Her expression distorted as anger and hatred gradually appeared in her eyes. She looked like she wanted to eat someone.

"Xin'er, what's wrong with you? Don't scare me." Ye Jiushang got even more anxious and nervous. He stood in front of her and grabbed her arm tightly, anxious to know what was happening.

With Ye Jiushang blocking her vision, Xue Fanxin could not see the ring anymore. Her emotions calmed down a little, but her condition was still not optimum. Apart from anger and hatred, there was also a hint of panic in her eyes. She turned around and grabbed Ye Jiushang's hand. "Ah Jiu, it must be her. It must be her."

"Who is it?"

"Pei Xiangxiang, it's Pei Xiangxiang. It must be her. I recognize that ring as her design. It can only be found in my world. Furthermore, it's Pei Xiangxiang's famous design. Apart from her, no one in the world can make an identical ring, not even the details. I don't believe such a coincidence exists in this world. It must be her."

Pei Xiangxiang was initially an unknown jewelry designer. Later, with her and Jiang Donghai's help, she designed a ring that earned her renown and respect, becoming a rather famous jewelry designer.

As she had participated in the design of this ring, Xue Fanxin was quite familiar with it. She could tell all the details at a glance and was immediately certain that this was Pei Xiangxiang's famous work.

She had always known that Pei Xiangxiang and Jiang Donghai had come to this world, but she still hoped that the scumbag couple had been killed by the explosion. Seeing that ring today, she no longer held that dream. She was certain that Pei Xiangxiang had also come here and was doing well.

Why would bad people not be easily punished?

Ye Jiushang knew who Pei Xiangxiang was and understood Xue Fanxin's feelings. He comforted her. "Didn't you already know that she had come to this world? Now that you've discovered her first, this is a good sign. If we follow the clues and investigate step by step, we'll be able to trace her whereabouts. We'll personally go and destroy her."

Xue Fanxin's mood improved a lot. Just now, as things had happened too suddenly, she lost control of her emotions. "Ah Jiu, don't worry. I'm fine. Be it Pei Xiangxiang or Jiang Donghai, I won't let them off. I'll definitely tear them apart."

"Alright, I'll help you."

"Let's investigate their identities first. I want to see what they have become after transmigrating here. Let's go in and ask around." Xue Fanxin adjusted her emotions and headed to the store.

Since Pei Xiangxiang had taken out her famous work to sell, it would not be difficult to find out her current identity.

Chapter 554: The Origin of the Ring

Xue Fanxin went straight for the ring. She wanted to get a closer look, but before she could approach the display, she was stopped. "Hey, hey, hey, look from afar. Don't approach it casually. If you accidentally break the thing on it, even if you sell yourselves, it won't be enough to compensate."

Xue Fanxin ignored the shop owner's bad attitude. Instead, she took the opportunity to get some information. "Owner, where did this ring come from? Why is it so valuable?"

“This is a fine work from the Ouyang family of Yu City. Be it the materials, design, or workmanship, they are all top-notch. It was personally refined by the only blacksmith master in the Ouyang family. Just this background alone makes this ring priceless. Furthermore, the materials used and the extraordinary design... Why am I talking so much to you two bumpkins? Anyway, you can’t afford this ring. Go away...”

“Boss, didn’t you put the ring here for the customers to see? Even if we can’t afford it, we can take a few more looks, right?” Although the man was getting on her nerves, to obtain more information, she could only tolerate it. “I think the design is quite soft and beautiful. It should have been made by a woman. Could it be that the Ouyang family’s blacksmith master is a woman?”

“You don’t even know if Master Ouyang is a man or a woman. You’re really an ignorant country bumpkin.”

“Hehe, I’m just a little girl. How much knowledge can I have? Boss, tell me about this ring. I think it’s quite beautiful and I like it a lot! It was personally crafted by Master Ouyang. Did he do the design too?”

