Chapter 1391

Judy suddenly remembered what Levi had previously said about him joining the Great Family of Westford.

His condition was simple. If he were to join, he would become the head of the family.

Back then, Judy and Thierry had scoffed at his audacity.

Yet today, Levi's wish had come true. He was about to become the head of the Great Family of Westford.

"If anyone has any objections, feel free to come to me! I'll let my fists do the talking," Levi said with a chortle.

Hit by a sudden realization, George exclaimed, "Are... Are you the Crown King?"

After much thought, he could only think of one person in the world that wielded such immense power.

The Crown King struck fear even in the hearts of the Four Great Families.

"W-What? The Crown King?" Thierry stuttered, shocked to the core.

Why didn't I think of this possibility?

The Crown King is the only one in the world who has that much power. How could I have overlooked that?

The first reason why George decided to follow Levi was that he was utterly blown away by the latter's prowess.

The second reason was that he wished to see how far Levi could go.

As for Levi, the reason why he wanted George to join him was that even though the latter was weaker than him, George was indeed on a league of his own in terms of prowess.

With him around, things would be much easier to achieve.

"Don't look so sad, everyone! You're all contributing to Erudia. Erudia will remember all of you. It is only with faith that you can discover the purpose in life," said Levi as he scanned the crowd.

Looking at him hesitantly, Thierry asked, "Master, what should I do next?"

Levi smiled. "You don't need to do anything. Just continue with what you've been doing."

He still hoped that Thierry would protect Zoey.

She and Forlevia would be safe with them.

"Understood!" Thierry nodded.

In the end, Levi was the one who would help them prosper, not anyone else.

The three-month period had thus, became a joke.

The Great Family of Westford had established a restraining order that forbade Levi from meeting his wife and daughter.

However, now, he turned out to be the master of the Great Family of Westford.

As such, it was a preposterous notion that Levi would restrain himself from seeing his family.

That being said, Levi had not thought about this yet.

After becoming the master of the Great Family of Westford, all of the problems could be easily resolved.

"Don't worry, Cora. We'll definitely present Thierry the medicine by tomorrow!" guaranteed Meredith.

They had to grasp this golden opportunity.

After they left, they started to take action.

Even though Levi had arranged for guards to protect Emma, she would definitely not refuse Meredith and the others' requests because they used Forlevia as an excuse.

"Okay, we'll do it your way. Zoey, we're also thinking on behalf of your future with Evie! I hope that you realize that too."

Everyone was delighted.

With Zoey making the move, she would definitely succeed.

This mission would definitely end in success.

Zoey stared at her family in despair, not expecting them to do such a thing just for the benefit of the families.

They were simply too despicable.

If she could be reborn, she would definitely not want to be part of the Lopez and Black families.

She knew that if she did not deal with this matter personally, Levi or Emma would definitely be harmed.

As she did not wish for any of them to be harmed, she decided that it was best for her to resolve it herself.

In the manor, Levi did not expect Zoey to come.

Surprised, he asked immediately, "Have you forgiven me, Zoey?"

She shook her head coldly. "No, I haven't."

"Then, why are you here?" asked Levi.

Staring at him, Zoey hesitated for a long time before mustering up her courage and asking, "Can you give me your reward?"

"Sure."

“Tell me, what reward do you want?” Thierry asked as he looked at the rest.

Since the gift was effective, the Lopez and Black families were delighted.

Cora was happy too.

After exchanging a glance with each other, Harry and Meredith said, “Mr. Langston, we only wish for the Lopez and Black families to be part of the Great Family of Westford! From now on, all of our generations will follow the Great Family of Westford and your every instruction!”

This was the two families’ greatest wish.

If fulfilled, the Lopez and Black families would rise to greatness.

After all, they would be part of the Great Family of Westford.

Thierry agreed instinctively, “Okay, I agree! From now on, you’ll be part of the Great Family of Westford. Someone, announce the news to the rest right now!”

“Really? Thank you, Mr. Langston! The Lopez and Black families hereby pledge our allegiance to you!”

The members of the Lopez and Black families fell to their knees and thanked Thierry profusely.

Now that the elders have managed to bring their families to the peak of success, their greatest wish had been fulfilled.

“Huh? Why are you here?” Levi looked at them.

It’s such a busy day today. Everyone’s coming here!

“Sire, I need to discuss with you about the Great Family of Westford...” said Thierry with a smile.

“Speak!”

Wiping the cold sweat on his forehead, Thierry continued, “Sire, I’d like to let the Lopez family from North Hampton and the Black family from South City to join the Great Family of Westford. What’s your opinion on that?”

Judy added, “Sire, it’s actually a small matter. However, since you’re now the master of the Great Family of Westford, you hold the final decision!”

She was expressing her respect for Levi.

“The Lopez and Black families? Why should they join? As far as I know, they’re not qualified. At the very least, they have to be an ancient family to join, right?” asked Levi, feeling intrigued.

“Well...”

Thierry was stumped.

Do I tell him about the medicine?

“Speak!”

Noticing something fishy about this, Levi bellowed at him coldly.

Thierry was immediately frightened.

"Stop! What are you doing here?"

When they arrived at the entrance of the manor, there was someone guarding it.

The person was none other than George.

Since he had not received any tasks from Levi, he was now serving as the security guard.

“Wow! Did Levi hire a middle-aged man to be his bodyguard? Can someone as weak as him even guard the house?” mocked Shaun and the rest when they saw George.

Since they had not met George previously, they did not know him.

“Hey, old man, are you a bodyguard hired by Levi?” asked Logan.

“Hahaha!”

Everyone burst into laughter.

When George concealed his intimidating aura, he seemed like a gentle and easygoing man.

George was about to continue his sentence when Shaun interrupted him directly.

“I...”

George was stunned.

In the Great Family of Westford, he was held in great esteem. Not even Thierry dared to say no to him.

However, he was now being scolded by a bunch of insignificant brats.

“Stop talking and get lost!” chided Logan and the rest impatiently.

George was on the brink of blowing his top off.

“Is it? Don’t we have one right here?” asked Levi with a smile.

North Sky lord and West Sky Lord laughed.

Everyone from The Avengers knew that the Crown King was extremely powerful.

If a fake Crown King appeared, The Avengers would definitely go and certify if he was the real one.

The criteria would be how powerful he is.

If he was not powerful enough, they would definitely know he was fake.

Initially, they thought that they could not find someone on par with Levi’s abilities.

Never had they expected that George would be a possible candidate.

Even if he could not match up to Levi, he was sufficient to be his replacement.

After all, he was the top fighter of the Great Family of Westford.

“Me?”

Even George was shocked.

In the North training base, Minka was talking to Winsor.

"Don't you think that there's something amiss with the Crown King?"

Winsor replied in surprise, "You feel it too?"

Although there was nothing unusual with the Crown King on the surface, he exuded a strange vibe.

"I don't know where the problem is, but I just think that something's wrong."

"Why don't we take a look secretly?"

Minka had always been curious about how the Crown King looked like.

Similarly, Winsor wanted to see him too.

However, he hesitated. "But we can't intrude into the Crown King's personal space. If we're caught, we'll be punished."

Minka glared at him. "Fine. If you won't go, I'll go. There won't be such a good opportunity the next time!"

"In that case, I'll tag along with you."

In the end, Winsor could not suppress his curiosity.
