Chapter 1071: Fleet

"Of course it is necessary. You would not naively think that radiation will disappear naturally and will not threaten you?"

"Big shot?" Shi Cui's mocking tone was displeased.

Several senior executives frowned. If they hadn't known that he was the celebrity in front of the boss, someone would already be slapped on the table.

"Leader Shi, your research has not been effective."

"I am not against genetic engineering, its achievements are undoubtedly comparable!"

"It's the in-depth research on radiation. Not only is the investment huge, but it's also dangerous... You're playing with fire, Captain Shi."

"Everyone is the same, isn't every one of your decisions playing with fire?" Shi Cui's words are beyond rebuttal.

"Leader Shi, you should know that we are from the company's standpoint."

"me too."

Shi Cui looked at everyone, pushed the frame and smiled: "We are all for the good of the company, but we have different ideas."

"I am grateful for your understanding, so you should also understand why everyone opposes the radiation project."

"I... we think you should stop those dangerous projects first and focus on genetic modification."

Shi Cui raised his head and said with a smile: "Thank you for your suggestion, but I know what I am doing."

"I can handle it, everyone knows it."

"Moreover, these projects are part of genetic modification projects. Only by completing them can we find a new direction, understand?"

Shi Cui smiled and nodded to the executives present, and said, "I know everyone's worries, but I can handle them."

"Well, we have had enough disputes." Qin Yu interrupted the dispute between the two sides.

Otherwise, he doesn't know when he wants to hear it.

He came here to solve the problem, not to listen to their complaints and disputes.

"The matter of the institute is still left to President Hua and Director Zhu to make the decision. If you have any questions, communicate with them, I believe you will find a way."

"The Beizhou laboratory project continues. It is a project specially approved by me. If you have any comments, you can contact me after the meeting."

"Now, the next item."

Qin Yu tapped his fingers on the desktop, expressing his impatience with a short rhythm.

Everyone looked at each other, no one refuted it again.

This concludes the topic, and now it's time to discuss the solution.

The meeting lasted four hours, which was the fastest.

"I look forward to meeting with you next time, I hope you all have a good time." The visual projection disappeared one by one, and Qin Yu also planned to leave the meeting room.

"Boss, wait." Watson caught up and asked, "I want to talk about the radiation project."

"what?"

Qin Yu stopped, staring at her and said: "Watson, I just said, don't you want to jump out at this time?"

"No, I mean, should its project funding be appropriately slowed down?" Watson was not against the project.

She just doesn't think that she should invest so much money on it.

So far, she has received as much as 16.8 billion funding applications...

16.8 billion, not one million, not ten million.

is 16.8 billion.

And this is only three quarters of financial expenditure, there is one quarter, the ghost knows how much it will cost.

"Are there any problems with his application materials?" Qin Yu asked.

"No, no...It should be said that there is no problem in general, but in some details of consumer expenses, you can save more."

"You spoil them so that they don't have the slightest sense of economy."

"So, is it my fault?" Qin Yu pointed to himself with a speechless face.

"...Yes, it's your fault." Watson said affirmatively.

"Well, tell me what to do." How could Qin Yu blame someone who wants to save money for himself.

As long as her method is feasible, Qin Yu is happy to try it.

"This is the plan I made, you can take time to look at it." Watson waved his finger.

A group of information packets appeared above the personal terminal and disappeared.

Qin Yu's terminal rang a 'ding bell', and he received it.

"Already prepared, huh?" Qin Yu looked at her meaningfully.

Seeing the other person smiling away, Qin Yu shook his head and smiled sarcastically.

Sure enough, where there are people, there are rivers and lakes.

He thought that making things difficult at the meeting was the handwriting of the family, and he never thought it was more complicated than he thought.

Internal conflicts in the academic department, including the shadow of the poor family.

What kind of anger did Shichoi commit?

Jingling...

The call was made by JK. I wanted to ask Qin Yu if he would have time to accompany him and take his cousin to play in the car.

"How about the evening, have a meal first, and then go to the car." Qin Yu responded.

He still needs to listen to a few reports, seminars and the like.

End to get dinner time.

"At night, I told her not to wait. I will teach her when you have time during the day."

"No, we go to the track at night, no one is more convenient." An appointment with JK, Qin Yu asked Yan Xue to contact the stadium.

He didn't know if anyone would use it tonight, anyway, when Yan Xue hit it, the other party agreed.

Eight staff, first aid and corresponding services are all available.

Listen to the action report of the 'Healing Heart', the theoretical conjectures on the radiation field and the wild pollution.

Listen to the instructor summary of the third batch of graduates, personal career choices and overall ratio...

In the blink of an eye, it was dark.

"Today's meeting will end here first, Shi Cui, you wait." Let the others go first.

Qin Yu put on his coat and said, "I heard that the pharmaceutical factory asked you for help, but you refused?"

"Yes, I received the application, their theory is not rigorous enough." Shi Cui responded with a smile.

Qin Yu found a trace of guilty conscience in his smile, "Are you sloppy with me?"

Seeing the boss's brilliant smile, Shi Cui shuddered involuntarily.

The fear from the depths of the soul is that he cannot control his body.

"I'm too busy, boss." Shi Cui changed a more reliable reason, better than 'the theory is not rigorous.'

If it is rigorous enough, it is not limited to theory.

Miracle Pharmaceutical will not ask him for help either.

Although both belong to the Miracle Company, the truth is that Miracle Pharmaceutical does not want to get involved with the Department of Biochemistry at all.

Biochemistry, biology, one word difference, a world of difference!

If it were not for no choice, the pharmaceutical factory would never want to have anything to do with Shi Cui and his biochemical laboratory.

"Do me a favor and fix it."

Qin Yu patted Shi Cui on the shoulder, and said softly: "You know, your laboratory costs a lot, and I need money to maintain it, a lot...a lot of money."

"A pharmaceutical company is a place that can provide a lot, a lot of money."

Seeing Shi Cui's clear expression, Qin Yu said with satisfaction: "So, do you understand how important it is?"

"Understood." Shi Cui nodded.

He did understand, "If you don't have the problem of customizing a pharmaceutical factory, you won't have the money to get it."

Simple, clear, and clear!

Therefore, whether he wants it or not, for his own project funding, he must also prioritize the problem of customized pharmaceutical factories.

"I hope it is not a boring question!" Shi Cui prayed in his heart that this case would bring him happiness.

Even a little satisfaction is enough!

"I want to use a car today, I don't need a driver." Qin Yu took the Mercedes-Benz S car key from Yan Xue, and Qin Yu started the ignition.

"Is there anything I need to do?" Yan Xue bent down and looked into the car. She also hoped to have time alone with Qin Yu.

It's just that, in Yu Ge's view, they have enough time alone.

is like work, or lunch, dinner, or overtime.

There are only two of them in the office, you can play as much as you want...

So, now he is going to pick up Jia Jingsi and take her to experience a speed and passion.

fulfilled the promise to Wang Shanshan by the way, and accompany her to play in the car race.

Qin Yu asked him to send all the locomotives he bought to the competition.

Today, she can have a good time in the arena!

When he received Jia Jingsi and Wang Shanshan and told them the news, "Really, are you serious?"

Had it not been for the height of the roof, Wang Shanshan would have jumped up.

"Of course, you can run anywhere in the whole stadium, you can play as long as you want." Qin Yu thought for a while and looked at Jia Jingsi: "Tomorrow is the weekend, right?"

"Um."

Jia Jingsi nodded, looking surprised and asked: "Did you really wrap up the upper game?"

"Is it weird?" Brother Yu was rather curious.

She already knows who she is, is it a big surprise for her to take the next track?

"No, no, it's just... I'm just surprised!"

Jia Jingsi said incoherently, and suddenly sat up straight and looked forward: "Forget it, don't discuss this, what shall we eat?"

"Stop eating, I want to go to the game now."

Wang Shanshan grabbed the co-pilot and looked at her cousin pleadingly: "Go, go, we can order takeaway."

"Can you?" Jia Jingsi looked at Qin Yu and asked him what he meant.

May I?

Brother Yu is also not clear, since it is not clear, it is okay.

"Yes, order takeaway, we will go to the race now." After stepping on the accelerator, Qin Yu turned and drove towards the race.

It was almost eight o'clock when I arrived at the tournament, and the road was a bit blocked.

Living in a big city is always unavoidable.

Brother Yu is therefore more and more looking forward to the official start of the operation of the empty net speed car project in the abandoned city.

By the time the traffic problem will definitely be greatly alleviated.

"Mr. Qin, is this Mr. Qin?" The one who welcomed Qin Yu was a strange face, not anyone he had seen before.

"I am." Qin Yu held the opponent's hand.

"My name is Chang Ke. It is a great honor to meet you in person. You are a legend, the greatest legend of this century."

"Thank you, I want to take a look at the car first." He was very comfortable with this compliment.

"No problem, please here." Chang Ke took them to the parking garage.

"ZH

2SE, ZX-10R and ZX-10RR, Z900 and Z650, and 1000SX. "

Chang Ke raised his hands and said in amazement, "It's incredible, I thought I saw the entire Kawasaki family."

"What about the others?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"Here." Chang Ke took them to the parking garage next door.

Ducati XDiavel, Hacker 950, Street Fighter V4

S, Panigale

V4SP, the * of racing.

The neatly arranged Ducati cars are blooming bright red.

Besides, there was a Dodge Tomahawk that was out of place at the back.

"Oh!"

Wang Shanshan covered his mouth, ran straight to the Dodge Tomahawk, and choked out inconceivably: "What did I see, Dodge Tomahawk, isn't this true?"

Chapter 1072: sisters

In fact, let alone Wang Shanshan.

Even Brother Yu himself was dumbfounded, he didn't expect that he had so many locomotives.

He just told Yan Xue to buy as much as possible!

High-power, street cars, racing cars, power monsters and classic cars.

As long as she feels good, she can buy it back.

but...

Now Qin Yu is beginning to wonder, who is a fan of locomotives? ? ?

"I think it's the Tomahawk."

Qin Yu stroked the metal car body with his fingers, and said with a smile: "Want to try it?"

"Can I?" Wang Shanshan said as she straddled on it.

Until he found that Qin Yu was standing there, staring at himself with a devilish expression.

"What's wrong?"

Wang Shanshan said unclearly, "What should we do next?"

She is just a rookie and can't figure out how to start this car.

Can you drive it out by yourself?

"Come down." Qin Yu said with a black face.

"What?" Wang Shanshan was confused.

He let himself up, and now he wants to go down by himself.

Up and down... she was dizzy.

"I don't want to go back with the corpse." Qin Yu said angrily: "Come down, I will take you for a drive."

This time, Wang Shanshan understood.

"Oh~ good!" Wang Shanshan weakly raised his right hand and waved.

It's like being at the top, being knocked sap!

Sack~

"Okay, come up." Sitting on the Dodge, Qin Yu opened his hands and held the handlebars.

At this moment, Qin Yu felt a sense of pride spontaneously.

just like...

I am a man, a real man.

Responsible, responsible, mature man.

The satisfaction from the soul and spirit is far deeper than the physical body, Ness!

"Hey, what about me?" Jia Jingsi stood there with a dazed expression.

She is the real girlfriend...

Why does this seem like an insignificant third party?

"Wait for me and come back soon." Qin Yu couldn't wait to try this locomotive.

Clutching, pressing down on the toes, the sound of mechanical snapping is clear and attractive.

Release the clutch to give oil, and the locomotive drove into the track smoothly, incredibly silky.

This big guy is not difficult at all to control.

However, Brother Yu is going to increase the difficulty, "Hold me tight."

"What?" Wang Shanshan, who had nowhere to put his hands, lifted his helmet and mask.

"I said hold me tight, I want to speed up." Qin Yu responded.

With a tight look, Wang Shanshan hugged his waist.

In the next second, without waiting for her to realize anything, her body leaned back sharply, and the sound of the wind in her ears became harsh.

Hum...

The low mechanical roar echoed over the track.

