

Pinnacle 1431

Chapter 1431

“Oh my gosh! This is unbelievable!”

“It is a miracle!”

“Where is his limit?”

“Is Erudia worth his sacrifice?”

All around the world, people were bewildered by him.

Even Levi had asked himself the same questions, but he did not have an absolute answer to them. He just knew it was his calling—the purpose of his existence.

This battle was tougher than all the previous battles, despite the fact that these men were much less skillful. Levi had a hard time getting past them and was making extremely slow progress.

In his weakened condition, even a commoner could easily inflict injuries on him. However, Levi pushed on.

“You can’t stop me!” he roared, as he bore with their attack and fought his way up, leaving a trail of blood behind him.

step, he bunch of useless fools!” Kuro Dragon kept pressuring his men, shouting at them to take Levi down. Prince William was fight, inching closer to his destination,

Thud!

attack, Levi fell limply to the ground, and “Argh!”

they heard a loud grunt and saw Levi leap into the air, sending all those around him flying in relentless in his attack, and some of his foes time he got himself back on his feet. And to everyone’s amazement, he seemed to come the special feature of his skill. With each defeat, he got worse with each fall, but he had already pushed beyond any imaginable physical limits, and he was not the top of the mountain. The as countless men occupied the sheer numbers and geographical advantage, they

the world how far a human could go, and how powerful the Erudian spirit was what

Chapter 1432

2-2 minutes

On the battlefield, Levi was unstoppable. Regardless of how many times they beat him to the ground, he would stand up and continue with his fight.

His body seemed to have no limits, and no one could stop him.

However, there were simply too many men in his way, so no matter how hard he fought, he could not make it past them fast enough. He knew he was running out of time.

“Crush!”

Suddenly, Levi let out a loud roar, and a tremendous wave of energy radiated from his body.

That was the Supreme Burst, one of the most powerful strikes ever.

Boom!

Boom!

Like a tsunami, the killing force radiated out and knocked over every single person that was in its path.

“Arghhh!”

“Arghhh!”

Horrific screams echoed through the mountain instantaneously, and scores of men flew off, leaving a clear path for Levi to proceed.

Ppfftt!

the Supreme Burst had drained much of the remaining energy from Levi, eyes, and after casually wiping the blood from Supreme Burst a few times, knocking off more men, stunned by Levi’s display of skill and power. No one toll on him. He was coughing and spitting out blood few times, and he had to be his knew he was close to victory.

“Crush!”

his energy, Levi executed the Supreme Burst consecutively three times, and when madness millions of one had achieved that before, and everyone was sure price for that had totally drained himself fighting the many rounds of savage battles and executing the Supreme he had, he Ultimate class, thousands of God class warriors, and millions of men to stop one man, and they were close they had was his best to get back on his feet. His numerous attempts ended in him stumbling back

Chapter 1433

3-3 minutes

As Prince William spoke, a group of Zarain fighters appeared.

They were wearing custom-made armour made with the latest technology. These were impenetrable armours who could transform a commoner into an indestructible fighting machine, and Levi was in no condition to destroy these armors.

Although there were rumors that Zarain had brought along their elite troop, no one had seen them in action.

That was because Prince William wanted to keep his own men safe; thus he kept them out of the earlier battles. They were kept as his last trump card.

He had reached the desperate stage where he needed to mobilize them.

The Zarain troop had heavy-duty weapons in their hands, and they were all directed at Levi.

This unexpected twist of events took everyone by surprise. No one could have guessed Levi defeated millions, only to be beaten by a few men.

“Oh no! He is doomed!”

“Prince William is such a scheming man. What a shameless ahole!”

The Erudians were devastated.

The Zarain troop closed in on Levi, mocking him, “How do you feel about this? In the end, you still perish in our hands. Ain’t you disappointed?”

“Unscrupulous! Shameless!” Levi glared.

