

Pinnacle 1111

Chapter 1111

wandering around the entire store, Xu Xixi's expression is full of doubt.

What should I do if there is a contradiction, is someone making trouble?

Can intelligent AI answer all customer questions? ?

What if someone comes in specifically to make trouble? ? ?

If you think about it, countless questions pop up.

Xu Xixi frowned with a headache, feeling that it is so difficult to manage such a store!

"Of course someone will handle it."

The issues Xu Xixi can consider are naturally thought of by the company a long time ago, and they are more comprehensive.

Holographic projection is responsible for the reception and introduction process, which does not mean that the store is in vain.

Every store will be equipped with a full range of surveillance cameras without blind spots.

Logistics staff will also be in the store, responsible for solving emergencies.

If someone makes trouble, conflict occurs.

The speed car donated by Brother Yu to the patrol room can be used.

Within two minutes, there will be patrols falling from the sky.

Attendance, consumption, and losses caused, just pay for it.

"Isn't it only abandonment is a pilot?"

Xu Xixi remembers what the news said very clearly that Speed Car currently has no air routes and legal flying permissions in other cities.

donate to the patrol room, they shouldn't be able to fly freely, right?

"The rules are dead, and people live."

" is not a large-scale market popularization, with the speed car, the patrol can reach the scene at a faster speed.

is beneficial to the stability of the society and can deter potential criminals. "

"I arrived in two minutes, even if it was an impulse crime, I took the silver bracelet before it was over."

Of course, this is just a beautiful idea.

I don't know what to do-there will be an egg soon?

However, Qin Yu knows that in the industry that directly connects with Miracle Company, there will definitely not be situations where the police will not be ignorant of the situation.

The monitoring in the store will be directly connected to the system of the patrol room when there is no delay.

Furthermore, Xu Xixi also has 'invisible wings'.

After staying in the store for long, the two of them left first.

"Are you hungry, go eat something first?"

This is not far from the Bund, I haven't eaten Ginza for a long time Onodera 鰹, Brother Yu just wants to have a mouth addiction.

"Okay!" Xu Xixi agreed.

She was afraid that Qin Yu would not have time to accompany her, how could she refuse the other party's invitation.

A road less than two kilometers away, Xu Xixi suggested to walk over.

Walking holding hands on the lively Huaihai Middle Road, when passing by the mall, Brother Yu suddenly stopped.

"Go in and take a look."

Since I took time to accompany her, I would naturally be perfect.

Girls, there is no reason not to go shopping.

Xu Xixi is of course no exception. He said, "No," but he took his right foot honestly.

After walking around the mall, Xu Xixi selected a few women's clothing in Lane Crawford.

Brother Yu plays the role of the cash machine very cooperatively.

Since I tried it on, I have been full of praise!

When she finished trying on, she was still wondering which one to choose.

Brother Yu has already paid the bill at the front desk, and the cabinet sister also packed her bags with envy.

"Beauty, boyfriend is so kind to you."

The two interacted intimately without a ring on their hands, so they were naturally commensurate with their male and female friends.

As for whether or not, she should not care about it.

I am the counter sister who sells goods, and not the God of Wealth.

The dog takes the mouse—what's the matter?

"Yes, he is very good."

"I'm envious that people are handsome and treat you so well."

The naked envy of the cabinet sister made Xu Xixi both proud and proud.

I chose the eyes of a man, but I didn't say it.

At this moment, Xu Xixi subconsciously ignores the fact that he is just a small fish in a fish pond.

Anyway, she is a non-marriage and has no plans to have children.

As long as I am happy, the rest is not important.

And Qin Yu just satisfies all her illusions about the other half.

If it weren't for this, why should Xu Xixi wait so many years, so desperately trying to get up.

"Thank you for coming, Lane Crawford looks forward to seeing you again."

Watching the two walk away, the cabinet sister retracted her nymphomaniac smile and murmured: "He is super handsome and rich... I am willing to change me!"

As early as when she entered the door, she had a pair of bright-eyed cabinet sisters to see through the truth.

"Eh, the customer just now—Sanxiao?" A colleague from the cabinet patted her on the shoulder gossiping.

"I am a boy and girl friend, she is a man and a girl, don't talk nonsense."

Jucai first stop eating, you never know when, an unintentional remark will cause trouble to yourself.

Even if the other party is not there, even if it's just a fate, there will be no possibility of communication in this life.

Whenever you see someone, you don't need to talk about people behind you.

This is also the secret to her winning the gold medal sales for three consecutive years.

No one would like the presence of big mouths around him, even if it is just a brand counter sister who provides services for himself in a famous store.

Looking at the performance in the computer, the cabinet sister was happy and thought, "Wait for next year, I should be promoted to store manager too! "

Ginza

Onodera serrano, sushi bar area.

Today, Chef Ampei is in charge of the reception at the bar. If you want to eat her craftsmanship, you can only dine at the bar.

Fortunately, there are not many people in the lunch market, and most people who come will choose the box.

There is a set meal in the lunch market, and the variety in it is quite comprehensive.

Brother Yu directly chose two 13 sets of 698 set meals and waited to eat.

The tea steaming bowl came up first, with caviar on top of the steamed egg, and a small piece of crab meat in the middle.

tastes with a hint of seafood, not bad!

Rows of raw food below were served on the table, flounder, peony shrimp, tuna, geoduck, salmon, sea urchin...

The display is exquisite and novel, and the proportions look very comfortable.

Naturally, I have a great appetite to eat, and Xu Xixi praised it again and again, 'It's delicious, next time I will bring my girlfriend with me.'

This restaurant is many times better than the Tong Sushi I visited last time.

Raw food depends not only on the freshness of the ingredients, but also on the chef's handling and knife skills.

"No loss is a woman who can be the chef." Brother Yu praised her with a thumbs up.

The unsmiling head chef Ampei put down the knife, folded his hands in front of his lower abdomen, stepped back and bowed to thank you.

After that, Jingshou processed the ingredients in front of him again...

The sea urchin-based cuisine is today's surprise. Yu brother couldn't help but want more after eating the set meal.

"I'm very sorry, so the guests will quickly get tired of eating and lose their appetite for sea urchins."

"If you are not full, you can choose different dishes to match."

Hearing the head chef Ampei's dissuasion, Brother Yu retired and chose 10 sets of meals.

The amount of 13 pens has been supported by normal people.

to him—hey, my appetite!

The set meal that        offered again, together with Xu Xixi's inexhaustible meal, was swept away by Brother Yu.

waited to swallow the last bite of the meal, and then put down the spoon in satisfaction.

"Thank you for the hospitality." Thanks to the chef Ampei, and left in the farewell wave with a slightly raised corner of his mouth.

Xu Xixi mentioned that she was deeply impressed, "When she cooks, she is so focused, as if the whole person is involved."

"I can serve as the head chef of a well-known restaurant as a woman, how can I do without two brushes?"

explained to Xu Xixi a woman's position in the neon cooking world. After listening to it, her expression was wrong.

What the **** is she going back to prehistoric times?

regards 'teacher' as a hero and idol, but does not allow women to survive in the cooking world.

is not to say that neon women are gentle and virtuous, go to the hall, go to the kitchen, and enter, 'OK.'

Why, I can't make sushi anymore?

"In Neon, this discrimination is even more serious. There are 10 out of 10 stores, and all you see are male masters."

"If this shop was not opened here, she would not have the chance to become the chef."

Brother Yu is telling the truth and wants to meet a female chef in Neon.

The probability is lower than that of "Teacher" appearing in front of you and inviting you to join the "Fan Thank You Festival".

After eating, they naturally want to digest. The two are walking along the Bund.

A strong wind blew my eyes, and the sun, which had no temperature at all, disappeared behind the thick dark clouds.

Before anyone could react, it rained heavily in the sky.

"follow me."

pulled Xu Xixi all the way to Waldorf Astoria, Qin Yu released her hand.

"What's the weather!"

Xu Xixi wiped the rain on his head with his hands, and complained, "This weather is getting weird."

"This winter, I am afraid it will be difficult."

Extreme weather is about to become a daily routine in winter, and heavy rain invades the city at every turn, and heavy snow hits the city.

Otherwise, it will be a typhoon and tsunami, taking turns in battle.

Brother Yu is really a little hopeful that the water pump project done by Huang Ya and the anchor will really come true.

If it works, he will vote no matter how much money.

"Shao Qin?"

Looking at the wet back at the entrance of the hotel, butler Yao quickly walked up to meet him in surprise.

"Old Yao, haha, meet again."

Qin Yu fiddled with his hair casually, splashing water and greeted him with a hearty smile.

"I thought I was wrong!" Steward Yao bowed his head and invited the two to come with him.

In the old room where he usually lives, butler Yao opened the door to give way.

The person behind the laundry department has sent a brand-new spare garment. The whole suit and shoes are the same size.

"Old Yao, thank you."

"It's my honor. Mary will send you clothes that fit your girlfriend."

Lao Yao took the others and left, only the woman named Mary stayed.

Xu Xixi told the other party his size, and after a few minutes, Mary sent suitable clothes.

It's just that, the clothes are obviously chosen according to Brother Yu's preferences.

a short black skirt with a leaky shoulder neckline and a **** back, black silk letters, light blue lacquer and red bottom stiletto heels.

there are several colors of lace leg loops on it...

or a neck ring!

Next to , there are brand new, unopened round paper stickers of various specifications.

The red bottom is up to the sky, the mana is boundless.

With a leg loop, the attack speed is full...

This old Yao—is going to step out of the Great Avenue!

Knowing his own thoughts and preferences as a housekeeper, Brother Yu wants him more and more.

It is a pity that he has not taken the initiative to call himself to see it.

The eyes of the hotel executives are not all blind, presumably he has now got the treatment and equity he wants.

If you want Yao Yao to abandon his old club, he has to increase his money!

Chapter 1112: People go tea cool

Coffee Book Bar, the manager rushed to the door half an hour in advance to prepare to open the shop.

Before people approached, I saw the dew in the glass window on the bridge.

holding a coffee cup in both hands, standing behind the bar looking at the snowy scenery outside the window.

The store manager was not surprised, but he said, "I don't stay at home on vacation, she deserves to make money."

"Boss." The shop manager stood at the door and stomped his feet, shaking off the snow from his body.

"It's so cold!"

This year's snow is heavy and the weather is exceptionally cold.

If this trend continues, work will have to be shut down in a few days.

Seeing her shivering, Yun Lu smiled and poured her a cup of coffee, "Just made it, try it."

"thank you boss."

The shop manager took the coffee with a smile, and took a sip of hot coffee, and the body immediately warmed up.

After drinking the coffee, the shop manager went inside and changed his work clothes to prepare for the shop.

The employees also arrived at a point, and Chen Lu sat alone in front of the long bar of the French windows, watching the collection of poems quietly.

Ling Ling...

The wind chime rang, and the shop manager looked up, frowning involuntarily.

How come this person is here again.

In the compound, Ye Jinlan was lying on the bamboo cane chair under the tree, with a little miss and sadness hanging between his eyebrows.

People take the tea to cool, how long has it passed.

Ye Jinlan now has a deep understanding of this sentence.

Miracle Company's application to sell the spacecraft and related technology was blocked, and Ye Jinlan wanted to deal with it after learning about it.

Who knows that the uncles and uncles who used to treat her and the glamorous color in the past have all changed their faces now.

smiled on his mouth and took a mouthful of Ye's niece.

But when it comes to business, Gu Zuo talks about him and shirks.

Ye Jinlan is not a naive little girl, she knows she will definitely come this day.

It's just, I didn't expect it to be so fast.

"Miss, Master Ye is here."

As a guard assigned by the court to the old man, after the old man went, he should have reported back to the department.

Can be trusted by the old man, Fan Bing stayed.

The price is to resign from his post and stay in the establishment temporarily, and it will stop here in the future.

"What is he doing?"

Ye Jintan whispered, letting Fanbing let him in.

Although at the funeral, the relationship between the two parties eased somewhat.

But it was not to the point of 'love each other's family', I just nodded in greeting.

What is his intention to come here today?

"Jin Lan." Seeing the swaying figure on the bamboo and rattan lounge chair under the tree, Ye Haotian walked forward with a cordial laugh.

"sit."

He admitted that he had separated. As the head of the family, Ye Jinlan pointed at him at random, but did not stand up to greet her.

Ye Haotian wasn't angry with this high attitude.

Seeing his low-key performance, Ye Jinlan guessed that he had something to ask for himself.

This made her less eager to speak, shaking the chair and waiting quietly.

"You are leisurely. It reminds me of the days when Grandpa was there."

Ye Haotian mentioned the time in the past as soon as he spoke, clearly trying to draw the distance between each other.

"Say something straight." Ye Jinlan didn't cooperate with his recollection.

Seeing her resistance, Ye Haotian said in a kind tone toward the younger generation: "After all, we are also a family."

Ye Jinlan did not say a word, which means she did not deny this fact.

Break the bones and connect the tendons, the Ye family is the Ye family after all.

"I'm here this time to ask you about the company's application, do you have any details?"