The beast that is difficult to control is like a docile kitten in his hands.

So when Brother Yu stopped, Wang Shanshan naively thought that he could do it too.

"I ride one circle, one circle!" Brother Yu just shook his head, pleading with his hands together.

This machine is not something she can drive, so let's start with a street car.

"This Z650 is for you, give it a try." Qin Yu pushed the Kawasaki Z650 in front of her, put down his feet and said relaxedly.

"No, brother-in-law!" Wang Shanshan shook his arm coquettishly, "I will try it once, OK?"

"You can watch me by the side, I promise I won't be in third gear."

Qin Yu still shook his head, with a firm attitude.

Not to mention the Tomahawk, even if the Z650 has to be watched by yourself, you can rest assured.

She is not a veteran.

If you think that the locomotive in front of you is the same as the seven-to-eight thousand-dollar light toys she has played with before.

Then she was so wrong!

Wang Shanshan still wanted to act like a baby to make him sad, Jia Jingsi pulled her away, "Do you want to come next time?"

"You care about me, it's not...your car." Wang Shanshan whispered unwillingly.

But facing Jia Jingsi's warning eyes, he obediently walked towards the Z650.

"What's so great? I found a rich boyfriend... I wish you a breakup soon."

Sit straddling the Z650, righting the body, feeling the streamline and weight of the body.

Wang Shanshan's previous unhappiness disappeared.

Waiting for Qin Yu to step on the battle axe and accompany her into the track.

Wang Shanshan started screaming excitedly, "Wow, that's so cool, haha..."

"Slow down, otherwise this is your last ride." Qin Yu rushed to her side and shouted.

"Sorry, I'm so excited." Wang Shanshan let go of the accelerator to slow down, and he stuck out his tongue apologetically.

This is the first time she has really played a locomotive alone.

Still on a professional track...

Therefore, excitement is inevitable.

"Pay attention to the rhythm when shifting gears and find your own rhythm."

"Don't bend, don't be handsome, focus on controlling your balance... slower, slower..."

After making a round on the track, Qin Yu drove into the pit lane and parked his car beside Jia Jingsi: "Do you want to come up?"

"Don't you need to look at her?"

Jia Jingsi stepped up worriedly and looked forward: "She seems to be running too fast, do you want to stop her?"

Seeing her worry, Qin Yu patted her back seat funny: "Come on, let's catch up with her."

"Hurry up, hurry up."

Jia Jing stepped on the motorcycle without thinking, patted his shoulder and said: "Hurry up, catch up, I feel she is going to fall."

"Don't be nervous, okay?"

Qin Yu handed her the helmet, "Wear the helmet first, and I am sure that she is riding very steadily now."

"Really?" Jia Jingsi's tone was full of uncertainty: "Why do I always feel that she would fall?"

"Because, mothers are like this." Qin Yu laughed and turned the throttle.

"20-year-old mother, sounds like a lunatic."

Seeing Wang Shanshan disappearing from his sight, Jia Jingsi stood up and patted his shoulder and urged: "Quick, catch up."

"20-year-old mother?" Qin Yu shook his head and whispered softly: "It's crazy."

Starting from Kawasaki Z650, to Ducati XDiavel, and then to Kawasaki...

"Now, can I try Dodge?" Wang Shanshan stopped the 'God of Racing' in place.

Although it was a bit difficult for her, she did it.

The passion in her heart, because the attraction of the Dodge Tomahawk has not been extinguished, she wants to win today's last medal of glory.

"No." Qin Yu leaned on the battle axe and shook his head: "You can't control this car."

Seeing her unconvinced expression, Qin Yu stepped away and made a please gesture: "If you can push it for 100 meters, I agree to let you ride it."

"Really?" Wang Shanshan gave birth to hope again.

"Really." Qin Yu nodded affirmatively, and stretched out her hand to signal her to continue.

Gearing up, Wang Shanshan with a look of anticipation stood beside the battle axe, like a humble little guy.

She was like a little girl who got her beloved toy, so excited she couldn't help herself.

Holding the handlebar, Wang Shanshan took a deep breath and began to straighten the body.

Then, the body involuntarily fell to the other side, and Wang Shanshan yelled in panic, "Ahhh~"

Qin Yu, who was prepared for a long time, stretched out his hand to stabilize the locomotive, "Okay, it's time for us to have supper."

Handing the car to Chang Ke for safekeeping, Qin Yu planned to take the two to a supper first, and then send them to the hotel.

At this time, the school has a curfew, and it is impossible to go back.

"Are you leaving the car here?" Wang Shanshan reluctantly looked back at the garage, where the big toys that made her heart beat faster stopped.

"Yes, I plan to keep them here." Qin Yu nodded and said: "If you want, you can play by yourself."

"Really?" Wang Shanshan said excitedly with folded hands and fists.

"Shanshan." Jia Jingsi hurriedly stopped her, "We will come together again when we have time."

"It doesn't matter, she can come anytime if she likes it, and the cost is mine." Qin Yu said, explaining this to Chang Ke in particular.

In addition, I asked the other party for the key to the garage.

He will also use the locomotive, it will be more convenient to have the key for people to pick it up.

"You can exchange numbers, you can contact the time yourself."

"Expenses, do I need to pay a part of the deposit first?"

"Dong Qin is joking. When is it convenient for you to come to the end, it is an honor to be able to provide you with service."

"Thanks." Smiling and nodding, the three got into the car and left together.

Snack street, take advantage of Qin Yu to buy food.

Jia Jingsi commented on Wang Shanshan's self-determination, "You know how much money it costs to cover the track for an hour, so you dare to agree to it casually?"

"I didn't ask for it, but my brother-in-law said I could go." Wang Shanshan pouted.

"Then you shouldn't do this either, and it's better to call his brother." Jia Jingsi said.

"Compared to my elder brother, I prefer the name uncle." Wang Shanshan deliberately looked at her provocatively: "It's a pity that someone is stingy and doesn't agree."

Jia Jingsi gave her a fierce look, angrily said: "You can see it done by yourself, anyway, over the track, you are not allowed to go without me."

"Jia Jingsi, is there anything wrong?" Wang Shanshan cried out in disbelief: "Why do you decide what I can do? What can't you do?"

"I can, because he is my boyfriend, and you can get to know him by me. Take you on a bike ride, book a track, and be nice to you... It's all because of me, understand?"

Seeing Jia Jingsi's arrogant attitude, Wang Shanshan went crazy.

"Ha!" Wang Shanshan said angrily, pointing to her, "I can't believe it, when have you been so narcissistic?"

"This is not narcissism, it is a fact!" Jia Jingsi responded calmly.

Wang Shanshan gritted his teeth and stared at her: "Okay, you're great, you're bull, I can always go if I don't go!"

Throwing away the chopsticks, Wang Shanshan angrily walked to the side of the road.

"What's the matter?" Qin Yu, who was carrying two fried noodles, happened to see this scene.

The two sisters are in conflict again, can't they stop for a day and get along well?

"Leave her alone, let her go on her own." Jia Jingsi turned her head away with her arms around her, obviously tantrums.

"She is really leaving... She has already taken a taxi on the side of the road."

"She reached out and stopped the car. Are you really not going to stop her?"

Qin Yu's nagging made her feel irritable, and Jia Jingsi was not relieved to let her run around alone in the early morning.

No matter how annoyed she is, she is also her own cousin.

Moreover, the previous quarrel was that she was too much, Jia Jingsi knew.

She just didn't want to admit that when she saw Qin Yu and Wang Shanshan having such a good time, she was a little worried and jealous.

"Ah, I'm so annoying." Anxiously throwing away his hands, Jia Jingsi ran to the side of the road to stop Wang Shanshan who was about to leave.

Watching the two sisters arguing in the distance, they reconciled and came back arm in arm.

Brother Yu smiled bitterly and shook his head.

Chapter 1073: Messy

After eating overnight, Qin Yu opened two rooms in the hotel.

"Why is mine in a single room, and you live in the executive presidential suite? This is too unfair." Wang Shanshan, who got the answer, vomited.

"Because I pay the bill, little girl, learn to accept the reality!" Qin Yu walked into the elevator with Jia Jingsi in his arms and waved to Wang Shanshan with a smile on his face.

"Hey, can you hurt single dogs like this?" Wang Shanshan jumped to keep up, but was blocked outside the elevator door.

Looking at the numbers jumping upwards, he could only helplessly stamp his feet to vent his inner dissatisfaction.

The next day, the lifeless Wang Shanshan saw the radiant Jia Jingsi in the dining room, but Qin Yu was not by her side.

"Where's your uncle?" Wang Shanshan poked the cake hard with a fork, looking at her annoyed.

threw the cousin in the ordinary single room and went to live in the executive presidential suite by herself.

Still with the male god...

Selfish, cruel, shameless, extremely shameless!

"Go, he is going to work." Jia Jingsi sat opposite her, put the plate on the table and ate breakfast happily.

Jia Jingsi is full of happiness, humming a brisk little tune.

Anyone can see how happy she is now.

This also makes Wang Shanshan more uncomfortable, and I really want to have such a love.

With a good man like Qin Yu.

Be loved and protected by him...

Although she didn't want to admit it, Wang Shanshan knew very well in her heart that she was jealous.

"Milky, I love you too, is the concert over?" Mercedes-Benz drove steadily towards the town, and Qin Yu was sitting in the back row talking with Mildred.

This is not the first time she has called. There have been several times before, and I want to invite Qin Yu to her concert.

The mold after love is very sticky, very sticky.

She can't wait to stick with Qin Yu 7*24 hours, like a Siamese baby.

"Mold, I really really want to go to your concert..."

"But..." said mildew in an unpleasant tone.

"But, you know how busy I am... the polluted area of Hudu, Martian immigration, internal conflict and administration, research progress and supervision..."

"I know, you have said it many times, I know you are busy, I just, just..."

"I understand, I understand, I promise you will be sitting in the front row at Hudu's concert, okay?"

repeatedly promised Momo that she would definitely attend her concert in Hudu.

sat in the front row, applauded and shouted for her, and became her number one fan.

Mo Mo just hung up the phone reluctantly, just like the previous dozen or so calls.

"Hoo~" Taking a deep breath, Qin Yu put the phone on his leg, raised his head and closed his eyes to think.

The action of 'Healing Heart' went smoothly. It was placed at the central coordinate point of the contaminated area, in the basement of a 17-story apartment building.

Next, the RRT will clean up nearby threats, make sure it has no problems, and then evacuate.

After , remotely monitor the safety of 'Healing Heart'.

Every week, RRT will regularly go to clean up threats, even if there are individual armor, it integrates the most advanced technology of Miracle Company.

also cannot allow them to stay in the contaminated area for a long time to avoid radiation infection.

The imitation ecological training center in Lingang was officially put into operation.

Its carrying capacity is better than expected, and the number of trainees reached 18,600 in half a year.

The percentage of successfully passing the training is 96%.

means that every six months, 17.85 million people will take the Immigration to Mars and become new immigrants.

This is just the beginning. When the physical fitness class goes deep into all aspects, it begins to reflect its value.

Training time will be shortened to three months, one month.

One week, five days, three days...

In the company's plan, the best training program is to reduce the time to three days. They only need to understand how to live in a livable place.

What is the difference between life there and the life on earth, and what choices do you have?

Pick a suitable job and wait for assignment.

you can board the immigration number and go to the new home of mankind.

The company plans to achieve the goal in three years and achieve the achievement of 100 million immigrants within five years.

The laboratory in the central part of Beizhou has begun construction. The existing abandoned building originally belonged to the pharmaceutical research institute of a large company.

can be officially put into use only after necessary transformation.

Follow-up expansion and reinforcement, safety measures.

These can be carried out during use and do not affect the progress of the experiment.

And, to be honest...

Brother Yu is very doubtful how long this research institute can be used.

After all, this project is too dangerous.

A little carelessness can create a desperate situation like the 'land of misery' in the extreme north.

Fortunately, it is not in the territory of the Republic, which is the only comfort!