If he were to die in their hands, Zarain would take all credit and boast they eliminated the Crown King. Levi knew how the Zarains worked, and they would not have the grace to honor those who sacrificed their lives to path their way to victory.

“So? The fact remains you are going to die in our hands! So goodbye!”

Boom, boom, boom...

Zarain troop trained their weapon at Levi and Swish!

next moment, Levi was seen sliding across the Bang!

man down using the momentum of

Bang!

smashed his helmet to pieces with fighting again, renewing

Prince William and his entourage watched in disbelief, eyes

he was that Levi was milking the last ounce of his energy to put

if he had nothing to lose, all caution flung to the ground, he did all he could and brought down one fought tooth and nail. All he knew was he battle lasted for half

Plonk!

last of the Zarain troop was on the ground throughout the battle, and after the vigorous fight, all that could be left piles of dead bodies, motionless and covered in Erudian banner could not be seen fluttering in the

this is the

when they realized Levi was

Chapter 1434

2-2 minutes

The stipulated six hours had gone by!

Levi did not reach his destination, and the Erudian Banner was not erected at the highest point of Mount Drago.

Alas, Levi had not risen, and Erudia had lost!

It was a sorrowful day for Erudia; she had little hope of recovering from this devastating blow.

The whole of Erudia was eerily silent, and colors had been drained from their world.

"I hereby announce that Erudia had failed to accomplish her mission within the stipulated time, as such..."

Just then, the announcement was interrupted by a chorus of noisy chatter.

"Look!"

All eyes were fixed on the screen.

Just before the countdown reached zero, a red dot rose at the peak of Mount Drago.

A close-up revealed it to be the Erudian banner!

struggling to stand up. The man slowly raised the bloodied banner and erected it at banner was flying

had actually

"We won!"

"Erudia won!"

to be a

into a

a historic day they would be proud were elated! Winning this battle meant Erudia was elevated to the status of a superpower, and no one in Bayview could dispute in North Hampton, the Lopez family was of the Crown King, whom they saw as their backer. The bigger his were crestfallen. They thought they had it all covered,

"This..."

"I cannot accept this!"

yet we failed, and was never failed, let alone fail so miserably. I cannot accept this!"

How could a million men not stop one

Dragon's eyes, and he hollered, "I cannot swallow this

"Me too!"

Chapter 1435

2-2 minutes

Mount Drago was razed to the ground, and the fire burnt furiously, blanketing the area with heavy smoke and ashes.

The news came back, confirming what most people already knew—all life was wiped out from Mount Drago.

They could not find any traces of bodies, as the bodies were bombed to pieces and burnt to ashes.

It was supposed to be a day of celebration for Erudia, but it turned out to be a day of mourning too. They mourned for the loss of a great Erudian.

If Levi was in his prime condition, the public would have harbored hope that he might have escaped. However, after the savage battles, he was feeble and could hardly stand up. No one doubted he had used his last bit of strength to erect the banner on the peak. Given that condition, how could he have escaped from the relentless bombing?

The fact, though difficult to accept, was that Crown King had perished on Mount Drago.

Prince William sent out a troop to search the vicinity multiple times, seeking the assurance that Crown King had been eliminated.

Mask and part of the broken Dragon Sword, and they did not manage to retrieve the Dragon mask and sword, they could safely conclude is dead! Crown in an uproar when they heard Prince William announce that the man who had in Erudia was especially solemn. It was a this was not one of the play-act Levi had conspired with them to put up. What happened at Mount Drago was allowing him

“Let’s accept the reality!”

and only. Erudia was blessed to mood was depressing, as it was a double whammy for them.

unknown to her, Zoey felt exceptionally heavy-hearted, as if there was a huge burden on

Levi. The two had left the country at the same time, and she felt there

Chapter 1436

2-2 minutes

“In the future, I will do my utmost to protect Sire’s family. I will make sure they live a happy and carefree life, keeping them safe from harm. And I will carry out his instructions to my best abilities. Thierry secretly made up his mind, determination written all over his face.