“There’s no harm in telling you. The style was designed by Master Ouyang’s granddaughter, Ouyang Xiangxiang. Alright, alright. I don’t think you can afford it. If you don’t want to buy anything else, leave quickly.” The shop owner did not want to entertain Xue Fanxin anymore. Seeing that she did not look like a big customer, he chased her away impatiently.

“Boss, how much is this ring worth?”

“99,990,000 ghost coins. Alright, if you don’t want to buy anything, leave. Don’t just stand here.”

Under the shop owner’s repeated eviction, Xue Fanxin was driven out of the shop.

“Hey... You...” Xue Fanxin wanted to ask more about the Ouyang family, but unfortunately, she had been driven out. She asked gloomily, “Ah Jiu, we don’t look like poor people. Why is that boss so certain that we can’t afford that ring?”

She and Ah Jiu were both dressed decently and had extraordinary looks. People like them should be quite popular no matter where they went. Why did everyone treat them as bumpkins from a remote place after coming to this Ghost Street?

“Because we don’t have any Ghost Talismans on us. No one will think that you have any background if you don’t even have a Ghost Talisman,” Ye Jiushang said, not caring about what had just happened.

“What’s a Ghost Talisman?”

“An identity talisman and badge given to people of status by the Ghost Estate.”

“You’re the Lord of Nine Cloud Palace. Could it be that you don’t have a Ghost Talisman with such an identity?”

“Well...” Just as Ye Jiushang was about to answer, a team of armored guards suddenly walked toward them. The surrounding people were so frightened that they quickly dodged. No one dared to stand in the middle of the street.

Chapter 555: I’m Just Greedy

Ye Jiushang did not know what they had in mind. He raised his vigilance and protected Xue Fanxin behind him.

The leader of the armored guards gestured for his men to stop, then walked towards Ye Jiushang and Xue Fanxin. He first cupped his hands and bowed to them briefly, using his actions to express that he had no ill will.

Ye Jiushang lowered his guard a little. However, he was still wary.

Ghost Street was not an ordinary place. If he really caused any trouble here, even he, the Lord of Nine Cloud Palace, would find it difficult. After all, the owner of Ghost Street was even more unfathomable than him.

Fortunately, the other party did not bore any ill will. Otherwise, if they fought with the Ghost Martial Guards of Ghost Street, even if they won, the trouble later would be difficult to resolve.

He did not want to face Ghost Street.

“This is the 200,000 ghost coins that belong to you. Please take it.” The leader of the Ghost Martial Guards handed over a banknote that looked like a netherworld coin.

Ye Jiushang took the 200,000 ghost coins without hesitation and revealed a mysterious smile. He said nothing, not even a word of gratitude, and handed the banknote to the person beside him without even looking at it.

Xue Fanxin, this money-grubber, was overjoyed. She smiled and took the 200,000 ghost coins. First, she confirmed the authenticity of the note. She already understood the purpose of Ye Jiushang’s last sentence at the counter. It turned out that he wanted the man to obediently spit out the 200,000 ghost coins back.

No one should cheat a certain lord. Otherwise, they would be cheated to death by him.

“Thank you, Big Brother. Thank you so much.” Xue Fanxin smiled especially brightly. The haze in her heart was swept away, and her words became sweeter.

However, the leader of the Ghost Martial Guards did not react. After doing his job, he turned around and left, looking cold and detached.

Xue Fanxin was in a good mood and could not be bothered with these trifles. After the Ghost Martial Guards left, she took out the ghost coin note and looked at it carefully. “Ah Jiu, do you think this note is fake?”

“No,” Ye Jiushang replied, his tone certain. His gaze was still on the departing Ghost Martial Guards, and his eyes were filled with deep thought.

When he was at the exchange counter previously, he was not sure if he could get back the 200,000 ghost coins. He casually said something to probe the depths of Ghost Street. The outcome was beyond his expectations.

He guessed that the higher-ups would return the 200,000 coins, but he had not expected them to be so efficient. They had finished everything in less than an hour.

To be able to do such a small thing so well, it was no wonder that Ghost Street could survive in the various regions.