All the items passed quickly in his mind, Qin Yu opened his eyes, opened the snack box and threw two chips into his mouth.

The nanoworms in the oral cavity are automatically activated to digest the chip.

Transfer the obtained energy to all the same kind, absorb, sleep, evolve...

Since taking Nanoworms to sleep, Brother Yu feels better and better.

not only makes him regain the feeling of being a human again, he will be tired, tired, and sleepy enough to open his eyes.

Don't press for a long time, your hands and feet will become numb and painful.

Also, Brother Yu can clearly notice it.

His body has been strengthened in the dormant evolution of Nanoworms.

The speed is faster, the strength is stronger, and the thinking, reaction and resistance are enhanced.

Although compared to Nano Worm's gain, it's not worth mentioning!

But the concepts of the two are different, this is his own evolution...

Feeling that my body is getting stronger and better, it is like a kind of sublimation from the inside to the outside.

That feels... better than ever.

"Boss, here we are." Mercedes Benz drove into the town gate and stopped in the parking lot.

represents, the busy day has begun again.

Repetitive work is easy to numb, but Qin Yu will not...

Because he never repeats his work.

There are new problems every day, new difficulties need to be solved, and new fun will always be found.

Just like now, watching the holographic projection map of the air network operation.

The endless speeding car flies across the sky, like countless rushing small rivers, sometimes converging into a big river, and sometimes diverging again.

only forward, not backward.

Once you go wrong, you have to go around the whole city to get back to the right empty road.

If there is no Kylin responsible for the operation of the entire system, one second...

In just one second, the entire system will be paralyzed, which will bring a huge number of casualties.

"Kirin, are you sure you can?" Although she was very sure in her heart, Qin Yu still wanted to listen to it again.

is not to confirm the computing power of the unicorn, but for oneself.

Make yourself feel at ease and be able to make up your mind!

"I can." Qilin.

"Well, help me tell Xu Hao, they can start." Qin Yu said definitely.

Kongnet, officially put into operation!

If it weren't for the lazy cat, Yu would definitely return to the abandoned capital to experience first-hand the feeling of the first empty network operation.

Abandoned capital, compared to five years ago, the buildings have become denser, and the population is the same.

Prices, housing prices and cost of living are all increasing.

And today, they found a new change, a brand new public station.

Two transparent oval-shaped pipes surround the two sides of the station in a U shape, and both sides are marked with '←' arrows.

The entire station is a fully transparent screen, and an introduction about the station is playing on it.

"Air network, speed, Dongmen Station." Someone read the above introduction, and some people began to try to enter the station.

Scan the code, follow the steps to register, recharge!

Scan the QR code again to pay, and the fully transparent closed door opens to the right.

"Welcome to ride, Mr. Xu."

"The nearest vehicle has been called for you, and it is expected to arrive in 17 seconds." The electronic composite sound played.

Xu Hao showed a satisfied smile. He liked the voice, it sounded neither cold nor too close.

looked back at the outside of the station, the passengers queuing to scan the code to enter.

There was the sound of wind driven by a speeding car entering the tunnel, and it had already pitted into the station.

Waiting for Xu Hao to turn his head, the pure white speeding car slid into the station through the tunnel, and stopped in front of him steadily.

"Mr. Xu, you are welcome to take the intercity express. Please show your ID code to confirm your identity after getting on the bus. Thank you again for your trust and support."

There were whispering conversations from the crowd, and people were marveling at the simplicity and sci-fi sense of the speeding car.

The internal human sense organs mediate the halo, medialess projection touch control, and fully automatic driving.

It can fly, like a small single-seater airplane.

is just more exquisite and streamlined, like a bullet...

is incredible!

Besides, they don't know what else they can say.

"Mr. Xu, please get on the train as soon as possible." When the second passenger entered the station smoothly, the speed system began to urge him to get on the train.

Also, a countdown began to appear on the station screen.

"Well, I'm here, here I am." Get in the car, and the door closes automatically. UU Reading

In the next second, the speeding car ejected into the tunnel upwards and entered the predetermined track.

The designated 'empty road', 1200 meters above the ground, drives to the designated destination.

40 minutes away, it only takes 5 minutes and 20 seconds to ride a speeding car.

If it were not that the time to get off was only 12 seconds, he would be a little embarrassed if he was not familiar with the process.

Xu Hao will definitely give 10 points for this ride experience.

咻~

Before he had time to leave the station, the car drove away and another car drove into the station.

"Wow, the efficiency is so fast." Xu Hao joked.

stepped back a few steps, leaning on the corner and waiting to see how the next passenger got off the bus.

If the other person is as clumsy and hurried as himself, he can alleviate his previous embarrassment and enjoy a good show.

Speeding into the station, the door opened upwards.

"Arrive at the destination, please get off the bus as soon as possible, countdown 12 seconds, 12..."

In the cabin, Wang Zhe hurriedly looked for the handbag he put in the co-pilot, unfastened his seat belt, and when the countdown entered 3 seconds.

Like a mouse running away, he jumped off the speeding car.

"2, 1." The door closed and the ejection took off...

"Haha~" Xu Hao pointed to Wang Zhe, who was messy with his hands and feet in the wind driven by the rear of the car. He straightened his waist with a smile.

wonderful, wonderful!

Today he is going to be a few minutes late, which is too interesting!

Chapter 1074: Opened

"Qin Yu, Qin Yu, have you read today's news?"

As soon as he entered the house, he was surrounded by Lazy Cat and Jiang Xiaoshan, and kept asking him about empty nets and flying cars.

Even if you just watch it through the Internet, this thing is amazing!

From the beginning there was no change in the sky, until noon the stream continued to flow, forming countless white lines that did not meet.

Observed in the surveillance video, the entire network is like a machine with extreme precision.

Countless speed cars are driving on the specified empty roads, and the neutrals that stop at the station from time to time will make room for the empty roads.

The new speed car fills the vacancy and fills the endless river.

There are no vacancies, no waiting, everything appears so organized, yet mechanized.

Stunning, grotesque, full of mechanical sci-fi beauty.

but daunting, is this really the life they want?

No one knows, only time can give the correct answer.

"Of course, Kongwang is one of the most important projects of the miracle." Qin Yu hugged her and kissed and said.

"How it works, I want to hear the inside story." Lazy cat looked at him admiringly.

"Details are published online." Sitting on the sofa, Qin Yu patted her thigh and asked her to sit down.

is holding the well-behaved lazy cat, Yu brother is enjoying the joy of licking the cat.

"I want to listen to you." Lazy cat squinted and nudged it in his arms.

Who can refuse a cat girl like this?

Station classification, dispatching, transit, design and distribution of major stations.

VIP service, stoppering and queue jump rules.

How to ensure that the entire route continues to flow, and to avoid accidents.

Absolute control over time, and the gradual release of management franchise and licenses, etc.

"One license is 2.6 million, and the operating authorization period is 10 years."

"After deducting daily management fees, agency operating fees, maintenance fees, airway usage fees, etc., the cost will be paid back in about 3 years."

"Then the person who buys the license can make a lot of money? It feels so cost-effective!" Lazy Cat whispered.

Jiang Xiaoshan, who came back from washing the fruit, couldn't help shaking her head when she said that, "There is a risk, let alone, this is just a license."

Lazy Cat opened his eyes and looked at her puzzledly.

"Speed, you forgot." Jiang Xiaoshan reminded.

"Yes, there is also a speed car, it will not be more expensive than the license plate, right?" Lazy cat looked up at Qin Yu.

"1.5 million." Qin Yu responded.

At this price, each speed miracle can only earn 240,000.

Including personnel and R&D costs, compared with other projects, it can be said that it is not profitable at all.

But the place where the speed car project makes money is not in the car.

is in the later maintenance, upgrades and intelligent services.

monthly subscription service, proud to carry forward the characteristics of the Internet era.

The miracle is just to learn from it and put it on the speeding car.

Automatic driving, various personalized services, like music on demand, ambient lights, projection, Internet access, entertainment, etc.

All these functions rely on the support of Kylin, which is the 'AI Smart Cloud Matrix' declared by Miracle Company. '

The monthly service fee for each car is 39 yuan for the basic version, 69 yuan for the free version, 99 yuan for the premium version, and 169 yuan for the customized version.

This is the biggest long-term gain.

For the operating company, another profit point of the miracle lies in the license plate and the intelligent integrated parking lot.

The operation ends every day, or if maintenance is required, there is always a place to stop.

Like there is not so much demand at night, there is always a place to park for speed cars.

Intelligent integrated parking lot is its home!

The company's cars can be parked, maintained, and repaired in the garage built by themselves.

And such a parking lot, the price of 20 parking spaces is 12 million.

This is also the minimum standard. You can't even get 20 cars. It's better to buy a personal license plate for a stable long-term income.

The service life of the parking lot is 20 years, which is enough for the operating company to make a lot of money, but the profit time is a bit longer.

The emergence of the operating company can reduce the investment and energy of Miracle Company in the flying car project, and ease the pressure of parking and maintenance.

At the same time, it can achieve quick return on costs and risk sharing...

It can be said that in this project, all the big heads were taken away by the company.

Others can only drink the soup, let the miracle company decide.

This is the charm and horror of monopoly. Absolute hegemony is in the hands of the company.

I'm not happy, you don't even have the qualifications to drink soup.

is to choose to follow the soup, or stand aside and watch others drool over the soup.

Normal people know how to choose, let alone a greedy businessman in his bones.

In addition to those affected by income, such as taxis, online ride-hailing drivers and companies, there is also public transportation.

There will definitely be complaints, and some people may even hate Miracle Company and want to let him die.

But it can't affect the popularization and development of speed cars. This is the general trend in the future.

Brother Yu took the public speed car for the first time, and it was already seven days after the official operation of the air network.

Lazy Cat returned to Shangdu to participate in the daily contact and training of the dance troupe.

Brother Yu doesn't need to stay in Hudu, just because he needs to go back to the headquarters for a year-end meeting.

"how are you feeling?"

Sitting on the speeding car and choosing the destination, Qin Yu asked Xu Meixin, the co-pilot, for her opinion.

"Very good. So far, the system has an error rate of 0 and no accident has occurred."

"Only in terms of services, the complaint rate is as high as 73%."

"The company is very worried that this will affect the overall revenue and customer experience..."

Seeing him close his eyes and sleep asleep, Xu Meixin knew that he was basically not listening to what she said.

So, Xu Meixin closed the terminal and focused on the speed experience.

Surrounding the ear with light music, the sound effect is very good.

The flight is stable, without any turbulence or frustration, and no sudden pushing back feeling.

On the whole, it's like being still in place...

The lights are dim, but not ambiguous!

, on the contrary, gives people a sense of peace and tranquility, which makes people feel relaxed and comfortable.

As far as Xu Meixin herself is concerned, this magical breathing halo is dispelling her fatigue.

Burden from work, life, and heart!

"Boss, we're at the station." Xu Meixin patted Qin Yu, who was slumbering, and whispered when she noticed that the car was out of traffic.

"Well, are you here?" Opening his eyes, the speeding car had stopped on the platform.

The countdown sounded, and Brother Yu, who had already prepared, stepped out of the carriage.

Xu Meixin on the other side is obviously not the first time to ride a speeding car.

This disappointed the people who stayed in the station and waited for a good show.

No matter what era, idlers are always indispensable.

took a look at the pricing fee: 380 yuan.

Mileage: 16 kilometers.

Time-consuming: 1 minute and 39 seconds.

2km/30 yuan, 25 yuan per kilometer.

Take a taxi below. The mileage is 29 kilometers and it takes about 80 minutes. If there is a traffic jam, there is no time. The cost is about 125 yuan.

does not seem to be cheap, but compared to the saved time cost, it can be said to be cheap!

"Brother, came to see the settlement center to cut the ribbon?" The passers-by who didn't watch the excitement stepped forward to talk with Qin Yu.

"Well, just take a look." Qin Yu smiled.

"How are you guys mixing in the game, do you want to join our group?" the other party asked casually.