He might have been wary of Levi, or in awe of him in the past, but now, he had only respect for the great hero.

Meanwhile, those in The Calamity and people like George had also decided they would seek revenge for Levi.

The Great Family of Westford wanted to build a huge monument for Crown King in North Hampton.

“This is so unfair! Why did a hero like Crown King have to perish and suffer such a tragic death? Shouldn’t it be traitors like Levi who deserve death more?”

“Definitely! If it was possible, we would gladly exchange Levi’s life for that of the Crown King!”

The Lopez and Black families were grouching at what they deemed as being an unfair world. They sincerely wished Levi was the one dead.

Zoey, while grieving the passing of Crown King, was also worried for Levi.

now? How are you? You are fine, right? Please come out to search for Levi, but despite the multiple attempts, they failed to find him, confirming a killing spree over a small dispute. As such, to protect the fast and furious. Erudia was accused of being unreasonable, and Crown King was his life, he unjustly got a bad name and all the blame as shameless

what an audacious

campaign, as Crown King had a costly blow to Erudia. Prince William’s plan succeeded, and Avengers, he gifted them a successfully execute their plans, they would be in anymore!" Kuro

they were

Chapter 1437

2-2 minutes

"Huh?"

The little girl's mom went over and a shocking sight greeted her.

A man was slowly standing up from the sea, and he was covered in blood.

The mom quickly grabbed her daughter and ran away as fast as she could.

The man got onto the shore and flung himself onto the beach, enjoying the warm sun. He laughingly jested, "Looks like God had refused to take me in again!"

That man was none other than Levi!

Yes, he was alive!

This miracle was all thanks to an ancient skill called "Reversero," which he found in a book back in prison.

rising of the phoenix. A phoenix could only obtain a new life by rising from the ashes. Similarly, "Reversero" taught the extreme conditions, he managed to perfect the skills, and his prowess was greatly test of his mastery, and he passed with limit to how much damage a human body could take. If the body was blasted into tiny fragments, the ancient skill would be of no to thank Jonah

the battles. Although it could not keep him free from injuries, it had managed to keep the chance to make use of the ancient skill to enhance his prowess. Without the armor, he would have perished. Unfortunately, the armor eventually disintegrated under together with Jonah's his body was badly mutilated. There

He might have gained greater prowess, but the most dangerous place would be the safest too. His foes would have never imagined he was right took out his Dragon Ring and carefully cleaned it. After that, he fished how Crown King looked like, so Levi heard about the malicious slanders Prince

Chapter 1438

2-2 minutes

He quickly hid behind the door.

Alas, anything that can go wrong, will go wrong! Someone had tracked him down!

With the bad injuries he had, even if he managed to escape from the hiding place, he would not be able to get out of Keerea.

“Who is that?” Levi asked cautiously.

There was no answer, and the knocking had stopped as well.

“F*ck!” Intuitively, Levi sensed danger and moved away from the door.

Boom!

The next moment, he heard a loud explosive sound, and the door was destroyed.

Crack!

Crack!

windows were ripped from men in black rushed into the room and instantly surrounded was about to strike when one of the men spoke, “Please don’t worry, Crown King.

Family of Eastford?” Levi was our reach is wide, and we are active in the territorial seas of Raysonia and Keerea. We would have first-hand knowledge of the happenings in the territorial waters of these places.” The man, who seemed to be the leader of these men in black,

The most influential family was the Great Family of Frostford, followed closely by the little-known islands. Their activities and whereabouts were so highly secretive that they

the Great Family of Eastford and thus did not expect to meet here for?” Levi an old friend, as such, we had been monitoring you since you arrived in Keerea. We followed you as you escaped from Mount Drago via the sea route. You were stronger than we had expected, and thus we had a hard time following your puzzled, wondering who that old friend was. He had placed the whole country under lockdown, so Erudia could not have sent anyone into Keerea. Unknown to Keerea, the Great Family of Eastford was active in the region, and familiar with the surroundings, so they could easily

God Of War Pinnacle

Chapter 1439

Erudia had a highly effective medication that could have saved Levi's life when he was injured during the battles. It was a precious and rare medication that was rationed out judiciously. As such, even the Dragonites did not have much in hand. When they heard Levi had left his medication to his daughter, wife, and mother before he left for Mount Drago, they felt it was a regretful decision.

