Levi smiled. "I wasn't planning to run! However, I'm warning you since you're Zoey's grandma. Don't mess with me, because you can't afford to do that!"

The Lopez family was initially stunned, but they broke into a fit of laughter soon. Is Levi crazy? She is the sister of the Great Family of Westford's leader while he's just a cripple sitting in a wheelchair! Has he gone crazy?

Cora's expression changed.

"Are you sure about that?" she asked coldly.

"You're such an idiot, Levi! Even if you're the God of War, Cora could still take you on!" the others sneered.

Levi ignored them and nodded at Cora. "Yes, I am!"

"How about you show me the reason why I can't afford to mess with you? I look forward to seeing that happen because I'd be happy for Zoey and Evie!" She stared at Levi.

"If you can't, not only will I punish you, you'll never get to see both of them ever again!" Cora suddenly changed her tone into an angry one.

"Catch him!" Shaun shouted.

"We can't! If we do, we'll get into conflict with Enyo!"

"Nevermind. If he got the nerve to lie to me, he'll never meet his wife and child ever again!" Cora roared.

Once Levi assigned The Calamity to protect Zoey and the others, he began making plans.

"Master, there have been many experts from the Great Family of Frostford keeping a close eye on us. The reason they haven't attacked is that they're afraid of the Grewall Army," informed North Sky Lord.

Levi smirked. Looks like it was the right call for Minka to get me some protection. It helped me intimidate quite a lot of people to back off.

"Any other suspicious activities?" Levi asked.

"There's none for now. They hide their tracks well! We couldn't find any leads to them!" West Sky Lord shook her head.

Levi had used all the resources he could mobilize as the Crown King to locate them. It's just a matter of time. Even though no one has the nerve to invade Erudia right now, there are many dangers hidden within. Now that the major hidden forces have broken free, they're getting even bolder. In fact, they have gotten so brazen that they're starting to cause trouble in Oakland City. Who knows what they'll do next.

"Tell everyone to pay close attention! I believe they'll be making big moves soon!" Levi had a feeling that might be happening.

Winsor and Minka were completely oblivious to the fact that they had fallen into a trap.

That showed how fearsome The Avengers were.

Even the two of them couldn't detect anything.

Both of them were very alert of their surroundings, but they didn't expect anyone would be crazy enough to kill them both at the same time on their turf.

"Guard the doors!" Minka and Winsor ordered.

Winsor's Asura Trio and Minka's four female Kings of War guarded the door.

"The state of Levi's injury is a bit difficult to..." The two then started discussing how to make Levi recover as soon as possible.

As their masters talked, those guarding the doors started chatting as well.

"I don't understand. Levi has lost to the boss, but he still wanted to fight him?"

"I don't understand as well. Is it really just because Enyo said she believed in Levi?"

"What? Kill us? Have you all lost your minds?" Winsor and Minka couldn't understand why anyone would want to try and kill them.

"Do you have a death wish?"

Of course, it was all thanks to Levi and his recent activities.

It was a secret order that no one knew, including them.

The leader of The Avengers, Golden Mask, ordered, "Kill Winsor and Minka now!"

The assailants then charged toward them, hoping to end the battle as soon as possible.

"Do you think any of you can kill me that easily?" Winning the battle with North Sky Lord had made Winsor confident.

"We'll talk more after killing them! Charge!" Minka roared.

With that, the nine of them started to fight.

The moment they did, however, they became flabbergasted. They're really strong! Each and every one of them is a powerful warrior, and there are so many of them!

“Chop off their heads and hang them on the highest spot of North Hampton!”

Winsor had never expected that there would a day where he felt endless despair.

He was too cocky because he managed to climb to his current position rather smoothly. I just got to where I am and there was just so much I haven’t done yet! Am I really going to die? I can’t accept it! I don’t want to die like this!

Winsor wanted to buy more time, but their executioner was already swinging his sword at their necks.

“Is this it...”

Winsor and Minka saw their lives flashed before their eyes.

Bang!

Right at the last moment, a pebble shot out like a bullet, flying through the air and blasting the executioner away.

The executioner's sword was even broken in half.

The sudden attack spooked The Avengers.

If it wasn't for Levi, Winsor would've died miserably.

Levi wouldn't have noticed The Avengers' plan if they didn't lock down the entire North Hampton. As silently as they were, they couldn't escape Levi's sight as The Calamity had eyes all over the area. The moment The Avengers made a move, Levi knew something was going on. If it had happened at some other place, Levi wouldn't have made it in time.

"I've always been at North Hampton!" Levi answered.

"Eh?" Winsor and the others were shocked that the Crown King and Levi were staying in the same place. What a coincidence!

Regardless, the two of them were impressed by the Crown King.

"You still suck, Winsor!" Levi commented coldly.

The other three great families were getting restless.

Thierry's reappearance had caused a lot of commotion.

On Levi's side, he was still ordering his men to track down The Avengers.

He was taking a walk next to a lake in North Hampton. West Sky Lord and several others followed behind him.

"Our leads told us that a prince from Zarain has close contact with them. The others are still searching for more clues!" West Sky Lord revealed.

"Zarain?" Levi gritted his teeth.

His anger flared up when he heard the name.

Levi suffered under their hands before.

They were a group of despicable people known for their underhand tricks.

They would do anything to get what they want.

There was a massacre at the borders that was linked to them.

One hundred and fifteen of Levi's men were tortured and murdered by the Zarain army.

The Ultimate Great Grandmasters shouted, "I said stop, you fool! Didn't you hear me?"

When Thierry arrived, they were responsible for clearing the area.

Everyone immediately cleared out after they announced their identity.

No one dared to say no.

However, a fool just showed up, and he even wanted to continue wandering around after being warned.

"Get out of my way!" Levi demanded.

He was feeling extremely gloomy thinking about his lost comrades.

And those men were annoying him.

"Don't you know who we are? We are..." They wanted to intimidate Levi by revealing their identity, but they were immediately shoved aside by him.

"I don't want to know!" Levi shouted.

The men were shocked that he pushed them away so easily.

"Seize him!" they shouted.

Soon, the skilled bodyguards hiding in the shadows popped out to stop Levi from going any further.

"Scram!" Levi roared.

It was one thing that Thierry's men looked the place down; it was another that they were pissing him off.

Everyone of the Great Family of Westford was shocked by his response. He's telling us to scram? Is he insane?

"Kill him!" The servant behind Thierry immediately charged toward Levi.

That was an Ultimate Great Grandmaster stronger than the Demon Blade!

If they weren't in hiding, the Demon Blade wouldn't have existed in Bayview!

Pow!

A single punch from the warrior was so powerful that it felt like a mountain falling from the sky!

The intense, terrifying pressure was indescribable.

If it was anyone else that was hit, their entire body would've been crushed in an instant!

That was the power of an Ultimate Great Grandmaster!

"This..."

Everyone was shocked.

No one had expected a young man to be that powerful.

Is he even human?

They did not expect to meet such a formidable force that soon.

“Even six Ultimate Great Grandmasters are defeated by him?”

“Yeah, and it seemed like he barely even lifted a finger!”

“His abilities definitely defy the laws of this world! I think the only people who can match his skill level are the Five Dragons of Erudia in their younger days,” Thierry exclaimed.

Everyone knew that the Five Dragons of Erudia were almost invincible.

Compared to those hidden forces, those five people could be considered at the zenith of the martial arts world.

Even the Four Great Families were not their match.

They were legends!