“Ah Jiu, what are you thinking about? You’re so engrossed in your thoughts.” Xue Fanxin put away the money.

Ye Jiushang retracted his thoughts and smiled gently. “It’s nothing. You have 200,000 more ghost coins on you. Although you might not be able to buy anything good, you can eat quite a few good things. Let’s go, I’ll take you to try the delicious food here.”

“Sure, sure! Quickly take me there.”

“Look at how greedy you are.”

“I’m greedy. Bite me.” Xue Fanxin made a face at Ye Jiushang and urged, “Quickly take me to eat delicious food.”

She had always been a foodie. Even if she did not buy any treasures, she had to eat delicious food.

Chapter 556: Extremely Poor

Ye Jiushang brought Xue Fanxin to a restaurant and asked for a table by the window on the second floor. However, just to book this table, they had to pay 5,000 ghost coins first before ordering.

Xue Fanxin had never encountered such a situation. She had to pay for the table when she ate at a restaurant. Although the table was a little high-class and the environment was extravagant, these were all secondary. They were things that the restaurant should provide for free. It was really depressing to have to pay for these.

However, she had no choice. Ah Jiu said that anyone who came here had to abide by the rules. Otherwise, no one would have a good ending.

In other words, no matter how depressed and unwilling she was, she had to give them the 5,000 ghost coins. Or she could forget about enjoying delicious food.

Forget it, forget it. It was worth spending more money on delicious food.

When Xue Fanxin paid the 5,000 ghost coins for the table, the waiter handed her a menu and let her choose the dishes she wanted.

The menu was not ordinarily thick; it was very, very thick. It was quite exquisite. There were pictures and words, as well as a simple introduction to the dishes. The food was categorized in a regular manner. Despite being thick, it was easy to find the dishes you wanted to eat. There were detailed explanations for the soup, stew, and stir-fry. It was like a thick dictionary.

“This is the first time I’ve seen such a thick menu!” A second ago, Xue Fanxin was still marveling at the difference in the menu from before. The next second, she was so frightened by the price marked on it that her face turned black. “Oh my god! A plate of green vegetables costs 50,000 ghost coins.”

She only had a million ghost coins on her. Didn’t that mean she could only eat twenty portions of green vegetables?

This meant that her billions of spirit coins could only buy twenty portions.

Fortunately, every table in the restaurant was separated by a large distance and was blocked by a simple screen. The customers at the next table did not hear Xue Fanxin’s cry of alarm. Otherwise, they would have definitely cast a mocking gaze at her.

Ye Jiushang, on the other hand, sat calmly, unfazed by the prices. He looked at his stunned little consort and said, “These are not ordinary green vegetables but spirit herbs that can be eaten as vegetables. Eating a small portion can increase quite a lot of spirit energy. If a person’s spirit energy is depleted, they can recover almost completely after a simple meal here.”

“It’s that magical?” Xue Fanxin looked at the menu again and realized that every dish had the main ingredients written in detail, which were anything but ordinary. There were Nine Heavens Jade Rabbit, Chaotic Snow Wolf, Flying Fire Wind Chicken, and so on. She had never even heard of many of them.

Just by looking at the name, she knew that these main ingredients were incomparably precious.

As an experienced foodie, how could she control herself when she encountered so much delicious food that she had never eaten before?

She really wanted to eat all the dishes first...

However, each dish cost an arm and a leg. The one million ghost coins she had could at most get her four to five dishes.

Xue Fanxin suddenly felt that she was poor. She did not even have enough for a meal.

“Ah Jiu, I’m so poor!” Xue Fanxin closed the menu and stared at Ye Jiushang with a tearful expression. She did not dare to look at the menu anymore. If she did, she would be even more depressed.

“Order a few dishes first. These are not ordinary dishes and contain spirit energy. If you eat too much, it will be a waste if your body can’t absorb the spirit energy inside. When I have the chance, I’ll bring you here to eat as much as you want. When you go to the Mystic Realm, there will be even more delicious food there.”

