Chapter 1081: New and old

Hungerly ingesting the knowledge in the notebook, Qin Yu forgot the time and everything.

Until the harsh bell interrupted his thoughts, the sky outside the window was already dark.

"Hey, Sister Mi!" Answering the phone, Qin Yu closed the notebook.

All the ideas inside have been in his mind, and Qin Yu will hand over the arranged notes and broken pages to Zhang Wei later.

Or, he was afraid that Zhang Wei would go crazy on the spot...

"With the newcomer and forget the old, you are a bitch." Rice's voice was like someone else's strangling his throat.

With a single mouth, Brother Yu knew that she was talking about endorsements.

When the speed car endorsement was given, Brother Yu knew that someone had to call and ask.

I didn't expect that the efficiency would be so fast!

"It's all in your ears, where are you filming?" Qin Yu asked with a smile.

"Also, Xiao Di has been waiting!" Rice said coquettishly: "Why did you give it to someone else? It's in Lishui."

"Good place."

Seeing that she didn't answer the conversation, Brother Yu didn't rush and said slowly: "Don't worry, it will be several years before the speeding car is on the market. That's all for the future."

"I'm not the endorsement of household robots, I keep it for you!" Brother Yu doesn't favor one or the other.

Although the topic of Speed is very high, it is too far away from ordinary people.

Besides, it will take one or two years to go public.

Unlike household robots, they have already reached the market and can be realized immediately.

"Really, that's the smart home robot that has been on the Internet, Xiao J." Rice said in surprise.

"Little J?" Brother Yu looked dumbfounded, who gave this name to him.

"Yes, netizens call it that way, it's small and cute, and it's made by a miracle... J stands for miracle."

"That should be Xiao Q." Brother Yu vomited.

"Call Xiao Q, be careful of subpoenas!" Rice joked, "Do you want to go to Nanshan to file a lawsuit?"

"Ah, I almost forgot." Brother Yu patted his forehead before remembering that there was a penguin.

In other words, he has been busy during this period of time, and he almost forgot about it.

I don't know how the competition between the company and Penguin is going.

In the last weekly report, I heard some news, and the other party tried to discredit the company on the Internet.

All kinds of gossip rumors are raging.

The miracle side has been standing still, as if the other side said that the center was empty.

In fact, Xu Hao has been asking Qilin to collect evidence.

It is not only the evidence that the other party instructed to slander the company, but also its internal confidential data.

Random titles, hegemony, and monopoly suppress the market, playing with customers in applause.

There is also the fact that the most classic masterpiece, Ctrl+C+V.

Including audio, analysis +V data recording.

In short, as long as you use everything...

Seeing Xu Hao's meaning is to press the other party directly to death without giving it any chance to fight back.

However, the current evidence can only hurt the bones.

After all, Penguin's hooliganism is not a day or two, it's just an open secret.

It just suffers from the fact that there is nothing to ban, the forces behind it are intricate, and it is needed to prevent the invasion of foreign communication companies.

After all, no matter how much you toss, the penguin is also a grasshopper pinched in the palm of your hand.

It all depends on the two months before the announcement of the terminal, when the time comes.

Can the miracle ban the penguin and become the new communication overlord?

Or the terminal will be restricted due to various factors, and we will see each other when the time comes.

Xu Hao is also trying his best to win over mobile phone giants, such as the behind-the-scenes capital of domestic mobile phones such as Aixia and Mi.

However, who should be the endorsement of the terminal.

Brother Yu is still considering, the only thing that can be determined is that there must be more than one spokesperson.

He plans to hire multiple endorsements, and then implant his thumb image as an optional intelligent assistant.

Users can choose their favorite assistants and open the usage permissions on a monthly basis.

Of course, you can also use the free voice assistant that comes with it.

Although there is no impact, it is completely free, and there will be no lack of functionality.

This is like a skin, whether to buy or not does not affect the experience at all.

It's nothing more than good-looking or not, and your own wishes!

"I want, I want, I want to be an assistant." Anadi's jumping voice came from the microphone.

"Bad girl, who made you shout so loudly." Rice.

"Ah, it hurts!" Anadi's voice was full of grievances.

"I want too." Guna ran away after she said it, leaving only a brisk laugh further and further away.

"You heard it, they said it themselves." Rice weakly pressed the microphone to her ear.

"I don't know about others, but I will definitely not forget Sister Mi."

Qin Yu said something with a frivolous smile, which caused rice to scream in embarrassment: "Hate, who is going to die with you..."

Looking at the hung-up cell phone, Qin Yu randomly threw it on the table.

With thighs folded on the table, his body leaned back, his hands hooked on the back of his head, and he whistling leisurely.

After filming this time, I have to let Da Michele rest.

Let alone, I haven't seen her for half a year. Brother Yu really missed her.

As for the smart assistant image of the terminal, since everyone wants it so much, let's come together.

Fertilizer does not flow into outsiders' fields, one more, one less.

For Brother Yu, it didn't make a difference.

Besides, the candidates on Yu Ge's heart list are all goddesses with considerable influence in their respective countries.

Not a goddess, and no chance to get close to him.

Not to mention directly on the list...

The number of people who subsequently opened thumb assistants for the goddess must be considerable.

This is a considerable long-term stable income, and Yu Ge considers it entirely from the standpoint of the company.

Rice, Anadi, Guna, Jiang Xiaoshan, Song Tie, Jin Xi, Zhang Zi.

Mildew, Savannah, Imogen, Frida.

Jiaren, Pei Zhuxian, Secretary Jin, Li Yili, Li Shaoxi, Rune...

Caiying, Jenny, Jisoo, and Lisa are four children.

Ji Yun and Hyo Rim, plus Park Shin Hye!

This combination should be a choice that can satisfy the public.

However, is the proportion of Hancheng District a bit too large?

Brother Yu is considering whether to pick some suitable roles in Neon.

It should be changed occasionally.

As for the male image, Yu asked Qilin to prepare several virtual characters.

Handsome, cold, arrogant, cute, shy, sunny...

Various types, there are options.

Fully satisfy women's illusions about their spouse and ensure that they will pay the bill readily.

"Kirin." There is no need to wait, Qin Yu wants to see the avatar it prepares now.

Projected figures appearing in a circle, each with a different expression on their faces.

The outfit, hairstyle, looks, and even the details are flawless.

However, how did Brother Yu perceive these characters and what makes him familiar with them.

"All characters are made with reference to the host." Qilin.

"What did he use?" Qin Yu asked, pointing to the grim character.

"Eyes and eyebrows." Qilin.

"What about him?" Qin Yu pointed to the Sunshine Type.

"Mouth shape and jawbone." Qilin.

Okay, Brother Yu understands.

From a role alone, I don't think of myself at all.

But the combination of the outstanding characteristics of all the characters is what Yu Ge himself looks like.

Eh~

Who makes him look too handsome, it's really a headache!

"Your shameless behavior is becoming more and more sophisticated." Qilin.

"Cough, kneel down!" Qin Yu coughed lightly to cover up his embarrassment and let Qilin leave.

"I and you are one, are you sure you want to do this?" Qilin.

Gui'an, this operation is difficult!

Ignoring the naughty Kirin, Qin Yu checked all the information and organized.

Afterwards, let Xu Meixin bind it up.

He personally sent it to Vulcan, and handed it to Zhang Wei.

"Boss, what's all this?" Zhang Wei was stupefied after receiving a large pile of documents.

The small black-covered notebook in this file is not a diary, is it?

"This is the focus of your future work."

Qin Yu patted the black diary and said, "Read these diaries carefully, you will thank me."

"Okay, I'll take the time to watch it." Zhang Wei said perfunctorily.

Serious people who write diaries, what can be worth paying attention to?

"It's not taking time, you have to finish watching tonight, this is a task." Qin Yu said blankly.

He didn't want to misunderstand because he didn't hand over clearly.

Let Zhang Wei throw things in an unknown corner, leaving dust in dust.

He also wanted to see it early, the day the orbital defense belt was built.

"Can you postpone it for two days, I..." Zhang Wei looked embarrassed and wanted to shirk. He really didn't want to read any diary.

"No, I will come to you tomorrow morning."

"If you haven't finished it, you can go back on vacation!"

If this is to change the company, Zhang Wei will have to laugh on the spot: "There is still such a good thing."

But here, what he fears most is vacation.

The entire company is running at full capacity, immigration projects, and spacecraft manufacturing.

He didn't want to let go of either, let alone the ongoing 'second-generation spacecraft transformation and upgrade' project.

It's going to a critical moment, and the results are about to come out.

Let him take a vacation at this time, it is better to kill him directly.

If it weren't for this, it would be impossible for Qin Yu to find others in the company in the middle of the night.

He has been living in the company for more than half a month.

"Okay, I must finish reading Zhang Wei solemnly handed over the things to his assistant, and stayed up late to read it after he planned to go back.

At the same time, Zhang Wei was also a little curious.

He wants to take a good look, what is written in this diary?

I hope that there will not be any boring daily life, wasting his precious time.

Seeing Zhang Wei's attention, Qin Yu drove home.

Mom and Dad and Little Pumpkin were already asleep, Qin Yu didn't wake up anyone, and quietly returned to the room.

Early in the morning, when Brother Yu came back from exercise.

The family who was preparing breakfast thought he had just walked in, "Why don't you say anything in advance when you come back, have you eaten?"

"...I came back yesterday."

Brother Yu pointed to the sportswear on his body, "I just went out to exercise."

"Who made you look like a night owl?" Liang Chuyu said irritably.

Turned around and walked into the kitchen and asked the aunt to prepare an extra breakfast for him.

"Is the company okay?" Old Qin put on a serious father's posture.

Occasionally, I still have to put on airs, or else these two guys, both big and small, don't put him in the eyes.

"It's all fine, I'll take a shower first." After going upstairs to wash, Qin Yu changed his clothes and went downstairs.

Liang Chuyu and Lao Qin are ready to set off.

"Since I'm back, the little pumpkin is handed over to you, and Auntie will prepare the things to bring."

"good."

Qin Yu rubbed the head of Little Pumpkin and joked: "You followed me today."

"Big Brother, Big Brother, Happy Holidays." Little Pumpkin embraced her arms and knelt on the chair to bow to him.

Seeing this scene, Liang Chuyu rolled his eyes and left home quickly.

She didn't look at it anymore. She thought she could practice the trumpet better with experience.

Unexpectedly, it's not as good as a large size, it's a complete bastard.

This stinky boy, wait to be cleaned up by his brother!

Chapter 1082: distribute

What festival is today, why did Brother Yu have no impression at all?

The aunt brought the breakfast to the table and said, 'thank you.'

Brother Yu took a bite of the meat and lotus leaf cake before asking, "What festival?"

"Boys' Day, November 11."

The little pumpkin shook his fists up and down, looking at him hopefully.

I kowtow, I must give out red envelopes!

Brother Yu didn't let him down either, "Go get my bag."

The little pumpkin ran to the door, stepped on the custom-made small steps, and held the bag on the cabinet in his arms.

Thump thump...

"Brother, here you are."

Handing him the bag, the little pumpkin climbed onto the chair and continued to kneel and shake his fists.

Brother Yu put down his food, opened the bag and took out a stack of red tickets.

Huh...

Seeing Brother Yu counting one by one, Pumpkin's eyes became brighter and brighter.

Seeing thousands of counts, Little Pumpkin's eyes flashed bulingling.

Made a fortune!

"Eh, weird, I remember..."

While whispering a piece of 10 yuan sandwiched in the red ticket appeared, Brother Yu smiled cheerfully: "Ha, let me say it!"

Under the horror of Little Pumpkin, he couldn't believe it, and looked at him with resisting eyes.

Brother Yu took out the 10 yuan and stuffed it into the palm of his hand.

"Happy holidays." Knocked the red ticket on the table and put it back in the bag.

Brother Yu went to the kitchen to wash his hands. When he came back, Pumpkin still kept the same action before leaving.

It's just that the previously straight waist collapsed crookedly, as if it had collapsed.

The eyes were dull, and the whole person was immersed in a huge shock.

People are stupid!

Brother Yu kindly rubbed his head: "Is this kid happy and stupid?"

After dinner, Brother Yu rode a motorcycle to send a little pumpkin to school.

On the way, he also wondered if he would meet Han Jia or Chen Yujiao, and come across unexpectedly.