"No, I am a casual player." Qin Yu said.

Casual players are traveling, fishing, building houses, and picking up * everywhere in the game.

They basically won't take part in any battles, and there is only one theme of the game: play.

However, there is another characteristic for casual players.

Rich~

Because casual players don't need to worry about battle losses, and don't aim to improve their own strength.

are more curious guys, wandering around, knowledgeable, and they may encounter any situation.

Therefore, there are more things found than ordinary players, and the ones that are not consumed are stored.

Or replace it with a hoarding of valuable materials!

Before I knew it, I had enough resources on hand.

can be said to become a potential resource provider without knowing it.

When a casual player notices a business opportunity, they start selling supplies!

Someone discovered that these locust-like guys are the richest among the players.

"Brother, are you also stocking up a bunch of good goods, what do you need to sell?" The accosted players came in interest.

If the other party has any good stocks in his hands, it is found in his gang.

will definitely be reused in the group and even get extra rewards.

"Sorry, I am a pure player." Qin Yu nodded apologetically, opened the station door and walked out.

"Huh?" The other party was stunned, and then returned to the sense that Qin Yu had already left the station.

Pure players, what is the use of this waste?

The bright eyes were filled with contemptuous expressions, and then a silver speeding car appeared in front of Qin Yu.

"Huh?" The guy who accosted was dumbfounded.

Is there a freeway for speeding at the settlement center?

Why is it silver? Isn't the speed car white?

Amid numerous questions, Qin Yu and Xu Meixin boarded the silver speeding car and drove straight to the parking lot of the settlement center.

Fuck, how can it be a pure player who can get this kind of treatment?

I was cheated? I'm such a kind person, I was deceived? ? ?

How can it be repaired!

Don't let me see him again, otherwise...

I must hold my thigh tightly, Asi!

Enter the settlement hall from the parking lot on the top floor, UU reading www. Qin Yu at uukānshu.com saw the staff who were preparing.

A brand new open window and a smiling receptionist.

the lighted sign and the 'virtual goddess' virtual projection' explainer.

Anadi, Kim Hee, Savannah, etc...

These virtual characters are scattered on all floors, and they are responsible for solving puzzles, guiding and explaining the guests who come to handle business.

At the same time, Qin Yu also saw the new character of the "Goddess of Demons".

Three huge question marks, spinning right in front of the open window.

The candidate has not been determined yet, leaving the player's expectations and suspense, which is more attractive.

"Is the list confirmed?" Qin Yu stood in the corridor on the second floor, looking down at three question marks.

"Li Xin and Zhao Lusi, they have their own advantages, one has a good reputation, online acting skills, and strength. The other has high traffic and has a topical degree."

"Hancheng District is measured between Park Shin Hye and IU, and the third candidate is to be determined..."

"Where is Song Yi?" Qin Yu said.

"Both candidates are from the Central District, will it not be too good?" Xu Meixin asked.

"We are a game company, not a world government. Social stability and harmony are things like that. It's not your turn to worry about me... That's it!"

"Yes." Xu Mei agreed, but her heart was full of grooves.

You choose Song Tie, is that for the company? ? ?

I believe you a ghost...

Chapter 1075: legend

Park Shin Hye, Li Xin, Song Tie.

Three candidates for the new monster goddess are finalized.

However, in order to maintain mystery and topicality.

It will take some time before the impact of the three people will be uploaded and announced to the public.

Before that, the company must first send an invitation to the three.

Ask them to go to the company to collect personal data and formally sign the contract.

As for whether anyone will refuse, this is not within Yu Ge's consideration.

Will anyone refuse the offer of Miracle Company?

Even if someone refuses, someone from the company will handle it.

Have not heard...

Capital, can't it be refused?

In other words, since Hancheng was merged into the Republic, idols' activities in the Central District have become more and more active.

However, all of those 4 billion things that are demon-like and devilish are all forced into the army.

Since you have worked so hard, let's make a contribution to the Great Smecta universe.

Now, disappearing is their only contribution to serve the country!

Park Shin-hye is waiting for notice in the dressing room at Hudu Puhui Shopping Mall.

"Xinhui, are you ready?" The agent opened the door and kept tapping on the phone with his fingers.

As the top performer in film and television dramas, Xinhui's schedule is very full.

As her agent, naturally all aspects need to be coordinated to ensure that every minute is not wasted.

It's time for her to play today's role.

The agent will naturally come to see if she is ready.

The struggle in the women's circle is everywhere, especially in the entertainment circle, and the backstage is no exception.

Don't think that these makeup artists, props, and costumes are all easy to get along with.

Little people can pierce the sky. If these relationships are not handled properly, the other party only needs to move their hands and feet.

You can make your own celebrities make a fool of yourself in front of the camera and become a laughing stock!

Although it doesn't matter whether it is black or white, as long as it can be red.

But this 'black' must be planned and can turn red to black.

Is it going to be black all the way...

"It's almost there." Shin Hye got up and turned around when she saw the makeup artist nodding and leaving.

"Well, let me see." The agent stepped forward and checked her closely.

Fingers touched the waistline, sutures, zippers, and sling buckles.

Bring her to the light again to confirm the light transmittance...

He kept saying, "Wow, beautiful, our Shine is so beautiful."

"Teachers have worked hard, wow~ this look is really big." Like a casual conversation and appreciation, all the details are confirmed.

"Well, yes, thanks for your hard work." The agent bowed to the staff and thanked the staff, and everyone left the dressing room in return.

"Sister, you are too cautious." After everyone left, Park Shin Hye looked at the agent and said helplessly.

"What kind of caution, this is a must." The agent glared at her, and said, 'this heartless girl. '

What the world is now, the times have changed.

With the economic downturn, the Republic intends to crack down on negative traffic stars and rectify the entertainment industry.

Seoul is now following the disaster, and how many top people are thrown into the army to dig soil.

If there is a scandal at this time, no matter what the reason is, don't want to go on.

Does she really don't understand?

Asi~

"Xinhui, you must cheer, don't let my sister and the chairman down, our company has suffered a heavy loss this time."

"You also know that those senior oppas can't come out anymore. I and the chairman are all dependent on you."

The agent exhorted her in a soft-spoken way, hoping she could realize how unfavorable the situation is.

If we lose the cash cow, Park Shin-hye, the company will really close its doors.

"Inner, I know." Park Shin Hye responded tiredly and helplessly.

Because of the predecessors, her schedule has doubled as before, and she can't even sleep 4 hours a day.

Today I am in Seoul, I will be in the Central District tomorrow, and I may go to Neon again the day after tomorrow.

Every day is either flying or on the way to flying.

Not only have to participate in various ceremonies, commercial performances, and advertising endorsements.

Now I have to participate in this kind of special event at a third-rate mall...

Asi, so sad!

'I want to take a day off. Park Shin Hye was tired and sat on the sofa.

The short rest time is also precious to her.

"Mr. Park Shin Hye, it's time for you to appear." A knock on the door came from outside the door.

"Yes, we are ready." The agent who was fiddling with the phone hurriedly got up to respond and looked back at Xinhui.

She was asleep with her head tilted and leaning on the sofa.

"Hey, Park Shin Hye." The manager stomped his feet in annoyance, awakening Shin Hye with the sharp voice.

"Ah, what's the matter, elder sister?" Park Shin Hye jumped up in shock, panicking.

"What's wrong, it's time for you to play, what are you doing?"

The agent walked forward angrily and funny, and while checking the makeup, he said, "I know you are working hard, we can go back to the hotel to rest after a little more insistence."

"Okay." Park Shin Hye patted her cheek with her hand and hinted that she was cheering up.

Follow the manager's sister and plan to leave the dressing room together.

Ding Dong~

A new text message arrived on the agent's mobile phone, and he looked down, and his steps were frozen in place.

Park Shin Hye, who was still a little confused, didn't notice it at all, and ran straight into the agent's sister.

"Ah~ Sister, are you okay?" Park Shin Hye said hurriedly.

"Aigu, what should I do, sister, are you injured?"

Seeing the agent's sister standing in a daze, she was motionless like a fool.

Park Shin Hye was really scared.

Just when she was at a loss and wondered if she wanted to call someone to help.

"Ah~"

The agent suddenly jumped and screamed: "Haha, Dafa, Park Shin Hye, you are really Dafa, hahaha..."

Crazy, sister is crazy! !

It's over, the manager's sister was hit by herself.

How to do how to do? ? ?

"Sister, what are you talking about?" Park Shin Hye asked worriedly.

The agent grabbed her shoulders excitedly and shook her, shouting in a frantic expression: "You are on fire, you are on fire, silly girl."

???

There are countless question marks circling in Park Shin Hye's mind, "Sister, I'm already very hot."

A few minutes later, the agent left the mall with Park Shin Hye, who had returned to casual clothes.

The manager in charge of the event followed, "You can't do this, the event is about to begin."

"I'm sorry, we can't participate in this event. The specific compensation will be done in accordance with the contract. I'm sorry, I'm very sorry."

Pulling Park Shin Hye all the way into the car, the agent closed the door and turned him away.

Only then did I relax on the chair and let out a long breath: "Ah~Really."

"Sister, what the * is going on, why is it like this?" Park Shin Hye was still confused when she saw the store manager tapping the car window outside.

So far, she has no idea what happened.

"The miracle company is an invitation from the miracle company, Shinhui, you really won the jackpot this time."

The agent looked at her with relief, then remembered something and quickly picked up the phone.

"Ah~~"

"I almost forgot to reply to the other party, I have to communicate with the other party quickly."

"Xinhui, you have to be ready at any time. The other party will definitely meet with you before signing the contract to show your best condition, you know?"

"Sister, are you talking about the miracle group?"

After Park Shin Hye heard the word 'miracle', he was completely stupid.

Miracle company, is that miracle company?

She got an invitation from Miracle Company, what is it...

"Apart from that miracle company, what other company can there be?"

The agent gave her a funny glance, and quickly tapped his fingers on the virtual keyboard.

She needs to confirm with the other party first and make an appointment for the meeting.

Sign the contract as soon as possible. This is the safest way.

"Oh!"

Seeing the other party's reply, the agent patted her shoulder in surprise and said: "Xinhui, Xinhui, the other party really wants you!"

"Well, what?" Park Shin Hye asked in surprise.

She was still shocked by the invitation of Miracle Company, and she didn't hear what the agent's sister was saying at all.

"I mean, the other party is going to sign with us now, go now!"

The agent said excitedly: "Uncle driver, please come to this place."

"OK."

The driver stuck the agent's mobile phone on the armrest and drove away according to the navigation position.

"Ah, yes."

The agent clapped his hands in shock and said, "Clothes, and clothes."

"You can't dress like this to sign a contract, clothes, clothes..." The agent took out the spare dresses prepared in the back row to choose.

"This set."

"No, no, this set doesn't work."

"This set, this black set..."

"No, no, it's too revealing. Asi, who chose the clothes, is it an idiot?"

"Sister, these clothes are all you...you chose."

"Ah? Hahaha, right? I must have read it wrong, read it wrong, read it wrong."

When the car stopped at the Miracle Headquarters, Park Shin Hye had put on a short-sleeved skirt in Hawaiian style with simple white shoes on her feet. U U Reading www.uukanshu.com

The snow-white thighs were so exposed to the air, they were involuntarily shivered by the wind.

"Ah, it's cold." Park Shin Hye wrapped her arms around her, and stomped her feet tremblingly.

On November day, the big bare legs are indeed a bit too much.

After all, her bare legs are fakes wearing bare-legged artifacts, and there are few real guns like her.

Look up at the building ahead, with the big characters 'Miracle Company' on it.

It seemed to be shining with golden light, full of the smell of chaebol.

Chaebol, chaebol!

Even if it is the most powerful Sanxin Group in Hancheng District, you have to bow your head in front of it.

I heard that Chairman Li Zhen of the three-core chaebol is also his woman.

I really want to see that man full of legends, what does a real person look like?

