Chapter 141

The ridicule of his classmates and his partners' betrayal that day had left a deep scar in Levi's memory.

Etched deep in his heart were the faces of Leon and the others.

These people were unforgettable!

Furthermore, Yoyo had refused to back out after their business venture had failed that year.

Nonetheless, she had later gone on to take care of her family's business.

After that, Levi had cut all ties with them, so he was unaware of their current statuses.

However, after leaving the team that year, some of them had gone on to start their own businesses and had become quite successful.

Yoyo and May had done the best. Both of them ran companies with market values of one billion.

Leon's group did quite well too. The three of them were each worth several hundred million.

After all, at that time, only high-achievers could be partners with Levi.

The bottom line was that the less successful Levi was, the more joy and satisfaction they would feel.
As long as Levi failed and deteriorated, that would prove that their decision to leave him was right.
It proved that Levi was unworthy of them.

They looked at each other, and their thoughts were more or less the same.

They were different from Leon and his two friends in that they felt emotional but they would not ridicule or taunt Levi.

"Enough, you guys, shut up! Do not forget that we were partners before. Even though Levi rejected our joint venture back then, he helped us a lot," May spoke up for Levi.

She was full of authority, speaking like a queen.

With one sentence, she stopped the trio's taunts.

Yoyo was different from May in that she gave support quietly.

"Are you doing alright?"

She had a lot that she wanted to say to him but could only force out four simple words.

Chapter 143

When Levi said this, not only did May and the others doubt him, even Abigail found it unbelievable.
She knew her brother-in-law was amazing.

However, taking back Levi Group and the Rogers family business was too far-fetched.

How is that possible?

Even the Levi from six years ago, who was at the pinnacle of success, could not achieve this!

In the face of the Rogers family, he was no more than an ant.

"Hahaha..."

A few seconds later, Leon and the others burst out laughing.

May and Yoyo looked at each other and laughed aloud as well.

This was the most ridiculous joke they had ever heard all their lives.

A scumbag who just got out of prison is going to wipe out the Rogers family, who is worth tens of billions in industries?

Yoyo and May knew Levi only too well because they had worked together before.

Chapter 144

Yoyo would not be moved even if a blast from the past returned in the form of the man she idolized eons ago.

The crux of the matter was that the present Levi was far inferior compared to Luke.

Seeing Levi today, Yoyo became more determined than ever to choose Luke.

May, Leon, and the others quickly greeted Luke when he arrived.

Luke's status was too high, way above theirs.

They should try to associate with him more.

Yoyo smiled as she asked Luke, "What's wrong, Luke?"

"While you were chatting, you mentioned something taboo to the Rogers family..." Luke looked right and left as he replied.

"Oh? Taboo?"

Yoyo's face turned pale.

Luke nodded and said, "Who gave the information that the profits of the Rogers family are related to Levi's core technology?" "Do not listen to rumors!" "The core technology was invented by the Rogers family's own technical team. It has nothing to do with Levi."

“Don’t say such things again. It’s alright if I hear it, but if any other of the Rogers family members were to hear that, you will get into trouble.”

Yoyo shook her head and looked at Levi in disgust.

Are you now depending on tall tales to console yourself?

May and the others were now taking Levi as a joke.

Hansen laughed as he said, "Levi, did you see Luke just now? That's Yoyo's boyfriend. How can you compare yourself to him? He is more awesome than you were six years ago when you were at your peak!"

"Haha, Yoyo, do you now see what a poor choice you made at that time? Your judgment was really horrible!"

"Now that you have chosen Luke, you just escaped from a great tragedy!"

...

Yoyo was still feeling glad.

She often imagined Luke's expression of regret, hoping to see it in person one day.

And now, her wish had come true!

"Brother-in-law, let's leave. Just ignore them!"

Abigail was so furious that she felt she would kill the two women if she listened to their insults any longer.

"Listen, you guys, truth be told, he was once at the pinnacle of success. Now, he is still at the peak!"

The guests were from all walks of life, covering the military, political, and business circles. They were all bigwigs in their respective areas.

It was a testament to the Rogers family's wide network and sphere of influence.

The empty front row seats were reserved for the ceremony's VIPs, who were usually the last to arrive.

Members of the Rogers family had all taken their seats. The scene was a perfect representation of the wealthy and powerful being in a class of its own.