Xue Fanxin rolled her eyes and said, “If you don’t have money, just say it. I won’t mock you. There’s no need to beat around the bush.”

A voice suddenly sounded. “Waiter, I’ll pay the bill for those two over there.”

Chapter 557: Accumulate Some Virtue

A young man in colorful clothes sat opposite them and was looking at them. He had a slightly feminine fan in his hand, and he himself was a little feminine. He was clearly a man, but he wore a little makeup like a woman. He even had an earring. With his gaudy clothes, he gave off the feeling that he was exaggerated and high-profile.

Ye Jiushang suddenly took the menu from her hand and called the waiter. Ignoring the man, he ordered more expensive dishes.

Xue Fanxin was stunned. She looked at him in a daze and imagined the dishes she had never eaten before. Saliva almost dripped from her mouth. She no longer thought about anything else but food.

As long as there was food, everything else could be left alone.

When Ye Jiushang ordered, the face of the man dressed in colorful clothes turned green. He quickly ran over and closed the menu in Ye Jiushang's hand. He wanted to cry but had no tears. "Brother Ye, save your breath!"

"You were the one who said that you wanted to treat us," Ye Jiushang said coldly, but he did not open the menu again. It was not because he felt pity but because he had already ordered enough food.

"I meant it, but you have to take it easy!" Seeing that Ye Jiushang did not open the menu again, the man sat down with relief. He did not return to his table though. Clearly, he wanted to sit at the same table as Ye Jiushang and Xue Fanxin.

Xue Fanxin did not have an objection and asked curiously, "Young Master, may I ask who you are? Do you know my Ah Jiu?"

"Your Ah Jiu?" Shocked, the man turned to Ye Jiushang. "Brother Ye, when did you become someone else's Ah Jiu?"

"It's got nothing to do with you," Ye Jiushang said coldly. He really cherished his words. However, from his tone and expression, he definitely knew the colorful man in front of him, and they seemed to be on good terms.

The man did not care about Ye Jiushang's indifference like he was used to it. He said arrogantly, "If you don't say it, I'll ask someone else. Little girl, what's your name? Which family are you from? What's your relationship with this guy?"

"This bro, shouldn't you introduce yourself when you ask for someone's name and background?" Xue Fanxin asked teasingly.

"You called me bro?" The man was a little depressed about being called 'bro.' He flicked his beautiful hair and opened the fan in his hand, smiling seductively. "You should call me Pretty Brother."

"Pretty Brother," Xue Fanxin only called out in surprise, feeling that this form of address was a little... effeminate.

Unexpectedly, the man was very happy to hear that. "Hey, hey, hey... call me that in the future."

Xue Fanxin roughly understood the man's personality and smiled slyly. "It's too formal to call you brother. Why don't I call you sister? I'll call you Pretty Sister in the future. How about that?"

“I’m a man,” he emphasized.

“Of course I know you’re a man, but I think calling you sister is more appropriate.”

“You’re not allowed to call me sister.”

“If I can’t call you sister, then I’ll call you little sister. Pretty Little Sister.”

“Ah...” The man was driven crazy by Xue Fanxin. Helpless, he could only complain to Ye Jiushang, “Brother Ye, control your woman.”

“It’s your honor to be her younger sister,” Ye Jiushang replied. His words angered the beautifully dressed man so much that he vomited blood.

Chapter 558: No Limits

After getting put down by Xue Fanxin, the man was attacked by Ye Jiushang. However, he adjusted himself and digested all of this happily. He did not seem to be hurt at all. He introduced himself with a smile, “My name is Hua Shangmei. I come from a very, very far place. I grew up with Brother Ye.”

“Hua Shangmei, this name is... special.” Xue Fanxin was speechless.

It was fine if his personality was a little girlish, but his name was also the same. If this guy was a woman, he would definitely be a top-notch person!

“I also think that my name is very special and pleasant to the ear. It’s a noble virtue. A flower that will never bloom and decline means eternal beauty. This name was given by my mother, isn’t it very special?” Hua Shangmei did not find anything strange with his name. Instead, he was proud of it.