But in the end, none of them were encountered.

On the contrary, I came to rub the hot black silk net red, and I saw several.

One by one was particularly cool, short black silk skirts, eagerly stunned, and slapped the jokes.

At the school gate, two female parents were arguing with the teacher, believing that the image of these internet celebrities is harmful to their children's health.

"In this way, how bad is it for the child to see the influence?"

"We will definitely strengthen management. Please understand that the other party was shooting outside the school gate. We have no right to drive people away."

"You have no right, I'll come." One of the mothers approached the Internet celebrity aggressively.

"Big brother, we quarreled." Little Pumpkin said with excitement, carrying a small schoolbag.

The appearance of watching a good show made Qin Yu slap him angrily.

"It's going to go to class, get out." Qin Yu scolded with a smile.

"Slightly..." Rubbing his head, the little pumpkin grimaced with his tongue, and slipped into the school with oil on the soles of his feet.

When he entered the teaching building, Brother Yu glanced at the noisy excitement, turned the accelerator and turned around and left.

On the way to the company, Brother Yu saw two 'square boxes' flying at low altitude. '

It was the company's transportation vehicle, which was heading to the settlement center along the empty freight road.

The official opening of the center has ushered in a new climax for "The Scary Demon".

Countless young people fired their bosses and entered the game eagerly, wanting to break out of the world on their own.

From the standpoint of the company's boss, Yu naturally hopes that the more people who enter the game, the better.

But from the bottom of my heart, not everyone can pan for gold in the game.

Especially those players who follow blindly, don't understand anything, just listen to others to make money.

Or look at the publicity posts on the Internet and plunge into the game, dreaming of getting rich overnight.

In the end, there is nowhere to go, and there are many people who can't eat.

It is precisely because young people are targeting fast money and getting rich.

The labor shortage in the factory has reached a new high, and many robots announced by Miracle Company have attracted special attention.

As soon as Qin Yu arrived at the company, Xu Hao came to the door and said, "Brother Yu, our robot factory hasn't started production, and orders have continued to flow.

Should President Hua speed up? This is all money. "

"What orders are there?" Qin Yu asked unhurriedly.

"Aixia, Taipower, BYD, grid, these are just a few of the more famous ones."

"Foreign countries like Sanxin, Apple, including some military and energy companies have demand, but they all have their own requirements."

"Private order?"

"right."

"Talk about it, what are the requirements?"

Xu Hao put his hands on the armrests, sat up straight and said: "Customized multifunctional modules, autonomous systems, closed modes!"

"So, they just want a shell." Qin Yu smiled.

These people are worried about the leakage of secrets, leaving behind the back door to steal their privacy.

"Almost, the system must use its own." Xu Hao smiled and said with a smile: "It's the same for me."

Who has no privacy anymore, they can't figure it out on the hardware, but the software is still okay.

Just buy things back, load them into your own system, and then form an internal network that is isolated from the outside.

In this way, security and privacy can be ensured to the utmost extent.

"Mr. Hua is naturally thinking about signing the contract of intent first, and then transferring to the formal contract when the factory starts."

"In addition, priority is given to domestic companies."

Money must be earned, and Brother Yu will not think money is hot.

But how to make money, there is still a distinction between closeness and closeness.

In addition, after-sales and sales offices in various regions should also be deployed first, and Yu Ge intends to leave this to his own people.

Turn on the phone and find the internal group of Sanqinhui.

"Robot experience and after-sales agency agent, you want to report coordinates." Qin Yu.

"I, I, I, Brother Yu, I will do it."

Han Hu was the first to jump out. Is this guy staring at his phone, fast enough?

Then the news began to swipe the screen, and the members of the Sanqin Club began to sign up one by one.

"Shangdu, Abandoned City, Window, Hudu and Seoul, these five cities have masters, and I will let people count the rest, first come first served." Qin Yu.

"Brother Yu, the city or the province, those five you said?" Liu Xing.

"There is no one in the city or the province." Qin Yu.

"San Qin." Liu Xing.

Previously, considering that the Miracle Company was in Sanqin, nobody reported the coordinates of Sanqin.

Just because Liu Xing asked one more question, he picked up a big leak.

Everyone in front of the screen cried and laughed, and it was a regret in their hearts.

I didn't expect it, let him pick up a big bargain.

"Brother Yu, do you want me to help with statistics?" Han Hu.

"Okay, let's hand over with Secretary Xu after the statistics." Qin Yu put Xu Meixin into the group and let them communicate on their own.

After doing all this, Qin Yu began to think about who to give these four points.

Hudu, he wanted to give Shaman or Xu Wanwan.

At first, Yu Ge also planned to give it to Wen Yaxuan to do it, but it is considered that she likes to make designs.

I'm doing a good job now, and I don't have a good-looking personality, so I just said it in my heart.

Furthermore, this business is not a big deal.

Looking back, it's not too late to give her a better one.

If not, it would be a big deal to set up a fund for her, and spend money at work honestly every day, it would be nice to have a relaxed life.

For Wen Yaxuan, who didn't care much, this was really a good idea.

Shaman is quite shrewd, because she is afraid that she is not interested.

Her artistic career is developing smoothly, and she is not short of money. Isn't she tossing about changing careers and making machinery?

"Forget it, just ask her first."

Brother Yu decided to ask her opinion personally, and if Shaman wasn't interested, he would leave it to Xu Wanwan to do it.

There is nothing to entangle on, it must be Xun Lu.

There is no other person besides her, Ye Jinlan and Ye Zhiqiu can't look down on this business.

Moreover, Ye Zhiqiu's docile temperament is not suitable for publicity in the business arena.

Abandoned City, Brother Yu wants to do it for Zhang Le, so he also needs to ask him what he means first.

At the window, whether it is for Gao Bo or He Sheng will do it. Brother Yu needs to think again.

In Seoul, Yu Ge prepared a gift for the beautiful woman.

For a while following myself, the beautiful woman now has no plans to come back.

Staying in the villa arranged by Li Zhen for her every day, it is easy to get sick alone.

Just find something for her to do, kill the time and earn some pocket money, killing two birds with one stone.

With an idea, Yu Ge opened the internal group of the Sanqin Hui.

There is still negotiation and debate, and it seems that it will not be over for a while.

Brother Yu closed the WeChat account and found Zhang Le's number and dialed: "Hey, Le, what are you doing?"

"Brother Yu, I'm going to work!" Zhang Le.

"Go to work? When did you look for a job and what did you do?" Qin Yu asked curiously.

Why didn't he hear anyone mention that Zhang Le has already found a job.

Wouldn't it be following the doctor or the buns?

"Opening the rental, I plan to do it first, and then think about the future." Zhang Le explained with a smile.

"Then when do you get off work, UU reading www.uukanshu.com, let's gather together." Qin Yu smiled.

"I can do it. I have enough money today, it's nothing more than earning less."

"Then I will make an appointment with the doctor, Baozi, and wait for my call."

"good."

At dinner time, Qin Yu rode to the Erhuan Chuanchuan store on the edge of the East Second Ring Road.

Parked the motorcycle at the door and didn't see the three of them.

Brother Yu went in to take up the position, ordered the bottom of the pot and waited.

A few minutes later, Tang He arrived, followed by Gao Bo and Zhang Le.

"Why is it so slow." Brother Yu vomited and asked the waiter to serve drinks by the way.

"The whole beer?" Tang He picked up the beer on the table and looked at it, a little surprised.

"Eating skewers can't make the whole beer, it's heartburn." Qin Yu responded.

"I'll pour it for us." Gao Bo acted as a waiter and filled everyone with a cup.

"Come on, do one first." Zhang Le raised his glass and laughed.

He was so happy to be able to get together with the three of them again.

"It's done." He raised his head and drank, and a few people went to choose the dishes, talking and laughing.

"A Le, why did you drive a taxi?"

After re-seating, Tang He couldn't help but complain: "I told you, let you play with the monsters."

"I can't, the equipment is too expensive." Zhang Le smiled and waved his hand.

"There are a few brothers, what are you afraid of?"

Tang He said angrily, "Why, I haven't seen strangers in a few years, so be an outsider with me kindly?"

"No." Zhang Le was a little embarrassed.

His temperament is like this, no matter how familiar he is, he doesn't want to owe favors, or he always feels like he is burdened.

Every day I always think about how to repay this love.

It doesn't matter who the other party is, it's entirely his own problem.

He was actually afraid that there would be today's scene, so he found a job early to do it first.

Otherwise, he might still be resting at his grandma's house!

Chapter 1083: Recent situation

"Okay, don't say it, drink and drink." Zhang Le raised his glass and touched them, arguing and trying to divert the subject.

"Gudongdong!" It dries in one breath, and Tang He, who put down his cup, still repeats the old saying.

This matter must be made clear today, and the brothers are not brave.

Now I have money in my hands, and I have had a good time!

It's okay to pull you, just like Yu Ge pulled them.

Love points, just keep it in your heart.

As a gregarious creature and alive, there is no time when anyone needs help.

Friendship, don't you help me, I help you...

You come and go, so deep.

If you don't have any communication, you will only completely isolate yourself from the social group.

The "Lone Soul and Wild Ghost," that no one knows when they die, only knows how miserable it is to become like that!

"Okay, don't persuade!" Qin Yu interrupted Tang He's nagging.

Looking at Zhang Le, he smiled and said, "I have a chance, depending on whether you want to do it."

Tell her what she thought, Zhang Le's first consideration was funding.

"It costs a lot of money to open such a store?" Zhang Le estimated that at least tens of millions.

The home robots used for display alone are worth the price.

"Not really, the company has two options to choose from."

"The first is to invest by yourself, and the company makes a plan, similar to a designated franchise."

"There is another one?" Zhang Le wanted to know the difference.

"Full support, the company is responsible for storefronts, decoration, purchases, etc., accounting for 80%, and the remaining 20% belong to partners."

Zhang Le looked at him suspiciously and asked, "What do you want a partner to do?"

Now that the company is all set up, why do you need a partner?

"Because the company doesn't have time to manage these chores, I am short of people, Ale."

Qin Yu laughed at Tanshou and said: "All-round support, there is only one requirement for partners, manage the store!"

"All management rights are in the hands of the partners, for a 10-year period, and the specified rate of return is reached, and the store is owned by the partners."

"Isn't it?"

Zhang Le thoughtfully, he began to feel that this was not an idea that Qin Yu had come up with specifically for himself.

"I didn't reach it, hitting the workers diligently?" Qin Yu said teasingly.

"This way..." Zhang Le lost his thoughts.

Tang He slapped him, "What are you still thinking about, such a good opportunity, if you don't do it, others will do it."

"That's right, if you don't do it, I have to find someone, it's very troublesome." Qin Yu agreed with a sip of wine.

Gao Bo put his arm around his shoulders and joked: "It's really hypocritical to grind it up again."

Zhang Le smiled awkwardly, and said, "I'm afraid I am inexperienced and lose money!"

"Professionals are responsible for after-sales and explanations, as long as you manage the store well."

Brother Yu nodded, and said seriously, "I believe you, it must be okay."

"Okay, I did it." Zhang Le no longer struggled and worried.

Because if you continue, you will really freeze.

At that time, everyone's faces are not good, and Zhang Le doesn't want to make the atmosphere froze.

Therefore, he temporarily kept all the problems in his heart.

As for whether it can be done well, Zhang Le has no idea.

He has no experience, has never been a boss, and has never managed a store for such high-tech products.

The only certainty is that he will do his best to do a good job.

"That's right, come, drink." Tang He embraced his shoulders and laughed excitedly.

Although he couldn't let him go to the "Ghost" with himself.

But at least, dispelled his stubbornness!

"Say it first, if I don't make a lot of money by driving, I won't do it." Zhang Le also joked.

The estrangement in my heart caused by the passage of time has completely disappeared without a trace.

"Baozi, how are you doing in the game?" Gao Bo asked about his current situation in the game after drinking three rounds.

I heard that the new expansion has caused heavy losses to players. Doesn't Tang He do the same?

"Hi, don't mention it!"

With a speechless sigh, Tang He talked about his experience in the game.

Five months ago, Tanghe's fleet received the task.

Go to Star 358 and support the Marines to complete the cleaning mission on the ground.