Is it really super handsome and stylish like the rumors of the outside world?

Moreover, everything will be done.

In the rumors, he is an omnipotent legend.

"Okay, let's go in!"

The agent jumped out of the car and saw her standing in a daze, pulling her to the headquarters lobby.

"Sister, shall we just go up like this?" Park Shin Hye stumbling nervously asked.

"Otherwise, what do you want, do you want to blow cold wind here?"

Leading her all the way into the lobby, the agent came to the front desk and said: "Anihasai, I am Park Shin Hyeseo's agent, and I am here to sign a contract with your company."

"Well, Park Shin Hye, right?"

The front desk dialed the inside line, said something softly, and said to the agent: "Please wait a moment, Secretary Xu will come down immediately and take you to see Dong Qin."

"Huh, huh?"

The agent blinked, suppressing the shock in his heart and trembling: "Well, that, that Qin Dong, does it mean that the meeting will be... the president?"

Chapter 1076: Fascinated

Please support genuine reading! !

In the VIP straight through the elevator, the agent and Park Shin Hye stood behind Xu Meixin, even breathing carefully.

The back view in front of them is an unattainable mountain in Hancheng.

Secretary-General Xu Meixin, President of Miracle Company, and absolute confidant of Qin Yu.

is the person he trusts most!

The other party sent such a big person to greet him and Shine, is it just for a cooperation?

looked at Shin Hye's lovely face, enchanting * figure and tender white thighs.

"Gudong~" The agent swallowed saliva.

Even if she looks at it, she will be heart-stricken, how can a normal man be able to hold it.

So, the rumors about him are true?

The agent began to worry whether this meeting would go as smoothly as he expected.

Ding!

The elevator reaches the top floor.

Xu Meixin smiled sideways and said, "Here, please, please."

"Thank you." Nodding and bowing, the agent and Park Shin Hye, like Grandma Liu, entered the Grand View Garden.

carefully looked at everything around him, as if the whole world was full of novelty and unknown.

The decoration around is different from what I imagined.

Concise, generous, bright, without cumbersome decoration and artwork.

Even the pictures on the wall are some kind of strange mechanical parts.

Park Shin Hye doesn't understand these things, but feels that the parts in the photos are exquisite and ingenious.

The sorting of gears gives a natural feeling of 'just as it should'.

bypassing the partition made of wooden bookshelves, the wood-grain door at the end comes into view.

There, you can see the man.

The aura on the other person's body brings psychological pressure like a mountain pressing in my heart...

In a class-solidified, distinguished world like Hancheng.

The founder and chairman of the miracle company who can make the three cores yield to them is like a god.

You can decide your own destiny with just one word and deed.

even life and death!

When a person's fate, life and death are completely in the hands of others, how can one be not afraid?

"Boss, Park Shin Hye and Miss Manager are here." Xu Meixin knocked on the door and whispered against the door.

"Please come in." A voice came from the room.

Xu Meixin opened the door and walked into the room first. The agent followed up and found that Park Shin Hye stayed where she was thinking.

pulled her into the room with a strong pull, and Park Shin Hye also saw the man who had fantasized in his mind countless times.

is taller than I thought, tall and tall, and dressed casually.

But even so, it can be seen that his muscles are very strong.

The moment he turned around, Park Shin-hye was suffocated by the handsome face...

So handsome, really handsome!

How can someone be so handsome, tough, calm, with sword eyebrows and stars.

There is a kind of frivolous smug in his warm smile.

Park Shin Hye's eyes widened in shock, and his handsome face overlapped with the fuzzy face of the male * in his dream.

This is simply...

Park Shin Hye does not know how to describe her, her heart has become a mess.

"Miss Park, Miss Park?" Qin Yu tried to wake her up when she found that Park Shin-hye's eyes were dull.

"Yes, President Qin."

Park Shin Hye bowed ninety degrees, stretched out both hands to hold Qin Yu's hand respectfully and said: "It's a great honor to see you in person, you are like a legend to me."

"Yes?"

Qin Yu asked with a smile, "In my impression, legends are used to describe deceased people."

"Huh? I'm sorry, I don't know..." Park Shin Hye explained hurriedly when she was scared.

Qin Yu laughed loudly and said: "I just made a joke with you, you are too nervous."

took his hand out of the opponent's hand, and Qin Yu asked them to sit on the sofa.

"Secretary Xu, give me a cup of tea and a cup of coffee for each of the two ladies."

After Qin Yu ordered, he looked at the agent and Park Shin-hye and said, "Is coffee okay?"

"Yes, I'm sorry to trouble you." The two turned to Xu Meixin and nodded in thanks.

While waiting for a drink, Qin Yu looked at the two with a smile and asked some short trivia about the parents.

is like "eating habits? What do you like to eat?"

"Which hotel has a nice view, where is it worth seeing, and what historical meaning it has."

"What is your impression of Chuo-gu, compared to Hancheng?"

"Do Shine have any hobbies?"

After such conversations were over, Qin Yu had already called her "Xinhui".

Park Shin Hye also kindly called him: "Oh Oppa!"

"Why, is Shinhui shy?"

Qin Yu smiled and patted the armrest of the sofa kindly, and said: "Very famous black tea, taste it, it can relieve fatigue and relieve stress."

"Thank you very much." The two turned to Xu Meixin again and nodded in thanks.

then faced Qin Yu and bowed to thank him. Then he held the tea cup in both hands and sipped it.

The agent has been waiting for Qin Yu to talk about the contract.

But he didn't mean this from beginning to end, which made the agent worry about it.

Whether the other party is suggesting that he or she should take the initiative to express sincerity.

How do you really want to send Shinhui out?

The corner of her eye looked at Park Shin-hye. When she lowered her head to drink tea, she would quietly look up at the opposite side from time to time.

aware of Qin Yu's gaze, he immediately looked away, like a frightened deer.

This overwhelmingly shy performance is clearly because he likes the other party.

Just, "This silly girl, do you know what you are doing?"

"That... President, is Shine really selected?"

"Goddess, we Shine have always wanted to be one of them!"

The agent still decided to try Qin Yu's tone.

"Oh, isn't it?" Qin Yu looked at Park Shin Hye, wanting to hear her tell herself.

"Yes, this is my dream." Park Shin Hye nodded cautiously.

suddenly turned the topic to work, which made her nervous again.

"Well, this time Shin Hye is the only one selected in Hancheng District, and the other two candidates are from the Central District."

"Ah, that's great, thank you for your respect."

"We Xinhui will definitely redouble our efforts to repay the president."

The agent nodded and bowed, and kept thanking him.

"Leave these for later, Secretary Xu, come over the contract." Qin Yu ordered.

Xu Meixin went to get the contract, Park Shin Hye lowered his head to drink tea, the agent said all that should be said.

All she can do is keep an awkward and polite smile.

After a while, Xu Meixin brought the contract back and invited her agent to confirm with her.

There were only Qin Yu and Park Shin-hye in front of the sofa, and she relaxed again.

"Your agent cares about you very much."

Qin Yu looked back at the agent who was carefully reviewing the terms in the sofa area next door.

The other party is really dedicated, and the careful thought before can not escape Brother Yu's eyes.

Changing to another agent, I'm afraid I would have long wanted to push Park Shin Hye into his arms.

Good in exchange for resources, topics, traffic, whatever you want.

Even if you don't get anything, as long as things really happen.

Back to Hancheng District, relying on the fact that he had a close relationship with Qin Yu.

can also bring her great benefits, so that she will not be troubled and get more care and opportunities.

But she is different.

Since entering the door, he has been stuck between the two, trying to keep the distance between them.

The relationship between Qin Yu and Park Shin Hye is limited to work!

"Yes, Mihwa has always taken care of me, just like my sister." Park Shin Hye smiled sweetly.

I feel very lucky to be able to meet an agent like Lin Meihua.

In Hancheng District, 90% of the agents of women's groups or female artists are men.

Before there was a big hit, compulsory control, threats, reprimands and even insults were common.

Park Shin Hye is very lucky. Lin Mihwa was leading her from the beginning.

And she also became popular with the idol drama, and did not live up to the trust of the other party.

These years, under the care and support of Lin Meihua.

My career is getting better and better, and I have never had a negative scandal.

The cooperation between each other is very satisfied in all aspects.

Park Shin Hye often feels that she is not her agent.

But I really care about my family, my sister, and will take care of everything for myself.

Let yourself just work with confidence and do your job well.

Without her, Park Shin Hye would not know if she could live a normal life!

"What an enviable feeling."

Qin Yu took a sip of tea, and asked, "Does Xinhui have any plans to stay and develop?"

"Chairman, I don't quite understand what you mean." It's not that Park Shin Hye doesn't understand, but he doesn't quite believe in his own understanding.

Is he inviting himself to join his company?

Under the company of Miracle, it seems that there is no entertainment or brokerage company!

"I personally invest in the entertainment industry, a well-developed company, famous for the world studio."

"I will ask someone to give you the details of the fame, UU read www.uukanshu.com and consider it after reading it." Hearing the footsteps behind him, Qin Yu closed his voice and drank tea.

As for what the other party will do next, it depends on Park Shin Hye's own choice and the company's correction.

Secretary Xu will let her know that joining Fame is the wisest choice.

The reason why Qin Yu values Park Shin Hye is not only because of his hobby.

Or simply take the scanned data as the starting point.

Park Shin Hye's acting skills and abilities are also very important factors.

Yu brother is very optimistic about her future development. Even in the future world, pan-entertainment is needed to satisfy the empty defects of human spirit.

"I will seriously consider...Ouba!" Park Shin Hye said seriously.

The agent who signed the contract and Xu Meixin came back, "Xinhui, thank you for your care, the chairman. The contract has been signed."

"Well, I see, Mihwa Sister." Park Shin Hye smiled and said, "Thank you Oppa."

"It seems that everything is settled, Secretary Xu."

"You will arrange the accommodation and reception yourself."

Hearing Qin Yu's order, Xu Mei nodded and smiled: "Okay, boss."

"Ms. Lin, Ms. Park, please come with me." She wants to take the two to meet the filming team first, and finalize the working hours and details.

Watching Park Shin-hye leave, Qin Yu squinted for unknown reasons.

After a long time, he shook his head dumbfoundedly and said: "It's really protected!"

Chapter 1077: magic

After Park Shin Hye, Qin Yu met Li Xin and Song Tie separately. Watermark advertising testWatermark advertising test

It took a long time to meet Song Tie, and it was not the first time they met.

I'm an old acquaintance, so naturally it takes some time to relive the past...

It's Li Xin, it's the first time we have met each other.

The face is beautiful, the facial features are exquisitely marked, and the thin body has a delicate beauty.

Du Liniang's experience has given her a little more control and thoroughness of emotions in operas, and her interpretation of roles is often surprising.

Although it's not superb acting, but it's by no means a mere vase.

In terms of defects, the skin on the face is slightly dull due to long-term makeup and staying up late.

In terms of figure, Yingying's grasp of the mind is not a disadvantage compared to her figure.

The signing process went smoothly, because Lu Qing was sitting next to him, and Qin Yu did not communicate with her too much.

However, after Li Xin left, she felt a lot of emotion in her heart.

So young, so handsome...

Even if he was used to seeing the so-called fairy appearance in the entertainment industry, Li Xin was still surprised by his looks.

How could someone be so perfect, God is really unfair.

In the past, Li Xin listened to others to describe herself. She didn't expect to be used by herself to describe other people.

Besides, the other party is still a man...

More importantly, the opponent is not only handsome, but also impeccable in ability.

Miracle Company, the greatest innovation-led enterprise in the 21st century, has created countless miracles with one hand.

Lead mankind to the interstellar age and start interstellar immigration.

Invented the interstellar spacecraft, controlled cold nuclear fusion.

Unravel the mystery of human genes and create 'genetic engineering' to meet future needs.

Create a second world, a virtual world... a monster...

ai artificial intelligence...

Exoskeleton mecha, power armor, change the new form of world war.

Energy innovation, technological innovation...