Xue Fanxin suddenly admired Hua Shangmei’s cheerful, positive, optimistic, and ambitious personality. He thought positively about everything. Although he was a little exaggerated, he lived in his own happiness and did not care about others’ opinions.

Hua Shangmei was immersed in his own world. Waving the small folding fan in his hand, he asked with a smile, “I’ve already told you my name. What’s yours?”

“My name is Xue Fanxin...” She wanted to introduce herself in detail, but the waiter happened to serve the food and attracted all her attention. She ignored everything else. “It smells so good!”

She had never seen these dishes before and could not even name them. However, she was certain that they were better than her cooking. The dishes, the fragrance, and the cutlery were all very particular. She could tell that there was a lot of science involved.

She had always felt that her culinary skills were not bad, but from now on, she no longer thought so.

There was no limit to the path of delicious food.

“Dear guests, your dishes are all here. Please enjoy.” The waiter left after serving the dishes.

Xue Fanxin picked up her chopsticks. Just as she was about to dive in, an enchanting woman holding an abacus suddenly appeared. She made a few tapping sounds on her abacus and said seductively, "Guests, a total of 2.58 million ghost coins."

Xue Fanxin felt that the chopsticks in her hand weighed a thousand kilograms, making it difficult for her to eat.

It was only ten dishes, but they actually cost 2.58 million ghost coins. If they were exchanged for spirit coins, it would be almost ten billion.

Heavens! She had spent tens of billions of spirit coins on one meal. Even the richest man in the Tongxuan Realm would be poor here.

Hua Shangmei gloomily took out a few notes from his interspatial ring. Although he was a little reluctant, he still paid the bill. "Take it."

"Thank you, sir. Please enjoy. If you have any orders, feel free to tell me." After the enchanting woman received the money, she smiled quite brightly. Her body emitted an aura that could charm people, accentuated by her hot figure.

No man could control himself in front of such a woman.

However, Ye Jiushang did not react at all. Hua Shangmei also looked very calm.

The woman seemed to be a little dissatisfied. She increased the power of charm on her body a little, hoping to obtain the outcome she wanted. Unexpectedly, a powerful pressure attacked her, making her face instantly turn pale.

Chapter 559: Power of Charm

The power of charm could not only bewitch people but could also capture their souls. The user could then control the victim's consciousness, turning them to an obedient puppet.

Therefore, when the enchanting woman increased the power of charm, the anger in Ye Jiushang's heart suddenly rose. He released a powerful pressure and dispersed her charm. He warned, "Even the Succubus Clan doesn't dare to casually use the power of charm in front of me. Who do you think you are?"

The woman's expression got ugly. However, she could not help but be attracted to the noble, mysterious, and powerful man in front of her. His handsome face and his kingly aura made her lose her soul.

If this man wasn't so outstanding, she could have resisted her impulses. Who knew...

"Young Master, I don't have any ill will. I just want to make friends with you." The woman still did not give up. Even though she was a little panicked, she could not help but want to catch such an outstanding man.

Xue Fanxin and Hua Shangmei tacitly felt sorry for a certain idiot. Both of them understood Ye Jiushang's personality. Beauty was useless to a certain lord. Furthermore, he did not like strangers pestering him. If that woman continued, her outcome would not be good.

Hua Shangmei knew what kind of place Ghost Street was. In order to prevent the situation from getting serious, he had to step forward. "Miss, my friend doesn't like to talk to strangers. Your actions have already disturbed our meal. Please leave."

Although she was still a little unwilling, she knew well what the consequences of disturbing a guest's meal were. She had to turn around and leave. However, after taking a few steps, she stopped and turned back to look at Ye Jiushang. She revealed a sinister and seductive smile, like a hunter who had set her sights on her prey. She would not stop until she had obtained him.

Xue Fanxin caught her gaze and sneered in her heart. Those who dared to have designs on Ah Jiu would often end up terribly.

Hua Shangmei said helplessly, "Brother Ye, your charm is still so powerful. You can see peach blossoms wherever you go. You're really worthy of being a child of the Succubus Clan..."