It is a beautiful planet with ancient tribes living on it. It is said that their civilization has been passed down for several epochs.

It's just because I yearn for nature and peace, and never develop offensive technology or capabilities.

But in terms of defense and escape, the ancients are absolutely top-notch.

Because of this, when they were invaded by monsters, the ancients relied on the energy barrier to keep them out.

Even if it is a monster that breaks through the atmosphere and enters the planet.

The ancients also spent a certain price to imprison their entire legion in a desolate place.

Because of the persistence of the ancients, Star 358 survived the pollution.

Maintaining the original natural features, it has also become the most livable planet the church has discovered so far.

none of them.

After reaching an agreement to share 358 stars with the ancients, the church's fleet began to gather.

Be prepared to destroy the army of monsters inside and outside the planet in one effort.

Then, start a new home.

After paying a huge and tragic loss, the fleet finally succeeded in destroying two intermediate-level monster legions.

Including an all-member leader-level, a burning expeditionary army led by a lord-level monster, an elite squad.

"I worked hard to get rid of that squad, including the lord-level demon, and turned around and let the * of the ancients stabbed."

"Dead?" Gao Bo asked eagerly.

"Death is not dead, I was directly sent back to space by those * from the ground."

Tang He held up the wine glass angrily and moisturized his throat with one gulp.

"Ah, then the group of perfidious * used energy to seal off the entire planet, and now no one can enter."

"Fuck it, cross the river and demolish the bridge? Is it so realistic?" Gao Bo vomited.

"Why cross the river and demolish the bridge? The * demolish the bridge before the river passes.

From beginning to end, the other party is using the power of the church.

Ordinary monsters are not a threat to them at all. What they worry about is the elite team led by the lord-level monster. "

"So, if you got that squad, it was abandoned." Qin Yu said amusedly.

"Brother Yu, can we stop gloating?"

Tang He smiled and scolded: "This time, I lost all my money."

When I think about it, Tang He is bleeding in his heart.

I wanted to make a fortune from the planet of the ancients after killing the monsters.

How can it not be at a loss! !

Who knows, the most unlikely possibility has become true.

According to the exchange rate of the settlement center, Tanghe's indirect loss this time was two to three million yuan.

The expenditure on ammunition alone is as high as 700,000 to 800,000.

As soon as the cannon rang, gold was ten thousand taels.

The same is true for the Interstellar Age. If you want enough firepower, you have to pile up weapons.

Most of the money made by Tanghe, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com is also invested in the transformation of mecha.

Once the fire is full, it is tantamount to throwing money out.

The enemy was killed? ? ?

Do not...

Was smashed to death by money.

In addition to fixed energy consumption, replenishment and mecha maintenance, various props consumption and weapon wear are also included.

Distressed!

"Tsk tusk, it's millions at a time, go!" Gao Bo gave a weird thumbs up.

"roll."

Tang He scolded, "My heart is bleeding, and you don't know how to comfort me, please tonight!"

"Damn." Gao Bo raised his  and gave him a sincere greeting.

"Don't envy Baozi, he is high-risk and high-reward now."

Qin Yu smiled and shook his head: "When I gave him advice, I didn't expect him to join the Marines."

"Hey, I didn't expect it either."

Tang He shyly scratched his head and smiled bitterly: "I am Alexander now!"

To be honest, he really didn't expect that he would join the Marine Corps and become one of them.

I wanted to make a little money and support my family.

But when I walked, I found that I couldn't stop.

People in the arena involuntarily!

There are so many roads, if you don't enter, you have to retreat.

Tang He didn't want to retreat, so he could only bite the bullet and continue to move forward.

As Qin Yu said, his current situation is high-risk and high-reward.

A carelessness, if the mecha is blown out, or the character dies.

It's equivalent to bankruptcy in an instant, everything is over again!

Therefore, every time before the war, Tang He was nervous to death.

Fortunately, his luck so far is pretty good...

There is also a group of reliable comrades in arms who can rely on each other and give their backs to each other with confidence.

However, Tang He didn't know it himself.

How long can this luck last?

Chapter 1084: Police flower

Persuade Zhang Le to open up the frozen emotions.

He became the big boy who was cheerful, sunny, hopeful about everything, and able to see the beautiful side.

Several people talked and laughed, talking about the past and the future.

"Wait, wait someday without so many worries, I, I must go to Mars, the stars, and see."

Tang Heyi's footsteps were vain, and he wobbly held Zhang Le's shoulders, describing how he wanted to start a new life on Mars.

"Wait for you to go to Mars, I, we are all outside the galaxy, outside, you can pull it down!"

Gao Bo squinted, pressing his thighs with his hands, sitting still on the spot.

He was not pretending to be calm, but he was afraid of a move.

His head turned drunk and fell to the ground, unable to get up again.

Zhang Le didn't get any better either, his eyes narrowed into a gap, his pupils were dizzy and dizzy, obviously drunk.

Tang He didn't hear a word of Tang He's long-winded description.

It's just a mechanical "umh" echoing, so that I can stay awake at the end.

Seeing the three people drunk, Brother Yu toasted himself helplessly.

Occasionally he wants to get drunk once, just like now, with a few of them.

But such a small wish could not be achieved.

One cup after another, Yu Ge did the remaining half of the box all by himself.

The waiter, who had been sitting not far away without business, looked straight and said, "This buddy is too good to drink!"

Seeing that the three of them could almost wake up, Brother Yu asked the waiter to pay the bill.

The boss personally came to settle the accounts, a total of 862 yuan, 850 yuan.

Brother Yu didn't mean to make a price, so he paid the bill!

This makes the boss's face look better...

It's nothing else, but the boss is a little depressed.

He sells skewers, but these little brothers are good, and they will be used as bars.

I ate less than 50 pairs of skewers, and drank 8 cases of alcohol. I ran out of stock that I had arrived today.

I also gave the cold dish and peanut hairy belly I asked for from the next door.

After setting up a table, the brothers drank more happily.

But the guests who came back were stunned, "This skewers are still pot skewers, do you have grilled chicken wings?"

In that mood, the boss wanted to shout three times on his face: "I sell shabu skewers, shabu skewers, shabu skewers..."

Brother Yu, who paid the bill and left, didn't notice the complexity of the boss's heart.

Because he has to take care of the three drunkards, where is the mood to pay attention to others.

Fortunately, Brother Yu called in advance and asked the driver to wait at the door.

Send them one by one the canopy and fasten their seat belts. Brother Yu told the driver: "If you send them to the W hotel, the arrangements will be made over there."

"Boss, how about you?" The driver asked more when he saw that he was not in the car.

"I'll take a taxi back."

Patting his shoulder, Brother Yu smiled and said, "It's hard work. I will rest at home tomorrow. It is not safe to drive when tired."

This meeting was all three o'clock in the morning. After the delivery was arranged, it was almost dawn.

If you go to work again, how can a normal person stand it!

"Thank you, boss." The driver bowed and thanked him, and then got in the car and left after making sure that Qin Yu was okay.

Waiting for the car to go away, Brother Yu stood there for a few seconds.

The alcohol in the body has been completely decomposed and absorbed by Nanoworms.

At this time, even a blood test can't find a drop of alcohol content, because he didn't drink alcohol, and it was Nanoworms that drank alcohol.

Stepping on the locomotive, Yu Ge put on his helmet and drove towards Nanhu.

Entering the intersection of Nanhu District, Yu Ge, who was driving, was stopped by a horse: "The motorcycle in front, please pull to the side and stop."

The streets were empty, with only sporadic vehicles running.

He is the only locomotive, and he can know who he is talking about without thinking about it.

Turn around, pull over and stop.

Brother Yu looked back and couldn't help but smile: "It's you, Sir."

Taking off his helmet, Qin Yu shook his head and said, "Today is on the night shift again, it was hard enough."

The opposite was an old acquaintance. Brother Yu was stopped by him several times while driving.

Xiao Caiyan, a traffic policeman in Nanhu District, often patrols and directs traffic in this area.

Because they have been stopped more often, everyone can be regarded as familiar old acquaintances.

Brother Yu can remember this clearly because he accidentally heard his colleague joking about it.

Xiao Caiyan is the most beautiful police flower in their system!

Seeing that it was Qin Yu, Xiao Caiyan, who had a serious face before, also smiled.

"It's you again." Looking at the license plate, Xiao Caiyan asked curiously: "Are you still playing locomotives?"

"Occasionally, it's a pity to put it if you win." Qin Yu patted the hood, pretending to be proud.

"I thought it was..." Xiao Caiyan stopped talking, shook her head and said, "It's okay, you know the rules."

Seeing she put her white gloved hand in front of her, Qin Yu breathed a sigh of relief and said, "What time do you get off work?"

Xiao Caiyan raised her gloves and smelled it a few centimeters away. There was not a bit of alcohol, no problem!

After the business was done, she responded: "It's six o'clock, why are you so late?"

"At a party, an old friend whom I haven't seen for a long time." Qin Yu smiled.

"Pay attention to safety on the road, I have to go on patrol." Xiao Caiyan said and walked back.

"You guys are really cruel. You are a policeman on the night shift every day. Staying up late is the enemy of women."

With her long legs, she sat on the iron horse to hold the handles, and Xiao Caiyan smiled brightly: "The responsibility lies, let's go."

Watching the iron cavalry rumble passing by, Brother Yu put on his helmet and set off again.

The next day, Brother Yu fell asleep.

It was almost noon to get up, and only the aunt was left in the house.

Knowing that Mrs. Mother would not be able to come back at noon, Brother Yu told the aunts not to busy preparing lunch, saying that they were going out to eat casually.

Lao Qin always eats at noon in the unit canteen, and Little Pumpkin is in charge of lunch by the school.

If the mother is not coming back, he alone doesn't need to make special preparations.

Standing in the garage and looking at his hidden car, Brother Yu thought for a while and picked up Rafa's car key.

It is forecasted that there will be no rain in the past few days, just open the hood to blow the air.

Buzzing...

Leaving home with a roar, Brother Yu drove to the beef noodle restaurant where he often eats.

Use it to solve lunch today.

The roadblock moved away, and Brother Yu parked the car on the open space on the left side of the main entrance as usual.

But he noticed a horse parked on the left, "Isn't it such a coincidence?"

Get out of the car, close the door, and walk into the store. While ordering, he looked around.

In the next second, he saw Xiao Caiyan sitting against the wall.

"A sir, what a coincidence." With the number, Qin Yu came to Xiao Caiyan's table.

Xiao Caiyan, who was thinking about something, raised her head and laughed blankly: "It's you again?"

"Yes, it's me again." Qin Yu sat opposite her and smiled: "Why are you still not off work?"

"Helping a colleague on duty, there is something urgent in his family." Xiao Caiyan said.

"Can you stand it for 24 hours?" Qin Yu asked.

"got used to."

After a while, the things Xiao Caiyan ordered came up.

A small portion of beef noodles, a bottle of ice-sealed, plus a tea egg.

After taking a small bite, Xiao Caiyan saw the huge set delivered by the waiter.

Increase beef noodles, two beef patties, one side dish, one tea egg + 2 bottles of ice.

"Try it, their beef patties are very fragrant." Qin Yu pushed the patties in the middle, and said as he looked at Xiao Caiyan in shock.

"You, eat it alone?" The sea bowl, which was three or four times older than him, looked a little scared.

Is it so edible for the young man now?

"It's good to have a small appetite." Qin Yu smiled and tossed away the hot pepper on top, and picked up a chopstick.

Sucking, sucking...

Xiao Caiyan pursed her mouth and laughed.

The taste of beef noodles seems to be better...

Feng Juan Canyon resolved the lunch on the table and tasted a piece of beef pie Xiao Caiyan admired it very much.

"I thought it would be very tired, but I didn't expect it at all." Xiao Caiyan said while drinking a drink.

"Beef patties are a sign!" Qin Yu wiped his mouth and handed her the tissue bag.

"Thank you." Xiao Caiyan took the tissue and asked curiously: "Are you working nearby?"

"Northern suburbs, it's a bit far away." Qin Yu leaned back and said relaxedly.

You have to take a good break after eating, which will help you feel good.

Life is alive, happiness is great.

It's cool to lie down, then lie down...

He is not a clockworker, and there is no need to wind up every minute.

"Northern Suburbs." Xiao Caiyan said amusedly: "This will pass, and you will be able to check in and get off work."