The whole world was turned upside down by him, and because of his existence, the Galactic Republic was established.

Such a man has a halo that is even more dazzling than the sun.

He satisfies all women's illusions about the ideal type, like a perfect existence that shouldn't be there.

Faced with such a man, no woman can restrain her inner throbbing.

Li Xin is no exception, setting aside career and star halo.

She is also a normal woman who can imagine how perfect her partner is.

Therefore, in the face of such a perfect existence, how could Li Xin be unmoved.

Just thinking of the other party's romantic rumors, Li Xin dispelled the idea.

With such a romantic guy, you will definitely be hurt deeply in the end, right? ? ?

In the office, Qin Yu is talking to Lu Qing about her work.

"The children are almost gone, the remaining two can also be transferred to the town primary school, you don't need to stay anymore."

Qin Yu has been paying attention to the situation of Xiawa Village Primary School.

The students there either graduated or were taken away by their parents who worked in other places.

Some were transferred to the town primary school.

Although I am very grateful to Lu Qing for his dedication to elementary school, who is unwilling to let his children receive a better education.

After all, the conditions of Xiaowa Village Elementary School are limited, and even the teachers are not equipped!

To say that it satisfies basic education is a reluctant compliment, but how can it be considered good.

Lu Qing has tried his best, but it is nothing, the hard work will have results and rewards.

"Yeah." Lu Qing replied thoughtfully.

"What's wrong, can't you bear it?" Qin Yu put her arms in her arms and asked a little on her nose.

"no."

Lu Qing shook his head, and said in a daze, "I just lost my target suddenly, I don't know what to do next."

"There is still much you can do. The most important thing is to live your own life." Qin Yu held her shoulders and looked at each other.

"Life has just begun, how can you lose your goal? Don't use this old-fashioned tone, it will make me think you are very old."

Seeing his molesting smile on his face, Lu Qing angrily hit him on the chest with a small fist: "I hate it, you're old, you're old."

"Yes, yes, I'm old, I'm an old monster who eats little white rabbits." Qin Yu laughed and hugged her in his arms, and rolled over on the sofa.

After a long time, Lu Qing curled up in his arms, feeling the scorching residual warmth and whispered: "Every time the goddess, do you interview in person?"

"Not every time, just in time, I will interview in person when I have time." Qin Yu responded casually.

"Really?" Lu Qing said with a teasing smile: "Isn't it because the other person is pretty?"

"is it beautiful?"

Qin Yu blinked innocently and said, "Why don't I realize it, it's not half as good as our Qingqing."

Grinning gracefully, Lu Qing patted his chest and said, "Slick tone."

"I am not only glib, but also glib, just to you... how about it?" Qin Yu exhaled in her ear.

"Yeah~" Lu Qing twisted her body uncomfortably, moaning mosquitoes and whispering strangely.

Goodbye Li Xin is two weeks later, they will officially start shooting.

"Coffee?" At the shooting scene, Qin Yu handed the coffee in his hand to Li Xin who was waiting to be shot.

"Thank you, no..." Before she could refuse, she already had more coffee in her hand.

The heat of the coffee made her feel warm, Li Xin no longer refused to take a sip, the heat flowed into the body along the throat.

It refreshed her whole person and dispelled all the cold, "Thank you."

This fall, I finally felt the normal temperature, no longer the strange environment of hot and cold.

This is the first time in recent years that the climate feels normal.

It was also the best year for the autumn models.

"You're welcome."

Qin Yu smiled and said: "Don't always put on an attitude of rejecting people thousands of miles away, there is nothing wrong with being friendly."

Hearing him say this, Li Xin showed an awkward expression: "I am not... I am not like this normally."

"Oh, when did it...because of me?" Qin Yu shrugged and said, "What did I do?"

"No, no."

Li Xin hurriedly explained: "You didn't do anything, it's my problem."

"What problem, maybe I can solve it for you."

Qin Yu said casually: "Some people say that money can solve 99% of the problems, and I hope your problems are within that 99%."

"Actually I am quite rich."

Li Xin sipped his coffee and chuckled softly: "Although you are not as rich as you, there are still some."

"Well, it seems I guessed wrong."

Qin Yu said innocently: "The remaining 1% is exactly what I am good at."

"So, do you want to help?"

Seeing his sincere gaze, Li turned his head to the other side with a guilty conscience, and said in a flustered tone: "It's okay, I'm just in a bad mood."

"Do you like magic?" Qin Yu raised his hands, letting her forearms and palms completely exposed in her sight.

The moment she turned her head, Qin Yu's palm flashed in front of her.

Then she rubbed her fingers, and an inky black metal rose appeared in front of her eyes.

Turning the fingertips, the metal scattered like dust and disappeared into the air.

Under Li Xin's incredible gaze, Qin Yu folded his hands on his chest, and suddenly stretched to the left and right.

A thin sheet of metal with the width of the palm stretches and lengthens with the movements of the hands.

There are dents on the surface of the sheet, one by one.

The wandering scrolls are presented on the thin slices, as if there is an invisible pen with a subtle and agile, leaving behind a masterpiece that shocks the world.

Then, the villain on the whole sheet moved.

Make a variety of interesting actions vividly, and the uniform color begins to change.

When the villain showed a colorful picture, Li Xin screamed and covered her mouth, pointing her right index finger to the metal scroll.

The villain on the top turned out to be hers.

The delicate lips and teeth, the cold arrogance between the eyebrows, the enchanting behavior and demeanor.

Even the hair on the temples is so real, as if there is really another self living in the metal picture scroll.

I am showing myself her colorful and happy life.

When the villain on the picture scrolls his feet and blows a kiss, he hides his face and runs away, gradually shrinking until he disappears in the picture scroll.

Qin Yu squeezed his hands inward again, folding his palms together.

Snapped!

All the phantoms disappeared. Looking at his naturally falling hands, Li Xin finally came back to her senses: "How did you do it?"

Qin Yu put his hands in his pockets and said with a smile, "Is it impolite to ask the magician?"

"Sorry, I didn't know that you still have the identity of a magician." Li Xin pursed her lips and chuckled, "So, how many girls did you fool with this?"

"If I say, you are the first one?" Qin Yu said.

"..." Li Xin wanted to refute his lie, but faced his staring gaze.

Suddenly, she couldn't even say a word, but she felt ashamed to escape.

"Xinxin, it's up to you, go and prepare." The agent called Li Xin to prepare, and nodded in tribute to Qin Yu.

"I'm leaving now." Li Xin almost ran away from him.

If she stayed any longer, she didn't know what she would do or how to deal with Qin Yu's tricks and methods.

Yes, she knows that these are all methods and routines.

But why, don't you feel annoying in my heart?

Instead, he thinks he is very attractive, this bad temperament is more attractive than any other * in the past.

Li Xin began to suspect that his heart was falling.

But she had nothing to do about it, and she even had expectations deep in her heart.

Who would reject what she really wants, even if she hasn't realized it yet.

Instinct and subconscious will help her make favorable judgments.

The behavioral language reveals her true inner thoughts.

It's just that Brother Yu doesn't need to observe these details, even if he notices it, he doesn't care.

Because he has more direct evidence than body language!

Chapter 1078: promise

At the end of the shooting, Song Tie stood silently beside Qin Yu and found that he was staring at Li Xin who was shooting without blinking. Watermark advertising testWatermark advertising test

Curious and funny, he patted his shoulder: "Hey, look silly."

"I'm observing her performance. You are the face of miracles." Qin Yu smiled naturally, and put his hands around his chest.

"Your excuse is not reliable at all!" Song Tie curled his lips mischievously, his face full of mockery.

"Yes?"

Brother Yu laughed helplessly, and said: "What do you want to hear, I am greedy for her body?"

Hearing the truth, it was not as comfortable as Song Tie had imagined.

On the contrary, he felt extremely uncomfortable, and there was an urge to escape.

"It's better to be the first one." Song Tie decided to forget the conversation just now, they didn't say anything.

"I said it." Qin Yu looked at her with an expression of 'I said it a long time ago'.

"Is this filming a reward?" Song Tie asked with a weird expression: "So, what are we between?"

"What do you think?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically.

"You are willing to exchange capital." Song Tie asked with a defiant eyebrow, as if this way she would not get hurt.

"maybe..."

Seeing her eyes drooping, her hands clenched fists and clenched unconsciously, controlling the body that wanted to tremble.

Qin Yu laughed lightly: "Maybe, it's a thrilling emotional adventure."

"Adventure?" Song Tie laughed at himself: "Relationships shouldn't be an adventure."

"Emotion is an adventure." Qin Yu said categorically.

With a light natural smile on his face, he did not flinch from Song Tie's questioning gaze.

"At the beginning of a relationship, no one knows how it will turn out!"

"So, in essence it is an adventure."

"Invest in a huge risk, it may be completely defeated, and there will be no chance of turning over again."

"It's also possible to reap a full load and enjoy a lifetime!" Qin Yu looked at her eyes seriously, and said: "Do you know? I'm not good at losing..."

"Me too."

Song Tie looked at him and said with a serious expression: "Before I met you, I was always a strong person and never gave up."

"It's the same now, do you think you will lose?" Qin Yu asked rhetorically.

Song Tie looked at him and didn't know how to answer.

She wanted to tell herself that Qin Yu would not let herself lose, even if she put all the bets on him.

But reality made her unable to convince herself.

His heart is too big, too broad!

I can't fill it alone...

Song Tie didn't even know how many people could fill his heart.

Or, there is only one place in his heart.

That way, the result was even worse than before.

Because she knew very well that she would never be the only one.

The more I thought about Song Tie's heart, the more uncomfortable, tears could not help but welled up.

She also didn't understand why she was so deeply invested in this relationship and became what she is now.

Suffering from gains and losses, because a man becomes neurotic.

All she knows is that she has fallen into it...

Uncontrollably fell into his trap, let it be at his mercy but willingly.

"Baby, you won't lose." Qin Yu put his hand on her back and gently stroked it up and down.

Each movement is so gentle, so that her fluctuating emotions can be calmed down.

"Is this your promise?" Wiping away the tears from the corner of his eyes, Song Tiehong looked at him with a gaze, wanting an affirmative answer.

The corner of Qin Yu's mouth raised, and he nodded firmly and said: "Yes, this is my promise to you."

"Promise me, don't let me lose, I won't be able to stand it." Song Tie put his head on his shoulder and whispered softly.

"No, you won't lose." Qin Yu repeated her assurance, lowering her head and kissing her assurance on her forehead.

This scene was seen by Park Shin-hye who was preparing.

Similarly, she did not escape the sight of Li Xin who was filming. She has been paying attention to Qin Yu's every move.

Even if you tell yourself countless times in your heart, "Don't do this, he has nothing to do with you."

However, his eyes seemed to be equipped with a positioning radar, and they were thrown at Qin Yu uncontrollably again and again.

In sight, what Li Xin saw was proof of Qin Yu's carelessness.

He was showing his own sentiment in an upright manner, shining like the sun.

The feedback I got inside was, "He looks so gentle and considerate, and I really want to be comforted by himself."

Reason warned, "Li Xin, your brain is broken, what are you thinking about?"

But her instinct drove her to use her association, replacing Song Tie in her sight with herself.

"Xin Xin, Li Xin, hey~" The agent clapped his hands vigorously, and finally Li Xin, who was distracted, came back to her senses.

"What are you doing, concentrate on taking pictures, don't think about messy things." The agent said with an ugly expression.

The photographer's face is gloomy, this is the queen photographer of Miracle Company.

If the other party is dissatisfied, the final film will not be as beautiful as Park Shin Hye and Song Tie.

Isn't she going to make green leaves for the two of them, this can't be done!

"Focus, do you know what to focus on?" The agent urged over and over again.

After turning around and leaving, I went to the photographer's side and said in kindness: "Teacher, Xinxin's recent sleep quality is very poor, and the energy is not good. Please forgive me."

"Yeah~" He hummed tepidly, and the photographer was about to start shooting again.