What Ye Haotian said was exactly what had bothered Ye Jinlan before.

If this relationship cannot be resolved, the company's abacus of exporting technology will definitely fall through.

It's just that, it's okay. I'm afraid of causing speculation from others, believing that the company loses the favor and support from above and provokes new disputes.

The higher you stand, the farther you can see.

But the people underneath are staring at you like wolves, hoping for when you will fall.

There are very few who are willing to give you a hand, but there are countless people who will grab your stumbled foot and try to climb up.

Even if I can't climb up, I have to pull you down and step on your feet.

This is human nature, it is not good for others.

It's a sin to be better than me, what else is there for?

The bigger the company, the less it can be frustrated and bowed.

The pack of wolves looked around, and the meat on the elephant was rich enough.

Why are penguin lawsuits less and less for so many years?

Nanshan Pizza Hut's deterrence is much more powerful than what is said in the paragraph.

Even if it is known to be criticized, the impact is extremely bad.

But the penguin still has to persevere, turning back or being weak will only arouse the wolfishness of others and devour it alive.

This road-if you don't enter, you will die!

The same is true for miracles.

How many people's cheese did he move, and how many people returned without success, not profitable.

Ye Jinlan, who stayed next to him, knew how many black hands were blocked by the old man and the people behind Bai Ze these years.

"What do you want to say, just say it."

Ye Jinlan became more irritable the more I thought about it, and was not in the mood to play dumb puzzles with him.

"I'm here to tell you that this matter is resolved."

Facing her questioning gaze, Ye Haotian spread his hands and smiled: "Don't look at me like this, it wasn't me who did it."

"Who is that?"

was not made by him, Ye Jinlan now hopes that that person is him.

"Ancient house."

Ye Jinlan's expression became even more ugly when he heard the answer as expected.

Instead, it was Ye Haotian, who appeared very calm, "Master is gone, the influence of the Ye family is not as good as before."

"Now, my Ye family wants to defend the city, and just leave it to others to do things like siege."

"You are not afraid that others will see you as weak and hit the door."

Ye Haotian raised his eyebrows and chuckled: "Then... just touch it."

Watching Ye Haotian's back disappear outside the door, Ye Jinlan remembered what he said before leaving.

"I'm not too young anymore, I can sit more securely if I have the opportunity to be pregnant with a child."

"In Qin Yu's bones, he is still quite conservative. Mothers rely on their sons to be expensive. This has been the case since ancient times."

Huhu...

The sound of the wind was bleak, and the yellow leaves hovered and fell, blocking her sight.

"I really want to, but I also have a chance!" After touching his belly with his hand, Ye Jinlan decided to find a famous hand to get his pulse.

It is said that the soup in the hands of the son-in-law is very fascinating.

Thinking about it, Ye Jinlan's eyes dropped again, and his face turned blue.

The ancient family intervened and offered favors without saying a word.

It's not because the Gu Jia Zhai is kind and generous, she, this is a big plan!

Ling Ling...

was interrupted by the ringing tone, Ye Jinlan was furious.

Seeing the number clearly, Ye Jinlan took a few deep breaths, pressed his anger and put it to his ear: "What's the matter?"

"Brother, please find out who the boss is and who approved the project. I still don't believe it. There are libraries in these 49 cities that I can't manage."

The man with a trembling face was holding the phone in one hand, his eyes glaring angrily at Zhen Lu and the others.

It's the opposite, Lao Tzu is in charge of culture.

can actually make people slap themselves in the face on their own plate, a joke...

"Okay, I'll wait for your news, today he is the king of heaven, Lao Tzu, who is here, and it's not enough."

put down the phone fiercely, and the man pointed at Zhen Lu and threatened loudly: "Don't open your shop, and wait for it to be dealt with!"

Yunlu protects her employees, her eyes flustered but not to be outdone: "Now it is a society under the rule of law, who do you think you are?"

"I called the police, the patrol will be here soon, don't mess around."

"Recklessly?"

The man embraced his arms and said with full momentum: "I won't mess around, but your shop is bullying customers, driving customers away for no reason, discriminating against consumers, I think there are also problems with your consumption, it's just a black shop."

Hearing that the other party turned black and white so upside down, the store manager became anxious, "It's obviously you who harassed the female customers and were rude to our boss."

"I'm rude, why am I rude."

The man rushed and said, "Why, your boss is shameless and can't be looked at. I see what happened to her."

"Don't be sensationalized here, thinking that you are really a god, and if you don't want people to see you, don't come out at home!"

"The sorrows I wear are so sultry that I don't want to be seen, it's funny."

"you..."

The store manager's tears were about to come out, but he was no match for the other party's sharp-edged rhetoric.

Yun Lu was also trembling with anger, and her heart was even more unspeakable.

She is wearing a black sweater with a high round neck and long trousers.

It is clearly him, staring at the female guest's chest with wretched eyes, which makes people uncomfortable.

was pierced by someone, but instead raked back, it was really shameless.

Looking at the other person's confident expression, Zhen Lu hesitated to call him.

"Who reported the case." The patrol came.

"I."

Yan Lu and the wretched man spoke in unison, and once again saw the other's shameless Yan Lu, hurriedly emphasized: "It was my report, my mobile phone."

Who knows that the wretched man didn't panic, and said triumphantly: "I want to report the crime now, the other party discriminates against consumers, and it's a black shop."

Hearing what the two said, the patrol couldn't help frowning.

It looks like another wrangling case, how can people nowadays be so hostile!

"Tell me the details!" The patrolman stepped forward and asked.

Colleagues drove the onlookers, "It's alright, don't look at it, just go and work on yourself if you have nothing to do with the case."

Yun Lu explained the ins and outs of the matter to the patrolman, but the wretched man kept interrupting: "Who said I saw her, why is it wretched."

Seeing the other party's arrogant and domineering attitude, the patrolman said impatiently: "You, wait until others have finished speaking when you say it."

"No, I can't let her slander me!" The wretched man was still anxious.

"Is it slander, it's not your decision, nor me, I'm just taking a statement now."

"Confessions, I don't want to record the confession if you want to patrol adults. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

Stepping on the high heels of thin snake-like feet, Ye Jinlan stood in front of the patrol with a small smile: "There must be some misunderstanding, isn't it, Jin Tao."

At this moment, the wretched man who was arrogant before, shivered like a mouse when he saw a cat.

"Ye, Miss Ye." Jin Tao's heart was up and down, and his internal organs were trembling.

Damn, won't it be the iron plate this time?

"What's the situation?" The patrol pursued: "You know, can you solve it by yourself?"

"Know, know." Jin Tao was clever, accompanied by a smile, and said: "It's all my own, my own."

After speaking, he looked at Yun Lu with a wrong expression, and said with a flattering smile: "Misunderstanding, boss, it's all misunderstanding."

what's the situation? ? ?

Yun Lu is a little bit confused, but someone can understand.

Combining with Jin Tao's changes in attitude before and after, it is another contest between the dudes, and this one seems to have lost miserably.

Next, we should consider how to satisfy the other party.

There are too many patrols in such things.

However, the duties that should be fulfilled are still to be fulfilled, and we have to ask again and again to make sure that the two parties are willing to settle.

Before leaving, the patrol still made a kind word: "Any problem can be solved peacefully."

In today's world, what a big basket really comes out.

Unless the background is all over the sky, no one can think about it.

Chapter 1113:

End until the point, patrol and collect the team.

Both parties said they wanted to reconcile, and he had no reason to intervene even if he patrolled.

Besides, this kind of contradiction between dudes usually doesn't cause major incidents.

Everyone is a person with a face and a face.

Forcing people to death, even if it is spread out, it is not good to listen to it.

is nothing more than admitting counsel, serving a soft, profit and loss!

, on the contrary, it is a little bunny with lack of hair. He can do anything when his brain is hot, so he needs to be especially vigilant.

Fanbing stepped forward to greet the guests to leave, and whispers came from the crowd.

"The wretched man kicked the iron plate."

"It's comfortable, I really want to see how the wretched man died."

"I feel that J is innocent, why don't you say this?"

"Deserve it..."

Hearing the whispers in the ear, the wretched man looks like SLM.

I just like to see girls, what's wrong?

It's right to look at the girl, but you keep staring at the sensitive parts of the person, with a wretched expression.

There is a problem!

just like stalking and rushing, utterly embarrassing a man.

What kind of perverted stuff...

"Like to stare at the sensitive parts of girls?"

Fanbing closed, Ye Jinlan turned around gracefully, and said with a long hair: "Do you think I am beautiful?"

Today's Ye Jinlan is wearing an elegant floral dress, which contrasts with her own temperament.

With a black scattered wave, like a fairy descending to the earth, it is so beautiful.

Jin Tao lowered his head, not daring to look at it at all.

He will just ask the other party not to be too serious and put himself as a fart.

otherwise-

Ye's gave it, and I can get it back.

"Don't dare, Miss Ye is naturally very beautiful." Jin Tao obediently admitted.

One of his greatest advantages is that he knows when to pretend to be a grandson and when he can be an uncle.

Now, it's time to pretend to be grandson.

Not only had to pretend, but also had to make grandma recognize her grandson's performance.

"What is your Young Master Jin dare not to say, isn't it that you can't control these four or nine cities without you?"

The faint tone made Jin Tao's heart trembled, good fellow...

Together, this aunt has already come here, and has been waiting for the show by the side!

slapped himself cleanly, Jin Tao licked his face and smiled: "Don't dare, don't dare, I was joking."

"Your joke is really big enough, people who don't know think that this is all-the last name is Jin."

咚, Jin Tao's frightened legs softened and he knelt on the spot.

Grandma aunt, grandma...

You can't talk nonsense about this, it will be deadly.

Seeing his embarrassing look, Ye Jinlan's thoughts on remedial him are also weakened.

"Go away, don't let me see you again."

"Eh-get out now, get out now."

Jin Tao's expression was happy, and he bowed his head happily and got up to get out.

"and many more."

Looking at his frozen back, Ye Jinlan said calmly: "Go and handle the resignation by yourself. Tomorrow, don't go to the yamen."

Jin Tao's face was as gray as death, and his eyes were full of unwillingness.

In the end, he just nodded vigorously, "I listen to you, I... go now."

Seeing his back fled in embarrassment, Xing Lu was still in a state of confusion.

Who am I, where is this, what happened? ? ?

She wondered if she came to the wrong place. The elegant and luxurious woman opposite is the boss here.

The aura of the other party gave Xing Lu the feeling of meeting the head teacher when she was in school.

inexplicably, just to shrink back!

"It's okay!"

Seeing the faint concern in Ye Jinlan's eyes, Xing Lu nodded hesitantly and curiously said: "Excuse me, are you?"

"Forgot to introduce, I am Qin Yu's fiancée." Ye Jinlan smiled gracefully, and put her delicate hands in front of her.

Boom!

As if a magnitude 12 earthquake broke out in the bottom of my heart, Xing Lu was plunged into a sluggish void.

Fiancée, fiancée...

These three words kept flashing in his mind.

Apart from the shock, she didn't even feel anything else.

Because, her soul is trembling and numb...

Seeing that the other party's reaction was so strong, a trace of apology flashed across Ye Jinlan's face.

If        can speak out, she doesn't plan to take it back again.

Since you have the courage to sit on the world, you have to bear the responsibility.

She wanted to see how Qin Yu would respond.

"You, hello." Xing Lu held her hand with a dull look like a puppet.

shook slightly, so she turned and walked towards the bar.

The whole person is like a walking corpse who has lost his soul, and can't notice any vitality at all.

Fanbing glanced at his own lady with some worry, 'she's like this, there won't be any problems, right? '

Ye Jinlan also regrets a bit, knowing that the other party is so fragile.

should be euphemistic, like 'girlfriend?'

But since she has said it, let her refute herself again, she can't do it...

"Then I won't interrupt for now, and see you if I have a chance."

said that she was about to turn around and leave, but Xing Lu suddenly stopped her: "Wait."

Looking back, there was a hint of color in the other's dull eyes: "Miss Ye, right? Can I talk to you alone for a while?"

After exiting the gate of the bookstore, Jin Tao, who walked across the arch bridge, was full of shame, unwillingness, anger, and frustration.

Such a complicated expression, but he can show it exactly.

This person is in the wrong line!

Thinking of Ye Jinlan's previous warning, Jin Tao decided to call again.

Maybe, I can rescue it again.

beep, beep~

"Hey."

"Brother Haotian, I, Xiaotao, hehe...Are you busy?"

"Let's talk, what's the matter."

"Oh, you are so knowledgeable, I have something to ask for your help..."

Selectively tell what happened before to Ye Haotian on the opposite side.

Jin Tao did not dare to pour dirty water on the opponent, but deliberately reduced his sense of existence.

and characterized this as a 'misunderstanding.'

"Look, when I looked up and saw a beautiful woman, I looked twice more. How could I become a gangster, and let people accuse me in front of everyone. How can I bear it."

"After a few words in reply, people are not happy...I was so stunned that I would have a conflict with the boss. If I had known that she knew Miss Ye."

"Brother Haotian, just to give Xiaotao a hundred courage, I dare not!"