"You found all of this." Qin Yu joked.

"Today, the northern suburbs will be very congested. If you go there, you'd better hurry up." Xiao Caiyan thought of the news mentioned in the internal notice.

"Is there a time when there is no traffic jam in the northern suburbs?" Qin Yu said indifferently:

"Anyway, I'm just going to check in and get off work, not in a hurry."

Seeing his relaxed look, Xiao Caiyan denied the speculation in her heart again.

He must not be that person, otherwise how could he be so relaxed.

You know, today is the day to sign a contract with Azure.

If he really, such a big thing, he should be there anyway.

But if it weren't for him, who would it be?

Also called Qin Yu, working in the northern suburbs, young and rich...

Xiao Caiyan couldn't think of the second one, and the conjecture that had just been overturned sprouted and took root again.

The entanglement in her heart was completely reflected on her face, Xiao Caiyan wanted to ask, but she felt too abrupt.

They just nodded to each other, asking too much was like a plan.

Forget it, just treat it as an ordinary passerby. UU Reading www.uukānshu.com

Xiao Caiyan took a deep look at him and added, 'a passerby with a good personality and a super handsome appearance. '

"I should go." Xiao Caiyan glanced at the time, and said that she was about to get up and leave.

Brother Yu also had enough rest, and walked forward and backward with her.

When I went out and saw Rafa parked next to the cavalry, Xiao Caiyan said unexpectedly: "Yours?"

"Yes, mine." Qin Yu nodded.

Xiao Caiyan's eyes flickered, and said: "Why haven't you seen it before."

"Flying everywhere, I haven't moved for a while." Because of this, he would drive Rafa out for a stroll today.

At the same time, Xiao Caiyan also had an answer in her heart.

Really hammered, he was right!

As a local in the system, it is hard not to listen to gossip every day.

This car is registered under the name of Qin Yu, the founder of Miracle Company.

Age, name, car, all match up.

Coupled with the fact that the other party works in the northern suburbs, and he gets in and out of luxury cars, he must be right.

In fact, Xiao Caiyan had already guessed it before.

I just don't want to admit it!

After all, the identity and aura of the other party will only bring a sense of distance that is out of reach.

And she was actually looking forward to an encounter with each other.

Chapter 1085: Newcomer

"My car is over there, bye bye!" Xiao Caiyan's attitude became cold, and she asked Rafa to step on the horse.

He drove away without looking back, without any nostalgia.

This makes Yu brother a little puzzled, is my car not working, or is my car's skills declining?

It shouldn't be!

The cooperation project finalized with Wei Lan this time is the production and consignment of 'hoverboard'.

Wei Lan expressed 120,000 points of sincerity in this matter.

It can be said that Azure is taking the initiative to berth on the big ship of Miracle Company.

It wants to take advantage of this huge ship and bind it together!

The company will naturally not resist.

Azure's performance in the automotive field, after owning the Kuafu battery pack, has been rising steadily.

Today, it sits firmly on the top three positions in the domestic electric vehicle field.

Known as a new generation of domestic leader!

Together with some of the mass-produced components of the speeding vehicle, they are not confidential, and they are all handed over to Azure for production.

The cooperation between the two sides in various fields has long since separated each other.

Because of this, some jealous people say that Azure is now the dogleg of Miracle Company, with its back on the big tree, and the villain has aspirations.

Azure's Li Yi is also at the latest product launch conference on this matter.

Make some self-ridicule.

"Some people say that Azure relies on Miracle Company to make it today. They say that our sugar daddy is worthy of our ambitions!"

"That makes a lot of sense."

"Weilan succeeded, to bring customers a brand new experience, to enjoy the luxury experience at the lowest cost, this is our goal."

"As long as the customer is satisfied, it doesn't matter whether I personally, or even Azure, bear some slander or infamy."

"I hope that those entrepreneurs who have time to slander Azure can focus more on how to optimize their products."

There is competition to make progress, blue, waiting for you in the blue ocean in the future! "

A speech instantly opened up the azure pattern and gained countless fans.

The blue ocean of the future is waiting for you!

Look at this person's tolerance, this courage, how can you compete for it?

Lower the price and raise the quality. Don't be like a girl, you know that you are jealous every day!

Don't do anything, the first place in infighting.

hetui~

Arrive at the company in Rafa, and the signing ceremony is underway.

Qin Yu didn't bother Xu Hao. The signing meeting has always been his home court. Brother Hao already has plenty of experience.

When I came to the top office, the secretary desk in front of me expanded a lot of space.

From the first two people to three people, and then to four people now.

Secretary Xu did a good job, and the photos did not turn out to be cheating.

Moreover, he is still a rich child!

4 points of wealth, can catch up with Savannah.

Well-off family!

"Boss." Xu Meixin, who was sitting closest to the door, got up and greeted for the first time.

Madoka quietly followed, and Bei Yi, who was applying makeup, seemed a little frantic.

And Feng Shuyi, who just arrived on the first day, bangdangdingdong...

The chair is turned over!

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry." Feng Shuyi bowed quickly and helped her chair up.

"Work on the first day." Qin Yu stopped, showing a kind smile.

"Yes, good boss, my name is Feng Shuyi, you call me Xiaoyi..."

"No, Xiaoshu..."

"You can call it whatever you like."

Feng Shuyi is autistic.

She is not like this normally, boss, you believe me.

The belly draft prepared last night and the script at the time of meeting are completely forgotten.

After all, the dream of seeing thousands of young girls.

Moreover, the boss is really handsome.

"Don't be nervous, work hard, Shuyi." Qin Yu chose a compromise.

With a gentle face, he nodded and walked into the office.

Xu Meixin followed close behind and brought the door to her.

Seeing the door closed, Feng Shuyi suddenly fell back on the chair, panting and saying, "I was scared to death."

Seeing her bumpy breasts, Madoka said with some envy: "Don't be nervous, the boss is very gentle."

"En en." Bei Yi nodded in agreement, immersed in the work at hand.

Since Beiyi came, Madoka has been promoted to the first administrative secretary.

She has to do all the miscellaneous tasks.

After it's done, it will be handed over to Xiaoyuan for checking. Bei Yi really doesn't have much time to chat.

"Huh, that's good."

Feng Shuyi calmed down her breathing and couldn't help asking again: "Sister Xiaoyuan, do you think the boss really doesn't care?"

"No, don't worry!" Madoka said in a friendly manner.

Although she really minded the appearance of the other party.

Regardless of the face, figure, appearance, and appearance, it is a great threat to Madoka who regards the boss as a target.

But Xu Meixin made a good start for the secretary's office. It is the most basic manual exercise to distinguish between public and private.

Madoka will not put her personal emotions into her work.

However, she should stay away from herself during non-working hours.

Madoka didn't want to be a green leaf to accompany her, let alone a stepping stone for anyone to climb up.

Squeak~

The reopened door interrupted the conversation between the two.

Standing in the door, Xu Meixin looked at Feng Shuyi and said, "Shuyi, come here."

"Me?" Feng Shuyi pointed at herself and quickly got up and ran into the house.

Seeing this scene of Madoka, her mentality collapsed! !

what's the situation?

Feng Shuyi herself is also puzzled. When she comes out again, her face is full of strange surprises.

"What did the boss say?" Madoka pretended to ask inadvertently when she saw her sitting sluggishly.

"The boss asked me to follow Sister Xu." Feng Shuyi whispered.

But the sound of this whisper reached Xiao Yuan and stood, shaking like a morning bell.

A villain popped out of his mind, rolling all over the floor and yelling "Ahhhhh".

Why, why?

I have been so magnanimous, can't the boss see it?

People make progress and learn.

Boss, I can, I can really...

Ooh~

Bullying, why not me after waiting so long?

Obviously I came first...

Soon after, Xu Meixin returned to her position and whispered softly: "Miao Yuan, you have to bear more administrative work in the future."

"Shu Yi, this is the boss's itinerary for the next six months, a summary of important events, the specifications of the briefing and some precautions."

"This is the boss's personal preference and habit..."

"This is the boss's contact list. I will ask the secretary's office to send out your contact information later."

Stacks of documents thick as words on the table, in Feng Shuyi's desperate eyes.

Xu Meixin opened the drawer to reveal the concealed safe inside.

Verify the fingerprint, enter the password, and take out a dozen notebooks that are 20 cm high.

"What's recorded here is all about the boss's privacy and time management."

After speaking, Xu Meixin put the notebook back again.

Click!

The safe was locked, and Xu Meixin said with a calm expression: "The day I handed them to you, it was when you turned into a positive."

"Right now?" Feng Shuyi was a little startled.

"Well, Sister Xu, can I ask about the work during the internship period?" Feng Shuyi was inside just now, as if she hadn't heard anything.

"Enough for your expenses and specific treatment, you can go to the Finance Department." Xu Meixin didn't plan to discuss salary with her here.

After all, the salary of life secretary is more than that of administrative secretary.

very many...

Take Xu Meixin and Xiaoyuan for example. Her monthly pre-tax income reached 62,000, and her annual bonus was around one million.

Madoka's monthly income before taxes is only 38,000.

In terms of bonuses, it is also much less than Xu Meixin.

This gap will also continue to Feng Shuyi and Beiyi, so it's better not to talk about it in public.

In terms of treatment and authority, the life secretary and the administrative secretary have their own focus.

Like Feng Shuyi, she has a monthly reimbursement quota of 100,000 after her internship.

This was naturally affected by Qin Yu, and Beiyi did not have this treatment.

But when it comes to the company's administrative instructions and transfers, Feng Shuyi needs to convey the opinions to the secretary's office first.

Then Beiyi will report to Xiaoyuan for the review and approval to take effect.

Xu Meixin is a special case. The company only needs to have one of her.

There will not be a second, M10-level chief secretary.

"Secretary Xu, this is today's briefing." The person in the secretary's room sent a letter enveloped with a briefing with a red logo on it.

"thanks."

Xu Meixin accepted her thanks and looked at Feng Shuyi: "You come with me, you will be responsible for today's report."

"Okay." Feng Shuyi was sober now.

Now that she gets the job that others dream of, she must strive to be the most perfect.

No matter how many difficulties and problems there are, they will be solved.

‘Feng Shuyi, you can do it. ’

Cheering for herself in her heart, Feng Shuyi took a deep breath and followed Xu Meixin into the office.

"Boss, Shuyi and I will report."

Xu Meixin stepped forward and stood on the left side of the desk, gently reminding Qin Yu who was busy.

"Well, let's start!" Qin Yu said without looking up.

Unpacked, a briefing booklet with a pure white cover was sealed with plastic.

Using a paper knife to cut the plastic seal, Xu Meixin pulled out the briefing, turned her head and handed her to Feng Shuyi.

Step forward quickly and take over the white paper. ’

"What should I do?" Feng Shuyi opened the cover and quickly asked Xu Meixin.

"According to the reading." Xu Meixin replied, staring directly.

"Today's briefing, the honeycomb project is progressing smoothly, the Beizhou laboratory is about to be completed, and team leader Shi Cui went to check and accept.

The Healing Heart is effective in curbing the spread of contaminated areas, and the remaining effects are under study.

The settlement center is operating normally. UU Reading www.uukānshu.com we have a small-scale conflict with the dispatched personnel, which has been brought under control..."

An incident that appeared to the outside world to be top-secret, opened the mysterious curtain in front of Feng Shuyi.

The more she read, the more frightened she became, and Feng Shuyi's voice began to tremble.

Immigration, spaceship, alien space.

Exploring out of the river, the current status of signal relay station deployment.

The relay station is nothing strange.

Can be put in space and meteorite belt...

'Calm down, Shuyi, you have seen the world. Feng Shuyi felt that 22 years ago, she might have been fake.

Speed, the progress of the project, although occasionally a few trivial matters.

But in Feng Shuyi's eyes, it was not a trivial matter.

There are also the pollution situation in various places mentioned in it, the land of suffering, and the exploration and cleaning of polluted areas.

The company's in-depth research on 'radiation' and so on.

When has the world become so dangerous, do they really live in the same world?

"Above, done!" When the last word was read, the white paper was closed.

Feng Shuyi was already in a cold sweat.

But she didn't even notice it, her calm heart was beating vigorously.

For the brand-new vision and world, look forward to...