With a hand on his shoulder, the anger in his heart was soaring, "Who, I don't know about the film... the boss."

The anger that went straight to the forehead caused the ice cubes frozen in the cold water to be directly smashed out.

He was angry with the boss just now...

A little photographer himself, he even showed his boss's face.

The photographer's expression was about to collapse, and everyone was stupid.

"Okay, leave it to me here, you go down first!" Qin Yu snatched the equipment from his hand, and walked towards the photography position calmly.

"Okay, I will come to shoot in person next, thank you for your cooperation." Qin Yu smiled to the staff present.

Raise the lens and adjust it slightly, "Miss Li Xin, relax and show your best side. Don't let me down."

Li Xin's temperament changed drastically when he heard what he said.

Elegant and arrogant, charming with a hint of shyness, generous and introverted, full of contradictory temperament to light up the whole room.

At this moment, she is the truly dazzling sun.

Click, click...

The shutter sounded frequently, and the room remained absolutely quiet.

Even Qin Yu didn't make any sound, but kept adjusting the shooting angle with her movements.

Gesturing to the light from time to time, let the other party cooperate with their shooting.

It seemed that in a moment, Qin Yu got the desired effect, and smiled satisfied and let go of the equipment in his hand.

"Perfect." Qin Yu applauded.

Wow~

There was enthusiastic applause, and everyone agreed and praised Li Xin's previous performance.

And Qin Yu, before checking the effect of Song Tie's shooting.

It looks good, but it's a bit short of what he wants.

It's not a matter of technology, performance, the photographer did not inspire the potential charm of Song Tie.

This is not to blame him, not everyone can stimulate the potential of the model.

"Re-dress and change the clothes for Miss Song. When Shin Hye is finished filming, she will re-shoot all of her."

Qin Yu looked down at the film in the equipment, and when he heard what he said, someone naturally reorganized it.

When Park Shin Hye played, Song Tieren had gone backstage to make up and change clothes.

The reshoot was replaced halfway, not only did not delay the shooting plan, but ended half an hour earlier than expected.

Qin Yu's efficiency is too fast, much faster than expected.

He can always inadvertently capture the effect he wants...

Even if the model fails to cooperate, he can create and find the best angle and light source by himself.

"Are you sure this is all right?" The three women surrounded Qin Yu, scrambling to see what they looked like under the camera.

Qin Yu's shooting process is very fast, giving people a sense of casual freedom.

But as a star, the last thing they need is casualness.

Every photo, every action, every sentence, every outfit...

Even the things you need to bring when you travel, you must consider the brand and collocation, and everything is well-designed.

As long as it is for the public, truthfulness is the feature they least need.

That's why, celebrities will eventually overturn!

Because he/she in front of the screen is fake and does not exist...

They just meet the fan's fantasies according to the needs of the market, and perfectly present the characteristics they want to the market and the audience.

As for whether that person is himself or not, who is it?

No one cares, not even the fans themselves.

He only needs his idols, who behave as he imagined.

that's enough!

Therefore, they need to make sure that Qin Yu's works are not so real.

At least he will not present his truest side in front of fans and audiences.

"Ah~"

Li Xin was the first one, seeing her own film, she couldn't believe her eyes.

In this photo, it is really herself. Li Xin needs to look at her face carefully before she can be sure that she is right.

So beautiful!

The feet looked up at the sky, the left hand naturally leaned back, and the right hand stretched forward and stroked, as if to touch something.

Li Xin in the photo is full of spirits, and his whole body exudes a holy halo.

The smile on his face is not stained with dust, pure as a newborn child.

No matter what beautiful words are used to describe it, it is not an exaggeration at this moment...

Park Shin Hye and Song Tie stared enviously at Song Tie in the photo, unwilling to let go of any details.

At the same time, my heart is full of expectations for my photos.

She is so beautiful...

Well, UU reading www. How about uukanshu.com yourself?

After watching all the films, the three women's emotions towards Qin Yu are the same.

Excited, surging, full of admiration!

He is simply incredible, how can anyone really do it.

Even if they saw it with their own eyes, they still couldn't believe that the photos they saw were all real.

Until Qin Yu asked him to enlarge and print out the negatives, and put them in front of the owner.

They dare to believe that they are really so good.

Better than I thought, perfect...

"Thank you."

Li excitedly hugged Qin Yu, his eyes were reluctant to leave the photo and kissed him on the cheek, and said, "You let me discover a more beautiful side of myself, thank you, thank you."

Chapter 1079: initiative

When the whole shooting is over, the negatives are handed over to the workers behind the scenes.

Qin Yu and the girls went to the hotel to celebrate. It was a day worth celebrating.

In the box, everyone toasted to celebrate the smooth cooperation.

"Sister Meihua and the others are okay?" Park Shin Hye was a little worried when she didn't see her agent.

The others are the hosts and masters.

They can take care of themselves, only they and Meihua are from Hancheng District.

Therefore, she was worried that Miss Meihua would be uncomfortable or feel uneasy without her company.

"They are right next door, with the staff."

Qin Yu pointed to the next room and asked, "Should you ask them to come together?"

"No, no need." Park Shin Hye waved his hand again and again.

She didn't want to be the one to be a disappointment, whether it was Li Xin or Song Tie next to her.

They don't seem to want someone to interrupt the party.

Even myself is superfluous...

Park Shin Hye can perceive their hostility towards themselves, not only in their identity, what they have done, their looks, and other things.

There is another important reason, xenophobia!

This is the inherent instinct of living things, even human beings are no exceptions as advanced animals.

Besides, he is still a potential threat.

From the shooting to the end, such a long time has been enough for Park Shin-hye to understand the current situation.

Both of them liked Chairman Qin, and Song Tie had the upper hand for the time being.

They have had a very close relationship.

It's not a kid.

Park Shin Hye still has this power of observation.

Li Xin wants to get in and do three small...

Maybe it should be called another name: confidant!

There is more than one confidant beside him, Miss Song Tie should be very clear, right?

Looking at Qin Yu, the other party responded with a smile, causing Park Shin Hye to lower her head in a panic.

The heart was like a fawn, beating in panic.

It's really hard to resist his charm, why would anyone be so perfect, Asi...

Park Shin Hye fanned her hand and drank the herbal tea in the cup.

And she did not realize that she accidentally drank the wine as herbal tea.

It wasn't until the aftertaste came up that Park Shin Hye suddenly reacted, "Ha...spicy...ha, ha, water, gudong..."

Park Shin Hye gulped down after receiving the tea cup delivered to her eyes.

So spicy, so spicy!

After drinking several cups of tea in a row, she felt better.

"Xinhui's drink volume seems to be very good, and he drank it all in one go." Qin Yu smiled and squinted up the wine glass and drank his head up.

The guests are so bold, how could this owner be rude.

Park Shin Hye was embarrassed and didn't know how to respond, tacitly accepting the other's praise.

In my heart, he scolded himself a dog-blood spray.

Careless, careless.

If this goes on, he will definitely get drunk.

However, it doesn't seem to feel anything!

"Drink, I need... and... Oppa..." Park Shin Hye flushed with watery eyes.

His eyesight was blurred, and he was shaking his teacup, looking for someone to toast.

Park Shin Hye, who had the stamina, became like this with a cup.

So Qin Yu took out the wine cup logically and gave her a tea cup to continue drinking.

"cheers."

Qin Yu touched her, looked at Li Xin and Song Tie, and said, "Drink slowly, I don't want to drink three drunks together."

"Oba..."

The jealous Song Tie followed the way of Park Shin Hye, shaking his body and said coquettishly.

The look of madness can melt the bones.

"Sounds good, call it a few more times."

Qin Yu raised his head happily, 'zizily' tasting the glass of wine.

Seeing his cheeky appearance, Song Tie hummed annoyedly: "If you want to be beautiful, people don't want it!"

The shy attitude of this little daughter is more attractive than before.

Li Xin watched the two flirting and cursing, with her white teeth biting her lower lip, bleeding quickly.

If Song Tie weren't there, maybe she wouldn't have noticed it yet.

But at this moment, watching the interaction between the other party and Qin Yu actually stimulated her.

Why can she do it, I can't?

Is this nuclear lithium?

Whether it is to fight for breath or to prove its nuclear lithium nature, Li Xin began to interact with Qin Yu frequently.

However, Li Xin's face was still too thin.

It's like learning from Park Shin Hye and Song Tie to act like "Oba" and "Brother", but she can't do it.

Obviously people in their 30s, bah, shameless!

"Dong Qin, I will toast you again." Relying on the good amount of alcohol, Li Xin opened the way with wine.

Brother Yu also refused to come and quietly started 'Happy Hour.'

After a few cups, Li Xin looked at him with blurred and affectionate eyes, strong male hormones.

Like a deadly and dreamy poison, it penetrates into the body bit by bit until it reaches the soul.

I don't know when, half of Li Xin's body was in his arms.

Looking at Song Tie, who was overturned, Brother Yu laughed dumbly and fought each other...activated...

The celebration banquet lasted until midnight, and Li Xin and Song Tie returned to their rooms under the supervision of their agents.

Only Park Shin-hye stayed, leaving Lin Meihua tossing and turning all night, unable to sleep.

When I saw her again the next day, Lin Meihua's mouth was like a machine gun.

"Xinhui, you won't really..."

"Axi, what do you think, you silly girl?"

She doesn't know that doing this is not good for herself?

These capital predators, the practice of throwing them away when they are used up, have told her how many times.

In addition to being used as a plaything, what benefits can she have.

Why doesn't she understand this crazy girl?

"Ah...what are you going to do now?"

"Oh, West..."

Park Shin Hye didn't respond to emotional criticism.

Leaning on the sofa with loose eyes, her mind ran out of the Nine Clouds a long time ago, and Lin Meihua didn't hear a word of what she said.

The radiant look was quite different from the past.

Seeing her energetic performance, Lin Meihua could only accept this helpless fact.

Now, she has to arrange the next itinerary.

Taking advantage of Park Shin Hye's energetic and abnormally good condition, I rushed out a few more announcements.

This is the end of the matter, Lin Meihua can only hope.

After she recognizes reality, she won't be so impulsive and reckless next time.

Give it away for nothing.

Keng Keng...

Stepping forward to open the door, Xu Meixin came.

Lin Meihua was taken aback for a moment, and smiled like a flower: "Secretary Xu, do you have any instructions from the president?"

"Lin Broker."

Xu Meixin smiled and said, "May I go in and talk?"

"Of course, please come in, Secretary Xu, these days are too busy, I have forgotten the etiquette, what would you like to drink?"

"Don't bother, sit down and talk."

After Lin Meihua sat down, Xu Meixin said, "The boss doesn't want Miss Xinhui to work too hard. I hope she can rest for a few days.

Later, a new contract will be delivered, and the company decided to hire her as the image spokesperson for Dahan City. "

"In the later period, we will put a large number of advertisements in various channels to increase the exposure of Miss Xinhui."

"Also prepare a few suitable roles for her. Please Ms. Xinhui to choose suitable roles."

Hear a series of arrangements, including the famous awards ceremony in Chuo District, red carpet and speed car endorsements.

Lin Meihua is stupid, is this the master's handwriting?

The other party was not a white prostitute, which was quite different from what she thought.

"Secretary Xu, how many people are there in the endorsement of Speed, are they global?"

Lin Meihua tried her best to stay calm, but her heart was hot.

This time, Xinhui was really lucky.

"The endorsement of Hancheng District, 6 candidates are tentatively selected, and the list will be sent over later."

Xu Meixin didn't mean to laugh at Lin Meihua's conjecture.

A soldier who doesn't want to be a general is not a good star.

It's normal to want to be famous.

It's just that she thinks too far in terms of global endorsements.

With the current topical attention of Speed, only the endorsement of Hancheng District is already an exception.

"Then I will leave first." Xu Meixin got up and said goodbye.

Lin Meihua personally sent her out, looking at her after she left.

Then he ran back to the room like flying, pulling Park Shin Hye and saying loudly, "Xin Hye, we are going to make a fortune."