'explain' the matter clearly and said all the good things, Jin Tao held his breath and listened to the other party's answer.

"Tao!"

"Hey, here, I'm listening, brother!"

"Jin Lan saved your life. See you again, remember to thank her."

I said this wordlessly, and the other side hung up.

"Brother Haotian...I fuck..."

When        reached his lips, Jin Tao swallowed it back.

Even if it offends Ye Jinlan, if it offends Ye Haotian, it will offend the entire Ye family.

Their family has to point to the care of the Ye family, Jin Tao still doesn't want to be killed by his father.

Seeing what Ye Haotian meant, he was lost in his job in the Rites.

Damn, I licked him for a few months before Ye Haotian agreed to arrange a job for him.

After a few years of this talent, Ye Jinlan, who is also from the Ye family, was knocked down.

The incident spread, where will he put Jin Tao's face in the future?

"Hey, who is letting my life go!"

patted his face, Jin Tao smiled bitterly and shook his head: "This face...don't worry about it!"

The only thing that made Jin Tao puzzled was what Ye Haotian said last.

I kicked myself up, how could I save my life.

also asked him to thank Ye Jinlan-I really thank you!

In the office, Ye Haotian hung up and dialed another number on his own initiative.

When the call was connected, Ye Haotian smiled happily: "Haha, Shao Qin, it's been good recently... The weather in Hudu is not as good as the previous ones, do you want to come and play for a few days."

"Well, well, when you come next time, you must tell me."

On the other side of the phone, Qin Yu listened to Ye Haotian's courtesy, and said directly: "Ye Shao, isn't it to talk to me about the weather?"

"Why can't you talk, it's a matter of survival."

After making a proper joke, Ye Haotian put the topic on the right track, and what happened before was reported to Qin Yu as much as he knew.

"My younger brothers and sisters are in Shangdu, you don't say a word, but fortunately, Jin Lan stared at them, no accident."

"I heard that the two were still talking, and they are doing well, Qin Shao, I am envious of it!"

"It's not a big deal, there is Jinlan, there is no need to bother Ye Shao..."

After saying a few words of gratitude, Qin Yu smiled and closed the thread, and his face changed in the next second.

Ye Jinlan... Xing Lu...

The two had a private meeting in the library, closed the door and chatted.

I'm gonna, pill!

As for what kind of waves, cats and dogs, Brother Yu didn't even think about it.

I believe that with this lesson, he will be smarter in the future.

Besides, Xing Lu is not without people. '

Although she was a little anxious, Yu Ge was very calm and didn't panic at all.

"Do you want to go out?"

Xu Xixi, who was working overtime at the desk, raised his head and asked a little hypoxic.

Brother Yu supported his face with one hand, shook his head and didn't reply.

He was thinking about what she would say based on what she knew about Ye Jinlan?

Xing Lu!

What else would you say... These two women won't fight, right?

'No, definitely not, none of them are impulsive. '

After wanting to understand, Yu brother is even less anxious.

Don't panic, the problem is not big.

Let the bullet fly for a while before talking.

Xing Lu knows what she wants, can she accept the facts.

Brother Yu feels that he has a great win.

He never denied that he might have other women out there.

In fact, the women around him probably know that he can't be the only one.

Now, just put the facts in front of her. U U Reading www.uuk.cn a nshu.com 76↑↓, it's not too low.

Hold on, this wave can win!

But what he didn't know was that just ten minutes ago, Xing Lu's mood was the same as that of a jumper, with big ups and downs, so exciting.

If I let him see that scene, I believe he will not be as calm as he is now.

After half an hour, Ye Jinlan walked out of the library with a smile.

looked back at the woman standing behind the glass window, "She is more interesting than she thought."

I think of the other person's saying, "Everyone seems to be the same, and you just hung up your fiancée's name" and so on.

Ye Jinlan suddenly felt that the days to come will be more exciting.

"Miss, someone just watched outside, like someone from the master's house." Fanbing followed and whispered in her ear.

"Um."

snorted softly, Ye Jinlan raised his wrist and opened the terminal, "Pick Qin Yu."

"So, that's it?"

After hearing what Ye Jinlan said, Brother Yu's expression was obviously dumbfounded.

As soon as the bullet finished flying, it was done over there.

According to what she said, Xing Lu not only has no plans to leave, but instead wants to fight her for the position of 'doctor'.

This—is that the charming stewardess he knew?

Chapter 1113: Don't panic, the problem is not big

End until the point, patrol and collect the team.

Besides, this kind of contradiction between dudes usually doesn't cause major incidents.

Everyone is a person with a face and a face.

Forcing people to death, even if it is spread out, it is not good to listen to it.

is nothing more than admitting counsel, serving a soft, profit and loss!

, on the contrary, it is a little bunny with lack of hair. He can do anything when his brain is hot, so he needs to be especially vigilant.

Fanbing stepped forward to greet the guests to leave, and whispers came from the crowd.

"The wretched man kicked the iron plate."

"It's comfortable, I really want to see how the wretched man died."

"I feel that J is innocent, why don't you say this?"

"Deserve it..."

Hearing the whispers in the ear, the wretched man looks like SLM.

I just like to see girls, what's wrong?

It's right to look at the girl, but you keep staring at the sensitive parts of the person, with a wretched expression.

There is a problem!

just like stalking and rushing, utterly embarrassing a man.

What kind of perverted stuff...

"Like to stare at the sensitive parts of girls?"

Fanbing closed, Ye Jinlan turned around gracefully, and said with a long hair: "Do you think I am beautiful?"

Today's Ye Jinlan is wearing an elegant floral dress, which contrasts with her own temperament.

With a black scattered wave, like a fairy descending to the earth, it is so beautiful.

Jin Tao lowered his head, not daring to look at it at all.

He will just ask the other party not to be too serious and put himself as a fart.

otherwise-

Ye's gave it, and I can get it back.

"Don't dare, Miss Ye is naturally very beautiful." Jin Tao obediently admitted.

One of his greatest advantages is that he knows when to pretend to be a grandson and when he can be an uncle.

Now, it's time to pretend to be grandson.

Not only had to pretend, but also had to make grandma recognize her grandson's performance.

"What is your Young Master Jin dare not to say, isn't it that you can't control these four or nine cities without you?"

The faint tone made Jin Tao's heart trembled, good fellow...

Together, this aunt has already come here, and has been waiting for the show by the side!

slap~

slapped himself cleanly, Jin Tao licked his face and smiled: "Don't dare, don't dare, I was joking."

咚, Jin Tao's frightened legs softened and he knelt on the spot.

Grandma aunt, grandma...

You can't talk nonsense about this, it will be deadly.

Seeing his embarrassing look, Ye Jinlan's thoughts on remedial him are also weakened.

"Go away, don't let me see you again."

"Eh-get out now, get out now."

Jin Tao's expression was happy, and he bowed his head happily and got up to get out.

"and many more."

Looking at his frozen back, Ye Jinlan said calmly: "Go and handle the resignation by yourself. Tomorrow, don't go to the yamen."

Jin Tao's face was as gray as death, and his eyes were full of unwillingness.

In the end, he just nodded vigorously, "I listen to you, I... go now."

Seeing his back fled in embarrassment, Xing Lu was still in a state of confusion.

Who am I, where is this, what happened? ? ?

She wondered if she came to the wrong place. The elegant and luxurious woman opposite is the boss here.

The aura of the other party gave Xing Lu the feeling of meeting the head teacher when she was in school.

inexplicably, just to shrink back!

"It's okay!"

Seeing the faint concern in Ye Jinlan's eyes, Xing Lu nodded hesitantly and curiously said: "Excuse me, are you?"

"Forgot to introduce, I am Qin Yu's fiancée." Ye Jinlan smiled gracefully, and put her delicate hands in front of her.

Boom!

As if a magnitude 12 earthquake broke out in the bottom of my heart, Xing Lu was plunged into a sluggish void.

Fiancée, fiancée...

These three words kept flashing in his mind.

Apart from the shock, she didn't even feel anything else.

Because, her soul is trembling and numb...

Seeing that the other party's reaction was so strong, a trace of apology flashed across Ye Jinlan's face.

If I can speak out, she doesn't plan to take it back again.

Since you have the courage to sit on the world, you have to bear the responsibility.

She wanted to see how Qin Yu would respond.

"You, hello." Xing Lu held her hand with a dull look like a puppet.

The whole person is like a walking corpse who has lost his soul, and can't notice any vitality at all.

Fanbing glanced at his own lady with some worry, 'she's like this, there won't be any problems, right?'

Ye Jinlan also regrets a bit, knowing that the other party is so fragile.

should be euphemistic, like 'girlfriend?'

But since she has said it, let her refute herself again, she can't do it...

"Then I won't interrupt for now, and see you if I have a chance."

said that she was about to turn around and leave, but Xing Lu suddenly stopped her: "Wait."

Looking back, there was a hint of color in the other's dull eyes: "Miss Ye, right? Can I talk to you alone for a while?"

After exiting the gate of the bookstore, Jin Tao, who walked across the arch bridge, was full of shame, unwillingness, anger, and frustration.

Such a complicated expression, but he can show it exactly.

This person is in the wrong line!

Thinking of Ye Jinlan's previous warning, Jin Tao decided to call again.

Maybe, I can rescue it again.

beep, beep~

"Hey."

"Brother Haotian, I, Xiaotao, hehe...Are you busy?"

"Let's talk, what's the matter."

Selectively tell what happened before to Ye Haotian on the opposite side.

Jin Tao did not dare to pour dirty water on the opponent, but deliberately reduced his sense of existence.

and characterized this as a 'misunderstanding.'

"Look, when I looked up and saw a beautiful woman, I looked twice more. How could I become a gangster, and let people accuse me in front of everyone. How can I bear it."

"After a few words in reply, people are not happy...I was so stunned that I would have a conflict with the boss. If I had known that she knew Miss Ye."

"Brother Haotian, just to give Xiaotao a hundred courage, I dare not!"

'explain' the matter clearly and said all the good things, Jin Tao held his breath and listened to the other party's answer.

"Tao!"

"Hey, here, I'm listening, brother!"

"Jin Lan saved your life. See you again, remember to thank her."

I said this wordlessly, and the other side hung up.

"Brother Haotian...I fuck..."

When reached his lips, Jin Tao swallowed it back.

Even if it offends Ye Jinlan, if it offends Ye Haotian, it will offend the entire Ye family.

Their family has to point to the care of the Ye family, Jin Tao still doesn't want to be killed by his father.

Seeing what Ye Haotian meant, he was lost in his job in the Rites.

Damn, I licked him for a few months before Ye Haotian agreed to arrange a job for him.

After a few years of this talent, Ye Jinlan, who is also from the Ye family, was knocked down.

The incident spread, where will he put Jin Tao's face in the future?

patted his face, Jin Tao smiled bitterly and shook his head: "This face...don't worry about it!"

The only thing that made Jin Tao puzzled was what Ye Haotian said last.

I kicked myself up, how could I save my life.

also asked him to thank Ye Jinlan-I really thank you!

In the office, Ye Haotian hung up and dialed another number on his own initiative.

When the call was connected, Ye Haotian smiled happily: "Haha, Shao Qin, it's been good recently... The weather in Hudu is not as good as the previous ones, do you want to come and play for a few days."

"Well, well, when you come next time, you must tell me."

Chapter 1114: Scared to cry

"I took the initiative to show weakness, let her feel that she has a winning side, and then stabilize your fish pond."

"How can you thank me?"

Hearing that she still dared to ask for credit, Brother Yu laughed and spit out: "You fried the bomb, and you made the repair. Why is there still no merit?"

"Looking back is the shore, isn't it boundless merits?" Ye Jinlan said mischievously, rare.

Good fellow, according to what you said, wouldn't the capitalist become a living bodhisattva?

"I don't believe in Buddha."

said on his mouth, his hand involuntarily touched the involuntary card on his chest.

"Anyway, I'll be scornful with you, but it has nothing to do with me."

Ye Jinlan hung up the phone happily, put down his hand, but sighed helplessly.

Self, why bother?

playing with his cell phone, listening to the sound of running water in the bathroom.

Brother Yu decided to call Xing Lu to find out.

Woman!

Should I coax or coax, it would be too scumbag if I haven't expressed it yet.

beep, beep~~

The phone rang for a long time, and then someone answered.

But there was only a calm breathing sound inside, and there was no response.

"Angry?"

"...she said she is your fiancée."

spoke up, which made Yu Ge's worry less than half.

As long as there is communication, things will be easier.

However, Ye Jinlan stepped up the move, which was beyond Yu Ge's imagination.

He thought he had just lost a grenade, so he turned his head to look-fucking trough, nuclear bomb.

No wonder she wants to 'make up,' doing Tong Xing Lu's work, which must have taken a lot of her tongue.

"A coincidence, not what you think."

Seeing his tone is not panic, Xing Lu is angry at the same time, there is hope in her heart.

So, things are really like I guessed.

is just for the purpose of joining forces—marriage?

"The specific inside story is quite complicated. Next time I will tell you in person."