Chapter 1086: Safety

30 billion investment, miracle invested in personnel and related technical support, accounting for 60%.

Li Yi's full sincerity can be felt throughout the company.

The senior executives even praised the partner, and they were very satisfied.

He even took the initiative to call Old Yi with Brother Yu, and asked him to come to get together often.

Although it is a polite remark, but with this meaning in it, Lao Yi also has a lot of face when he speaks it out.

The founder of Miracle Company, Qin Dong, you know?

Old acquaintances, we often get together!

Someone really asked Dao Yu before, and he also nodded in agreement.

Those who don't get together are not so important.

After getting off work at night, Feng Shuyi, who had adapted to the day, also began to enter the role.

In response, they are also pretty!

Brother Yu gave a rare boast about her adaptability.

That is, how could Madoka sitting next to her face become more and more ugly.

"Madooka, are you sick?"

"No, boss, I... okay!"

"Since it's okay, lift up your mind and look at Ren Shuyi, don't let the newcomer compare."

Suck~

Madoka sniffed, holding back the urge to cry, 'um'.

Brother Yu only treated her as a relative and was not in a high mood.

After giving a few words, he walked into the elevator accompanied by Xu Meixin.

"Don't follow me, pick me up at home tomorrow." Qin Yu said when he got into the car, leaving the bag in the co-pilot.

"Okay, boss, do you need to make arrangements in advance for Hudu?" Xu Meixin asked.

"Contact Xu Wanwan." Qin Yu said.

"Understood, boss, be careful on the road." Xu Meixin bowed and leaned, and then looked up again when the engine moved far away.

It seems that Xu Wanwan is going to be lucky this time.

On the way home, Qin Yu received a call from Tang He.

Before waking up from the hangover, he spoke upside down and asked where he was.

"Thank you, I was crossing in Shanghai and just got off the plane."

"I lost it, it's true, I won't sleep for a few days, am I?"

We were drinking together last night, so we will go to Hudu, brother, are you flying trapeze?

"Fake, but I do go to Hudu tomorrow morning. I have already told about Ale. Someone will contact him tomorrow."

"Okay, then you have a good journey. Brother arranged it yourself for a few nights."

"Don't bring bad kids."

"Go ahead, the chicken thief Le is back from the south, the hometown of Dongguan, it's more expensive than you play?"

When Brother Yu thought about it, this was the truth: "A small umbrella, peace of mind for you, me and him."

"Hey, safety first, fight one by one!" Tang He smiled.

"...stable!"

In the morning, I had a face-to-face meeting with Master Mother and grabbed two buns.

The speed car carrying Xu Meixin outside has arrived!

In Kylin's empty net, there is a private empty road dedicated to Yu Ge.

As a company owner, it's right to leave.

Just like everyone else, what's the matter in queuing? ? ?

Little Pumpkin is still angry with him.

Therefore, this time instead of as usual, Pi Dian Pi Dian ran over to ask him to stay.

This made Brother Yu a little uncomfortable, thinking about whether to bring him back with a big sister next time.

Nowadays, rich people don't have the saying that accompanied readers.

As a new super-rich, it makes sense to find a tutor for my little brother, right?

After boarding the speed car, the body 'dissolves' in the air as soon as it takes off.

The little pumpkin chased out from below could only weakly shout to the sky: "Brother, don't forget to bring a gift!"

The private speed car drove to Hudu, experiencing two rains and two cold currents on the way.

When I arrived at Hudu, the sky cleared.

The pictures of climate change are as beautiful as time flies by.

The speeding car parked directly on the terrace of the top-floor mansion, and the breeze driven by it made ripples in the pool water.

Although Qin Yu and the small anchor are often absent.

But the aunts hired by hourly workers come to clean every three days.

By the way, get rid of floating dust or debris on the swimming pool.

Change the water once a week to ensure that the facilities in the house can be used directly when the host's family returns.

Seeing that the door to the terrace was closed, Qin Yu knew that there was no one at home.

With the speeding car parked in the open space, Qin Yu brought Xu Meixin to the living room.

"What does Wanwan say?"

"Miss Xu is waiting for you at home, it's tonight."

"Yeah." Qin Yu slumped on the sofa, lazily closed his eyes and sleeplessly.

Seeing him like this, Xu Meixin took off her suit jacket.

With a flick of your finger, you put the coat on the ground.

*

*

Zizi~

The sound of the electronic door opening came into my ears, and Brother Yu who was enjoying the service suddenly got up.

The voice of the little anchor came from the welcoming living room: "Ah, I finally got home."

Xu Meixin picked up her jacket indifferently and put her hand on her arm.

A few steps on his hind legs with a respectful look, stand where he should be.

"Little rain."

When Cheng Xiyu walked into the living room, Qin Yu first called her name.

With a startled expression, Cheng Xiyu saw Qin Yu sitting on the sofa with a bright smile.

Leaving the suitcase and clothes in her hand, Cheng Xiyu rushed towards the sofa.

The slippery slippers almost hit Wang Hong in the face.

She was walking in with Cheng Xiyu, a flower in front of her, something wiped her ears.

"Ah~ Boss."

Throwing Qin Yu down on the sofa, Cheng Xiyu hugged him a few bites and kissed him happily.

"Ah, there are still people here."

Qin Yu sat up holding her, and asked in a soft voice, "Where did this trip go again, is it going well?"

"Arctic, we went to see a polar bear, that big guy, so beautiful!" Cheng Xiyu exaggeratedly gestured to the polar bear with his hands.

After her excitement passed, Qin Yu asked curiously, "Where is the water pump?"

She went to the North Pole. It shouldn't be for the pump project. In other words, it was all about polar bears.

Cheng Xiyu's mouth slumped, and said pitifully, "That's so boring!"

Break through the ice layer and pump water from below to irrigate the pump layer to reinforce the iceberg.

Sounds great, great!

But the reality is very boring, that is, a group of people are constantly measuring, making holes, making holes, making holes...

There is a pile of parts next to it, which are used to assemble the water pump.

In addition to listening to a group of technicians every day, they communicate and argue in professional terms.

It is measuring, drilling holes, and drawing pictures.

Cheng Xiyu is almost boring and crazy!

Going to see a polar bear and feeding it fish is the only thing she is happy about in the North Pole.

"So, the project is difficult?" Qin Yu selectively filtered her complaints and only listened to the important ones.

"It's mainly about getting through the ice layer. I don't understand the specifics." Cheng Xiyu jumped off the ground and ran over to pick up the box he had just lost.

After opening it, he took back a stack of files, "However, I wrote them all down."

Shaking his head triumphantly, the two braids swayed left and right, "I'm smart!"

Brother Yu is concerned about the dangling pigtail, which looks moderately thick and should be very comfortable to hold.

"Ah, Secretary Xu, take these materials back and tell me the answer after reading them."

Give the information to Xu Meixin. Brother Yu is giving her an order to evict her.

Xu Meixin has adapted well to this.

Her head is the chief secretary, and her deputy is the life assistant.

Xu Meixin is very clear about the distinction between primary and secondary.

Now, it's time to go to work.

"Okay, boss." Xu Meixin nodded slightly, "Miss Cheng, I'll leave first."

"Okay, be careful on the road." Cheng Xiyu waved.

It was found that she was heading towards the terrace with a suspicious expression on her face.

What is this going to do?

Can I go to the terrace and land vertically?

"My speed car is parked on the terrace. I just arrived before you walked in." Qin Yu explained with a smile.

"Speed, I haven't taken a ride yet!" Cheng Xiyu jumped up and went to the terrace.

But Qin Yu held her back, "Next time, Secretary Xu still has work to do."

"Oh!" Cheng Xiyu replied sullenly, leaning against his chest again.

Unconsciously, the sleepiness came up, covering her mouth with her hand and hitting 'haha,' Cheng Xiyu faltered and said, "I'm so sleepy."

"Go to sleep, I will see you tomorrow." Qin Yu hugged her and walked to the bedroom.

"Are you leaving now?" Cheng Xiyu's eyes were grimace, and he was about to leave just a few minutes after meeting.

"Something needs to be dealt with." Qin Yu responded with a light smile.

Cheng Xiyu could also understand that he wouldn't fly back if nothing happened.

It's just that I have to separate right after we meet, which is unavoidable.

After staying in the room for half an hour, Brother Yu finally blocked the little anchor's mouth and let her go to bed obediently.

Back in the living room, Wang Hong was packing his suitcase.

"Sister Hong, don't clean up, wait until Auntie arrives." Qin Yu pulled her up, who was squatting on the ground.

"It's okay, I'm not tired at all, it's mainly because Sister Xiao Yu is busy, I drink soy sauce to watch the snow scene all the time."

Qin Yu held her and didn't let go, looking straight at her like this.

Wang Hong was a little guilty of being seen, and tentatively said: "Then I'm going to cook?"

"I don't know when I wake up, let's go to sleep first!" Qin Yu smoothed the scattered long hair on her temples.

He kissed her on the forehead again, and said, "I'm leaving now, obediently."

"Oh!" Wang Hong lowered his head shyly.

You are so old, can you stop treating me as a child?

However, my heart is as sweet as candied fruit.

So happy!

Opening the key box on the shoe rack, Qin Yu took the familiar big par car key and went out.

Drive straight to Liancheng on the east coast. After entering Lingang, the atmosphere on the street is obviously different. UU reading www. uukahnsu.com

It is more desolate than before, and the small shops on the roadside have all lowered their shutters.

Only a few staggered stores are still open, and no one patronizes them.

Going further inside, a cavalry patrol appeared on the street.

Brother Yu's big pa was stopped several times, and only found out after asking.

Since the establishment of the separation wall, the contaminated area has been held hostage, and people with abnormal changes often sneak into Lingang.

The reasons for wanting to sneak into the contaminated area are also strange.

Those who are looking for excitement, those who want to hunt treasures inside, those who improve their strength...

Think of himself as a pig's foot of destiny, feel that he can eliminate radiation pollution by himself, and become a human hero and reach the pinnacle of life.

Not in the minority!

These people's heads are surprised and don't know how they grow.

No matter how strong the country is, there is no way to take the polluted area.

You, a civilian with a little ability, feel that you are invincible in the world.

I advise you to calm down, go home and wash, and go to sleep!

After all, there is everything in the dream.

The reason why Tieqi stopped Qin Yu was to inquire about his intentions.

I really have to hold on to unrealistic ideas and quickly persuade them to avoid more distortions in the contaminated area.

Chapter 1087: not enough

After arriving in Liancheng on the east coast, Brother Yu saw two patrolling [Xingtian] at the gate.

During the registration process, the two [Xing Tian] paid attention to Brother Yu.

"We know?" Yu Ge asked curiously.

"Dong Qin, we are the people of the different investigation bureau, sent to protect the safety here." One of the members responded.

"Oh, so." Qin Yu nodded clearly.

"Help me thank you chief."

"Okay, Qin Dong."

Entering the community, he hadn't expected the arrangement of the Aliens Bureau.

Although what happened to the two [Xing Tian], it may not be resolved.

But it is better than nothing, at least there is a gesture.

Or, donate a few [Titans] to the Bureau of Anomaly, and they work very hard.

Parked the car in the basement, Qin Yu took the elevator up.

Ding!

The elevator door opened, and Brother Yu was also stupid.

I saw that the door was full of couriers, and the courier in flashing clothing was scanning the code to ship the goods.

"What's the situation?" Brother Yu walked in through the gap left by the courier, standing behind the courier and asked.

"Boss, is that you?" Xu Wanwan asked embarrassedly, standing at the other end of the express.

"Wanwan, are you opening a store?" Brother Yu shouted through the express box mountain higher than his head.

The two of you said one sentence, and I said one sentence, there is a feeling of singing folk songs.

The courier caught in the middle was dumbfounded and could only speed up the code scanning.

It's tiring enough to carry these things up, and have to be forced to feed dog food?

Single dogs also have dog rights, so cut!

10 boxes of Ifidan Super Mask, 30 cans, just enough for one year.

3 sets of SK2 fairy water, one year.

6 small black bottles of Lancome, one year.

A complete set of Hailan Mystery Cream, Yu Ge saw 6 big boxes.

Hand lotion, essence lotion, body lotion...

Essential oils, aromatherapy, atmosphere candles, bubble bath, keratin cleansing...