Roaring cheers could be heard when the celebrities, including Yelda Zamora and Zak Copland, made their appearances. The enthusiasm of the crowd was pushed to a climax.

After the celebrities settled down, Glenn Rogers walked up on stage and said a few words of welcome.

Following his opening speech, Glenn said impassionedly, "Now, let us welcome our heavyweight guests of the night..."

"I'm proud to say that the following 20 guests whom I'm about to introduce, are all my mentees throughout my military career."

"First, let us welcome Steven Shaw, Colonel of the First Regiment of North Hampton!"

"Now, let us welcome Yash Warner, Captain of the Kirin Special Operations Force of North Hampton!"

Kirin went up the stage with a stoic face.

The Rogers family had prepared a gift for the man and had arranged for it to be presented to him on stage. This moment had come!

Members of the Rogers family were all in a state of ecstasy as they looked at Kirin standing on stage in his military uniform.

This instant was the highlight of the Rogers family's 40th-anniversary celebration!

The rest of the guests in the audience had looks of envy on their faces as they witnessed this glorious moment.

After today, the Rogers family's status among the wealthy and powerful families was bound to be raised by a few notches.

Overwhelmed with excitement, Glenn announced, "Next, on behalf of the Rogers family, I would like to present the Kirin King of War a token of appreciation!"

Escorted by eight bodyguards, Luke Quarrell walked on stage, holding an exquisite gift box in his hands.

"Look, Yoyo! It's your boyfriend, Luke! He must have gained recognition and is extremely trusted by the Rogers family to be entrusted with such an important task!"

"Exactly! He's one of few who get to be in such close contact with the Kirin King of War! That's so impressive!"

"Yeah! How can Levi compare to Luke?"

Hansen Wood and Leo Watson were engaged in an animated conversation, showering Luke Quarrell with compliments.

To the Rogers family, being noticed by the Kirin King of War was a blessing to Oswald!

Anthony Rogers was more exhilarated than any of his other family members. It was a great honor that his son had received such a flattering compliment from Kirin.

Audible whispers could be heard from the crowd.

They were all envious of the attention given to the Rogers family by Kirin.

Kirin had even made a special mention of the successor of the Rogers family! It was almost unbelievable!

Glenn and Anthony shot each other a meaningful look.

They were both burning with hatred for Levi Garrison and wished that they could skin him alive at this instant.

If Oswald had not been injured by Levi, he would have been able to join the other members of the family at today's ceremony and receive compliments from Kirin in person.

It was entirely Levi Garrison's fault!

“Sir, my grandson is still in the hospital recovering from his injuries.” Glenn did not dare to deceive Kirin and gave a truthful reply.

“Oh, it's fortunate that he's in the hospital though. At least it's not the crematorium,” Kirin said with a wry laugh.

“Huh?” The Rogers family members were puzzled, as they were unable to comprehend the meaning behind the man's words.

Chapter 149

Everyone looked around, but they could not find a person who was of a higher status than Kirin.

The Rogers family was very puzzled, curious as to who it was.

“Who is the person you speak of, may I ask?” Glenn Rogers questioned.

Kirin laughed, “He is my master!”

“Master?”

“Kirin’s master?”

Hiss!

...

Everyone drew in their breaths.

Kirin's master?

To everyone, it meant that the person shared the same status as the God of War!

Back then, Levi had taught Kirin a lot of valuable skills. Kirin always saw him as his leader and master.

No one could understand the relationship they shared.

"Kirin's master is also here? Why do we not know about this?"

Glenn, Rogers, and the others also broke into a cold sweat.

Is his master really my brother-in-law?

She thought Levi was just pulling her leg!

Yoyo and May too noticed that Kirin had stopped at Levi's row this row and whispered among themselves, "Isn't it such a coincidence?"

At the sight of Kirin, the person at the end of the row felt so pressured that he immediately stood up and left his seat.

The others in the row also followed suit.

This was because they clearly knew that they were not Kirin's master, so they had to leave in order to make way.

Tens of people left the row quickly and lined the aisle.

The only people left in the row were Levi and Abigail.

Levi sat there, as calm and steady as he could be.

Abigail stood up and looked at her surroundings. She did not know if she should sit or stand and was at a loss.

She wanted to leave, but Levi was still in his seat, so she did not know what to do.