Brother Yu doesn't talk about this on the phone. Some things can only be said clearly and thoroughly in person.

"...good." Xing Lu agreed.

It seems that she has accepted the facts, knowing that she cannot monopolize this man.

Just, my heart is still full of unwillingness!

Why, where is it? ? ?

To be in shape, to look good, to work hard...

Xing Lu standing in front of the mirror, looking at the reflection inside, and then at the wallet and the red devil on the table.

Mentality-a lot of calming down inexplicably.

seems to have found his position suddenly, and he has a spectrum in his heart.

Now, she is reluctant to give up, nor reconciled to give up.

As for the future...the future, I will talk about it later...

As the Spring Festival approaches, the company's negotiations with British capital have also made new progress.

Brother Yu didn't expect that the problem was finally solved by Gu Yi.

After she did this, she didn't ask herself to show off, and she didn't call to inform and ask for favors.

The high posture of 'no contention' made Brother Yu a bit difficult to handle.

This woman is hard to do~

"Guide by the Goddess"

If you change to a mini game, Yu Ge should be braving the Raiders+1+1+1...

There was the sound of an engine outside, it was the little pumpkin that was back.

"Big brother, big brother, woo." The little pumpkin with teardrops on his face threw into his arms aggrievedly.

"What's wrong?" Qin Yu looked at Old Qin, with question marks all over his face.

Old Qin pointed at the kid with a weird expression, "Ask him yourself."

"I don't want it, I don't want it, I don't want it..." The little pumpkin sat on the ground shaking his hands and shouting, rolling around shamelessly.

"Get up." Qin Yu's face was gloomy.

喂~

The little pumpkin that was just rolling on the ground, standing like a stick, suffocated with 'um, um' in his mouth.

"What's the matter?" Holding him on his lap, Qin Yu patiently listened to the little pumpkin telling stories.

Old Qin walked to the kitchen with a mocking face. His wife worked overtime today, so he had to cook the food first.

"It was still comfortable when the aunts were there." Old Qin was enjoying it now.

At school today, the teacher asked everyone what they want to do in the future and what their ideals are.

Some want to be a doctor, some want to be a lawyer, some say that they can be a general, and some who want to be a scientist, a boss, a star...

Little Pumpkin's turn, he stood up and said loudly, "I want to build spaceships, build rockets, and be a great inventor..."

There is nothing wrong with this!

Then the little girl who stood up said that she cried with anger.

"I will be his wife in the future, ride on the spacecraft and rockets he built, and let him spend the money on me."

The little girl held her head proudly, accepting the admiration of the children's eyes.

"Does this make you cry?" Qin Yu rubbed his head amusedly.

"I don't want her to be a wife, I don't want her to take a spaceship, and I don't want to spend money on her." Little Pumpkin choked and sobbed.

I don't want to marry an ugly guy, and she's so fierce...

always beats people, and she doesn't allow other girls to play with herself, which is so disgusting.

After listening to his story, Yu Yu felt that the child now is terrible.

I know how to declare sovereignty at a young age.

However, this little girl's head is turning very fast!

I did not graduate from the middle class of kindergarten, and I have paved the way for my future life.

wild!

"Who is that little girl, do you know your brother?"

Qin Yu is really curious, whose girl is so far-sighted.

found out that he had just transferred, so he didn't continue to ask, "Okay, don't cry."

"When you go to elementary school, maybe you won't be in the same class, and then she will forget you."

"Then, what if it is there?"

"When she grows up, she won't like you anymore."

"If she, she has always, always liked it?"

"...Then let her marry you."

Seeing Brother Yu's serious look, Pumpkin's slumped lips became higher and higher.

"Wow~~"

"I don't want an ugly wife..."

When the mother came back, Qin Yu told her about the little pumpkin.

Liang Chuyu at the table almost fell off the chair with a smile.

Especially the younger son "Ao Ao" yelled "I don't want it, I don't want..."

His face was full of tears, and there were grains of rice hanging on the corners of his mouth, so pitiful—...I really shouldn't laugh at him.

But-can't help it!

"Well, don't marry her. When we grow up, Little Pumpkin will meet a lot of girls, and we will pick it up slowly."

Qin Yu lowered his head to pick up the rice, frowned with a weird expression, and said, 'My mother, my lord, I'm afraid he won't pick it. I want it all.'

The nightmare of Little Pumpkin, dispelled away by the mother.

Qin Yu is thinking about how to repay the favor of the ancient family!

Speaking of penguins, I believe many people have learned a simple truth from it: free is the most expensive.

Qin Yu is no exception!

At the beginning, Guyi wanted to buy a share in the company, and asked Yu to use "what can the ancient family provide" to send it away.

After that, she never showed up, and Qin Yu thought that the ancient family had given up on his line.

After all, Miracle Company is only making it bigger and stronger in the field it is involved in.

In this world, there are thousands of different industries, which can still make a lot of money.

I never thought that the other party was silent, so I helped him solve the problem.

Technology transfer approval?

The key is not this, but the attitude expressed by the Gu family on this matter, and the Gu family supports the Miracle Company.

This is the problem solved by the ancients!

is also a headache for Yu brother...

This favor is not small.

Today's Miracle Company, with Zhou Lao standing behind.

It seems that no one dared to move, but the first shot fired by the penguin was an obvious signal!

Can it be ordinary people who dare to try to fight against Zhou Lao?

A week old, the other party is bold enough to want to make trouble, but add another ancient family...

Can he/them behind be able to withstand it?

I'm afraid, those who hide in the dark will also grit their teeth and frown and say, "It's difficult!"

Brother Yu still needs time to ponder this matter.

No matter what decision he makes, he will have to wait until the end of the year.

"Xiao Luo, do you want to shoot?"

Little Pumpkin has just finished practicing, and Qin Yu intends to take him out to get some breath.

"I want, I want to want~"

His mouth was like a machine gun, and he kept talking, and the little pumpkin thumped and ran downstairs.

took him out of the courtyard and followed the path all the way to the front of the courtyard.

Brother Yu then took apart the smashing cannon he bought, "Go!"

The children of Biehao Manor's family are also playing and chasing with the nanny and family members.

After playing for a while, Little Pumpkin returned the cannon to him and ran to catch up with his friends of the same age.

beep~

The whistle sounded outside the courtyard, and Brother Yu looked back curiously.

A familiar figure burst into view, "Officer Xiao, there is no holiday for Chinese New Year?"

took off the helmet and hugged it in his arms, the horse stopped on its side, Xiao Caiyan shook her hair coolly, and smiled: "Bad people don't have holidays."

"Happy New Year." Qin Yu took a few steps forward and said, "Looking at you like this, you are planning to leave work."

"Yes, just handed over to work, ready to go for a bite." Han Caiyan said with a sigh of relief.

looked up at the sky, and said, 'this day is really cold, and I'll have to finish drinking it later.'

"Together?" Brother Yu happened to be hungry too.

"Okay, Nanqu Youjia Wontons are especially delicious."

"wait for me."

Qin Yu said that he was going back to go to the garage for a bike ride.

"Don't ride your bike, I'll take you back later."

Xiao Caiyan patted her iron horse, "Let you also enjoy special treatment."

Guobin 650 is really handsome, Yu brother wanted to try it a long time ago.

Not to mention that there is a beautiful woman patrolling on it, "Can I bring a pendant?"

Qin Yu disappeared in front of the courtyard for a few seconds. When he returned, he had a small burden in his arm, "Big Brother, Big Brother, I want to play."

Nanqu, Dongxin Street Night Market.

Xiao Caiyan parked the State Guest 650 in a street parking space some distance from the night market, UU reading www.uukanshu.com "Let's go over here, otherwise someone will have to misunderstand."

"You don't have to change your clothes." Qin Yu pointed to her patrol uniform.

The little pumpkin looked around with a probe, his eyes full of curiosity.

This is the first time he has come to this kind of place, and it is very interesting to see everything.

There is also the young lady who talks to the elder brother next to her, so beautiful!

"Sister, elder sister, you will catch bad guys, right?"

Little Pumpkin raised her head and looked at her with expectant eyes.

Xiao Caiyan stopped where she was, bending over and rubbing his little head, and said in a sweet voice: "Yes, my sister specializes in catching bad guys."

"So, you must be an obedient child."

Little Pumpkin nodded repeatedly, "I am very obedient, I am a good boy."

Just when Xiao Caiyan thought he was just curious, Little Pumpkin said again: "Sister, sister, can you catch our Tang Guoguo?"

Xiao Caiyan asked amusedly: "Then I have to listen first, what bad things did she do."

"She threatened the child and said to be my wife..."

Little Pumpkin lowered his head, and said with his fingers: "So ugly, I was scared to cry."

Raising his head, Little Pumpkin asked innocently: "She scared me to cry... It's a bad guy, sister, sister, catch her!"

??? —Xiao Caiyan's face is full of question marks.

This is, convicted of ugliness?

Chapter 1115: Xiao Caiyan is numb

"Boys must be generous, it is wrong to say that girls are ugly."

At the food stall, Xiao Caiyan was drinking wontons while arguing with the pumpkin.

"But she is really ugly."

Little Pumpkin opened his **** eyes, as if asking, "Is it wrong to tell the truth?" '

"It's not a question of whether it's true or not, it's a matter of politeness."

"What if someone says you are ugly in front of you?"

Little Pumpkin tilted his head and thought, looked at Qin Yu and asked, "Big Brother, am I ugly?"

"Not ugly!"

Little Pumpkin nodded quickly and said, "I feel the same way."

Facing Xiao Caiyan, the little pumpkin looked serious: "Sister, I'm not ugly."

Next to , Brother Yu smiled and nodded in agreement.

'S face is clearly covered with complacency, making it clear that he wants to watch the excitement.

Seeing these two brothers, Xiao Caiyan was also drunk.

What kind of sin did I do, why have to bring them to eat supper?

"Boss, let's spoon pepper."

Xiao Caiyan stretched out her hand and decided to turn helplessness into appetite.

"Wonton with chili?"

Brother Yu has seen this way of eating for the first time, fresh.

"Can't I just copy my hands?"

Xiao Caiyan gave him a white look, and the flair that appeared at first glance was even gentler than the night breeze.

"At this time, should I say, you are beautiful, and everything is right?"

Xiao Caiyan made a goose-like laughter of "goose, goose, goose," and she looked comfortable without twisting.

"Brother, can I add a WeChat account?" Someone around him accosted.

Qin Yu smiled and said: "No, sorry."

Looking at Xiao Caiyan again, she ate the wontons and looked at her with a smile.

Seeing Qin Yu's gaze, he raised his eyebrows with a weird look, and he was clearly saying, 'Okay, can't this be on?'

—This woman, isn't it the best?

The girl was a little lost, and quickly ran back to her companion.

"He smiled at me, so gentle!"

"Ahhh, I'm dead, why not me."

"Hey, are you going to WeChat?"

"No, I was rejected!"

The chirping sound penetrated into my ears, and it was hard to pretend to hear it.

The little girl nowadays is much bolder than the boy.

When most men meet a goddess, they will have an inferiority complex of 'you can only look far away, not play with them'.

In layman's terms: I am not worthy!

Girls are different, both in terms of stress resistance and self-consciousness.

The thought they hold is always, "What if it's done?" '

In layman's terms: I am not worthy?

The more ordinary girls, the more blindly and confident they are.

Actually, it's not to blame them, it's all the men themselves.

The goddess dare not chase, but can only do online chat, standing in the distance silently paying attention...

Ordinary girls are surrounded by a pack of wolves, their eyes are green, you vie for me, and the stalls just turned into a limited edition.

You said-can her heart not swell?

Why scumbags always hook up to goddesses? It's not just a question of emotional intelligence.

Because... the goddess is so easy to chase after her!

The more beautiful girls, the better chase than ordinary girls.

Especially the kind of beautiful, well-behaved girl with very strict tutoring.

is simply an innocent little white rabbit, with a mouth full of flowers, it's okay to ask for warmth, send breakfast, and approve a coat at night.

Going smoothly, I got it in three days.

Some even get it by selling miserably.

Its appearance and difficulty of strategy are two different extremes.

Brother Yu has a deep understanding of this.

Because he himself is a combination of the Raiders and the Raiders, if he chooses two representative examples.

The lazy cat is a typical one. As for the other extreme...

Brother Yu thought of the poisonous flowers in the class...

shivered involuntarily, and Brother Yu drove away the image in his mind.

What do you want to do, eat, eat.

This wonton is really round...

ahem, it's so big...

I don't know if Bai is not white, Brother Yu is distracted again.

"Hey, what do you think?"

Xiao Caiyan shook her hand and said curiously: "Wandering while eating, be careful to eat it in your nose."

"No, I have always been very accurate."

"Cut, it's not right."

Xiao Caiyan vomited grimly: "Are you relying on this to lie to girls?"

"What is cheating?"

Brother Yu put down the spoon, straightened his back, and pointed his hand up and down: "Do you need to cheat? Who cheated?"

Xiao Caiyan looked around for a few moments, then suddenly nodded and said: "Indeed, this is a good lineup."

The pretendingly smug Yu Ge gave a startled expression, and I vomited.