At first, Brother Yu could still understand, then his brain began to empty, his eyes gradually sluggish.

There was a thought in his head, "It's troublesome to be a woman."

I can't understand the bottles and cans, let alone use them.

Brother Yu grew up so old, except for a few facial cleansers during adolescence, he never used anything else.

Now it's easier to get up, splash water on your face twice, and wipe it dry.

"I bought everything while the event was happening." Xu Wanwan said angrily after finishing all the things.

The front hall was emptied again, and there were so many boxes that there would be no one to see.

With this ability to summarize and organize, it is easy to be a storage division and earn tens of thousands a month.

"These are for one year, and the event discounts are more cost-effective."

Seeing she wanted to explain, she looked worried.

Brother Yu smiled and said, "It's not a big deal, so don't tell me."

Emptying the shopping cart is not a man's ability.

Brother Yu wouldn't hold on asking for this little matter.

Tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, or millions...

For him, it doesn't make a difference, it's nothing more than multiple zeros and one less zero.

It will neither affect his quality of life nor his mood.

That's not right, the impact is still there.

For example, Xu Wanwan became more gentle and presumptuous.

This night, wild!

The next day, after having lunch, Brother Yu hugged Xu Wanwan and watched the news on the sofa.

Asked about the purpose of this trip, the experience and after-sales maintenance of the little J robot.

"Did I do it?" Xu Wanwan's question was the same.

Are you worried about whether you can do it?

Robot, it sounds so tall.

Tall = fragile = expensive!

Xu Wanwan was afraid that he would screw it up, even affecting his position in Qin Yu's mind.

She is very satisfied with her current life.

Occasionally go out to dinner with best friends, take pictures and watch movies.

Play games at home, watch TV, and shop online.

There are also live broadcasts, which can pass the boring time and communicate with people.

Compared to face-to-face communication, she prefers strangers across the screen.

You don't know me, I don't know you.

Don't have so many worries, socialize, how good...

Otherwise, go to a coastal city to relax.

Days are free, nature is free...

She doesn't have so much ambition, and to put it bluntly is the salted fish house.

The current quality of life has far exceeded her expectations, and Xu Wanwan has satisfied it.

People, once satisfied.

If you lose your way, you will become a salted fish house like her.

Eh...

Life is full and satisfying, and there is no motivation to struggle.

so annoying!

"Don't want to do it?" Brother Yu asked.

Looking at his face carefully, Xu Wanwan was sure that he was not angry, and then said, "Can you?"

"Of course, I'm afraid you are bored and want to find something to do."

"I'm not boring." Xu Wanwan shook his head like a rattle.

Seeing that she really didn't want to do it, Brother Yu began to think about other candidates.

After thinking about it, Xu Xixi's shadow came out clearly in his mind.

Last time I met, I heard her complain about boring work, maybe she would like to change career.

Picking up the phone, Brother Yu found Xu Xixi's WeChat account.

"Call me when you are not busy." Qin Yu.

Just put down the phone here, planning to sleep with Wanwan.

The bell rang.

"Xixi..." Brother Yu got up and walked to the balcony, Xu Wan bent his legs and sat on the sofa.

Tilted his head to overhear, but didn't hear anything.

It's just that intimate name that made her taste a little bit.

Maybe, I shouldn't refuse this opportunity.

If you work, will there be more intersections with him?

Xu Wanwan regretted it, but it was too late.

When Qin Yu returns, the candidate for the Hudu project has been finalized.

Xu Xixi promised to resign tomorrow and fly back to Hudu to handle this matter.

She doesn't need to worry about site selection and decoration.

The company will do it by hand and hand it to her.

Follow-up management only needs her to think a little bit more.

Specific business and work are handled by dedicated personnel.

To be honest, just like picking up money for nothing, it is nothing more than earning more and earning less.

For children from aristocratic families like Li Xiao, they definitely look down on the support policies.

If you want to do it, you can directly represent it, all inclusive, and the benefit will be higher.

It's better not to do it if you get 20% of the income.

But for ordinary families like Xu Xixi, this is a good opportunity to stand up.

"Is it still live streaming recently?" Brother Yu sat back on the sofa, put his arms around her and fiddled with her blown hair.

The curly hair is of good quality, fine and supple, and feels smooth and silky, very comfortable.

Brother Yu always likes to put her hair in between and smash it to the end.

"Yeah." Wanwan nodded and said: "It's very interesting."

"Are you interested in live broadcasting the monster?" Qin Yu thought about it, and decided to reveal more.

"In the future, personal terminals will cooperate with live broadcast and short video platforms to open channels and use the direction of projection to conduct live broadcasts."

"This will give the audience a stronger sense of substitution, more flexible scheduling and a better visual experience."

"If you really want to develop in the live broadcast industry, just chatting is not enough."

For pure chat anchors, if you want to make money, it depends on how busy the line is.

Really relying on the few dollars in the chat, the electricity bill can't be paid.

Xu Wanwan couldn't be airborne offline, so naturally there was no profit.

Brother Yu is not worried about the money, since she has raised her, the secondary card should be swiped casually.

Raised a canary, not a sparrow!

How is it possible without spending money?

She was afraid that Xu Wanwan would be bored sooner or later, with no goals or directions, and becoming depressed, affecting her mood and value.

Find something to do to fill your inner needs.

Now the freshness hasn't passed, wait until this lazy energy is gone.

Xu Wanwan will start to be anxious.

By then, this wave of major changes may be over.

It is much harder to think about restructuring and fishing for gold than it is now.

Seeing her thinking on her face, Qin Yu said: "You can be a casual pure-play anchor and explore the map in the game."

Fishing, picking flowers, picking up trash, chatting and making friends..."

"Anyway, you can treat it as a second world."

Hearing what he said, Xu Wanwan finally became interested: "Then I will give it a try."

"I will send someone to the game pod tomorrow, and more energy bars will be prepared for you."

Give her Yan Xue's number and ask her to call this number when she needs it. Naturally, someone will send an energy bar.

To be an anchor, you must have enough content and time, be online for five minutes, and hang up.

This day's live broadcast ends here, and it's hard to get even more exciting.

Everything that should be done was done, and Xu Wanwan was full.

Before leaving, Brother Yu asked more: "Really don't want to move to the inner ring?"

Xu Wanwan smiled and said: "It's pretty good here. It's not a separation wall and mecha fighters. It's okay. UU reading www.uukanshu.com"

"Yeah." Seeing her make up her mind, Brother Yu didn't force it anymore.

If there is any danger, the [Assaulter] who follows her will take her to a safe area as soon as possible.

Although there are dangers, there is no need to make a fuss.

What a bad luck, drinking water can choke to death.

Who are you going to talk about?

Returning to the top floor mansion, the house was more lively than when he left.

The little anchor is having a meeting with the team to discuss the future style, color, fabric, tailoring and characteristics of the cheongsam.

Whether you can see the trend of the future will determine the future prosperity and potential of the brand.

Seeing her serious work, Brother Yu, who was about to enter the living room, retreated again.

Let's go and see Shaman first, I don't know if she is back.

Less than a few hundred meters apart, Yu Ge pressed his thumb on the fingerprint reader.

Nourish, drop!

The door opened and the living room light in the room was on.

Brother Yu came to the living room, but did not see the cleaning bucket and the corresponding tools.

It is Shaman who is back.

Going straight to the painting room, the door was really hidden.

Pushing away gently, the graceful back on the ladder chair came into view.

On the canvas are mountains, majestic and majestic.

Among the black mountains and white waters, there was a strange and absurd shadow standing up, which surprised Yu brother, 'is she going to change to the ink painting school?'

Standing quietly behind Sha Man, waiting for her to finish the last stroke.

Put the brush into the ink tray, then opened her hands and hugged her into her arms, "When did you start to adopt the style of Chinese painting?"

The tight body suddenly relaxed, Shaman lay back comfortably, and said: "Now...how long has it been here."

"For a while." Qin Yu picked her up and turned to walk outside the painting room.

Now, it's his time.

He must carefully look at the style of a master of Chinese painting in the future, and understand it thoroughly to be transparent enough!

Just looking at the outside is not enough for him.

Chapter 1088: Best friend

On the east coast of Liancheng, Xu Wanwan shrank on the sofa with some annoyance.

There are both the loss of refusing opportunities for oneself, and the hesitation and nervousness about the future.

What if you can't do it well?

Annoying Wanwan decided to find something to divert her attention, and the courier that had been organized by her was removed again.

A pile, piles of yards filled the living room.

Xu Wanwan began to unpack and violently pulled the cartons, seeing the joy of her favorite gift, which made her temporarily forget her troubles.

Lingling...

The video intercom call rang, and he turned forward to see that the security guard was standing downstairs with his girlfriend.

"Hello."

"Miss Xu, you have visitors!"

"It's my friends, invite them to come up!"

"Okay, I'm sorry to disturb you."

A few minutes later, Lu Wen ran in, wearing a short white little down, gray yoga pants, and black high-top short boots.

Dai Dai, who followed, wore a big red short windbreaker outside, with an off-white sweater as the base, black leggings, and long boots on the inside.

The beauties' girlfriends may not be all beauties, but they must be...

Lu Wen is like this, but from the outside, the score is at least 90+

"Wow, Wanwan, did you post?"

Seeing her full of big names in the living room, Lu Wen's eyes began to shine.

Dai Dai smiled and unbuttoned the windbreaker and put it on the back of the sofa. "Wanwan has always been a rich woman, don't you know?"

"Come on and help, there are scissors over there." Xu Wanwan pointed to the dining table.

"Rich lady, great!" Lu Wen slipped off her coat, found the scissors and ran back to unpack the box.

Dai Dai sat cross-legged on the sofa and said lazily, "Don't ask me to help. I died after performing three days in a row."

"I'm coming, I'm coming, and it's all over to me." Lu Wen said happily.

Demolition of express delivery is a kind of happiness, especially demolition of this luxury express.

The Hermes in the mask, the super mask of Ifidan.

Timeless fairy water, perfect small brown bottle eye cream and essence, there are just as many.

The little black bottle, if you have a little brown bottle, I still buy this.

It's worthy of a rich woman's handwriting, I admire it!

The bottles and cans in front of me are all what I want, woo...

But soon, this excitement turned into pain!

Ah, how come there are?

The excitement of putting goods on the table before has also become a cumbersome burden.

Vomit~

Lu Wen is about to throw up!

"Wanwan, how many things did you buy?" Looking back at the packing boxes piled up behind him.

Lu Wen put down the scissors and touched her red palm and tiger's mouth with distress.

"One year." Xu Wanwan raised his wrist and wiped his sweat with his clothes.

Bend down to unpack, it was easy at first.

After a long time, the whole body seems to be poured into cement.

Heavy and stiff!

"Ah~Don't open it." Xu Wanwan said angrily after dropping the express in his hand.

Lu Wen breathed a sigh of relief and took the opportunity to put down the scissors that he had just picked up again.

"Buying so much in a year, no wonder people say that beautiful women are piled up with money."

Seeing that she didn't say anything, Lu Wen sat next to her and asked, "Is there something on my mind?"

"Yeah." Xu Wanwan nodded.

"What can the little rich lady have to worry about?"

Dai Dai looked awake, narrowed his eyes and muttered softly.

"Living in a big house, no worries about food and drink, every day is spent, spent, spent..."

"There are still troubles like this, how can we ordinary people live?"

When she heard her complaints, Lu Wen was the first to refuse: "Hey, what are you ordinary people?"

"I'm an ordinary person, OK, can you two rich women not bully others?" Lu Wen simply vomited.

One is raised, and luxury cosmetics are bought every year.

A popular Internet celebrity singer, easily earns a million every year.

Rich women are poorer than rich women, I beg you to be your own people!

This did not dispel the distress of Wanwan, the opportunity rejected for himself and the future that is about to change.

She is a girl who keeps herself safe.

But keeping yourself safe also means being afraid of change.

Therefore, Xu Wanwan is very tangled now, very tangled!

"That's it?" After listening to her entanglement, Lu Wen's whole body was not good.

Sister, are you thinking that it is too easy for yourself to make money, or life is too easy?

How about we change...

It's not at all what you want from the boss!

"Just like you, the most hopeless, let it fall!" Dai Dai opened his eyes, rubbed his eyes and ran to the kitchen to get three bottles of water.