Park Shin Hye looked at her happy, nodded cooperatively and said, "Well, Sister Mihwa, can I take a day off?"

I thought the other party would refuse, but Lin Meihua said without hesitation: "Resting, just rest."

"This time, you can rest for a few days if you want. I'll arrange the next schedule. They dare not say anything."

Under Park Shin Hye's surprised gaze, Lin Meihua took her mobile phone to the meeting room to arrange follow-up event announcements.

Of course, all of these activities cannot be dismissed, otherwise, the liquidated damages alone could make the company go bankrupt.

But part of it was pushed back, and the others were postponed.

I believe they will be happy to cooperate with her on the itinerary when they learn that Park Shin-hye will film the speed car as an endorsement.

When Park Shin-hye finishes taking the endorsement of the speed car, his value will inevitably double.

At the cost of one dollar, you can do a ten-dollar thing.

Who refuses, who will refuse?

Please do more of this kind of good thing! ! !

After dialing the phone and hearing the eager and polite answer from the other party, Lin Meihua was fluttering with her flattering attitude.

At this moment, she no longer felt that Park Shin Hye was making a fool.

The luck of this girl is also great.

Later, Li Xin and Song Tie also received invitations to endorse the advertisements in the Central District of Speed.

The endorsement fee is not high this time, just the normal market price!

But the influence, popularity and recognition brought by this advertisement can make them ascend to the sky in one step.

The net worth can be doubled if nothing is said, and the hidden income is more valuable than the money in hand.

It would be great if we can maintain a long-term cooperative relationship with Miracle.

In other words, is it possible that the miraculous spacecraft needs an endorsement in the future?

Li Xin's agent, who first thought of this, looked forward to the future a little bit more.

As she thought, this time it was really profitable.

As for the personal relationship between the artist and the boss, it is all trivial.

Whenever there is a need to meet in the future, the broker will not only not block, but will also actively cooperate.

Or the boss directly orders, he can arrange it.

The agent doesn't resist at all like this kind of person who has contacts and doesn't play prostitution.

Instead, I expected them to be able to communicate for a long time, regardless of the outcome.

At least when interacting, it can bring enough benefits and exposure to their own artists.

It would be great if there were more scandals.

Chapter 1080: notes

Scanning system:

Song Tie:

Freshness: 92-[Please close your eyes in dark]

The four-star potential, after Yu Ge's careful development, only one star remains.

She also changed from a flat A girl to an ebb and flow...

The wave created by himself makes Yu brother proud.

It's very Nice!

Look at Park Shin Hye's data...

Park Shin Hye:

Age: 35.

Height: 168cm.

Weight: 50kg.

Specialty: Acting expert, cute, cute, little chic.

Face value: 90↑ [face value 90] [temperament 88] [wealth 2]

Body: 90↑ 【Development potential】

Mood value: 75↑↓ 【Top predators are good at after-sales】

Favorability: 98↑ 【Sir, please.....】

Freshness: 96-[healthy cute girl, cute and loveable]

Looking at the numbers above, Yu Ge focused his attention on the minimum value.

Since when, his preference for sisters is higher than Fanghua girl, always feel that something is wrong.

Keng Keng~

When I was about to check the reward, there was a knock on the door.

"Enter."

Xu Meixin walked in with the documents in her arms. She came to report to the boss about the recruitment of new recruits.

"Boss, this is the list of new supplements in the secretary's office." Xu Meixin put the folder on the table.

"Huh? Is it the internship period again?" Qin Yu said, opening the folder.

Wow~

The first resume is a surprise. The owner of the above photo, based on Yu Ge's years of experience, has a face value of at least 95.

Unless Xu Meixin's work makes a mistake, let the photo become a fraud.

Otherwise, Yu Ge's guess is absolutely correct.

Look at the distribution department at the bottom corner, the secretary room...

95+

This score did not run away.

Age, 22 years old.

It is the age of Youth Fanghua, "It turns out that it has nothing to do with age, it is pure and simple..."

"Boss, what are you talking about?" Xu Meixin asked without hearing.

Simple, what is simple?

"It's nothing, the people in the secretary's room have already arranged it." Qin Yu returned the document to her after seeing what was needed.

Xu Meixin obediently accepted the document, and the gift she prepared was placed on the first floor.

The boss has seen it.

On the surface, she was told to look at the arrangement, and the subtext was "Well, I'm very satisfied, go ahead!"

So, I did a good job this time!

Although, the boss has not touched any secretary other than himself so far.

But recruit a few more young and beautiful people, and it's good to put your eyes on them.

Appreciate more beautiful things in order to maintain a happy mood.

This was said by the boss himself, and Xu Meixin never forgot it.

When Xu Meixin left, Qin Yu opened the map first.

There really is one more red dot above, from 72 to 73...

In other words, with so many 90+ girls in the company, Brother Yu can resist not touching it.

"As expected, I should let the rumors outside look at it." Qin Yu said and opened the reward panel.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to the host for tasting a new flavor, a lot of rewards, triggering random rewards."

"Reward 1: The second generation of super * gene-protobody."

"Reward 2: The first-generation orbital defense zone structure and draft hypothesis."

"Reward Three: Records of secondary processing and quenching experiments on titanium and rhodium alloys."

Three people, three rewards, reasonable.

The value of these three rewards is the reason why Qin Yu gave them the endorsement of Speed.

Only the second generation of Super God Gene and Primordial Body is worth 50,000 faith points.

Reward two and three are the most precious knowledge in all rewards and malls.

Their value is immeasurable, because Qin Yu did not find them in the mall.

Judging from the title, they are more like precious handwritten manuscripts.

Someone who participated in the experiment, personally recorded valuable data.

And this reward, for the first time, brought Yu Ge the greatest wealth of the miracle company, titanium rhodium alloy.

Without it, the Interstellar Project could not have been carried out so smoothly.

There will be no [Xing Tian] [Creator] [Assaulter] and later King Kong-class cruisers.

There will be no Martian immigration plan, and there will be no extraterrestrial ecological base for everyone to feel at ease.

These are all based on the support of titanium rhodium alloy.

Otherwise, only the material can block the development of the plan.

Now, Brother Yu has once again been rewarded in the category of 'notes'.

I hope the contents will not disappoint him.

Half an hour later, Bei Yi put the black suitcase in front of him.

"Thank you, don't let anyone disturb me in the next two hours."

"Okay, boss."

After Beiyi went out, Qin Yu opened the suitcase according to the password provided by the system.

What I saw was not two isolated manuscripts.

It was a box of manuscripts and drawings, dozens of black leather-covered notebooks, and torn and discarded pages.

Qin Yu picked up a broken page at will: "2276 in the ephemeris, midsummer, sunny. '

'The weather is good, today is a good day to do experiments, but I don't want to move at all. '

'It's so comfortable in the sun...' Cross out.

'I actually fell asleep, all to blame for the * good weather. '

'Ah, it's already dark. It seems that today's experiment cannot be done. What should I eat tonight? '

Putting down the broken page, Brother Yu looked like he was about to vomit.

No wonder it was torn off and discarded, what the * was written on it.

Picking up another broken page, the missing corner behind 'Ephemeris Year 2279...' disappeared.

'It's a sunny sky, it's a rare and good sun. Let's get some exposure to the sun before experimenting. '

'...I've slept, it's dark already, it seems there is no way today. '

'Tomorrow I must...' Cross out.

'I have six-winged flying fish for dinner and add my secret sauce, it tastes...'

The diary ended here, and there were traces of water soaking on it. Brother Yu waved it and threw it away.

You don't have to ask to know, it must be the saliva of the diary owner.

'The Ephemeris Year 2281...basking in the sun, falling asleep, eating barbecue. '

'Ephemeris year 2297...bath in the sun, fall asleep, eat snake soup. '

'Ephemeris year 2314...bath in the sun, fall asleep, eat stew. '

Occasionally interspersed with a few articles to cheer up, repented of the broken pages, a few confessions scribbled on it, they were crossed out and torn off before they were finished.

leave!

So, this is this "food diary?" '

In addition to sleep, it is to eat.

Brother Yu began to wonder if the system had sent the wrong goods?

'Ephemeris 3111, the appearance of titanium rhodium alloy is great, but I can do better, haha...'

The scribbled handwriting rejuvenated Brother Yu, and quickly looked down.

'Well, I can...'

Leave blank.

'Ah, the weather outside is so good, I can't help but go out in the sun again. It's already dark. Let's eat tonight and continue the experiment tomorrow. '

Huhhhhhh...

The broken pages were kneaded into a ball by Brother Yu, with blue veins jumping on the forehead.

What are you...playing with me?

However, from the time record, Yu Ge still draws many conclusions.

First of all, the other party's life span is at least more than a thousand years, 2276-3111 years, 835 years have passed.

The other party did not appear to be anxious at all, as if he had infinite life.

Longevity?

The other party likes to bask in the sun very much, and will go whenever the weather is good, and it is easy to get sleepy as soon as the sun is in the sun.

Or lazy!

If it is really a longevity clan, it would be normal to have no concept of time.

Furthermore, the other party is good at eating.

The names of the ingredients mentioned in the diary were unheard of by Brother Yu, and they sounded dangerous.

Like a six-winged flying fish, a star-eater...

Looking at the pile of torn pages that he had left aside, Qin Yu decided to start with the diary.

Perhaps these broken pages are really trivial things that will be torn off by the owner and thrown away.

But Brother Yu felt that the system would not be so boring, so he sealed up a bunch of trash.

In short, he was a little bit fed up.

Now I need to wash my eyes with the text. As for the remaining pages, I will select them after reading the others.

Picking up the first black leather notebook placed on it, Brother Yu opened it lightly.

'The game is fun, I won everyone today and I will continue tomorrow. '

'I'm the number one again, I'm amazing. '

'Three consecutive championships, haha, Leon, you really are a genius. '

"Four consecutive championships..."

"Five consecutive championships..."

"One hundred consecutive championships..."

"Fuck." Brother Yu raised his hand, his notebook slammed on the wall, and fell to the ground.

A silly batch of food and sleep?

A teenager with internet addiction?

System, are you sure that this is a reward, not a torture that you deliberately play with people?

Unfortunately, the system remains as cold as ever.

Looking at the stack of notebooks, Brother Yu gave up.

I'll look at the drawing first, is this always ok?

Unfolding the drawings, Brother Yu finally found something serious.

Recorded above is a semi-finished sketch a circular building, full of various facilities.

There are cockpit, weapon compartment, master control room, passage, airport, rest cabin...

Rotation speed...weight...gravity fixed track...

Use and manufacturing difficulties, there are many scribbled calculation formulas.

It can be seen from the fact that the drawing was only half completed, the other party failed to solve the difficulty in the end and moved it from the drawing to the reality.

pity.....

Qin Yu looked at other drawings again and found that from the beginning of the final draft, to the step-by-step processing.

This drawing in my hand is already the most complete...

No wonder it is really perfunctory to call "the first-generation orbital defense zone structure and hypothesis draft."

After finishing the drawing, Qin Yu stared at the notebook and the broken page, choosing with difficulty with a fluctuating expression.

Should I read "Food Diary" or "Internet Addiction Notes" first...

MD, so hard to choose!

Pick and pick, and put all the broken pages in the box on the table.

Qin Yu picked up the notebook and began to read carefully one page after another...

After 5 minutes, the corners of the eyebrows jumped with black veins.

After 10 minutes, the hand holding the notebook was shaking.

20 minutes.....

30 minutes.....

The picture gradually calmed down, and Qin Yu's eyes lit up with green light, staring greedily at the writing inside without blinking.

All the ideas about the orbital defense zone are recorded between the lines.

The overall idea is a hundred times ahead of the semi-finished products shown on the drawings!

Only limited by the material and technological foundation, cut off all the whimsical ideas and make it more realistic.

However, Brother Yu has abilities that the former owner did not possess.

Those drawings are far less valuable than the ideas in the notebook, they are the real treasure.