"Big brother, big brother, I want to eat that..."

With a bowl of wonton, Qin Yu warmed up and accompanied the little pumpkin to stroll around the night market.

This will hold three different kinds of skewers in his left hand and a box of fried chicken wings in his right hand.

took the arrogant steps that the six relatives did not recognize, took one bite from the left and one bite from the right, "I want it all."

"It's good to know nothing."

Looking at the happy back of Little Pumpkin, Xiao Caiyan said with emotion.

"Why, work is not going well?" Listening to her tone, there seems to be a story in it!

Xiao Caiyan shook her head and said, "It's okay, just because I feel it."

"As a person grows up, desires will increase. The more you understand the complexity of life, the more troubles and desires you will have. It would be better to be a child."

"Isn't this the wonderful place in life?"

"You never know what will happen in the next second."

Hearing Qin Yu's retort, Xiao Caiyan smiled dumbly: "No, I know what will happen next second."

"I will step forward with my left foot." Xiao Caiyan said as she took her steps, her eyes looked at him teasingly.

he said it himself, the next second...

Maybe three to five seconds can't be determined, but at least this second Xiao Caiyan can be sure of what will happen next.

Then, her feet were cushioned by something, and her body fell to the left unbalanced.

"Ah~" The instinct for help made her reach out to Qin Yu.

At the same time, Qin Yu also grabbed her wrist.

tear...

When she was about to fall to the ground, she pulled up, and a big slit was torn out at the rotator cuff seam of Yu Ge's clothes.

looked at the rags held by her fingers with embarrassment, Xiao Caiyan hurriedly said: "I will pay you."

tilted his head and looked, Brother Yu took off his clothes and handed it to Xiao Caiyan: "Just make up one, do you know how to make needlework?"

"Yes...: I should!" Xiao Caiyan sewed the buttons and reinforced the belts.

Sew sleeves, shouldn't it be the same?

Seeing that she is not confident, Qin Yu smiled and said, "If you don't sew it well, then throw it away!"

Anyway, he won't wear it again, just give the other party a chance to make up.

"I definitely can."

sent Qin Yu and Little Pumpkin home, and Xiao Caiyan drove home by bike.

She lives in Nanhu, but it's not a villa.

Although Nanhuli has the largest number of villas, there are also ordinary high-rise buildings.

She lives in a small high-rise, and the house price hasn't risen when she buys it. It only costs more than 9,000 a flat.

Now, the price has risen to 32,000/m<sup>2</sup>.

Close the door and turn on the light.

The empty room was decorated very warmly. Xiao Caiyan took off her boots and walked in with her windbreaker in her hand.

put the clothes on the coffee table, she ran to find the sewing box.

tossed over and over, "I remember right here!"

turned over all the cabinets, Xiao Caiyan found the sewing box that had been discarded for a long time in the corner.

Blushing and wiping the ash on it, she placed the box next to her clothes, Xiao Caiyan breathed a sigh of relief.

"Next, just sew the clothes."

With her hands folded, the girl bowed her respectfully, and Xiao Caiyan began to do it.

In his mind, he recalled Qin Yu's teasing when he was separated: "The next second?"

"It's an accident, what's so good about it." Xiao Caiyan murmured to herself, her cheeks flushed slightly.

unbuttoned his jacket, fanned it with his hand, and said, "Why is it so hot and the heating is so high?"

glanced at the rotator cuffs, Xiao Caiyan decided to take a shower first and then change into her home clothes.

After she finishes it, she sits again at the coffee table refreshed.

My heart also calmed down, staring at the gap seriously, and picked up the needle and thread...

"Ah... I'm going crazy."

The next morning, a grumpy voice rang in the living room, awakening the birds on the tree outside the window, and fleeing danger in a twittering.

Xiao Caiyan, who had been busy all night, sat on the ground with her eyes absent, her silky hair turned into an upward explosive head.

The whole person exudes an aura of despair of "lifelessness".

Looking at the windbreaker on the coffee table again, the windbreaker with only the upper split was removed.

is sewing crookedly on the shoulder at the moment, although the stitches are obvious.

But at least sew well...

Wait, how come this sleeve is half shorter than the other one.

Look at the strips of cloth scattered on the floor. Is she going to change children's clothes?

Xiao Caiyan naturally didn't plan to do this, she just overestimated her needlework skills.

After sewing it for the first time, I found that the sleeves were twisted.

After making a few changes without success, she learned what was said on the Internet and cut off the sleeves and re-stitched them as a whole.

Then, again, again, again.

Xiao Caiyan is getting better and better, and her sleeves are getting shorter and shorter.

When she finally stopped satisfied, she stopped and spread out her clothes as she thought she was done...

there is the previous scene, the sleeves have changed from an adult version to a child version.

It's only a child!

not only messed up, but also wasted all night.

Xiao Caiyan is all numb.

looked up at her watch, Xiao Caiyan was lying on her shoulders, hunched over, and dragged her feet on the ground towards the bedroom.

She has to go to work, this night is a waste.

I'd better find the same style and buy it to him.

Brushing her teeth again, Xiao Caiyan found the same style online.

A few minutes later, UU read www.uukanshu. A miserable cry came from the com bathroom: "Isn't it..."

There is still a week before the New Year's Eve, and Master Mother took him to buy New Year goods.

"Don't you have it at home? What else to buy?"

Brother Yu drove the big

G, I'm curious about what else I haven't bought.

The four refrigerators are full, chicken, duck, fish, various fruits, beverages, alcoholic beverages, tea and cigarettes...

"I haven't bought too much!" Ma Shang-sama flipped through the notebook in his hand, and there was a shopping list on it.

A box of red envelopes, four couplets, more small gifts for children, and gifts for a few younger generations.

"Auntie at home, always bring something during the New Year, how about cosmetics?"

"You might as well give a shopping card."

Yu felt that it was more practical to give money, and he could buy what he wanted.

"vulgar."

Liang Chuyu smiled and cursed: "There are no less red envelopes, this is my heart."

"Forget it, I'm too lazy to tell you."

"There is also a residential property. Xiao Lu, the security guard at the door, always sees the aunt's head, and the aunt is short. When he sees me, he helps carry things to the door.

Usually there is something to do in the yard, the night market is on call, and you can't get anything during the New Year. "

"Mom, just give it for the New Year, don't give it often."

"I know, your mother is not a child, Sheng Mien, I understand the principle of fighting Mien."

Chapter 1116: Year-end financial report

Seeing that she was on the self-talking comparison list again, Brother Yu winked at the little pumpkin from the rearview mirror with a funny expression.

"Chuck chuck..." The little guy was amused and laughed endlessly.

The car also drove into the parking lot smoothly, and there were a lot of people coming in and out at the door.

entered the supermarket and pushed a shopping cart with his mother, let the little pumpkin sit in it, and the big purchase began.

The purchase lasted two hours, and Brother Yu felt that he had been traveling hundreds of times in the supermarket.

When I was waiting for the checkout, the two shopping carts were piled up like a mountain.

Fortunately, this China Resources is connected to the parking lot, and the carts can go directly into the parking lot. It is a hassle not only to put these into the car.

After scanning and reloading the car, the cashier said, "A total of 46517.2 yuan."

More than 40,000, some of them are settled and posted independently at the counter.

However, looking at the boxes of Maotai and Huazi below, it is not surprising.

Brother Yu turned on the phone and asked the other party to scan the code, but Liang Chuyu said, "Wait, I have a card here. Swipe it."

took out a dozen shopping cards from the bag, Liang Chuyu drew one out and gave it to the other party.

"It's troublesome, maybe I can do it a few times."

"Mom, you have this card for daily expenses, I will pay it."

Liang Chuyu gave him a hand, and said, "There is still a pile at home!"

Watching her continue to open the card, the cashier will know what to do.

I brushed 22 photos, 10 of them were 1,000 yuan, and the rest were 500 yuan and 300 yuan.

Finally, I have to make up 31317.2 yuan.

"I knew I took it with me."

After paying the bill and walking to the parking lot, Liang Chuyu muttered regretfully.

"Okay, Mom."

Qin Yu said amused: "People in the back are all looking stupid, and you should make a complaint when you go down."

"Why are you afraid of complaining, what happened to my labor income?"

Liang Chuyu is righteous and confident. These are all the gifts that the companies outside of the past brought to me during the holidays.

Although there is only one company outside, she is still in her post and checks her accounts once a month.

But her work results over the years are well-received, the accounts are handled beautifully, and she never talks too much.

Even if I quit now, I still remember her well.

Occasionally, if there is a problem, I don't know the place, and Liang Chuyu will help solve it when he comes to the door.

Is there anything wrong with the new person I was looking for. When I called and said "Sister Liang, help out", she never refused.

So, what Ka Liang Chuyu received was peace of mind.

"I'm listening, why do you look like an expert in accounting now?"

"Smelly boy, dare to make fun of your mother."

Liang Chuyu smiled and cursed: "I did not handle the accounts of your company."

"I don't dare to say anything else, if there is any tricky in the accounts, mom will know with a glance."

"Yes, yes, see Ms. Qiuhaoliang." Qin Yu bowed to her and said.

"but..."

Liang Chuyu glanced at his son, and said worriedly: "I look at the money in the accounts, it seems that it is not enough. In terms of employee treatment, shouldn't it be reduced appropriately?"

Mother Master said so suddenly, Qin Yu would not treat her as a whim.

"Why, what do you hear?"

"Why don't you hear the wind? Are you acting as a commercial movie?"

"However, you are about to become a public enemy of the boss. Because of your company's high standards, other companies do not increase benefits, so fresh graduates don't even look at it."

"Isn't this good?"

"Good is good..."

Seeing his indifferent performance, Liang Chuyu sighed, "I'm not worried that you are under too much pressure and your capital chain is tight?"

Liang Chuyu checked the accounts only last month, although there is no direct data.

But she knows all the revenue and expenses well, so she can naturally figure out how much money the company currently has on the books.

According to her estimate, the company still has more than 70 billion on its books.

It sounds like an astronomical figure, and it will take more than ten lifetimes for anyone.

is a bit careless for the entire company!

Just the preparatory funds for a few new projects has been wiped out more than half.

The necessary expenses at the end of the year are another large sum.

Employee salaries, Chinese New Year red envelopes, project bonuses, investment dividends...

That's it, I haven't counted the expenses for various celebrations, evening parties, team building and other activities that the company needs to prepare at the end of the year.

In detail, this money is enough for a year.

"After the Chinese New Year, there will be several projects settled into the account, and the funds are actually not under pressure."

"There must be pressure, there is no bank!"

Qin Yu smiled and said, "It's okay to borrow hundreds of billions of dollars. It just so happens to be in line with the peers."

Hearing what he said, Liang Chuyu also laughed blankly.

This is true. Given the status and influence of Miracle Company in the industry today, it is not too much to lend hundreds of billions.

Also, a company with no debt ratio like Miracle.

Not to mention it was in Sanqin, but it is rare in the whole country.

Really want a loan, a phone call...

The governors of the provinces have to come to the door on their own initiative and give them what they want.

Brother Yu only needs to speak, not to mention arranging a few beauty management in the line.

He just wants the president to wear women's clothing, that is, the question of the amount!

One billion suits, tens of billions of skirts, hundreds of billions...

"Shao Qin, do you think this black silk is okay?" A line leader lifted the hem of his skirt and stroked the black silk with his big hand.

"Grass!"

Brother Yu couldn't help but shudder, the picture was so beautiful-vomiting.

The headquarters of Miracle Company, the most important year-end financial report of each year is in full swing.

There are full seats in a conference room large enough to hold more than two hundred people!

Qin Yu sits in the chair seat in the middle of the oval conference table, resting his elbow on the arm of the chair, letting out his thoughts with one hand resting his cheek.

He doesn't need to come forward at this time, he just needs to stay in his own place.

Be a quiet mascot—

Beautiful man, that's enough!

"Should you remind me of the money on the Vulcan side?"

"From the 15th of next month, the money will be paid back one after another. You don't need to take this kind of thing to the annual meeting to talk about it?"

"Mr. Zhang, forgive me, forgive me, I am also worried about the company's tight capital chain."

"I don't say everything outside, our company executives, every meal is a standard of tens of thousands."

"The sour noodle soup I ate at noon is fake?"

"Haha, rumors, just listen to it."

"Okay, okay, everyone!"

Xu Hao pressed his hands and glanced at the management present with a smile: "Stop talking about this, who is next?"

"Mr. Xu, it's me." A new face stood up, pulling his suit nervously.

He Chengwu, the financial director of Xinye Semiconductor, was arranged by Ye Jinlan, and he was half of his own.

"Mr. He, don't be so nervous, we don't eat people." Xu Hao said jokingly, raising his hand to signal the other party to start.

glanced at everyone present, especially Ye Jinlan, who was sitting on the main seat opposite Qin Yu.

Chief He Cheng sighed, suppressed the tension in his heart and began to report.

The main and only product of Xinye Semiconductor is the extremely purple lithography machine...

As the world's only private company that can mass produce EUV lithography machines, its revenue capacity can be imagined.