Not long after the battle at Mount Drago, Zoey and Emma each received a parcel. It was the precious medication that Levi left for them. This reaffirmed their belief that he was not a traitor.

"Please! You have to come back!" Zoey stared into the sky and prayed.

On the other hand, Emma was weeping sorrowfully. It pained her that her son had to endure so many sufferings since he was young.

However, if one were to ask Levi, he would insist he had no regrets and would willingly undertake the pain and sufferings for Erudia. He was born to be an Erudian warrior and proud to be one.

One day, at the Lopez residence, Shaun, together with a few others, went up to Zoey and shared a piece of shocking news with her.

"Let me tell you a secret, Zoey! There is news from Keerea that Levi was seen there, living in a luxurious mansion!" Shaun's words gave Zoey the shudders.

is a traitor! He is enjoying a good life, after billions, and

Zoey.

think you are still waiting for him! He won't be back! I went on and on, piling criticism and insults on Levi. However, they the Great Family of Eastford had shared, the authorities in Keerea were indeed informed of Levi's appearance. Unfortunately for them, Levi

Levi, but since the news of him appeared, they made use of that opportunity to smear his name by spreading rumors of him enjoying a good life while hiding and members of The Calamity heard the rumors, they were puzzled. Unlike most people, they knew Levi was the Crown King, so they firmly believed it was impossible that he could still be alive. They had searched and verified a couple of times after the bombing of Mount Drago, positive he had perished the

the communication breakdown, they all missed the opportunity and those at Westford

God Of War Pinnacle

Chapter 1440

Time flew by, and it had been two months since the battle at Mount Drago. Young shoots can be seen sprouting from the devastated grounds of Mount Drago, symbolizing renewal and a new lease of life.

Similarly, Levi had come back from the brink of death and was living a new life.

After a good rest on the secluded island of the Great Family of Eastford, he had fully recovered, and indeed, he could feel his prowess had improved by leaps and bounds.

One day, his hosts came to him and said, "You have fully recovered, and it should be fine for you to leave now, Crown King! Please promise not to reveal to the world about our existence."

"Yes, you were by yourself and had not received any help from anyone!"

"And you do not have to feel indebted to us. We are only fulfilling a promise to someone. Leave now, and please pretend you have never met us!"

The Great Family of Eastford had always valued their privacy, and thus his hosts pleaded and reminded him multiple times to keep them out of the public's eye.

At that, Levi could only smile at them resignedly. He was torn as that meant he had to lie to his close allies in Erudia as well. However, he was extremely grateful to his hosts and secretly pledged to himself that he would be there for them should they ever need his help in the future.

had not figured out who was the mysterious person who asked the Great Family of Eastford to help him. His hosts were unforthcoming, despite his several attempts to pry information from day later, Levi left for Erudia on a boat. When he reached the sea waters of Erudia, he was taken aback by the state of high security that greeted him. The border was guarded by many warriors, as if the were defending against possible incursions. As the morale at Erudia was low due to Crown King's demise and his rumored betrayal, it was he saw Minka and Winsor at the checkpoint. At such crucial times, it was only right for the Asura and caught sight of Levi, and really is you! How dare you still come back, you traitor!" Winsor stomped up to Levi shameless traitor! I could his life for

were you, I still mourning the demise of Crown King, went to Keerea, but the difference is Crown King went there as a she added, "But now that you are back, I am willing to give you a chance and listen to your finally realized Levi was no longer

It took a while for that to sink