Looking at the crown glass bottle in his hand, Dai Dai said with envy, "Yes, Wanwan, now I drink noble water."

"For the boss."

"I believe you a ghost."

Lu Wen twisted the crown carefully, took a sip and said, "I took the bottle."

"There are so many under the stove, all for you." Xu Wanwan said.

She was hiding what she wanted to decorate, but now...

It's tasteless, looking an eyesore, it's a pity to lose it!

She likes it, so take it all away.

"Tsk tusk, this confidence." Lu Wen was sour.

Whenever she can be as good as a girlfriend, the water she drinks will cost seven to eight hundred yuan.

"You said, shouldn't I refuse?" Xu Wanwan was still entangled, she refused the boss.

"Didn't he arrange for you again?"

Dai Dai said indifferently: "Things are over, no matter how much you regret it, it's useless. It's better to think about the future."

As the leader of Wanwan, she knows the strength of that person very well.

As long as he wants to, he can easily leak a bit between his fingers, enough for others to eat for a few lifetimes.

Seeing his attitude towards Wanwan, he bought a house and arranged his career for the deputy card.

This is why Dai Dai used to say 'every day is to spend money, spend money, spend money'.

Moreover, with her in the line, I might be able to reconnect with the boss anytime.

Dai Dai can still remember the joy and craziness on the boat.

To this day, she occasionally dreams of the scene of that day in her dreams.

If you want to forget it, you can't forget it!

"Hey, can you tell me who the boss is?" Lu Wen squeezed hard to the side of Bend and touched her with her elbow.

She only knows that there is a boss, but who is this person...

Dai Dai knew that Wanwan, the person involved, couldn't be more clear.

Only her best friend, who is covered with mist, only knows that the boss is handsome, gold, and gentle.

In short, almost all women's fantasies about the opposite * are combined.

But who is he, Lu Wen, question mark face? ?

Hearing her question, Dai Dai and Wanwan looked at each other, shook their heads and said, "I can't say it."

"No way." Xu Wanwan.

"I'm gonna!" Lu Wen was angry.

Are there any mistakes? They are not good sisters anymore.

Didn't you want to rob you of a man, as for being so hidden?

"I really can't say."

Xu Wanwan shook his head and smiled bitterly: "The boss likes to keep a low profile and talk nonsense. Then I will be abandoned. You raise me!"

Lu Wen thought about it, and said seriously: "Forget it, I can't afford water."

Seeing that she was still running on herself, Xu Wanwan thumped her badly and said, "I said it was for the boss."

"We have drunk so much, you will not be abandoned, will you?" Lu Wen deliberately joked.

Speaking and twisting the lid, "Or put it back, I just took a sip, I shouldn't see it."

Being so troubled by her, Xu Wanwan leaned forward and closed with a smile.

He kept slapping her shoulders and said: "If it is true, I will rely on your house not to leave."

"Okay, take care of it, and take care of it, as long as you divide it into half." Lu Wen pointed to the bottles and cans in front of him.

"Monster, don't want to hit my baby's idea." Xu Wanwan immediately turned his face.

Lu Wen rolled her eyes frantically, "Reality."

"Actually, you don't need to worry, as Dai Dai said, you have already refused."

"Besides, what age is it now, and it's not a feudal age."

"Isn't it for you to develop as a game anchor? Do it well, take the opportunity to be independent, and leave no one to live."

Lu Wen said her opinions indifferently, but her heart was mixed.

She didn't know if she was really trying to relieve her sister, or out of jealousy in her heart.

In short, she just said what was in her heart.

As for whether to listen or not, it's Xu Wanwan's own business.

To say that Lu Wen has no selfishness, that would be too fake.

But it is said that she was single-minded to dismantle her best friend from the boss and replace it.

It's too much.

"But I don't want to work hard, what should I do?" Xu Wanwan tilted his head with a look of salted fish.

"Emmm~" Lu Wen was speechless.

She didn't want to work hard, nor did her elder brother see through her stubbornness.

But I don't want to be in the circle and become a 'good girl.'

Those rich second generations who reach out to take money with the family, UU reading www.uukanshu.com, whose eyes are higher than the sky every day, also look down on it.

The only resource around me that feels reliable is the 'Anonymous' of my girlfriends.'

People are hard to dismantle.

This world is too difficult~

"Then lie down, do you want to help, I will die with my sister, haha..." Lu Wen said jokingly.

But Dai Dai's eyes looked at her, but they were full of meaning.

It seems that some people can't wait and want to get a share of this sea pond.

However, it still depends on Wanwan's disagreement.

What kind of status is oneself, where is the qualification to worry about this kind of thing.

It is not her turn to make a decision.

"Wenwen, don't joke around." Xu Wanwan's eyes flowed, and he patted his girlfriend on the shoulder.

Lu Wen hugged her and said coquettishly: "If people are willing to sacrifice their lives for you, you are not moved at all?"

"I'm touched, I invite you to have a big meal in the evening." Xu Wanwan replied insincerely.

But I have decided in my heart that in the future, I will reduce contact with Lu Wen and keep away from each other.

I can't come back home.

She doesn't need someone to share the burden for herself, and she doesn't need Lu Wen to sacrifice her life.

If you really need it, Dai Dai is still sitting here!

As for you, one more person to win favor?

Xu Wanwan only hoped that she stayed far away, and she would be grateful for not playing her own boss's ideas.

At this moment, Lu Wen didn't know it, she was on the Wanwan blacklist.

In her heart, she became an object of vigilance.

Even if she knew it, she wouldn't be surprised.

When she decided to say that, Lu Wen was mentally prepared.

In terms of figure, looks and personality, Lu Wen admits that she will not lose to anyone.

In the future, I will catch this line by myself, or my girlfriend will turn against each other.

It depends on their respective means and skills!

Chapter 1089: OK

A brand-new 'body art' macro, lifelike in the morning sun.

"I want to frame this pair too." Shaman lay on the wool carpet, smiling with her legs folded.

"There is nowhere to hang up at home." Qin Yu was speechless.

What kind of hobby does she belong to, the sublime consciousness of dedicating herself to great art?

Brother Yu thinks of the teachers in the hard disk, who have educated countless people, wouldn't it be immense merit!

Those who are not satisfactory are subject to negotiation.

After all, Brother Yu has been out of the circle for a long time.

If you don't know enough, you have no right to speak.

But he believes that the will of the predecessors will be inherited by more outstanding younger generations.

"What bad idea are you making?"

Sha Man twisted his fingers on his waist, noticed the hardness of the skin and muscles, and fell on the ground again speechlessly.

Can't twist at all!

Happy, slap...no more.

"You should eat more meat." Qin Yu teased.

Sha Man spit out disgustedly: "You are too hard."

"Yes?"

Brother Yu smirked and said, "This is not better."

Hearing the deep meaning of his allusion, Shaman blushed and sighed, "Bah, who is rare."

Brother Yu smiled bitterly, woman, woman, you are insincere!

"You haven't said yet, where do you want to hang it?" Qin Yu asked again.

Sha Man's eyes wandered, thinking about it, teasing and chuckle: "How about my painting gallery?"

"Painting Exhibition Hall, are you sure?" Brother Yu was shocked.

This is really 'good news,' is she really going wild?

"Just hang it in the painting exhibition hall and be the treasure of the town hall!" Sha Man made a serious decision.

Watching her get up and bend down to roll up the canvas, she intends to put it away and wait for someone to mount it.

Qin Yu followed forward to help, and the works of two people couldn't make her work alone.

Although Yu Ge did not approve of this kind of personally unique masterpiece public exhibition.

But whoever makes Shaman the main creator, he can only be regarded as the second author.

Shaman accounts for 70% of the entire page, Yu Ge only accounts for 10%, and the remaining 20% is co-creation.

Its complexity is enough to make people feel the most primitive wild and impulsive.

"What to eat?" Qin Yu brushed his phone and prepared to order takeaway.

No one will have the energy to cook, even fast food is lazy.

"I want a paella, a big bowl." Sha Man was also exhausted.

Two paellas, two bottles of drinks, and another fresh oyster...

No, two copies!

Because he was very hungry, Yu Ge gave an extra 50 yuan to expedite.

The meal was delivered in only 18 minutes.

"Thank you." Sha Man thanked the security guard and closed the door with the meal.

When she returned to the living room again, Brother Yu had already arranged the bowls and chopsticks and looked like she couldn't wait.

Arrange everything on the plate funny, Shaman picked up an oyster first.

Squeeze lemon juice to his mouth, "Ah~"

"Suck!"

He sucked the oyster into his mouth, and Brother Yu showed a satisfied smile.

Seeing how delicious he ate, Shaman also brought one for herself.

"Suck, eh~"

Sha Man let out a stunning groan, and then put an oyster into his mouth again.

The third, the fourth...

Brother Yu blinked and made sure that the oysters on the plate disappeared one by one.

He quickly began to * the remaining oysters, and a gluttonous battle began.

After swallowing the last mouthful of paella, Sha Man put her hands back on her body and raised her head back: "Hiccup~ Too full!"

"I didn't see you saying support when I was grabbing oysters." Brother Yu let go of the spoon and spit out.

Two dozen oysters, half eaten by her.

Say it!

Why didn't she find it before, she was good at it.

Oysters, men's natural aphrodisiac.

What is it to change to a woman?

"Enriching blood and beauty, delaying aging, promoting hormone secretion, and detoxification."

Sha Man held the phone, and the more she read, the louder her voice became.

Delaying senescence, these four words are worth a thousand words, and oysters will become one of her daily staple foods in the future.

Brother Yu's focus is completely different from her, stimulating hormones.

Therefore, Shaman now uses her hand to fan the wind to get rid of the heat.

Coincidence~

Brother Yu knows a more effective way.

"Ah~"

In the scream, the woman was hugged and rushed to the gym.

On the west coast, Ilibera is hosting Yuri.

Yuri, who had shaved his head, was covered with muscular muscles that looked like a monster of muscles.

"Since he entered, there has been no news, and I don't know the specific progress."

What Ilibera said, 'he,' was a spy who got into Fort Dekker.

Two months ago, he had successfully entered the base.

But so far, they have never received any news, and even the life and death of the other party is not clear.

Yuri's patience is running out, and so is Ilibera.

Full-scale war broke out, blasting Fort Decker into ruins.

But she was worried, in case there was a deadly virus in it.

Because the explosion spreads, will it bring new disasters?

The precious peace and stability of the west coast, and the south has just entered a period of plateau, these are all at a huge price.

Time and the efforts of countless people will be effective.

If all results are destroyed because of impulse, even Ilibera cannot afford the consequences.

No one wants to follow a madman unless the other person is mad.

BlackRock is not crazy, only Ilibera is crazy.

"Where is the monastery?" Yuri asked coldly.

He who stays at the RRT every day and is responsible for training newcomers, he can only get the information he wants from a fixed channel.

One is BlackRock controlled by Ilibela. Her dear old father has retreated to the second line.

After receiving Qin Yu's support, Ilibera showed a strong offensive.

He also used force to deter him to force the old Fink, who did not want to see his hard work destroyed, to publicly announce his retirement.

Put all power in the hands of his daughter.

Complete the inheritance of this generation!

At least in the eyes of outsiders, this is true.

But everyone who knows the inside knows, don't be fooled by Ilibera's lovely appearance.

Under the appearance of youthful innocence, there is a cruel and evil black heart.

"Daisy is not mine, she has no reason to report to me." Illibela's face was a little unhappy.

She deflated on Daisy several times, making Ilibera hostile to her.

This dirty, humble woman.

It was just a poor plaything, dare to show off in front of him.

If it weren't for the strength she got lucky, she would be a corpse now.

"If it's okay, I'm going back." Yuri got up to leave.

"and many more."

Ilibera stopped him with a smile, "Don't you worry, can't you explain to the boss?"

Yuri was silent for a few seconds, then turned around and said: "That is your task, I am only in charge of RRT."

Seeing him decisively without looking back, Ilibera's white teeth clenched, revealing two gleaming cute little tiger teeth.

These guys, every one of them put her in their eyes.

Bastard, * it!

I picked a lollipop from the candy box on the table, peeled it, put it in my mouth and turned it around.

Ilibera's brain turned quickly, thinking about how to complete the task.