"The company has sold 27 sets, 13 lithography machines in production, 49 sets of orders..."

"Including 21 units sold domestically and 6 units exported, the gross income is 30.321 billion..."

"This year, the company invested about 4.548 billion yuan in equipment improvement and research, accounting for 15% of revenue..."

"Our orders have been scheduled to the end of 29. After careful consideration, unless there are special circumstances, we will temporarily suspend orders."

finished the report and took his seat again, only then did He Chengwu realize that his back was completely soaked.

"Xinye Semiconductor is a cooperation project between the company and the court."

"Compared to profitability, what is more important is to win over allies, improve international status, and change the situation of fighting alone. I believe everyone is very clear."

Ye Jinlan, who was sitting in his seat, summarized the report.

This is the end of the report on Xinye Semiconductor. Next is Lixin Investment. "This time President Jiang will report in person, everyone is welcome."

"Thank you." Jiang Luo got up and smiled, thanking the colleagues present.

Qin Yu, who had been wandering the whole time, had his eyes reborn into focus, and turned his gaze to Jiang Luo.

This time he saw Jiang Luo for the second time this year. The last time was when she secretly expressed her feelings.

Compared with last time, Jiang Luo has become more mature and capable.

It's just that there is a dullness around the eye circles, and the person is a lot thinner, looking soft and weak, as if a gust of wind can blow away.

Brother Yu has a little pain, why doesn't she know how to cherish her body?

A string of numbers came to mind, and everyone present nodded in satisfaction.

Under Qin Yu's complete decentralization, under the investment planning completely led by Jiang Luo.

The annual rate of return of Lixin Investment reached a new high, reaching a staggering 22.3%.

Among those who can enter this conference room today, one counts as one, and all of them have invested in Lixin for private financial management.

In other words, all the shareholders and executives present. UU reading www. uukanshu.com

Only relying on this year's private financial investment return, you can have a lucrative and fat year!

Isn't this worthy of everyone's happiness?

"This is the end of my report, thank you everyone." Jiang Luo's gaze turned to Qin Yu after bowing to his seat.

just met his caring and blaming eyes, and the excitement in his heart swept away the exhaustion.

joyful eyes-there is light!

The meeting lasted until midnight, and ended after Yang Chengjun finished his summary.

All the executives were arranged to rest in the company dormitories or nearby hotels, while Qin Yu stayed with several shareholders.

"Jiang Luo, you stay for a while."

stopped Jiang Luo who was going to leave, and when the others had finished walking, Xu Meixin personally stepped forward and closed the door of the meeting room.

"I'm left with my own people, let's sit down!" Qin Yu looked at the few people present.

Ye Jinlan, Li Xiao, Xu Hao, Yang Chengjun and Bai Ze, the only ones left without holdings are Jiang Luo.

Seeing her standing there somewhat restrained, hesitated whether to sit back to where she was before.

Qin Yu pulled the chair beside him away and patted: "Come here."

"President Jiang, you are the **** of wealth for everyone now, don't be polite." Xu Hao dragged the chair back.

took his seat again, laid his feet on the table lazily, and leaned back willingly.

This presumptuous performance made Jiang Luo smile, and people relaxed.

Chapter 1117: Whose threat

"Mouse, you boss should look a little bit too, and set an example for the people below?"

said no, but the body was very honest.

Put the chair on its side, sit diagonally with your legs on the edge of the table, stretch your arms back and stretch your body.

"There is no outsider, it's still so comfortable for anyone to pretend to be!" Xu Hao twisted his body and found a more comfortable posture.

"Hey, all of you are veterans and bosses, pay attention to your image!"

"What image is needed here, President Jiang is not an outsider."

"Yes, then I won't pretend."

Yang Chengjun took off his shoes as he said, and put his feet on the table.

There seems to be an invisible heat wave in the air spreading outward.

yellow, twisted, deadly...

Although I didn't smell anything, the pungent smell was already filled in my head.

"Grass, if you have something to say, poisoning is forbidden."

"Brother, put your shoes on first."

"Hey, it's too much!"

Under everyone's knives, Yang Chengjun put on his shoes under pressure.

"Well, it's already so late, let's end it soon."

Qin Yu interrupted the nonsense of a few people, and all of them were in what status.

is worth tens or tens of billions, and he is also an important figure in the industry.

is so naive!

Brother Yu has his thumb up, an urge to take off his shoes and throw them away.

sand sculptures, there has been a trend of human-to-human transmission!

"Secretary Xu."

"After the resolution of the board of directors, the amount of dividends this time is 20 billion..."

Xu Meixin stepped forward to announce the amount of their respective dividends, and Lao Bai got the largest sum except Qin Yu, 2 billion.

But he was the most indifferent person on the scene.

Everyone's money goes into their own pockets, his money-listen?

The money will be credited to the reserved account after the work, and it has nothing to do with him.

"It's okay, I'm leaving now." Bai Ze got up and was about to leave, and Qin Yu did not stop him.

Waiting for the activities of a few people, it is not appropriate to go in his capacity.

Besides, the relationship between everyone is not that far...

After Bai Ze left.

"Brother Yu, what is the arrangement?" Yang Chengjun asked impatiently.

He waited for a year, a whole year!

Although there are bars on the Mars side, the price and quality of the drinks, as well as the wine sister...

A word is hard to say!

Don't ask, ask is—convex

"Don't worry, let me say something first."

Ye Jinlan smiled, but his heart was chuckle.

He wouldn't want...

"Everyone should have heard about Nico. The Gu family came out as the company platform..."

Ye Jinlan sighed from the bottom of his heart, it really is like this...

"I plan to give one percent of the shares to the other party. What price do you think is right!"

After hearing what he said, Xu Hao was the first to speak: "It's just shares?"

"Yes, no equity is involved, only dividends."

In this case, Xu Hao has no problem, and he even feels that he can sell him a favor at the price.

"I think five trillion is more appropriate." Xu Hao said.

The price given to the ancient family must not be lower than the price given to Lao Bai.

Can't touch this point.

Otherwise, not only will it be difficult to face, but also many people will be offended in private.

"Is it a bit lower?" Ye Jinlan thought for a while, suggesting to raise the price slightly.

"5.5 trillion, isn't it more appropriate?"

Why did the ancient family take the same price as Bai Ze?

Who is the other party's representative, and what is it like in the ancient family? Don't you have any points in your heart?

Putting the two on the same level, does the ancient family think it is appropriate?

"Ye Dong, just pay dividends."

"That's not appropriate either."

Ye Jinlan insists on his own point of view, no matter how much he can be equal to Bai Ze.

"I think what Ye Dong said makes sense." Yang Chengjun agreed with her.

There is no need to stir some guys' nerves for the sake of the ancient family.

Above, the pattern of some people is still small.

"I also feel that the same thing is not appropriate." Li Xiao said.

Xu Hao shrugged nonchalantly, "I don't care, it's the ancient family who paid for it anyway."

When Yang Chengjun spoke, Xu Hao understood in his heart.

I think about it from the perspective of business and company, but they are out of political considerations.

From the beginning, the two sides didn't stand at the same angle.

The way of looking at problems is naturally different.

"Just do it, Secretary Xu, you come to inform the ancient family." Qin Yu concluded the topic and concluded.

I'm done talking about everything, the next thing is naturally 'arrangement. '

Brother Yu said hello early, and the Chang'an night banquet is ready.

Waiting for Brother Hao, Brother, Brother Buy.

Three big brothers, good news...

As for Brother Yu himself, the rich woman invited him, and the business was busy, so he withdrew first.

Ye Jinlan came this time, but with the purpose of vowing not to give up.

As soon as she entered the hotel, the door was not closed, and she bit on it.

What else can Brother Yu do about this?

Go on!

The next afternoon, Brother Yu, who had finished swimming, returned to the room, and Ye Jinlan had just gotten up.

ran to the bar, took a bottle of ice water and took a few sips.

Ye Jinlan said in a hoarse voice: "Is there anything you want to ask?"

"It's okay." Brother Yu shook his head in response.

originally wanted to ask about Xing Lu.

Now, my mind has faded.

Ye Jinlan would do this for several reasons.

Woman~

Your name is Jealous!

Standing in front of the mirror, clenching her long hair tightly, twisting her fingers around... is wound into a ball and fixed on the upper back of the head, and then tightened again and again with black rubber bands.

Use a small hairpin to fix the broken hair and hide it in the hair.

The noble and elegant temperament emerges spontaneously, as if it were born with nature.

"What are you looking at?" Ye Jinlan smiled.

"You are so beautiful today." Brother Yu picked up the phone and pointed the camera at her.

Click!

"Do I have a time when I am not beautiful?" She is still very confident about her looks and figure.

The wow girl mentioned on the Internet is just ordinary in front of her.

The elegant and introverted arrogance of the daughter of the aristocratic family-it's a pinch!

"If you really want to let the ancient house come in, you can think about it. It's easy to ask God, but it's hard to send God."

Ye Jinlan is not against the Gu family, she hates only Gu Yi.

This woman is too good!

Ye Jinlan refers to the aspect of being a woman, playing piano, chess, calligraphy and painting, knowing the book well, and having a gentle and quiet personality.

Don't fight or make trouble, there is a sense of being out of the world.

In other words, a woman like her has no shortage of suitors.

Why bother to wade into this muddy water to fight Qin Yu's idea.

To blame, he must be blamed for being too good.

The temptation is so great that even the ancient family can't help it...

Ye Jinlan understands the truth, but whether he accepts it or not is two different things.

"The other party lowers his posture and takes the initiative to help. I always have to respond."

Looking at Ye Jinlan, Qin Yu said earnestly: "You should be clear about what other people will say this time when the ancient family makes a move."

Ye Jinlan was silent, the Gu family's move was indeed amazing.

Moreover, it exceeded everyone's expectations.

Going to catch up with Qin Yu to please Qin Yu, losing the face of the family.

A businessman, as for such a low voice, he lost his family's face.

The ancient family also fell, and went to please a junior.

Shangdu Gujia, it's never the same again.

This ancient home, it's better to have less contact in the future.

All kinds of rumors and whispers are spreading in the streets and alleys.

In the final analysis, I feel that the ancient family has done too much, even the face and pride of the family are not needed.

It is true that he himself is a wicked evildoer who has performed countless miracles.

In a few years, the Qin Family of the Three Qin Dynasty may be a golden sign, which will be passed down through the ages.

But this is not enough, you have to lick your face to please him.

Your ancient family did this, and how should my other family respond.

Are you going to kneel and lick shamelessly like your ancient home?

Aren't you giving other people a problem and making trouble?

For most children of the aristocracy, since the ancient family took the initiative, they have already lost face and lost everyone's face.

No matter how capable you are, you should obediently come and ask me to invest, this is what the family should be.

The arrogance deep in the bones will not change because of a Qin Yu.

Let the Gu family do this...

From now on, the businessman's tail will not be lifted into the sky.

Where else would you come to beg them, just wait for everyone to beg him, is this reasonable?

Qin Yu didn't realize it. He has a tail that can lift it up into the sky.

But in the future, any family will be blocked by the door, or be ignored and suppressed by miracles.

Even normal business competition may be attributed to what the ancients are doing today.

"Look, this is what your ancient family is used to."

lost face, carried the pot, and damaged his reputation.

also helped solve the immediate troubles and faintly cheered on the company platform.

In this way, if he and the company have nothing to say.

is equivalent to someone giving him a hand, but instead he slapped the other person's mouth.

How to choose is self-explanatory at a glance!

There are ancient designs in it, but you can't help but appreciate it.

can't accept all orders...

So, Brother Yu allocated one percent of his shares to give the other party a chance to enter the market.

For today's Miracle Company, putting a 'catfish' in is not necessarily a bad thing.

"Are you going to let the Gu family intervene in the management?" Ye Jinlan heard what he meant. He wanted to decentralize power.

Has Xu Hao's rights in the company started to threaten him?

This makes Ye Jinlan secretly wary. If so, what does he think of himself and others.

"See if they have this meaning. Recently, I plan to set up a position of vice president to be responsible for the administrative work of technology patents."

looked at Ye Jinlan and found her expression a little nervous.

Qin Yu knew what she was worried about as soon as she turned her mind.

"What do you think, this is out of business needs, and Xu Hao also proposed the establishment of the vice president."

"Huh?" Ye Jinlan was surprised, this was what Xu Hao meant.

"Before the annual meeting, he specifically asked me to talk about this matter. He wanted to reduce the burden and make fewer detailed decisions. UU reading www.uukanshu.com only grasps the general direction."

This is really what Xu Hao said, the burden on his body is too heavy, so he has no private life at all.

"I have to make an appointment with my sister in a hotel near the company to solve physical problems, speed up the whole process, and withdraw after finishing."

"It's like completing the task, the girl you **** thinks there is something wrong with me!"

Although there is an exaggeration, but he said so, it must have reached the limit.

Is there any meaning of 'high power, rapid retreat'? I'm afraid only Xu Hao knows in his heart.

Brother Yu has no ideas in this regard.

But with Xu Hao in front, it can be regarded as setting an example.