Halfway through, Hua Shangmei shut up because of the powerful warning pressure. He realized that he had said something wrong. He smiled awkwardly and said, "Hehe, eat the food. They won't taste good if they're cold."

Xue Fanxin was a sensitive person and sharply sensed the abnormality. However, she did not ask further, nor did she think too much about it. She pretended as if nothing had happened. She threw herself into the delicious food and even snatched it from Hua Shangmei. "Hey, you're treating us to a meal. How can you eat alone? These are all mine. If you want to eat, order yourself."

"I only ate a little." Hua Shangmei didn't want to eat at first, but he had said something wrong just now and was in an awkward situation. He used food to relieve the tension. Who knew that he would get criticized? It rendered him speechless.

Looking at the way a certain little woman ate, it was simply not flattering.

Did Ye Jiushang really like her?

Chapter 560: It's Good to Have You

Perhaps because Hua Shangmei had said something wrong, Ye Jiushang's face had been tense ever since. One look and one could tell that he was in a bad mood. He did not eat much. He remained cold throughout the meal, not saying a word.

"I have some business to handle. I'll take my leave. You guys take your time." Noticing the atmosphere, Hua Shangmei found an excuse to escape. He left like a gust of wind.

"Sigh... We haven't met properly yet.

"Why are you leaving so quickly! You look like you have a guilty conscience.

“Well, I guess it’s good that you’re gone. The remaining food is all mine.

“Ah Jiu, aren’t you eating? This dish is good. It’s even more delicious than what I make! Try it.” Xue Fanxin knew that Ye Jiushang was in a bad mood. She would not sour it further. Instead, she would think of a way to make the people around her happy.

Ye Jiushang looked at her and asked in a deep voice, “Don’t you have anything to ask?”

“Of course I have, but how can these questions compare to you? In my heart, you are the most important. Everything else is ranked at the back. When you are in a good mood, if you want to tell me these things, just do so. Otherwise, don’t bother. Everyone’s entitled to their privacy; even two people who love each other are no exception. Respect each other’s privacy and give each other a certain space. This is the basic principle of dealing with people. My Ah Jiu is unhappy, so I naturally have to think of a way to make him happy, right?”

Hearing Xue Fanxin’s warm words, all the haze in Ye Jiushang’s heart was swept away. He smiled and said emotionally, “Xin’er, it’s good to have you.”

“Of course it’s good to have me! So when you’re in a bad mood, you should think more about me and how good I am. This way, your bad mood will improve, right?”

“Yes, Xin’er is right. Actually, it’s nothing. My biological mother is not a human but a succubus. Like Little Lei, I am a child born from an alien race. My bloodline is not pure, so...” When Ye Jiushang spoke of his background, his heart became heavy. Clearly, he had a deep grudge.

“What impure bloodline? That’s all nonsense from someone with ulterior motives. Although I don’t know what kind of race the Succubi are, they won’t be too different. Otherwise, how could your parents have you?”

“You really don’t mind that my bloodline is not pure?”

“Isn’t it just mixed-blood? What’s there to despise? In my world, it’s normal for foreign races to get married and have children. There’s a high chance that mixed-bloods will inherit the advantages of their parents, so they’re often very outstanding children.”

“That’s good, that’s good.” Ye Jiushang finally relaxed. He was afraid that Xue Fanxin would despise his impure bloodline.

Actually, he should have been able to tell from Little Lei’s matter that Xin’er was not such a shallow person. It seemed like he was thinking too much.

Perhaps it was because he was too afraid of losing her that he overthought things.

From now on, he had one less worry. Even if the others despised his impure bloodline, it didn’t matter anymore.

“You big fool. You’re really stupid to be sad and depressed over such a small thing,” Xue Fanxin teased. Seeing his mood improve, she was also happy.

From Ah Jiu and Little Lei, she noticed that this world had high requirements for the purity of the bloodline. They seemed to discriminate against the children born from the combination of other races.