If he waits for him to call again, Ilibera should consider how to avoid punishment.

She is just crazy, not stupid!

The current self is absolutely impossible to resist the man's order.

And as worried as her, there is Daisy in the Midwest.

After tracking the target for several months, Daisy has not been able to find a suitable phone meeting.

But time will not stand still because of her!

Seeing time getting tighter and tighter, Cheng Yaojin has been hiding under the protection of hundreds of distortions.

This made Daisy a headache and was chased by fear.

Daisy even began to think about the success rate of rushing in and arresting people.

It's not taking people away...but the success rate she can survive...

He wanted to take Cheng Yaojin away under the protection of hundreds of distortions and super distortions.

Drunk Daisy didn't dare to think so, it was too bloated!

However, through the personal terminal, she received a good news.

Shi Cui came to Beizhou!

Perhaps this is an opportunity for her.

Together with Shi Cui, he is responsible for attracting the attention of the aberrant body.

Then he shot Cheng Yaojin away.

The only loophole is how long it will take Shi Cui to win Cheng Yaojin.

In other words, how strong is Cheng Yaojin's strength?

So far, Daisy has never seen him take a shot.

If there is any trouble, you only need to send a distortion body to solve it perfectly.

And he is only responsible for staying in a safe place, directing those deformed minions.

"Can't wait any longer, probably controlling the distortion is his only ability." Thinking of the man's ultimatum, Daisy decided not to wait any longer.

As for whether Shi Cui can be touched, she has absolute certainty.

The master behind the scenes who can control the aberration and fuse the brain with the aberration.

These two points alone are enough to arouse Shi Cui's interest.

Coming out of Shaman's house, Brother Yu was refreshed and energetic.

Transition~

This time, the little anchor should have been busy, right?

Go home excitedly and push the door.

The room was quiet, half a ghost was nothing.

"Xi Yu? Xiao Yu?" Qin Yu yelled a few words upstairs, but no one responded.

This is a bit outrageous!

People?

I was wondering where she had gone, and there was a rattling sound of high-heeled shoes hitting the floor from upstairs.

Gada, Gada~

A graceful posture appeared behind the transparent glass fence, a small anchor in school uniform, with two lovely ponytails.

Jumping around, draw a love heart with his hand, and fire a love cannonball at him.

Brother Yu covered his heart with his hands, and fell back on the sofa with his legs.

"I was hit, it's dead."

Brother Yu exaggeratedly said: "Without a hug of love, I am afraid I can't get up today."

"Haha~" The little anchor who wanted to continue to jump broke the defense in an instant.

He, this is too cute!

Such a boss, I really like...

Stepping on the slender metal high heels, the little anchor happily ran down the stairs.

Turning around lively in front of him, holding his chin in both hands, said pitifully: "Big villain, you can't bully others!"

The delicate tone, the pitiful and alluring expression, plus this outfit.

Oh~

I'm wearing black tights...

Which cadre can withstand this test?

Chapter 1090: cooperate

After finishing the work, she will continue to set off.

This time, she will go to Tibet to film "Xia Guo on the Bite of the Tongue" program. After the end, she will fly straight to the Arctic Circle to confirm the effect of the water pump.

Then they will know whether the pump plan is a genius or a fantasy!

"So, you can only stay for 10 days, and there are 7 days left for work?" Upon learning Cheng Xiyu's itinerary, Brother Yu held his head with his hands and his face was displeased.

"Boss, people are working hard to make money to support the family!" Cheng Xiyu hugged her tenderly.

She knows that she has arranged her time too closely, but she has become accustomed to the busy rhythm.

If you let her stop suddenly.

One day...happy...

Two days...comfortable...

In three days, she will start to become irritable.

This is her current state, the same as Qin Yu.

Don't look at him being very angry, but in fact, let him stay at home with himself for three days.

The first person who can't stand it must be him, who is more anxious to get himself busy than himself.

Besides, there are those women outside waiting for him to moisturize.

Cheng Xiyu tried his best not to think about this, because it would make her uncomfortable.

Being clear and accepting is not a concept of reciprocity!

Brother Yu certainly knows this fact.

But people are a combination of contradictions, just like Cheng Xiyu.

Being clear in your heart does not mean that you will make correct choices and judgments.

Therefore, he would still feel unhappy because of Cheng Xiyu's short stay.

It's just that this displeasure quickly subsided under the initiative of the little anchor.

I have to say that her coquettish and coquettish skills are getting more and more adept, and she often brings surprises to Brother Yu.

Especially the improvement in temperament can always make people shine.

Perhaps, this has a lot to do with her specialty 'passive evolution'.

In other women, Brother Yu can see the limit.

But in the little anchor, he saw infinite possibilities.

It's very Nice~

I spent the whole night with the little anchor, and when it came to light outside the window, the two hugged each other to sleep.

When I opened my eyes again, it was already afternoon.

Since letting Nanoworms fall into dormancy, Yu Ge's work and rest have begun to be disordered.

This is not only his physical needs and mental relaxation, but also the influence brought about by the evolution of Nanoworms.

Evolution needs too much energy to absorb, so that the energy needed by Yu Ge's body cannot be kept in a full state.

Simply put, it is somewhat similar to sub-health.

Therefore, he needs longer sleep to restore energy and reduce the daily consumption of the body.

"What's the plan tonight?" Qin Yu washed clean and put on the clean clothes prepared by the little anchor.

"We need to discuss the shooting route with the photography team, as well as the time arrangement." Cheng Xiyu stood in front of him, and buttoned him tenderly.

Lowering his head and kissing her forehead, Qin Yu said softly, "Don't work too hard, have lunch together tomorrow?"

"good."

"What to eat?"

"I let Sister Hong prepare at home. After filming so many episodes, I learned a lot of cooking techniques of local cuisine."

"Then I'll wait." Qin Yu left home with a bright smile, stroking her smooth long hair.

This time, he stopped driving.

Instead, let out the ZH2 covered in the garage, it is more convenient to ride a motorcycle.

Going out and entering the roundabout, the evening peak has already begun to be congested.

Brother Yu praised his knowing choice, and saw the needles shuttle between the traffic.

In only half an hour, he arrived in the town smoothly.

Putting the helmet on the car cover, Qin Yu strode towards the rail car.

Take the elevator up, and once again come to the central information processing center building, the VR central equipment room.

Qin Yu saw Jing Yuan who was checking and confirming the player's status.

"Is there no one else?" Qin Yu was a little curious, she shouldn't need to do this kind of work herself.

Unless it is an abnormal situation, like the last time a player violated an order and was contaminated, she needs to come forward in person.

Could it be that what happened again? ? ?

"Today is patrol day." Jing Yuan responded calmly.

After her reminder, Qin Yu remembered that today is the day when the team will enter the contaminated area to check the 'Healing Heart'.

Since implanting the second-generation Super God Gene and Prototype into its body.

The 'Healing Heart' produced obvious changes, but it did not develop towards the vision Qin Yu had expected.

It does not restore consciousness, but infinitely amplifies its own capabilities.

Absorb radiation and strengthen yourself.

The entire contaminated area was suppressed by it, and the radiation never spread out by 1 cm.

This ability alone made Yu Ge feel that his 50,000 belief value is not in vain.

If the radiation is not contained, it rushes through the wall and continues to spread out.

The deaths and losses that may be caused are more than 50,000 belief points comparable.

In Yu Ge's heart, any life is more expensive than 50,000 beliefs.

The premise...not the enemy!

Kindness to the enemy is cruel to oneself.

Brother Yu is not great yet, and uses self-mutilation to meet the enemy's requirements.

To blame, blame him for not being conscious enough!

"Is it going well?" Before the projection, Brother Yu saw the progress of the task from the first perspective.

They have arrived in the central area of the contaminated area, and several of them are scarred.

They were attacked by super deformeders on the road.

Compared with the previous knife arm, the squid distortion body encountered this time is more terrifying.

His body was covered with strong radiating tentacles, a dozen tentacles waved at the same time, like dense clouds roaring.

If they didn't cooperate with each other tacitly, it would be more than just injuries.

At present, the spread of radiation in the contaminated area has been curbed, but the diffuse radiation concentration is increasing day by day.

Correspondingly, the aberrations and unknown creatures living in it are becoming more and more dangerous.

The increase in radiation concentration has allowed their strength to grow rapidly.

But so far, the company has not been able to find the source of the radiation.

This is also the reason why the company can't solve the radiation from the root source. How can it solve the problem fundamentally if it can't find the source?

Nowadays, all we can do is to try our best to control the area covered by radiation.

If it can be fixed on the ruins of Lingang New City, it will be a great comfort to everyone who is concerned about this matter.

At least, no one will die.

The team entered the building smoothly and placed the basement of the 'Healing Heart'.

The flesh and blood overgrown the wall fills the space, and the interior is full of relaxing and comfortable atmosphere.

"The radiation value is 0, and there is no pollution." The voice of dialogue came from the lens.

They are using the detector to detect the radiation value, and it is still the same as the last time, the radiation value is 0.

A beating golden heart hung from above in the center.

Every time it swells, it will emit a faint gold powder, which will dissolve in the air and disappear.

The comfort that makes people feel relaxed is getting stronger and stronger.

Compared with the physical monitoring data on the game cabin, the players' spirits are in a state of extreme relaxation at this moment.

And, in this state, the high risk value is also decreasing.

In the body of the 'Healing Heart', their spiritual pollution is rapidly diminishing.

The state is better than ever.

"This is a new discovery, and it didn't happen last time." Jing Yuan recorded the changes in detail.

The words are filled with excitement, and the ability of the 'Healing Heart' is changing and strengthening.

Perhaps it will bring new surprises to everyone soon!

"I'll leave it to you here." Seeing that the task was going well, Qin Yu didn't plan to stay any longer.

He must first go to Hua Sen for a meeting, and then get in touch with Shi Cui to confirm his current progress in Beizhou.

The acceptance of the laboratory, and when will he come back.

As one of the company's most valuable assets, Brother Yu will not leave him alone in Beizhou.

Bei Zhou, at Daisy's invitation, Shi Cui agreed to act with her.

But there is a prerequisite, this action must be directed by oneself.

If she keeps ordering, act without permission!

I believe Daisy knows very well...

Come with her to Cheng Yaojin's hiding place, a desolate canyon 50 kilometers east of the Midwest.

Shi Cui saw it with his own eyes, the army of aberrations described by Daisy.

Densely dense, the deformed body covered with valleys stayed quietly in place.

It's just that the occasional agitated growl.

Show that they are not staying here voluntarily, but have a last resort.

The chaos from the depths of the soul cannot be completely eliminated no matter how restrained.

If these guys who have been pieced together with flesh and blood have a soul...

"What should we do?" Daisy asked him in a mocking tone.

He is the commander, so now it's time for him to play a role.

"Jump down." Shi Cui replied decisively.

Daisy was stunned, looking at him blankly, as if to make sure that there was something wrong with her hearing.

"What did you say?"

"Jump down."

Daisy also pointed her finger at herself and asked, "Me? Jump down?"

"Yes." Shi Cui said surely: "You said you wanted to divert those aberrations."

Daisy smiled, completely angry.

She promised to divert the distortion, but did not promise to die generously.

No, this is not a generosity to die, this is a suicide meal.

Daisy commits suicide + aberration body snack.

Perfect rhythm!

Unless she has a problem in her mind, she will agree to Shi Cui's request.

But before she had time to refute, a force suddenly came from behind, pushing her down the valley.

"Ah~ Shi Cui, I'm going to care about your grandmother, boom boom..."

Daisy uses standard Mandarin, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com to express her sincere and sincere greetings to Shi Cui.

Then, she took the initiative to attack the deformed body below.

It was covered with nematodes like a hedgehog, and it flew downwards like a rainstorm, penetrating all objects blocking the front.

Stone chips are scattered and sand is flying.

The line of sight was greatly hindered, the piercing and sharp sonic boom and the clash of flesh and blood, mixed with a burst of roar, echoed in the valley.

Shi Cui stood on the spot, waiting in silence.

He needs a perfect time to be able to appear in front of the opponent instantly and complete the capture.

And soon, he saw the opportunities Daisy had created for him.

His body naturally leaned forward, and the moment Shi Cui's body roared and accelerated like a cannonball, the moment he fell off the ground and plunged into the valley!