"Also, do you want me to come to the company to help?" Ye Jinlan's abrupt suggestion really scared Brother Yu.

This is a temporary motive, she still has an idea.

Are you worried about Guy?

The fact is true, Yu Ge didn't feel any threat.

Because he knows where his confidence comes from.

On the contrary, it was Ye Jinlan, who was threatened by Gu Jia Gu Yi, and he became a little concerned about gains and losses.

even said that he would come to work in Miracle Company.

You know, she now controls almost all of the Ye family's business, and she is the helm of the family's economy.

Leave all this, come to work in Miracle Company?

People with normal brains will say, "That girl must be crazy."

Chapter 1118: Not pure?

"Chief Financial Officer, how about it?"

Ye Jinlan wanted to be a general, but Qin Yu would instead be enlisted.

Qin Yu has always wanted to find the chief financial officer, the formal kind...

Now, the company's finances are supervised by Lixin Investment and the parents.

The chief financial officer is waiting for him, only one deputy director is responsible for all matters!

In the final analysis, finance matters.

Qin Yu didn't rest assured to give it to outsiders, and did not find a suitable candidate.

So, it has been delayed until now.

If Ye Jinlan is willing to condescend, Qin Yu can really rest assured that she will take care of the finances.

The head of the Ye family's economy is the chief financial officer of the company.

is indeed condescending!

Ye Jinlan was a little excited. It is a great thing for the Ye family to really want to be the financial director of the company.

But when I thought that my grandfather was gone, now only myself and-that house are left.

Wouldn't it be cheaper for Ye Haotian and his son to be the chief financial officer?

Although the relationship between the two parties has eased, Ye Haotian also has the intention to take the initiative to show his favor this time.

But when I thought of entrusting my own business to the father and son...

"No, I can't just forget it." Ye Jinlan said aggressively.

"What can't you do?"

Qin Yu shocked her when she suddenly broke out. What happened? Is it wrong to be the chief financial officer of the company?

"Ah, no, no."

Ye Jinlan waved his hands dumbfoundedly and explained: "I mean you can't make the father and son cheaper."

After listening to her explanation, Brother Yu decided not to comment.

Don't persuade others to be kind to others without suffering!

What happened between the two families, Qin Yu didn't know anything about it.

But from Ye Hua's arrogance, it can be seen that this person is not easy to get along with.

Ye Jintan is also a strong person, with a stubborn temper like a donkey...

Even if there is no conflict between these two people, conflicts are indispensable in their daily lives.

Not to mention, there was still inside information that Brother Yu didn't understand before!

"That's true, if you come to the company to be the chief financial officer, it should be Haotian who is in charge of the money at home, right?"

"Haotian, the name is so kind, are you familiar?"

Qin Yu glanced at her twice, and said amused: "What an awkward mess, it's not a kid anymore."

"Why, can't I be a child in front of you?" Ye Jinlan shook his body pretendingly.

But this is obviously not her style, not only the movements are stiff, but the expression is also terribly embarrassing.

She is still more suitable to be herself, aloft, proud daughter of the Ye family.

Shangducheng, that dazzling pearl-one of them.

ancient home.

Guy put down the phone and smiled comfortably. The man sitting opposite looked at her performance somewhat helplessly.

"Sister, is it worth being so happy?" Gu Zhi couldn't understand why my sister was so happy.

Who is she, the jewel of the ancient family, Guyi.

The dream lover of countless sons in the Forty-Nine City, and the goddess who chased after him.

Fairy on the top...

As long as she has a word, the man chasing her can line up from the door to the sixth ring.

Moreover, they are all the faceless family princes in these four or nine cities.

Ordinary people don't even have enough qualifications to line up.

I am so happy for a phone call now.

"Isn't it worth it?" Guy asked rhetorically.

Gu Zhi scorned his lips and said, "I admit that he is a little capable, and he can be regarded as a figure among the younger generation."

"But so what, you are the daughter of the ancient family, my sister."

Gu Zhi became more angry as he said, "I don't know what the family thinks, but..."

Thinking of the rumors circulating during this time, Gu Zhi's impression of the man was so bad.

What is the ancient family's initiative to please, does the ancient family need to please anyone?
do you need? It's a joke.

"The ancient house, in fact, there is nothing remarkable." Gu Yi looked at the lake in front of him with a lax gaze.

Family, how enviable it sounds.

is actually a pool of stagnant water, so I am self-proclaimed, proud and complacent, thinking that the world is the same as before.

The whole world should revolve around itself, without knowing that the outside world has already changed.

Keep going like this, don't talk about the ancients.

Sooner or later, the entire family class will be eliminated by the world.

They thought that being able to be looked upon by a family like themselves and others is a great gift for others.

The reason why the ancient family will stand in line with Miracle Company this time.

And, after exerting force, he didn't say a word, and he didn't even make a phone call.

are all Guy's own ideas.

I want the old stubborn family to let go of their prejudices and arrogance, and take the initiative to show good to others.

Hehe, whimsical!

"Sister, do you take him too seriously?" Gu Zhi still didn't understand.

Actually, he is not to blame.

The point of view that I have been in contact with since childhood, what I have seen, and what I have learned is just like that.

It is said that the environment makes a person.

I have to let the prince understand what civil suffering is and how it can be done.

"You don't take him seriously."

Seeing that he still had an indifferent expression, Guy sighed.

"This is the person you can't look down on. He opened the virtual world and founded a miracle company. The current valuation is more than five trillion.

is also the man you don't look down upon, kicking off the interstellar era, letting mankind go to outer space, start colonization, Mars, the moon..."

"Whoever said the base on the moon must have something to do with him." Gu Zhi whispered.

"It's still this man you look down on, subverting the human world with one hand, communicating, living..."

"Okay, okay, sister." Gu Zhi reluctantly interrupted.

"Awesome, he is the best, I admit, okay?" Gu Zhi said unconvinced.

"You!" Guy nodded his forehead amusedly.

"Don't always think about how you are, how noble the family is, the one that hasn't been popular for a long time, just us people still take it seriously."

"But even if this is the case, you don't have to be like this, so get on the pole!"

Seeing that his sister's face was wrong, Gu Zhi angrily said: "On your terms, he is more than enough to match him, and he should take the initiative to take the initiativeWho makes me impure!"

Gu Zhi rubbed his ears in amazement, suspecting that he had misheard.

is not pure?

What kind of tiger wolf term is this, is the woman in front of you really her own old sister?

"What are you thinking about!" Seeing his eyes, Guy knocked him on the head unanimously.

looks very hard, but in fact it didn't reach it.

"I'm talking about the purpose, the purpose is not pure."

"You should also know what is going on at Shennong Training Camp."

"500-year life expectancy, is it imaginable before?"

Guyi said with emotion: "If you want me to say, they are the future."

"With the continuous improvement of technology, there will be a red line that cannot be crossed between ordinary people and reformers."

"Above the red line is one world, below the red line is another world."

"The Miracle Company is the referee who decides who is above the red line and who is below the red line."

"You said, I really want to have this day..."

Gu Zhi's eyes were shocked and incredulously said: "If there is such a day, I am afraid the whole world will act on its face!"

Gu Yi deeply agrees with his brother's whisper.

If there is a real existence comparable to a country or even stronger than a state organization in the future.

The miracle bears the brunt, and will be the strongest existence in it.

Chapter 1119: I am a big name

The conversation between the brothers and sisters of the ancient family, Qin Yu never knew about it.

At this moment, he is in the settlement center, and the "material conveyor" exchanged from the mall is placed in the transmission room.

This time, Brother Yu was bleeding heavily.

Combine the faith value of the previous balance together with the faith value of more than 40,000 recently obtained.

A total of 57,623 points, all of which were cast on the 'Material Conveyor'.

After buying 5 material conveyors, there are only 7623 faith points left in the mall.

worked hard for several years, once back before liberation.

Looking at the 'board where the robot is docking and debugging,' Brother Yu's heart is bleeding.

no more... no more...

When will Yu brother lead a prosperous life?

waved his hand, hundreds of millions of faith points, "sprinkle it!"

This time I spliced the material conveyor, and the supplies over there should have arrived.

On the earth, use the materials transported by the monsters to create supplies, ammunition, etc. for various wars.

The positioning of the war factory cannot be lost!

Seeing the completion of the "all metal plates", Qin Yu received a call from Xiao Caiyan.

"Um... I'll return your clothes, are you free now?"

"How was the snack street yesterday, see you in 1 hour."

"Is the clothes really sewn?"

"emmm..."

"I'll talk about it when we meet."

Take up the line, and the "material conveyor" on the opposite side has been spliced together.

"let's start!"

Following Qin Yu's order, the conveyor began to spin rapidly.

faster and faster, until there are countless afterimages!

At the other end of the distant time and space, the empty and mysterious cave is full of bionic robots coming and going.

The rotating afterimage in the middle of the cave, as if even the space is distorted.

With the appearance of lightning-shaped black mist, like the last straw that crushed a camel, the space shattered like a mirror.

is placed in the center of the machine, a four-container-sized material box.

instantly disappeared into the deep darkness of the broken mirror, without whereabouts...

In the transfer room, the machine gradually stops rotating.

When the picture is completely still, the crack in the middle seems to be filled and repaired by invisible air until it heals!

Seeing the tall material box, Qin Yu showed a smile on his face: "It seems to be a success."

opened the door of the material cabinet, the ore shimmering with gold powder came into view.

"The fine gold ore is finally here."

With these raw ore, the strength of the titanium rhodium alloy will reach a new high.

There will be corresponding breakthroughs in the improvement of alloy formulations.

Fine gold, a precious material found on 216 planets.

In order to compete with the monster army for the 'fine gold vein,' the Marine Corps suffered heavy casualties, and even mobilized dozens of nearby interstellar fleets to support it.

In the end, at the painful price of paying more than 200,000 lives, he won this precious resource star.

Now, it's the harvest season.

There is adamantite as a secondary substitute, like an ordinary ship...

A spacecraft, such as an immigration ship that only serves as transportation, can use fine gold to replace titanium and rhodium alloys, greatly reducing production costs.

There are also speed cars, home robots (platinum version), these can be replaced with fine gold.

The plastic material is enough for the regular version, and it is more convenient and low-cost to repair.

The titanium-rhodium alloy, which is expensive and the quality exceeds the standard, can no longer be wasted on ordinary products.

Now, shouldn't Jing Yuan say that he is a 'violent thing'!

"Okay, you will take care of the rest, I'll go first."

Explained Xu Meixin and the research institute for docking, as soon as possible to complete the practical planning and standards for fine gold.

Qin Yu came downstairs and stepped onto the brand new Ducati Street Fighter.

Because of running in the abandoned city and Huduo, Qin Yu ordered Xu Meixin to buy some locomotives and put them in his private garage.

Today's refitting factory is desolate and cold, and looks a bit pitiful.

When can I get another batch of tanks from Lao Bai?

Brother Yu rubbed his chin, put on his helmet and drove forward.

After half an hour, the night market street.

On the side of the road where he parked that day, Brother Yu saw the dazzling state guest 650.

"It's so handsome, do you want to get a ride back."

Qin Yu had a slight move, and because of his relationship with the local government, he made a 'retired' state guest 650 is no problem.

Just, the spray paint must be changed.

In this case, I always feel that there is a little taste in it.

"Hey, here."

As soon as he arrived at the entrance of the night market, Qin Yu saw Xiao Caiyan waving vigorously at the wonton stall.

"Eating wonton again, won't you get tired of it?" Qin Yu sat on the pony tuck amusedly.

"No, wontons are delicious, and they can warm your body."

Xiao Caiyan handed him the bag she was holding, with a weird expression: "Um...this is your clothes."

"But it's not yours before, I bought it again."

"Although it is not as expensive as yours, I have chosen with ulterior motives, and I guarantee that it will be more handsome than yours before!"

Seeing her embarrassed and nervous look, Qin Yu smiled and took out the new clothes from the bag.

Dark gray slim-fit trench coat, the material is very soft to the touch.

got up and took off his coat, Qin Yu put on the windbreaker, looked down and asked, "How is it?"

"Handsome!" Xiao Caiyan decisively gave a thumbs up.

"Well, the better I feel." Qin Yu took a seat again and put the old outer suit in her arms into the plastic bag.

"Thank you, I like it very much." Putting the bag aside, Qin Yu didn't mention the previous clothes from beginning to end.

Brand, price, etc., he doesn't care!

I just got the system before, but I would care about it. I always feel that the big names will be more comfortable.

Now, as long as it is comfortable to wear.

Big name?

He is a big name...

Anything can be a big name as long as you wear it on him!

"Don't you ask the price?"

On the contrary, Xiao Caiyan was a little worried, whether he felt that he was taking advantage.

But she really did her best. Who knew that a trench coat would cost more than 80,000.

Luxury goods are too much, are they inlaid with gold?

Qin Yu touched the surface of the clothes with his hand, and said with a smile: "It's very comfortable, and the colors are very fond, thank you!"

Seeing that he was serious, Xiao Caiyan's heart fell to the ground.

His character is too good!

"There are so few stalls today."

randomly glanced around his eyes and found that only half of the night market was still open.

"The New Year's Eve in two days, of course you have to go home early."

"What about you! Is there no holiday on New Year's Eve?"

"We are on a shift system. Last year was me, so I can rest this year."

"Go home?"

Mentioned going home, Xiao Caiyan put down her spoon and sighed: "What kind of home is there? Two days are not enough for you to travel, and you will be back as soon as you get home."

"It's miserable." Brother Yu said with a smile.

Seeing his expression, Xiao Caiyan didn't get angry and said, "Can I still fake it?"

"I am not kidding."

Qin Yu said in a sincere tone: "However, it is because of you that ordinary people can spend the New Year with peace of mind."

"On behalf of myself, I would like to express my sincere thanks to the respected Xiao Xun arrested."

Brother Yu narrowed his smile and saluted with a serious expression.

Seeing his serious look, Xiao Caiyan squinted her eyes happily and said, "Thank you, I have received your gratitude."

"So, today's wonton, please."

Qin Yu put down his hand, a cynical smirk appeared on his face again.

"Hey, is there anyone like you?"

Xiao Caiyan looked at him with an angrily smile, "As expected of a capitalist, greed is all flowing in his blood."

"Since you are a capitalist, you should be greedy."

"Otherwise, I'm sorry for this job."

Qin Yu pointed at himself with a finger and said, "I am very dedicated."

"噗~"

Xiao Caiyan was amused by him and laughed constantly, reaching out to hit him.

Qin Yu dodges, "Say yes, the gentleman speaks but doesn't use his hands. UU reading www.uukanshu.com"

"Who will tell you, I am not a gentleman, but a woman."

Xiao Caiyan rolled up her sleeves and said fiercely: "I haven't heard of it, but women and villains are difficult to raise?"

After the joke, the two ate some cold wontons, and Qin Yu suddenly said: "Recently, I plan to donate a batch of supplies to the patrol house."

"Tell me what this is for, you should go to the big leader."

Xiao Caiyan took a sip of the soup and frowned, "It's still hot and delicious."

then looked at him and smiled and said, "I'm just a small patrol. I go in the wind and the rain every day. It's useless to tell me!"

"and many more."

Qin Yu ran to the car with a bowl and asked the boss to add some hot soup before returning.

"It's hot." Pushing her bowl in front of Xiao Caiyan.

Qin Yu picked up the bowl and blew the hot air, "Suck, ah, comfortable."

Put down the bowl, Xiao Caiyan was also sipping the hot soup just added with a small spoon.

With her head down, she couldn't see what her expression was!

"Just because I work on the front line, I have to ask you."

Qin Yu began to question her, and encountered the most problems during the patrol.

The degree of danger, what equipment is needed, and how can we better avoid problems such as the occurrence of the case.

Sitting in the cold wind, the two of them just asked and answered, completely forgetting the time.

It wasn't until the boss urged him to realize that it was past early morning.

Chapter 1120: Popularity, prosperity

99.9% of the cases contacted by patrols are impulse crimes.

90 out of 100 cases are conflict resolution.

In the remaining cases, none of them are in danger.

Just report, there will be someone to take over.

"Different tune, do you know?"

"I heard that everything related to the new humans is under their control."

"New humans?"

"Yes, the new human beings are those who change. Some radicals define themselves as the future."

"However, ordinary people prefer to call them, lunatic or monster!"

Qin Yu smiled, if he was an ordinary person.

will treat the mutant as a monster, right?

Standing in front of her own iron cavalry, Xiao Caiyan turned her back with her hands in a circle, and said with a smile: "I'm here, I'm leaving."

"good."

Qin Yu walked towards the Street Fighter without any indication, straddled up, straightened the body and started.

‘Cut, man...’

In an uneasy heart, Xiao Caiyan put on the helmet first and fastened her clothes.

Then he raised his long legs and leaned back, and easily stepped on the iron ride.

buzzing~

Turning the throttle, the cavalry slowly drove forward.

After walking for a while, Xiao Caiyan suddenly realized that there were lights following behind her.

Slowing down and turning back, the burgundy Street Fighter couldn't hide the bright colors even in the dark.

slightly lost, Xiao Caiyan continued to drive towards home.

Waited until the door of the house and stopped the car.

Wine-red Street Fighter passed by slowly, Qin Yu in the car waved and turned back on the road when he came back.

"Cut, who wants you to send it!"

Looking at the distant back, Xiao Caiyan chuckled and murmured.

didn't realize how sweet and shy his voice was.

DiDi~

Qin Yu, who was driving on the ring road, heard the rapid horn sound behind him.

Qin Yu thought it was blocking the opponent and leaned against the fence.

DiDi, Di...

The ear-piercing whistle was connected in a line, and a dazzling white light appeared in the rear mirror.

is the car behind, driving the high beam.

'Looking for fault deliberately? 'A red halo lights up under the eyes, and Nanoworms are activated.

Qin Yu heard the presumptuous laughter: "Haha, the sand sculpture was frightened silly. Do you think it's handsome to ride a motorcycle in the middle of the night?"

"Don't get too close, watch out for accidents."

"It's okay, I just scared him."

The corners of his mouth raised, Brother Yu stepped up to speed up, and a surprised cry came from his ear: "Ah, dare you to speed up?"

The speed was increased time and time again, and the car behind was chasing after him.

Brother Yu on Street Fighter looks like a panicked little white rabbit, desperately fleeing from the big bad wolf.

Seeing that he was about to go down the tunnel, Street Fighter accelerated again and dived forward.

The BMW behind it accelerated at the same time, and the engine issued a strong and low roar, rushing into the tunnel quickly.

In the next second, the street fighter's taillights in front of him flickered and flicked like a ghost to the opposite lane.

咚.

A brand-new BMW with a gradient color hit the bumper filled with sand, and the plastic shell was floating everywhere.

The sand 'sand' flows out, and a flamboyant red light disappears at the end of the tunnel.

turned off the fire outside the compound, pushing the locomotive towards the garage.

Qin Yu thought, 'Is it enough to teach them a lesson this time? '

Even if there is insurance, the front bumper and hood of the new car are deformed, and the water tank may have to be replaced, which is distressing enough.

After driving, I will definitely become more honest.

If he is chased by another person today, it might be a life.

either a rider or a driver...

There is no logic to talk about when people are in a panic.

New Year's Thirty, Little Pumpkin gets up before six o'clock.

rolled over and lifted his **** back on the pillow, staring at the red envelope underneath with beaming eyes.

The three red envelopes belong to Lao Qin, Liang Chuyu and Qin Yu.

"Big Brother, Big Brother." Jumping out of bed with the red envelope, the little pumpkin ran all the way to Big Brother's door.

opened the door with his feet on tiptoe, Gunugunu twisted his **** and crawled onto Qin Yu's bed.

"What's wrong?"

Qin Yu asked, standing at the door of the bathroom, wiping his head with a towel.

He just came back from outside and went to climb the window of Lu Qing's house last night.

I didn't slip until after five o'clock. This time I just finished the bath, and I plan to get back to sleep.

Little Pumpkin, who was half lying on the bed, looked at the quilt, then looked back at him.

As if certain, he pushed his body back out of the bed with both hands, and ran to him.

"Big Brother, red envelope." Little Pumpkin held the red envelope in both hands to show off.

"Red envelopes?"

Qin Yu put down the towel, smiled and said, "Big brother, help you see how much money you have."

Little Pumpkin did not doubt that he had him, and obediently handed the red envelope to him.

Qin Yu opened Lao Qin's red envelope, "One thousand yuan, Dad is really generous."

Then open the mother's adult, the amount is the same.

It's my own in the end, so I don't need to look at it.

"Little pumpkin, I'll give this to you, and the other red envelopes will be kept for you. It won't be good if you lose it."

Brother Yu returned the red envelope he gave to Little Pumpkin, and stuffed the remaining two into the top drawer.

Little Pumpkin's head didn't turn around a bit, holding the lone red envelope, opened it and drew a red ticket.

then looked into the red envelope, and then shook it upside down.

That's for sure, there is only one hundred yuan in the red envelope.

Then, no more...

"I don't want you to keep it, I want my red envelope." The little pumpkin raised his right hand with tears.

still holding the one hundred yuan in his left hand, none of them can be less.

picked him up, Brother Yu explained patiently: "Look, children don't cost money.

When I grow up, I need to spend money to buy a house and marry a wife. "

"Do you want to find a beautiful wife?"

Little Pumpkin nodded earnestly: "Yes, I want the most beautiful, all of them."

"So, a lot of money is needed. You have to start saving now."

"Myself..."

"You can't, did you lose the pink diamond bear last time? Who helped you find it?"

"...Big Brother." Little Pumpkin was reluctant, but he answered honestly.

"Where is the remote control car?"

"...still big brother."

"The spring ball, the one that shines."

Little Pumpkin tilted his head and fell into thinking. Big Brother seemed to be pretty reliable.

I often lose things, and my elder brother helps him find them.

So, give the money to the big brother, you will not lose it!

Just as Little Pumpkin was thinking about it, Qin Yu smoothly put the Doraemon figure on the platform at the corner of the stairs into his pocket.

After waiting for a few days, Pumpkin couldn't find the time to ask him for help.

is the same toy found again—perfect.

I am really a competent and good brother!

Under the flick of Brother Yu, Little Pumpkin happily agreed to give the red envelope to his brother for safekeeping.

save him the cost of marrying a beautiful wife in the future!

When Liang Chuyu got up, the two brothers were already watching TV in the living room.

"I don't sleep much on New Year's Eve, did the little pumpkin wake you up?"

"It's okay, I'm already awake."

"Wait, breakfast will be ready soon."

I drank a glass of cold water first, boiled the porridge, and prepared the side dishes to be fried.

Liang Chuyu returned to the living room and applied the mask.

15 minutes, finish cleaning.

Go back to the kitchen and turn the porridge pot to low heat, and then start cooking.

Wait for the dishes to be fried and served with boiled eggs!

porridge is ready to drink, everything is just right.

"snoring, snoring~"

Drinking the porridge, Qin Yu raised his head and asked, "Will you post the couplet later?"

"Well, I will post the entrance and the garage, and leave the rest to you."

"Understood, I will take the little pumpkin."

"Wife, did you give me everything I prepared for the property and security?"

"No! How can I have time, I will be free today. Later, you will go with your son and send it to everyone."

"Well, did you give it to the aunts?"

"Of course, I must give it before I go home."

"Big sister, what number are they coming over, Xiaoyu, do you have time?"

In recent years, several houses have moved more frequently, and it feels like when grandpa and grandma were still alive.

Every Chinese New Year, I will take turns to each family to have a dinner together to celebrate.

It's their turn again this year, so the aunt, aunt and the whole family will come.

"I came here at noon on my second day."

"If you have anything to move around, remember to arrange it later."

"Um."

After the two of them finished speaking, Qin Yu said unhurriedly: "I ask the secretary, try to participate if there is no arrangement."

"Returning to the secretary, are you kidding your dad and mom now?"

Old Qin lifted the chopsticks in his hand, wishing to give him a look.

"What are you doing? My son is busy with the company, not doing bad things."

Liang Chuyu gave Lao Qin a sideways glance, and put a piece of fried egg in his son's bowl.

"I can come back as much as possible, Xiaoqi and the others miss you too."

"Good." Qin Yu nodded.

He also wants to meet with his cousin and cousin, and ask them about their current situation.

Zhang Yue's business doesn't have to worry about it. It's good to have a company to take care of everything.

On the emotional side, Brother Yu is quite curious.

I don't know if the two last time had a winner...or size?

and cousin Liang Guiqi, have you already graduated?

Little cousin Cui Jun is burdening, how is he studying, and whether he has any future plans.

In other words, the place where they both go to school is not far away.

Cui Jun was in Hudu, and Brother Yu hadn't even seen it once.

This cousin is too incompetent to do it. UU reading www. uukānshu. com

"It's fine if you know, your brother-in-law can talk about it. It's harder to see you now than to see the president."

Qin Yu smiled and didn't refute, thinking, "He might not be busy with me!" '

After all, he is also a first lady.

"I'm done." Putting down the chopsticks, Qin Yu took the glue and the couplet and went out.

After a busy morning, I will post the couplet.

The New Year gifts for the security and the property were also sent out, and everyone was beaming.

The value of gifts is not important. Just this sense of identity makes people feel warm in the winter.

Besides, the gift sent out is not light.

are all real things, supermarket shopping cards, polished rice and olive oil, and some hand creams and the like.

The red envelope is the same, 888 yuan.

The picture is auspicious and festive, and the amount is just right.

At night, the family gathered at the table to finish the meal.

Four people, eight meat and eight vegetables, a lot of chicken, duck and fish.

"The New Year will look like a Chinese New Year, the popularity is booming, and the days will naturally pass the better."

"The New Year is all deserted, and all luck has to run away."

Hearing the clichés of my wife, Old Qin laughed and nodded in agreement: "Yes, my wife is reasonable. What is the stuffing of dumplings?"

"Leek is big meat, oily, your favorite."

"Hey, my wife still knows my taste..."
